Help build KaBOOM - a playground for all ages

We have the design and the materials, now we need skilled volunteers to help in the assembly of a one-of-a-kind, multi-generational playground at El Cajon's Bostonia Recreation Center.

The City of El Cajon, American Legion El Cajon Post 303, Stoney's Kids, Humana Inc. and KaBOOM! (a national non-profit organization that has built more than 2,300 playgrounds) have designed a special space for people of all generations to gather and play at Bostonia Park. The customized playground, funded primarily by Humana (a leading health and wellness company), was created from personal drawings and other input from local community members, from children to seniors, collected during a recent design day.

The existing playground at Bostonia Park was in need of replacement, and exercise opportunities for seniors in the area have been limited. A new playground, with multi-generational exercise stations, will effectively address these needs, providing the youth with an age-appropriate area to play, as well as opportunities for the seniors to interact further with each other and the community.

The actual playground building days will take place on Nov. 7, 8 and 9. Bostonia Recreation Center is located at 1049 Bostonia Street in El Cajon. If you would like to give back to your community, we are looking for those highly-skilled in the area of construction for the Nov. 7 & 8 prep days, and then 150 volunteers are needed, of all skill levels, for the Nov. 9 build day. Hours are from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Nov. 7, and from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Nov. 8. On Nov. 9, the actual building of the KaBOOM! playground begins at 8:30 a.m. If you can help, call (619) 441-1756. Volunteers must pre-register.

The City of El Cajon would like your input

The City of El Cajon receives approximately $1 million in federal Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Funds and $420,000 in HOME Investment Partnerships (HOME) Funds each year for housing and community development projects. The City invites the public to have input in how the City programs this money over the next five years.

From now to Nov. 29, 2013, the public will have the opportunity to respond to a Community Survey to assist the City in prioritizing community and housing needs and issues by ranking them between High, Medium and Low Priority or No Need. The responses will be tabulated, evaluated and reported in the strategic planning document known as the Five-Year Consolidated Plan to be adopted in 2014 by the El Cajon City Council. Your responses will be used to help the City determine what the priorities will be for allocating the federal grant money over the five-year period from Fiscal Year 2014-15 to 2019-20.

The public can access the survey between now and Nov. 29, 2013, at:

http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/ElCajon_English

http://es.surveymonkey.com/s/ElCajon_Spanish

http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/ElCajon_Arabic

In addition, written copies of the survey will be available at the Housing Division public counter at El Cajon City Hall, 200 Civic Center Way, Third Floor, El Cajon, and at the two County of San Diego Libraries located at 201 East Douglas and 576 Garfield Avenue, El Cajon. For those unable to obtain the survey in one of the ways listed above, contact the Housing Division at (619) 441-1710 to request a copy of the survey to be mailed or e-mailed. Completed surveys should be returned no later than Nov. 29, 2013, to:

Sharing a piece of history

Centennial Moment: Covered walkways

Below is an excerpt from Bus and Auto Tour of Historical El Cajon written by members of El Cajon settler families including: James Walters, Elizabeth Montgomery, and James Graves. In 1998, on the 25th anniversary of the founding of the El Cajon Historical Society, this brochure was produced for the public. Funds were provided by the Friends of East County Arts.

Picture a typical unpaved western frontier town with small stores cheek-by-jowl lining both sides of the street and you have Main Street until the 20s and 30s. Those first crude buildings were replaced by some which remain today.

Notice the distinctive roofed walkways in front of the buildings on the north side of the street. El Cajon Boulevard and Main Street were El Cajon's portion of the county's only direct route between San Diego and everything east. With more people owning cars, by the mid-30s, the State had to widen Main Street to accommodate the traffic. These roofed walkways were the result of that expansion because, upon learning that the front of their buildings were going to be torn down and replaced by sidewalks, storeowners moved their front exterior walls back the required number of feet to make room for the sidewalks. What remains today are those original roofs which, in late summer and early autumn continue to provide welcome relief from the direct rays of the sun.

