Honoring volunteers in El Cajon

As the City of El Cajon continues to celebrate 100 years of incorporation, we would like to honor those who volunteer in our community through the 100 Hours Honoring 100 Years Volunteer Program. During this Centennial Year, as we reflect on our rich City history, it is important to recognize that it is the people who make El Cajon The Valley of Opportunity, including our volunteers. The 100 Hours Honoring 100 Years Volunteer Program was developed to provide an opportunity for El Cajon residents and others involved in the community to be recognized for their service in honor of El Cajon's Centennial. Through this volunteer program, the City will recognize the volunteer service performed in the El Cajon community during the Centennial year (November 2012 through November 2013). All are invited to participate, whether as an individual, or in a group on behalf of an organization, community group, or business. Find out more by visiting the Centennial website, www.elcajon100.com, under "Participate" and download the forms. Completed forms will be accepted throughout the year; however, all forms must be completed and delivered, or post-marked, by December 10, 2013. For more information, call (619) 441-5549.

Sharing a piece of history

Centennial Moment: Rex Hall Citizen of the Year in 1956

Below is an excerpt from a brochure published in 1961 in honor of the City's 50th anniversary of incorporation: "50 Years of Progress." The brochure chronicles events in the City by each year, from incorporation in 1912, through present day, at that time, in 1961. This Centennial Moment focuses specifically on the year 1956.

Like the pioneering blood that flowed in his father's veins, that determination of spirit and the quest for victory that was so much a part of his mother, Rexford Hall's name has popped up enumerable times in the past 50-year history of the City. He could well be called the "Son of El Cajon." His unceasing efforts to the betterment of the community, his time he contributed to the Fire Department, his service on the school boards and Civil Service Commission, and certainly his generosity of which he had given freely to so many projects and persons has earned him this right.

This year Rex Hall was selected and honored as the "Citizen of the Year," a fitting tribute to a man who well deserves the honor.

Police Chief O'Connor received an award in the form of a National Safety Council Scroll for no traffic deaths within the City for 1955. This record was attributed to O'Connor's administration and the studies of traffic control made by his force.

The El Cajon Valley High School enrolled 1,456 students and graduated 252.

Lakeside Round Up of Events —

BNS Brewing &amp; Distillery

by Patt Bixby

Lakeside Chamber of Commerce Mixer

The BNS Brewing & Distillery at 10960 Wheatland Ave #101, Santee hosted the Lakeside Chamber's August mixer. The brewing and distilling company offers views from the toasting room to see up close what goes into the micro-brewing of their Gunfighter Golden Ale, Flintlock America IPA, Revolver America IPA and Salon Girl Saison.

The 60 people attending the Lakeside Chamber Mixer had access to the rustic beer garden complete with a decorative outdoor pond while networking with other business owners and organizations.

The next Chamber Mixer will be held at Molly Brown Beauty, 12585 Parkside St #B on September 19. Contact the Chamber at (619)561-1031 for more information.

Lakeside Community Forum

The Lakeside Community Forum at the Lakeside Community Center was attended by nearly 100 people who listened to a panel of Sheriff, Fire, Border Patrol, Planning Group, U.S. Postal, Environmental and Animal Control representatives.

The meeting was an open dialogue between the citizens of Lakeside and the panel discussing local issues. The audience was told by a Sheriff's Department representative that the criminals hate the groups getting together.

Santee Sheriff's Department Captain Lisa Miller told everyone this is the largest crowd and the best she has seen in Lakeside for this type of meeting. "You are the eyes and ears and if you see something, call," she said. Non-emergency numbers for the California Highway Patrol is (858) 637-3800; Sheriff's (858) 565-5206.

During the questions and answer segment were a wide variety of questions such as a number of areas in Lakeside area that have speeders. Los Coches was described by one person as a drag strip from Hwy 67 to Interstate 8 as areas of excessive speed and are around schools particularly Lakeview, El Capitan and Riverview. Responsibility of the parents was a topic discussed.

In the neighborhoods of Oak Creek, Post Hills and Palm Row dangerous speeds were pointed out. Speed on Eucalyptus Hills streets has been partially attributed to people taking shortcuts off Hwy 67 up into Eucalyptus Hills and across.

Curbs and sidewalks were an issue with some in favor of them while others want to keep a rural atmosphere.

Comments arose about more law enforcement needed in El Monte valley where loud parties go on until 4 a.m. A Sheriff's Department spokesperson acknowledged the area is a problem along with parties there are stolen vehicles dropped on private properties, and illegal crimes. Those in attendance were advised the of the Sheriff's Department staffing issues and to call a County Supervisor for more help.

