Four Diamond Resort continues upscale growth

The Viejas Resort Hotel opened its doors in April and in June was the recipient of the prestigious AAA Four Diamond Award. Given the rigorous criteria involved in earning this designation, it's not a surprise that only 4.8 percent of the 30,000 approved lodgings made this year's Four Diamond list. Now Viejas is brining new stores to their Outlet Center. The newest being ECCOCI, an upscale women's clothing store that is classified as 'easy chic, European inspired in stunning colors, luxurious fabrics and modern styles.' ECCOCI opened Tuesday, July 30, with this being the first store in California. See page 9 for more information.

Visit a cool zone & stay cool

Beat the heat and save on energy costs by going to a local Cool Zone! Cool Zones are designated air-conditioned buildings easily identifiable by a light blue Polar Bear Cool Zone logo. There are more than 100 locations throughout San Diego County in libraries, indoor malls and senior centers (like the Downtown El Cajon Library and the Westfield Parkway Mall). The Cool Zones website provides a list of places to go that are air-conditioned when the weather is extremely hot as a way to stay cool and save on energy costs. Please make sure pets are safe. Be sure they have cool shade and plenty of water and remember temperatures in a vehicle can rise dramatically, quickly causing serious injuries, even death. NEVER leave babies, children, the elderly or your pets in a vehicle - not even for a moment. For more information on Cool Zones, call (800) 510-2020 and press "6", or visit www.CoolZones.org.

Honoring El Cajon volunteers!

As the City of El Cajon continues to celebrate 100 years of incorporation, we would like to honor those who volunteer in our community through the 100 Hours Honoring 100 Years Volunteer Program. During this Centennial Year as we reflect on our rich City history, it is important to recognize that it is the people who make El Cajon the "Valley of Opportunity," including our volunteers. The 100 Hours Honoring 100 Years Volunteer Program was developed to provide an opportunity for El Cajon residents and others involved in the community to be recognized for their service in honor of El Cajon's Centennial. Through this volunteer program, the City will recognize the volunteer service performed in the El Cajon community during the Centennial year (November 2012 through November 2013). All are invited to participate, whether as an individual, or in a group on behalf of an organization, community group, or business. Find out more by visiting the Centennial website, www.elcajon100.com, under "Participate" and download the forms. Completed forms will be accepted throughout the year; however, all forms must be completed and delivered, or post-marked, by December 10, 2013. For more information, call (619) 441-5549.

Celebrating 100 Years as a city

Don't forget, you are welcome to share your memories and photos of growing up in El Cajon on our Centennial website at www.elcajon100.com. Also on the Centennial website, you will see photos and a video from the November 12, 2012, event! Join us as we celebrate the people of El Cajon - it is the people that make our City The Valley of Opportunity!

Note: If you have an event in the City of El Cajon that you would like to share, please send it to: Monica Zech, Public Information Officer, City of El Cajon, 200 Civic Center Way, El Cajon, CA 92020, or via e-mail at mzech@cityofelcajon.us.

Centennial Moment: Post War Planning in 1944

El Cajon in 1944.

Below is an excerpt from a brochure published in 1961 in honor of the City's 50th anniversary of incorporation: "50 Years of Progress." The brochure chronicles events in the City by each year, from incorporation in 1912, through present day, at that time, in 1961. This Centennial moment focuses specifically on the year 1944.

The City Councilmen suddenly realized that with our nation's victories and the influx of a rapidly growing population, that far-reaching plans for the post-war days would have to be formulated to accommodate the future. The Council then selected the following pioneers of the City and the persons they felt had the vision of the future to make recommendations for the future planning - David Raeburn, Andrew Ballantyne, R.L. Swearingin, George Sears, Claude Kenyon, Abe Weinstock and Roger Beaty. These were men from the various walks of life that seemed best qualified to look into the future.

Building restrictions were found to be necessary in order to conform to a more set pattern for the future appearance of the City. One of the first ordinances passed by the City Council was to establish the law that no dwelling would be built that had less than 400 square feet of floor space. This, it was felt, would eliminate the possibility of squalor residential districts in the future.

A special house-to-house census was started this year to establish a new population figure. This census did not end until the following year, 1945, when it was well established that there were approximately 3,175 persons living in the City limits.

Sunshine Street was declared a major street by the City Council.

The year brought a rainfall of about 13 inches to the Valley.

Mountaintop homes near sell out at the Vineyards at High Meadow Ranch

Kitchen from home at High Meadow Ranch.

