Make Your Reservations For The Historic Home Tour Saturday - May 4

As part of the City of El Cajon's Centennial Year Celebration, the El Cajon Historical Society is having a Historic Home Tour on Saturday, May 4, of the JPR Hall Ranch Home. The Hall family arrived in San Diego in 1886, and not finding it to their liking, moved to El Cajon, where Jesse Phillip Rexford Hall and his wife Charlotte purchased 60 acres for wheat, fruit trees, and a vineyard in the east end of the Valley. Later, their eldest son, Wilson Dana Hall, added 40 acres to the south for wheat. JPR, and son WD, built this redwood home in about 1896, after WD had been working on the Hotel Del Coronado. Visit this beautiful home during the Historic Home Tour on Saturday, May 4, from 1 to 4 p.m. Don't miss this rare opportunity to tour one of El Cajon's historic homes! The cost is $15 in advance, $20 at the door. Enjoy lemonade & iced tea in the garden. Please note: due to the steps, stairs and old walkways, please wear flat shoes. Proceeds benefit the El Cajon Historical Society. Mail checks to ECHS, P.O. Box 1973, El Cajon, CA 92022. # El Cajon Centennial Moments

Sharing a piece of history

Centennial Moment: J.P.R. house built in 1890s

Below is an excerpt from Bus and Auto Tour of Historical El Cajon by the El Cajon Historical Society. The excerpt describes the Historic JPR Hall Ranch House, which was the focal point of a 60-acre ranch with wheat, hay, an orchard and a vineyard planted by the parents and siblings of W.D. Hall.

Jesse Phillip Rexford and his wife Charlotte arrived in San Diego in 1886 and not finding the city to their liking, bought land in the east end of the El Cajon Valley. After working on the Hotel Del Coronado (now 125 years old), Wilson Dana Hall, eldest son, helped his father build the current home out of redwood. The family gave up the home in the 1930s and after various owners, remodeling in the 1940s, and sale of much of the land, the home is now surrounded by tract housing. The home was purchased in 1959 by former City Councilman and Mayor Albert Van Zanten and his wife June. It is now owned by their daughter Jonna Waite and her husband Ken.

"J.P.R. Hall house: In 1898 on what is now a cul de sac, settler J.P.R. Hall built this Victorian house for his wife and ten children.

1898 Hall house.

For the previous 13 years they'd lived in a much smaller house on what was their 60 acre-ranch. The front of this notable house reveals high-pitched, double-cross gables with double-sashed windows surrounded by narrow side-by-side boards on the bias. After building it, Hall joked that he had a 10-room house with 12 Halls in it. One of those children, W.D. Hall, grew up to own the popular hardware store and lumberyard where City Hall now stands. Privately owned, this home has been often used for fundraising luncheons benefitting the Society."

In celebration of our Centennial, the El Cajon Historical Society will sponsor a tour of the Historic JPR Hall Ranch House, located within the City of El Cajon. ## Heartland Fire Training hosts mixer

Heartland Fire Training Facility hosted a joint chamber mixer on March 28 at the El Cajon training facility at 1301 N. Marshall. The mixer was an opportunity for East County chambers to learn about the facility that provides an ongoing training for the cities of El Cajon, La Mesa, Santee and Lemon Grove, and the fire protection districts of Lakeside, Alpine, Bonita, San Miguel, San Diego County Fire Authority, and Viejas.

The meet your firefighter's event provided static displays and attendee-participated events. Approximately 300 people visited the various displays that included truck company, engine and medic unit, building search-thermal imaging camera, surface rescue-CERT and search dog operations, squirt water and a station tour. Demonstrations featured auto extrication lead R-5 Santee and a rope rescue demo-lead San Miguel. The Cert team consisted of two disaster canines.

Heartland Regional Fire Training Foundation is a non-profit corporation which supports the fire and emergency response communities within San Diego East County.

POLITICALLY SPEAKING

Local Representatives speak out

Are You kidding me?

Assemblyman Jones responds to Legislation to remove the Boy Scouts of America's tax-exempt status

Recently I responded to legislation introduced by one of my Democrat colleagues that will remove the Boy Scouts of America's tax-exempt status as a public charity youth organization. The radical left has widely criticized the Boy Scouts for their founding principles even though the U.S. Supreme Court ruled in favor of those principles. Furthermore, the organization dedicated to the public good meets every legal condition to be a tax-exempt organization.

