In an effort to reduce the number of people killed and injured in alcohol or drug involved crashes, DUI checkpoints are conducted to identify offenders and get them off the street, as well as educate the public on the dangers of impaired driving. All too often, members of our community are senselessly injured or killed on local roadways by impaired drivers. This DUI/Drivers License checkpoint is an effort to reduce those tragedies, as well as ensuring drivers have a valid drivers license. A major component of these checkpoints is to increase awareness of the dangers of impaired driving and to encourage sober designated drivers.

A DUI checkpoint is a proven effective method for achieving this goal. By publicizing these enforcement and education efforts, the El Cajon Police Department believes motorists can be deterred from drinking and drugged driving. Traffic volume and weather permitting, all vehicles may be checked. Drivers who are under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs will be arrested. Our objective is to send a clear message to those who are considering driving a motor vehicle after consuming alcohol and/or drugs – “Drunk Driving, Over the Limit, Under Arrest.” The public is encouraged to help keep roadways safe by calling 9-1-1 if they see a suspected impaired driver. Funding for this operation is provided by a grant from the California Office of Traffic Safety, through the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration.

Resident Leadership Academy

The El Cajon Collaborative invites you to join the East Region Resident Leadership Academy starting in late January 2013, continuing each week on Thursdays from 5 to 7 p.m. This “free” 14-week course will give you the knowledge and skills you need to become a leader in your community. Topics covered include; community leadership and advocacy, crime prevention and community safety, healthy food systems and healthy food access, and resident-led community improvement projects. Upon completion of the academy, residents will have an opportunity to work together on their own community improvement project. For more information and class location, please call (619) 447-4380.

Suicide prevention and support

Help is available, especially during the holidays! If you or someone you care about is in crisis and needs immediate help, call the Crisis Hotline at (888) 724-7240. The phone lines are answered by trained professionals available 24/7; the call is free and confidential. If emergency medical care is needed, call 9-1-1 or go to the emergency room of the nearest hospital.

Introducing Centennial Moments: Sharing a piece of city history

The 48,000-acre El Cajon Valley: Vineyards, vegetables and pigs

The El Cajon Valley looks drastically different than it did in the 1800's. Once home to Indians and the Mission Padres, the Valley's rich soil was ideal for farmers.

Between 1810 and 1821, the 48,800-acre El Cajon Valley was one of the land parcels previously under the control of the Mission de Alcala, located on San Diego Mission Road. Under the direction of Mission Padres, local Indians planted vineyards, vegetables, grains and raised pigs for Mission and Presidio consumption. As years passed, provincial Mexican Governor Pio Pico awarded the El Cajon Rancho to Old Town's Estudillo-Pedrorena family. The Estudillo-Pedrorena family home remains in Old Town today and is advertised as Ramona's Marriage Place.

As a thriving agricultural valley, El Cajon's rich land was ideal and hosted acres of fruit orchards such as oranges, lemons, and grapes for raisins. Agricultural products were shipped all over the United States which probably helped to make El Cajon the fastest-growing town in East County San Diego during the 1920's.

Thank you to the El Cajon Historical Society for providing this information and photograph. To learn more about El Cajon's history, visit their website at www.elcajonhistory.org.

As we continue to celebrate the Centennial Year you will find updates on the City's Centennial website at www.elcajon100.com.

Tis the season to be broke

by Rev. James L. Snyder

For the last several hours, I have been slouching in my easy chair basking in the soothing aura of the season. I have not moved in several hours, and it probably will be several more hours before I even think of moving.

Just a few days ago, we were in the middle of our Christmas holiday celebration with family and friends. The only thing I enjoy more is the peace and quiet that follows upon the heels of all that festivity. Do not get me wrong, I love my family and friends but boy do I love peace and quiet.

Isn't one of the sayings of the season, "Peace on earth, goodwill toward men"? I am not sure of all the ramifications of that phrase, but I do enjoy the peace that comes following an exuberant time of celebration with family and friends.

About this time, the Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage came in and saw me in the same position she saw me several hours previous. "Are you," she said after staring at me for a few moments, "going to stay in that chair all day?"

All I could do was smile graciously in her direction.

Then she became concerned, and prodded me a little, "Are you all right?" She said it with a deep sense of genuine concern. I knew I owed her an explanation for the collapse of my bodily activities.

