Skatepark becomes a reality

The first fully designed county skatepark will become a reality in Lakeside. The groundbreaking for the skate park – to be named the Daily Disposal Skatepark – was held July 9 at Lindo Lake Park east of the tennis courts.

Dignitaries spoke of the tireless efforts of a core group of Lakeside citizens who never gave up the dream of three dedicated men. Past Chamber of Commerce president Steve Menefee, said, "The memory and inspiration of Rick Smith,

Harold Hilliker and Joseph Caci, who have passed and dreamed for us to have a skatepark, continue to inspire us to get r' done."

The county will pay for construction of the park and the rest will come from tax dollars.
"It's local money coming back to the community," County Supervisor Dianne Jacob, said.
The community raised $65,000

Vietnam helicopter now serving in a different arena

by Diana Saenger

Anyone who has seen a huge red Uh-1H Huey Blackhawk helicopter being towed around the county, or been to an event where the helicopter is on display, usually has questions about what its function is and where it came from.

The helicopter is part of Blackhawk Helicopters, Inc. Silvia Krauss is owner and President of the Company. She met her husband Ken in 1989. Silvia handles the paperwork and administration aspects of the business in leasing and operating the copters. Ken Krauss is Vice President, runs the daily operation of their three helicopters, and is the main pilot for the Blackhawk, which does most of the heavier lifting jobs the company takes on. The other two copters are under contract with SDG&E to provide power line patrol and construction services.

Ken Krauss grew up in Los Angeles and went to college in Tennessee before transferring to Christian Heritage College (now San Diego Christian College) in San Diego.

"I was working on fixed wing airplanes thinking I wanted to be a missionary pilot," Krauss said. "When that didn't work out, I transitioned into helicopters."

In 1987 Krauss went to work on tuna boats and started doing maintenance on helicopters all over the world. He began buying helicopters and soon was able to offer his services for various tasks.

The Blackhawk is certified and able to lift up to 4,000 lbs. on the hook and with an 1800 HP engine, up to 3,500 above sea level. Some of the tasks of Blackhawk Helicopters, Inc. include: A project on Del Dios Highway clearing Eucalyptus trees and Palm trees in Tecolote Canyon; Assisting with trail restoration on Cowles Mountain by lifting in granite, rocks and materials to be spread on the trails; helping the Park Service in Torrey Pines to clear garbage out of the canyon.

"We've done plane crash retrieval in hard to get to areas; recently retrieved a brand new Jeep a guy in Los Angeles drove off a cliff (he was okay); set water tanks; and set 230 air conditioner units in Arizona on an Amazon building in one day; and occasionally forestry fire-fighting," Krauss said.

The company trailers the Blackhawk to most jobs because it saves hours of flying time, the cost of fuel, and they don't have to be concerned about the weather. Many of their jobs affect environmental concerns.

"We surgically helped with urban logging of invasive tree removal at Lake Hodges Dam

El Cajon Centennial Moments

Sharing a piece of history

Centennial Moment: Push to widen Main Street and more in 1935

Below is an excerpt from a brochure published in 1961 in honor of the City's 50th anniversary of incorporation: "50 Years of Progress." The brochure chronicles events in the City by each year, from incorporation in 1912, through present day, at that time, in 1935.

The Rotary Club did a good job of campaigning for the widening of Main Street through the City. The work was completed on May 20, when a huge celebration took place. Business was reported almost immediately to show an increase. The City was making an early recovery from the depression.

Mrs. Lethia L. Knowles passed away this year. She was an outstanding citizen of the community. She had served on the City Council. But perhaps her greatest achievement was the "Knowles' House," a restaurant. Hardly a single real estate salesman failed to end a tour of the Valley for a lunch at the "Knowles' House." It sort of put the topper on the sales pitch, and usually resulted in the sale when the customer was filled with good food. The townsmen equally agreed that it was a good place to eat, especially when "Irish Stew" was featured on the menu.

The City Fathers made a major decision in the advancement of communication in the City Hall when they voted to have a telephone installed.

The Trustees decided on a pay raise from $75 a month to $100 for the Chief of Police.

for two years without a lot of disturbance," Krauss said. "By not having to take in big bull dozers that disturb the ground cover, it's better for the environment."

Blackhawk's other Chief pilot is BJ Juleson. The company has several full time mechanics, and some part time assistants. Joe Vaine is a driver and in charge of marketing, and does external load operations. Eric Verkouteren is a mechanic and does external load operations. Al Clarkson and Chris Freeman are drivers and do external load operations. Jeremy Murphy and Shawn Hammontree do external load operations. Gabino Favela is principal mechanic. Richard Edwards is the Heavy Lift Operations Coordinator. Edwards has been with Blackhawk for 15 years. He loves his job and says every task they get is an adventure.

