As part of the City of El Cajon's Centennial Year Celebration, the El Cajon Historical Society is having a Historic Home Tour on Saturday, May 4, of the JPR Hall Ranch Home, located at 1591 E. cost is $15 in advance, $20 at the door. Enjoy lemonade and iced tea in the garden. Please note: due to the steps, stairs and old walkways, please wear flat shoes. ## If you volunteer your valuable time in the City of El Cajon - let us know!

As the City of El Cajon continues to celebrate 100 years of incorporation, we would like to honor those who volunteer in our community through the 100 Hours Honoring 100 Years Volunteer Program. As we celebrate our Centennial Year and reflect on our rich City history, it is important to recognize that it is the people who make El Cajon the "Valley of Opportunity," including our volunteers. The "100 Hours Honoring 100 Years" volunteer program was developed to provide an opportunity for El Cajon residents and others involved in the community to be recognized for their service in honor of El Cajon's Centennial. Local organizations and groups are always looking for dedicated, caring individuals who want to make a difference in the community. Through the 100 Hours Honoring 100 Years Volunteer Program, the City will recognize the volunteer service performed in the El Cajon community during the Centennial year (November 2012 through November 2013). All are invited to participate, whether as an individual, or in a group on behalf of an organization, community group, or business. Sharing a piece of history

Centennial Moment: New Police and Fire Buildings

Below is an excerpt from 50 Years of Progress, produced in 1962 by the City of El Cajon, the 50th Anniversary Committee, the El Cajon Chamber of Commerce and Service Organizations in honor of the City's 50th anniversary of incorporation. The following excerpt focuses on the year 1952 in El Cajon.

A new modern building was erected at the corner of East Douglas Avenue and Highland Avenue for the housing of the City Police and Fire Departments at a cost of $74,824.

The Reverend Charles F. Richardson passed away during the mid-summer of this year. Reverend Charley (as he was more affectionately known) had served as minister of the Community First Presbyterian Church for 20 years from 1913 to 1932. During those years, Reverend Charley had served his civic duties as a City Judge, Justice of the Peace, Tax Collector, Tax Assessor, City Clerk, building inspector, health officer, and some of the old timers claim that Charley was a mayor of the City for a short time. It was not recorded in the minutes of the trustees, but it will be conceded without proof. On one occasion he was the editor of the El Cajon Valley News when Editor Smith complained that he had not had a vacation for more than five years. Charley took over the Valley News and Smith took a vacation.

Fire training to begin in Lakeside

In an open letter to the residents of Eucalyptus Hills area of Lakeside Andy Parr, Fire Chief on behalf of the governing board of the Lakeside Fire Protection District, thanked residents in advance for their patience and cooperation with the scheduled Fire service training exercises which will occur in the area in May of 2013.

Eucalyptus Hills is an area of the District that is called Wildland/Urban Interface (WUI) area and the neighborhood serves as a great training ground for visiting Fire crews who will be training in the area. Of particular note to visiting firefighters are the numerous trees, long driveways and winding roads of the neighborhood.

Along with chipping days put on by Eucalyptus Hills Fire Safe Council many residents have made efforts to perform required defensible space work on their property to make their homes safe from a fast moving fire. The Lakeside Fire Protection District and CalFire, along with the Fire Safe Council, can give advice on how to increase a home's chance for survival in the event of a wildland fire. If you need advice on how to increase your homes defensible space contact the Fire District at (619) 390-2350.

Heartland Training Facility (HTF) in conjunction with Central Zone Fire Agencies (Lakeside, Santee, Barona, Viejas, El Cajon, Lemon Grove and La Mesa) will be conducting training exercises in the Eucalyptus Hills area beginning May 6, 2013 and running all month. Fire crews will be in the area during the regular work week (Monday through Friday) in the afternoon.

Lakeside Fire Protection District, Eucalyptus Hills Fire Safe Council (EHFSC and Eucalyptus Hills land owners association (EHLA) will assist HTF by providing an area in the "hills" where challenging Wild and urban interface problems exist. This is an area where homes, old trees and flammable vegetation are mixed together. The steep terrain, steep narrow driveways, narrow access roads and sparse water supplies present a complex situation for firefighters and residents to prepare for, before a "worst case" wildland fire occurs in the area.

