Note: Daylight Saving Time ends Sunday - Don't forget to turn your clocks back one hour on Sunday at 2 a.m., or before you go to bed Saturday night. This is also a good time to change the batteries in your smoke alarms and carbon monoxide (CO) detectors! A

Help build KaBOOM - a playground for all ages

We have the design and the materials - now we need skilled volunteers to help in the assembly of a one-of-a-kind, multi-generational playground at El Cajon's Bostonia Recreation Center.

The City of El Cajon, American Legion El Cajon Post 303, Stoney's Kids, Humana Inc. and KaBOOM! (a national non-profit organization that has built more than 2,300 playgrounds) have designed a special space for people of all generations to gather and play at Bostonia Park. The customized playground, funded primarily by Humana (a leading health and wellness company), was created from personal drawings and other input from local community members, from children to seniors, collected during a recent special design day on September 26.

The existing playground at Bostonia Park was in need of replacement, and exercise opportunities for seniors in the area have been limited. A new playground, with multi-generational exercise stations, will effectively address these needs, providing the youth with an age-appropriate area to play, as well as opportunities for the seniors to interact further with each other and the community.

The actual playground building days will take place on Nov. 7, 8 and 9. Bostonia Recreation Center is located at 1049 Bostonia Street in El Cajon. If you would like to give back to your community, we are looking for those highly skilled in the area of construction for the Nov. 7 & 8 prep days, and then 150 volunteers are needed, of all skill levels, for the Nov. 9 build day. Hours will be from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Nov. 7, and from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Nov. 8. On Nov. 9, building begins at 8:30 a.m. They could also use some tool donations of shovels, metal rakes, drills etc. If you can help, please call (619) 441-1756. Volunteers must pre-register.

after 9 a.m. Animal lovers are encouraged to join the walk - but walkers can come with or without a companion animal. After the walk visit Santa's Village, featuring Doggie Goodie vendors, pictures with Santa, refreshments and a silent auction. Santa's Playground will have an agility course, games for dogs and owners, and craft booths. In addition, visit Santa's Adoption Village where you'll find local rescue organizations and adoptable pets. It's a fun filled day with games for your pooch and the entire family. Thank you to the event sponsor Barona Resort & Casino, and to the Boys and Girls Club of East County for their donation. Wells Park is located at 1153 East Madison Avenue in El Cajon. For more details, please visit www.aces-foundation.org.

Letter from El Cajon Mayor Mark Lewis

October 24, 2013

It has been my privilege for the past 23 years to serve the citizens of El Cajon as your elected representative, including the last 15 years as your Mayor. The citizens of El Cajon have demonstrated their faith in me by re-electing me six different times. Over two years ago, I announced that I would not be seeking re-election in 2014 and, therefore, had planned on retiring as Mayor at the end of next year. The reason for my decision not to continue as your Mayor was primarily due to continued health problems, beginning with my suffering a minor stroke in 2010. More recently, I have been challenged by cancer and a dislocated shoulder, along with other health related problems. Unfortunately, at times, this has caused me some difficulties in clearly communicating my thoughts, including during the recent interviews that have caused understandable concern within our community and for which I have already apologized.

After discussing with my family and close friends, I have made the decision to resign my position as Mayor of El Cajon one year early to avoid any further concerns by our citizens and to allow our City Council and community to move forward in their work to make this City the finest place it can be. I deeply love our town and have given a major portion of my adult life to its wellbeing and, so, this is a bittersweet moment for me. I will miss being your Mayor, but I realize it is now time to better focus my energies on my health and my family.

We have accomplished much together over the past 23 years and I am especially proud of our exciting revitalized downtown, the Council's support for strong economic development, the City's continuous balanced budgets and conservative fiscal policies, even throughout the recent difficult recession. I am also proud that our Council recently voted to bring back to life the El Cajon Friendship Festival, now renamed and reinvented as America On Main Street, which will be a citywide celebration in June of our community's cultural diversity and strength.

I wish to thank all of my supporters over the years, as well as all of the wonderful citizens of El Cajon who have made this such a great community. God bless you all.

Sincerely,

Mark Lewis, Mayor

royalty, presidents and celebrities. Born in Denmark, the self-taught artist immigrated to the United States and eventually settled in El Cajon. His restored ranch house is a local landmark and sits on museum property.

Two guest lectures will be hosted in the museum gallery during the art show. On Nov. 14, at 4:30 p.m., CAC Artist Member Mark Fehlman will speak on Capturing San Diego's Nature, 100 Years of Landscape Painting. On Dec. 5, at 6:30 p.m., Olaf Wieghorst Museum Past President Ross Provence will reminisce about the life and art of El Cajon's most famous western artist. ## Donations still sought for Military Care Packages

The City of El Cajon's Special Events Committee, a group of city employees volunteering their time for city and community projects, is seeking item and monetary donations to mail care packages to military members serving overseas through the second annual "They Serve Us, Let's Serve Them" campaign from "9-11 to 11-11." "We've had an outpouring of care package item donations and will probably be able to assemble 30 care packages to help our military this year," according to Ron Luis Valles, a coordinator and member of the Special Events Committee.

