Lakeside Round Up

by Patt Bixby

Lakeside Chamber Christmas party

Friends, food and music made for a wonderful evening of fun at the annual Christmas party put on by the Lakeside Chamber of Commerce. The annual event took place at the Barona meeting hall where chamber members danced, played various silly games in competition with each other to win prizes provided by local Chamber merchants. What may have been the highlight of the evening was seeing Chamber members who have worked hard all year at events such as Western Days Parade, business mixers, and the Spirit of Christmas on Maine Ave. relax and enjoy dancing with fellow Chamber members. The Chamber members look forward to another year of hard work along with lots of fun.

The office will be closed December 19 through January 2, reopening January 3, 2013.

Lovely voices fill the school auditorium

Granite Hills High School Choir. Photo Credit: Debbie Jackson

The Granite Hills High School Choir under the direction of Janessa Anderson made a performance at the December 15 Alpine Kiwanis meeting. The Alpine Elementary School became a vocal wonderland as the choir entertained with Christmas songs and solos from members of the choir – all with gifted voices. The choir has entertainment at private and public events throughout the state and won several awards.

El Cajon Police Department targets impaired drivers with checkpoint

Please designate "before" you celebrate! The El Cajon

Police Department will be conducting a DUI/Drivers License checkpoint on Friday, Dec. 28 at approximately 6 p.m. until 3 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 29. In an effort to reduce the number of people killed and injured in alcohol or drug involved crashes, DUI checkpoints are conducted to identify offenders and get them off the street, as well as educate the public on the dangers of impaired driving. All too often, members of our community are senselessly injured or killed on local roadways by impaired drivers. This DUI/Drivers License checkpoint is an effort to reduce those tragedies, as well as ensuring drivers have a valid drivers license. A major component of these checkpoints is to increase awareness of the dangers of impaired driving and to encourage sober designated drivers.

A DUI checkpoint is a proven effective method for achieving this goal. By publicizing these enforcement and education efforts, the El Cajon Police Department believes motorists can be deterred from drinking and drugged driving. Traffic volume and weather permitting, all vehicles may be checked. Drivers who are under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs will be arrested. Our objective is to send a clear message to those who are considering driving a motor vehicle after consuming alcohol and/or drugs – "Drunk Driving, Over the Limit, Under Arrest." The public is encouraged to help keep roadways safe by calling 9-1-1 if they see a suspected impaired driver. Funding for this operation is provided by a grant from the California Office of Traffic Safety, through the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration.

Suicide prevention and support

Help is available, especially during the holidays! If you or someone you care about is in crisis and needs immediate help, call the Crisis Hotline at (888) 724-7240. The phone lines are answered by trained professionals available 24/7; the call is free and confidential. If emergency medical care is needed, call 9-1-1 or go to the emergency room of the nearest hospital.

Note: If you have an event in the City of El Cajon that you would like to share, please contact Monica Zech, Public Information Officer for the City of El Cajon, at (619) 441-1737 or via e-mail at mzech@cityofelcagon.us, or mail to: Monica Zech, Public Information Officer, City of El Cajon, 200 Civic Center Way, El Cajon, CA 92020.

Introducing Centennial Moments: Sharing a piece of city history

El Cajon's first Mayor James A. Harris

The information below was provided by James Graves, grandson of the late James Harris, El Cajon's first Mayor, and the El Cajon Historical Society. More information on El Cajon's history can be found on their website at www.elcagonhistory.org. Photo credit: El Cajon Historical Society.

For more information about El Cajon, "The Valley of Opportunity," please visit our Centennial website for current information: www.elcagon100.com.

James Augustus Harris was born in Russell County, Alabama, December

27, 1846. His mother died when he was an infant so he was raised by his grandparents.

His educational opportunities were extremely limited. Only attending school for a brief time, Harris enlisted as a soldier in the 17th Alabama Infantry before his 16th birthday and served through the Civil War. During most of his enlistment he acted as a courier at the headquarters of General Shirley and, while so engaged, mastered the basics of education, becoming an expert penman and accountant.

After the war, he returned to his native state, Alabama, and began life anew. Although his situation and circumstance were difficult, Harris became successful. He gained experience through working in an attorney's office, then mercantile businesses, and later, in New York, he worked in the wholesale commission business of dry goods.