Beginning May 6, 2013 firefighters will park their engines near the Eucalyptus Hills School (East County Academy of Learning) located at Johnson Lake Road and Valle Vista rd. Uniformed firefighters will be walking in small groups on High ranch Road, Rocoso Road, Johnson Lake Rd. and Cerro De Paz road assessing the difficulties of evacuation, saving lives, defending structures (defensible space) and making plans on how to best evacuate and defend the structures within each area during a wind-driven wild fire. They may have to walk some driveways but will not leave the access roads to go onto private property during these exercises.

Why can't we just have fun?

by Dr. Rev. James L. Snyder

The great pastime of America throughout the years has been sports. Americans have been ingenious in turning something simple into a sport for everyone to enjoy. I must say I have enjoyed my share of sports.

When younger, I was a baseball fan. I went to as many games as possible. The Stadium in Baltimore Maryland was just a few minutes from my house so I could visit it often, and I often did. I did not really care who won the game as long as it was a good game played, not to mention the hotdogs.

The Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage accused me of going to ball games just to eat hotdogs. Whenever I would return from a ballgame the first question would be, not who won the game but, "How many hotdogs did you eat?"

If the truth was known, and you will not get it from me, many a hotdog sacrificed itself at a ballgame. After all, when you are watching a ballgame, who has time to keep track of how many hotdogs you are eating?

I did have a moment of anxiety once when my wife threatened to weigh me before the game and then weigh me after the game to see if I had eaten too many hotdogs. When she first mentioned it I laughed, but I noticed she was not laughing, which caused me some deep concern.

Fortunately, for me it never got to that but came perilously close.

Nothing is more relaxing on a Saturday afternoon than sitting in a ballpark watching a ballgame in progress. Somehow, all the cares of the world seem to flutter away while watching the game.

It all ended for me one summer.

I had come into the house from some chore and my wife greeted me by saying, "Do you know your ball team is on strike?"

I looked at her, laughed and said, "I know. They get three strikes and then they're out. That's the way they play the game." I winked at her and laughed good-naturedly. "Finally," I said to her, "you're coming to understand what the game is all about."

"No, you don't understand. Your team is on strike."

"I get you, and this Saturday I'm going to go and watch them strike again."

It took me a while but finally my wife got through the thickness of my skull and got me to understand the strike she was talking about was not the strike I was talking about. It is always nice when people are on the same page.

In a marriage situation, the biggest challenge a couple has is staying on the same page. Even though the husband and wife might be reading the same book, for some reason wives have the ability to read three or four chapters ahead. When a husband tries to correct her she impatiently says, "We were on that page last week. Try to keep up."

Try as we might, it is a rare husband who can keep up. But we try.

When I got up to the same page as my wife about the baseball team on strike, I was feeling rather low. "What do you think about your baseball game now," she taunted.

As it turned out, the baseball team was actually out on strike and if I remember correctly, we missed the whole season that year. They were on strike for, you will never guess, more money.

Up to that point, I thought the players played because they loved the game. Boy was I on the wrong page with that. I went to games because I love the game and it did not matter to me who won or lost as long as it was a good game.

Now, to find out that my heroes, if you can call them such, were primarily interested in money was disheartening. I have never been able to watch a game since with the same excitement I did before.

Why can't we just have fun? Why does life have to be such a battle? Why can't we have a baseball game just for the fun of it?

Recently, I attended a baseball game at the local high school. I thought I would just go and enjoy the game. I did not know any of the players; I just wanted to enjoy the game.

Then I met an unfamiliar phenomenon of high school baseball. Parents of baseball players!

The game started as normal but soon the air exploded with shouting and yelling in the stands. I did not quite understand what all the noise was about at the time. Two women, imagine that, got in a fistfight over the ballgame! They were mothers of two of the players on opposite teams.

That was just the beginning of the shouting and the yelling that afternoon. As I walked away, I sadly shook my head and said to myself, "Why can't we just have fun?"

I believe the Preacher in the book of Ecclesiastes explains it well. "I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit" (Ecclesiastes 1:14 KJV).

Some are so caught up in the vanity and vexations of life that they never know what it is like to just enjoy life. Why can't we just have a little bit of fun?

Dear Dr. Luauna — Troubled and tormented

rolling back in his head. I felt my hair stand straight up on my arms.

