SDG&E offers solutions to future rate hike

by Diana Saenger
Brian Freye, a project advisor for San Diego Gas & Electric (SDG&E) addressed Kiwanians at their August 3 morning meeting. Freye used a power point presentation to show how supplying energy to Southern Californian has changed over the years.

The recent shut down of the San Onofre Nuclear Power Plant has already resulted in the nearly 3.5 million rate payers receiving notices that rates will go up in September. Freye said the rate increases are due more to the four-Tier structure of fixed costs to clients based on several elements. These Tier distinctions are decided by government officials — not SDG&E officials, Freye said.

Freye was very patient in answering a sea of questions from those attending obviously with concerns felt by many of the residents and business owners in San Diego County.

Along with answering the questions to the best of his ability, Freye spoke about some money saving alternatives such as solar, or adjusting the thermostat just a few degrees which can save up to $200 a year on heating and cooling bills.

SDGE&E offers rate assistance to low-income or those on public assistance programs through its CARE and FERA programs. Technicians will help users track where their energy is going. They offer free hearing and air-conditioning checks for maintenance and provide free filters.

One-minute videos at www.sdge.com/energydiet offers saving tips on lighting, pools, electronics, and refrigerators. Rebates for some energy-smart choices are available.

To find the top 10 Ways to save on energy or how to save 20 percent a month on an average bill, call 1-800-411-7343.

Local Animal Rescue Group Holding "PAW-dres" Fundraiser

County to help keep inmate fire camps open

The Board of Supervisors on Tuesday (Aug. 6) moved to ensure that low-risk prisoners remain on the front lines of backcountry firefighting.

By unanimous vote, the board authorized county staff to complete an agreement with state officials that would house qualified inmates at local fire camps operated by the state. The move came at the urging of Supervisor Dianne Jacob, District Attorney Bonnie Dumanis, Sheriff Bill Gore and county Chief Administrative Officer Helen Robbins-Meyer.

"Keeping the camps open is critical to public safety because they provide much-needed boots on the ground when wildfire hits," said Supervisor Jacob, board vice chairwoman. "Inmate crews put added muscle into our efforts to manage overgrown brush and to fight major blazes."

Preview release of Mountaintop Homes near sell-out at the Vineyards at High Meadow Ranch

8 of 9 luxury homes reserved in preview release

The Vineyards at High Meadow Ranch's well-appointed Buena Vista kitchen and nook.

East County, San Diego (August 5, 2013) – The recent Preview Opening of well-appointed mountaintop residences at The Vineyards at High Meadow Ranch drew crowds and rapid sales with eight reservations on just nine homes released at this private East County community. Three professionally furnished and landscaped model homes on one- to two-acre home sites attracted buyers who value natural open space and the serenity of a more rural surrounding.

As demand for newly constructed estate-size residences in equally striking areas heightens, Pacifica Companies is delivering superbly appointed and energy-efficient homes on one-of-a-kind home sites in the San Diego area. Broadening the appeal of this elevated collection of homes is their truly unique position among terraced hillsides and scenic canyons with far-reaching mountain vistas. Such expansive lot sizes further provide opportunity for indoor/outdoor living, dining entertaining or simply unwinding.

Families, couples and retirees are also responding favorably to a pair of single-story home designs and one two-story plan featuring four to six bedrooms and ranging from an estimated 2,900 to 4,200 sq. ft. of luxury, view-oriented living area. Pre-Grand Opening pricing begins from the $800,000s.

Encompassing more than 800 scenic acres, the private master planned community of High Meadow Ranch is perched approximately 1,400 feet above sea level and is awash with clear, fresh air, meandering trails, and breathtaking desert and ocean views.

Further complementing the unique characteristics of The Vineyards at High Meadow Ranch is also the presence of grapevines throughout the community and plans for a future boutique winery just beyond the gated entry of High Meadow Ranch.