The packages are shipped using the Post Office's special Priority Mail package discounted rate of about $15 each package. Checks could be made payable to "EC Military Care Fund" and mailed to the El Cajon Federal Credit Union, at 266 South Magnolia Avenue, Suite #101, El Cajon, CA 92020.

Donations are being collected at several drop off locations throughout city offices and the El Cajon Federal Credit Union. Items to donate include heavy duty socks, snacks, personal hygiene items, such as toothbrushes, toothpaste, shavers, deodorant, etc. The packages will be mailed after Veterans' Day, Nov. 11. Included in the packages will be a special poem written by a city employee who was inspired by the sacrifices from the military in protecting our country.

The seed for this campaign was planted from a conversation that took place between a city employee and a service member's parent mailing a care package at the post office. The Special Events Committee coordinated the drive last year and mailed about 20 packages, that were well received from service men and women who sent letters of gratitude for the packages. For more information, send an email with "Military Care Packages" in the subject line to Ron Luis Valles at ronluisvalles@gmail.com.

The City of El Cajon needs residents input

The City of El Cajon receives approximately $1 million in federal Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Funds and $420,000 in HOME Investment Partnerships (HOME) Funds each year for housing and community development projects. The City invites the public to have input in how the City programs this money over the next five years.

From now to Nov. 29, 2013, the public will have the opportunity to respond to a Community Survey to assist the City in prioritizing community and housing needs and issues by ranking them between High, Medium and Low Priority or No Need. The responses will be tabulated, evaluated and reported in the strategic planning document known as the Five-Year Consolidated Plan to be adopted in 2014 by the El Cajon City Council. Your responses will be used to help the City determine what the priorities will be for allocating the federal grant money over the five-year period from fiscal year 2014-15 to 2019-20.

The public can access the survey between now and Nov. 29, 2013 at:

http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/ElCajon\_English

http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/ElCajon\_Arabic

In addition, written copies of the survey will be available at the Housing Division public counter at El Cajon City Hall, 200 Civic Center Way, Third Floor, El Cajon, and at the two County of San Diego Libraries located at 201 East Douglas and 576 Garfield Avenue, El Cajon. For those unable to obtain the survey in one of the ways listed above, contact the Housing Division at (619) 441-1710 to request a copy of the survey to be mailed or e-mailed. Completed surveys should be returned no later than Nov. 29, 2013, to:

Honoring volunteers in El Cajon

As the City of El Cajon continues to celebrate 100 years of incorporation, we would like to honor those who volunteer in our community through the 100 Hours Honoring 100 Years Volunteer Program. During this Centennial Year, as we reflect on our rich City history, it is important to recognize that it is the people who make El Cajon The Valley of Opportunity, including our volunteers. Through this volunteer program, the City will recognize the volunteer service performed in the El Cajon community during the Centennial year (November 2012 through November 2013). All are invited to participate, whether as an individual, or in a group on behalf of an organization, community group, or business.

To download the forms, please visit our Centennial website, www.elcajon100.com, under "Participate" and download the forms. Completed forms must be delivered, or post-marked, by Dec. 10, 2013. For more information, please call (619) 441-5549.

Celebrating 100 Years As A City

Don't forget, you are welcome to share your memories and photos of growing up in El Cajon on our Centennial website at www.elcajon100.com. Also on the Centennial website, you will see photos and a video from the Nov. 12, 2012, event!

El Cajon Centennial Moments

Sharing a piece of history

Centennial Moment: Claydelle

Below is an excerpt from Bus and Auto Tour of Historical El Cajon written by members of El Cajon settler families including: James Walters, Elizabeth Montgomery, and James Graves. In 1998, on the 25th anniversary of the founding of the El Cajon Historical Society, this brochure was produced for the public. Funds were provided by the Friends of East County Arts.

Claydelle - 322 Claydelle Avenue - was the name of one of the area's early ranches. Owned by the Hill family, the ranch was named after their children - Clayton and Della. Built in 1897, this house is one of the oldest remaining Victorian-style homes in the city. Typical for the times, it is very small, but it boasts a high cross-gable roof, horizontal wooden siding, and an open veranda with four posts under a low hipped roof. Just as typical was a large kitchen garden where the garage stands today, and a hen house. In the days before canned and frozen foods, everyone raised chickens and their own vegetables. Common, too, were wells, cisterns, and water towers, for a system of delivering water to townspeople.

The photograph is courtesy of the El Cajon Historical Society. For more El Cajon history, please visit the El Cajon Historical Society's website at www.elcajonhistory.org. For Centennial information, visit www.elcajon100.com.

La Mesa Collaborative hosts Parent Drug Awareness Forum

Common household items, such as cooking ingredients, are being misused by youth in our community to get drunk or high.

The La Mesa collaborative joined local efforts to educate parents and youth of the dangers of drugs and alcohol in East County by hosting its first Parent Drug Awareness Forum on Tuesday.