Liberals want to punish them for their philosophical beliefs by making them pay taxes that they've never paid before. When the founding fathers set up our country, this is the exact type of tyranny they taught us to resist. We must fight against this tyranny of taxation and protect the Boy Scouts of America, because their good deeds and community service have benefited our country for over 100 years.

Californians Aren't Consuming Enough Gas

Assemblyman Jones responds to the Board of Equalization's decision to raise gas taxes

Assemblyman Brian Jones, R-Santee, responds to a decision by the Board of Equalization to raise gas taxes by another 3.5 cents per gallon – even though Californians already pay close to 70 cents in taxes per gallon. After the July 1 tax increase, California will have the highest gas tax rate in the nation. The Board of Equalization says the tax increase is due to a "short-fall" in gas tax revenue, partially related to less consumption by drivers. Jones says, "Democrats said after November that they would practice restraint when it comes to new taxes and regulations, but all we've seen is more taxing and more spending. It's time for you – the citizens – to start a tax revolution. Let's hold lawmakers accountable and make sure to let them know you can't afford their wasteful and reckless taxing and spending addiction."

Assemblyman Brian Jones, Republican Caucus Chairman, represents the 71st Assembly District, which includes the communities of eastern San Diego County, including Alpine, Borrego Springs, Casa de Oro - Mount Helix, El Cajon, Lakeside, Ramona, Rancho San Diego, Santee and Spring Valley; and southern Riverside County, including Anza, Aguanga, Idyllwild-Pine Cove, Lake Riverside and Mountain Center.

Supervisor Dianne Jacob reacts to the FAA decision to close the Ramona Air Traffic Control Tower:

"I am deeply troubled by the FAA's decision to close down the Ramona air traffic control tower. Clearly, this is a situation where the federal government can't get its budget act together and is failing to put public safety first."

I have Easter on my mind

by Dr. Rev. James L. Snyder

I am not one to boast, at least not about myself unless someone is listening, but I do give some time to exercising the little gray cells in my mind. Many people, no names given, spend most of their time yapping while people like me spend their time napping. While napping, I am also exercising my mind

Some people exercise their mind by doing crossword puzzles. I tried this but every once in a while I'll think of the right word and then that word makes me think of something else and that makes me think of something else altogether and pretty soon I'm off on one of my little mind trips

One thing about these little mind trips of mine, they do not cost very much and when I come to, I am quite refreshed.

One danger about my little mind trips is that sometimes I am not alone when I am tripping out. This can be quite dangerous to my health.

Last week, for example, I was driving across town and happened to engage in one of my little mind trips. It must have been a good one because I was thoroughly enjoying my trip and then I began to hear in the background a variety of words that did not seem connected nor did they make sense. These words did not have anything whatsoever to do with the little trip I was on at the time.

Then the words started to fall into some kind of an order. Are... You... Listening... To... What... I'm... Saying?

At first, they did not seem connected and to be truthful it rather upset me because these words were interrupting a very nice mind trip I was on at the time. I hate it when I am interrupted by such nonsense.

For some reason I happened to glance over to my right and was shocked to discover that the Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage was sitting in the passenger seat. At first, I thought I was hallucinating. However, she was looking back at me!

I stared at her for a minute and then demanded, "What are you doing in my car?"

She gave me one of those looks indicating I was in serious trouble. Then it dawned on me. We were going across town to go shopping. For some reason I had tuned everything out and slipped into a wonderful mind trip.

Well, for the rest of the trip I was listening to a voice but that voice was not in my head; it was in my ears. Both of them. I had to leave my little mind trip for another occasion when I was by myself.

I must confess that when I get on one of those mind trips of mine I lose sense of everything around me. I have a very active mind; of course, my wife says I have a very active imagination. I am not sure the difference, and I am not about to ask her, either. Some mysteries in life should be just that. A mystery.

One mind trip that I get on to about this time a year is Easter. Lately I have had Easter on my mind.

I know the word "Easter," is not a very politically correct word today. But then I am not running for politics, in fact, I am running away from politics as much as possible. I like the word Easter.