He was married in Alabama in 1892 to Miss Minnie Harris and they had a daughter, Mrs. Helen Graves of Bostonia.

The family came to California in the spring of 1903, lived in San Jose for 8 years, and moved to El Cajon in 1912. Harris was attracted to El Cajon as a promising town and immediately invested his money in improvements of the area.

He built six residences on Magnolia and Orange Avenues, and also built a large garage, a new hotel and two store rooms on Main Street along with walks and curbs to connect the new developments. He was elected a City Trustee and served in that capacity, and as Mayor of the town, for four years.

Later, Harris moved to San Diego where he owned the Mirasol Apartments and the Llyod Hotel along with other properties.

Although moving to San Diego, Mr. and Mrs. Harris continued their friendships with people from El Cajon.

Local students collect spare change for cancer research

Students throughout San Diego County have collected $393,000 through Pasta for Pennies, presented by Olive Garden and benefiting The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society (LLS). Thanks to the efforts of students nationwide, $10.7 million was raised through Pasta for Pennies this year, bringing the total raised since 1994 to more than $70 million.

In San Diego County, more than 169,000 students at 237 elementary, middle and high schools filled collection jars and boxes in their classrooms with spare change over a three-week period during the school year. The top fundraising class at each participating school received a pasta party from their local Olive Garden restaurant.

Spare change raised through Pasta for Pennies helps fund blood cancer research and provides much needed services and support to leukemia, lymphoma and myeloma patients and their families.

"We congratulate all of the students who put forth such an amazing effort in support of The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society," said John Caron, president of Olive Garden. "Through Pasta for Pennies they have come to understand that even the smallest donation can have a significant impact on their local community. The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society is moving closer to a cure because of their efforts."

The top fundraising schools in San Diego County include:

- Tri-City Christian School in Vista with $11,158.55 collected;

- Heritage K-8 Charter School in Escondido with $7,089.16; and

- The Classical Academy in Escondido with $6,864.34.

"Pasta for Pennies continues to provide so many teachable moments for these students," said Kathlene Seymour, executive director of the LLS San Diego-Hawaii Chapter. "Teachers do an amazing job incorporating Pasta for Pennies into their math and science curriculum. In addition, kids learn about how important it is to give back to the local community. We thank those teachers, students, parents and Olive Garden for making Pasta for Pennies so successful. Our patients and their families truly appreciate it."

The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society® (LLS) is the world's largest voluntary health agency dedicated to blood cancer. The LLS mission is to cure leukemia, lymphoma, Hodgkin's disease and myeloma, and improve the quality of life for patients and their families. LLS funds lifesaving blood cancer research around the world and provides free information and support

Laughter is the Best Medicine

Santa stressed

When four of Santa's elves got sick, the trainee elves did not produce toys as fast as the regular ones, and Santa began to feel the Pre-Christmas pressure.

Then Mrs. Claus told Santa her Mother was coming to visit, which stressed Santa even more.

When he went to harness the reindeer, he found that three of them were about to give birth and two others had jumped the fence and were out, Heaven knows where.

Then when he began to load the sleigh, one of the floorboards cracked, the toy bag fell to the ground and all the toys were scattered.

Frustrated, Santa went in the house for a cup of apple cider and a shot of rum. When he went to the cupboard, he discovered the elves had drunk all the cider and hidden the liquor.

In his frustration, he accidentally dropped the cider jug, and it broke into hundreds of little glass pieces all over the kitchen floor.

He went to get the broom and found the mice had eaten all the straw off the end of the broom.

Just then the doorbell rang, and an irritated Santa marched to the door, yanked it open, and there stood a little angel with a great big Christmas tree.

The angel said very cheerfully, 'Merry Christmas, Santa. Isn't this a lovely day? I have a beautiful tree for you. Where would you like me to stick it?'

And thus began the tradition of the little angel on top of the Christmas tree.

Not very many people know this.

I'll have a "red" Christmas, thank you

by Rev. James L. Snyder

The Christmas holiday season is always ablaze with beautiful colors. I find it hard to be gloomy or grumpy this time of the year. I must confess, not everybody belongs to this "Holiday Cheer Club." It is an exclusive club but open to anybody who is tired of being grumpy.

