Funds raised for hospital

The "Alpine Squares" square dance club recently held their 27th annual Christmas Sock Hop for the benefit of Rady Children's Hospital. Over $3700 was raised at this event, to be used for recreational therapy for the severely medically challenged children being treated there. The dance was co-sponsored again by Toyota of Santee, and held at their showroom.

The Alpine Squares is a nonprofit organization which promotes America's National Folk Dance (Square Dancing) and provides social and recreational benefits to its members. The Club originated in Alpine, CA in 1978, and subsequently relocated to Lakeside, CA.

The Alpine Squares, along with other square dance clubs in San Diego County, perform square dance demonstrations at various civic and patriotic events including the Del Mar Fair, Balboa Park, Seaport Village, in parades, at schools, and at other public activities.

Membership is open to singles, couples, and families. Spectators are welcome to visit Club dances. Classes to learn square dancing are offered on an annual basis. Open Houses to introduce members of the public to square dancing will be held on three Fridays: Jan. 20, 27, and Feb. 3. Further information is available on the Alpine Squares Website: www.alpinesquares.com abundance of Christmas joy to eighteen area families!

"Thank you to everyone who made it possible for these 18 families to have food in their cupboard and an overflowing pile of gifts under their Christmas trees for toddlers and teens alike. Mary Tedesco, of the Alpine Fire Department, coordinated this effort and forwarded a thank you list of all who contributed to making this a very, Merry Christmas for so many families. Thank you to the Alpine Firefighter Local, all the residents who contributed to the Alpine Fire Department Toy Drive, PAR Electric Co., California Bank and Trust staff and customers, Jeff Campbell and his Holiday Food Drive Crew and Queen of Angels parishioners. Everyone's generosity was overwhelming!"

provides time lapse progress of San Vicente Dam raise

The San Diego County Water Authority has a new web-based camera system at San Vicente Dam that allows the public to watch progress on the world's largest roller-compacted concrete dam raise. Two cameras offer broad views of construction activities, enabling viewers on the website to see the dam rise up from its foundation, as concrete is placed layer upon layer to bring the new dam to its full height of 337 feet.

Weeks of dam raise work are compressed into brief time-lapse videos. The camera system also posts two new high-resolution photographs every 30 minutes. The updated photographs and time-lapse images are posted on the San Vicente Dam Raise web page at www.sdcwa.org/san-vicente-dam-raise.

El Cajon highlights —

by Monica Zech,
City of El Cajon Public
Information Officer

Happy New Year! If your plans include alcoholic beverages, please plan ahead for a sober designated driver. Also be alert behind the wheel – and make sure you and your passengers are buckled up for the ride!

El Cajon City offices closed for an extended holiday closure

A planned extended holiday closure is now underway for El Cajon City offices - December 23, 2011, through January 2, 2012. This includes City Hall, the Recreation Centers, the Public Works Yard and Fire Administration offices. Regular office hours will resume on Tuesday, January 3, 2012. We look forward to serving you in the New Year!

The El Cajon Police Station will be closed December 30 and January 2. They will be open December 27, 28, and 29.

Activity in neighborhood parks is relatively busy during the winter school break. To accommodate community needs, all neighborhood parks will remain accessible including outdoor restrooms (closed December 31). For those wishing to try out their new skates or skateboards - Kennedy Skatepark will also be open on December 27 through 30 and January 1 from 1. to 9 p.m. Wells Dog Park will be closed on January 1, 2012. These closures will not impact emergency services, such as police, fire and public works. In an emergency, call 9-1-1. For all non-life threatening emergency needs, call (619) 579-3311.

Grand Re-Opening Celebration of Renette Park Community Center

Renovations are complete and the Renette Park Community Center is now open - register for the Winter classes! See all the beautiful renovations. Plan to attend the official Grand Re-Opening of the Renette Park Center, Thursday, Feb. 2, 3 to 6:30 p.m., at 935 South Emerald Avenue. Enjoy facility tours, program demonstrations and the ribbon cutting ceremony at 4 p.m. For more information, call (619) 441-1754.

Knox House Museum activity in January

The Knox House Museum will be featuring a special exhibit of Children's Toys On The Frontier, Saturday, Jan. 7, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m., at 280 N. Magnolia Avenue in El Cajon. Plus, if you love to read, the Knox Readers History Book Club will feature a discussion on "Lincoln", Wednesday, Jan. 11, 2 p.m., at the Knox House Museum - and everyone is welcome! For more information on these exhibits, tours and the book club, please visit www.elcajonhistory.org, or call (619) 444-3800.