In some places, they are changing the Easter Bunny to the Spring Bunny and the Easter Egg Hunt to the Spring

Egg Hunt. This is supposed to be more PC tolerable. After all, it is important that we should be PC in everything we do.

Those people who object to the word "Easter," I wonder if they really know where it came from.

To some the Easter Bunny has some kind of a religious connotation. Personally, I never discovered what denomination the Easter Bunny is a member of. Where does the Easter Bunny attend church? The First Church of the Easter Egg Hunt?

It has become a popular thing not to tolerate religion in our country. Well, let me correct that. We tolerate all religions except Christianity.

It is too bad the people who cannot tolerate Christianity are unable to read. I think it is sad this generation is not able to read anymore, because if they were, they might read some of the history of this country and discover it was founded on Christian principles. Imagine that!

I can understand why people are confused about Easter with the Easter Bunny and the Easter Egg. Most are confused about how the Easter Bunny can lay Easter Eggs. They are only familiar with Bugs Bunny and everybody knows he cannot lay an egg. So, where do these mysterious Easter Eggs come from?

Laying all that nonsense aside, and that is all it is, Easter has some very wonderful memories for me. Say what they will, nothing they say can undermine the wonderful thoughts I have about Easter.

I like what the apostle Paul says, "For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures" (1 Corinthians 15:3-4 KJV).

The songwriter was right when he said, "Because He lives, I can face tomorrow."

Dear Dr. Luauna — Blindness

I have two church services on the street Thursday and Saturdays at 12 noon, in the heart of San Diego, CA, and they have really touched my heart. I run across many who say, "I don't believe in God, or God loves me just the way I am."

I want to talk about "blindness." We are told in II Corinthians 4:4; "Whose minds the god of this age has blinded, who do not believe, lest the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine on them."

Jesus sees this man blinded from birth and heals him. The story is in John 9:1-41 (Please read this whole story). The purpose of Jesus Christ is to open up blind eyes. I'm not talking about those who were born blind. I'm talking about the spiritually blind. Jesus shared His purpose in, Luke 4:18; "The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me, because He has anointed Me to preach the gospel to the poor; He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed."

Jesus didn't come for religion. He came to set the captives free from sin and the bondage of Satan. In this story we see a group of well-versed men of the law, yet they didn't understand the freedom this man received. His sight! The blind man said it so well, "All I know is, I was once blind, and now I see."

When Jesus touches a life, no one can argue with a life that has been changed. Going to church, and never having a touch from Jesus can leave one like the Jewish Priests in the text; John 9:18; But the Jews didn't believe that he had received his sight until they called his parents. These men were filled with religion, yet were so critical. We must be very careful, and guard our hearts. May we truly have a touch from Jesus Christ, and follow His Word.

To be spiritually blinded is the worst kind of blindness. To hear the Word of God over and over every Sunday, and yet not obey His Word makes one spiritually blind. Don't allow the god of this world to blind you from the Truth of God's Word. These men, who came against the blind man, were blinder than the blind man had ever been. They were blinded by religion and spiritual blindness. We are to follow the Word of God with all our heart, and when we find ourselves in the wrong be quick to repent in order to keep our hearts right before God.

Another powerful true story is in Act 9:18; "Immediately there fell from his eyes something like scales, and he received his sight at once; and he arose and was baptized. Saul was blinded in his heart against the truth. The god of this world had blinded him. With all respect I say, many are blinded in the world, and with much regret I say, many are still blinded while attending church. What brings spiritual blindness? James 1:22; "But be doers of the Word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves."

We can be blind in the church by not doing what the Bible says. Let us not be blinded today. We must pray, obey, read God's Word, and apply it to our daily lives. Jesus loves you and so do I.

Help for stuttering — complex disorder devastating for children and parents

Parents eagerly anticipate the moment when their child first begins to talk. But for some parents, it is a time of anxiety because their child struggles to get words out. As many as five percent of preschool children nationwide have repetitions and prolongations of sounds severe enough to be of concern to their parents.

The DVD in English and Spanish, Stuttering and Your Child: Help for Parents, helps parents detect stuttering and take action toward helping their child and is available at most public libraries. Some libraries have an older video format.

