Military Appreciation Channel announces Leary as new host

Jack Leary at KCBQ 1170AM.

Barbra Beach, Director, of the newly formed Military Appreciation Channel through radio active broadcasting has hired Jack Leary (aka) Jump'n Jack Flash, El Cajon, as the "voice" of MAC San Diego.

Jack is currently hosting the "Moldie Oldies Show" on KCBQ radio as well as being the featured DJ at the La Mesa Back To The 50's Classic Cars & Bike Shows and The Cajon Classic Cruise. Beach commented that after watching Jack at several other Military Benefit Shows her choice was a "no brainer." She stated she loved the way he interacted with the military and the audience and admitted his "witty" comments got lots of laughs.

The Military Appreciation Channel is all about military information, music, interviews, and light hearted comments. The MAC channel has already been endorsed by the likes of Willie Nelson, Charlie Daniels, Reckless Kelly, and many other celebrities across the USA. MAC will be the "go to" station for any and all military information for veterans and active duty on San Diego based Navy & Marines.

The MAC Channel is live on air the third Sunday of each month on KCBQ at 11 p.m., but can be heard at anytime thereafter by logging on to radioactivebroadcasting.net and clicking on the MAC icon MAC San Diego w/ Jack Leary.

Jack can be contacted at jack-mac-kcbq@att.net

Local artist wins award

Ally Benbrook, an artist and resident of El Cajon took the Third Place award in the May show at the San Diego Watercolor Society. Ally's watercolor, Last Connection #4, is one of a series of paintings the artist is currently producing, which illustrates, in harsh reality, the connection between human beings and their dogs.

In discussing his selection process, juror Mark Smith said he was drawn to the painting because of its urban patterning, its stylized forms and the artist's smart use of a limited color palette. Benbrook is a past president of the San Diego Watercolor Society and is also an annual exhibitor at Art Walk. Her understanding of animals and her sensitive paintings of them make her a popular award-winning artist. More of her paintings may be seen online at allybenbrook.com.

'Last Connection #4' painted by Ally Benbrook.

The show will continue at the San Diego Watercolor

Society's gallery through May 31. The gallery is located in Point Loma's Liberty Station at 2825 Dewey Road. The gallery is open Wednesday through Sunday 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and is free to the public.

Do you volunteer in El Cajon? Let us know!

As the City of El Cajon continues to celebrate 100 years of incorporation, we would like to honor those who volunteer in our community through the 100 Hours Honoring 100 Years Volunteer Program. As we celebrate our Centennial Year and reflect on our rich City history, it is important to recognize that it is the people who make El Cajon the "Valley of Opportunity," including our volunteers. The 100 Hours Honoring 100 Years Volunteer Program was developed to provide an opportunity for El Cajon residents and others involved in the community to be recognized for their service in honor of El Cajon's Centennial. Local organizations and groups are always looking for dedicated, caring individuals who want to make a difference in the community. Through this volunteer program, the City will recognize the volunteer service performed in the El Cajon community during the Centennial year (November 2012 through November 2013). All are invited to participate, whether as an individual, or in a group on behalf of an organization, community group, or business. Find out more by visiting our Centennial website, www.elcajon100.com, under "Participate" and download the forms. Completed forms will be accepted throughout the year; however, all forms must be completed and delivered, or post-marked, by December 10, 2013. For more information, call (619) 441-5549.

El Cajon Centennial Moments
Sharing a piece of history

Centennial Moment: Highway set-back battle looms in 1922

Below is an excerpt from a brochure published in 1961 in honor of the City's 50th anniversary of incorporation: "50 Years of Progress." The brochure chronicles events in the City by each year, from incorporation in 1912 through present day which at that time, was 1961. This Centennial moment focuses specifically on the year 1922.

The total rainfall for this year was better than 14 inches. The dirt streets became so mired with mud that it was considered too dangerous for the school vehicles to operate on them. It was decided that the school vacation time would be extended for another week or more, until the roads became safe again. There was not a single protest from the children.

When school did resume, two ladies, a Mrs. McKinney and a Mrs. Eva Stuver, started a small hot lunch stand close by the El Cajon Grammar School. They provided an excellent fare for the children. The remarkable thing about the venture was that not a single dish or drink cost the children more than 5 cents.

Rumors started to be heard along Main Street business district that the State Highway Department was going to ask for sufficient set-back along the street for full sized sidewalks. This would mean that the buildings would have to be moved back, or the fronts of the stores removed back to the set-back line.

Some of the businessmen claimed that they had heard that in the case of a majority of property owners objecting to this set back and had a second floor, they would permit the upper floor to extend over the sidewalks and be supported by pillars or arch ways. This was all to change the face of Main Street in the future.

For more information, visit the El Cajon Historical Society's website at www.elcajonhistory.org or the City's Centennial website at www.elcajon100.com. Photo is courtesy of the El Cajon Historical Society.