You could be the next Miss El Cajon or Miss El Cajon Teen

If you are a young lady, age 13 to 24, you're invited to attend a pageant orientation on Sunday, Jan. 22, 2012 at Kennedy Recreation Center, 1 p.m., at 1675 East Madison Avenue. There are no entry fees. This is your opportunity to meet new people and make lasting friendships by representing your City and promote volunteerism in your community. The pageant will be held on March 3, 6 p.m., at Cuyamaca College Theater. A Miss Rancho San Diego and Miss Rancho San Diego Teen will also be selected. Over $2,000 in scholarships will be awarded. Judging is on poise, personality, evening gown wear and a personal interview, no swimsuits or talent competition. For more information, please email your questions to misselcajon@cox.net, or call (619) 390-0061. More information can be found on Facebook by searching Miss El Cajon.

El Cajon Police Holiday Storefront closes Friday

If you haven't seen the El Cajon Police Holiday Storefront in the Westfield Parkway Plaza mall, there are just a couple of days left - closing December 30. The storefront is located near the entrance to Dick's Sporting Goods. See a restored 1942 Police vehicle, numerous law enforcement photos and displays, plus valuable safety information, from home security to disaster preparedness, from both police and fire. The storefront is open weekdays from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. As always, don't forget to place your store bought items in the trunk, or covered in your vehicle to prevent theft. Safe shopping!

Ready to spend your holiday cash - come to downtown El Cajon!

Visit the fun and unique shopping areas of downtown El Cajon, and enjoy one of many delicious dining areas available! Shops along Main Street includes a variety of clothing stores, jewelry and specialty shops, hair salons, relaxing massages, psychic readings, special framing for that special photo or work of art, and numerous art galleries and museums. Have lunch or dinner at any one of our great restaurants, from Italian, Mediterranean, and Mexican food - to your favorite American classics of salads, burgers, steaks, even a new brewery! If you haven't been downtown for a while - stop in, and discover all the great things we have to offer, not only during the holidays, but year-round!

One vacancy on the El Cajon Personnel Commission

The City of El Cajon announces it's accepting applications for one vacancy on the Personnel Commission. Among their duties, the Personnel Commission hears employee appeals and alleged violations of personnel rules or matters involving alleged discrimination and certifies its findings to City Council. The Commission reviews classification specifications and investigates and makes recommendations on personnel policy. The City Council will make an appointment to the Commission from a list of three applicants nominated by the four seated members of the Personnel Commission. The three applicants selected for nomination will be notified of the date and time of the City Council meeting and the Personnel Commission meeting. The appointed Commissioner will serve a four (4) year term. Requirements: Applicants must be a resident of the City for not less than one year prior to appointment and continue to reside in the City during the term of office. Personnel Commissioners are required to comply with Ethics training requirements and file a Statement of Economics Form 700 according to provisions of the Political Reform Act, the Fair Political Practices Commission, and the City's Conflict of Interest Code. The Council shall make one appointment from a list of three persons nominated by the four appointed Personnel Commission members, except when an incumbent is to be re-nominated in which case 1 name may be submitted. Interested applicants should contact Judi Gonzalez in the Human Resources Department at (619) 441-1736 by January 13, 2012.

NOTE: See City Hall holidays closures at beginning of article. An application form is available on the City's website at www.cityofelcajon.us on the Home Page, under the heading "What's New." Application forms are also available in the City Clerk's Office, First Floor City Hall, 200 Civic Center Way, El Cajon, CA 92020, or call the City Clerk's office at (619) 441-1763.

"The value of this camera technology is that it helps the Water Authority document the historic record of this major construction project, while at the same time allowing members of the public to view its progress online," said Water Authority Board Chair Michael T. Hogan. "This dam raise will help protect the region's economy, job base and quality of life by increasing the amount of water available for use within the county."

The Water Authority is raising San Vicente Dam by 117 feet, more than doubling the storage capacity of San Vicente Reservoir. This additional storage surpasses the capacity of any existing reservoir in San Diego County.

When complete, the expanded reservoir will have the capacity to hold 52,000 acre-feet of water for potential emergency use (an acre-foot is approximately 326,000 gallons of water – enough to cover a football field one foot deep) and an additional 100,000 acre-feet of water during wet years, for use in subsequent dry years.

The San Vicente Dam, which is owned and operated by the city of San Diego, is currently closed to all recreation. Once the dam raise is complete and the reservoir is refilled, it will reopen to recreation sometime between 2014 and 2017, depending on rainfall and supply and demand for water.

Credit Union is collecting toys for Rady Children's Hospital

San Diego County Credit Union (SDCCU), San Diego's largest locally-owned financial institution with three local East County branch offices in El Cajon, La Mesa and Santee, is collecting toys for Rady Children's Hospital – San Diego, the largest children's hospital in California. As part of SDCCU's second annual Winter Toy Drive, new unwrapped toys can be dropped off at any one of SDCCU's 28 branch locations in San Diego, Riverside and Orange counties through Jan. 7, 2012. SDCCU's East County branches are located at 312 W. Main St. in El Cajon, 8555 Fletcher Parkway in La Mesa and 286 Town Center Parkway in Santee.