The Vineyards at High Meadow Ranch is located at 12046 Mountain Lion Road in Lakeside. Models are open daily from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sales information can be obtained by calling (619) 938-0922, or joining a growing interest list at HighMeadowCA.com.

Red Shoe Day volunteers recognized for their service

by Diana Saenger
Saturday, August 3, was a special recognition day for Kristen Gauss and her 2013 Alpine Red Shoe Day volunteer team. Ronald McDonald House's Corporate & Community Development Coordinator Amanda Dove made a personal appearance to thank Gauss and the volunteers who manned the Red Boots to collect donations for the Ronald McDonald House (RMH). Gauss's team raised $1,800. Also present to acknowledge their efforts was Allen Young from Senator Joel Anderson's office who presented each volunteer with a personal recognition certificate. Both adults and children often participate with the donation collecting.

we love to get the children in our community involved in such a well worthy cause," Gauss said. "All the support is overwhelming and I thank the Senator for recognizing the RMH and the volunteers. I could not have done this alone and my thanks goes out to the 12 volunteers.

Centennial Moment: Mother Goose Parade conceived in 1946

Mother Goose Parade

Below is an excerpt from a brochure published in 1961 in honor of the City's 50th anniversary of incorporation: "50 Years of Progress." The brochure chronicles events in the City by each year, from incorporation in 1912, through present day, at that time, in 1961. This Centennial Moment focuses specifically on the year 1946.

This was the year that brought about the birth of the Mother Goose Parade. True, it was only a dream this year when Thomas Wigton, Jr. conceived the idea while adding the final touches to a Christmas theme display window in his store.

Wigton took his idea to other business people of the town of how he wanted to bring to animated life the imaginary world of childhood, made up of floats in a parade. The men who served on that first Parade Board were Thomas Wigton, Jr., as president; Carlyle Reed as vice president; J.W. Milston as secretary and treasurer. James Free, Max Glaser, Hamilton Judy and C. Rupert as directors.

There was a spectacular oil and gasoline fire at the Langley Oil Products Company on East Main Street which amounted to a loss of $50,000. For a while there was considerable concern when gasoline and flaming oil mixed with water flowed down a storm drain ditch that passed under the W.D. Hall Company main building.

This was a year of another spectacular event in the late history of El Cajon that has contributed greatly to the city today. Tom Jackman took his idea of an Industrial Park to Steve Fletcher, who owned the land. Fletcher liked the idea and the potential both to him and to the City of El Cajon. To start the ball rolling, Jackman purchased one acre of the land. He recalls today that it was all he could afford. Thus Jackman started out to sell the idea to the industry, and the industry listened to him.

According to a story in the "Union Title and Trust Topics" there were three houses completed in the Fletcher Hills area this year.

The City Council passed an ordinance that all businesses within the City limits would be licensed to operate.

Fire camps...

to local state-run camps. They would join prisoners who are already serving time at the rural outposts.

The county plans to budget as much as $950,000 in state realignment money to pay for the housing arrangement during the current fiscal year.

Funding beyond the middle of next year is uncertain. Under current California policy, the state must charge counties $46 a day to house realigned offenders at fire camps. San Diego County officials plan to ask Sacramento lawmakers to reduce or eliminate that fee.

Dropping the fee would give counties a financial incentive to shift qualified prisoners to fire camps, freeing up more jail space to absorb the huge number of state inmates being transferred under realignment.

A report issued in May by the San Diego County Grand Jury emphasized the importance of the four local fire camps and recommended the county act swiftly to help keep them in year-around operation.

Inmate firefighters have been at the backbone of state fire protection efforts for decades. The California prison system, working with Cal Fire, operates more than 40 fire camps statewide.

The four camps in San Diego County are located near the backcountry communities of Rainbow, Warner Springs, McCain Valley and Julian.

Lakeside's Roundup of Events —

by Patt Bixby

Wildfires

The County of San Diego and County Supervisor Dianne Jacob is urging back country residents to clear defensible fire space around their homes. "We have had little rain and there is a lot of brush and other vegetation built up in our backcountry," Jacob said. "As of May 2013 we have had 1600 wildfires for the year which is 500 more than the same period last year."