The older man caught my attention again and if I could please take this man to my men's home and that he had found him on the street and he needed help. I turned back to look at the man in the car. Only this time he was cursing, rocking back and forth. My first thought was, no way! I asked the older gentleman if he was a Christian, he smiled sweetly and said he was a Baptist. I looked him straight in the eye, and said Sir, that young man has a demon, maybe more than one. If I'm going to take him into my men's home those demons need to be cast out first. I need to pray for him first.

Then I asked the man if he ever heard anyone speak in tongues, because we needed the Holy Spirit's power for this problem. He replied no. I told him he would today.

I walked toward the car door, and as I opened the door the man looked at me, screamed, and cursed foul words. He was almost hissing at me at the same time. I started to pray in the Spirit, I reached in grabbed the front of his shirt, looked him right in the eye, and commanded those demon forces to leave this man. I felt a strong resistance and continued to pray in the Spirit. Then again in my normal voice, I looked him in the eye and said, "In the Mighty Name of JESUS, get out of this man, and leave him right now."

This took about five minutes. Then the young man looked like he slumped in his seat, as if he had fainted. I reached in touched his shoulder, and asked his name. He lifted his head, his eyes filled with tears and told me his name was Mark and wanted to know what happened. I grabbed his hand, helped him out of the car, and told him he was free and that Jesus loved him so much. He didn't even know he was bound by forces of darkness. This man came into our home, and Jesus did a wonderful work in his life.

Jesus is the same yesterday, today, and tomorrow. He cast out demons in Mary Magdalene in Luke 8:2; And certain women, which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, out of whom went seven devils. Mary, loved Jesus, He set her free. When Jesus was crucified, Mary was so broken, as she went to the tomb and couldn't find the body of Jesus. Jesus saw Mary, and had so much compassion for her as He saw her weeping. Mark 16:9; Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven devils. Why did Jesus appear to her first? Because Jesus saw her broken heart. She loved Jesus so much, because He had set her free.

Are you troubled or tormented inside? Don't be ashamed. I remember being delivered from a spirit of rejection, and a spirit of anger that tormented my life for many years. Nothing is too hard for Jesus. I will be speaking about this subject, Sunday May 7th 10:30 a.m. at A Touch From Above – Prayer Mountain 16145 Hwy 67, Ramona, CA. Come on out, and be set free.

Carol Garlow, Pastor at Skyline Church passes away after long battle with cancer

Carol Garlow, Pastor of Prayer and Intercession at Skyline Church, and wife of Senior Pastor Dr. Jim Garlow, passed away at her home in El Cajon, Sunday, April 21, 2013, after a nearly six-year courageous battle with ovarian cancer. She was comforted and surrounded by her immediate family and close friends. She was 62.

Carol was diagnosed with primary peritoneal carcinoma, a very aggressive form of ovarian cancer in June 2007. It was then doctors discovered more than 100 tumors, one being the size of an orange. Thus began a daily regimen of chemo, radiation and surgeries from medical facilities in San Diego, later receiving treatment from the Oasis of Hope Hospital in Tijuana, Mexico, along with extensive participation in clinical trials in the nation's best known cancer research center, MD Anderson Cancer Center in Houston, TX.

On April 16, Jim shared the unfortunate news that treatment options had run their course, and hospice would begin. While her family, friends, church members and community watched this amazing woman of God stand firm in her faith, trusting the Lord to give her strength, healing, and hopes of a miracle—she never gave up the will to live, love, to fight, or the desire to pray for others.

In March when asked about her current condition, Carol stated, "I'm at a place in 2013, where I am having more pain, and having to do even more chemo, and this last chemo is really making me sick," she said. "It gives me the feeling that I'd rather be in heaven than have to endure this anymore. This is the first time that I have felt this way because I've been a strong woman of faith. It might seem like my strength and my faith have diminished, but they really have not because when I have strong days like this I see myself going on for as long as I can. But there are days when I don't feel well. It's just really difficult and heaven looks very, very good."

Carol Jane Luckert was born in Enid, Oklahoma in 1950 to parents Richard and Vivian Luckert.

Carol embraced life and lived it to the fullest. But the epicenter of her life were her four children: Janie Garlow McGarity who became a pastor's wife, Joshua Garlow who became a worship & music pastor, Jacob Garlow who became a mechanic after receiving training in automotive technology and Josie Garlow, presently a college student and part time worker in Skyline's prayer ministry. They were her ultimate pride and joy, along with her five grandsons whom she loved dearly.

Memorial services are set for May 3, 7 p.m. in the auditorium at Skyline Church, in the midst of a non-stop 36-hour prayer vigil beginning May 2, 10 p.m. until 10 a.m. May 4.