"We are proud to support Rady Children's Hospital in the collection of toys that will hopefully make the day a little brighter for Rady patients all year round," said Teresa Halleck, SDCCU president/CEO. She said donated items are expected to be used throughout the year as gifts to individual patients in various age groups, as well as utilized in playrooms, support groups, as in-room activities for patients and in conjunction with therapies. For more information, visit www.sdccu.com.

Lakeside Roundup of events

by Patt Bixby
Lakeside/Santee Sheriff's end of year report

San Diego County Sheriff's Department Captain Edward Musgrove, Santee Patrol Station, has been with the Sheriff's Department 23 years. Musgrove has spent the last year and a half as Captain of the Santee Patrol Station. "I feel it is a privilege to be the Captain in the East County, which includes Lakeside," he said.

"Lakeside is a very nice community as I have witnessed during the recent Spirit of Christmas and community tree lighting" Musgrove said. He spoke about having a community forum at the Lakeside Community Center during the last week in January or the first week in February. "I feel very comfortable talking to the public and answering questions," said Musgrove. "I enjoy the chance to meet with the public."

Two Sheriffs have retired and eight new Sheriff's have been deployed. Lakeside is well staffed with more Sheriff's than Santee. One Sheriff is contracted to the Barona Band of Mission Indians.

Continual problems in the area include: Identity theft; methamphetamine manufactures, and heroin.

The Sheriff's Department has been keeping a close eye on Lindo Lake Park. A number of apartment managers have been working with the Sheriff's Department to control nuisance tenants.

Captain Musgrove is available to citizens who would like to meet with him to discuss a specific issue. Contact the Santee Patrol Station at (619) 956-4001 for further information.

Lakeside School temporary buildings notification

A representative from the Lakeside Union School District contacted residents near the East County Academy of Learning (the old Eucalyptus Hills Elementary School) to notify them that the next six to 12 months temporary classrooms will be stored in the north field of the school grounds.

The temporary classrooms will be moved to various schools around the district during the year.

Pedestrian safety tips

In the City of El Cajon, across the County and the Nation, while overall traffic deaths have dropped a bit, pedestrian deaths have risen. Please WALK carefully, as well as drive carefully. Here are some life-saving reminders through the link below.

Parents are the most important models of proper pedestrian behavior for children.

Cross streets safely. Cross at a corner, using traffic signals and crosswalks. Try to make eye contact with drivers before crossing in front of them. Do not assume that because you can see the driver, the driver can see you.

Look left, right and left again when crossing, and keep looking as you cross. Walk, do not run, across the street.

Walk on sidewalks or paths. If there are no sidewalks, walk facing traffic as far to the left as possible.

Be a safe pedestrian around cars. Watch for cars that are turning or backing up.

Parents and kids should hold hands in parking lots.

Set pedestrian safety rules for your children.

Never allow children under age 10 to cross streets alone.

Adult supervision is essential until you are sure a child has good traffic skills and judgment.

Children should walk on direct routes with the fewest street crossings.

Make sure children know to cross 10 feet in front of a school bus, never behind, and to wait for adults on the same side of the street as the school bus loading or unloading zone.

Teach your child never to run out into a street for a ball, a pet or any other reason.

Help create an environment that's safe for pedestrians.

Make sure your child plays in safe places away from motor vehicles, such as yards, parks and playgrounds and never in the street. Fence off play areas from driveways and streets.

Buy clothing and accessories incorporating retro reflective materials for your family to wear at dawn and dusk, in the evening and during other low-light situations, such as rainy or foggy weather.

Check frequently for children when backing out of a driveway or a parking space.

In addition: When walking at night - be seen, wear light colored clothing and/or wear reflective tape on your clothing. Do not jay-walk/mid-block cross, cross in well lit areas, cross at corners where motorists expect, do not step in front of moving vehicles, make sure you've been seen and traffic has stopped before crossing. Parents - be a good safety role model for your children.

Motorists drive alert - watch for pedestrians. Don not drive distracted or impaired.

Lets work together to improve the safety of our roadways. Thank you for helping us to educate the public on these reminders.

Note: Since October 13, four pedestrians have been struck in the City of El Cajon, three have died. Go to www.elcajonpolice.org and go to press releases to see each incident. These incidents occurred in various parts of our City. In the evening, most wearing dark clothing.

Hitting a dead end

by Judy Callihan Warfield

There is little doubt that these are difficult times. Many people often feel they have hit a dead end. Perhaps it's a loss of a job or home and it's difficult to get back on track. Even though it may be difficult try to take the time and reframe the way of thinking about things. Go back in time and recall what goals and dreams were present in earlier times or what career was considered back in school. Have you followed that dream and goal or did instead get sidelined along the way and took a different path?

For many people this is the perfect opportunity to understand that for anyone who feels they have hit the bottom, there is nowhere else to go but up. Often when we don't want to change careers or feel forced to start all over or at the bottom. For many who lost their jobs they free to try other career options they might never would have considered before.