The event, which took place from 5:30-8 p.m., featured a complimentary pizza dinner, a presentation by a local drug and alcohol expert, as well as a separate break-out session for youth.

Retired narcotics officer and Executive Director of The Proactive Network Against Substance Abuse, Phil Hubbs, educated a group of nearly 35 parents about current drug and alcohol trends. He also showed parents a display of various household items such as hand sanitizer, whipped cream canisters and keyboard cleaner that kids use to get drunk or high.

More than 10 students participated in youth break-out sessions, which were led by Friday Night Live -- a youth group for high school kids to promote living healthy lives, free of alcohol, tobacco and drugs. The students also participated in a presentation with S.T.A.A.R., a group that emphasizes the importance of saying "no" to reckless behavior and peer pressure.

Why alcohol is a problem

Research shows students in East County are accessing alcohol at a very young age and alcohol is playing a recurring role in the deaths and injuries of minors in San Diego County.

Twenty-five percent of elementary school students in the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District report having had at least a sip or two of alcohol at least once. Of those who drank, 29 percent report having had their first full drink of alcohol before age 13, according to the California Healthy Kids Survey.

From 2006 to 2011, 144 San Diego County minors, age 20 and younger, died with alcohol in their system -- an average of 28 per year, according to the County Medical Examiner's Office.

Fifteen of these youth were from East County.

From 2006 to 2008, 650

young people from East County were treated at local emergency rooms with a diagnosis of alcohol abuse.

Drug trends

According to the 2011 Monitoring the Future Survey, the proportion of young people using any illegal drug has been rising gradually over the past four years, due largely to the steady climb in marijuana use and the sale and use of synthetic drugs, such as "Spice," "K2" and other bath salt-type products.

Marijuana use among students increased in 2011 for the fourth straight year, according to the study, with daily marijuana use now at a 30-year peak among high school seniors in the U.S.

In recent years, communities have seen a drastic rise in health impacts involving synthetic drugs. These include increased blood pressure and heart rate, agitation, hallucinations, extreme paranoia, delusions, psychosis and suicidal thoughts.

At the forum, parents were given information and resources to better address the topic of drugs and underage drinking with their kids. Parents were shown the risks, trends and ways to discuss drug and alcohol use with their kids and how to set a positive example and create a safe environment at home.

Students learned the dangers of drug use and underage drinking and the importance of making healthy choices.

Experts say education, open dialogue with families and community-based policies are critical to help students avoid and overcome the hazards associated with alcohol and drugs.

Cedar Fire Anniversary

Saturday, Oct. 26 several hundred people came together to reflect on the disaster called the Cedar Fire, which began with a single flame on Eagle Peak Road. As County supervisor Dianne Jacob said "What starts in our back country doesn't stay in our back country." By the time the fire was out it had consumed 273,246 acres and killed 15 people. Lakeside Fire Chief Andy Parr said, "We weren't touched by the fire that day. We were hit, kicked, punched and spit on but we have come back."

Two issues came out of the Cedar Fire communications and lack of resources. Since 2002 there are more engines, helicopters and staff. Reverse 911 is now in operation and there is more defensible space thanks to organizations like fire safe councils. The new fire station #2 on Lakeside Ave in Lakeside, where the 10-year remembrance took place, is self sustaining. The station is capable of operating for three days during extreme circumstances.

Cedar Fire Rebuilding Resources Group leader David Kassel told of survivors who lost everything coming together to help rebuild. Kassel said they belonged to the most exclusive and expensive group you never want to belong to.

Those present witnessed a San Diego Air Group One fly over and a demonstration of a water drop from San Diego Sheriff's Astrea Helicopters.

Citizens and first respondents stayed after the ribbon cutting for the future Cedar Monument to mingle and reconnect with stories of heroism from citizens and responders. Through the disaster a bond has been formed which will last a lifetime.

Ripe fall vegetables are the inspiration for his Grilled Chicken Thighs with Sweet Potato-Balsamic Salad and his Grilled Brussels Sprouts with Balsamic Mayonnaise. All three recipes include Hellmann's® Creamy Balsamic Mayonnaise Dressing, which combines the rich, great taste of Hellmann's® that you love with a touch of sweet, aged balsamic vinegar.

Thumbs up, thumbs down, now everybody turn around

by Dr. Rev. James L. Snyder

Flying in an airplane is not my preferred style of transportation. However, flying without an airplane is quite disastrous, if you know what I mean!

I am not quite sure the Wright brothers would be too happy with some of the things passing as an airplane these days. It seems to me that psychotic midgets have designed modern day airplanes. Nothing in an airplane is designed for the normal person, and I might as well say it, I consider myself normal. I may be a shade taller than normal but I am normal in every other respect.

The one plane I took from Detroit to Dayton Ohio was about as small as I have ever been on. Walking down the aisle, I could not even stand up but had to bend over in order to walk down the aisle. I heard a noise behind me that startled me and I stood up only to dash my head against the ceiling. That was not the worst headache of my flight.