"I enjoy when I get to take the Blackhawk out to events," Edwards said. "It's like eye candy. Everyone enjoys seeing it, adults, our military and especially kids. But I like how this is a second life for this helicopter, and I can see in the military service men and women returning from duty they kind of identify with it too, because they are starting new lives with new jobs as well.

"I also enjoy our team at Blackhawk," Edwards added. "Whether the pilot, water guy, radio operator, safety check person or boss, we all look out for each other and everyone is respectful."

In addition to the Blackhawk being a powerful workhorse, it has a prestigious reputation.

"The Blackhawk, a name we gave it, no significance to the military or any other related company, flew in the Vietnam Theater for three years," Krauss said. "It was manufactured in 1964. It was with a company called the Rattlers and Firebirds, an aircraft association of members who served in Vietnam. We bought it in 1999 and made some modifications. It's just as good now as when it came out of the factory. It got shot in Vietnam, so it's a wounded vet.

The least we can do is honor those who flew it over there so we have the names of the pilots on the helicopter. John Meteko was one of the pilots who flew the helicopter in Vietnam and came here one time to fly it again."

Silvia and Ken Krauss are proud they created a company that serves the community and their faith.

"I look forward to getting up in the morning and getting to the hangar," Ken Krauss said. "There is a satisfaction to this job, but it's not about putting advertising out there, it's more about the helicopter and honoring the guys who serve it. And we have a strong committee with our relationship with God and to conduct business with honesty and integrity. We don't look at ourselves as owners; everything we have belongs to God and our focus is, 'What can we do to honor God today.'"

Inspiration

Apple fritter: the fruit of my choice

by Dr. Rev. James L. Snyder

Our country, so it seems, runs on choice. The more choices we have the better we like it.

Most people in America pride themselves on the ability to make their own choices.

"Freedom of Choice," is the cry you hear all around our country these days. Yet, most people do not have the freedom of choice they think they have. Somebody is influencing the choices they make without them realizing they are being influenced.

That is called marketing.

The Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage and I were watching television the other night, trying to watch a favorite TV program. Finally, from an end of the room that was not my end, came an exasperated sigh. I tried to ignore it, but you know how that works.

The exasperation seemed to accelerate and I knew that if I did not acknowledge it in some way, well, I think you know what would happen.

It was in the middle of some commercials and so I turned to her and said, "What's got you in such pain tonight?" At her age I did not know if there was some medical something or other going on.

"These commercials," she moaned so painfully, "I can't stand all these commercials!"

I must say I was a little bummed out about all the commercials myself. I think every one-hour program is devoted to 30 minutes of commercials. Most of those commercials are for things I have no interest in. Or, they are played at a very inappropriate time.

It never fails if we are having our supper while watching television there are 79 commercials for diarrhea. Is this really a major problem in our country today?

Getting back to my wife and the commercials, I responded as cheerfully as I could, "Well, my dear, somebody has to pay for our television viewing privilege."

I felt a cold yet burning stare in my direction.

"Can't they run those lousy commercials when I'm not watching TV?"

Someone once said that silence is Golden and right then I cultivated a golden moment.

Commercials are a way in which manufacturing companies influence our choices. Every product has 100 different companies marketing the same product. I have not done too much research but the little I have done I discovered that the same company makes the same product but sells it under a different name.

There are two categories of products. There is the name brand, which cost a fortune. Then there is the generic brand, which is only a fraction of what the name brand cost. It is the same product, made by the same company, but advertised by difference venues. This is where choice comes in.

Some people choose the high-priced product because they think it is better.

Some of us choose the low-price product because we know better.

One night as we were watching television, it seemed most of the commercials had to do with dieting of some kind. There were high calorie diets, low-carb diets and diet that really did not make sense to me.

Watching all of those dieting commercials, I did not see one that I would die for.

Every one of those commercials assumes everybody watching wants to lose 297 pounds. Personally, I have lost the same 5 pounds for over 30 years. I lose 5 pounds and then by golly, three weeks later I find those 5 pounds, at least they recognize me.

Anybody can lose weight; it is all a matter of choice. Personally, I do not plan to lose any sleep because I cannot lose weight. I think it is going to be rather funny if when we go to heaven everybody is fat. Wouldn't that be something? We plummet ourselves almost to death trying to lose weight and get to heaven and everybody is fat.

It all boils down to choice. It all boils down to the fact that most people think they are making their own choices.