For those who have lost their homes now is an opportunity to investigate other areas to live in. We can't discount the current economic issues but we can - must - move forward rather than staying stuck in the guilt, shame, and blame of the past. Look at situations as an opportunity to create a new and better lifestyle. Just the action of making decisions empowers one with the feeling of being back in control and moving forward rather than feeling like there is nothing one can do or it's out of our control to modify.

Go to a temp agency and see what is available. Don't feel pressured that this will be your career for the next 20 years. Instead investigate career paths that you may have not ventured to try before.

Judy Callihan Warfield is President of Success Hypnotherapy, Inc. located 4730 Palm Ave. #205, La Mesa, CA. and can be reached by calling 619-303-8511 or email judy@successhypnotherapy.com. Further info is on the web site of www.successhypnotherapy.com or call for free phone consultation.

New Year quotes

An optimist stays up until midnight to see the New Year in. A pessimist stays up to make sure the old year leaves.
- Bill Vaughan

Youth is when you're allowed to stay up late on New Year's Eve. Middle age is when you're forced to.
- Bill Vaughan

Now there are more overweight people in America than average-weight people. So overweight people are now average. Which means you've met your New Year's resolution.
- Jay Leno

We meet today

Inspiration

If you can't resolve 'em, perfect last year's mistakes

An old year is fading and a new year is upon us again. Each year I go kicking and screaming into the New Year, and not because I am against change. My pants pocket is full of change.

I simply cannot remember to change the year on the checks I write until May. By the time, I remember the correct year I have forgotten to make deposits into my checking account. I need a reality check, which with any luck will not bounce as high as my checkbook.

That is not the only reason I hesitate going into a new year. The biggest reason has to do with the mistakes I made during the old year.

Looking back over the old year, I worry that my blunders were not as bad as they could have been. Did I make all the gaffes I possibly could? Did I fill my quota? What is my quota, anyway?

For many people, the New Year offers the opportunity to start over again. Actually, what happens is people simply make new mistakes curiously similar to the mistakes made during the old year.

If I have any resolution for the New Year it would be to perfect the mistakes I have already made. I do not see any sense in making new bloopers when I can easily requisition the old ones for duty during the New Year.

And what is wrong with my old mistakes? The only thing I can think of is that I did not work hard enough to make the most of them. It is one thing to make a mistake, but it is quite another thing to perfect the art of making a mistake so that you do not have to repeat it ever again. Too many amateurs have given mistake-making a bad name.

Most of my mistakes have been so poorly discharged that in the coming New Year I will have to re-do many of them. And, frankly, I am tired of it all. I am anxious to move on to new areas of mistake making.

I am convinced there are faux pas to make that I have not dreamed of at this point in my life. Believe me, I have been dreaming. Actually, the gracious mistress of the Parsonage thinks they are all nightmares. However, my horsing around is not limited to the nighttime.

With that in mind, my resolution for the New Year is to make sure all mistakes I make (and there will be plenty, I assure you) will be as thorough as possible. I refuse to execute any mistake before its time.

Some mistakes take lots of time to fully mature, but when its time comes, I want to make sure it is implemented as smoothly and as perfectly as possible.

If I am any judge of character, the majority of people will not make any new mistakes this coming New Year. Oh, they think they are making new mistakes but in reality, they are dusting off old ones and re-dating them for the current year. What a waste of time, in my opinion.

For those who take mistake-making seriously, allow me to offer some help to guide this pursuit in the coming New Year.

Look back over the old year and make a list of all of the mistakes you have made. If you are a husband, solicit help from your wife, who will be able to remember all of those mistakes you have forgotten. (Not to mention one or two you did not make.)

Go over each mistake on your list and determine if it needs repeated for the New Year. It does not make sense in doing new mistakes if you are not finished with the old ones. Nothing is more disheartening than a half-baked mistake.

For every mistake from the previous year not needing repeated, place a nice red star in front of it. That mistake can now go into your Hall of Blame, which you will never have to repeat again.

Of course, you will have some mistakes, even though they have been perfectly executed are well worth repeating. You know which ones they are. Don't you?

Now look at all of those mistakes listed for repeating during the New Year. Prioritize them so you can begin the New Year with a good plan.

As you prioritize this list, think of ways in that you can improve on your mistakes over the past year. No satisfaction compares with doing something as good as you can. One man's blunder is another man's gaffe.

Everyone generates mistakes, which is healthy. What is unhealthy is thinking you have not made any mistakes, which is a mistake. Some people have the strange idea that they live a completely mistake free life.

A mistake well executed is a mistake never needing repeating. During the New Year, execute as many mistakes as your conscience will allow.

The Bible, an authority on mistakes, says this; "If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us." (1 John 1:8-10 KJV.)

The great hope we have is that there is no mistake bigger than God's ability to forgive.

Dear Dr. Luauna

Dear Readers,

The year is coming to an end and we have moved on past the hustles and bustles and demands that pressed on us throughout the entire year. A New Year 2012 is just around the corner. What really counts in our life? Is it fame, success, worldly goals, fortune, how much money we have in the bank, how much money we don't have in the bank, the economy? I think not. I want to encourage you to take a close look at what you've done last year and see what really counted for eternity. In the New Year let's make a difference for Christ.