The recent Preview Opening of well-appointed mountaintop residences at The Vineyards at High Meadow Ranch drew crowds and rapid sales with seven reservations on just nine homes released at this private East County community. Three professionally furnished and landscaped model homes on one- to two-acre home sites attracted buyers who value natural open space and the serenity of a more rural surrounding.

As demand for newly constructed estate-size residences in equally striking areas heightens, Pacifica Companies is delivering superbly appointed and energy-efficient homes on one-of-a-kind home sites in the San Diego area. Broadening the appeal of this elevated collection of homes is their truly unique position among terraced hillsides and scenic canyons with far-reaching mountain vistas. Such expansive lot sizes further provide opportunity for indoor/outdoor living, dining entertaining or simply unwinding.

Families, couples and retirees are also responding favorably to a pair of single-story home designs and one two-story plan featuring four to six bedrooms and ranging from an estimated 2,900 to 4,200 sq. ft. of luxury, view-oriented living area. Pre-Grand Opening pricing begins from the $800,000s.

ing begins from the $800,000s.

Encompassing more than 800 scenic acres, the private master planned community of High Meadow Ranch is perched approximately 1,400 feet above sea level and is awash with clear, fresh air, meandering trails, and breathtaking desert and ocean views.

Further complementing the unique characteristics of The Vineyards at High Meadow Ranch is also the presence of grapevines throughout the community and plans for a future boutique winery just beyond the gated entry of High Meadow Ranch.

The Vineyards at High Meadow Ranch is located at 12046 Mountain Lion Road in Lakeside. Models are open daily from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sales information can be obtained by calling (619) 938-0922, or joining a growing interest list at HighMeadowCA.com.

The movies take place at Lindo Lake County Park, 12260 Lindo Lake, Lakeside. The movie for August 16 is The Croods — rated PG.

Community Garden

Due to community concern the garden area next to Lindo Lake Community Center will be moved next to the playground to preserve the views from the community center.

Communication from the community is appreciated so that everyone is satisfied with the results. Proposed changes include removing and salvaging materials to onsite maintenance building and restore irrigation heads and install sod with African Diets along the existing sidewalk. For the new community garden enclosure, remove a couple of bushes (tree stays), remove existing concrete curb, install new mow curb with a high fence matching the playground area, 9ft. to 10 ft. wide, new DG path with curb border, lockable entrance gate, custom tops that pivot when open and hook the adjacent fence to stay open (park staff will build the boxes) and drip irrigation.

A pre-bid meeting with the contractor for the pre-school/teen/senior garden was held in July at the community garden area.

Goodwill Job Fair

Goodwill Industries of San Diego County in partnership with East County Career Center will hold a job fair event Thursday, Aug. 8 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the East County Career Center at 924 E. Main St. in El Cajon.

Whatever happened to those lazy days of summer?

by Dr. Rev. James L. Snyder

According to my calculations, summer is half over. I am not quite sure how this came about but the calendar has never lied to me before. It has confused me and taunted me but it has never lied to me.

Looking at my calendar I can see no lazy days of summer noted anywhere in the foreseeable future. I am not sure if this is an oversight on my part and that I should have at least penciled in one lazy day of summer or if those lazy days of summer are a thing of the past. I sure hope it is not the latter.

I can hardly imagine a world without any lazy days of summer. It just would not be summer in my opinion.

This probably is the price people pay for getting old. When I was young most of my summer was filled with lazy days where I practiced the fine art of doing nothing. Oh how I yearn for the return of those good old days of yesteryear.

Someone once told me, "Sonny, don't ever grow old." At the time, I did not know what he meant. I assumed he was referring to his loss of hair or arthritis in his joints or forgetting things. I thought that was what it meant to grow old. He meant nothing of the sort.

Now that I am old, I understand exactly what he was warning. There is no doubt in my mind; he was bemoaning the fact that his lazy days were gone. Perhaps, he was envious of the fact that at the time I had loads and loads of lazy days on my hands. I did not know just how rich I was.

Now I do, but it is too late. Where have all those lazy days gone?

I was whining about this to the Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage hoping to get some empathy at least. Instead of sympathizing with me, all she did was look at me and say in that tone of voice that I know so well, "You just want an excuse to do nothing."

To which I replied most sharply, "I don't need an excuse to do nothing, all I need is an opportunity."

Thinking about what I said I discovered there was more wisdom in that one sentence than anything else I have ever said. I had to sit in the corner for a few moments recovering from the shock of saying something with wisdom in it. I probably say many things with wisdom in it without even thinking. In fact, I am good at saying many things without thinking.