Marine recruits test basic military knowledge on Parris Island

Sgt. Donald White, an academic instructor at the Recruit Training Facility on Parris Island, S.C., tests a recruit on his knowledge of casualty care during his practical application test Oct. 18, 2013. White, a 27-year-old native of El Cajon, Calif., tested the recruits of Bravo Company, 1st Recruit Training Battalion, and Papa Company, 4th Recruit Training Battalion, on land navigation, general military subjects, casualty care and hand and arm signals. Bravo and Papa Companies are scheduled to graduate Nov. 1, 2013. Parris Island has been the site of Marine Corps recruit training since Nov. 1, 1915. Today, approximately 20,000 recruits come to Parris Island annually for the chance to become United States Marines by enduring 13 weeks of rigorous, transformative training. Parris Island is home to entry-level enlisted training for 50 percent of males and 100 percent for females in the Marine Corps. (Photo by Lance Cpl. MaryAnn Hill)

Lakeside Round Up of Events —

by Patt Bixby

New Sheriff's Substation

The location for a new Sheriff's substation in Lakeside has been decided, the old fire protection district office on Parkside Ave. The building is in the process of being purchased.

The plan is to have the station in operation by the first part of 2015.

Undergrounding

For years undergrounding on Maine Ave in Lakeside had been a dream for businesses along the street. On Nov. 12, work is scheduled to begin, which will result in the removal of 36 poles and covert 52 property services from overhead to underground and installation of decorative lighting. The decorative poles will have a finish that repels graffiti.

At the Utility Underground meeting it was announced that the project will take eight months to complete. The final three months (November through January) will be the main bulk of the construction.

During construction there will be traffic control and an inspector from the County will be on site every day. Businesses will be notified when work will be done in front of their business. The work area will be plated for a drivable surface. The working plan is to trench 125 feet a day.

During the meeting several businesses along the affected road expressed concern over accessibility to their businesses. Hirsch assured the County will work with business owners.

Hirsch made it clear that special events along Maine Ave. would not be affected and they will work to clear the street several days before scheduled events.

The December Spirit of Christmas on Maine Ave and Western Days Parade will not be impacted.

The project is scheduled for completion July of 2014.

Living Well Expo

The first Living Well Expo was officially opened on Friday, Oct 18 at the Sonrise Church in Santee with a joint Santee Chamber of Commerce and the Lakeside Chamber of Commerce Ribbon Cutting.

The two day event included representatives from Congressman Duncan Hunter and County Supervisor Dianne Jacob's office and CEO Barry Jantz from Grossmont Health Care.

James "Chappie" Hunter, San Diego detective and Swat officer shared an inspirational talk about the car accident that took his leg, three and a half months ago. "I lost a tiny piece of me, but this is a paper cut compared to what our injured military come home with," Hunder said. He hopes people will be inspired to get up and off the couch and get some exercise. "Chappie" exercises, lifts weights and jumps rope and is planning a mile and a half swim.

Master of ceremonies Susan Taylor told the crowd, 63 percent of East County residents are obese and many have serious health issues.

The two day event included dementia awareness, a laughing class, meals 4 hunger, food & ask a dietician, physicians panels, healthy snack and tasting and more.

Outside events were Sheriffs Dept. Bike Rodeo, martial arts, Crossfit and Fire Departments Community Safety Fair.

I Love A Clean Lakeside

Nearly 400 residents brought yard greens, furniture, E-waste and had documents shredded at the 34th annual "I Love a Clean Lakeside" event on Saturday, Nov. 2.

The Lakeside Chamber of Commerce members, staff from Senator Joel Anderson's office, Fraternal Order of Eagles and Lakeside Optimist all helped to make the event a big success.

Daily Disposal, Edco Waste and Recycling and San Diego Shredding provided their services for the day.

The event was made possible with the support of Supervisor Dianne Jacob, the County of San Diego and Community Block Grant Funding.