I think about the scripture, the story of the beggar and the rich man, both men died, Luke 16:19-31. The beggar ended up in the bosom of Abraham, the rich man ended up in an unpleasant place, yet the rich man had the ability to look up and see the poor man. The poor man was comforted and in peace while the rich man was broken, hurting and tormented. His riches could not comfort him in that unpleasant place. Proverbs 11:4, "Riches do not profit in the day of wrath, but righteousness delivers from death."

Shall we not make this next year a year of working towards His righteousness? Of course, but not by seeking the righteousness of man, but the righteousness of Christ. For when we seek Christ's righteousness there is great reward. Proverbs 18:10, "The name of the Lord is a strong tower, the righteous run to it and they are safe." Proverbs 15:29, "The Lord is far from the wicked, but He hears the prayer of the righteous." Can we walk in the unrighteous world's ways and still hold the righteousness of God in our heart? We must make a decision to let go of the things of this world. Let our hearts and our minds be focused only on an eternal perspective. Matthew 16:26, "What is a man profited if he gains the whole world, and loses his very own soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul?"

This year is ending and we cannot change what has been done but in the New Year we can make changes; so let us press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus, Philippians 3:14. At the end of each man's life only one thing counts. What have we done with the life that God has granted us? You are important, let's make the difference in the New Year, God bless you! Have a great New Year.

San Diego Film Critics choose best of 2011

Among the nations, many critics voting for yearend film related awards comes the latest – the San Diego Film Critics Society. The Artist was voted Best Film of 2011 by the group. The silent black-and-white film, directed by Michel Hazanavicius, tells the story of George Valentin (Jean Dujardin), a silent film star coping desperately with the advent of talkies.

The society's critics, made up of 17 print, television, radio and web critics working in San Diego County, also voted Nicolas Winding Refn as Best Director for the action-drama Drive.

Michael Shannon, playing a midwestern family man haunted by mental illness and the accompanying nightmares of impending disaster, won the society's award for Best Actor in Take Shelter. Brit Marling, playing a bright astrophysics student with a dark past in the sci-fi drama Another Earth, was honored as Best Actress.

Shailene Woodley was voted Best Supporting Actress for her work as the tough but vulnerable teen in The Descendants. Nick Nolte, playing the alcoholic father to rival sons in Warrior, was chosen as Best Supporting Actor.

The critics honored Woody Allen for the original screenplay Midnight in Paris, and Steve Zaillian and Aaron Sorokin for Best Adapted Screenplay for Moneyball.

The Italian film Le Quattro Volte was chosen as Best Foreign Language Film, while Project Nim was voted Best Documentary. Arthur Christmas was voted Best Animated Film.

Emmanuel Lubezki earned Best Cinematographer honors for his work on The Tree of Life. The critics chose Oliver Bugge Coutte for Best Editing, honoring his work on Beginners. Dante Ferretti was cited for Best Production Design for his work on Hugo.

The score for Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows - Part 2 was chosen as Best Score, honoring the work of composer Alexandre Desplat, who also wrote the scores this year for Extremely Loud and Incredibly Close and The Tree of Life.

The winning top honors were the work of the actors in Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows - Part 2 with the award for Best Ensemble Performance.

Jessica Chastain, with roles in The Debt, The Help, Tree of Life, Take Shelter, Coriolanus, Texas Killing Fields, and Wilde Salome, was honored for her Body of Work during 2011.

"I'm proud with the breadth and scope of the awards given out by the San Diego Film Critics Society," said Anders

Wright, Film Editor of "San Diego City Beat" and President of the Society. "Not only has the Society's members honored a fascinating group but, once again, they've also acknowledged several performances and films which will likely be overlooked elsewhere."

The Society honored Lee Ann Kim, director of the San Diego Asian Film Foundation, as recipient of the annual Kyle Counts Award. The award, named after the late San Diego film critic, acknowledges those who have made contributions to film in the city. Kim is the founder of the creative and successful San Diego Asian Film Festival.

'We Bought a Zoo' – sweet, funny and inspirational

Review by Diana Saenger

Animals in movies often attract a special audience. Throw in an interesting story and solid cast members such as Matt Damon, Scarlett Johansson and Thomas Haden Church in We Bought a Zoo, and it's the perfect formula for family entertainment.

Benjamin Mee (Damon), a dedicated family man, suddenly faces life-changing events in his life. He and his two children Rosie (Maggie Elizabeth Jones) and Dylan (Colin Ford) are barely past the death of their mom when Ben must change his career path at a newspaper. He's also confronted with Dylan's bad behavior at school.

Looking for a way out of everything, Ben sees a simple solution after learning that a zoo is for sale in California. With little more thought than how much Rosie loves animals, he plunks down the money his family left him, loads up the kids, and the move is on.