Fire officials urge residents to maintain at least 100 feet of defensible space around their homes by pruning, cutting, mowing and taking other steps to reduce vegetation near structures. Supervisor Jacob and others advise residents to register their cell phone numbers and email address with the county reverse 911 system at readysandiego.org.

At the website residents can sign up to receive evacuation notices and other emergency alerts in a crisis. Smart phone owners can also download the app SDEmergency to help keep tabs on disaster. It's available for Apple and Android users.

Santee Sheriff station is hosting a Community Forum in Lakeside on Tuesday, Aug. 27 at 7 p.m. at the Lakeside Community Center, 9841 Vine St.

Rumors of being stranded in the Philippines are highly exaggerated

by Dr. Rev. James L. Snyder

It was my birthday and I decided to celebrate it as low-key as possible. I am at that stage in life where I really do not need presents from anybody reminding me of how old I really am. I know every present represents an obligatory return on the gesture and at my age, I do not have the energy to return anything.

All I really need is just a friendly "Happy Birthday." I have developed a special rule along that line. For every "Happy Birthday" I receive, I am allowed one slice of birthday cake. So far I am on my 19th birthday cake and anticipating more.

The rule about saying "Happy Birthday" is that as long as there is a six-month period either way, it is still in play. I am looking forward to a lot more "Happy Birthday" greetings.

After all, what do you get a person who has had as many birthdays as I have had that would be original and surprising? Believe me, I have enough ties. Of course, cash is always in good taste.

Throughout the years I have been known to pull a few surprises on the Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage's birthday but nobody has been able to reciprocate.

That is, until recently. It was the day of my birthday when suddenly I began receiving emails and phone calls and they all had one theme. Not one of them was wishing me happy birthday but all were concerned about an email they allegedly received from me.

According to this email, I was in Manila, Philippines on some mission trip.

Actually that was not quite unusual because several years ago I did go on such a trip and most of my friends knew it. Now, according to this friendly email being sent to my friends, I was back in the Philippines on another mission trip.

According to this anonymous friend, I was stranded in the Philippines. I had been robbed, my passport had been confiscated, and I needed money to get out of the Philippines. No wonder I have been feeling tired lately!

Of all the birthday presents a person might receive this one really beats the birthday cake. I would not have thought of this in 1 million years.

My email account had been hacked into and all of my email contacts were sent what seemed to be an emergency email. Most of my friends were relieved to find out that I was not stranded in the Philippines.

My Korean publisher actually was willing to put up money to rescue me from my situation. Two other people were trying to find out how to get money to bail me out.

The thing that worries me along this line is of all of my friends only three were willing to bail me out financially. I must make a mental note of this and never get stranded in the Philippines.

My birthday hacking became a little more than I at first thought.

At first it was a little joke, ha ha ha, I am really not in the Philippines. A joke can only go so far. I thought it was the end of the joke, but boy, was I in for a wonderful birthday surprise.

My entire email account had been compromised and a new email address was inserted so all of the response would go to another person. I finally found out how he changed my account, changed it back and changed my password.

All of my emails for the past month, including important ones from my publisher and agent, were lost in the mysterious world of the Internet. Somewhere in that mystifying world, my emails are floating around not knowing whither to cometh or goeth.

Delving deeper into my birthday hacking present I discovered that although my email contacts were missing, where I once had over 600 email contacts, I now had exactly none. How do you deal with "none"?

"I now do not know who my friends really are. Their addresses are gone. How do I contact them?

I am beginning to think this birthday hacking present is not all it is hacked up to be.

Now, my post birthday activity will be salvaging all of those email contacts. I suppose it is good every once in a while to start over again. I guess there is something good about getting a fresh start in life. I have often thought of it myself but never in this context.

