Joan McQueen students connect with real life issues through passionate speeches

by Diana Saenger

Joan McQueen Middle School students participated in a speech contest sponsored by the Alpine Kiwanis on Saturday, March 24 at the Alpine Elementary School. Eight students came with friends and family ready to sway the five judges that their speech was the best.

Teachers Susan Lancaster and Jane Firth set the parameters for the speakers chosen from 300 eighth graders at Joan McQueen. Students were reminded they would lose a point if they went over or under a three-four minute speech. Corinne Lewis announced each student's time upon completion of his/her speech.

Sophie Allred spoke about Women's Rights in Athletics. She spoke of reasons of why women should be allowed to participate on all sports including professional teams.

Delaney Casey's topic was Athletics and Drugs. She offered opinions on athletes using performance enhancing drugs, and sports pros who have suffered legal and career consequences because they used these drugs and the aftermath that affects all other sports professionals.

Thomas Day gave his speech on Should PE Be Mandatory. He offered statistics on health comparisons between students who had PE in their schools and those who don't. Some of those facts centered on disease, obesity and that students who have PE score higher on tests. He reported only five states in the U.S. require PE.

Jakub Hill spoke about Smoking. He explained that smoking is more of a habit than an addiction. He mentioned consequences of smoking including cancer, mental and physical problems and socially alienating those around them who want to avoid elements of smoking. Hill also offered some tips to help others stop smoking.

Ashly Jackson's topic was DUI's. She explained some of what happens to one's brain when drunk and the consequences of drinking and driving. That can result in a death or severe accident and cost the drunk driver $10,000 or more in legal and medical expenses and result in a criminal record.

Misael Baza – Macedo spoke about Health Care Insurance. He gave opinions about the Obama Health Care act currently being discussed by the Supreme Court and how it would affect the 50 million Americans who do not have health care coverage.

Andrew Tompkins' topic was Capital Punishment. He stated the current death penalty needs reform because those convicted remain on death row for too many years. He feels this has negative affects on family members of the victims. Tompkins spoke of different kinds of capital punishment and some of the opinions of those in favor and opposed to the death penalty.

Katie Wall gave her speech on Childhood Obesity. She discussed poor eating habits of those overweight and that most of the habits begin at home. Her solutions included limiting game console play and getting kids outside and into more physical activities.

After completing the scouring of the speeches the judges announced that Thomas Day won 1st Place in the competition.

"Susan Lancaster, Susan McCalley, Mrs. Meade and Penny Garza, the 8th grade language arts teachers, have worked very hard to prepare the students for their presentations," Firth said.

"Being a La Mesa Child 100 Years Ago"

The La Mesa Historical Society announces the opening of a new exhibit at its McKinney House Museum as part of its programs celebrating the City's Centennial year. The exhibit will take place the second and fourth Saturdays from 1 to 4 p.m. at McKinney House Museum, 8369 University Ave., La Mesa.

Come make a visit to the La Mesa Historical Society's McKinney House Museum. The Museum will be featuring a new room display showcasing the history of old time toys and games from tidlywinks to spinning tops, tin wind up toys, kaleidoscope, checkers, jacks, marbles and many more to tantalize your memory and illustrate child's play long ago.

All of these items come from the collections of the Society and are displayed in a classroom setting with old photos of students from the Allison School and La Mesa Grammar School between 1910 and 1929. Perhaps you will recognize a relative from the past.

Bring the kids and grandchildren and share a step back in time. There is no charge for the tour—donations are appreciated.

New Fire Protection District and City Council appointments

Jim Archer has been selected to fill the board vacancy due to the resignation of Ron Fuller.

by Mike Lewis

The Alpine Fire Protection District (AFPD) Board of Directors has appointed a new Director to fill the seat vacated by long time Director Ron Fuller. Ron Fuller was forced to resign from the Board at the February 21 Board meeting due to health reasons.