What Ben finds at Rossmoor Animal Park is a zoo with animals requiring attention, a business unable to get a license to open until repairs are made, and a house that needs renovating. He meets Kelly (Johansson), the zookeeper, and relies on her to get them settled in. Rosie, of course, loves the animals and takes on her own projects to help out. Dylan is still a problem even though Kelly's niece Lily (Elle Fanning) tries to bring him out of his shell.

Eventually money is almost gone, and the irritable local inspector (John Michael Higgins) has made sure Ben and Kelly know he will not be approving the opening of the zoo. Kelly – who becomes more committed to the zoo and its animals as well as to Ben and his family – rallies her crew to dig in and get the work done. Ben's brother (Thomas Hayden Church), an accountant who advised Ben not to buy the zoo, realizes Ben made the right decision for his family and comes to help as well.

We Bought a Zoo is a delightful and charming story based on the real occurrences of Benjamin Mee as told in his novel. Cast members are exceptional, with each one bringing his/her own strength to the film. Even though his fans love Damon in action films, he's also great in movies with heart. He easily makes the audience feel his plight and love for his children as well as admiration for trying to finish what he starts. The growing relationship between Ben and Kelly is fun to watch, with director and co-writer Cameron Crowe and co-writer

Matt Damon, Colin Ford, Thomas Hayden Church, Scarlett Johansson and Maggie Elizabeth Jones star in We Bought a Zoo. Photo Credit: Neal Preston – TM / 20th Century Fox

Aline Brosh McKenna not overplaying it. Crowe also does a great job directing.

Johansson is subtle in the role of a woman handling a lot on her plate. All three young actors are great to watch. Jones looks adorable and steals every scene she's in. Ford, a huge TV star, handles his role as a problem teen with enough angst to make every situation believable. Fanning (Reserva- tion Road, Somewhere) appears charming as Lily, who acts giddy about Dylan until he doesn't respond to her allure. These kids really keep this plot moving.

Parents should be warned concerning several scenes about the youngsters and Ben dealing with the death of their mom and wife. Overall though, We Bought a Zoo is a sweet, funny and inspirational movie.

'The Artist' – breaks the mold of modern movies

Berenice Bejo and Malcolm McDowell star in The Artist. Photo Credit: The Weinstein Company

Review by James Colt Harrison

It's silent and in black and white. Director Michel Hazanavicius said in a New York magazine interview with writer Jada Yuan, that the silent movie is "a universal language. It's a sensual experience, like music of paintings." Thus, he shot The Artist both as a silent movie and in crisp black and white. Unusual? For today, yes, but not so unusual in the history of Hollywood. Don't forget, films began as black and white photoplays that were soundless. Nobody talked. There were titles at the bottom of the screen to get plot points over to the audience.

A riveting fusion of visuals, dance, music and fantasy that immerses audiences in Michael's creative world, Michael Jackson The Immortal World Tour unfolds Michael Jackson's artistry before the eyes of the audience. Aimed at lifelong fans as well as those experiencing Michael's creative genius for the first time, the show captures the essence, soul and inspiration of the King of Pop, celebrating a legacy that continues to transcend generations.

The Immortal World Tour takes place in a fantastical realm where we discover Michael's inspirational Giving Tree—the wellspring of his creativity. The secrets of Michael's inner world are unlocked—his love of music and dance, fairy tale and magic, and the fragile beauty of nature.

The underpinnings of The Immortal World Tour are Michael Jackson's powerful, inspirational music and lyrics—the driving force behind the show—brought to life with extraordinary power and breathless intensity. Through unforgettable performances Michael Jackson The Immortal World Tour underscores Michael's global messages of love, peace and unity.

Writer and Director Jamie King has been called one of the most influential "movers and shakers" in the music industry, and the "Jerry Bruckheimer of tent-pole concert tours" by Variety. A multiple Emmy Award® and MTV Video Music Award® nominee, he has choreographed some of the most popular music videos and directed some of the highest-grossing concert tours of all time.

For the past 12 years, he has served as Madonna's creative director, and most recently directed world tours for Rihanna, Celine Dion, Spice Girls, Britney Spears and Avril Lavigne. King has worked with an array of superstars including Ricky Martin, Christina Aguilera, Mariah Carey, Shakira, George Michael, Elton John, Diana Ross, Jennifer Lopez and even Ellen DeGeneres. This is King's first show with Cirque du Soleil.

The story of The Artist is simple. French star Jean Dujardin (OSS 117 Cairo: Nest of Spies) takes on the role of American silent film star George Valentin based on Douglas Fairbanks who enjoyed enormous popularity in the early days of movies. Dujardin did his homework and watched all of Fairbanks's movies.

It's 1927, and Hollywood is about to be shaken to its foundations with the advent of sound – yes, talking pictures! The new replaces the old, and into Valentin's life appears newcomer Peppy Miller (the lovely Berenice Bejo). She tries to breathe new life into his fading star, and the two engage in a melodramatic love story. His star falls and hers rises. The film, however, is not gloomy or sad, but it has many funny and gleeful moments. When the two pair up to tap dance across the screen like Astaire and Rogers, memories flood back about how glamorous Hollywood used to be in those days. This sequence, and others, are perfectly delightful.