Produced by the nonprofit Stuttering Foundation, the film describes what kinds of stuttering young children may exhibit, how parents can help at home, and the role of a speech pathologist in evaluating and treating children who stutter.

"Stuttering typically begins between the ages of two and five," says Barry Guitar, Ph.D., professor and chair of Communication Sciences at the University of Vermont in Burlington. "It may begin gradually or suddenly, and many of these children outgrow their disfluencies naturally. However, if a child continues to stutter for several months, or appears to be frustrated by it, parents should seek assistance."

Guitar appears in the DVD with other nationally recognized experts in stuttering: Peter Ramig, Ph.D., of the University of Colorado at Boulder, Diane Hill, M.A., of Northwestern University, Patricia Zebrowski, Ph.D., of the University of Iowa, and Kristin Chmela, M.A., also of Northwestern University.

These experts address common concerns that parents have about their child, such as how to help the child at home and whether to seek the advice of a speech pathologist.

Strategies parents can use to help reduce stuttering are given throughout the DVD and include reducing the number of questions they ask the child, focusing on taking turns during conversations, and making time to read or talk with the child in a relaxed manner.

"Parents are relieved to discover that they are not alone and that other parents share their concerns," says speech pathologist Kristin Chmela.

"Stuttering remains a mystery to most people," notes Jane Fraser, president of the Stuttering Foundation. "Watching a young child struggle to speak can be devastating. This DVD is designed to reassure parents and families that many preschoolers stutter, that they can be helped, and how parents can play a vital role in this process."

Books and DVDs produced by the 66-year-old nonprofit Stuttering Foundation are available free to any public library. A library that will shelve them can contact the Foundation at 1-800-992-9392, e-mail info@stutteringhelp.org, or visit www.stutteringhelp.org or www.tartarmudez.org.

7 Tips for talking with your child

1. Speak with your child in an unhurried way, pausing frequently.
2. Reduce the number of questions you ask your child.
3. Use your facial expressions and other body language to convey to your child that you are listening to the content of her message and not to how she's talking.
4. Set aside a few minutes at a regular time each day when you can give your undivided attention to your child.
5. Help all members of the family learn to take turns talking and listening.
6. Observe the way you interact with your child.
7. Above all, convey that you accept your child as he is.

Between the pages

A little boy opened the big and old family Bible with fascination, and looked at the old pages as he turned them. Suddenly, something fell out of the Bible, and he picked it up and looked at it closely. It was an old leaf from a tree that had been pressed in between the pages.

"Momma, look what I found," the boy called out.

"What have you got there, dear?" his mother asked.

With astonishment in the young boy's voice, he answered: "I think it's Adam's suit!"

April 5-6: Two Plays; Two Ways to Support Grossmont College Theater Arts — A one-act play exploring the human condition and a performance employing the magic of Mask Theatre and movement will be performed April 5 and 6 at Grossmont College, both as fundraisers for the theatre arts program. Brian Rickel, Grossmont College theater arts instructor, will portray 14 different characters in "Judevine: A Solo," at 7:30 p.m. April 5, in a performance that contains adult themes and language. Originally written by David Budbill as a two- and three-act play, "Judevine" uses a collection of vignettes and monologues to portray 24 different characters. Directed by Kari Hayter, Rickel's adaptation draws from both versions of the play and a book of poetry, on which the play is based.

Jerry Hager, Grossmont College theater arts instructor, will perform two original works in "Stories That Come to Mime" at 7:30 p.m. April 6, with special guest performer Joshua Sprague, a Grossmont College theater arts student. "Love," a romantic comedy, features two middle-aged people looking for love who arrange a rendezvous only to discover a startling surprise. Their adventure opens the door to a new chapter in their lives. The story of "Life," loosely based on Shakespeare's "All the World's a Stage," tells the journey of eight lives through Mask Theatre artistry. Hager creates and performs life's ups and downs, rewards and challenges through his masked characters.

Tickets for each performance are $20 for general admission and $10 for Grossmont College students with identification. They can be purchased through the box office at (619) 644-7234 or online at www.grossmont.edu/theatrebrochure. All major credit cards are accepted. Tickets can also be purchased at the door for cash only one hour prior to both of the performances.