23rd Annual Vintage Alpine Raises over $25,000 for local children!

More than 750 people attended the 23rd Annual Vintage Alpine fundraiser held May 5 at Summers Past Farms in Flinn Springs, California. The Kiwanis Club of Alpine Foundation, Inc. is a non-profit organization and all proceeds from this amazing annual wine, beer and food tasting event will be used to provide services and programs for children in the San Diego area.

"Vintage Alpine is a wonderful event, and our success comes from the club members working alongside great wineries, breweries and restaurants — all are upstanding community partners," said event Chairman Art Armagost. "We are thrilled to host events like this, and all the money raised supports children in the community."

Funds raised will help support programs such as Bike Rewards for perfect attendance in elementary schools, sponsor Scout troops, provide equipment for youth sports activities, the East County Exceptional Athletes Track and Field event and much more.

Special thanks to Viejas Enterprises, Summers Past Farms, Alpine Creek Town Center, Imortgage, Primary Residential Mortgage, Inc., Quality Escrow Inc., Sonnet Gypsy Ranch, and Grossmont Escrow who were major contributing sponsors of this year's Vintage Alpine.

Relaxing live music, a silent auction and opportunities to meet wine and food specialists also highlighted the event. Attendees sampled premium wines from over 25 wineries in California and around the world and also tasted amazing treats from over 15 San Diego area restaurants.

Mark your calendars and plan to attend the 24th Annual Vintage Alpine on Sunday, May 4, 2014! To learn more about Vintage Alpine and the Kiwanis Club of Alpine, visit www.alpinekiwanis.org/VintageAlpine.

Crest Library to host USS Midway Presentation

The Crest Library, located at 105 Juanita Lane in El Cajon, will host U.S. Navy

Retired Master Chief and USS Midway docent Robert Wolfgram on Tuesday, May 21 at 6 p.m. Wolfgram will discuss the USS Midway while showing an informative PowerPoint presentation.

The USS Midway presentation is part of SDCL's Older Americans Month series. Commissioned a week after the end of World War II, the USS Midway embarked on an unprecedented 47-year odyssey that set new standards in naval aviation. More than 225,000 Americans took part in the odyssey that ended after Midway served as the Persian Gulf flagship in Desert Storm. The USS Midway is the longest-serving U.S. Navy carrier of the 20th century and was the largest ship in the world in 1945-1955.

Health, safety fair draws hundreds

Children, seniors and families had fun exploring better ways to live at the free Farragut Circle Health & Safety Fair on May 11 in El Cajon.

The community outreach effort of the Neighbor-to-Neighbor Program of the First Presbyterian Church of El Cajon drew a steady stream of people to the 500 block of Farragut Circle.

Mother Goose and local princesses helped welcome the early crowds.

"Everybody's smiling," said Jackie Jackson, library assistant at the Dr. William C. Herrick Community Health Care Library of the Grossmont Healthcare District in La Mesa. "This has to be the friendliest fair ever."

Children exercised at Scout-ing 320's obstacle course, made Mother's Day gifts, rode in a little fire truck and learned about bike racing and other sports.

Adults enjoyed free neck, shoulder and back rubs; had fun laughing with yoga, took advantage of free health screenings and explored dozens of ways to healthier, safer living.

The sale of homemade baked goods and money donated by The Springs retirement center, which sold hot dogs and lemonade, raised almost $500 for Feeding America's Weekend Wellness Backpack Program, according to event Chairwoman Sandra Hood.

Lakeside Round Up

by Patt Bixby

Fire updates

On Saturday afternoon May 11, in the 13000 block of East Mapleview St., multiple fire agencies using ground and aerial attack controlled an approximately six-acre open space fire near a number of homes. Fire agencies from multiple agencies including Lakeside, Santee, El Cajon and Cal Fire along with two water dropping helicopters fought the fire which started at the top of the hill moving downhill toward Vista Del Capitan where additional engines were stationed.

Lakeside Fire Chief Andy Parr said the home owners had done a very good job of clearing the 100 ft. defensible space around their homes. Lakeside fire fighters have been stressing the importance of defensible space around homes. For questions regarding defensible space contact the Lakeside protection office at (619) 390-2350.

Inspiration

Now that's news I can really use

by Dr. Rev. James L. Snyder

I have a terrible confession to get off my chest. It is a secret I have tried to hide from family and friends for years. Up to this point, I have been fairly successful in hiding this but I believe the time has come to clear the air.

Having a secret is a terrible burden to bear especially around people who know you. You always run the risk that somebody is going to find out and then tell everybody and then the whole world knows your secret. The purpose of a secret is so that nobody knows. If it gets out, it is no longer a secret.

I even tried to keep this from the Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage, which comes as close to walking on water as I have ever come. Several times, she has come close to finding out this deep seated secret of mine.