"Nothing wrong with me," I explained, "I'm just broke." With that, I smiled a rather infectious smile.

She broke out laughing and said, "What did you say?"

I think at the time she thought I was just exercising the spirit of merriment. "I said, I'm broke."

Then she had a look of concern on her face. "What do you mean you're broke?"

I knew she was concerned at that point and I had to explain to her what I meant by being broke. By being broke, I do not mean like the government broke into my bank account and confiscated my money.

For all Americans that is quite a taxing situation.

Also, by being broke I do not mean I dropped my wife's favorite porcelain teapot and broke it all over the floor. Once something is broke, there just is no way of fixing it.

"I'm broke," I repeated to my wife with a whimsical smile, "and it's a real good feeling this time of the year."

She looked at me, shook her head and then went back to her business.

I thought some more on that subject and reaffirmed my idea that being broke this time of the year was a marvelous feeling. If it were April, tax time, being broke would not feel so good. Or, if it were before Christmas, being broke would not be a very good idea.

Being broke after Christmas means several things.

First, it means that I did my best to bless my family and friends around me with tokens of appreciation. That is all a gift really is. I am not a very good gift buyer, just ask my wife. I am the kind of person who thinks it is the thought that counts. I also know, behind every thought must be some emblem of tangibility. I have done my best this year to select gifts that would be appreciated, at least for a moment.

It would be a terrible thing at the end of the Christmas season to have a ton of money left over realizing that maybe you did not do your best this year at Christmas time.

Do not get me wrong. I am a Pennsylvania Dutchman through and through and we do not believe in wasting money. We do believe in investing our resources in family and friends. I am not extravagant in my giving. I do not have it to be extravagant. What I do have, I want to use to bless and encourage the people that have meant so much to me during the year.

Yes, being broke is a good feeling.

Being broke also means I have no room for regrets. Would I have liked to give more gifts? Sure, but when you run out of money, you cannot go any further. By being broke at the end of Christmas means, I have done everything I possibly could within my resources to thank the people I love for being a part of my life.

You cannot buy friendship. Unless of course you are in Washington DC or Hollywood California. Among normal folk, friendship is not for sale. It is not even for rent. At this time of the year, it sure is a wonderful feeling to tell your friends and family you are glad they are a part of your life.

Being broke is a lot more than having no money. Being broke means that I have done everything within my power to bless those people around me. I have given all I had to give and there is a good warm fuzzy feeling about that.

God is the one who set the standard along this line. "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord" (Romans 6:23 KJV).

God looked at the world, it broke His heart and therefore He sent His Son to remedy our situation. Thank God for that broken heart. He gave His all for those He loved.

Dear Dr. Luauna — Time, a valuable commodity

Dear Readers,

The year has almost come to an end. Some are asking themselves, where did the time go? Time is so valuable, don't waste it. It seems like just yesterday I was 25 years old, what happened? I won't tell my age today, but 25 years has come and gone. Ecclesiastes 3:1; To everything there is a season, a time for every purpose under heaven.

Wisdom in life comes from the One who created you. Genesis 1:26; Then God said, "Let Us make man in our own image, according to our likeness; let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth." You were born for greatness, created by the Master. You are special, and made with perfection. God has prepared a plan for your life long before the foundation of the earth. Like the great prophet Jeremiah 1:5; "before I formed you in the womb I knew you; before you were born I sanctified you; and I ordained you a prophet to the nations." We are called for a purpose in this life, no, maybe not a prophet, or great singer or a well digger. You are called for greatness, God loves you so much.

God's desire is to unfold His plan for your life, His love, His perfect will. Can mankind really know God's plan for their life? Yes! How does one find this plan so divine? First, it comes in knowing the Master who created you in His image. Psalm 30:10; Hear, O Lord, and have mercy on me; Lord, be my helper! Like a builder of a great house, he must look to the plans of the architect who prepared the plans, in order for the builder to build with success. If the builder takes short cuts, he wastes time, and things will need rebuilding. Throwing valuable time away, when all the builder had to do was follow the plans of the master architect. Don't take short cuts with your life, time a valuable commodity. Some waste their whole life trying to build their own lives without the Master.