Through Dec. 31: Ripley's Believe It or Not! returns to San Diego for the first time in nearly 80 years—new one-of-a-kind special exhibition at the San Diego Air & Space Museum opens Friday. Exhibit explores the weird and wacky world of Ripley - a real-life Indiana Jones. This is the first time a Ripley's exhibition has been to San Diego since the California Pacific International Exposition in 1935, the same year the Museum's Ford Building was built. The Ripley's Believe It or Not! Museum, in collaboration with the San Diego Air & Space Museum, created this special exhibition specifically for San Diego. This exhibition is the only one of its kind in the world. For over 40 years, Robert Ripley - a real-life Indiana Jones - traveled the world collecting the unbelievable and the inexplicable. His vast collections, praised as "amazing," "ludicrously strange," and "extremely amusing" are on display at the Museum for visitors to see. The Ripley's Believe It or Not! special exhibition is a self-guided, self-paced interactive tour that is fun for the whole family and allows guests to fully enjoy San Diego's most bizarre attraction. Admission to Ripley's Believe It or Not! is only $5 (with general admission) and includes entrance to the general Museum galleries. # Sycuan Live and Up Close Theatre set to entertain

by Diana Saenger

Spring is here and it's time to get out and enjoy some of San Diego's top talent. Sycuan's Live and Up Close Theatre features top-notch entertainment in a great theatre environment. The current show schedule (listed below) varies and special events are frequent. Patrons must be 21 and over to attend concerts.

Sunday, April 7, 7 p.m. – Tracy Lawrence

Tracy Lawrence's respect for country-music tradition has made him one of his genre's cornerstone stylists. The Arkansas native burst on the scene with 1991's Platinum-selling Sticks and Stones. The album contained four massive radio hits, including its title tune. Alibis, issued in 1993, sold more than two million copies and spawned four consecutive No. 1 hits, "Alibis," "Can't Break it to My Heart," "My Second Home" and "If the Good Die Young."

"Can't Break it to My Heart" and "My Second Home" were the first hits that he co-wrote. Lawrence also had a hand in penning "If the World Had a Front Porch" (1995), "Stars Over Texas" (1996), "How a Cowgirl Says Goodbye" (1997) and "Lessons Learned" (2000).

Over the past three or four years he's matured with favorite songs that have a moral foundation, insight, substance and a message. His journey as a record producer began with 1993's "Renegades, Rebels and Rogues" from the soundtrack of the movie Maverick. His Platinum-selling 1994 CD I See it Now had three self-produced songs on it. The Double Platinum Time Marches On (1996) and Gold-selling The Coast Is Clear (1997) each contained five tunes that the artist co-produced. Then came the 1999 all-star collection The Civil War: The Nashville Sessions, the first full album he guided. He won a Grammy nomination for THE ROCK in 2009.

The new Tracy Lawrence album, titled THE SINGER, is a showcase for one of the most unforgettable voices in contemporary country music. He co-wrote six of the new CD's songs and created a striking new sound for himself. Lawrence offers a refreshing, stripped-down, "unplugged" record that throws the spotlight on songs' lyrics and his beautifully resonant voice.

In Nashville, he is famed for his massive annual turkey frying for the homeless each Thanksgiving. His golf tournament raises funds to battle breast cancer. Over the years, he has devoted his time and talent to many other causes and charities.

Tickets: $35 / $45
No ticket fees!

Thursday, April 8, 8: p.m. – Paul Reiser

Paul Reiser is an actor and comedian who has appeared in many popular TV shows such as Mad About You, My Two Dads, and performed at the local New York comedy clubs Catch a Rising Star, The Comic Strip and The Improv. Born and raised in New York City, Reiser earned a bachelor of arts degree in music, concentrating on piano and composition, from the State University of New York at Binghamton. His film roles include Diner, Beverly Hills Cop, Aliens, The Marrying Man, Crazy People, Family Prayers, Mr. Write and Bye Bye, Love. Reiser co-wrote Mad About You's theme song, and the lyrics for the CD "Lullabye For You," with music by Billy Joel and sung by BeBe Winans. His first book, 1994's Couplehood, about married life and love, reached the #1 spot on the New York Times bestseller list. Reiser was most recently seen in the feature film One Night At McCool's, alongside Michael Douglas, John Goodman and Liv Tyler.