One of these days, I would like to meet the person who designed the seats in those planes. I will admit to being a little post thin, but after all shouldn't you be able to sit down in a seat when you are flying?

I truly do not understand what a seatbelt is for with individuals like me. I can barely squeeze myself into that seat and then it takes me about 15 minutes to extract myself from the seat. I suppose a seatbelt is for the comfort of the pilot who believes that somehow I will not bounce out of my seat while he is flying. I could not bounce out if my life depended upon it.

My seat was so tight and I fit so snugly in it that when I sneezed it felt like I did some damage to my inner organs. Somewhere in the Constitution there has to be something to the effect that an individual has the right to sneeze without hurting himself.

What I want to know is why do I always have to sneeze when I am in certain situations like this?

Then, comes the time when you need to go to the bathroom. The flight attendant will bring you all the free beverages you can consume. They know, and I guess they are snickering behind our back, that everybody is going to have to go to the bathroom at the same time.

Coordinating the bathroom run is one of the trying exploits of flying the friendly skies.

For one, by the time I realize I have to go to the bathroom there is a line for the bathroom. Fortunately, but the time I extradite myself from my seat the line has dwindled dramatically. Then again, I have to go to the bathroom so bad I am dancing up the aisle to the bathroom to the great applause of the people sitting there.

Once I fasten myself into the seat, I try to get comfortable enough to do a little reading. Since I am sitting in the aisle seat, everybody is bumping into me as they go up and down the aisle.

Now that I am situated so that I cannot move, they come again with beverages. Why is it I forget there is a link between drinking a beverage and going to the bathroom? I know there is a link but when I am up in the air so high my tiny little grey cells are working in slow motion. So why take a free beverage? Well, it is free!

I am at the age in my development where going to the bathroom is a frequent activity, even when not drinking any beverages. When consuming a beverage, this activity kicks into high gear. Once again, I need to extricate myself from my seat and find my way to the bathroom.

I am not quite sure about this, but I believe in mid air the airplane pilot switches the bathroom from the front to the rear. I am dancing up the aisle, which I believe is in the direction of the bathroom, only to discover I am going in the wrong direction.

A few of the people in the seats are smiling at me and one person gives me a thumbs-up as I turn around and dance in the direction of the actual bathroom facility. With a forced grin, I give a thumbs-up back at him and proceed in the direction of the bathroom.

It is at this point that I run into a line. Wouldn't you know it; the line is for the bathroom?

This is a real thumbs-down for me. It is at this point that I really wish I was not a gentleman. After all, a gentleman has to let the ladies go first. I think if some of these ladies would know the actual situation, they would insist I go first and I certainly would give them a wonderful thumbs-up.

As I was standing in line, a verse of Scripture popped into my head.

"And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left" (Isaiah 30:21 KJV).

Many things in life have us going in circles to which there is no end. God, however, puts us on the straight and narrow path that ends with Jesus Christ.

Dear Dr. Luauna — Our Hope

Dear Readers,

When your life seems like it's crashing in and the storms of life seem to be unbearable, hold on, there is hope. Psalm 119:114; "You are my hiding place and my shield; I hope in Your word." Living in this world without hope is like living day to day without the sunshine. Where does one lean, on his own strength? The emptiness of a crying soul with no hope, a soul who is in need and has no hope shall surely perish. May I remind you how important you are? You are loved. In this world we will have trials and storms of life. Psalm 119:146-148; "I cry out to You; Save me, and I will keep Your testimonies. I rise before the dawning of the morning, and cry for help; I hope in Your Word." Psalm 47:8-9; "God reigns over the nations; God sits on His holy throne. The princes of the people have gathered together, the people of the God of Abraham. For the shields of the earth belong to God; He is greatly exalted." Jeremiah 17:7; "Blessed is the man who trusts in the Lord, and whose hope is the Lord."

Without hope, we have no strength in our own; our hope is in His mercy and His grace. When the storms of life come, and they will, temptations surround our lives; we have hope in the One who is our deliverer, JESUS Christ Our Lord and Savior.

In life storms will come our way, and some will seem like all hope of survival is gone. Apostle Paul, was taken prisoner, and sailed for Rome, during the time of sailing, an unexpected storm arose. It seemed like all was lost. People would die. How many times has one ever felt like, "Lord, I am sinking and I can't change this circumstance? I don't know what to do!" Paul knew what that felt like. Acts 27:15-20; "Now when neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and no small tempest beat on us, all hope that we would be saved was finally given up." How many times have we been warned of a situation, yet we walked into something thinking we could handle it ourselves, in our own strength? Paul had warned the captain of this ship. (Acts 27:9-11) Yet like you and I many times we pay no attention to the warning of the Lord.