Even though this is risky business, I need to make a full confession. Someone has said that confession is good for the soul, but I am not quite sure.

My confession is this, and please do not hate me because of it, I love to take afternoon naps.

There, I said it. I am not sure what it did for my soul but I do not feel any happier about making this confession.

I am a firm believer in what some people refer to as the "power nap." The problem is I live amongst a people that believe if you take a nap in the afternoon you are either very young are getting very old. The former is not the issue, and I will take issue with the latter.

I must admit that there was a time in my life when I did not take time out for naps. In fact, I had a hard time going to bed before midnight. I hated going to bed and could not wait until morning came so I could jump out of bed and get back to work. Do not get me wrong, I was not a workaholic. I just liked what I was doing.

I am not sure when it started but I noticed a few years ago I was not resisting going to bed like before. I did not fight it as much as I used to. If the truth were known, hopefully it won't be, as soon as my head hit the pillow the Sandman started doing his thing.

It was not long before I started sneaking 40 winks in the afternoon.

I distinctly remember one afternoon when my wife came in and said, "You're not taking a nap, are you?"

I know lying is not a good thing, especially to your spouse. Sometimes when you are in a fixed such as I was in at that moment, the truth scampers in the opposite direction.

"No," I stuttered as she looked at me. "I was just meditating."

"I guess everybody snores when they're meditating," she said with a smirk on her face.

From then on, it was a game trying to get in a nap without getting into trouble. I did find out that after one of my "power naps" I was able to do a lot more work. However, I kept that bit of information to myself.

Then my whole world changed.

Don't you like it when something happens proving you are right? It does not happen very often to me, when it does, I relish it like a freshly baked Apple Fritter.

I happened to be watching some television news program. I confess I was half dozing and watching at the same time, but suddenly they said something that got my full salute attention.

According to the news story, and they can't put it on TV unless it's true, right? But according to this story, research showed that there was a great deal of benefits associated with afternoon naps.

That was enough for me and I, like the gentleman I am, called for my wife to come and watch this news story with me. Some things in life should be shared and this was one of them.

Afternoon naps drastically reduce the danger of heart attack and improve a person's memory.

"So," I said to my wife after the story, "what do you think of that?"

She smiled and looked at me and said, "Well, it must work because you never forget to take a nap."

I will forgive her for the hilarious laughter following her remark. Just so you know, the laughter did not come from me. I may have been smiling on the outside but I was snorting on the inside.

For years, I thought taking an afternoon nap was rather beneficial. Now I have the proof and I can indulge in a daily "power nap" without feeling any sense of guilt at all. I love it when I have been proven right.

Now I take great delight in one of my favorite Bible passages.

"Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls" (Matthew 11:28-29).

A friend of mine often says, "Come apart and rest a while or you'll just come apart." An afternoon nap has unashamedly become part of my daily activity.

For Health's Sake

Awards go out to public health individuals and organizations

Awards

Public health champions are school administrators, teachers, parents, and community members working together to change the culture of a school district and create a healthier, safer city. These stewards offer emergency shelter, housing, and children's services to thousands of people every year. Some take on a leadership role to encourage active living and increase the availability of healthy foods in her community.

These are some of the 27 local individuals and organizations the County Health and Human Services Agency (HHSA) honored Friday during the 12th annual Live Well, San Diego! Public Health Champion Awards ceremony.

"These individuals and organizations are working to ensure the County is a safe and healthy place to live and work," said Chairman Greg Cox, County Board of Supervisors. "I applaud their efforts. Their great work is an inspiration to us all."

The awards reflect achievements related to the 2013 National Public Health Week (April 1-7). The theme, Public Health is ROI (Return on Investment): Save Lives, Save Money!, focuses on a safe and healthy workplace, safe and active commuting, and living in healthy communities.

"These awards highlight the valuable partnerships we have created with local governments, businesses, and communities," said Nick Macchione, HHSA director. "Their extraordinary achievements promote public health and protect local residents."

Carol Lewis – East Region Awardee

Carol Lewis of Alpine is the chairperson for the Mountain Empire Collaborative, which includes local groups, agencies and individuals who provide health and wellness services to the community. These services aim to reduce chronic disease by improving access to healthy foods and eliminating so-called "food deserts" in East County.

Mountain Empire Collaborative's work includes developing a community garden and nutritional program; dental education; health and safety forums and programs along with an annual health fair. Formed in 1999 and covering 950 square miles, the collaborative addresses the needs and challenges of youth, families, and seniors. Access to healthy foods and educating families about nutrition have been the collaborative's priorities and with the support and assistance of community members, non-profit organizations and health clinics, community and school gardens were established in Mountain Empire.