Colors abound throughout the season and the Christmas songs highlight this. "I'm dreaming of a white Christmas." "I'll have a blue Christmas without you." "Rudolph the red nose reindeer."

Oh, the wonderful colors of Christmas.

My thoughts along this line are, let the grumps and grouches complain about the Christmas tree. For myself, I will look with admiring wonder at the beauty of the Christmas tree.

Then of course, who could forget good old Santa Claus dressed in his red suit. I never could figure out why Santa's suit was always red. Throughout the years, I never gave it too much thought and assumed it was a fashion statement from the North Pole.

I had some time this week to do a little rummaging through my old thought gallery. For the most part, we only celebrate Christmas once a year. I think Charles Dickens had it right with old Mr. Scrooge, after his conversion, celebrating Christmas every day of the year. I wonder what kind of world this would be if all of us would celebrate Christmas every day of the year?

If I were president of the United States, I would enact a law that would set aside one year to be a year of celebrating Christmas all 365 days. I think I would only have to do it once and nobody would want to go back to the old grumpy times of celebrating it only one time out of the year.

I was thinking about this the other night when the Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage jarred me back to reality.

"Have you," she queried most seriously, "finished with your Christmas shopping?"

Christmas shopping! I had forgotten about it. I know we celebrate Christmas every year but I sometimes get so caught up with celebrating Christmas I forget about buying Christmas presents. After all, that Christmas tree would be somewhat naked if there were not Christmas presents to litter around the bottom.

I had to look at my wife and say, "No, I haven't even started."

By the time the dust of that thought settled I had to ask her, "How many Christmas presents do I have to buy?"

"Silly boy," she said with a chuckle that could compete with good old Santa Claus any day of the week, "you got to buy Christmas presents for everybody in our family." Then she chuckled some more just to set that thought into my cranium.

Everybody in our family? Now I am beginning to see red.

Santa's red suit has nothing to do with a North Pole fashion statement; it has everything to do with my financial statement.

I got a piece of paper and together my wife and I jotted down all of the members in our family. A few members I wanted to veto, but my wife vetoed my veto. By the time we were done, I would have to purchase Christmas presents for hundreds and hundreds of family members. Boy, did I see red!

At the beginning of the month of December, my checkbook is in the black, but each day of the month the black begins to fade into expanding shades of red. By the time the 24th of the month comes around my checkbook is a solid, brilliant, scarlet red.

I sighed quite deeply as I closed my checkbook. I almost said to my wife, "Remember the day...?" I stopped short of vocalizing that thought. I thought back when we first were married, which seems like hundreds of years ago, we only got presents for each other. I bought one present for her and she bought one present for me. What a Merry Christmas we had back in "the day."

A few days later as we were wrapping those presents I began thinking of another color. I looked at my wife and said, "This must be what they mean when they talked about the golden days." She laughed, and I thought some more.

My thoughts centered on the fact of what a wonderful family we have. After all those years, we have accumulated a marvelous family. Thinking about all the ones in my family, I began to retract those thoughts of veto.

"You know," I said to my wife quite thoughtfully, "red becomes my checkbook." All that red means all that family.

The Christmas holiday season means family. There is no family more glorious than the family of God. The Bible says, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life" (John 3:16 KJV). The whole spirit of Christmas has to do with giving, and God started it all.

I do not mind a "red" Christmas because everyone in my family is worth it. As Tiny Tim said, "God bless us all, everyone."

Dear Dr. Luauna — The Greatest Gift

Dear Readers,

It has been two years since I started Mission San Diego. I hold a church service on the street every Wednesday in the middle of the city. First service is on Imperial and 14th, one block from the homeless tent at 11 a.m., then at 12 noon a second service on Third and Broadway. Taking the gospel message of Jesus outside the four walls of the church, I set up my pulpit and microphone, start with a prayer, song and then a Bible message.

There are thousands of hurting people, many are broken inside, and I can feel a force of darkness that controls so many homeless people. Yet, looking into their eyes, I see some desire to be free, but they have lost control and are in need of Jesus.

People stroll by as I preach, beautiful women and men who have great jobs, yet they too are filled with fear. I meet many who have once been in high places with prestigious jobs, now wandering the streets overtaken in confusion of their minds, barely able to carry a normal conversation, with a stench so strong from not bathing, and clothes just as dirty.