Get a glowing tan by drinking your vegetables

by Cherie Calbom,
MS, CN

Juicing is hot like the vibrant fashion colors for summer -- lemon, raspberry, orange, lime and tomato. Making delicious fruit and veggie juices is great for your energy, immune system, and workout. But did you know the juices can also improve the color of your skin?

Many people wonder if they should use a self-tanning cream or slather on copious amounts of sunscreen so they can get a little color in the summer. There's another option you may never have heard about that can give your skin a healthy golden tan the safest way possible.

New research suggests that eating vegetables gives your skin a healthy golden tan color. A study led by Dr. Ian Stephen at the University of Nottingham revealed that eating a diet rich in fruits and vegetables gives you more of a healthy golden glow than the sun, according to the journal Evolution & Human Behavior.

Instead of heading for the sun, which can irreversibly damage your skin, you can get your tan on by munching on or juicing up vegetables such as carrots, broccoli, spinach, and tomatoes. These can do double duty, depending on the ingredients you choose. In my newest book, "The Juice Lady's Big Book of Juices and Green Smoothies," I share recipes for veggie combinations that soothe headaches, cleanse the liver, boost endorphins and help heal stomach ulcers, among other ailments. To think you can get all that and a beautiful tanned appearance!

"Our research shows that eating lots of fruit and vegetables is actually more effective" than getting a suntan, Dr. Stephen says.

Most people just don't eat enough brightly colored vegetables and fruit to make a difference in their skin tone or their overall health. But people can juice a wide variety of produce in a short time. It's easy to drink two servings in one 12-ounce glass. Have two glasses of freshly made veggie and fruit juice a day, and you've sipped four servings. That will make a difference in how you look.

Dr. Stephen and his team found that people who eat more portions of fruits and vegetables per day have an attractive golden skin color thanks to substances called carotenoids. These antioxidants help soak up toxins and damaging compounds produced by the stresses of everyday living, poor food choices, and environmental toxins, and are especially prevalent when the body is combating disease.

Tonsils vs. Circumcision

Two little kids are in a hospital, lying on stretchers next to each other outside the operating room, the first surgeries of the day.

The first kid leans over and asks, "What are you in here for?"

The second kid says, "I'm getting my tonsils out, and I'm afraid."

The first kid says, "You've got nothing to worry about. I had that done when I was four. They put you to sleep, and when you wake up they give you lots of Jell-O and ice cream. It's a breeze."

The second kid then asks, "What are you here for?"

The first kid says, "Circumcision."

"Whoa!" the second kid replies, "Good luck, buddy. I had that done when I was born."

Couldn't walk for a year."

Prayers for Parker boutique FUNDRAISER

Parker David Shaw was born on October 23rd, 2006 to first time parents David and Crystal Shaw. The moment they held him in their arms, they were filled with a love they could have never imagined. Parker was also the first grand-baby born to both sets of Grandparents. Needless to say he was a bit of a celebrity in our now growing family. Parker is a vivacious, active, and special little six year old boy, full of spunk and energy. On Wednesday, April 10th doctors found a tumor above his kidney in his adrenal glands. We were all in shock, and completely devastated to hear that our little man has cancer. He was diagnosed with neuroblastoma and his cancer had spread to his bones. Our family has made a pact to be strong in our faith and optimism. With all of your love, prayers, and support we know he will conquer this terrible disease! Words cannot describe how thankful we are for all of your generosity and love. God gave Parker the strength to overcome this. His plan has a greater purpose!

May 5: The Alpine Kiwanis Club invites the public to attend the 23rd Annual Vintage Alpine fundraiser to be held on May 5 by the nonprofit Kiwanis Club of Alpine Foundation, Inc. This amazing "Wine Experience in the Country" will take place within the lovely gardens of Summers Past Farms at 15602 Olde Highway 80.

Vintage Alpine is a great event for the experienced wine connoisseur, but is also a wonderful Wine 101 for wine fans just getting started. Here are some pointers:

Put your senses to good use . . .

1. Look at the color of the wine – it can reveal its age.
2. Swirl the wine in the glass to reveal its heady aroma.
3. Sniff it – different wines can smell fruity, earthy, nutty, floral or whatever you think it smells like.
4. Taste the wine and let it roll around in your mouth. Is the taste like the smell? Is the body light, medium or full? Does it finish out nicely?