I would like to know who my birthday benefactor really is. I would like the opportunity to properly and fully acknowledge and express to this person my true feelings about him face-to-face, and not on Facebook. After all, "thank you" does not always say it.

I think I now appreciate Joseph's feelings towards his brothers who caused him so much trouble.

"But as for you, ye thought evil against me; but God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive" (Genesis 50:20 KJV).

I am still looking for the good in this situation. For one, I am not stranded in the Philippines without any money. I am at home without money, but that is a different story. Although he hacked my email account, he did not touch my soul.

A rumor can never hurt you if you really know the truth.

Dear Dr. Luauna — A little unruly member

Dear Readers,

Has anyone ever come across someone, and within moments of speaking with them, feel like beaten up, or looking around to see where the big bird that just pooped on you came from? Did someone poop in my ear?

James in the Bible talks about a little unruly member, the tongue of man. A little guy, yet it gets us in trouble. Amazing, when a horse is unruly we use a bridle to take control. But what kind of bridle can we find for that little unruly member -- the tongue of man?

A large ship is controlled by a very small rudder, making that ship go right or left. It doesn't take much to take control of a great big ship. So what are we going to do about the tongue? One minute it speaks words of love and such sweet kindness. But then within just a split second, it turns into a little monster.

A while back I stopped to pick up a few things at the store, and noticed a little frail, silver haired, beautiful woman, dressed up professionally, every hair in place, and saying hello to the boy gathering up carts. I thought she must shop here all the time, because the young boy knew her name. But it was no less than five minutes later when a car didn't see her as the driver turned the corner. He stopped and waved his hand and said, "I'm so sorry." Then she opened up her mouth and out came, ^%$%^ . I just stood there looking at her. Surprised by what was coming out of her mouth. I thought to myself, "and she eats out of that same mouth."

Transformation of our whole being, including that little unruly member comes only through the power of the Cross, and the Word of God. Romans 12:1-2, "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God."

As this woman entered the store, she resumed her sweet hellos to everyone. The problem was hidden inside the heart of this woman. Each one of us needs an inner change, a makeover from the inside out. One measure of faith is what starts the change in a life. One may say, Dr. Luauna, "I can't stop smoking, drinking, I don't know where this rebellion comes from? I can't be free." Yes we can. Change comes from Christ Jesus, His Spirit within. His new nature planted in our heart. We can't change by ourselves; we need a spiritual makeover to start from the inside out. Or we will be like the little woman at the grocery store, when something happens on the outside, the real you comes out and the real us may not be pretty at all.

Jesus can help us tame that little unruly tongue that gets so many of us in deep trouble. James 1:26, "If anyone among you thinks he is religious, and does not bridle his tongue but deceives his own heart, this one's religion is useless." James 3:5, "Even so the tongue is a little member and boasts great things. See how great a forest a little fire kindles!"

James 3:6, "And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity. The tongue is so set among our members that it defiles the whole body, and sets on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire by hell."

Romans 8:26, "Likewise the Spirit also helps in our weakness. For we do not know what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit Himself makes intercession for us with groaning which cannot be uttered!" There is Hope!

Ruth Arlene Hearn
March 1918 - July 2013

A graveside service for Ruth Arlene Hearn, 95, will be August 8, 2013 at El Cajon Cemetery, 2080 Dehesa Road, El Cajon, CA 92019, with Chaplain Janine Siegel officiating.

Mrs. Hearn was a resident of the Memory Court at La Vida Real and went home to be with the Lord on July 30, 2013. She was born March 11, 1918, in Cleveland, Ohio, and was preceded in death by her husband, James A. Hearn, her parents Charles Edgar Carpenter and Anne Cale Carpenter, her sisters Victoria MacGillory and Dorothy Lang, and brother Dean Carpenter.

The Hearn moved from Ohio to El Cajon, California, in 1948 and owned the Eastern Trailer Park in El Cajon until retirement in 1976. They were active in the Veterans of Foreign Wars attending annual conventions. They also shared a love of square dancing wearing matching outfits which Mrs. Hearn made. In addition to making her own clothes, Ruth also knitted, crocheted, and tatted.