At first I thought to myself, what I am I doing out here, is anyone listening? Yet people are coming for prayer, they are looking for Hope, JESUS is our HOPE. I know the Lord has me ministering on those streets on Wednesdays for a reason. Jesus hurts for people. Many great people give the homeless food, clean socks, and blankets, yet it is only JESUS who can change them from the inside.

Some people refuse the message of Hope and Salvation. Yet each week I must try to reach them before the trumpet calls. I Thessalonians 4:16-17, says, The TRUTH can set mankind free from sin! I see amazing people, young and old, black and white, rich and poor, and I am reminded, I too was in darkness, and lost without Jesus 33 years ago until someone interrupted my life while I was walking out of a 7-11 store. I was broken, successful in the eyes of the world, but bankrupt in heart. Scarred by sin, and walking in darkness, I was blind but now I see. I am saved to SAVE, that's why am I out on those streets.

Maybe a mother is praying for her a runaway wayward teenager wandering the streets. Maybe a grandmother is praying for her grandson bound on drugs. Maybe a wife and her children are crying out in prayer for their daddy who gave in to a state of despair.

Why a Church Service on the street? Over 250 people have come to Jesus since January 2010. One woman who prayed for her husband, who was bound on drugs for 20 years, came to Jesus; he walked up boldly to receive Jesus right on the street. The next week he returned, only this time, with the whole family, his two teen boys wept as they asked Jesus into their heart.

Is it easy for me to have a church service on the streets? No, many people make fun, and many mock. I Corinthians 1:18; "For the message of the Cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to those who are being saved it is the Power of God."

Every week Jesus is changing a life. One soul at a time I am watching the Holy Spirit move in His power. Another beautiful woman tormented by voices, is now learning to fight those forces in prayer and the Word of God. The streets are filled with people; some with their grocery carts, sit along the wall, and listen to the Word of God. Some leave the same; some are being transformed one sermon at a time. I see a Great need to gather in a harvest.

You may never step out on those streets, or even understand what I am saying. But I'm asking for your prayers. I am called to Go Forth. Thank you for your prayers. If you desire to help me please give through my website: www.atouchfromabove.org I purchase Bibles for those who receive Jesus Christ as Lord.

The greatest gift we can give at Christmas is JESUS, a gift that lives on for eternity. God bless you! I love you in Jesus. Turn your radio on Sunday 6-7 a.m. KPRZ 1210. Write: Dr. Luauna P.O. Box 2800, Ramona, CA 92065. Or email: drluauna@atouchfromabove.org

'Django Unchained'- funny but for mature audiences only

Review by James Colt Harrison

“Over the top” is a phrase invented for show business productions or players which went beyond the normal range of acceptable dramatic situations. John Barrymore comes to mind as one of the great “hams” of filmdom, (his granddaughter Drew Barrymore has escaped that appellation) as does ghoulish Bela Lugosi in his iconic Dracula movies. Fifties filmmaker Ed Wood might also be considered for this dubious accolade. A few of Alfred Hitchcock’s scarier epics can also fall into this category. In modern times the only man who definitely fits this description is director Quentin Tarantino.

Tarantino directed his new southern Western Django Unchained not only over-the-top but beyond it. However, it’s all in fun – or what passes as Tarantino fun. Many scenes are quite funny and have hilarious dialogue. Yes, the man writes as well as he directs, and in this film he even plays a small part himself which sort of blows up in his face after a fashion.

Well-liked actor Jamie Foxx plays a former slave who is bought and freed by German-born traveling dentist Dr. King Schultz (Oscar® winner Christoph Waltz). He has plans for Jamie’s character Django. Schultz makes a good living as a bounty hunter, and he figures Django can help him find the notorious Brittle brothers who have a price on their heads. Django used to work for them and has lost no love over the vicious men who physically beat him on the plantation.

Django joins up with Schultz in hopes of also finding his wife (Kerry Washington), who was sold to plantation owner Calvin Candie (Leonardo DiCaprio). Foxx pulls off a good job in the roller coaster emotions of Django. Whether sitting atop a horse as the only black man to ride one in these days or fighting for his true love, Foxx fills the boots of Django perfectly.