Attendees will be sampling premium wines from California and around the world, and will also taste the best that restaurants offer throughout San Diego County. Relaxing live music and a silent auction are also featured at the event.

Tickets are $60 in advance, and $70 at the door. The event includes live music in a garden setting, a silent auction, and opportunities to meet wine and food specialists.

All proceeds from the annual wine, beer and food tasting are used by Alpine Kiwanis to provide services and programs for children in the San Diego area.

Vintage Alpine is an adult-only event, and no one under 21 years will be admitted. To learn more about Vintage Alpine and the Kiwanis Club of Alpine, visit www.alpinekiwanis.com.

What You Need

1 box chocolate cake mix
2 c heavy whipping cream
8 oz mascarpone cheese, room temp.
1 c white frosting
red food coloring
1 can chocolate frosting
1 pint fresh raspberries
2 drops raspberry flavor extract or oil mint leaves for garnish

100 years of service, birthdays and miles

Alpine Challenge

Rider Zach, back from the 100 mile route.

This year marked the 13th annual Alpine Challenge starting out at Summer's Past Farms in Flinn Springs and for some riders going all the way to the top Mount Laguna 6000 feet up for a round trip of 100 miles. This was the first year the 100 event was added.

The Alpine Challenge began in 2001 as a means for the Kiwanis Club of Alpine, our founder and host, to provide mentoring and scholarship to encourage high school students in Alpine to complete school and continue their education. Many high school teens drop out of school even though they are mentally capable of continuing their education but for various reasons don't.

Each year the funds from the event benefit Rady's Children's Hospital and will finance two years of college or continuing education for at least two local students. These students must meet these main requirements: pledge to live a drug/crime free life, graduate from high school in scheduled year, and meet admission requirements for post-secondary education.

Alpine celebrates two Centenarian's Birthdays

Carmen Lewis and Marie Cheatham attended Queen of Angels Church Sunday, April 27. At the Mass they were presented with an Apostolic Blessing from Pope Benedict XVI and birthday greetings from President Obama.

Gordy Shields, 95-years-young, greeted riders as they returned from the Challenge. Shields has been to the Challenge every year.

Carmen celebrated 100 on April 26. Carmen is a legend in Alpine. She and her husband moved here in 1944 and opened Bailey's Café, which became the first "Youth Center" in Alpine. They would close the café early each Friday evening and invite the kids to play games and dance to the juke box. Bailey's also had a contract to feed fire fighters in the area. Many times getting calls at 3 a.m. and have breakfast ready for as many as 100 at 7 a.m. Carmen was also one of the three founding members of the Queen of Angels church in 1950.

Marie Cheatham's birthday was April 3. Marie moved to Alpine nine years ago and lives with her Granddaughter. She has two children and 5 grand children and 8 great grandchildren. She and Carmen both play Bunco each month at Queen of Angels church.

On Tuesday, Feb. 6 they both proved they could still touch their toes!

Alpine Library — 100 Years of Stories... 1913 - 2013

Alpine Branch History trivia... The Alpine Library was run on the "honor system" for several years before a Librarian was hired. If you wanted to check out a book, you would go to the neighboring store and get a key. Then you would unlock the Library, chose a book or two, return the key to the store, and sign the record noting which books you borrowed. The famous Raggedy Ann and Raggedy Andy books were written by Johnny Gruell. Johnny's brother, Justin Gruell (who illustrated some of the books) lived in Alpine in the 1960's, and was a frequent visitor to the Library.

Chronology of Alpine Library

1892 - Alpine Center School Library opened

1900 - Alpine Library Association established the Alpine Civic Library, housed in Town Hall Building (unattended)

1913 - San Diego County Free Library established the Alpine Branch. The first Librarian was Lawrence Wilbur. The County Branch shared space with the Alpine Civic Library in the upstairs room of the Town Hall.

1914 - The Alpine Woman's Club was established and added new furniture, art, and flowers, to improve the Library's appearance.

1920's - Miss Charlotte

Young, and then Miss Zuella Sterling (see photo), served as Librarians.

1930's - The Library moved downstairs to the larger west room. Mary Ansell managed the Library, with an area of 650 square feet.

1940's - Ethel Kayser, followed by Mildred Gilliland, served as Librarians. Hours were Tues & Thurs from 1-5 p.m. and Sat from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

1950's - The Alpine Library Association dissolved and donated 5,000 volumes to the County Library System. Beatrice La Force (see photo), and then Lillian Oliver, ran the Library.