Never lose hope; no matter what storms come our way, even if you stepped into a self-appointed storm, or if an unexpected storm is thrown your way by Satan. Paul knew where to turn in this storm. He prayed. (Acts 27:21-31) Remember those who put their trust in Jesus, we are not like those who have no hope. Romans 5:1-5; "Therefore, having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom also we have access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. And not only that, but we also glory in tribulations, knowing that tribulation produces perseverance; and perseverance, character; and character, hope. Now hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts by the Holy Spirit who was given to us."

Remember, hope does not disappoint. Don't throw away your hope. Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior is our hope in a time of trouble. You are important, and His love is never ending. Just reach out and call upon His name, "Help me Jesus, I can't do this, I need you!" Hope is a wonderful gift from above. I love you.

Physicians share tips to prevent and correct signs of aging

Women's worries about wrinkles, dark spots and other aging skin concerns aren't all vanity, a new poll reveals.

Forty-two percent of women ages 50 to 59 believe they need to look young to be successful at work, according to a recent poll by Penn Schoen Berland.

"Increasingly, both men and women have anxiety about looking older, but the good news is that science has developed natural tools to help us look younger longer," say Drs. Rick and Arlene Noodleman, the husband-and-wife physician team at Silicon Valley's Age Defying Dermatology, (www.agedefy.com), national leaders in medical and cosmetic dermatology and integrative medical treatments.

Something we all battle daily is damage from free radicals, a term that has entered the public lexicon with little understanding by most people.

"Free radicals are oxygen molecules that have lost electrons through oxidation, making them unstable. If your body doesn't have enough antioxidants to stabilize them and render them harmless, they can damage cell membranes, which eventually breaks down the proteins that support and plump the skin," explains preventive medicine specialist Dr. Arlene Noodleman.

"We're bombarded by free radicals every day," she says. "We produce them when we metabolize food and even when we breathe. They're also in the environment – diesel exhaust, air pollution, UV radiation (from the sun) and cigarette smoke are all major producers."

"What's worse, those free radical oxygen molecules are always looking to stabilize themselves by swiping electrons from stable molecules, which creates even more free radicals," says dermatologist Dr. Rick Noodleman.

"We have lots of natural defenses against free radicals, but as we age, we begin to lose them," he says.

Some vitamins are antioxidants, meaning their molecules provide electrons that stabilize the free radicals. Clinical studies have found that certain of these are effective in preventing damage, or correcting damage such as reducing wrinkles and dark spots.

In certain cases, "taking your vitamins" means applying them on your skin so they can work from the outside-in, the physicians say.

- Vitamin A – "There is significant scientific evidence that the form of vitamin A called retinoid, when applied topically, can treat damage caused by sun exposure," says Dr. Arlene Noodleman. "It can soften fine lines and wrinkles and lighten dark spots." In one study, subjects had significantly fewer fine wrinkles after applying a prescription-strength retinoid cream (0.1 percent isotretinoin) once a day for 36 weeks. "Of the over-the-counter retinoid products, Retinol appears most effective," Dr. Noodleman says.

- Vitamin C – "Vitamin C applied topically is much more effective than taken orally," says Dr. Rick Noodleman. "That's because vitamin C is relatively unstable -- it quickly oxidizes when exposed to air and in certain other conditions. So, to get the full benefit, you would need it in much greater amounts than you would normally consume in a tablet. You can get that benefit by using a topical formulation," he says. "Look for 'stable' vitamin C of the L-ascorbic variety, which offers the best protection against sun damage," he states. "It reduces lines and wrinkles, protects against sun damage, and encourages production of collagen, one of the proteins susceptible to free radical damage. Importantly, collagen makes up 75 percent of our skin and gives it support and volume."

- Vitamin B3 – "As a 'damage corrector,' test-tube studies have shown that vitamin B3 boosts collagen production and clinical studies have shown that it reduces dark spots," says Dr. Arlene Noodleman. In one significant study, 50 Caucasian women applied a five percent vitamin B3 solution to one side of their faces every day for 12 weeks. They had a marked reduction in dark spots, redness and yellowing, and increased elasticity.

The two doctors advise that, for best results, people should buy these topical vitamin products at concentrations that have proved effective – and use them for the length of time recommended.

Dr. Rick Noodleman, a board-certified, Stanford-trained dermatologist, is an expert in the medical and surgical management of skin disease, aging skin, and advanced cosmetic techniques. Dr. Arlene Noodleman, board-certified in preventive medicine and fellowship-trained in integrative medicine, is a healthy aging expert who focuses on the whole person and strategies that facilitate the body's innate healing response.

— AT THE MOVIES &amp; ON STAGE —

Nothing makes sense in 'The Counselor'

Michael Fassbender and Penelope Cruz star in The Counselor. Photo Credit: Kerry Brown / Twentieth Century Fox Film Corporation

Review by Diana Saenger

If only Ridley Scott's The Counselor was as exciting and promising as its notable cast! It might have been a better movie then. Adapted from his own book, Cormac McCarthy's tale of crime and betrayal ends up being about as clear as potato soup.