Tarantino throws in a lot of action, horse running, fights, and Ku Klux Klan lynchings that include a hilarious sequence about their hoods that’s a don’t-miss scene.

Mandingo fights to the death with more gunfights than in 10 westerns. It’s almost mandatory a Tarantino film have more blood on the screen than does a Chicago slaughterhouse. A bad guy can’t just have his arm shot; the arm has to be viciously severed in half and the blood is guaranteed to be splattered all over the plantation mansion walls. The beautiful ante-bellum home is in need of heavy repainting when these scenes are repeated with every shoot-out. But they are so outrageous they become funny.

There are several great performances in the film. Leonardo DiCaprio and Christoph Waltz brighten the screen whenever they appear. Waltz, who won a 2009 Best Supporting actor Oscar® for his role as the charmingly vicious Nazi officer in Tarantino’s Inglourious Basterds, should certainly be in contention for that same category this year. His Schultz character enlivens every scene he plays, and the film more or less falls flat when he is not in the picture, so vibrant is his performance.

Special mention must also be made for DiCaprio’s non-lead part as plantation owner Candie. He also can be charming, but he’s in the business of buying and selling slaves. It’s no laughing matter to him. DiCaprio obviously relishes his mean, shrewd character who always wants to come out on top. It’s a part most actors would envy, and DiCaprio gives it his all. He is brilliant. Samuel L. Jackson is also true to his role as Stephen, the head servant to Candie who can be as mean to the other slaves as Candie.

Old Hollywood has always intrigued Tarantino and, as such, he pays tribute to it by using veteran actors Bruce Dern, Russ Tamblyn, Don Johnson (as Big Daddy), James Remar and youngster Jonah Hill in star cameos. Franco Nero, who starred in the original 1966 Django, is also in for a nostalgic nod.

Django Unchained is for sophisticated film buffs who can relate to all the classic Hollywood references. Full of action, laughs, sparkling dialogue (mostly from Waltz), and outrageous situations, it has put the “entertain” back into entertainment.

2013 Chevrolet Silverado

by Dave Stall

Before running out to a Chevy dealer to test drive the all-new 2014 GMC/Silverado, cool those heels a little. The trucks have not arrived, but when they do I know drivers will be impressed. I'll follow up more about this on KCBQ AM 1170 Saturday evenings from 7 to 9 pm and Sunday 7 to 10 pm.

So about the 2013 Chevy Silverado, Chevy likes to say, "Hood to Hitch, the most refined, best engineered Silverado ever." The 2013 and 2014 do share a few things, like the all new EcoTec3 engines designed for more power and efficiency.

According to GMC, the GMC Sierra is considered the most powerful, most advanced and most refined truck in the brand's 110 year history. Both trucks use Cylinder Management that gives V8 performance plus 4 and 6 cylinder efficiency.

Other noteworthy items are the rear step bumper with a grab hold in the top of the bed, and under bed rail lighting. Chevy and GMC said their customers wanted solid steel front and rear bumpers, and now they have them.

One thing I was impressed with was the fact the trucks do not look alike as both have different front ends. GMC uses a LED single headlight that looks as if it's full of rare jewels. Chevy did a fine job as well using a two stacked headlight system.

The interiors are very driver friendly. Designers paid a lot of attention to ergonomics. All major controls in the center stack are high for better visibility and use rubberized knobs for glove handed work.

Engine choices include: 4.3 liter V6, 5.3-liter V8 and the big boy, and a 6.2-liter V8, all EcoTec with fuel mileage in the mid-20s. All trucks come with a standard 6-speed automatic transmission.

Both trucks will come in all the old configurations, 2 wheel drive, 4 wheel drive, 2 door, club door (with forward opening) and of course the 4-door version. Beds have been extended, new colors added, and there are many of the creature comforts expected in a high line truck.

These two trucks may have buyers helping to bring back the economy.

Hope Springs Blu-Ray & DVD – Anyone who enjoyed The Best Exotic Marigold Hotel and is a fan of Meryl Streep or Tommy Lee Jones will enjoy Hope Springs. Many in that category understand how hard it is to keep marriage in tact as well as interesting and fresh. Jones can play a curmudgeon with little effort, which he does quite well here, but it's also nice to see him handling real laughter and making Arnold somewhat likeable. Hope Springs will hit a note with many, and offers some alternative lessons about moving on with life. Chargers fall, easy prey for Panthers

by Chuck Karazsia

For the third time in three years, the San Diego Chargers are not going to the playoffs. That reality sunk in deeply to the hearts and souls of Chargers' fans last Sunday.

