El Cajon Centennial Moments

Sharing a piece of history

Centennial Moment: City Hall — then and now

Below is an excerpt from Bus and Auto Tour of Historical El Cajon written by members of El Cajon settler families including: James Walters, Elizabeth Montgomery, and James Graves. In 1998, on the 25th anniversary of the founding of the El Cajon Historical Society, this brochure was produced for the public. Funds were provided by the Friends of East County Arts.

The City Hall complex includes a Performing Arts Center, City Hall, (and as of 2011, the Police Station), county courts and offices. Before this complex was built, this was the site of the W.D. Hall Company, for over 60 years the most popular hardware store and lumberyard in the region.

Since their arrival in the late 1800s, Hall family members were social, school, and business leaders. In the early years, Hall's original office building housed the village's first fire engine — little more than a hand-drawn cart stocked with pails of sand and water.

For more El Cajon history, please visit the El Cajon Historical Society's website at www.elcajonhistory.org.

For Centennial information, visit www.elcajon100.com.

Two guest lectures will be hosted in the museum gallery during the art show. On Nov. 14, at 4:30 p.m., CAC Artist Member Mark Fehlman will speak on Capturing San Diego's Nature, 100 Years of Landscape Painting. On December 5, at 6:30 p.m., Olaf Wieghorst Museum Past President Ross Provence will reminisce about the life and art of El Cajon's most famous western artist. The Olaf Wieghorst Museum is open Tuesdays through Saturday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The Museum is closed on Sundays and Mondays. To learn more about the museum, visit www.wieghorstmuseum.org. This special day will honor the first responders, celebrate fire families and make a historic memorial dedication. “This event is about reflecting, remembering and reconnecting,” said Cristina Smith, Lakeside fire survivor from Blue Sky Ranch. “We will have a moment of remembrance, honor the first responders, celebrate the fire families and make a very special dedication for the community.”

Also, this special event will include exhibits, disaster prevention programs, guest speakers, VFW Color Guard, a book signing by Sandra Younger, author of The Fire Outside my Window and food and beverages donated by the Lakeside Optimist.

“The Cedar Fire was a challenging time for our community,” said Kathy Kassel, executive director, Lakeside Chamber of Commerce. “However, we came together and we not only survived, but came back a stronger community. This day is to celebrate what we have overcome, to celebrate the relationships we built, to thank everyone who was involved and remember those we lost.”

‘The Fire Outside My Window’

By Sandra Millers Younger

Unicorn Books and Gifts, 738 Main Street, Ramona, CA 92065 will be hosting a book signing and author event on Saturday, Oct. 26, 2013 at 4 p.m. to honor the 10th Anniversary of the Cedar Fire which devastated Southern California and especially Ramona. Our special guest will be Sandra Millers Younger who will be talking about and signing copies of her new book The Fire Outside My Window.

The Fire Outside My Window reveals the story of the Cedar Fire, the largest fire in California’s recorded history, which ravaged the San Diego area in late 2003, burning nearly 280,000 acres, destroying more than 2,200 homes and hundreds of other buildings, and killing 15 people.

Leaving her doomed home the night of the catastrophe, the author, Sandra Millers Younger, drove through flames and, along with her husband, was saved by a bobcat that showed her the road she couldn’t see through dense smoke. With this revealing narrative, she takes readers into the heart of an epic firefight, telling the stories of fire managers and air tanker pilots trying to combat a catastrophe bigger than they had ever imagined, and recounting both survivors’ and victims’ desperate efforts to escape flames moving faster than fire engines could drive.

Partners Therapeutic Horsemanship

Those who attended the 6th Annual Partners Therapeutic Horsemanship Horse Show were able to witness the unique bond which is formed between the therapeutic horse and their “Partners” special needs riders.

The riders “Demonstrated their riding skills through a specially designed obstacle course and received an award.” The annual event is a chance for the riders to “Celebrate their triumphs over their illnesses and disabilities.”

Without the gentle spirited therapeutic horses there would be no Partners Therapeutic Horsemanship program. Each horse provides a special connection with the students. Eight-year-old Scarlet, a pony who came from Rancho Santa Fee, works well with Cerebral Palsy riders. Scarlet is low to the ground and her gait movement moves with the students. Scarlet is in the running for Horse of the Year along with eight other horses.