At the March 20 Board meeting, the AFPD Board selected Jim Archer out of five people who expressed an interest in filling out Fuller's term on the board. The vote by the Board to fill the seat came after four previous votes failed to get a majority needed. On the fifth vote Mr. Archer was appointed by a vote of 3 to 0 with one abstention, cast by Director Kramer. Mr. Archer's seat will be up for election in November, he and the other candidates can run in the election for a new four year term.

Mr. Archer is also currently a member of the Alpine Planning Group, serving as Chairman of the Parks and Rec's subcommittee. He is an active member of the Alpine Kiwanis and The Knights of Columbus.

The other candidates were: Mary Fritz, Chuck Taylor, David Todd and Brent Wolf. All five made oral presentations to the AFPD Board. Most of the candidates expressed a desire to run for the seat in the November election.

In other business Firefighter Scott Champlin was promoted to Engineer and had a badge pinning ceremony. Engineer Champlin took an oath of office from Alpine Fire Chief Bill Paskle and had his new badge pinned to his shirt by his wife Julie. Engineer Champlin began his career with AFPD on September 5, 1994 as a cadet firefighter. He is the only firefighter the District has sent to paramedic school to be trained as a paramedic. All other firefighters since the paramedic program was started have been hired as paramedics. He has served as Chairman for the annual Fire Department Open House for several years, donating countless hours to the event. He has served as an officer for the Alpine Firefighters Association having served as vice president and secretary/treasurer. He also volunteers his time as a Little League coach. He and his wife Julie have two children, Jenna and Marshall.

The promotion was due to the retirement of Engineer Cliff Crane in February after 30+ years of service. The District is currently accepting applications to fill the firefighter position of Engineer Champlin. Applications will be accepted until March 30.

Tony Ambrose was appointed by El Cajon Mayor Mark Lewis and City Council to take the seat of Jillian Hanson-Cox who resigned from her position on March 7. Mr. Ambrose will fill the vacancy until the November 6 elections. The City Council approved his appointment by a vote of four to zero. ## A grandparent's day at the park

by Rev. James L. Snyder

Fun is a relative quantity. One person's fun may be somebody else's drudgery and pain. I know someone, and her name shall remain anonymous, whose idea of fun is rooting through thrift stores all day long. That concept of fun has never darkened the shadowy corridors of my mind.

The idea of spending time in the park has to be amended to include one very important ingredient. On my own, I probably would not even think of going to the park. Not that I do not like the park, I just would not come up with the idea all by myself.

Then, the important equation of fun is a little granddaughter.

A day at the park by myself does not equal to very much fun. After all, I have talked to myself and I am rather boring. I have heard all my stories before and by the time, I tell myself the story for the 19th time it is no longer funny.

A day at the park with the granddaughter does equal fun.

I think grandchildren are God's way of reminding grandfathers how much energy we do not have and, for that matter, never had.

The date was set and my wife and I set off to take our little granddaughter to the park. On the main features of this park was a merry-go-round. I am rather certain they had merry-go-round when I was a child but for the life of me, I cannot remember the last time I took a spin.

As we set out for our destination in the park, I nonchalantly told the little granddaughter that there was a merry-go-round in the park. That was the end of my talk for the trip. The whole way there, all she could talk about was the merry-go-round and how fast it went in how many ponies there were. By the time we got to the merry-go-round I had learned about all there is to know about a merry-go-round from a six-year-old's viewpoint.

According to her, the merry-go-round is about the most fun you could ever have in the whole wide world. And, she emphasized, "I'm serious."

We rounded the corner, before us was the park and in the middle of the park was this mysterious, mystical merry-go-round. It elicited a deep heart-felt "Wow," from the younger member of our walking troop.

She immediately began running and pulling me along to the point where I had to walk a little faster than I normally walk. I mean, at my age running is completely out of the question. And so, she ran, I shuffled enthusiastically and before long we were in front of the merry-go-round.