Mrs. Hearn was an avid walker which probably attributed to her maintaining her ideal weight. Joining Take Off Pounds Sensibly (TOPS) in 1965, she became and remained a KOPS – Keep Off Pounds Sensibly the rest of her life. She won many awards at their conventions.

She enjoyed gardening and when the small oval backyard pool was deemed more expensive to repair, she filled it up with dirt and created a beautiful rose garden.

Ruth is survived by 3 nieces and 6 nephews.

The family requests no flowers, but contributions in memory of Ruth may be made to Meals-on-Wheels, East County, 1488 Pioneer Way Ste 4, El Cajon, CA 92020, or Scripps Health Foundation, 4275 Campus Point Ct., San Diego, CA 92121.

Five San Diego writers create a 5-book romance series

Five local members of the San Diego Romance Writers Association recently had a five book series published by Boroughs Publishing Group. Jackie Allen, Terry Blain, Teresa Carpenter, Jill Limber and Diana Saenger have been critique partners for more than 20 years. Once a year they plan a three-day weekend to plot a book. In 2012 they decided to write a five-book series. The idea sprang up from Limber's goddaughter, who while in college made a list with friends of qualities for a "perfect man."

The five authors took that idea and created the New Year's Eve Club series. The first chapter in each book is the same. Five women meet for the first time in 10 years on New Year's Eve, each one thinking they are the only one without the "right" man. Surprised to learn none of them have found him; they create a new list and each author writes her own book about her specific characters.

Book 1, Loving Mick, is by Jill Limber.

Betrayed and abandoned by a cheating husband, Jessie wants nothing more than a fling with the handsome cop. Mick thinks Jessie's plan is a fine idea, until he falls in love and wants forever. Will Mick be able to convince Jessie to play for keeps?

Quotes from reviews of Loving Mick

"This wonderful story is as effervescent as a glass of champagne and draws one in with fast-paced romance, suspense and warmth." Review by G

"This was a quick read and a lot of fun. I found a familiarity to the Nora Roberts' trilogies or quartets where friends and romance are involved. I absolutely loved this book. If you love a cute romance with steamy situations, this book is for you." Darlene Higgins

Right Track, Montana Morning and more. www.jilllimber.com

Book 2, A Real Man, is by Jackie Leigh Allen.

Stifled by her previous marriage, widowed Melissa swears to find herself a real man—but Matt finds her instead, rescuing her from a car wreck and proving that the years since high school have only made him more desirable.

Quotes from reviews of A Real Man

"I liked that Melissa had a realistic past with her former husband and made mistakes that we often do when we are young and in love. All of these things came together nicely to create a wonderful rapport between the two characters. Ms. Allen kept the story moving at a good pace. Liberty Ann

"A nice quick, fun, easy read that is filled with romance. A must read for the series." Susan

"The author was able to throw both characters into situations that cause the other one to remember the past. The benefit dinner at the end was my favorite part of the book." Dalene

<http://www.boroughspublishinggroup.com/authors/jackie-allen> Allen is the author of First Impressions, Project Homecoming, The Haunted Heart Hotel and more. <http://jackieleighallen.com/books.html>

Book 3, Sarah's Cowboy is by Terry Blain.

Looking for thrills, practical Sarah signs up to be a schoolteacher on a western movie set and gets more than she's looking for with cowboy stuntman Kit Stewart, adventure with a capital A.

Quotes from reviews of Sarah's Cowboy

"All in all a fun, light-hearted romance that is great to curl up with on a rainy day." Laura

"Entertaining story. Another excellent addition in the Five Women, One Night Series." Emily

Book 4, Deadline: Romance is by Diana Saenger.

Emma has met Mr. Right, but dotcom millionaire Daniel first has to learn how to let go before he can lead Emma out of her fear of the future and into the miracle of the moment.