Can the clay on the potter's wheel say to the potter, no I want my life like this or that? Isaiah 45:9; Woe to him who strives with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherd of the earth. Shall the clay say to the one who forms it, 'What are you making?' Or shall your handiwork say, 'He has no hands?' Isaiah 64:8 But now, O Lord, You are our Father; We are the clay, and you our Potter; and all we are the work of Your Hand.

How much time have you wasted trying to work out your own life? It's not too late. Let GO, allow Jesus, the Almighty who loves you so much and has created you for greatness to have His will in your life. Psalm 37:3-5; Trust in the Lord, and do good; dwell in the land, and feed on His faithfulness. Delight yourself also in the Lord, and He shall give you the desires of your heart. Commit your way to the Lord, Trust also in Him, and He shall bring it to pass.

How do you start the New Year off without throwing away anymore time? Ask Jesus to come and be your Lord, to forgive you of all your sins. Ask Him to be the Master Potter of your life, and you the clay. Let Him build your life the way He created you for, it's much more rewarding. Find a great Bible believing church, learn His Word, and His perfect plan will soon unfold. You are born for GREATNESS. You are special. You are loved. God bless you.

Turn your radio on Sunday 6-7 a.m. KPRZ 1210. Write: Dr. Luauna, P.O. Box 2800, Ramona, CA 92065. Simple solutions to help make our roadways safer

by Monica Zech,
Safety Educator & MADD

The holiday season is one of the deadliest times of the year for alcohol-related crashes. MADD (Mothers Against Drunk Driving) estimates that each year nationally, more than 1,000 people typically die during Thanksgiving to New Year's in drunk driving crashes due to the increased consumption of alcohol at special events and parties, drinking and driving is more prevalent. Ironically, drinking and driving crashes are one of the most easily preventable catastrophes. Drinking and driving is a choice each driver makes.

MADD, along with Law Enforcement agencies, promote the "Designate a Driver Program" as a proactive way to deter drinking and driving. This program reminds motorists to plan ahead by designating one person to provide safe rides by staying sober. As groups travel to special events and parties together during the holidays, each group should designate someone to provide a safe ride home. The Designate a Driver Program can be used throughout the year, not only during the holidays.

Simple steps to safety during the holidays

- If you drink, don't drive, no matter how little you think you have had

- Designate a driver before you arrive at an event or party

- If hosting a party, make sure to set rules on drinking and driving.

Offer to provide a ride home or a place for guests who drink to sleep.

Do not serve alcohol to anyone under the age 21. Serve plenty of food.

- Wear a red ribbon during the holidays to increase awareness of the drinking and driving problem

- Educate family, friends and co-workers about the risks of drinking and driving.

- If possible, avoid driving during the early and late evening hours on holidays such as New Years. Protect yourself and passengers by wearing a safety belt at all times, in case of a crash

- Drive alert - don't be distracted - no texting while driving!

Extraordinary filmmaking and heartfelt performances shine in 'Les Mis'

Review by Diana Saenger

Les Misérables, Tom Hooper's ambitious film version of the successful stage play, will totally bore some audience members while enthralling others and maybe even drawing a few tears. Thanks to the 100s of film artists that participated in the filmmaking of Les Misérables, there's so much going on in this dramatic concept that alone is worth a ticket price.

It's 19th-century France and things are not good in the improvised country. The film opens with an amazing scene of prisoners pulling ropes to steer a sailing ship in water up to their waist as their commander Javert (Russell Crowe) watches without empathy. One of the those beaten down shipmen is Jean Valjean (Hugh Jackman). He was arrested for stealing a loaf of bread to feed his sister and her daughter. Having served his term he is a free man, but too quickly he breaks parole and is again a wanted man. Javert will stop at nothing to find him.

Valjean manages a few close calls but when he's finally picked up he makes a bargain to care for factory worker Fantine's (Anne Hathaway) young daughter, Cosette (Amanda Seyfried), it's a bargain that brings good and evil into his life.

In addition to having the actors needing to portray characters with heavy back stories, Hooper wanted the actors to sing live for the film. For the most part there are stage quality performances. Jackman has mesmerized film and stage fans and his theatrical work is huge and includes a Tony Award for his role in The Boy from Oz. He has no problem becoming the misguided Valjean and his "What Have I Done?" is one of Les Mis' best moments.