- 2 1/2 cups light rum
- 4 cups cream
- 2 teaspoons vanilla extract
- 1/2 teaspoon ground nutmeg

Easy Apple Brown Sugar Tart

Created by executive chef Jeff Anderson of Safeway

Ready in: 1 hour 15 minutes
Servings: 8

- 3 large apples, Gala or Pink Lady
- 1/3 cup light brown sugar, firmly packed
- 2 tablespoons orange juice
- 1 tablespoon instant tapioca
- 3 tablespoons orange marmalade

For tart shell

- 1/2 cup slivered almonds
- 1 1/4 cups all-purpose flour
- 1/4 cup light brown sugar
- 1/2 cup sweet cream butter
- 1 large egg

To serve

Vanilla ice cream (optional)

In cake or pie pan, toast slivered almonds in 350°F oven until golden, shaking often (about 10 minutes).

In food processor or bowl, combine almonds, all-purpose flour, and 1/4 cup firmly packed light brown sugar.

Add butter, cut into pieces. Whirl or rub with your fingers until fine crumbs form.

Add 1 egg yolk, whirl or mix with fork until dough sticks together. Pat into ball.

In a 9- or 10-inch fluted tart pan with removable rim, press dough over bottom and up sides, flush with rim.

To assemble tart:

Rinse apples and peel (or leave skin on as desired). Core apples and cut into 1/4-inch-thick slices.

In bowl, gently mix apple slices with 2 tablespoons of brown sugar, orange juice, and tapioca. Let rest 10 minutes to soften tapioca, then overlap slices neatly in unbaked tart shell.

In glass-measuring cup, combine remaining brown sugar and marmalade. Heat in microwave at full power in 30-second intervals, stirring each time, until marmalade is melted. Evenly spread over apple slices.

Bake in 350°F oven until crust is well browned and apples are tender when pierced, about 45 minutes.

Inspiration

Does God expect me to pray for broccoli?

by Dr. Rev. James L. Snyder

For some inexplicable reason, the Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage is under the impression that my favorite hobby is flying kites. I have no idea where she got that notion. Last Thursday, for example, she said to me in one of her sterner voices, "Why don't you just go and fly a kite?"

The joke, of course, is on her. Ha! That is not my hobby and I have not flown a kite since I was nine years old when my mother made the same request. Who does she think I am? Benjamin Franklin? If she actually knew what my hobby was, I wonder if she would be so anxious for me to indulge. Some secrets are worth keeping.

Two things guide me in my pursuit of life.

I never fool around with fate and I never second-guess the Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage

She suggested on Friday evening that we go out for supper. When younger I would have tried to figure out if she was up to something or if I was in some trouble, but not anymore. One of the great advantages of growing older is shedding the necessity of trying to figure everything out.

Life has been much easier since I have started to live in the moment. So much in life is unexplainable that I have stopped wasting my time trying to explain it. Moreover, the greatest thing is, I am not under any pressure to understand everything or figure anything out, especially when it comes to the female side of the matrimonial equation. Let the mystery of romance do its thing.

Just one thing, in spite of everything, still bothers me. I know it may be a minor matter to most people, but for me it is important. Do I have to pray for everything?

On Friday, my wife and I made our way to our favorite restaurant and to our great delight, our favorite waitress was on duty and we requested her table. Stay with a sure thing, I always say.

After our first cup of coffee, we were ready to contemplate our order. It is not good to order your meal right away; get settled in your seat, have a good cup of coffee and then decide on the meal for the evening. I chose the delicious meatloaf dinner while my "better half" ordered the pot roast. Both came with what our waitress called a vegetable medley.

Let it be known that a "vegetable medley" was not harmonious with my primeval appetite. With an air of masculine sophistication, I ordered the vegetable of the day. It was too lovely of an evening to get hung up on such small matters. After all, I was unwinding and did not need to put my little gray cells in high gear. Taking our order, our waitress disappeared into the kitchen while we sat back to enjoy each other's society while our meal was being prepared. Luxury, in my book, is where you find it.

After a busy week in the church, it is always beneficial to settle back and relax. Nothing is more important than getting balance in life and keeping it.

Before we knew it, the waitress brought our meals and set them before us. Much to my surprise, the vegetable of the day was broccoli. The waitress quickly disappeared amidst some unsuccessful muffled giggling from across the table. Gaining some measure of composure, my wife requested I offer the prayer for the meal.

My question: does God really expect me to pray for broccoli?