Under Lewis' direction, the Mountain Empire Collaborative is working to impact chronic disease rates through healthy food access and physical activity and is successfully working with partners to create safe, healthy, and drug-free communities in rural East San Diego County. The greatest accomplishment of the collaborative has been the development of the community gardens and nutrition programs funded by the Tides grant from Mountain Health. The collaborative also recently received a SANDAG grant for health care transportation forums. Lewis is an integral part of the community, wholly embracing the Live Well, San Diego! initiative. She serves on the Building Better Health Nutrition Workgroup and East Region Leadership team. She also participates with the Mountain Empire Revitalization planning group that is working on community projects, with the support of Supervisor Dianne Jacob, to increase active living.

Lewis is truly dedicated to her community. In addition to her role with the collaborative, she is Community Liaison of Mountain Health & Community Services, has a passion for teaching youth leadership skills, received the Grossmont Healthcare Hero Award last year for her work with the Kiwanis Club of Alpine and the Distinguished Service Award from Kiwanis Cal-Nev-Ha Foundation for her service to the club, volunteering at multiple events and as newsletter editor. She is innovative, resourceful, purposeful and dedicated to making a difference in improving the health of the Mountain Empire community. Lewis said she is inspired by her collaborative members and sees them as champions in their own right.

An Alpine History Mystery

Our mystery man was born in Indiana 124 years ago into the family of a famous American painter. The arts seemed to run in the family. His brother John was a famous writer and creator of popular children's toys that are still enjoyed today. The subject of this mystery was also a writer as well as an artist. One of his early literary works is well known in Alpine. His illustrations have been published world-wide in children's books, but he is also recognized for his watercolors and oil paintings of murals, landscapes, individual portraits and vintage aircraft. In fact, he was commissioned to paint several murals for the Works Progress Administration and from 1936 to 1939 painted several murals that were exhibited at the New York World's Fair. Later he was commissioned to create the "Early Birds" mural which was on display for several years at the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, DC.

Our mystery man moved to Alpine in 1955 with his wife, Mabel. He had a studio in their home on Lilac Lane. It is there that he created 14 nearly life size paintings depicting the Stations of the Cross for the Queen of Angels Church in Alpine.

Perhaps you know this man - this writer, painter, and illustrator of books, cartoons and covers for sheet music. His name, artifacts from his studio and examples of his work can be found at the Alpine History Museum. Come visit to learn more about him at our next museum open house on May 25 & 26, or at the Alpine History Day on June 1. If you can't join us then, watch for our article next month when we will give you his name and present you with a new Alpine History Mystery.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF SANDRA KATHLEEN RASMUSSEN CASE NO. 37-2013-00047863-PR-PL-CTL ROA #: 1 (IMAGED FILE)
To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of: SANDRA KATHLEEN RASMUSSEN also known as SANDY RASMUSSEN
A Petition for Probate has been filed by DARLENE L. BARNETT in the Superior Court of California, County of SAN DIEGO.
The Petition for Probate requests that DARLENE L. BARNETT be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.
The Petition requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.
The Petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.
A hearing on the petition will be held in this court on JUN 18 2013 at 11:00 A.M. in Dept. PC-1 located at 1409 4th Avenue, San Diego, CA 92101-3105 Central Division/Madge Bradley Building.
If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.
If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.
Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk. Attorney for Petitioner: Larry D. Submission of a bid shall be prima facie evidence of the bidder's compliance with this requirement

However, at the time the contract is awarded, the contractor shall be properly licensed in accordance with the laws of this state. The first payment for work or material under any contract shall not be made unless and until the Registrar of Contractors verifies to the agency that the records of the Contractors State License Board indicate that the contractor was properly licensed at the time the contract was awarded. Any bidder or contractor not so licensed shall be subject to all legal penalties imposed by law, including, but not limited to, any appropriate disciplinary action by the Contractors State License Board. Pet of the Week

Hello everybody! My name is ERIC, and I'm a happy, fun-loving three-year-old Poodle-mix fellow who is just cuter than cute. Wait until you see my little face, with my dark eyes and button-like nose. I'm already housebroken, and I would make the perfect addition to your family. I would do well in a household with older, considerate children, and I enjoy the company of other animals, so it sure would be nice to have a little dog buddy. I know how to play fetch, and I'll drop the ball right next to you automatically! You'll be so impressed with my skills!! I love going for walks and I enjoy sitting on laps, too. I guess you'd say that I'm an all-around wonderful dog. When you get to our shelter, just ask one of our wonderful Shelter Staff to introduce you to the incredibly handsome and very cute little dog whose name is ERIC, and we just might discover that we are meant to be best friends forever. I'm just the perfect size for an apartment or a house, and would just love to be your best pal forever. You can be sure that I'll be waiting for you, so hopefully you'll stop by our shelter soon for a visit, so that we can get acquainted. Come and hold me in your arms and close to your heart, because I think we're going to fall in love with each other. See you soon. Love, Eric" Kennel #16