The Carolina Panthers stalked into town hungry, then quickly left satisfied licking their chops after unmercifully mauling the hapless San Diego Chargers 31-7 in a contest that really was 'no contest'. This was a lot like the prior week when the Bolts rambled out of Pittsburgh after demolishing the Steelers 34-24, (their first win 'ever' of the regular season in cold Steel-town).

Last Sunday's effort at home by the Chargers was totally unacceptable with what appeared to be no drive or enthusiasm. They were outgained offensively 372-to-164 yards, with virtually no help from the offensive line (giving up five more sacks). Rivers put it on the ground four more times, losing two of those fumbles. Running back Ryan Mathews is lost for the remainder of the season, injured in the game (broken clavicle). The Bolts defense could not handle the opposing quarterback.

Winning the coin toss (a rarity for Carolina this season) the Panthers elected to receive the opening kickoff. Once given the ball Carolina quarterback Cam Newton engineered an explosively potent Carolina offense.

After former Charger Mike Tolbert scored two touchdowns in the second quarter, it was up to Newton to seal the deal with a victory. The 6'5", 245 pound quarterback, last year's number one draft pick demonstrated why he was so highly coveted. A Pro-Bowl in his rookie year, Newton showcased his pure speed, athleticism and running ability, not to mention a rocket arm. Combining all his skills he effectively managed his offense to a 21-0 first quarter lead, 24-0 at halftime.

Completing 19-of-33 passes for 231 yards, Newton threw a touchdown to S. Smith (4-yards) and to D. Williams (45-yards), while throwing no interceptions, finishing the game with a quarterback rating of nearly 100.0

Chargers quarterback Philip Rivers had a similar QB rating, but completed only 121-yards of passes – his longest to Malcolm Floyd (nine yards). Floyd left the game injured in the fourth quarter. Only once has Rivers had a worse game with passing yardage and that was in the NFL in his first game as an NFL starter against K.C.

Not too many positives in this game for the Bolts except this very special one.

Antonio Gates' nine yard reception in the fourth quarter gave the future Hall of Famer tight end 81 touchdown receptions in his career, tying him with Lance (Bambi) Alworth for the most in Chargers' history.

The Bolts defense got two sacks on Cam Newton; one from Gachkar the other Garay. The athletic versatility of Newton to run and throw kept the Bolts defense on the back of their feet.

Both teams are (5-9) on the season. The Panthers win may have saved their head coaches job. The same may or may not be said of the Chargers and their head coach.

A forlorn Norv Turner addressed the media at the podium Sunday saying, "Carolina is playing offense as well as anyone in this league. They're one of the top teams in big plays. Over the last month their quarterback has played at an unusually high level. I knew offensively it would be a tough challenge."