One of this year’s “Partners,” Kayden Wilson, participated in the Horseshow on a horse named ‘Vinny.’ Kayden was born prematurely and has Cerebral Palsy. His family was there to watch Kayden and Vinny work together.

This self-esteem building event takes places annually and gives riders the chance to showcase their skills. For more information about partners go online to www.partnershorses.com

‘Beans, Beers, Annual Fair

“The 1st Annual Beans, Beers, Annual Fair and Chili Cook-off Festival was a total success,” said Kelsi Horner from the Lakeside Chamber of Commerce. The Chamber along with the Fraternal Order of Eagles F.O.E. 3973 hosted the event which was held at the Lakeside Rodeo Grounds. The local band A Mayfield Affair entertained the packed crowd.

First place winner of the 1st annual Chili Cook-off was Rumble in the Jungle - Deena Nelson, Bonnie LaChoppa and David LaChoppa, Adam Solis and Eli Ducios. 2nd place was Maintenance Free Adam (Lakeside School District) and People’s Choice Award was East County Equestrian Foundation.

Organizers are already looking forward to the second annual event.

Woman’s Club Meet and Greet

The nearly 104-year-old Woman’s Club of Lakeside held a Meet and Greet at the Olde Community Church on Maine Ave to invite new members to join. The club is very active in the community and with the Lakeside School District.

Inspiration

What's in a name, anyway?

by Dr. Rev. James L. Snyder

I cannot express how ecstatic I was when someone gave me a coupon for a free donut. Normally, I am not overly excited about "free."

All I had to do was fill out a little survey online and they would send me a code that would guarantee me a free donut. In my "daily diary diet," I have a whole section devoted to the subject that when a forbidden food is free it cancels out all calories.

When I first told the Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage she looked at me rather strangely and said, "Who said that?"

I know we are both getting old but we are not that old!

I got close to her, waved my hand so she could see me and said, "It's me. I just said it. Can you see me now?"

"That is not funny. You know exactly what I meant."

My grin drained from my face and I said to her, "Well, I said it."

"Did," she said inquisitively, "anybody ever say that before you said it?"

My wife has many talents, skills and gifts. It would be difficult for me to say which is her best gift but at the moment, her greatest skill is backing me into a corner. And in a corner I was thus backed.

I then had to explain to her, in detail, how this was an observation I worked through with much research. This is an original with me and I am quite proud to be the author.

All she said was, "Huh, that is exactly what I thought."

I will go to my grave believing when a donut is free it means it is free of calories. Call it what you will but free by any other name is still free in my personal dictionary.

Getting back to my free donut. I was anxious to get to the donut shop, cash in the coupon and enjoy a donut. I do not know when the best time to eat a donut is, so I just started at my convenience.

I got at the donut shop and walked in and the smell was overpowering. Nothing like the smell of donuts baking in the oven with a hint of coffee brewing in the background. I just stood there for a few seconds absorbing the luxury of this marvelous atmosphere. It is not often I can enjoy such luxuries, especially if my wife knows where I am.

When I became adjusted to the ambience, I walked up to the counter and presented my coupon for a free donut. It was at that moment I saw them.

I know I am not the most observant person at the circus. Many things get by me without noticing them. Sometimes I am just in deep thought and not aware of my surroundings. I can relate to Walter Mitty in many ways.

There they were, freshly baked Apple Fritters. I was stunned. It just never crossed my mind that a donut shop would have this kind of delicious tidbit. But there they were. Freshly baked and staring at me with alluring eyes of desire.

I do not know how much better a day can get than this. When I got up this morning, I did not realize this would be a wonderful day. There they were staring at me and I staring back and immediately there was a connection.

Standing in line I could hardly wait for my turn to order. I presented my coupon for a free donut and the young woman behind the counter said, "Which donut can I get for you, sir?"

I savored the moment, licked my drying lips and said, "I'll have an Apple Fritter." With that said, I sighed a deep sigh of true contentment.

"I'm sorry, sir," the young woman said.