"Isn't it beautiful, grandpa," she almost whispered. We did not stand long admiring the merry-go-round. She let out a squeal and said, "Come on, grandpa. Let's go ride the merry-go-round."

My plans were very simple. I would let her get on the merry-go-round, pay for the ticket, sit down on the bench and watch her go round and round and round. Well, that was my plan. She, on the other hand, had other plans.

With almost superhuman force she drug me pass the admission gate, I hardly had enough time to pay for the ride and to the pony she was going to ride. "This is my pony, grandpa. Where's yours?"

I quickly searched my plans and could nowhere find any notation about riding a pony on a merry-go-round on this particular day. Instead, I helped her up on her pony and I stood by her and said, "We'll do this one together." She was too excited about riding the merry-go-round that she did not respond.

I grabbed hold of one part of the pony, right next to us was another pony and I held onto that.

"Are we ready to go, grandpa?"

No sooner had she said that until the bell rang and the merry-go-round began going round. And round. And round.

Being grateful that we have finished our ride, I proceeded to disengage her from the pony. However, that was not her plan.

"Oh, grandpa, just one more time."

The problem with grandfathers is that nowhere in their vocabulary lurks in any fashion any sound resembling "no." Consequently, we went round on the merry-go-round "just one more time."

I learned a deep lesson that afternoon. When a little granddaughter says "just one more time," it is not in any literal sense of the word that they say it. I'm not prepared to say how many times we went on that merry-go-round, needless to say, by the end of the afternoon I was in a complete whirl not knowing whither I was coming or whither I was going.

As we walked over to get our ice cream treat, I remembered what the apostle Paul said about Timothy. "And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus" (2 Timothy 3:15 (KJV)).

Dear Dr. Luauna

Dear Readers,

Many people ask me important questions about prayer because the Lord has called me to create a Prayer Mountain in the United States. How do I pray? What are the keys in prayer? Does God really hear our prayers? Why are some prayers never answered?

The first thing I do every morning is pray. I inquire of the Lord for every question, problem, and situation; even in good times. Then I search His scriptures. Why do I proceed that way? Because Jesus said the Holy Spirit is the Spirit of Truth and He will remind us of Christ's teachings, John 14. I found some very powerful verses on this subject, the first one gave me a powerful key to prayer, prayer is not about talking to God, although that is important. Prayer is about hearing, fine tuning the skill of listening. The answer to every prayer will always come to those who hear:

Psalm 85:8-9, "I will hear what God the Lord will speak, for He will speak peace to His people and to His saints; but let them not turn back to folly. Surely His salvation is near to those who fear Him, that glory may dwell in our land." This verse was written by a Chief Musician, in other words a man of prayer of worship.

The next verse was written by a wise man, King Solomon, a man who spoke from the wisdom of heaven:

Ecclesiastes 5:1, "Walk prudently when you go to the house of God; and draw near to hear rather than to give the sacrifice of fools, for they do not know that they do evil. Do not be rash with your mouth, and let now your heart utter anything hastily before God. For God is in heaven, and you on the earth; therefore let your words be few.

While his advice may seem harsh, he is speaking as a King who is warning us, exhorting us not to be foolish when we come before Almighty God in our prayer time. When warnings from experienced and wise people, are ignored, the consequences are always destructive.

The following verses speak for themselves:

Proverbs 22:17-21, "Incline your ear and hear the words of the wise, and apply your heart to my knowledge; for it is a pleasant thing if you keep them within you; let them all be fixed upon your lips, so that your trust may be in the Lord; I have instructed you today, even you. Have I not written to you excellent things of counsels and knowledge that I may make you know the certainty of the words of truth, that you may answer words of truth to those who send to you?"

Finally, James 1:19-20, "So then, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath; for the wrath of man does not produce the righteousness of God."

This advice from God's Spirit and Holy Word will help us as we commit ourselves to consistent prayer. The Lord has answered so many prayers in my life and for our ministry. Please join us at A Touch From Above Prayer Mountain to learn how to pray and hear the voice of God. God bless you!