I was reminded of an incident with my good friend and spiritual mentor, the Rev. Frank Simmons. After a Sunday morning service, a woman approached Frank with a simple request.

"Oh, Brother Simmons," she said in a dramatic fashion that always irritated Frank, "would you pray that my daughter gets married?"

Without giving her request any thought, he replied in the negative. The thing I always liked about good ole Brother Simmons was that he was always Frank.

"Why won't you pray for my daughter," demanded the woman.

"Well," Frank said, "tell me something. Does she have any special friend? Is she dating?"

Frank later told me that many people want God to do everything for them. "There is plenty for us to do," he said with a mischievous grin.

Of course, Frank firmly believed in prayer but he also believed people have personal responsibility in their lives. So many blame God for the bad in their life. Then when they get in trouble, they want God to bail them out. One of Frank's favorite sayings was, "Many folk sow their wild oats Saturday night and then Sunday morning pray for crop failure."

Some things should not be a matter of prayer but of simple obedience. Prayer is no substitute for action. In fact, in some cases it is not in order to pray. For example, it is wrong to pray about anything clearly forbidden in the Bible. I do not have to pray about hating somebody. It is always wrong to hate and no amount of prayer could ever change that fact.

The apostle James set this forth rather clearly in his epistle. "Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much" (James 5:16 KJV).

No prayer is worth praying if it is prayed outside of that righteous zone.

Dear Dr. Luauna — Rejected? Hold on

Dear Readers,

Rejection is painful. Many think, "No one sees my pain." There was a woman named Hagar who was mistreated, pregnant and rejected. God saw her brokenness. Genesis 16:13; "Then she called the name of the Lord who spoke to her, You-Are-the-God-Who-Sees; for she said, 'Have I also here seen Him who sees me?'"

A woman name Leah, rejected by her husband. Genesis 29:31; "When the Lord saw that Leah was unloved, He opened her womb; but Rachel was barren." Another young boy only 17 years old named Joseph, rejected by his eleven brothers, they even thought about killing him, you can read his story in Genesis 37.

No matter what form it comes in, rejection is painful. You are important to God. Psalm 139:17-18; "How precious also are Your thoughts to me, O God! How great is the sum of them! If I should count them, they would be more in number than the sand; When I awake, I am still with You." Psalm 147:3; "He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds."

As children of God, we must remember, we serve a God who heard the cry of Daniel, and closed the mouth of the lions in Daniel 6. This same God heard the cry of three Hebrew boys who were rejected and thrown into the fiery furnace, and He rescued them in Daniel 3. We serve a God who is even concerned about our debt. II Kings 6:5-6; "But as one was cutting down a tree, the iron ax head fell into the water; and he cried out and said, 'Alas, master! For it was borrowed.' So the man of God said, 'Where did it fall?' And he showed him the place. So he cut off a stick, and threw it in there; and he made the iron float." Only God could make the iron float. Why? Because He cares. Jesus was always falsely accused, yet Jesus came to give us life. Luke 9:56; "For the Son of Man did not come to destroy men's lives but to save them."

Jesus was rejected by men, but there was a bigger plan. What was that plan? Forgiveness and healing for you and I. Luke 22:19-20; "And He took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, 'This is My body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of Me.' Likewise He also took the cup after supper, saying, 'This cup is the new covenant in My blood, which is shed for you. But behold, the hand of My betrayer is with Me on the table.'"

Rejection, yes it is painful! Luke 23:34; "Then Jesus said, 'Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they do. And they divided His garments and cast lots.' You must choose to forgive the one who rejected you today. Jesus is our strength. We need Jesus. Trust in Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Don't carry rejection; it becomes poison deep within the heart. The cross was rejection, yet at the cross there is healing. Luke 24:45-49; "And He opened their understanding, that they might comprehend the Scriptures. Then He said to them, 'Thus it is written, and thus it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead the third day, and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. And you are witnesses of these things. Behold, I send the Promise of My Father upon you; but tarry in the city of Jerusalem until you are endued with power from on high.'"

You are special; Trust the Holy Spirit to bring you healing deep within. Choose to forgive. Become better – NOT – bitter! I love you.