1960's - Mrs. Elizabeth West (see photo) was the Alpine Librarian. The library got its first telephone (still using the same number 45 years later).

1970's - Yearly circulation was a little over 11,000 items. The Library moved across the street to the office building at 2130 Arnold Way, an area of approx 3,000 square feet.

1980's - Programming increased, with such promotions as Summer Reading, children's story times, and author talks. Videos were added to the collection.

1990's - Personal computers became available for public use in the Library.

2000's - Alpine's yearly circulation rose from 50,000 to 113,000. The County purchased land next to the Alpine Community Center, making plans to build a new library.

2012 - San Diego County Library was named "Library of the Year" - a national recognition. Alpine Branch joined in the year-long celebration. Yearly circulation topped 134,000.

2013 - Alpine Branch, along with the San Diego County Library, celebrated their Centennial: "100 Years of Stories..."

'Iron Man 3' — Iron Hot with action

Review by Diana Saenger

The third film in the Iron Man series has finally arrived in the theater and not too soon for fans of the movies based on Marvel's original comic book series. The first one was titled "Tales of Suspense" and released in 1963 featuring the character known as Super Hero Iron Man. The character was so popular he got his own comic book debut with "The Invincible Iron Man" in 1968.

Things have really progressed in Tony Stark's (Robert Downey Jr.) brilliant creations of Iron Man suits in this new film. He's as determined as ever to fight evil but – as revealed in the 2012 sequel of The Avengers – Tony now suffers from anxiety attacks. I guess even superheroes aren't perfect.

He also doesn't have much patience as witnessed in the first scenes where Tony is down in his workshop, all of his past Iron Man suits lined up against the wall. Tony is working on his latest suit but as he extends his arms beckoning the parts to zoom over and attach themselves, some of the parts go all over the room. Tony is not happy about this.

After bits of life in his huge extraordinary sea-side mansion, and quick exchanges with his girlfriend Pepper Potts (Gwyneth Paltrow), the story moves on to more relevant aspects of Iron Man's missions.

The plot borrows from today's headlines when Tony notices on TV that villain Mandarin (Ben Kingsley) claims responsibility for terrorist bombings on both foreign and American soil. The interesting note about the Mandarin is learned in flash backs where Tony was approached by a young man with urgent news he wanted to share with Iron Man. Years later he's revealed as mad scientist Aldrich Killian (Guy Pearce) whose discoveries are almost more fantastic than Iron Man's.

The story is set, and for those who like loud explosions and plenty of violence, Iron Man 3 is their movie. The production is terrific and that's a credit to the 100s of digital and production artists that worked on the film. The scene of the destruction of Hollywood's historic Chinese Theatre is only one example. But this focus also seems to cover up the weak story. Fans might not like that Tony has anxiety attacks, sometimes can't be where he needs to be, and occasionally can't rescue his friends or family from harm – Pepper as an example.

Director and co-writer Shane Black adds a significant added value to this franchise. The cast is wonderful. Downey Jr. brings his usual charisma to the role, but then is almost too good in scenes where Tony questions himself.

Writer's really need to increase Pepper's role in this series. Paltrow did the best she could; even when she stands up to Tony wanting some more attention, but her character is too one-dimensional. Pearce is a villain we love to hate as Killian. He really meets Iron Man head on and sometimes comes out on top. Ben Kingsley is hands down the scene stealer in this film. Without giving too much away, he's a real plus as Mandarin and makes for a very unique villain.

Ty Simpkins gives a delightful performance as Harley, a young boy who not only comes to Iron Man's rescue, but also learns some valuable lessons about life.

Almost the entire audience, who attended the screening I attended, stayed through the very long list of credits to see a final scene with Robert Downey Jr. and what he had to say about Iron Man.

COX launches Connect2Compete

Cox Communications, along with other Connect2Compete (C2C) partners, announced recently the nationwide launch of the Connect2Compete program, which offers low-cost computers and Internet access to families on the national free school lunch program. C2C is now available in all of Cox's California markets (San Diego, Orange County, Palos Verdes and Santa Barbara).

The expanded nationwide launch follows the successful pilot of the program, of which Cox was the only cable company to participate, in San Diego last spring. During the pilot, some East County schools participated, but now, all families in the Cox service area who are eligible for the program can take advantage of it.