Those of us who are on the husband side of the marital equation know we do not make our own choices. Our choices are made for us by our "better half." Why do you think we get married?

My wife is a great one for fruit and vegetables. Every day of our life is fruit and vegetables. To mix things up a little bit one day it will be vegetables and fruit.

She prepares the fruit and then invites me to make a choice. I am sure she did not see all of this in any television commercial; at least I hope she hasn't. She is proud of the display of fruit choices she has for me.

She is also concerned about my diet. Much more than I am. I do not think my diet is so important that both of us should be concerned about it. If she chooses to be concerned about my diet, that is her choice.

I choose to be a little more cavalier when it comes to dieting.

Actually, and do not tell her I said this, but my fruit of choice is the humble Apple fritter. It has everything my heart desires and a few things my body desires, too.

I like with David said, "Delight thyself also in the LORD; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart" (Psalms 37:4 KJV).

It is all a matter of choice, that is, making the right choice.

Dear Dr. Luauna — "Broken"

Dear Readers,

Many times in our life growing up, things happen to us, and we wonder why. The Bible is filled with real people just like you and I. Throughout every page we find someone who we can relate with, from the young girl who was raped and violated in; 2 Samuel 13, to the brothers who betrayed their own brother in the story of Joseph in Genesis 37. Or the woman who was married to a very selfish man, her name was Abigail.

As a child I was broken, my whole life in some way or another was a reaction from the brokenness of my heart. Millions of people are broken inside. Many don't even know how much they are broken causing one to live way below what God has prepared for them. God has so much for us, yet how do we obtain the freedom we so desperately need?

Easier said than done, one may think! No, I am living proof; I have been free from brokenness. Let's look at a few people in the Bible, who were broken inside, hurting. Psalm 31:12; "I am forgotten like a dead man, I'm like a broken vessel." David is the one who wrote this verse. What caused this mighty warrior to be in such a state to compare his life to a dead man? David was betrayed more than once; he loved Jonathan and served his father, King Saul with all his heart. In his place of serving a spirit of jealousy took over Saul, and he wanted to kill David. David fled for his life, he was cast out like a homeless man, leaving his wife and family, running, and hiding in the caves of the mountains, alone, and rejected.

David is redeemed, becomes king, only to find he later is running for his life again because his own son Absalom is now trying to kill him. 2 Samuel 15, Hurt and betrayal comes by David's own son, Absalom. Proverbs 15:13; "A Merry heart makes a cheerful countenance, but by sorrow of heart the spirit is broken." From this verse, I see David is truly broken inside. Proverbs 18:14; "The spirit of a man will sustain him in sickness, but who can bear a broken spirit?"

The spirit of a man is so important! It's the spirit of a man that can determine our victory tomorrow or defeat. We live in a fallen world and many things happen to cause a person to be broken. Many times we'll never understand why. Many years ago I decided to stop asking why, I only knew I needed healing, from rejection, and betrayal. I needed healing from insecurities; my own self-worth was low. Isaiah 54:6; "For the Lord has called you like a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, like a youthful wife when you were refused, Says the Lord your God."

No matter what trial crosses our life, we can be healed if we will allow Jesus to take the burden deep within our hearts. Life is filled with situations we can't stop or have control over! Years ago my husband was murdered. He was killed when the husband of the woman he was having an affair with came home, caught him with his wife and killed him. When I look back over my life, God's love amazes me, I am here today healed from brokenness, through Jesus, His love reaches deep within, and brings healing.

Psalm 61:1; "Hear my cry, O God; Attend to my prayer. From the end of the earth I will cry to You, when my heart is overwhelmed; Lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

Jesus is our hope and our freedom, from the brokenness inside. I love you, need healing?

July 25: Are Electronic Billboards Coming to Alpine?

Electronic Billboards are the new hot topic in outdoor advertising. Some call them effective communication media, while others dub them as TV's on a stick. They are designed to get attention for advertisers, but do they also cause auto accidents or near collisions due to distracted driving? Are they right or wrong for Alpine? Learn more at the next ACPG meeting when Tiffany Metti of Southwest Strategies will give an electronic billboard presentation. There are also four other important traffic and circulation topics on the agenda for ACPG, including Safe Routes to School, O'Reilly's Auto Parts, Drainage Facilities Master Plan, and Circulation Subcommittee recommendations. 'Pacific Rim' — so over the top it dulls the senses

Raleigh Beckett and Rinko Kikuchi star in Pacific Rim. Photo Credit: Warner Bros. Entertainment, Inc. and Legendary Pictures Funding, LLC

Review by James Colt Harrison

It's really too early to pick the Worst Film of the Year, but we have found it. This is it! Pacific Rim wins hands down. World War Z, my previous selection, seems like Shakespeare's greatest work compared to this overblown potboiler.