Actor John Goodman, who plays the studio mogul, commented that the story is simple, decent and a throwback to earlier-style movies. "There's just something so innocent about it, and it works," he said.

Indeed it does. Dujardin plays a man who is a top star and one who is not ready to switch over to sound films. He's becoming a relic before his time.

The lack of dialogue doesn't seem to impair one's enjoyment. There are certain sounds used for emphasis, but the storyline is not compromised by the elimination of babble. The concise expressions of the actors and the added help of some subtitles are bonuses.

The film first caught fire in Europe where it picked up a boatload of kudos at the Cannes Film Festival. It received a standing ovation, and Dujardin won Best Actor. A funny side note is that the adorable Jack Russell dog (Uggy) in the film won the Palm Dog for best performance by a canine. The film is now being touted for Best Picture, Best Actor and Best Director Oscar nominations. The San Diego Film Critic's Society picked The Artist as Best Picture of 2011.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING PROPOSED ADOPTION OF CITY CHARTER

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that at 7:00 p.m. on Tuesday, January 24, 2012 the El Cajon City Council will hold a public hearing in the City Council Chambers located at 200 Civic Center Way, El Cajon, CA to consider:

PROPOSED ADOPTION OF CITY CHARTER: This is the second of two public hearings to seek input from members of the public on a proposal for adoption of a City Charter for the City of El Cajon, prior to City Council action to decide whether to submit the measure to voters at a June 5, 2012 Special Municipal Election. The first public hearing was held on December 13, 2011. If submitted to the voters and approved at the election the City would change from a general law city to a charter city. A city charter allows the city the power to make and enforce all ordinances and regulations with respect to municipal affairs unless preempted by state legislation as matters of statewide concern. The proposed charter would grant the City powers different from many of those described in the Government Code for general law cities.

A copy of the proposed charter is available for viewing in the City Clerk's office, (619) 441-1763.

The public is invited to attend and participate in this public hearing. Please call the City Clerk's Office (619) 441-1763, if you have any questions regarding this notice of hearing. If you challenge the matter in court, you may be limited to raising only those issues you or someone else raised at the public hearing described in this notice or in written correspondence delivered to the City Clerk at, or prior to, the public hearing.

The City of El Cajon encourages the participation of disabled individuals in the services, activities, and programs provided by the City. Individuals with disabilities who require reasonable accommodation in order to participate in the City Council meetings should contact the City Clerk's Office at (619) 441-1763.

A Mystery in Scotland!

The Scottish word for lake is "loch." Scotland has many lochs that are known around the world. Loch Lomand is known for its beauty and 24-mile length. Romantic songs have been written about it. Loch Ness is a bit more mysterious. It is known for the stories about a creature beneath its surface. No one knows for sure if there is a "monster" living in the water there or not. People have written stories about it and have tried to photograph it. If a creature is ever found in the lake do you think it will look like this?

Happy New Year!

Read the clues below to fill in the puzzle:

People all over the world are welcoming the New Year. The New Year holiday is celebrated with gusto in Scotland. There, New Year's Eve is called Hogmanay. At midnight, church bells ring throughout the land. People join hands and sing the song, "Auld Lang Syne." It is a song to help people remember old and new friends and "days gone by." Have you ever sung it in school or with your family?

What Do You Know About Scotland?

13. small pony from a group of islands northeast of Scotland's mainland

Golf was invented in Scotland. I'd like to dive for all the golf balls that they hit into the water!

A New Year's Guest!

Another custom in Scotland is that of the "first-footer." This is the first person to cross the threshold of a home in the new year. It is said that the first-footer should bring some coal, bread, a little money and some salt. In return he or she will be given food and drink. The first-footer and the things he or she brings will tell what kind of luck the family will have in the new year.

Uh-oh! I don't know how lucky this first-footer is going to be for me.

New Beginnings!

A new year can mean a chance for a new start. Lots of people make resolutions or promises to themselves on New Year's Day. Read each phrase below and match it to the second part to see promises kids might make to themselves for the new year:

PET OF THE WEEK

Skittles is a 7-month-old Domestic Short Hair, spayed female cat. Skittles has beautiful tortoiseshell markings. Skittles has been at the shelter since she was only 8 weeks old. We think this is because she is such a quiet little girl, but once you start visiting with her she really is super friendly and loves attention. Skittle does fine with other cats and with a proper introduction she should be fine with dogs and cat friendly children. Please consider adopting Skittles, she'd love a new home for the new year! Adoption fee $80 includes vaccines, microchip, and FELV test. Her ID# 9434.

Car tips for your winter trip

FAMILY FEATURES

Before you hit the road this winter, make sure your car and car insurance are ready for the journey. Planning ahead can help avoid mishaps that could ruin your vacation.