Tickets: $25 / $35
No ticket fees!

Sunday, April 14, 7: p.m. – Lee Brice

Lee Brice is anything but hard to love for country fans these days. After earning number one hits by the likes of Garth Brooks and the Eli Young Band through the power of his pen, Lee started making waves as a singer in his own right with LOVE LIKE CRAZY, A WOMAN LIKE YOU, and HARD TO LOVE during the past couple of years. Now, he strikes a very powerful chord with his latest chart-climbing hit I DRIVE YOUR TRUCK. For more on Lee, check out LeeBrice.com.

Paul Reiser

Tickets: $35 / $45
No ticket fees

Tickets are on sale now online at Sycuan.com or at the Live and Up Close ticket office inside the casino. Sycuan Casino is located at 5469 Casino Way, El Cajon, CA 92019.

Make an effort to see 'As Luck Would Have it'

Previews by Diana Saenger

Many can relate to the struggle of Roberto (José Mota) in As Luck Would Have It. It's been years since Roberto held high promise in jobs in the advertising field. While some wives would be done with him, his sweet wife Luisa (Salma Hayek) cuddles and encourages him. She irons his shirt and sends him off to a company where he knows some of the higher-ups such as Javier (Joaquin Climent).

Several incidents here only belittle and depress Roberto even more. How can he go home and tell Luisa he has no job, and the two kids can't go to college? Longing to feel something positive about his life Roberto daydreams about the trip he and Luisa were going to take when he got a job. That would be back to the hotel in Cartagena where he and Luisa celebrated their honeymoon.

When Roberto arrives he sees that the hotel is long gone and in its place is a huge museum that is still under construction. Yet another case of bad luck is more than he can endure. Wanting to find just a little piece of any remembrance to happier times there, Roberto goes past the "do not enter" barriers and ends up dangling from a huge statue hanging off a crane. Moments later he slips and falls face up on barbed wire framing with a piece of barbed wire sticking into the back of his head.

The accident turns into a circus with news people and crowds rushing in to watch the turn of events first hand. Roberto is excited that this accident might be his saving grace. He hires an agent to negotiate commercial, TV time and an exclusive interview.

When Luisa hears about the accident she immediately rushes to Roberto's side and summons his two children. Luisa is appalled that Roberto has reduced himself to a paycheck and goes one on one with agent Johnnie (Fernando Tejero) and refusing the offer of $2 million for the interview tape.

Mota is a Spanish TV comedian and he brings a light heartedness to Roberto's plight. The many times that someone bounces the boards he's on and steps on him and he shutters and screams, is at once funny and breath-holding.

Hayek doesn't have to do much to instill realism in her characters. She plays Luisa perky and sweet as the loving and encouraging wife at home; but on the accident scene she becomes a roaring lion, "My husband is not for sale!"

Their two children, Lorenzo (Eduardo Casanova) and Barbara (Nerea Camacho), make a brief appearance to their father's side with Lorenzo bringing some of his own comic relief in the way he looks and dresses which only angers Roberto even more.

Viewers of As Luck Would Have It will have different reactions to this scenario and ending of the film. Some will enjoy the dark comedy, while others will certainly sympathize with the family's plight. Either way, it's enjoyable.

As Luck Would Have It is a Spanish film with English subtitles, but don't shy away because of that. A good story is a good story in any language and watching such one tends to forget they are reading and instead gets involved in the story. The film is showing at the new Digital Gym – part of the Media Arts Center, 2921 El Cajon Blvd, San Diego. The Digital Gym is part media experiences, lab, store and classes in visual arts and has a very nice intimate film theatre. # 'G.I. Joe: Retaliation' – a rousing adventure

Bruce Willis and Dwayne Johnson star in G.I. Joe: Retaliation.

Review by James Colt Harrison

There was so much testosterone in the air in the theater at a screening of G.I. Joe: Retaliation that the girl sitting next to me started growing a moustache. Mine fell off from an overdose. Whenever a Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson movie is released, you can bet there will be lots of muscle thrown around, sometimes just to stimulate the ladies.