Michael Fassbender and Penelope Cruz start the film off as Counselor and Laura. They are in bed, and Counselor is anxious to show off his sexual skills to his fiancée. Right off the bat, the idea that I have to watch an entire movie about a crooked attorney who doesn't even have a proper name left me cautious.

After some romantic days and a shopping trip all the way to Amsterdam for Counselor to pick out a ring, it's time for him to depart and earn the money to pay for that very expensive piece of jewelry. He runs off to Mexico's Ciudad Juárez to sum up a plan with drug smugglers. After being questioned about his abilities, Counselor encounters Reiner, played with expert zeal and amusement (especially that spiked hair) by Javier Bardem. Flirting around like a 30s femme fatale in her swanky clothes -- or none at all -- and usually accompanied by her two cheetahs is the mysterious Malkina (Cameron Diaz).

She's Reiner's sexual partner, but is she also a gold digger or a drug lord herself? The plot seems too confusing to decide, and who cares?

There are scenes in El Paso with sewage trucks running drugs and apparently some mishaps -- and soon everyone is after Counselor. In order to find him, a message (which is supposedly from Counselor to Laura) gets sent out and puts Laura in grave danger.

I tried hard to figure out the real plot of this film, but nothing made sense, so I gave up. Although the cast is certainly appealing, their characters are never defined. Even during the very short moments when Brad Pitt shows up as Westray, a cowboy criminal, we have no idea what he's doing or why.

There are too many good movies out now to spend money on The Counselor. Because this is a Ridley Scott film, that's very disappointing.

Lots of fun awaits in 'Potted Potter'

Turner, takes on the ultimate challenge of condensing all seven Harry Potter books and a real life game of Quidditch into 70 hilarious minutes.

Even if one doesn't know the difference between a horcrux and a Hufflepuff, Potted Potter has make audiences roar with laughter. The show is perfect for ages six to Dumbledore (who is very old indeed).

Playing one of the Potter characters is Delme Thomas, originally from South Wales. He graduated from Mountview Academy of Theatre Arts in 2011. His theatre credits include: national tour of the The Prisoner of Zenda, Fractures, in Not Another Musical and You Once Said Yes for Look

Thomas had not seen the show when he auditioned for the role but was anxious to get the part.

"James Percy and I were picked by Dan and Jeff to do the tour with them," Thomas said. "I hadn't been to America and thought this would be a good opportunity."

Thomas landed the role and admits he's a big Harry Potter fan.

"I was a Potter fan since I was seven, and I absolutely loved it," he said. "I never expected some day to land a role in a show like this. James plays Harry Potter, and I play all the others, like 300 characters in the books and the films. It's very intense for me; we do about 10 minutes per book. There are a lot of fast costume changes and great physicality."

Thomas said he hits the ground running from the beginning of the show until the end. And in Boston, where he did 21 shows in two weeks, it must have been extremely challenging. He said all kinds of different audiences show up for the show.

"We get Harry Potter fans dress up in their cloaks or Hogwarts School attire," Thomas said. "But we also get people who have never seen Harry Potter. What I like about the show is it's the classic two-man comedy with one straight man vs. the silly man. Even if someone has not seen the films they still laugh at the parodies and even our older audience members have a good laugh. And the kids love my character because I'm the one that messes everything up and kids love that sort of thing."

There's also a game of Quidditch and the audience can join in. "That's one of my favorite parts on the show when I get to interact with the audience," Thomas said. "Everyone gets involved with it and really enjoys it."

Potted Potter has played all over the world. The national tour of Potted Potter - The Unauthorized Harry Experience runs in San Diego November 6 -10, 2013 at The Balboa Theatre as an add on show in the 2013-2014 Broadway Season. The fast-paced show is perfect for the entire family. Tickets are on sale now!

Cuyamaca College's Disability Awareness Month highlights fast-paced Wheelchair Basketball

Eye-opening as it is exciting, the 16th annual Cuyamaca College Wheelchair Basketball Game on Wednesday delivered in its mission to showcase the athleticism of league-competition players, whose dedication to the sport is obvious, from the cost of the customized chairs to the hours they spend every week finessing the finer points of the game.

An event where members of the college's men's basketball team quickly learn they are at a disadvantage playing against some of the most seasoned wheelchair competitors in the county, the game provides a new awareness to students and others of what dedicated athletes with disabilities can accomplish.

"I totally respect the wheelchair athletes," said Manuel Fernandez, who plays center for the Cuyamaca College Coyotes basketball team. "This is my second year playing in this game. It's a real challenge."

The five-on-five games feature a mix of Cuyamaca's shooters playing alongside athletes who compete on local teams including the San Diego Hammers, a National Wheelchair Basketball Association member team. Several of the wheelchair athletes return year after year to play in the popular Cuyamaca event.

Mary Asher-Fitzpatrick, a learning disabilities specialist with Cuyamaca's Disabled Student Programs and Services (DSPS), said the wheelchair athletes, most of whom suffered spinal cord injuries, never fail to wow spectators with the competitiveness of their play. DSPS, along with Cuyamaca College's Associated Student Government, Athletics Department, Club ABLED and the Cuyamaca College Learning Resource Center, sponsored the game and the resource fair which preceded the competition.