"There is no need to be sorry, young lady," I said as cheerfully as I possibly could.

"No, sir, I'm sorry but an Apple Fritter is not a donut."

I can take a joke as well as anybody else. In fact, I have put forth my share of jokes. However, an Apple Fritter is no joking matter.

"Excuse me," I said almost breathlessly.

"An Apple Fritter is not a donut, so what donut would you like me to get for you?"

The thought began unfolding in my mind at this point that she was not joking. She sincerely believed an Apple Fritter was not a donut. I know an Apple Fritter is among the Cadillac of donuts but in my mind, it is still a donut.

I did not have much opportunity to set this young woman straight with one of the great fundamentals of life. I had to take one of her "free" donuts along with my coffee, go to a corner and think about these things. What good is "free" if it is not really what you want?

Sometimes people use the word "free" as a device to get you to a place where they can sell you something else.

The Bible is the only place I will accept a "free" offer. One particular verse sets this forth quite nicely. "And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free" (John 8:32 KJV).

This is often used out of context. The truth that makes us free indeed is none other than the truth about Jesus Christ. He is the only One capable of delivering something absolutely free.

The Old Indian Fisherman (part 3)

Dear Readers,

Every man was reeling in their lines fast as they could, including me. I noticed the old Alaskan Indian man's smile as he worked his pole back and forth, the fight was on. I knew it was not his first time fishing these waters. About seven minutes later, he pulled a salmon out of the water. Calm as ever he reached to the side of his belt under his jacket, pulled out a small Billy club, and knocked it out.

He turned and we smiled at each other. He grabbed his pole again, I was so excited at his catch, he reminded me of my grandpa, I just smiled.

I went to bait my line; he smiled and motioned for me to come beside him. I grabbed all my stuff and went. With his long hair in a ponytail, his weathered, sun dried skin, he smiled with such kindness. I sat down; he motioned without a word to hand him the end of my pole. He reached for the end of my line, pulled out his knife, cut my hook and contraption right off. He smiled shaking his head; reached into his tackle gear, and put a whole new rig. He also reached into his bait box, and pulled out a hand full of bait, with his own special way of tying it. He wrapped it in a way I had never seen before. I watched his every move trying to learn. He finished tying my pole with few words; he pointed and asked me with a very low voice, "You see the Y in the water over by the big rock, towards the inlet?" I looked, "Yes." "Throw your line right in the Y."

I stood up, took a step back, and aimed right for the Y. Within a minute, BAM, my pole started bending, the fight was on. My eyes got big as saucers; I looked at the old Indian now smiling ear to ear. I yelled, "I got one, I got one, it's a big one." He said, "Bring it in." A yell went out again, "Lines out of the water."

As I held my pole, it felt like it was going to break. He yelled, "Keep your line tight." Following his every word, about six minutes later I was stepping back as I was trying to bring it up to the shore. I slipped; fell backwards as the fish was on the shore. The old Indian man saw me, jumped up before the fish flipped back into the water. Reaching for his Billy club, BAM, he hit it on the head, knocked it right out.

I stood up, as fast as I could; all the men were just rolling with laughter, as I said, "Wow, look at that fish." Smiling from ear to ear, I shouted, "Wow, now that's a fish, and I caught it!"

My heart was beating so fast, the adrenalin going nonstop. I turned around to the old Indian man, and said, "Sir, thank you so much." The man of very few words smiled and nodded. He was already getting ready to throw in his line again. I walked up beside him and gave him a little hug, smiled and said, "You're the BEST fisherman."

I didn't realize Alaska never got dark in the summer, to my surprise it was after 11 p.m. After my adrenalin slowed down I was really tired.

Jill was standing close by with a big smile; she watched the whole thing and was laughing as I tried to pick up the big fish. It was so heavy I needed her help to carry it. Making my way to a place where people clean their fish, I placed that great big salmon on the table. It must have been almost three feet long, it measured from my waist to the ground. I cleaned, cut and wrapped it into salmon steaks. Guess what we had for dinner? Fresh salmon; with a fresh green salad, guess what we had for breakfast, Salmon. Yummy.