Although I may not be good at a wide variety of things, I have mastered the art of doing nothing. I can do nothing better than I can do anything. Of course, I do not have too many opportunities to do anything; I have more opportunities to do nothing. If I had my choice, I would rather do nothing than anything.

My philosophy is simply this, why be good at nothing and not put it to good use?

I have invested a lot of time and energy into doing nothing and I am concerned that not having an opportunity to do nothing I might forget the finesse associated with that art.

I do not get a chance very often to do nothing so I am anxious to practice the skills associated with nothing. In this regard, my calendar has not been very cooperative. Where are those lazy days of summer where I can do nothing?

Not only has my calendar not been cooperative but also my wife has been the epitome of obstruction in this pursuit of mine. Just when I think a lazy day is looming on the horizon, she comes up with something for me to do. Even though all I wanted to do was nothing, she insists that I do her something. Either I do her something or else. I do not want to do her or else for nothing.

Those lazy days of summer were the perfect opportunity to perfect the fine art of doing nothing. Regretfully I have to honestly face the fact that those times are far behind me. No more lazy days of summer for me. At least not as many as there used to be.

The old preacher in Ecclesiastes was right when he said, "To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:" (Ecclesiastes 3:1 KJV).

I can look back with a sense of satisfaction and know that when I did have those lazy days of summer I put them to good use and developed skill in doing nothing. I know before me are some days when I will not have the strength or energy to do anything, then my ability to do nothing will come in good use.

I think it is quite important to live in the time at hand. The apostle Paul understood this when he wrote, "And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed." (Romans 13:11 KJV).

Now that I am older, (and who's to say how much older I will get) I can say with a good deal of expertise, never grow old. By that I mean, never forget those lazy days of summer.

Dear Dr. Luauna — A harvest to gather

Dear Readers,

Wow, my heart is full, filled with joy, victory, and such peace. July 28th was our first A Touch From Above – Church on the Beach Sunday Service at 4 p.m. on Mission Beach. I heard Johnnye, a young lady's testimony of how she was lost, broken, filled with drugs and homeless on the beach for three years. The drugs could have killed her, or she could have been found dead by the crime at night. Every day she was hoping to die, she had a death wish.

She is now a Christian, serving God in our ministry and in leaders' class. What a powerful upcoming leader. So touched by her story the Holy Spirit spoke to my heart to go to the beach on my day off. What I saw stirred my heart -- thousands of people, young and old and hundreds more from everywhere around the world. Praying and planning with our team at our first church service on the beach.

As I ministered God's Word, I wanted to cry looking out at all those amazing people, wondering, do they know Jesus? Where will they spend eternity? Then I looked out at our team sitting in beach chairs, some with their eyes closed praying, knowing the Holy Spirit was working in the hearts of hundreds as the water carried God's Word down the beach. I thank God for our team who take their special time after a Sunday morning service to reach out to the lost for Jesus. Great is their reward, and all heaven rejoices as we step out to labor in God's harvest field.

I looked out in the eyes of those sitting or passing by to see if they had Johnnye's experience. Yesterday one woman was crying talking to her friend. We have the answer for their lives. Jesus is the pearl of Great Peace. Many people are skipping church, and many have lost hope. I must go forth and compel them to come to Jesus.

While preaching I could see many turn towards our speaker to hear what was being said. When I think about what we are doing, I am reminded of God's Word. It's like throwing out a million seeds in a massive windmill, scattering them all along the beach into the hearts of hundreds of people at one time. Not only people from San Diego, but there from the entire world. I feel like a farmer, patiently waiting to reap an amazing harvest for Jesus. One day in heaven we will know the greater impact we make when we meet people who later received Jesus because of the seeds that were sown in their heart on a Sunday afternoon at 4 p.m. on Mission Beach. I love it. I love people. I love what Jesus does in a heart who says, "Yes, Lord."

Proverbs 11:30; "The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life, and he who wins souls is wise."

Romans 10:14; "How then shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher?"

After service I took my camera, and walked through the crowd, talking to many. What a wonderful time in the Lord. I look forward to see the service grow every week. As we labor and are faithful, the Lord will bless our labor. If you would like to see the videos check out my website.

Thank you Dear Readers; please keep us in prayer as we reach out to reach the lost for Jesus. Join us if you are in the area, or if you are gifted in music, bring your guitar, or drums, or wind instruments and let's make a joyful sound before the Lord.

God and the Lottery

A blonde woman named Barbara found herself in dire trouble. Her business had gone bust and she was in serious financial trouble. She was so desperate that she decided to ask God for help. She began to pray.