For Health's Sake

Stay mentally fit and sharp by creating a 'Health Club' for your brain

by Mark Underwood

Two thousand twelve is upon us and many of us are thinking about what the New Year will bring. This time of year is an occasion to get us thinking about our health – specifically brain health. A healthy lifestyle is easy to understand but not everyone realizes the more you work out your brain, the better you'll be able to process and remember information. Carve out time to give your brain work outs. You can do that by creating your own "health club" that includes ongoing learning. Make a commitment to keep learning, no matter what your age or stage of life, and you are automatically improving your brain power.

Learning curve. College, high school, and elementary school students all the way down to K-4 are continually engaged in stimulating learning experiences. These young students don't have to work on brain fitness because for them, everyday learning is a habit. But that's not true as we grow older. Think of the brain's inner workings this way. Some of the circuits—conduits of information and memory slow down. As we decrease our need to keep the brain as fit as a student studying for college exams, the creation of new neural pathways diminishes. So what can you do to have a sharper brain? Plenty. Brain fitness isn't rocket science. Start by making a commitment to learning something new on a regular basis, weekly or daily and then add in other challenging ways to give your brain a regular boost of energy. A growing body of research actually also shows that people who commit to lifelong learning can lower their risk of Alzheimer's disease and other forms of dementia.

Jump start your brain power. You may not realize it but your brain power has incredible potential when it is "sharpened" and kept fit. There's no better time than now to invest in your brain's fitness. As millions of people grow older, many experience age-related changes like forgetfulness or decreased concentration skills. Some people find they have difficulty sleeping and their short-term memory isn't as sharp as it used to be. Did you know your short-term memory is like a scratch-pad for temporary recall of information being processed? In order to understand this sentence your brain needs to remember the beginning as you read move along toward the end and get to the period. About 70 million baby boomers are heading to retirement in the next few years. Many people join health clubs to stay fit and others exercise at home with family and friends. If you are heading to retirement, make sure you continue to exercise your brain. By learning something new you are breaking the way you think about topics and ideas. You are using brain pathways that may not have been used if you hadn't ramped up your brain calisthenics.

Brain health tips—a 'no-brainer.' Here are some things you can do to keep your brain sharp and fit:

Use your senses to learn. Know how you learn best, and then use it to your advantage. Some people learn best with audio tapes, others prefer videos or an in-person classroom.

Stay Organized. Take notes. Use both words and pictures. Take advantage of calendars, date books and other organizational tools to help you concentrate while learning.

Journal: Record information of your learning milestones by keeping a journal. Writing down your experiences helps build on previous knowledge and creates good retention.

Participate in educational experiences. Take an adult education class or enroll in a technical college course.

Take up a new sport.

Take up a new hobby. People who enjoy life have found new outlets like quilting, woodworking and other hobbies.

Take up a new sport. Have you thought about learning to ice skate, curl, play badminton, take up golfing or numerous other sports? Your local parks and recreation department probably has numerous opportunities for you along with other community resources.

Play board games and puzzles. The more you play the better your mental dexterity will likely become.

It's time to stoke the fires of aging in the brain. Build your own "health club" which includes a variety of brain fitness activities. It's never too late to learn something new and feed an aging brain.

HUD CHARGES BANK OF AMERICA WITH DISCRIMINATING AGAINST HOMEBUYERS WITH DISABILITIES

Bank of America allegedly applied discriminatory lending requirements for borrowers with disabilities

Washington- The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) today announced that it is charging Bank of America with discriminating against homebuyers with disabilities. HUD alleges that Bank of America imposed unnecessary and burdensome requirements on borrowers who relied on disability income to qualify for their home loans and required some disabled borrowers to provide physician statements to qualify for home mortgage loans.