For Health's Sake

Why the holiday grind may be damaging to your teeth — and more

The holiday season seems to start earlier and earlier each year which, for many people, means longer and longer periods of heightened stress, say integrated health specialists Dr. Michael Gelb and Dr. Howard Hindin.

"For many people, stress causes teeth grinding — bruxism — during the day or while they're asleep at night and it's not as innocuous as it sounds. It not only wears down the enamel of the teeth, it can cause headaches, muscle pain and disrupted sleep, which leads to daytime drowsiness and irritability," says Dr. Hindin of the Hindin Center for Whole Health Dentistry (www.hindincenter.com), who partners with Dr. Gelb in tackling chronic disease with multidisciplinary approaches.

"Bruxism is the third most frequent abnormal sleep behavior — sleep talking and sleep walking are other examples — and the No. 1 reason patients come to my clinic, even though they're often not aware they're grinding," says Dr. Gelb of The Gelb Center in New York (www.gelbcenter.com), a holistic dentist known worldwide for pioneering integrative treatments. "Stress is generally the cause of daytime teeth grinding, which is an involuntary clenching of the jaws. But great joy can be a cause, too. Nighttime grinding can have many causes — or no clear cause at all."

Drs. Hindin and Gelb share some of the causes of teeth grinding and what people can do about it:

- One in four people with obstructive sleep apnea are bruxers: Like nighttime teeth grinding, people with sleep apnea are often unaware they have a problem, so if the grinding leads to a diagnosis of sleep apnea, it could save the person's life. People with untreated sleep apnea can stop breathing hundreds of times a night. Those with severe cases are 46 percent more likely to die prematurely, according to a study published in 2009 in PLOS Medicine journal.

"Your doctor or dentist should explore the possibility of obstructive sleep apnea as a potential cause of your bruxism," says Dr. Hindin.

- Caffeine, alcohol, cigarette smoking and hypertension are all linked to increased incidence of bruxism: People who have a drink before they go to bed and people who ingest caffeine are more likely to be teeth grinders, with the likelihood increasing the more a person consumes. Cigarette smoking and high blood pressure are also associated with teeth grinding, as are certain drugs used to treat depression.

- Nighttime dental guards are just one option for treatment: Depending on the cause of the bruxism, there are a variety of treatment options, ranging from dental guards to botox injections to anti-anxiety medications. "To effectively address the problem, the cause needs to be diagnosed if possible and treated," says Dr. Gelb. "Bruxism can cause irreversible damage to your teeth, TMJ disorders and other problems and, as Dr. Hindin pointed out, it can be a sign of a more serious underlying problem, so it shouldn't be ignored."

But that doesn't mean that everyone who grinds is in for a hefty medical bill. "For some people, treatment may be as simple as a $10 night guard purchased at the drug store — although a custom-fitted night guard is best."

Dr. Michael Gelb is an innovator in airway, breathing, sleep, and painful TMJ disorders pioneering Airway Centric. He has studied early intervention for sleep disordered breathing (SDB) specializing in how it relates to fatigue, focus, pain and the effects all of these can have on family health. Dr. Gelb received his D.D.S. degree from Columbia University School of Dental and Oral Surgery and his M.S. degree from SUNY at Buffalo School of Dental Medicine.

Dr. Howard Hindin is trained in all aspects of general dentistry. Since the 1990s, his practice has also focused on cosmetic dentistry, temporomandibular joint disorders and craniofacial pain. He is a graduate of New York University College of Dentistry. An acknowledged pioneer in the relationship between dental issues and whole body health, Dr. Hindin is President (2000-present) of the Foundation for the Advancement of Innovative Medicine (FAIM). He is also an active member of the American Academy of Pain Management, American Academy of Cranio Facial Pain, American Academy of Dental Sleep Medicine, Academy of General Dentistry, American Dental Association, International Academy of Oral Medicine and Toxicology, and the New York State Society of Acupuncture for Physicians and Dentists and is the co-founder of the American Association of Physiological Medicine and Dentistry (AAPMD).