"God, please help me. I've lost my business and if I don't get some money, I'm going to lose my house as well. Please let me win the lotto."

Lotto night came and somebody else won. Barbara again prayed.

"God, please let me win the lotto! I've lost my business, my house and I'm going to lose my car as well."

Lotto night came and Barbara still had no luck. Once again she prayed.

"My God, why have you forsaken me? I've lost my business, my house and my car. My children are starving. I don't often ask you for help and I have always been a good servant to you. Please just let me win the lotto this one time so I can get my life back in order."

Suddenly there was a blinding flash of light as the heavens opened and Barbara was confronted by the voice of God himself.

"Barbara, you are going to have to meet me halfway on this. Buy a ticket."

ECCOCI (pronounced ECHO-chee) is a New York-based high end women's fashion boutique with stores in New York, New Jersey, Nevada and Missouri. The new ECCOCI store at Viejas Outlets is ECCOCI's first store in California.

"Our clothing collections are easy chic, European inspired in stunning colors, luxurious fabrics and modern styles," Kathleen Berryman, Assistant Store Manager, said. "The colors remain constant, you can purchase an outfit this year, and come back next year and find pieces that still match."

ECCOCI's staff is trained and ready to help shoppers select complete outfits. "We can help you select a few pieces that will make several outfits," Berryman said.

Now shoppers can look like a million dollars, without spending it. Being an Outlet Center store has its advantages; clothing and accessory pieces can be purchased up to 75 percent off the regular prices, making it affordable to most everyone.

ECCOCI is located on the north/east side of the grassy area.

Other clothing and accessories stores in the Viejas Outlet Center include: Coach, Representatives from Viejas Tribal Government, Viejas Outlets, ECCOCI women's boutique, Alpine Mountain Empire Chamber of Commerce, San Diego East County Chamber of Commerce, and other civic and business leaders joined ECCOCI Manager Shelly Clarkson and Assistant Manager Kathleen Berryman for their ribbon cutting ceremony and celebration.

When shoppers are ready to "drop," drop by the grass area for a free movie in the park. With a whopping 30' by 15' screen, an extreme sound system, delicious food offerings and pre-movie entertainment from local bands, the park area at Viejas Outlets will be the place to be. Movies at 8 p.m. on Thursdays and Sundays through Sept. 1.

'Blue Jasmine' is an unhappy story

Review by Diana Saenger

Fans of Cate Blanchett may be the only ones who might want to take in Woody Allen's newest film Blue Jasmine. Why? Because the movie features a mediocre story told many times before and a gloomy tone that rarely reaches comedy status as the film proclaims.

Blanchett plays Jasmine, a New York socialite born in France who leads an easy life because her husband Hal (Alec Baldwin) is a successful businessman. However, it's not long into the film before Jasmine discovers Hal is more involved in monkey business – being unfaithful with almost every woman he comes in contact with – than in his real business.

Finding herself broke and with little job skills, Jasmine decides to ask her estranged sister in San Francisco if she can stay with her for a while. Ginger (Sally Hawkins) doesn't approve of Jasmine's constant drinking and reliance on antidepressants. She also detests Jasmine's relentless put down of Ginger's new boyfriend Chili (Bobby Cannavale). Jasmine claims he's yet another "loser" like Ginger's ex-husband Augie (Andrew Dice Clay).

With the sisters at odds, Jasmine looks for a job and finally accepts one as a dental assistant. The married dentist (Michael Stuhlbarg) begins to come-on to Jasmine. This scene ends up — like many in the film — feeling forced. Jasmine acts as if she's swatting a fly instead of pushing away a man who grabs her and hopes to do more.

As the sisters continue to quarrel, Jasmine thinks she will get her share of money from Hal's business, but that glimmer of hope explodes when he's sent to jail for Ponzi schemes. (Sound familiar?) Not only does Jasmine lose her own rightful funds, Ginger and her ex lose the investment funds they gave to Hal as well.

Jasmine finally meets a man she thinks is the love of her life. Wealthy diplomat Dwight (Peter Sarsgaard) seems to be everything Jasmine wants to put her back in the world where she believes she belongs.

Even though Blanchett wraps her talent around this character, it's one we find little to care about. Jasmine comes across as a "me-me-me woman" who's hardly aware of others around her. The ever-smiling Baldwin looks like he does in those credit card commercials. Hawkins, Cannavale, Dice Clay, and Sarsgaard perform well, as their characters have depth. But really, open a few suburban doors and we'll see these same scenarios. So do we want to go to the movies and watch them on the big screen? Not me.