The next day I caught another big salmon, cleaned, and cut it also into steaks, and sent it home through the mail on dry ice.

That old Alaskan Indian was a gift from above. He sure made my day. You never know who you might meet on a crowded Alaskan inlet. He knew those waters like no other. I'm so glad he had it in his heart to help me.

And by the way, just to let you know, I learned his secret way to tie and load bait to catch the BIG ONE. <><

Free fire training for community Fire Safe Councils

Community Fire Safe Council representatives are invited to attend a free fire training on Saturday No. 9, from 8 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. In this course, participants will learn the principles used by firefighters in suppressing wildland fires and protecting structures in the wildland urban interface.

In the S-215 Training: Fire Operations in the Wildland Urban Interface for Community Fire Safe Councils participants will learn about fire behavior prediction then apply this knowledge to the community's topography, fuels, weather, and the fire safe condition of homes. The course will be delivered by experts in the field, including the retired battalion chief of the Los Angeles County Fire Department. Participants will also learn valuable survival tips they can utilize in the event of a fire.

Wildfire is an ever-present threat to San Diego County residents and many of our communities are built near or among land prone to wildland fire. We can't stop fires from happening altogether, but we can reduce the damage to our homes and communities by learning about how fires behave and how we can be better prepared.

The workshop is free but register online by visiting our website <http://www.firesafesd-county.org>.

This workshop is hosted by the Scripps Ranch Fire Safe Council and administered by the Resource Conservation District of Greater San Diego County in partnership with the Fire Safe Council of San Diego County. Funding is provided by a grant from SDG&E.

The Resource Conservation District (RCD) of Greater San Diego County aims to protect, conserve, and restore natural resources through education, information, and technical assistance programs. www.rcdsandiego.org

The mission of the Fire Safe Council of San Diego is to provide education, enhance information, and foster fire prevention and fire safety within the County of San Diego. www.firesafesdcounty.org

The club even has a club within the club. The Woman's Sewing Group. One of the projects the club works on is tote bags and mats made from plastic bags, which are crocheted by hand. A number of the mats have been taken to the VA Hospital.

Following an afternoon of refreshments and great conversation the club had signed up three new members said Vice President Carolyn Fulford.

LAUGHTER IS THE BEST MEDICINE

The Cabbie and the Nun

A cab driver picks up a nun. She gets into the cab, and the cab driver won't stop staring at her. She asks him why he is staring.

He replies: "I have a question to ask you, but I don't want to offend you".

She answers, "My son, you cannot offend me. When you're as old as I am and have been a nun as long as I have, you get a chance to see and hear just about everything. I'm sure that there's nothing you could say or ask that I would find offensive."

"Well, I've always had a fantasy to have a nun kiss me."

She responds, "Well, let's see what we can do about that. But first, you have to be single and you must be Catholic."

The cab driver is very excited and says, "Yes, I'm single and Catholic!"

"OK" the nun says. "Pull off to the side of the road, "maybe we will see what we can do."

The nun plants a whopper of a kiss on the cabbie! But when they get back on the road, the cab driver starts crying.

"My dear child," said the nun, why are you crying?"

"Forgive me, but I've sinned. I lied. I must confess, I'm married and I'm Jewish."

The nun says, "That's OK, my name is Kevin and I'm going to a Halloween party."

Spōoky, Creepy Halloween!

I'm batty about Halloween!

This tradition may have begun in Ireland, England and France.

At the end of summer it was harvest time. The sunlight hours were waning and people were getting ready for a long, cold winter. Some people felt that the line between the living and the dead was very thin at that time of year.

People built bonfires for their harvest celebration. Some wore costumes and masks so spirits wouldn't recognize them, damage their crops or cause illness. Some people would go door to door asking for money, cheese, apples or bread for the festival night. This is thought to be the beginning of kids Trick-or-Treating for candy in neighborhoods.

Today, on October 31st, many people carve pumpkins into Jack-O'-Lanterns and light them to greet children. They have costume parties and may bob for apples.

Haunted Mansion on the Hill

Have you ever heard about a house that might be haunted? Some people think there are houses that have noisy ghosts hanging around and annoying the people who live there.