Following the meeting that ended at 9 p.m. the panel stayed to answer questions and provided individual direction.

Lindo Lake Park

Many residents refer to Lindo Lake Park (operated by San Diego County Parks and Recreation) as the jewel of Lakeside. One of the keepers of the jewel, Ranger Patty Heyden, has been reassigned. A pot-luck was held at the Lakeside Community Center to thank her for all she has done to make the Lake and Park a safer place for families. Many who frequent the park will miss her cheerful smile.

In the "City of Brotherly Love" many 'not so loving' fans packed Lincoln Financial Field Stadium in Philadelphia last Sunday as they watched the (1-1) San Diego Chargers even their record defeating the (1-1) Philadelphia Eagles 33-30.

This win, the first in the tenure of General Manager Tom Telesco, and Head Coach Mike McCoy and his staff, was a breath of fresh air for them and fans alike, giving the team and fans new hope, and new life for the season. This all came after the team suffered a disheartening loss in the home opener on the last play of the game last week.

Bolts kicker Nick Novack hit the game winning field goal from 46-yards out, on a good snap and hold splitting the uprights with seven seconds left, giving the team a happy flight back home and sending the suddenly quiet Eagles fans to the exits for an unpleasant drive home.

On the road the Chargers found an answer to the Eagles 'high-octane', high scoring, with read option offense employed by their first year Head Coach Chip Kelly and orchestrated by the fastest, most explosive man on their team, quarterback Michael Vick.

Chargers Head Coach Mike McCoy and offensive coordinator Ken Whisenhunt had the perfect game plan for the Vick led offense. Their plan: to keep the opposing explosive offense off the field and on the sidelines.

In the previous week the Eagles ran 53 plays in the first half against the Redskins. Against the Chargers Sunday, the Eagles ran 57 plays total the entire game.

Although the Eagles amassed 511-yards of total offense (Chargers/539), the Bolts dominated the time of possession holding on to the ball twice as long 40:19 to the Eagles 19:36. The Chargers ran 79 offensive plays to the Eagles 58.

In essence, the Chargers beat the Eagles at their own game, at their house. This task was accomplished by the masterful work of field general, quarterback Philip Rivers. Bleeding the 24-second clock on every play down to one or two seconds, Rivers had his best complete game, directing the Chargers drive after drive, converting 33 first downs. Rivers completed 36 of 47 passes for 419-yards throwing three touchdowns in the game, all to receiver Eddie Royal who now has caught five TD's in two games.

"It was a big win for us," Royal said. "There were so many ups-and-downs in the game. To go on a two-minute drive to win the game was big for us and our confidence."

The last drive of the game by Rivers was the most meaningful. That was a nine play drive in which he completed two passes to Gates (15 and 21-yards) and a large third down conversion to Woodhead setting up the Novack winning field goal.

Overcoming two red zone turnovers (Mathews and Gates) and a fumbled kickoff late in the game (F. Whittaker) fortunately recovered by Stuckey for San Diego, the Chargers relied on Rivers to carry them through to victory. In this one he did with a magnificent effort and an amazing performance. Chargers fans have not seen a final drive comeback like that from him in four long years.

The running game was solid. Mathews gained 73-yards. All Chargers backs performed in the contest. The offensive line did a magnificent job protecting Rivers. Chargers wide receiver Malcolm Floyd gave everyone a scare when he was carted off the field to a hospital for precautionary observation after suffering a neck injury. He was released shortly afterward and flew home with the team.

Commenting on the comeback, his first win as Head Coach, Mike McCoy said, "It's great, and it's a team effort. This is what you work all year for. You work for every opportunity you get on Sunday. The players made the most of their opportunities this week."

We might buckle our seat belts as this new era of Chargers football so far has been a roller coaster ride. The Chargers are on the road again, this time to Tennessee to tackle the Titans. Sunday's kickoff is slated for 10 a.m. PDT.

It's my mess and I love it

by Dr. Rev. James L. Snyder

In our house, we have a rule that has enabled us to live at peace with one another for over 42 years. That rule is simple, "Don't mess with my space and I won't mess with your space."

I must admit some rather close calls have challenged that relationship during those years. I will not say from which side of the house it came from; just that it was not my side of the house.

My wife cannot relax if there is something out of place. On occasion, I will catch her glancing in the direction of "my space" and I know exactly what she is thinking. "Do you need any help tidying up your office?"

I know it is a ploy for her to get her organizing paws on my things and arrange them so I cannot find anything I want when I want it. Although it may not look like it to her, I am quite organized.