The fair Housing Act makes it illegal to discriminate in the terms and conditions of a loan to an individual based on a disability, including imposing different application or qualification criteria, and makes it illegal to inquire about the nature or severity of a disability except in limited circumstances not applicable here.

“Holding homebuyers with disabilities to a higher standard just because they rely on disability payments as a source of income is against the law,” said John Trasvina, HUD Assistant Secretary for Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity. “Mortgage companies may verify income and have eligibility standards but they may not single out homebuyers with disabilities to delay or deny financing when they are otherwise eligible.”

HUD’s charge is based on a “secretary-initiated investigation,” and the investigation of complaints filed by two individual borrowers in Michigan and one borrower in Wisconsin who claimed that Bank of America required them to provide personal medical information and documentation regarding their disability and proof of continuance of their Social Security payment in order to qualify for a home mortgage loan. The charge is also being issued as part of the work being conducted by the federal Financial Fraud Enforcement Task Force’s non-discrimination working group.

People who believe they are the victims of housing discrimination should contact CSA San Diego County at (619) 444-5700

Rent Sense

Credit Considerations

by Neil Fjellestad and Chris De Marco of Fjellestad, Barrett & Short

Anyone looking for a rental home, condo or apartment should know what is acceptable or not about the location, condition and rental rate. But how many are aware of what’s acceptable or not about a credit report when submitting a rental application.

Here are some guidelines that our company applies to credit reports we review:

Low Risk (726-830): Excellent credit rating, pay their bills on time, no collections or negative notations on credit history. We like these applications.

Medium-Low Risk (700-725): Very good credit rating, pay their bills on time, no collections or negative notations on credit history, may have a couple of aged slow pays or applied for a loan or credit recently that dropped the score a bit. We like these applications as well.

Medium Risk (626-699): Decent credit rating, pay most bills on time, no collections or negative notation on the credit history, may have a couple of aged slow pays or applied for a loan or credit recently that dropped the score a bit. They probably have a couple of disputable items on the credit report, old medical bills, student loans, or defaults in the past. Close check of rental references and length of employment can keep this application doable but will probably need co-signer or additional deposit.

Medium-High Risk (551-626): Marginal credit rating, slow to pay on some bills on time with others. Probably have a collections or negative notations on the credit history. Additional explanation is required. Generally have applied for a loan or credit recently, as well as multiple credit inquiries, that dropped the score some. They probably have several disputed items that are accurate. Double check for aliases, or abbreviated names, check and verify social security number, check rental references more closely, verify length of employment with pay stubs or payroll clerk and the outlook for continued employment. These applications need a co-signer and/or additional deposit to be considered at all.

High Risk (330-550): Poor credit rating; do not pay bills on time, multiple collection activity and negative notations on file. These conditions will usually not allow consideration of this application. Rental and employment references might allow consideration if roommates demonstrate very strong credit and are willing and able to take financial responsibility with co-signers and by depositing additional funds.

April 18: Ramona Art Guild Hosts Local Artist Demonstration & Workshop in April. Ramona Art Guild invites artist Marsha Boston, whose works capture the beauty of nature through her abstract botanical work in both watercolor and acrylic using delicate organic shapes formed by mixing of guided meandering lines into translucent paint layers. Boston states "my work evolved out of my concern over the uncertain realities of genetic engineering, nano-agriculture, the accelerated speed of human dominion over nature, and my reverence for the miraculous design of plants." During the artist demonstration On Wednesday April 18, 2012, Boston will be addressing "Abstract Acrylics." The 7 - 9 p.m. meeting is held in the Community Room at the Ramona Public Library, 1275 Main St., Ramona, and open to the public with refreshments available.