Living in the Colonies

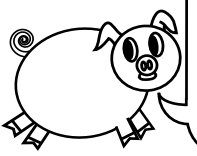

Have you studied Colonial times in school? It is the period of time (1607-1776) during which people from Europe sailed across the sea to America, which then was known to them as the "New World." Some people were looking for things that would make them powerful – land or gold. Others wanted freedom to live and worship as they chose. Of course, Native Americans were already living here. Can you imagine how they must have felt when ships came to their land and strange people built homes and forts on it?

How did Colonial America start? Read these clues to find out:

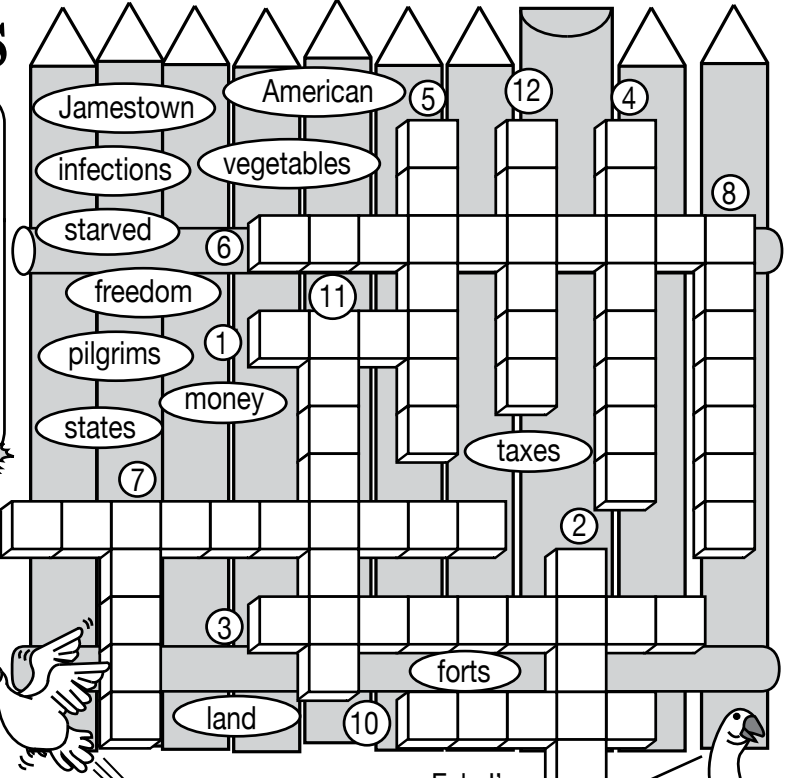

- Members of the Virginia Company sailed to the New World to claim _____ for England.
- They wanted to make lots of _____ by finding silver or gold, so they quickly landed to start a settlement before other people could.
- They founded the first settlement, called _____, in Virginia.
- Some others who traveled to the New World were called _____. They sailed on a ship called the Mayflower and landed in Plymouth, Massachusetts.
- They came to the New World because they wanted religious _____.
- Most settlers had to grow their own fruits and _____.
- Settlers built _____ to protect against attacks from some native tribes.
- Such attacks could last for weeks or months, trapping settlers inside. When food ran out, many people _____.
- There were few doctors, so many settlers died due to simple _____.
- Eventually the English government placed very heavy _____ on the colonists for tea, food and other goods.
- This was one of the main causes of the _____ Revolutionary War.
- In 1776, the 13 Colonies declared themselves "Free and Independent _____" that no longer were part of Great Britain.

I'm out of here! I heard pigeon is a popular food.

At this time, most families had to provide their own food. They grew turnips, pumpkins, potatoes, wheat and corn. They kept pigs, chickens and cows. Men hunted for deer, turkeys or rabbits. Families fished or searched for clams. A pot of stew was kept hot on the fire all week. Some sugar and spices were brought from England, but were still scarce. To keep foods longer, they were dried, smoked, canned, salted and pickled.

Colonial Work

Boys learned the family trade or went to work for a craftsman to learn a skill that was useful. Some people could pay for services they needed. Others would barter for something they needed.