When I go to the cupboard in the kitchen, I know everything will be in its place. In the bathroom, the same thing goes. Everything is neatly put in its place. She knows where everything is and everything is where she wants it.

My space is just a little bit different. I like to think of my space as actual living quarters. It may look like a mess to some Philistine, but I can assure you everything has a place and everything is in its place. I can find what I want when I want it, which is the only thing that really matters. If I cannot find what I need when I need it then I do not really need it. Life is that simple when you accept "messy" as a lifestyle.

Just recently, my wife suggested that perhaps she could help me organize my office space. I just scowled at her and said, "Don't mess with my space and I won't mess with your space."

I like my mess because it is my mess. I made it, I am proud of it and I love it.

I spent a week in California only to come home and find the kitchen completely remodeled. Now, as I think the plan was, I do not know where anything in the kitchen is. All the old cupboards have been replaced by newer and bigger cupboards.

My basic concern is this; I fear when I go for a week and come back "my space" will be so completely remodeled and organized that I will not recognize it and will not be able to find anything I need. What would I do then?

It would be a sad day if I came home from some trip and found "my mess" completely gone. What would I do with my life? I would have to start life all over again and you know how expensive that is.

It is tough married to a fix up guru; then again, I suppose it is just as hard to be wedded to a mess up guru.

I have one concession in this area. David said it so well, "Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow" (Psalms 51:7 KJV).

God specializes in cleaning up messes in preparing people like me for heaven.

Dear Dr. Luauna — The Bald, the Gray and the Glory

Dear Readers,

The first time someone noticed a gray hair on my head I was only 27 years old. While sitting at a table having lunch with a large group of friends after church, laughing and sharing how great the service was; my son reached over and plucked a gray hair out of my head (ouch), while he announced, "Mom, look you have a gray hair."

Everyone turned and a sudden silence hit the table, then all of a sudden laughter broke out. My son was maybe only seven years old at the time, and he laughed as everyone else did. I smiled at the jokes that came right after. We all laughed and then went on to another subject. Going home I remember looking into the mirror, and trying to find if I had any more gray hairs. Not finding any; I felt pretty good.

When a man starts to gray, people around him think, wow, his gray hair looks so distinguished. Or when a man starts to go bald, rather than having half a head of hair, looking like an egg sitting so gently in a nest of hair on top of their head, they shave it all off. Kojak set the pace way back; he paved the way for bald to be cool before it really became a fashion statement.

So in time, men rather than looking like or hearing the remarks, "Dude, did you know you're going bald," or getting charged for only half a haircut, having someone come up behind them and rub their head, have someone say they look like Blinky the clown -- men shave it all off. And even the nerd that is bald is now really cool. Some women say even sexy.

Now, how about us women when we start to gray? Some will say gray on a woman makes her look old. And beauty shops get rich off the woman who finds gray hair unbecoming. May I remind you, a woman shaving off all her hair is really not an option! Let's face it, the Kojak look is not becoming on your mom or grandmother. So what are we women to do? We can dive into a box of hair color every three weeks. Many women do and that's fine.

But let me share a wonderful scripture. Proverbs 16:31 "The silver-haired head is a crown of glory, if it is found in the way of righteousness." I could have been almost all silver gray before I was 35. So the next time you see me, I just might have embraced that crown of glory. Ladies, beauty comes from within, whether you are gray or color your hair, the most important thing to remember is, in Christ Jesus we are amazing, and beautiful. Embrace age with wisdom, and poise, and in God's amazing love, shine ladies, shine, you're beautiful.

Watch out for this family

by Diana Saenger
Part Godfather and part Married to the Mob, The Family is not sure what it wants to be. The Blake family has landed in the Witness Protection Program because of threats from mobsters to kill Fred Blake (Robert De Niro), better known to the mob as Giovanni Mazoni.

When the family is shown their new hideout by CIA Agent Standsfield (Tommy Lee Jones), it's clear they've been through this before. While the kids — Belle (Dianna Agron) and her brother Warren (John D'Leo) — gripe about a lack of everything, their mother Maggie (Michelle Pfeiffer) hops to and puts food on the table very quickly. Life could be worse; after all, they're in France.

Standsfield and two other agents do their best to keep an eye on the family so they aren't harmed and don't hurt someone else. "There was a time I had it all," says Fred, who is now the easy one to watch. It's the kids and Belle who are loose canyons.

town, Belle gets upset when a store makes fun of her because she wants peanut butter. She then plants a bomb near the store. Meanwhile, the kids are taking over at school. The boys get a big surprise when they try to pick up Belle. Warren is in the principal's office for theft, bribery and more. He's a chip off the old block for sure.