Quotes from reviews of Deadline: Romance

"Saenger has given us two unforgettable main characters in this well-written, highly captivating romantic novella. Once I started reading about them, I couldn't stop until the end. In fact, they cry out for a film treatment! Hollywood, are you listening?" Betty Jo Tucker

"Emma is smart and confident, and Daniel is rich, handsome, down to earth and very understanding. They have a strong connection that you can feel throughout the entire story." Jillian Wood

Book 5, Chef's Delight is by Teresa Carpenter.

Quotes from reviews of Chef's Delight

"I liked that this book was a fast read. It was the perfect book to end this series. The epilogue really tied everything together and it was nice to see all the ladies show up in this book." Jillian Wood

'Percy Jackson; Sea of Monsters' works for kids

Review by Diana Saenger

When the gods are away; the kids will play. Or in Percy Jackson & The Olympians: Sea of Monsters, maybe go to extra lengths to make a difference. Continuing the adaptation of author Rick Riordan's young reader's book series into films, Sea of Monsters follows the 2010 film Percy Jackson & The Olympians: The Lightning Thief, which is about Greek Myth of gods and monsters.

The adventure involves children of the Greek gods. Percy (Logan Lerman), who has a mortal mother, has only recently learned he's the son of Greek sea god Poseidon. Yet as he sticks his hand in a body of water and beckons for a sign that his father hears him, Percy gets no such response.

Percy is training at Camp Half-Blood along with other children of gods, but it's a dark mood there. Many are still mourning the loss of their friend Thalia. In a previous episode, she was turned into a tree. With the help from a couple of silly teachers Percy gets his training and his position in society.

Mr. D. (Stanley Tucci) swiftly walks around teaching the kids certain things, but he's often leaving off the end of the conversation leaving the kids to mostly decide their own course. Meanwhile, Chiron (Anthony Head), who is a Centaur (half-man, half-horse) provides more educational aspects to the campers and options when they must face some huge battles.

The Camp is no longer safe as monsters are invading and Thalia's tree, once the barrier gate to the Camp, has been poisoned. During the Camp games the young people battle to be the leaders. Percy always seems to come in second place behind Clarisse (Leven Rambin).

Before the story goes into a wild adventure Percy learns a new kid in camp is claiming to be his half-brother. Percy takes one look at the cyclops (someone who has only one eye in the middle of his forehead) to rebuff Tyson (Douglas Smith). Athena's daughter Annabeth (Alexandra Daddario) convinces him to take Tyson along to rescue their friend Grover (Brandon T. Jackson), from a Cyclops. Grover is a satyr (upper body of a man and the lower body of a goat).

They must find the Golden

Fleece in order to save the Camp. The adventure is funny, dangerous and challenging. The trio meets up with former friend Luke (Jake Abel) who is now a foe. I liked that the kids seem to have good morals and want to do the right thing. The actors portraying them are all good.

Sea of Monsters may not be thrilling for adults but I found it entertaining, especially for children 5-14. One scene alone with three crazy ladies driving a taxicab is enough to make adults laugh. There are lots of special effects the kids will love. This is one of the "few" films that 3-D serves it well, although I didn't wear mine at all because they make the movie look like its black and white instead of color.

(IMAGED FILE)

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of: CLEO DAWSON AKA CLEO LEE DAWSON AKA LEE DAWSON
A Petition for Probate has been filed by MARILYN KRIEBEL in the Superior Court of California, County of SAN DIEGO.
The Petition for Probate requests that MARILYN KRIEBEL be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

The Petition requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.
The Petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A hearing on the petition will be held in this court on AUG 29 2013 at 1:30 P.M. in Dept. PC-2 located at 1409 4th Avenue, San Diego, CA 92101-3105 Central Division/Madge Bradley Building.
If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.
If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.
You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF
JAYNE LUCKE SHEARS AKA JAYNE L.
SHEARS
CASE NO. 37-2013-00059128-PR-PW-CTL
ROA #: 1 (IMAGED FILE)

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of: JAYNE LUCKE SHEARS AKA JAYNE L. SHEARS

A Petition for Probate has been filed by KAREY K. GIGUERE in the Superior Court of California, County of SAN DIEGO.