April 18-21: BYE BYE BIRDIE will be performed by Christian High School's award winning Drama Department. The musical will take its audience on an entertaining trip back to the days of "Rock n Roll". The story centers on superstar Conrad Birdie prior to being drafted into the Army. Humorous complications ensue when his agent stages a good-bye kiss to the lucky Kim MacAfee on "The Ed Sullivan Show." Kim's steady, Hugo Peabody and her overbearing, but lovable father complicate the tale. Musical scores abound with "How Lovely To Be a Woman," "The Telephone Hour," "Put On A Happy Face," "A Lot of Livin' To Do," "One Last Kiss," and "Kids!" The cast of BYE BYE BIRDIE features Colin Eckstein as Conrad Birdie, Garrett Johnston as Birdie's manager, Albert, Kayla Breshers as Albert's secretary and love-interest, Rosie, and Katherine Hazlett as Kim MacAfee. Thirty-three 7th-12th grade students also complete the cast along with Christian High School's orchestra, under the direction of Sandy Adams. The Director, Melissa Johnson, is CHS' proud and privileged, "Drama-Mama" and has been teaching at Christian Junior/Senior High School for 7 years. She holds a Bachelor's degree in Theater from UC Davis. She also sponsors a campus troupe of the International Thespian Society, as well as involves students in the local theater community. Last year, Mrs. Johnson was awarded "Artistic Merit" from California Educational Theater Association (CETA) for her direction of CHS' production of EAT (It's Not About Food). CHS' theater students were also the recipients of CETA's "Best Ensemble, 2011" and were asked to perform at the CETA festival as special guest performers in both 2010 and 2011. BYE BYE BIRDIE will be performed on April 18, 19 at 6:30 p.m. and April 21 at 2 and 6:30 p.m. at 389 N. Magnolia, El Cajon (Shadow Mountain International Ministries Building). Tickets are currently on sale for $10 and can be purchased the Christian High School office (2100 Greenfield Drive, (619) 201-8800) or at the door, if available.

The hand-held camera is not a friend to 'Hunger Games'

Review by James Colt Harrison

Despite the distasteful theme of teen-agers hunting and killing other teens, The Hunger Games is the most anticipated film of the year for fans of the Suzanne Collins book trilogy. Harking back to the Roman times and the coliseum-type setting, this time the arena turns out to be the forests of Asheville, North Carolina.

Because of a rebellion 70 years ago, the nation of Panem has risen like a phoenix out of the ruins of what used to be the United States. To keep the people from uprising again, a raffle is held in which a boy and girl ages 12-18 from each district must fight to the death, with the winner never having to worry about food or shelter ever again.

Most of the populace looks as though they are dressed in dowdy clothes of the 1930s Depression era and are former residents of the Ozarks. But somehow Katniss Everdeen (a brown-haired Jennifer Lawrence) has turned out to be a natural teen-age beauty. The boys vying for her attention include Gale (Australian Liam Hemsworth), Peeta (Josh Hutcherson), and Cato (Alexander Ludwig).

Katniss is spunky, fierce, intelligent, skilled, and determined. She volunteers to take the place of her younger sister Primrose (Willow Shields) in the games. Katniss and Peeta will represent their district against bigger and older contestants, or "tributes," in the games.

It's rare that Hollywood takes chances on a female to be the lead in a $100 million film, but at age 20, Lawrence takes the entire film on her shoulders.

Had she not been capable, the film might have fallen with a thud, but she's up to the task and is terrific. The studio's faith in her is justified. Initially rather shy when thrust into the forest to hide or kill, Katniss gradually evolves into someone to contend with as she is skilled with the bow and arrow. The film cleverly disguises Katniss actually killing people, so we are not rebuffed by her character. She's tough and clever enough to stay alive by doing what she must.

Peeta seems to play a significant role in Katniss' younger life when she was starving as we see in flashbacks. Hutcherson is young enough to show that hang-dog and puppy love face when appropriate. He hits the right notes in his scenes with Lawrence and is secure enough to show vulnerability to her strength.

Hemsworth landed the most significant role of his young and short career. The relationship of his character Gale with that of Katniss is pivotal. They grew up together and learned to hunt and survive in the forest. This all proved to be crucial in Katniss's games period when Gale was left at home. He also yearns to be even closer to her now.