Can you find and circle the names of these different tradesmen?

blacksmith	silversmith
gunsmith	shipbuilder
brickmaker	basketweaver
shoemaker	carpenter

Have you ever seen this kind of basket? This is a "peanut basket." Notice my shape and notice the shape of the basket to see why it is called that. Some people put peanuts in one side, then throw the shells into the other side as they eat the peanuts.

Do you think learning was harder in Colonial times or harder now? Read each sentence below and circle "T" if you think it is true and "F" if you think it is false.

Andrew Lloyd Webber's 'Evita' coming to San Diego

Interview by Diana Saenger

Even though Eva Perón grew up poor and dreamed of becoming an actress, her class status in the 1920s didn't stop her from becoming a leading political figure in her native country of Argentina. She became the first lady and wife to President Juan Perón.

Thanks to Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice who in the 1970s wrote the music and lyrics for Evita, this story has become exceptionally popular to theatre, movie and music fans worldwide. Since the original Broadway production in 1979, which earned the show a Tony Award, it now has a more focused approach to the story.

Directed by Tony and Olivier Award-winner Michael Grandage and choreographed by Tony Award-winner Rob Ashford, this is the first new Broadway production of the seven-time Tony Award-winning musical, since it debuted on Broadway over 30 years ago.

Evita tells Eva's passionate and tragic story through Tim Rice and Andrew Lloyd Webber's most dazzling and beloved score, including "Don't Cry for Me Argentina," "Buenos Aires," "Another Suitcase in Another Hall" and "High Flying Adored."

The national tour of Evita stars Caroline Bowman (Kinky Boots) as Eva Peron, Tony nominated Josh Young (Jesus Christ Superstar) as Che and Sean MacLaughlin (Woman in White) as Juan Peron.

Young eagerly participated in an interview about the show. He appeared in two seasons at The Stratford Shakespeare Festival in: Jesus Christ Superstar (Judas), Grapes of Wrath, and "Che" in Evita directed by Gary Griffin, earning Broadway World Awards for each.

Young also appeared as "Marius" in the US National Tour of Les Miserables and "Tony" in the International Tour of West Side Story. Young has performed in North America's finest regional theaters including La Jolla Playhouse, Walnut Street Theater, St. Louis MUNY, Baltimore Center Stage and North Carolina Theatre.

Young thinks the changes in the show are good ones. "My character is no longer Che Guevara as in the original musical, and who in real life was a Cuban gorilla," Young said. "Although born in Argentina, he had nothing to do with Argentina, and he and Eva never crossed paths. Now I play Che, just one of the working class guys who gets to see how Eva affects the working class, and how Che serves as the voice of the people. I performed in the original story, but I think this is a better story."

The cast in this show is huge but Young said there's plenty of room on the stage for everyone. "Each cast member also plays about 15 different parts so they have a lot of costume changes. Eva has 17 different costume changes. Luckily I only change once."

Young has established himself in musical theatre. He saw Evita for the first time at age 10 and was seriously thinking of musical theatre as a career at 18. He earned a BFA at Syracuse University and since has co-founded of Cutting-Edge Composers (cuttingedgecomposers.com), a concert and weekly web series on broadwayworld.com, created to give exposure to Musical Theatre's next generation of songwriters. Young's debut and new album Still Dreaming of Paradise are available on iTunes, Amazon, www.Josh-Young.com and at the theatre's merchandise stands wherever Evita merchandise is sold.

He sings many songs in Evita, his favorite being "And the Money Kept Rolling In."

"This show has all the original songs and we've also added, "You Must Love Me," the Oscar-winning hit from the film Evita," said Young who added, "We are not trying to copy what they did on Broadway. This is going to be a new production."

Evita has remained a show favorite for more than 30 years, and just try not to sing those songs when leaving the theatre.

"I think that's because the message has power and danger, and a hope that inspires," Young said. "But it's also the music and dance numbers. You can't help but enjoy it. I saw it at 10 and still enjoy it. I've heard from those who first saw it in 1979 and say I loved it then, and love it if not more, now."

'About Time' – amuses with time travel exploits

Review by Diana Saenger

Time travel, by its definition of moving between points of different times, appeal to those who have a sense of imagination and enjoy the unexpected. Some great such films as Back to the Future, Field of Dreams, The Terminator, Time Machine and more have explored this phenomenon.