However, Dwayne looks great but can't act too much because it will spoil his image, and is generally greatly likeable. We don't have to worry about his going bad because he is always the hero and never lets the audience forget. He can blast his way out of a difficult situation with ease, or squeeze the enemy to smithereens with his boa constrictor biceps. Johnson is a star.

The plot here is secondary to all the action sequences. The CGI staff worked overtime to create some stunning shots of men flying through the air in sky-high mountains surrounding an Asian aerie for the bad guys. Explosions, sword fights, ju-jitsu, and good old American fisticuffs pummel the viewer every five seconds. Action scenes are strung together with the flimsiest plot threads only to move on to yet another series of head-bopping, mouth-dropping "how-did-they-do-that?" scenes.

Director Jon M. Chu seemingly is a graduate of the old Hong Kong Kung Fu School of Filmmaking and a classmate of veteran Jackie Chan. Handsome young Asian star Lee Byung-hun returns as Storm Shadow to participate in the most unbelievably stunning karate chops and sword slashings ever put on screen. He is certainly enjoyable to watch. He is constantly in the air, spinning, whirling and gyrating at the speed of light. He doesn't like the bad guys.

There is nothing new here in the plot. The team of G.I. Joe's has been discredited by the President of the United States (Jonathan Pryce). They were framed by evil Zartan (Arnold Vosloo) for stealing nuclear warheads from Pakistan. Meanwhile, his team of no-goodniks is impersonating the real President with a Pryce look-alike. Naturally, in a plot device as old as the silent movies, the evil ones want to take over the world by confiscating all the nuclear bombs.

Current heart-throb Channing Tatum, completely dressed and void of any gyrations that shot him to stardom last year in Magic Mike, makes a pointless appearance in the film. He's there merely for name value. All the publicity about his part being beefed up certainly doesn't show as he comes in for what amounts to a large cameo. In case you're interested, his buns look just as good in 3D as they did on a flat screen.

Young Joseph Gordon-Levitt did not return as Cobra Commander in this sequel and, as such, his was the best part not in the picture. Also not returning was Sienna Miller, and this happy circumstance greatly improved the movie.

Action fans will flock to this movie. Johnson is a great favorite, Tatum is catnip to the ladies, and young boys love explosions and plane crashes. With every scene an ear-splitting catastrophe or a kung fu extravaganza, what more could you ask?

Season over for Aztecs men's basketball

by Chuck Karaszia

Two games into the NCAA tournament, San Diego State men's basketball post season came to an abrupt end at the Wells Fargo Arena losing to Florida Gulf Coast 81-71 in the South Regional in south Philadelphia.

Aztecs fans are puzzled after the stinging loss to number 15 seeded Florida Gulf Coast. For the first time ever history books were re-written at the Aztecs expense by allowing a number 17 seed to reach the Sweet Sixteen. FGC was the by far the much better team Sunday over number seven seeded SDSU.

Making their first appearance in the NCAA post season in only their second season in Division 1 basketball, the Eagles completely outplayed the Aztecs in the transition game fueled by their steals and turnovers, and by the bi-partisan crowd, many of whom cheered for this new Cinderella team. The Aztecs defense were no match for the 'run and gun offense' and the quick hands of the Eagle 'steal-the-ball' defense.

"They are as good of a running team as there is around. When they run they feed off the frenzy that they create," surmised SDSU head coach Steve Fisher.

After a one-point lead at half-time, San Diego State led 46-44 when their wheels came off. After getting three turnovers, the Eagles quickly turned those into six point, before going on a 17-0 scoring run, a period in which the Aztecs did not score a single point in over seven and a half minutes. Achilles heel also were seventeen Aztecs turnovers quickly converted into 22 points by FGC.

Junior, Jamaal Franklin (who may be eyeing the NBA next season) led all Aztecs scorers with 20 points, collaring 11 rebounds. This gave him 26 for his career, 13 for the season.

Florida Gulf Coast shot a sizzling 56 percent from the field. Aztecs shot 44 percent, good enough to win most games, but not when committing 17 turnovers.

Hats off to Aztecs seniors Chase Tapley, De-Shaun Stephens, and James Rahon who played their last game for SDSU. These kids meant so much to the team. In his four years at SDSU Tapley has seen over 100 victories with his head coach.