Stanley Tucci plays Caesar Flickerman, an over-the-top TV host and narrator of the Hunger Games. Decked out in a futuristic version of a black 18th century wig and enhanced sparkling white teeth, Tucci unctuously commands every scene and should be on the list of Best Supporting Actors come next year's awards.

Another outstanding supporting role is that of Elizabeth Banks' Effie Trinket (a tribute to Edgar Bergin's Effie Klinker radio dummy character perhaps?). Banks is completely unrecognizable plastered in thick white makeup and "bee-stung" red lips (harking back to the silent films). She plays an escort to the kids at the Games.

Other cast members somewhat wasted are talented Wes Bentley as Seneca Crane; Toby Jones as Claudius Templesmith, the man throwing switches at the control board and Donald Sutherland as President Coriolanus Snow, in for a few scenes. Lenny Kravitz, mostly known as a musician, plays one of his rare film roles as Cinna, Katniss' make-up artist.

The hand-held camerawork by cinematographer Tom Stern and editing by Stephen Mirrione and Juliette Welfing is hideous, to put it kindly. It is so shaky in some scenes that gobbling an entire bottle of Dramamine will not lessen the blowing of chunks. The only positive effect the Jell-o-jiggling camera does do is lessen the blood and gore because your eyes can't focus on the hacking and slashing of nubile teen-age bodies.

Despite the 142 minutes of running time, the film does not drag and is rather entertaining even with the unpalatable main theme. In this writer's opinion the film is a condemnation of war despite the spoils for the victor.

Viejas Casino cuts ribbon on new bingo hall

Casino Manager Chris Kelley welcomes the guests to the new Viejas bingo hall. Photo credits: Kathy Foster

Tribal council members and invited guests gather to cut the ribbon on Viejas' new bingo hall.

First bingo winner, Debi Fraser in the new Bingo Room.

by Diana Saenger

Viejas Casino was the gathering place on Monday, March 26 when tribal elders, tribal leaders, local dignitaries, Chamber of Commerce representatives and the public all joined in the Grand Opening of the new Bingo Hall.

Before the official ribbon-cutting Robert Scheid, Public Relations Director Viejas Casino & Outlets, welcomed everyone and introduced the Viejas Tribal Council and former tribal council members. Virginia Christman, prayer leader, former Vice Chairman and tribal culture leader did the traditional smuggling blessing, as explained by former tribal council member John Christman.

Viejas Casino General Manager Chris Kelley addressed the crowd and spoke about the bingo games. "This project is one of many currently underway at Viejas but there are many things that made this project a very special one," Kelley said. "Bingo marked the beginning of gaming at Viejas so it's only appropriate it marks the next chapter in our journey. We are currently adding, enhancing or upgrading every aspect of our guest experience."

The Viejas Tribal Council members stepped through the door to do the traditional bird singing blessing while Christman continued her smuggling blessing inside the new bingo hall. Excited guests were then invited inside and were awed over the beautiful décor, spacious room between tables and the new flat-screens that allow players to play up to 500 games at one time.

The first Viejas Bingo facility opened in 1977 at the Ma Tar Awa RV Park on the Viejas Reservation. In 1994, the bingo hall moved to a location inside the casino, and in 2000 a new structure was built on the east side of Viejas Casino. That structure will be demolished to make way for the new hotel at Viejas Casino, which will include over 120 rooms, a pool and Jacuzzi area, and other amenities.

The new high-stakes Viejas Bingo Room seats 340 guests, including separate smoking and non-smoking rooms. In addition to the traditional paper sheets and daubers, guests can also choose from portable hand-held electronic bingo tablets and flat-screen monitors.

Midge Svien sat before one of the flat-screens reminiscing about her days as the first bingo manager. "I was a player and then they hired me as the bingo manager," she said. "It was a lot of fun, and I really appreciate the tribe. When I quit being the manager, they made me a tribal liaison."