Hathaway doesn't get enough credits for her singing attempts but that all changes here in Les Misérables. Although her part is minimal most who see this film will not forget her amazing and soulful rendition of "I Dreamed a Dream." Samantha Bark as Eponine also does a fine job in her songs as well. Crowe is not as strong as his vocally talented colleagues, but he brings his normal strength of playing a strong and driven antagonist. Sacha Baron Cohen and Helena Bonham Carter as the Thénardiers are very fitting.

The heartfelt story of pain, suffering and broken dreams comes across exceedingly well under Hooper's (Oscar winner for The King's Speech) direction. The sets and costumes are incredible and whisk the audience away to another century. It's a job well done and honors Victor Hugo's novel.

Fans of musicals and those who enjoy these cast members should not hesitate to see Les Misérables on the big screen, where all of its smartness really shines. Full of heart and sentiment that comes across in many ways, it's one film that can be seen and enjoyed more than once.

Cougars prevail over Aztecs 23-6

San Diego State University senior quarterback Adam Dingwell (6) has his attempted pass knocked down in the end zone by BYU's Kyle Van Noy (3). Van Noy recovered the ball in the end zone for a TOUCHDOWN in the Poinsettia Bowl as the BYU Cougars defeated the SDSU Aztecs 23-6 at Qualcomm Stadium.

by Chuck Karazsia
The BYU Cougars defeated the SDSU Aztecs in the 2012 Poinsettia Bowl.

In a game that was much closer than the final score indicated, the nation witnessed beautiful wintry San Diego along with its colorful pageantry, marching bands and fireworks national television.

They also witnessed a spectacular football game played between two evenly matched opponents, although through the years the Cougars have won a healthy majority of these events.

History would again repeat itself as SDSU played well for three quarters, then fell apart in the fourth. In the first half the Aztec offense dominated with great field position and time of possession. They moved the ball up and down the field but could not capitalize on a couple of red zone opportunities coming away with no touchdowns, settling instead for a couple chip shot field goals (23, 27yds.)

An interception return for a touchdown by the Aztecs late in the second quarter was called back for a block below the waste. SDSU did not score on that drive, or for the rest of the game.

Momentum turned the Cougars way taking control of the game in the fourth when the Aztecs committed four turnovers. Difference in this game was the Cougars were able to convert those into points. SDSU could not. The Aztecs defense did play well enough to win getting three interceptions of its own.

"I thought the team played well in the game until they started turning it over close to our own goal line and the Cougars put points on the board because of it," said SDSU head coach Rocky Long.

Aztecs quarterback Adan Dingwell completed 12-of-29 for 144 yards. BYU quarterback James Lark completed 23-of-42 for 244 yards.

In a season in which the Aztecs had unpredictable success, winning the 2012 Mountain West Conference Championship for the first time, maturity was clearly evident in their player development. Subsequently, SDSU head coach Rocky Long was named MWC Coach of the Year.

"I'm really proud of this football team," said head coach

Long. "Going into the year we did not know what we had. It looked like it would be kind of bad as the season started. They did some amazing things the rest of the year. I think we are going to have a really good football team next year."

The football team and program has 'turned the corner' in the last four years (two under Long). This football team with 22 returning juniors bodes well for the next season although facing a tougher schedule in 2013.

San Diego State University sophomore running back Adam Muema (4) rushed 26 times for 103 yards in the Poinsettia Bowl as the BYU Cougars defeated the SDSU Aztecs 23-6 at Qualcomm Stadium. Photo credits: Tom Walko

2013 Porsche Cayenne GTS

An inside look at the 2013 Porsche Cayenne GTS.

by Dave Stall
I was not a fan of the Cayenne when it first came out, I felt Porsche was all about driving, and fun not grocery getting. I stand corrected. The Porsche Cayenne is a perfect compliment to a great car manufacturer. Anyone love the 911? The cayenne is a 911 with storage. Don't take a peak over the shoulder and it doesn't seem like a SUV.

My tester came from San Diego Porsche on Miramar Road. When I picked it up the first thing I noticed was the stance of the vehicle, low and a little mean looking with red calipers, red seat belts, red stitching, silver paint – bad to the bone!

Start it with the traditional key located on the left side of the steering column (Email me why Porsche puts the key on the left side of the steering wheel and I will kick you a set of movie tickets!). The leather is rich and smells like high-end leather. The engine under the hood is the 4.8-liter V8 pushing out 420 horsepower and 369 foot pounds of torque 8-speed Tiptronic automatic transmission with paddle shifters. Keeping one's foot out of it may achieve 15 MPG city and 21 freeway.