Appealing to the lowest common denominator, this film was made for impressionable boys who love to see things destroyed, squashed, blown to bits, and obliterated. Director Guillermo del Toro has been given a lot more money with a budget of $180 million. The picture's accountant will have to enter rehab if the film flops.

Let's see... is there a plot? Well, in a cursory way. Some monstrous sea creatures, which look like a combination between a hammer head shark stuck onto Godzilla's body, become a problem. Emerging from a big fissure in the ocean, the creatures are out to colonize the earth and rid the planet of human beings. The war between humans and amphibious creatures begins.

Every action film needs a hero, and Charlie Hunnam (Raleigh Beckett) of TV's hit show Sons of Anarchy fills the bill with his steel-like six-pack and biceps. He plays a washed up pilot who isn't up to snuff on the new robots, but he's an ace when it comes to knowing the old equipment's capabilities.

The over-sized machines need two pilots. His former co-pilot was his brother Yancy (Diego Klattenhoff — there's a name for you!), killed by one of the sea monsters. Because most of the cast is a high-testosterone gathering of all men, the producers threw in a female who could bring in big box office in Japan.

Rinko Kikuchi is Mako, the token "girl" who can barely speak English, looks startled most of the time as if saying "What am I doing in this great big sci-fi movie?!". Guided by mentor Stacker (Idris Elba), she somehow qualifies to pilot one of the ultra-huge robots from the inside. Don't ask. She is so dainty she barely looks strong enough to push one of the levers or peddle furiously with her size-two feet. Because she is a star in all of Asia, she comes through and turns out to be a "boffo" pilot and puts Hunnam to shame. He probably has it in his contract not to star with her again because she steals all his scenes.

What can one say about a film in which the robots and monsters — CGI or not — dominate the screen with grunts, groans, shrieks, and bellowing? Cleverly based on many Japanese monsters, they are called Kaiju. John Knoll and Hal T. Hickel of Industrial Light and Magic were hired to create the visual effects. Unfortunately, the lighting man must have been asleep at the kleig light as so many of the scenes are too dark to see anything.

The action is the core of the film. Accompanying the fighting are the sound effects. Never have there been such ear-shattering noises, crunches, bangs, crashes, and door-slamming. It's painful.

the annoying, harmful sound effects, then he should be forced to listen to the film until his ears explode as did the audience's.

About the 3D: why do film-makers bother to make a film and later convert it to 3D? It's not real 3D and it's simply a cheap way to get effects. Why don't they actually film it in 3D and get all the wonderful effects that three dimensions offer?

No doubt youngsters will love the movie, which is not great art. Director del Toro summed it up himself when he said, "We cannot pretend this is Ibsen with monsters and giant robots. I cannot pretend I'm doing a profound reflection on mankind." Amen, brother.

ECG Entertainment Editor's Note: Many complained leaving the theater about the loud sound and Harrison and I spent the entire evening with fingers in our ears. It gave my 25-year-old grandson a migraine. Everything was so fast in this movie all the monster scenes looked like a big black blob in a washing machine full of water. Save your money. NOTICE OF PETITION
TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF
ALICE H. PATTERSON
CASE NO. 37-2013-00055407-PR-PW-CTL
ROA #: 1
(IMAGED FILE)

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of: ALICE H. PATTERSON

A Petition for Probate has been filed by JEFFREY E. PATTERSON in the Superior Court of California, County of SAN DIEGO.

The Petition for Probate requests that JEFFREY E. PATTERSON be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent. The Petition requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court. The Petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A hearing on the petition will be held in this court on AUG 15 2013 at 1:30 P.M. in Dept. PC-2 located at 1409 4th Avenue, San Diego, CA 92101-3105 Central Division/Madge Bradley Building.

If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk. Petitioner/Attorney for Petitioner: Stefani B. Pet of the Week

"Hello, all of you nice people! My name is DASH, and I'm a lovable five-year-old Dachshund who's ready to be someone's loyal pet forever. I'm a sweet boy who loves people, and I get along nicely with other dogs. I'm visually impaired, so I can't see well, and I'd like to be in either an adult home or one where the kids are older and very considerate of me. I'm small and snuggly, so I could be in a house or an apartment. The shelter staff is fairly certain that I've already been house trained, but they're still watching me to be sure. I hope you'll come visit me at the El Cajon Animal Shelter so we can get to know each other better. I really am a special boy, and I know that I'll melt your heart. Love, Dash" Kennel #55 Pet ID: 15788