Viejas Tribal Chairman Anthony R. Pico said about the new hall, "We've come a long way from the early days of bingo at Ma Tar Awa RV Park. The one thing that has remained constant is the strong support and loyalty of our bingo guests. We are very grateful for that support and we view this investment in a new Bingo Room as a way to say thank you. We think they'll really enjoy it, and we invite the entire community to come out, visit us and have some fun."

We are assisting the Lender in the collection of a debt and any information obtained, whether received orally or in writing, may be used for that purpose. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are, or may be, responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown in this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy, to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, call (619) 466-6530 or fax 619-698-4912 or visit the internet website at www.statewideracon.com for information regarding the sale of this property, using the file number assigned to this case. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the internet web site. The best way to determine sale results and/or postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. P929228 3/15, 3/22, 03/29/2012

NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call Priority Posting & Publishing at (714) 573-1965 or visit this Internet Web site www.priorityposting.com using the file number assigned to this case 805D-061602. CASE NO. 37-2012-00150947-PR-PW-CTL
ROA #1

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the WILL or estate, or both of JOHN HENRY CAPISTRAN AKA JOHN H. CAPISTRAN AKA JOHN CAPISTRAN.

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by CYNTHIA AMBER CAPISTRAN in the Superior Court of California, County of SAN DIEGO.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that CYNTHIA AMBER CAPISTRAN be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests the decedent's WILL and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The WILL and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows: 04/24/12 at 11:00AM in Dept. PC-1 located at 1409 4TH AVENUE, SAN DIEGO, CA 92101

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within four months from the date of first issuance of letters as provided in Probate Code section 9100. The time for filing claims will not expire before four months from the hearing date noticed above.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code Section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

22nd Annual List of Top Ten Boat Names

Making the decision to buy a boat comes easy for some people. Picking out a name for the boat, however, can prove to be much harder, according to Boat Owners Association of The United States (BoatUS).

"A boat name reflects the life and loves of the owner," says Occoless Trotter of the BoatUS Boat Graphics department in Alexandria, Virginia, which helps boaters design their own boat names "But, it's hard to sum it all up with just a few words." The half-million-member boat owners group has been tallying the Top Ten Boat Names List for over two decades. The 22nd Annual List

Top Ten Boat Names are:

1. Seas the Day
2. Nauti Buoy
3. Aquaholic

4. Dream Weaver
5. Pegasus
6. Serenity Now
7. Second Wind
8. Liquid Asset
9. Miss Behavin'
10. Blew ByYou

"When you get a boat, there are certain things you have to do, such as registering it and buying insurance or towing coverage," added Trotter "However, picking a boat name opens up a creative side." This year's list included three newcomers: Nauti Buoy, Serenity Now, and Blew ByYou, a popular racing sailboat moniker and clever word play on an old Roy Orbison song made famous by Linda Ronstadt. Two other boat names made the list for the second time: Dream Weaver and Pegasus. All others are multi-year repeats.

El Cajon Animal Shelter PET OF THE WEEK

"If you are looking for two incredibly nice Chihuahua-mix ladies who are 7 years old, then look no further than our kennel. We are Brandy and Chechei, and our owner could no longer take care of us, so we are in need of a new forever home with you. We have delightful personalities, are very sweet and lovable, are very and we must be adopted together, because we are very best friends! Chihuahuas as you know, are on the small side, have short hair and are very easy to take care of. When it is quiet at the shelter at night, we both talk about a new forever home, and how we'd love to have a little yard where we could enjoy ourselves and then at night, have a soft, cuddly and snuggly dog bed in the house, where we could curl up together and be close to our person or family. When you get to the shelter, just ask our great Shelter Staff to introduce us, and then we can get acquainted in one of our nice exercise yards they have for us here at the shelter. We're great little dogs, who will bring you lots of happiness and joy...and that is a promise! We hope to see you soon. Love, Brandy and Chechei" Please visit us in kennel #29