In San Diego, Cox will work with the San Diego County Office of Education to communicate the program to families. Computers 2 San Diego Kids will be the local computer supplier, and San Diego Futures Foundation will provide digital training.

According to the Pew Research Center, less than half of low-income K-12 students across America have broadband at home compared to more than 90 percent of higher-income families. What's more, nearly 30 percent of all Americans – approximately 100 million people – risk becoming increasingly isolated from contemporary life because they lack the Internet service and the skills necessary to use it effectively.

Broadband adoption programs have been an important part of Cox's legacy. The Connect2Compete program is modeled after a broadband adoption program Cox has participated in since 2002 in Santa Barbara, CA.

Now through the end of the year, families with K-12 children in the national free school lunch program who do not have Internet in the home can apply at www.connect2compete.org/cox or by calling 1-855-222-3252.

Eligible families can receive Internet service for $9.95 a month for two years from Cox, a free modem and installation.

"We're proud that the successful pilot of Connect2Compete in San Diego last year helped pave the way for today's national launch, and the opportunity for even more families to take advantage of this vital program to further their children's education," said Dave Bialis, Senior Vice President and General Manager for Cox's California markets.

In San Diego, an estimated 40,000 households in the Cox footprint participate in the national free school lunch program and do not have access to the Internet at home.

Veggie tan ...

The study is especially important for single people, because individuals in search of a mate favor those who appear healthy, he says.

"This is something we share with many other species," adds Professor David Perrett, director of Perception Lab, where the study was conducted. "For example, the bright yellow beaks and feathers of many birds can be thought of as adverts showing how healthy a male bird is. What's more, females of these species prefer to mate with brighter, more colorful males."

So, rather than going to a tanning salon before suiting up for summer, why not head to the farmer's market and load up on beautiful veggies and fruit? Not only will your skin improve — your body will thank you as well.

On May 14, 2013, at 3:00 p.m., the El Cajon City Council will hold a public hearing, in the Council Chambers at 200 Civic Center Way, El Cajon, to consider the following:

Adjustment to Schedule of Miscellaneous Fees Amended by Resolution No. 12-11 on January 25, 2011. The proposed fee adjustments include increases to certain user fees and charges, including (1) new fees for planning division services to determine substantial conformance with the City's Zoning Code; (2) a new category of business fire inspection fees reducing the fee for minor occupancies; (3) application of a new (2009-2010) valuation schedule for determining building permit fees; and (4) an increase in the mall inspection fee to recover actual staff costs. The City's public works division is proposing the addition of fees for services incurred in the review of building permit applications, including new fees for the inspection of restaurant fats, oils and grease disposal systems and plans for mandatory trash enclosures. In addition certain Fire department fees are proposed to be eliminated or modified, which will result in reductions, and it is being proposed that the City increase license fees for unaltered dogs to remain in compliance with State laws.

Data indicating the amount of cost, or estimated cost, of providing the services for which the fee or service charge is levied, and the source of all revenues anticipated to provide the services, to the extent required, will be available for review in the City Clerk's Office at 200 Civic Center Way, El Cajon, California.

Any questions concerning the public hearing process may be answered by the City Clerk's Office at (619) 441-1763. Information concerning the proposed annual rate adjustment is available in the City Clerk's Office.

If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same Lender may hold more than one mortgage or Deed of Trust on the property. ### Pet of the Week

"Hi there, everyone! My name is MERCEDES, and I'm just cuter than cute! I'm a one-year-old Long-Haired Chihuahua mix gal who has absolutely beautiful markings and a lovely temperament. I'm the perfect size for an apartment or a house, and just the perfect size to sit on your lap. I love going for walks, I love to cuddle and snuggle, and I've got a wonderful personality. I'm so very sweet and gentle that I would make a nice pet for a person or family that has older, considerate children. I get along nicely with other dogs, too. The shelter staff thinks that I'm probably house trained, but they're still watching me to be sure. A trip to our shelter wouldn't be complete until we've had a chance to get acquainted, so just ask one of our great Shelter Staff to introduce you to the incredibly sweet and very cute Chihuahua girl whose name is MERCEDES. Who knows...we just may discover that I am the wonderful little dog that you have always wanted and dreamed about. Won't you help me make my dreams come true for a new forever home with you? I'll be watching for you and hoping to meet you soon. Love, Mercedes" Kennel #56