When the old gang finds out where Fred and his family are located, it's one plane trip until the entire town gets shot up, bodies fall like leaves off a tree, and the kids out maneuver the CIA agents in gun-power skills.

There are plenty of plot holes in this film. That aside, I can't say The Family is really good or bad. Among all the deaths and bloodshed, there are moments of humor. Pfeiffer appears funny throughout. Maybe her prior role in Married to the Mob paid off. Agron and John D'Leo create great characters, and De Niro almost always engages an audience. So fans of these actors might enjoy this film.

Viejas Casino & Resort break three

Viejas Tribal Chairman Anthony Pico awarded Certificate for Guinness World Record for the Largest Deck of Cards Ever Played by Guinness World Records' Adjudicator Phillip Robertson. Photo Credit: Diana Saenger

by Diana Saenger
Friday, Sept. 13, the Viejas Casino & Resort had more to celebrate than their 22nd Anniversary. After many months of planning, Viejas broke three Guinness World Records in one day.

Since last year when Viejas broke the record for the biggest blackjack table, Viejas Casino General Manager, Chris Kelley, has had his thinking cap on in how to commemorate this year's anniversary. Friday morning began in the Dreamcatcher showroom where once again the famous black jack table stretched from one wall to the other.

"This is our second year with Guinness, and we're excited to be partnering with them on such an important day," Kelley said. "I love that our team members, guests, and entire community can break a record together. We are always looking to raise the bar. That's what our guests deserve, and we want to provide it."

Kelly's idea was to break the Guinness World Record for the Largest Deck of Cards Ever Played. The fanfare started as showgirls, Casino management, and a dealer stepped up on the green cloth-covered table to begin an invited-only game of blackjack.

Viejas Tribal Chairman Anthony Pico, Mike Rios of Operation Homefront, Chef Joe Busalacchi of Busalacchi restaurant, Paul Bloom from Fox 5 San Diego, C.S. Keys from San Diego 6 and Arianna Lopez, a Viejas Team member, took their seats at the blackjack table.

Guinness World Records' Adjudicator Phillip Robertson, back after last year's record setting, stood anxiously by for the big moment. A dealer distributed giant cards measuring over 3' by 4' to the players. After the game was completed, Robertson announced Viejas now held the Guinness World Record for the Largest Deck of Cards Ever Played.

Guinness World Records in one day

Grinning ear to ear, Robertson presented Chairman Pico with the official certificate for the Guinness World Record. Chairman Pico then presented a check for $5,000 to Operation Homefront – California's Executive Director Jack Chirrick. He was accompanied by U.S. Marine Staff Sgt. Mike Rios, who suffered severe injuries from a rocket propelled grenade during his tour in Afghanistan and three tours in Iraq.

Still on active duty, Rios currently resides in an Operation Homefront unit in Oceanside while he undergoes therapy. He hopes to make a career in counseling others.

The morning turned out to be fun, historical and supportive all in one. "We are so proud of how far we have come and how much we can give back to the community," Chairman Pico said. "What a fun event to set off our 22nd Anniversary and have everyone join in the festivities."

Immediately following this event the public entered the Dreamcatcher to play at the giant table at no cost for several drawing opportunities to win part of $22,000 to be given away that evening.

One Record Set – Two To Go

On Friday evening 700 black-shirted volunteers began taking their place around the pool of the Viejas Casino & Resort Hotel. They were about to attempt another of Kelly's ideas to break two different Guinness World Records; The Most Bottles of Wine Opened Simultaneously and The Most High Fives.

Planning the event took months and rehearsals, and the eager record breakers took their places in rows of bleachers at the back of the pool and alongside the pool. Divided into groups of 25 with a steward for each group, wine bottles and cork skewers were handed out, the go was given, bottles were quickly held mid-the air and the twisting began. Within 30 seconds stewards and Guinness adjudicators officially counted the results.

The next challenge began immediately as high-fives began a snake crawl between every mid-air hand of the volunteers. About 20 minutes later Robertson once more took the podium, cheers exploded in the air, along with beautiful fireworks, as he announced that Viejas broke the old Guinness World Record for The Most Bottles of Wine Opened Simultaneously of 474 with a new record of 639 bottles. He followed up with the announcement that all of those bodies broke the Guinness Record for the Most People Giving "High Fives" of 405 by a new total of 684 people.

Viejas Vice Chairman Robert Ceta Welch took the podium and held the two certificates like precious children. "Last year was one, now we have three more," he said. "Thanks to all of you for making this happen."