Another tough challenge awaits the Chargers Sunday as they travel to New York in an attempt to throttle the Jets. Kickoff is 10 a.m.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED CONSTRUCTION
Project Name: Notice of proposed construction of FANITA JUNCTION ENHANCEMENT (tie line replacement project of tie lines 13821 and 13828 LOCATED ON MCAS MIRAMAR AND THE CITIES OF SAN DIEGO AND SANTEE, CALIFORNIA)
Date: December 12, 2012
SDG&E Advice Letter Number 2433-E
Proposed Project:
In an effort to meet North American Electric Reliability Corporation (NERC) mandated reliability requirements and to enhance the performance of the electrical system in San Diego Gas & Electric's Company's (SDG&E's) service territory, SDG&E proposes to replace existing electrical infrastructure along Tie Line (TL) 13821, an existing above-ground 138 kilovolt (kV) double-circuit power line located on Marine Corps Air Station (MCAS) Miramar and in the cities of San Diego and Santee, in the west-central portion of San Diego County (see the project overview sheet in Appendix A-1). The project also will separate the three-terminal TL 13821 line into two two-terminal lines, renumbering one of the lines TL 13828. Creating TL 13828 does not entail realignment of any power lines or relocation of any poles. The project proposes to reconductor the existing TL 13821 power line and replace existing wooden and steel pole structures with new galvanized steel and concrete poles, depending on their location. One new steel pole and one new wood pole will be installed along the existing alignment. To comply with mandatory reliability requirements and to bring the facilities into compliance with SDG&E's current design standards, the power line will be replaced with a heavier conductor which will enhance performance in high winds and be designed to meet the most stringent design criteria of NERC or General Order 95. The project is partially located in an area designated as "Very High to Extreme" fire threat zone, as indicated on SDG&E's 2012 Fire Threat Zone Map. As a result, the project complies with current design standards to reduce fire risks and will implement a project-specific fire plan to minimize the fire risks during construction. Project Description:
The project entails replacing and modifying existing electrical infrastructure, including poles and overhead conductor, on an approximately 11-mile stretch of TL 13821 spanning between the Sycamore, Carlton Hills, and Santee Substations. Approximately 5 miles of the project is located on MCAS Miramar. The project also will convert TL 13821, an existing 3-terminal power line, into two 2-terminal lines -- TL 13821 from the Sycamore Substation to the Santee Substation (8 miles), and TL 13828 from the Sycamore Substation to the Carlton Hills Substation (7 miles). All project-related infrastructure will remain above ground and will follow the existing alignment. Magnetic Field Management:
The California Public Utilities Commission requires utilities to consider "no-cost" and "low-cost" magnetic field management measures on all new transmission projects. SDG&E will implement magnetic field management measures on this Project, as appropriate, in accordance with its EMF Design Guidelines for Electrical Facilities (Guidelines), as filed with the CPUC in compliance with D.93-11-013 and updated in compliance with D.06-01-042. "No-cost" measures are those that will not increase overall project costs but will reduce the magnetic field levels. "Low-cost" measures are those costing in the range of 4% of the total budgeted project cost which would reduce the magnetic field levels by at least 15% at the edge of Right-of-Way. SDG&E will provide a Magnetic Field Management Plan for this project upon request. Exemption from CPUC Authority:
The Project is exempt from G.O. 131-D, Section III.A Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity (CPCN) requirements because all of the applicable facilities operate below 200kV. It is also exempt from the requirements of GO 131-D for a Permit to Construct (PTC) because it qualifies for an exemption under • Section III.B.1.b. -- "the replacement of existing power line facilities or supporting structures with equivalent facilities or structures,"
• and Section III.B.1.g. -- "power line facilities ... to be located in an existing franchise ... or public utility easement;"
• and there are no other exceptions to the exemption.
SDG&E has reviewed the project for potential environmental impacts, including temporary construction impacts occurring outside of the right-of-way (within staging yards, stringing sites and helicopter landing sites), and found that this project will not create any significant direct, indirect or cumulative effects. Further, the results of the environmental review do not find any exceptions to the exemptions from a PTC, as described in G.O. 131-D.III.B.2. Public Review Process:

The full version of SDG&E's Advice Letter 2433-E is available for review on SDG&E's website at <http://sdge.com/rates-regulations/tariff-information/advice-letters>. Persons or groups may protest the proposed construction if they believe the utility has incorrectly applied for an exemption or believe there is a reasonable possibility that the proposed project or cumulative effects or unusual circumstances associated with the project may adversely impact the environment. Pursuant to CPUC GO 131-D, Section XIII., protests must be filed by January 2, 2013, which is 20 calendar days following the date this informational Advice Letter was filed with the Commission. All protests must be filed formally at the CPUC and SDG&E concurrently in accordance with the CPUC's Rules of Practice and Procedure to those listed below.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR A PERMIT TO CONSTRUCT
San Diego Gas & Electric Company
(SDG&E) TL 6931 Fire Hardening / Wind Interconnect Project
Date: December 13, 2012
CPUC Application No.: 12-12-007
• Proposed Project: San Diego Gas & Electric Company (SDG&E) has filed an application with the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) for a Permit to Construct the San Diego Gas & Electric (Proposed Project). As presented by SDG&E, and further described in the Proponent's Environmental Assessment (PEA). The Proposed Project is needed to fire harden an existing 69 kilovolt (kV) wood pole power line (TL 6931) located within a high fire risk area and to provide the interconnection facilities necessary for the Shu'luuk Wind Project. The Proposed Project includes the following elements:
• Approximately 5.2 miles of TL 6931 from the Campo Reservation boundary to the Boulevard Substation will be fire hardened by replacing or modifying approximately 49 existing wood, single-circuit 69 kV poles with approximately 53 double-circuit dull galvanized steel poles.
• A new second circuit would be configured as either a 138 kV generation interconnection circuit for the proposed Shu'luuk Wind Project (in the event that project is constructed) or a vacant position for a second circuit to be installed as needed in the future.
Environmental Assessment : SDG&E has prepared a PEA that includes the analysis of potential environmental impacts created by the construction and operation of the proposed substation and associated facilities. The PEA concludes there are no unmitigable environmental impacts to the area as a result of the Proposed Project.
Electric Magnetic Field (EMF) Management : SDG&E will employ measures to reduce public exposure to EMF in accordance with CPUC Decisions 93-11-013 and 06-01-042 and SDG&E's "EMF Design Guidelines for Transmission, Distribution, and Substation Facilities." SDG&E has filed copies of its Magnetic Field Management Plan for this Proposed Project as part of its Application. Public Review Process : SDG&E has applied to the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) for a Permit to Construct and has asked for approval without hearings. Pursuant to the CPUC's Rules of Practice and Procedure, within 30 calendar days of the date of notice that this Application appears in the CPUC calendar, you may protest and request that the CPUC hold hearings on this Application. If the CPUC, as a result of its investigation, determines that public hearings should be held, notice shall be sent to each person or entity who is entitled to notice or who has requested a hearing. THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that JOSEPHINE DADAMO be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent. THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. A HEARING on the petition will be held on January 15, 2013 at 11:00 a.m. in Dept. PC-1 located at The Madge Bradley Building, 1409 4th Avenue, San Diego, CA 92101. IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the deceased, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within four months from the date of first issuance of letters as provided in Probate Code section 9100. The time for filing claims will not expire before four months from the hearing date noticed above. YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk. Attorney for Petitioner: Steven F. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same Lender may hold more than one mortgage or Deed of Trust on the property. Notice to Property Owner The sale date shown on this Notice of Sale may be postponed one or more times by the Mortgagee, Beneficiary, Trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. Dogs sent to Newtown to comfort grieving

A team of specially trained dogs just journeyed 800 miles to help grieving children and adults at funerals and other gatherings this week in Newtown, Conn.

The dogs all come from the K-9 Comfort Dog Ministry at Lutheran Church Charities, based near Chicago. The dogs were present yesterday at Newton High School when President Obama spoke about the recent massacre.

"Dogs are non-judgmental. They are loving. They are accepting of anyone," Tim Hetzner, president of the organization, told the Chicago Tribune. "It creates the atmosphere for people to share."

People and kids often pet the dogs while they talk or pray with the handlers. Sometimes those who are grieving prefer just to spend quiet time with the dogs, receiving comfort from their assuring presence.

The dogs are deployed during national disasters. But they also handle daily matters where their soothing help is needed, such as at hospitals and nursing homes. Each dog carries a business card listing its name, Facebook page, Twitter account and e-mail address so that those who connect can stay in touch.

At present, the following K-9 Comfort Dogs are in Connecticut: Abbi, Barnabas, Chewie, Hannah, Luther, Prince and Ruthie.

"The dogs have become the bridge," Lynn Buhrke, 66, who is a dog handler for a female golden retriever named Chewie, told the Chicago Tribune. "People just sit down and talk to you."

Yesterday the dogs went to Christ the King Lutheran Church, where funerals are being held this week for two of the victims.

Of kids grappling with the tragedy, Hetzner said, "You could tell which ones were really struggling with their grief because they were quiet. They would pet the dog, and they would just be quiet."

Adults and seniors are also approaching the dogs, many with tears streaming down their faces. One man said the massacre brought back to life other deaths in his family. He shared that "the entire town is suffering."

The comfort dog project has been in place for four years. It began in 2008, after a gunman killed five students at Northern Illinois University. Now 60 dogs in six states are prepared to help out when tragedy strikes.

"There are a lot of people that are hurting," Hetzner said. It's "good for the children to have something that is not the shooting."