Unexplained events that happen are called "paranormal." There are people called paranormal investigators who go to houses where there have been reports of strange happenings.

These investigators, who are like detectives, bring all kinds of cameras and other equipment to the house. They then set up their equipment to see if they can prove that something "out of the ordinary" is occurring.

Redford's 'All is Lost' is too adrift

Preview by Diana Saenger

Because Robert Redford is such an iconic actor and director, it's hard to find fault with any of his work. I could watch A River Runs Through It, Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid, The Sting, and so many more of his films over and over again. I wish I could be more enthusiastic about Redford's newest film, All is Lost, but it left me thinking more about what wasn't in it, than what was.

being tossed about in a small life boat in very rough seas and trying to find something to write a message on. It's clear he's out of options for surviving and believes he will not make it. That's the little we know about this man throughout the film.

The story then backtracks to some days earlier when he was on a larger sail boat all alone. As stormy weather descends on "wherever he is," he slowly begins to readjust things on the boat.

The movie starts with a man

Later he awakes to the gushing sound of water running in through a hole in the boat and ruining many of his belongings. Long minutes tick by as we watch him make a concoction to repair the hole. Remember that old saying about watching paint dry? That's what the film felt like to me, just dull moments passing by.

This man seems to have no emotion and never shows that he knows what he's doing. Even when he's climbing the huge mast to readjust his sails and make a repair, the camera is square on his face, and his expression appears hopeless as if he's thinking if I can only move up a few more inches I might make it. In fact, there are obvious things I -- not even an experienced boater -- would have checked or made happen before moving silly things around or leaving them on the boat as it was sinking. And he had plenty of time to do this.

Right before the heart of the storm descends; the man grabs his radio, saying over and over, "This is the Virginia Jean with an SOS call, over." Then it hits, turns his boat into a carnival ride, and he tumbles inside, gets hurt and realizes he's now lost his radio and navigation system.

He drags out the small life boat — and as the weather clears he must act fast to get what he can before the boat sinks. Quickly, he's sitting in the raft watching his beloved boat sink. In the days that follow, he does everything to survive. He tries to catch a fish, to keep himself out of the sun and to find a way of making fresh water. I felt at times like I was watching a Boy Scout video on how to survive in the water alone.

When the man sees a huge boat sailing by one evening, he yells and waves but no one sees or hears him. It's a rare moment that shows he's frustrated and frightened.

I can't say much about J. C. Chandor's screenplay or direction. It's really not entertaining when things continue to go wrong throughout the film, and it's not hard to guess -- thanks to the title -- that it probably won't turn out well. There are probably less than 10 words in the entire film, so with little emotion from the man, what is there to identify with or care about?

Tom Hanks pulled off his solo character film in Cast Away because he made the volleyball a character (Mr. Wilson) and also had up-and-down moments with hope and despair.

We know Redford is a fine actor, but when he's moving through time with little expression, emotion or words -- and going through a step-by-step track of this might work but then it doesn't -- it was hard for me to find an emotional attachment to his performance here.

There were times in All Is Lost when I wanted to yell out "Get this" or "Grab that." It seemed to me over and over that the man was very inexperienced with this boat -- so why was he in the middle of nowhere all alone.

The worst thing for any critic to admit about a film is never thinking about it after leaving the theater. In my case, the only thought crossing my mind about All Is Lost is an occasional "Why?"

Bolts keep rolling — beat Jags 24-6

by Chuck Karazsia

Win the games you're supposed to win. The San Diego Chargers did just that. For the first time this season the Bolts extended their streak to two consecutive wins after defeating the hapless, (0-6) Jacksonville Jaguars 24-6.

"It was an all-around good win for the football team. I think there were a lot of good things in all three phases," said Chargers Head Coach Mike McCoy.

Improving their record to (4-3), the Chargers also — for the first time this year — climbed above the .500 mark after slowly getting out of the blocks with two wins in five games on a roller coaster start.

In what might have been a 'trap game' playing on a short week of Monday Night Football then traveling coast to coast with an early start time (10 a.m. PDT) Sunday, the Chargers came out all fired up ready to play from start to finish. The Bolts showed they were the better team on the gridiron, not just on paper.