Whether you are traveling near or far, you will likely be lugging some valuable items such as skis, a laptop or a video camera — none of which are covered by a car insurance policy.

According to an April 2011 survey released by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC), 40 percent of Americans incorrectly believe their car insurance will cover the replacement of personal items stolen from their vehicle.

“The truth is that these items must be covered by your homeowners or renters insurance policy to be reimbursed if they are stolen or damaged,” NAIC president Susan E. Voss said.

One-third of Americans also believe their auto insurance automatically covers a rental car, according to the NAIC survey. However, this is not true, and the NAIC recommends checking with your auto insurance agent to make sure you have adequate car insurance whether driving your own car or a rental.

Top 5 Auto Insurance Tips

- Confirm your car insurance is active and premiums are up-to-date. Have a current copy of your insurance card in the car.
- Select liability limits that are appropriate to your financial circumstances. People with more assets generally need to select higher limits of liability than those with fewer assets. If you are found to be at-fault in an accident and purchased insufficient limits, your personal assets are at risk for the remaining financial obligation.
- If renting a car for the trip, check your policy to see if it includes coverage. Verify potential coverage limitations with your agent, and make sure you are not duplicating benefits from your existing auto, health or home insurance policy. (See sidebar for more tips.)
- Verify your homeowners or renters insurance covers the theft of personal items from a car, especially if you are planning to carry expensive items in your car.
- Check to see if your policy includes roadside assistance. You can be covered for towing, fuel delivery, lockout service, jump-starts and more.

If you are unclear about your car insurance coverage or would like to learn how to lower car insurance costs, visit www.InsureUonline.org or contact your state insurance commissioner. Find your state commissioner at www.naic.org.

WINTERIZE YOUR CAR

To avoid car troubles, schedule a tune-up a few weeks prior to your trip and be sure to get regular oil changes. If you want to do some basic maintenance yourself, here's what Consumer Reports recommends you do:

- Maintain visibility.
If your car's wipers leave streaks of water behind, or if the rubber on the wiper blade shows signs of stiffness or cracking, get a new set of wipers. Don't use the wipers to remove ice from the windshield — keep an ice scraper on hand. If it's going to snow the next day and your vehicle is parked outside, put the wipers into the raised position to keep them from freezing to the windshield.
- Use the right oil.
Engine oil will thicken when it's cold, making it harder on the engine. Always check the owner's manual for the manufacturer's recommendation, but generally speaking, you should use a multi-viscosity oil that has a W as part of the viscosity index. This means it's formulated for winter use.
- Check other vital fluids.
This includes fluids for the engine, coolant, transmission, brakes, power steering and windshield washers.
- Maintain hoses and belts.
You can check hoses on a cool engine by pinching them. There should be no soft spots or bulging areas. Feel for lengthwise cracks in the inner liner of the hoses. Check all belts for worn spots, cracks or shredding fabric reinforcement.
- Prep the battery.
For maintenance-free batteries, check the window on top to see if it's fully charged. If it's not, have it professionally tested. For conventional batteries, remove the plastic caps on top of the battery and check the fluid level. If it's low, add distilled water. Make sure battery cables are securely attached to the terminals. If your battery is more than five years old, consider replacing it.
- Check the brakes.
If your car pulls to one side when you brake, or if you hear any grinding noises or feel unusual vibrations when you apply the brakes, take the vehicle to a mechanic.
- Make sure you have appropriate tires.
Partially worn tires reduce your ability to stop or get going in snowy driving conditions. Winter tires have tread patterns and compounds that are specifically designed to grip snow and ice for good traction on slippery roads.
- Pack an emergency kit.
It should include a flashlight, flares or reflective triangle, a distress sign, first aid supplies, basic tools, blankets, water, and a fully charged cell phone. If you have roadside assistance, store the number in a handy location.

Rental Insurance — Do You Need It?

Car rental companies typically offer these products at the counter. Check to see if they duplicate existing coverage before purchasing.

- Collision Damage Waiver (CDW) is also referred to as a Loss Damage Waiver (LDW). If you have comprehensive and collision coverage on your own car, you will likely not need this additional protection. Collision insurance covers the cost of repairs or the actual cash value of the vehicle, if damaged in a crash or rollover.

- Liability Insurance covers medical expenses and damages to another person's property as a result of a car accident caused by the insured's negligence. If you are adequately insured on your own car, you may consider forgoing this.
- Personal Accident Insurance offers coverage to the renter and passengers for medical bills resulting from a car crash. If you have adequate health insurance and disability income insurance, or are covered by personal injury protection under your own car insurance, you will likely not need this additional insurance. Personal Effects Coverage provides for the theft of personal items inside the rental car. If you have a homeowners or renters insurance policy, it generally covers this already. If you frequently travel with expensive jewelry or sports equipment, it may be more cost-effective to purchase a floater under your home or renters insurance policies so the items are fully protected when you travel.