Robertson said, "Three records in one day! Viejas, you have done a good job, especially since high-fiving with moving people and parts in place is a challenging one. And that you can actually celebrate with your own patrons – that's a lovely touch."

Rios thanked Viejas for their efforts and explained how much the donations would help him and others to regain their lives.

"What Viejas has done is incredible," Chirrick said. "The resources we provide each unit requires about $25,000 a year. This backing is tremendous and will really benefit so many."

On the evening of September 13 the entire Casino guests enjoyed a cake cutting to celebrate Viejas' 22nd Anniversary.

LAUGHTER IS THE BEST MEDICINE

Hot Bath

Feeling edgy, a man took a hot bath. Just as he'd become comfortable, the front doorbell rang. The man got out of the tub, put on terry cloth slippers and a large towel, wrapped his head in a smaller towel, and went to the door. A salesman at the door wanted to know if he needed any magazines. Slamming the door, the man returned to the bath.

The doorbell rang again. On went the slippers and towels, and the man started for the door again. He took one step, slipped on a wet spot, fell, and hit his back against the hard porcelain of the tub.

Cursing under his breath, the man struggled into his street clothes and, with every move a stab of pain, drove to the doctor. After examining him, the doctor said, "You know, you've been lucky. Nothing is broken. But you need to relax. Why don't you go home and take a long hot bath?"

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF: (IMAGED FILE) WILLIAM PATRICK MCHUGH CASE NO. 37-2013-00065394-PR-PW-CTL ROA#1 To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the WILL or estate, or both of WILLIAM PATRICK MCHUGH. A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by TRYSTA HENSEL MEIER AKA TRYSTA LONG in the Superior Court of California, County of SAN DIEGO. THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that TRYSTA HENSELMEIER be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent. THE PETITION requests the decedent's WILL and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The WILL and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court. THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows: 10/08/13 at 11:00AM in Dept. PC-1 located at 1409 4TH AVENUE, SAN DIEGO, CA 92101 IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law. YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk. Attorney for Petitioner C. - A. Call to Order
- B. Invocation / Pledge of Allegiance
- C. Roll Call of Members
- D. Approval of Minutes / Correspondence / Announcements
1. APG Statement: The Alpine Community Planning Group was formed for the purpose of advising and assisting the Director of Planning, the Zoning Administrator, the Planning Commission and the Board of Supervisors in the preparation, amendment and implementation of community and sub regional plans. The Alpine Community Planning Group is only an advisory body.
2. Approval of Minutes: Aug. 22, 2013
- E. Open Discussion
- Any member of the public may address the group on topics pertaining to planning, zoning and land use which does not appear elsewhere on this agenda. Upon recognition by the Chairman, each speaker will be allowed up to three minutes to speak (organized/special presentations up to fifteen minutes). There can be limited discussion with no vote on any issue(s) so presented until such time as proper public notice is given prior to such discussion and vote.
- F. Prioritization of this Meetings Agenda Items
- G. Organized / Special Presentations:
1. If necessary as unfinished business from the meeting of September 19th, County staff from Planning and Development Services (Bob Citrano) will present the land use map and mobility network staff recommendations for the Forest Conservation Initiative Lands General Plan Amendment. Staff will focus on the differences between the Staff Recommendation and the draft map that was endorsed by the Alpine CPG and circulated for review with the Supplemental Environmental Impact Report. Representatives from the County and US Forest Service will be on hand to answer questions. Public input is requested. To view the maps and proposed changes please visit (www.sdcounty.ca.gov/pds/advance/FCI.html- Presentation, Discussion and Action.
2. A property-specific change in density is being requested during the annual General Plan zoning cleanup process from 2 to 5.5 dwelling units / acre. The Advance Planning staff at the County support this change in density as the increase in density can be accommodated under the General Plan. The intent of the General Plan was to have a higher density with the C34 zone than the previous zone. Carl Stiehl (County of San Diego Advance Planning staff) has requested that the change in density be presented to the Alpine Planning Group prior to this cleanup item going to the Planning Commission in November 2013 and to the Board of Supervisors in early 2014. Ideally, the

- County wants a note or letter from the Planning Group stating that they support the cleanup of this item, resulting in an increase in density from 2 du/acre to the 5.5 du/acre to match the adjacent commercial properties' density. The Planning Group's position should be mentioned in the minutes. County staff has not requested a motion, but if one is advanced to support the density change, staff would be satisfied. 3087 Honey Hill Ranch Road, APN #404-032-73-00 Presentation, Discussion and Action.