This is a race car with great storage. It features navigation, blue tooth, Bose Sound System, power tailgate, tie downs, and the ability to go off road if needed.

Safety in this Porsche is covered with 2-stage driver and passenger airbags, front/rear side airbags, driver knee airbag, curtain airbags from A to the C pillar, integrated side impact protection in doors plus a tire monitoring system.

The GTS base is $82,050 and mine came out at $105,000 plus tax and license. I would buy this car; it's the most fun I have had in an SUV ever.

PROJECT DESCRIPTION:

The proposed project is the construction of an access road that would connect the Otay Water District's (OWD) Regulatory Site to the terminus of a road serving the County of San Diego Sheriff's Station currently under construction and to a paved road that connects to State Route 94 (SR-94). The proposed alignment would generally occur along an existing unpaved road access road that extends to the Sheriff's Station site and an existing paved road that connects to SR-94. The access road would be 24-feet wide, would be paved with asphalt concrete, and would include 2-foot wide shoulders on each side of the road. The project will also include the construction of new storm water facilities which will convey stormwater from the surface of the access road extension along with the flows from the southern portion of the OWD Regulatory Site. The access road would be used by OWD staff vehicles as well as regional Fire District vehicles accessing the Heartland Regional Training Facility that is contained within the OWD Regulatory Site.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED CONSTRUCTION
Project Name: Notice of proposed construction of FANITA JUNCTION ENHANCEMENT (tie line replacement project of tie lines 13821 and 13828 LOCATED ON MCAS MIRAMAR AND THE CITIES OF SAN DIEGO AND SANTEE, CALIFORNIA)
Date: December 12, 2012
SDG&E Advice Letter Number 2433-E
Proposed Project:
In an effort to meet North American Electric Reliability Corporation (NERC) mandated reliability requirements and to enhance the performance of the electrical system in San Diego Gas & Electric's Company's (SDG&E's) service territory, SDG&E proposes to replace existing electrical infrastructure along Tie Line (TL) 13821, an existing above-ground 138 kilovolt (kV) double-circuit power line located on Marine Corps Air Station (MCAS) Miramar and in the cities of San Diego and Santee, in the west-central portion of San Diego County (see the project overview sheet in Appendix A-1). The project also will separate the three-terminal TL 13821 line into two two-terminal lines, renumbering one of the lines TL 13828. Creating TL 13828 does not entail realignment of any power lines or relocation of any poles. The project proposes to reconductor the existing TL 13821 power line and replace existing wooden and steel pole structures with new galvanized steel and concrete poles, depending on their location. One new steel pole and one new wood pole will be installed along the existing alignment. To comply with mandatory reliability requirements and to bring the facilities into compliance with SDG&E's current design standards, the power line will be replaced with a heavier conductor which will enhance performance in high winds and be designed to meet the most stringent design criteria of NERC or General Order 95. The project is partially located in an area designated as "Very High to Extreme" fire threat zone, as indicated on SDG&E's 2012 Fire Threat Zone Map. As a result, the project complies with current design standards to reduce fire risks and will implement a project-specific fire plan to minimize the fire risks during construction. Project Description:
The project entails replacing and modifying existing electrical infrastructure, including poles and overhead conductor, on an approximately 11-mile stretch of TL 13821 spanning between the Sycamore, Carlton Hills, and Santee Substations. Approximately 5 miles of the project is located on MCAS Miramar. The project also will convert TL 13821, an existing 3-terminal power line, into two 2-terminal lines — TL 13821 from the Sycamore Substation to the Santee Substation (8 miles), and TL 13828 from the Sycamore Substation to the Carlton Hills Substation (7 miles). All project-related infrastructure will remain above ground and will follow the existing alignment. Magnetic Field Management:
The California Public Utilities Commission requires utilities to consider "no-cost" and "low-cost" magnetic field management measures on all new transmission projects. SDG&E will implement magnetic field management measures on this Project, as appropriate, in accordance with its EMF Design Guidelines for Electrical Facilities (Guidelines), as filed with the CPUC in compliance with D.93-11-013 and updated in compliance with D.06-01-042. "No-cost" measures are those that will not increase overall project costs but will reduce the magnetic field levels. "Low-cost" measures are those costing in the range of 4% of the total budgeted project cost which would reduce the magnetic field levels by at least 15% at the edge of Right-of-Way. SDG&E will provide a Magnetic Field Management Plan for this project upon request. Exemption from CPUC Authority:
The Project is exempt from G.O. 131-D, Section III.A Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity (CPCN) requirements because all of the applicable facilities operate below 200kV. It is also exempt from the requirements of GO 131-D for a Permit to Construct (PTC) because it qualifies for an exemption under • Section III.B.1.b. – "the replacement of existing power line facilities or supporting structures with equivalent facilities or structures," • and Section III.B.1.g. – "power line facilities ... to be located in an existing franchise ... or public utility easement;" • and there are no other exceptions to the exemption. SDG&E has reviewed the project for potential environmental impacts, including temporary construction impacts occurring outside of the right-of-way (within staging yards, stringing sites and helicopter landing sites), and found that this project will not create any significant direct, indirect or cumulative effects. Further, the results of the environmental review do not find any exceptions to the exemptions from a PTC, as described in G.O. 131-D.III.B.2. Public Review Process:

The full version of SDG&E's Advice Letter 2433-E is available for review on SDG&E's website at http://sdge.com/rates-regulations/tariff-information/advice-letters. Persons or groups may protest the proposed construction if they believe the utility has incorrectly applied for an exemption or believe there is a reasonable possibility that the proposed project or cumulative effects or unusual circumstances associated with the project may adversely impact the environment. Pursuant to CPUC GO 131-D, Section XIII., protests must be filed by January 2, 2013, which is 20 calendar days following the date this informational Advice Letter was filed with the Commission. All protests must be filed formally at the CPUC and SDG&E concurrently in accordance with the CPUC's Rules of Practice and Procedure to those listed below. California Public Utilities Commission Docket Office, Room 2001 505 Van Ness Avenue San Francisco, CA 94102 AND Linda Wrazen SDG&E Regulatory Affairs 8330 Century Park Ct. NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR A PERMIT TO CONSTRUCT
San Diego Gas & Electric Company
(SDG&E) TL 6931 Fire Hardening / Wind Interconnect Project
Date: December 13, 2012
CPUC Application No.: 12-12-007

• Proposed Project: San Diego Gas & Electric Company (SDG&E) has filed an application with the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) for a Permit to Construct the San Diego Gas & Electric (Proposed Project). As presented by SDG&E, and further described in the Proponent's Environmental Assessment (PEA). The Proposed Project is needed to fire harden an existing 69 kilovolt (kV) wood pole power line (TL 6931) located within a high fire risk area and to provide the interconnection facilities necessary for the Shu'luk Wind Project. The Proposed Project includes the following elements:
• Approximately 5.2 miles of TL 6931 from the Campo Reservation boundary to the Boulevard Substation will be fire hardened by replacing or modifying approximately 49 existing wood, single-circuit 69 kV poles with approximately 53 double-circuit dull galvanized steel poles.
• A new second circuit would be configured as either a 138 kV generation interconnection circuit for the proposed Shu'luk Wind Project (in the event that project is constructed) or a vacant position for a second circuit to be installed as needed in the future.
Environmental Assessment : SDG&E has prepared a PEA that includes the analysis of potential environmental impacts created by the construction and operation of the proposed substation and associated facilities. The PEA concludes there are no unmitigable environmental impacts to the area as a result of the Proposed Project.
Electric Magnetic Field (EMF) Management : SDG&E will employ measures to reduce public exposure to EMF in accordance with CPUC Decisions 93-11-013 and 06-01-042 and SDG&E's "EMF Design Guidelines for Transmission, Distribution, and Substation Facilities." SDG&E has filed copies of its Magnetic Field Management Plan for this Proposed Project as part of its Application. Public Review Process : SDG&E has applied to the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) for a Permit to Construct and has asked for approval without hearings. Pursuant to the CPUC's Rules of Practice and Procedure, within 30 calendar days of the date of notice that this Application appears in the CPUC calendar, you may protest and request that the CPUC hold hearings on this Application. If the CPUC, as a result of its investigation, determines that public hearings should be held, notice shall be sent to each person or entity who is entitled to notice or who has requested a hearing.