"It's a remarkable achievement. We're really going to miss our seniors," said coach Fisher.

Every team except one will lose one game in the Big

Dance of the NCAA Tournament except the winner. That is why they call it 'March Madness.'

Finishing the 2012-2013

season (23-11),(1-1) in the NCAA Tournament.

The Aztecs will and should feel the pain from the sting of this loss for some time to come.

Roll Call

Public Comment Period: Opportunity for members of the public to speak to the Group on any subject matter within the Group's jurisdiction that is not on the posted agenda.

Action Items:

1. Mrs. McCall suggested that a way to discourage traffic along West Willows Road is to install signs at strategic spots to encourage traffic to use the East Willows Road entrance to the I-8 freeway. Discussion & Vote.
2. The surface of Tavern Road from Alpine Blvd to the intersection with I-8 is severely cracked and uneven to the point of potentially causing damage to vehicles and causing safety concerns for motorists. This was discussed at the March 28 ACPG meeting, where it was mentioned that much of the damage may have been caused by heavy trucks serving the Sunrise Powerlink construction effort. The ACPG asked the Circulation subcommittee to revisit this case and to ask the public for a list of additional roads where damage may have been caused by repeated exposure to heavy vehicles serving the Powerlink. Discussion and Vote.

You've probably heard that goats will eat anything, but we don't. We might check out the smells from a tin can or tear at a piece of cardboard, but those don't give us any nutrition. Kids... the human kind...are lucky. They have a helpful food pyramid* that shows people five basic food groups and the amounts they should try to eat each day to get all the nutrients they need. It helps kids to eat a balanced diet.

Moool! I mean drink milk every day!

Hey! Freebies...

Drink or eat about 3 cups from the Milk Group each day.

A. The drinks and foods in the 1 Group give us vitamin D. They have calcium to help us build strong 2 and teeth. Some foods in this group are milk, yogurt, pudding and 3.

B. The 4 Group is loaded with green, yellow, red and orange foods you can eat raw or cooked. Many foods from this group, like 5, have vitamin A, which keeps your skin healthy and helps your 6 to see in dim light.

C. Foods from the 7 Group are also a rainbow of color! Many fruits, like oranges, have vitamin C that help keep your body healthy and help it 8. 9, bananas, berries and other fruits have lots of good fiber too.

D. The foods in 10 and Beans Group have lots of protein, iron and B vitamins. They help to build 11, blood and every cell in your body. Some foods in this group are beef, fish, nuts, seeds, eggs and 12.

E. The 13 Group is made up of foods that have carbohydrates and may have lots of fiber. Carbohydrates are what give you 14. Foods in this group include 15, cornbread, rice, crackers, noodles and popcorn.

Do you see the little star after the word "pyramid" in the speech balloon above? That is called an "asterisk" (as-tuh-risk). It is a symbol used to show that there is information missing or an addition of information somewhere. Look here to see what I needed to tell you.

Pet of the Week

"Hi everybody...my name is COREY, and if you are looking for a really fun and happy fellow, then we need to get acquainted. I'm just five months old, and I'm a Pit Bull Terrier/ Lab-mix who's looking for a new forever home. Let me tell you a bit about myself. I love people, and I have a good-natured temperament. I love playing with toys, and you should see me play fetch! As you can imagine, I'd need a yard in my new home, and I'd love a daily walk. I walk quite nicely on a leash. I'd be a great pet in a home with older kids, as I'm young and energetic. I like to play with other dogs who are on the larger side, since I'm quite animated when I play with other dogs. The shelter staff is fairly certain that I've already been house trained, but they're still watching me to be sure. I enjoy exploring outside, but I'd also love a comfy and snuggly dog bed in the house, so that I could always be close to my person or my family. I do enjoy getting brushed, as I know that keeps my beautiful coat always looking its best. I've got a great personality and a great smile, too. Just wait until you see me! Even though I am still just a puppy, I'm very well behaved and I'm a pretty mellow fellow, I think. Who knows, I just might be that great dog that you have always wanted and dreamed about. Won't you please help me make my dreams come true for a new forever home with you? Love, Corey" Kennel #51