Winning back-to-back games means continuity in a program initiated by first year Head Coach Mike McCoy and his staff. A system the players are buying into and getting more confident as the 16-week regular season rolls by.

For the first time in nearly 20-years the Bolts defense had not given up a touchdown in two games, giving up just five field goals (two last Sunday). Sacking Jags QB Chad Henne five times, intercepting him once. Bolts Defense played relentlessly tough and smart football.

The Chargers defensive line, anchored by Reyes, Liuget, and Thomas, are playing solid up front in the trenches. Next man up in relief for ailing linebackers (Butler and Johnson) Thomas Kaiser had two sacks of Henne. Eric Weddle led all Chargers with five tackles.

"It's about as good as it can get, remarked Kaiser. "Everyone's pumped up going into the bye-week. Over .500 now and we feel like we're rolling."

Chargers field general Philip Rivers again masterfully orchestrated the controls of the quarterback position. Directing his offense on long time consuming drives, limiting the Jags offense to just two first half series.

Rivers completed an amazing 22-of-26 passes for 285-yards, one touchdown (27-yards to Eddie Royal), no interceptions. Looking comfortable in the pocket, getting rid of the rock in quick five step drops, Rivers methodically moved his troops downfield time and time again dominating first downs 27 to 18, third down efficiency 58 percent to 36 percent, and time of possession 37:30 to 22:30.

Chargers running back Ryan Mathews exhibited his speedy/ slashy style running for 110-yards on 21 carries. Scatback Danny Woodhead scored his first rushing TD for the Chargers (2-yards). The versatile runner also caught four passes for 49-yards.

Receiver Eddie Royal found the end zone on a 27-yard Rivers second quarter touchdown pass and catch.

The Chargers offensive line controlled the line of scrimmage from start to finish. This occurred after dressing only seven linemen for the game. Two of them left the game injured. Still the Bolts were able to protect their quarterback and opened up the running lanes.

In a wacky schedule that saw the Bolts play two Monday Night games in the first six games of the season (not counting the delayed start at Oakland), the Chargers play only one more contest outside of Sunday (Thursday Dec. 12 at Denver).

Now the Chargers head into a bye-week to get refreshed, and healed.

On Tuesday, Oct. 15, players and Chargers girls helped to raise money for the Rady Children's Hospital and Health Center by selling special-edition Union Tribune newspapers in Mission Valley during the 24'th annual San Diego Annual Union Tribune Kids Day.

Bring the whole family for a fun outing every Saturday morning. The Alpine Farmers Market has now grown to over 70 vendors bringing you the freshest produce, meats, fish, eggs, breads, artisan cheeses, fresh cut flowers, olives, oils and balsamic, cookies, salsa & guacamole, hummus and dips, pastas and sauces, and so much more. You can find hot foods to eat there and ready to bake meals to take with you.

There is something for everyone, even kids with face painting, rides, kettle corn and now homework assistance from our own Alpine Teachers Association every week. We have beautiful handcraft artisans with jewelry, arts and crafts, baked goods, handmade soaps and skincare products.

Looking to plant some vegetables, herbs or fruit trees, buy them directly from the farmers who grow them. Need feed or pet supplies, make it a one stop shop and support our local Alpine Merchants at their booths.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF PAULA DE LA TORRE CASE NO. 37-2013-00070441-PR-PW-CTL ROA #: 1 (IMAGED FILE)
To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of: PAULA DE LA TORRE
A Petition for Probate has been filed by LILIA DE LA TORRE in the Superior Court of California, County of SAN DIEGO.
The Petition for Probate requests that LILIA DE LA TORRE be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.
The Petition requests the decedent's lost will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The lost will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.
The Petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.
A hearing on the petition will be held in this court on 11.14.13 at 1:30 p.m. in Dept. PC-2 located at 1409 4th Avenue, San Diego, CA 92101-3105 Central Division/Madge Bradley Building.
If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.
Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.
You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