The dialogue also annoyed me — which happens so much with Allen's films. It's an up-and-down rhythm that sounds the way Allen talks. And the disappointing plot feels pulled together from the tabloids. It lacks imagination.

'The Wolverine' – a clawing thriller

Review by Diana Saenger

The Wolverine is yet another chapter in the life of Logan as the strong-as-granite Wolverine with the long claws of steel. Based on the Marvel Comics series, we find Logan (the mutant Wolverine) on a journey to Japan where a visit to his past is a road to his future.

Recalling his past, Logan has a vision of when he was a prisoner in Nagasaki during World War II. He sees in his mind the image of the atomic bomb exploding and when he threw himself on top of a Japanese soldier and saved his life.

That soldier is Yashida (Hal Yamanouchi), an eccentric and wealthy industrialist who controls those around him. When he sends a delegate to fetch Logan, he is curious to find out what Yashida wants from him. He un-borrows himself from his snowy shelter and makes the journey.

Yukio (Rila Fukushima), Yashida's stand-in bodyguard, fetches Logan from the airport. She becomes a huge part of the story not only emotionally, but physically. Fukushima does a great job in bringing this character alive.

When Logan learns that Yashida wants Logan's immortality in exchange for his death, Logan is surprised. Yashida understands that Logan has rarely had any peace in his chaotic life and assures Logan death with bring him peace. Logan refuses and the plot is set in motion. Family issues arise as Yashida is facing death. Who will inherit his empire – his partner or his cultured granddaughter Mariko (Tao Okamoto)?

When grandpa dies, Mariko's life is in danger right away. At the funeral procession dozens of samurai sword-swishing yakuza and ninjas come after her and Logan. Logan really has his work cut out for him. Yukio is right beside him or working defense close by. Their choreography is amazing.

The movie is one fast thrill ride, with Jackman leading the parade and seemingly more comfortable as Wolverine than each time in the past. He certainly looks the part and one can only wonder how many trips to the gym he made to be so buffed up.

Another interesting character in the film is Viper (Svetlana Khodchenkova), who is immune to toxins, has a past history with Logan and has snake-like qualities. She's a real threat throughout the movie but extremely vivid and funny in Logan's battle with the big robot.

Director James Mangold does an excellent job here and all the hundreds of others involved in the filmmaking definitely earned their paycheck. Whether a returning Wolverine fan or a newbie, neither will be disappointed with The Wolverine.

Notice to Potential Bidders If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a Trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a Trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same Lender may hold more than one mortgage or Deed of Trust on the property. Notice to Property Owner The sale date shown on this Notice of Sale may be postponed one or more times by the Mortgagee, Beneficiary, Trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. NOTICE OF PETITION
TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF
JAYNE LUCKE SHEARS AKA JAYNE L.
SHEARS
CASE NO. 37-2013-00059128-PR-PW-CTL
ROA #: 1 (IMAGED FILE)

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of: JAYNE LUCKE SHEARS AKA JAYNE L. SHEARS

A Petition for Probate has been filed by KAREY K. GIGUERE in the Superior Court of California, County of SAN DIEGO.

The Petition for Probate requests that KAREY K. GIGUERE be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

The Petition requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

The Petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A hearing on the petition will be held in this court on 9/5/2013 at 1:30 P.M. in Dept. PC-2 located at 1409 4th Avenue, San Diego, CA 92101-3105 Central Division/Madge Bradley Building.

If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (855)986-9342, or visit this Internet Web site www.superiordefault.com using the file number assigned to this case 1306259CA . Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. Date: 7/18/2013. Trustee Sales Information: 855-986-9342, www.superiordefault.com Seaside Trustee Inc., P.O. ### Pet of the Week

"Who's a cute little doll that will light up your life? It's me, PEGGY! I'm a three-month-old Terrier/ Cocker Spaniel mix who's looking for my forever home. I don't mean to brag, but I think you'll find that I'm irresistibly cute, and definitely fun. I love everybody, and I sure hope you'll love me. I get along great with everybody, and I'd be a perfect family pet. I like to play with other dogs, too. The shelter staff isn't sure yet if I've been house trained, but I'm young and eager to please, so I'm confident that I can learn all sorts of new things. Please come visit me and hold me in your arms. My fur is so soft, and my nature is so very loving that I just know you'll want to take me home and love me forever. I'll be waiting for you, so please hurry on over to the El Cajon Animal Shelter as soon as possible. Love, Peggy" Kennel #35. ID: 15817