The fair featured 10 community resource agencies serving people with disabilities.

College President Mark Zacovic said he looks forward to the game each year as an impressive, high-energy display of the exceptional skill on the part of the wheelchair athletes. He added that the exhibition game is part of the college's outreach efforts and reflects its commitment to providing learning opportunities for everyone.

"Cuyamaca College does an exceptional job through DSPS assisting students with disabilities to pursue their education," he said. "It is part of our culture here at the college to embrace the many diversities our students represent, including the community of the physically challenged. It's in keeping with our mission to provide access to all."

As novices shooting and traversing the court from an unfamiliar vantage point, the Cuyamaca basketball players faced a big challenge in just crossing the court in the lightweight chairs, specially designed for speed and maneuverability.

San Diego Hammer player Joaquin Leyva said the sports chairs, which start at about $3,000 each, have extra casters in the back to prevent tipping and are far more maneuverable than the typical wheelchair. Their acceleration and ability to turn on a dime reflects the advances in technology in their manufacturing.

But don't expect to see them in use off the court – the very design features that make them ideal for court action render them too uncomfortable for everyday use. The sport chairs have users sitting with their legs closer to their chests and the backs are modified for improved shooting.

The teams for Cuyamaca's game were mixed with players from both sides so that the wheelchair league athletes didn't clean up the scoreboard with their precision shooting, said Asher-Fitzpatrick, who has coordinated the game from the beginning, along with Rob Wojkowski, Cuyamaca College men's basketball coach.

Bilal Rahim, a forward for the Cuyamaca College Coyotes, said playing in the wheelchair was much harder than he expected.

"Just getting up and down the court was tough," he said. "I'm glad I had the experience today, though."

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF PAULA DE LA TORRE CASE NO. 37-2013-00070441-PR-PW-CTL ROA #: 1 (IMAGED FILE)

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of: PAULA DE LA TORRE
A Petition for Probate has been filed by LILIA DE LA TORRE in the Superior Court of California, County of SAN DIEGO.
The Petition for Probate requests that LILIA DE LA TORRE be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.
The Petition requests the decedent's last will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The last will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.
The Petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.
A hearing on the petition will be held in this court on 11.14.13 at 1:30 p.m. in Dept. PC-2 located at 1409 4th Avenue, San Diego, CA 92101-3105 Central Division/Madge Bradley Building.
If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.
Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.
You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

ORDINANCE NO. 4996

AN INTERIM ORDINANCE ADOPTED AS AN URGENCY MEASURE PURSUANT TO CALIFORNIA GOVERNMENT CODE SECTION 65858 TO ESTABLISH A MORATORIUM ON SECONDHAND MERCHANDISE STORES IN THE CITY OF EL CAJON

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF EL CAJON DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1: Findings and Declaration of Intent.

That the City of El Cajon has an overriding interest in planning and regulating the use of property within the City. Implicit in any plan or regulation is the City's interest in maintaining the quality of urban life and the character of the City's neighborhoods. Without stable, well-planned neighborhoods, sections of the City can quickly deteriorate, with tragic consequences to social, environmental, and economic values.

The proliferation of business establishments purchasing merchandise for resale to the public including, but not limited to, guns, rifles and firearms; jewelry, gold, silver, and other precious metals and gems; dishes, flatware, platters, bowls, utensils, trophies and figurines containing precious metals; furniture, equipment, appliances, clothing, kitchenware, records, compact discs, videotapes, digital video discs, televisions, and other sundry consumer goods; and wireless communication devices, personal digital readers, computers, laptops, and other handheld devices (collectively, "Secondhand Merchandise"); create adverse impacts on retail businesses operating in the City. Permitting additional stores involved in such activities may adversely affect the City's emerging revitalization efforts and economic vitality, may result in a threat to public health, safety and welfare, and may not be compatible with existing and potential uses of certain areas within the City. Therefore, it is the City's intent, in consideration of other existing and potential uses within the City's commercial zones, to assure a degree of compatibility between the location of Secondhand Merchandise retail activities and surrounding commercial properties. This intent will be effectuated by a comprehensive study resulting in a possible revised zoning ordinance of the City.

SECTION 2: Purpose.

The purpose of this ordinance is to place a moratorium on additional Secondhand Merchandise Retail Establishments from doing business in the City of El Cajon until such reasonable time as a detailed study of the possible adverse impacts such establishments might have on commercial uses, may be made.

"Secondhand Merchandise Retail Establishments" are defined as those commercial activities involving the purchase, from the general public, of previously-owned personal property including, but not limited to, guns, rifles and firearms; jewelry, gold, silver, and other precious metals and gems; dishes, flatware, platters, bowls, utensils, trophies and figurines containing precious metals, which are then either resold or reused, melted down or recycled and sold as base metals or loose gemstones; furniture, equipment, appliances, clothing, kitchenware, records, compact discs, videotapes, digital video discs, televisions, and other sundry consumer goods; and wireless communication devices, personal digital readers, computers, laptops, and other handheld devices. Secondhand Merchandise Retail Establishments include those establishments primarily devoted to such activities, or those activities ancillary to other retail establishments. Secondhand Merchandise Retail Establishments shall not include the exchange or trade of such items as credit toward the purchase of new items of similar consistency provided that no monetary or compensation or form of credit is paid to the customer.