ORDINANCE NO. 4997

AN ORDINANCE REPEALING ORDINANCE NO. 3579 ELIMINATING SPECIFIC PLAN NO. 347 IN ORDER TO ALLOW FOR THE CONSTRUCTION OF A PROPOSED TWO-STORY SALES AND SERVICE COMMERCIAL BUILDING AND THE CONSTRUCTION OF ANCILLARY AUTOMOBILE DEALERSHIP FACILITIES

WHEREAS, Specific Plan No. 347 ("SP 347") was adopted by the El Cajon City Council in 1984 by Ordinance No. 3579 in order to specify the type or types of commercial development to be permitted within the area identified in SP 347; and

WHEREAS, on September 23, 2013, the El Cajon Planning Commission held a duly advertised public hearing to accept testimony in considering a proposed general plan amendment and conditional use permit by the property owner in order to redevelop the existing sales and service building with a new two-story building and a new free-standing car wash building on property located 13 parcels generally located between South Johnson Avenue and West Main Street (the "Subject Property"); and

WHEREAS, SP 347 limits the uses permitted to be developed on all or part of the subject property by requiring interconnecting access between two parcels included within the Subject Property, which limitations will prevent the property from being redeveloped into a newly-designed and more efficient automobile dealership; and

WHEREAS, the elimination of SP 347, and the removal of the required interconnecting access will allow the redevelopment of the Subject Property as proposed, which will serve the public interest in providing an expanded and local source of automobile sales and service to the community; and

WHEREAS, the Planning Commission recommends City Council approval of the repeal of SP 347; and

WHEREAS, on October 8, 2013, the City Council held a duly advertised public hearing, to accept testimony, both oral and written, and to consider, among other things, the proposed repeal of SP 347.

NOW, THEREFORE, the City Council of the City of El Cajon does ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. That the foregoing recitals are true and correct, and are findings of fact of the El Cajon City Council.

SECTION 2. That the City Council of the City of El Cajon finds, based on the evidence presented in the record of its proceedings, as follows:

The proposed project involves the re-establishment of an automobile dealership on the site for the sales and service of new and used automobiles.

SECTION 3. That based upon said findings of fact, the El Cajon City Council hereby approves the proposed exemption from environmental review on the basis that the project is infill development, and exempt under Section 15332, Class 32, of the CEQA Guidelines. The City Council specifically finds, based on the evidence presented, that the proposal to eliminate SP 347 will remove a barrier that would otherwise prevent the infill development from occurring; the proposed project is consistent with the City's General Plan land use categories and goals; the proposed project is being developed on a site less than five (5) acres; the site has no value as habitat; the proposed project will not generate significant effects to traffic, noise, air quality, or water quality; and the site is served by all utilities and public services. Further, it is found by the City Council, based on the evidence presented, that none of the conditions in CEQA Guidelines Section 15300.2, which provide exceptions for categorical exemptions, exist.

SECTION 4. That based upon the record as a whole, the City Council hereby makes the following additional findings:

A. The proposed repeal of Specific Plan No. 347 serves the public interest by re-establishing an automobile dealership by replacing existing automobile dealership facilities with new, state-of-the-art automobile sales and services facilities, which will replace outdated and inefficient facilities presently existing on the property.

B. The redevelopment of the Subject Property will create both improved external and internal flow of traffic and commercial activity, all of which will serve the public interest in providing an expanded, efficient, local source of automobile sales and service; the elimination of existing unused and unnecessary driveways; the replacement of curbs, gutters, and sidewalks, improving pedestrian access and safety; and provide improved landscaping on the Subject Property.

SECTION 5. That based on the above-stated findings of fact, the El Cajon City Council hereby repeals City of El Cajon Ordinance No. 3579, thereby eliminating Specific Plan No. 347, making it null and void, and of no further force and effect.

SECTION 6. The documents and other materials which constitute the record of proceedings upon which this decision is based, are in the custody of the City Clerk, City of El Cajon, 200 Civic Center Way, El Cajon, California 92020.

SECTION 7. This ordinance shall become effective thirty (30) days following its passage and adoption.

PASSED AND ADOPTED by the City Council of the City of El Cajon, California at an Adjourned Regular Joint City Council/Housing Authority/Successor Agency to the El Cajon Redevelopment Agency Meeting held this 22nd day of October 2013, by the following vote to wit:

If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code.