The Petition for Probate requests that KAREY K. GIGUERE be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

The Petition requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

The Petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A hearing on the petition will be held in this court on 9/5/2013 at 1:30 P.M. in Dept. PC-2 located at 1409 4th Avenue, San Diego, CA 92101-3105 Central Division/Madge Bradley Building.

If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same

Lender may hold more than one mortgage or Deed of Trust on the property. Notice to Property Owner The sale date shown on this Notice of Sale may be postponed one or more times by the Mortgagee, Beneficiary, Trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. ## Hooker and Spinks III remain undefeated

"Leon Spinks III measures his opponent."

by Chuck Karazsia

Dedicated to bringing the best live boxing to San Diego, Bobby D Presents continues to satisfy the appetite of boxing fans. A near sold-out crowd at the Four Points Sheraton in Kearny Mesa witnessed the latest "San Diego Fights." Ten fighters in five bouts battled in the flyweight, featherweight, and lightweight divisions.

In the main event super lightweight Maurice Hooker 10-0-1, (8KO's) confirmed his nickname "Mighty Mo" punching "Tijuana fighter" Mario Hermosilio 12-11-3 into submission at 2:20 of the first round.

In the co-main event Leon Spinks III (his grandfather Leon in attendance) won a majority decision, handing Jesus Aguinaga his first loss. Viewed as a controversial decision, it did not hamper the excitement of the bout having kept the crowd on the edge of their seats.

The first three fights -- all slugfests -- frenzied the crowds excitement. All three ended in unanimous decisions.

Vista super featherweight Aaron Garcia 12-3-2 defeated Vegas boxer Johnny Frazier (2-17-4)

San Diego native Prince Smalls 1-0-1, in his hometown debut beat Christian Cartier, handing the Vegas boxer his first loss in two fights in the featherweight division.

Christian Torres 3-1 from Guadalajara Mexico in an action packed first fight defeated Jesus Sandoval from Riverside, CA, setting the tone for the evening.

Chargers pre-season begins

Antonio Gates signing autographs at Training Camp.

by Chuck Karaszia

As the Chargers prepare to take on the Seattle Seahawks in their first exhibition game of the 2013 season, they begin a new era with a new G.M., a new head coach and assistants, and some new players.

A familiar question arises. Will the Chargers front line be able to protect their quarterback?

Looking impressive in camp is rookie linebacker Manti Te'o. Linebacker Larry English is healthy and looking for a season that a number one draft pick in his position should have.

Free agent running back Danny Woodhead is impressive with his quickness, blocking, and ability to catch and run.

Chargers head coach Mike McCoy has put his team through rigorous, physical, yet educational practices, utilizing everyone on the roster. Anxious to get the season going, Coach McCoy said, "It's the first pre-season game, and we're going to go out there and do what we do, and try to establish how we're going to play the football game."

Kickoff this Thursday is 7pm at Qualcomm Stadium.

Pet of the Week

"Looking for a loving, easy-going, and beautiful girl? I think you may have found her! It's me...NELLIE! I'm an Australian Shepherd who's about eight years old, and everyone says that I'm beautiful inside and out. You should see my eyes, too. One is blue, and the other is brown (plus a little blue). I'm affectionate and loyal, so I love to be near my people. I get along nicely with other dogs, and I'd make a wonderful family pet. I've already been house trained, and I have very good manners. Here's some more good news: MY ADOPTION FEE IS ONLY $30! My adoption fee includes my microchip and my shots. That's a pretty good deal for such a sweet and wonderful dog who wants to be your best friend more than anything. Don't you think so? I sure hope you'll head on over to the El Cajon Animal Shelter so we can get better acquainted in the play yard. I'll be waiting for you, so please hurry. Love, Nellie" Kennel #3