SECTION 3: Urgency.

This ordinance is an interim ordinance adopted as an urgency measure pursuant to Government Code Section 65858 and is for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and welfare. The facts constituting the urgency are these:

Unregulated locating of such establishments may be in conflict with contemplated zoning and other regulations to limit the number, location, and activities of such establishments; to deter theft and protect businesses from the risk of the receipt of stolen property; and to determine the compatibility of Secondhand Merchandise Retail Establishments' activities within the City's commercial zones. Thus, in view of the facts set forth in Section 1 of this ordinance, it is necessary to immediately study, hold public hearings, and consider an amendment of the City's Zoning Ordinance, and other applicable ordinances, and the adoption of restrictions or regulations as they may be recommended to the City Council by the Planning Commission. A comprehensive set of restrictions and regulations cannot be enacted without due deliberation, and it will take an indeterminate length of time to work out the details of such comprehensive restrictions. It would be destructive of the proposed restrictions if, during the period they are being studied and are the subject of public hearings, parties seeking to evade the operation of these restrictions in the form which may be adopted should be permitted to operate in a manner which might progress so far as to defeat in whole or in part the ultimate objective of those restrictions.

SECTION 4: Condition.

That no persons, partnerships, corporations, or other entities shall commence doing business as, nor shall a business license be issued to owners or operators of, Secondhand Merchandise Retail Establishments, as defined herein, except those establishments specifically excluded herein, until such reasonable time as a detailed study may be made and the zoning and/or any necessary specific plan amendment, and public hearing processes pertaining to these matters is completed, or until December 6, 2013, whichever occurs sooner, except as may be extended as provided by Government Code Section 65858.

SECTION 5: Regulation.

(A). Notwithstanding any provision of the Municipal Code to the contrary, no persons, partnerships, corporations, or other entities, shall be issued business licenses, or a special operation licenses, to operate businesses as Secondhand Merchandise Retail Establishment as defined herein, within the City of El Cajon.

(B). Establishments excluded from this ordinance are those establishments already in operation at the time of the enactment this Urgency Ordinance.

SECTION 6: Taking Effect.

This ordinance shall take effect immediately upon passage by a 4/5ths vote of the City Council, and in accordance with Government Code Section 65858 and El Cajon Municipal Code Section 17.15.100 and is of no further force or effect on the date that the above-mentioned zoning ordinance becomes operative, or until December 6, 2013, whichever is sooner, except as may be extended as provided by said Sections.

Frozen Peanut Butter Pie

-Janet

What You Need

1 box brownie mix
1/2 stick butter
1 egg

FILLING

2 c whipped topping
1/2 c powdered sugar
3/4 c peanut butter

TOPPING

4 chopped Reese's Peanut Butter Cups
1/2 c hot fudge ice cream topping

Directions

• Preheat oven to 350F. Grease a springform pan or pie pan with butter.

• Melt butter and mix with brownie mix. Add egg and combine.

• Bake in oven for about 15 to 20 minutes (it will still be wet). Let cool for about 20 min. With buttered fingertips, press the brownie to make a rim in the pan (make sure it is cooled to the touch). Remove from the springform pan and slide it onto a plate. If you are using a pie pan, leave it in the pan.

• While the crust is cooling, cream together powdered sugar and peanut butter. Then, add whipped topping and whisk. The mixture will be thick.

• With a spatula, fill the crust with the filling. Take 4 Reese's Peanut Butter Cups and chop into little pieces (freezing first makes it easier to chop). Sprinkle the chopped pieces on top of the filling.

• Place 2 tbsp of hot fudge sundae topping and into the microwave for about 30 seconds. Drizzle it over the top of the peanut butter pieces and filling.

• Place a piece of plastic over the pie and freeze for about 3 hours.

Pet of the Week

Hi, there! My name is RODNEY, and I'm a one-year-old Chihuahua-mix boy who's looking for a quiet and loving home. It may take me some time to build trust, as I'm a sensitive soul, but I'll be your loyal companion once I get to know you. I get along very nicely with other dogs, and I enjoy going for walks. My favorite thing to do, however, is snuggle with somebody that loves me. I promise to be that perfect little house dog that you've been looking for. As you can understand, I'd do best in an adult home. Just so you know, the shelter staff isn't sure yet if I've been house trained. Please come to the El Cajon Animal Shelter and visit me so we can get better acquainted. The shelter has a lovely play yard where we can spend some time together. Once you hold me close, you'll never want to let me go. I just know it will be the beginning of a wonderful relationship! Love, Rodney" Kennel #58