Richard Curtis' new film About Time has a unique plot. It takes place in England where Tim (Domhnall Gleeson - Anna Karenina, Dredd, Harry Potter) is about to celebrate his 21st birthday. Dad (Bill Nighy - Love Actually, The Constant Gardener) realizes his son is about to step into the real world and wishes -- live most parents -- that he could help Tim avoid all the landmines of life.

It just so happens, that Dad has a secret he's ready to admit to his son. He tells Tim that the men in their family have the ability to time travel. Tim should probably check his dad's glass to see what he's drinking but after learning how he's supposed to do this, Tim tries it out and discovers it's true.

The 21-year-old Tim soon learns this talent comes in handy. After flubbing a first kiss at his birthday party or handling applying suntan lotion all wrong on a visiting beauty, Tim gains confidence when he jumps back in time and redoes that moments correctly the second time -- or in some cases three or four.

Tim's life growing up was filled with the best things -- movies, beach visits, great parents and outdoor parties. As he grows and steps out in the world Tim is reminded of Dad's advice to use this advantage to, "Make your life the way you want it," he tells Tim.

That happens when Tim meets the lovely Mary (Rachel McAdams). He tells her, "I love your eyes, I love your face too, and I haven't even looked further down but I'm sure it's all fantastic." This blunder is part of the charm and humor that threads through the plot. Luckily for Tim he got a second chance at that conversion.

When Tim and Mary become a couple Tim's gift, unbeknownst to Mary, becomes a huge part of their lives.

Curtis is exceptional as bringing as wit and humor in his films such as Two Weddings and a Funeral, Bridget Jones, Bean and many more. His writing talents capture interesting characters with funny situations but he also captures the truth in the humanity of those characters in how they succeed or fail at their goals.

That theme is a subliminal plot in About Time, as dear old Dad is a short-timer, and he knows he has little time left to teach Tim everything to make him happy and successful. Much of this happened over their tradition of playing ping pong, and dad's advice is especially poignant.

Nighy is wonderful in his role outlining reasonable expectations as well as good advice to his son. McAdams is always wonderful in her roles (Sherlock Holmes, The Vow, Perfect Pie, Wedding Crashers) but adds an extra spark in her character to the effervescent, but on target, role of Gleeson.

Go in expecting nothing and the laughs and stronger story than the time travel elements will make About Time worth seeing.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF PAULA DE LA TORRE CASE NO. 37-2013-00070441-PR-PW-CTL ROA #: 1 (IMAGED FILE)

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of: PAULA DE LA TORRE
A Petition for Probate has been filed by LILIA DE LA TORRE in the Superior Court of California, County of SAN DIEGO.
The Petition for Probate requests that LILIA DE LA TORRE be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.
The Petition requests the decedent's last will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The last will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.
The Petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.
A hearing on the petition will be held in this court on 11.14.13 at 1:30 p.m. in Dept. PC-2 located at 1409 4th Avenue, San Diego, CA 92101-3105 Central Division/Madge Bradley Building.
If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.
Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.
You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the street address and other common designation, if any, shown herein. The total amount of the unpaid balance with interest thereon of the obligation secured by the property to be sold plus reasonable estimated costs, expenses and advances at the time of the initial publication of the Notice of Sale is $131,871.23. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same Lender may hold more than one mortgage or Deed of Trust on the property. Notice to Property Owner The sale date shown on this Notice of Sale may be postponed one or more times by the Mortgagee, Beneficiary, Trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. PUBLIC NOTICE

FY 2014-15 COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT BLOCK GRANT PROGRAM NOTICE OF FUNDING AVAILABILITY AND REQUEST FOR COMMENTS PUBLIC NOTICE

Under Title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, as amended, cities such as El Cajon are provided with an opportunity to implement community improvement programs and/or projects not otherwise possible under the constraints of the regular City budget. In order to receive the funding for FY 2014-15 (July 1, 2014 – June 30, 2015), the City must submit an annual Action Plan including proposed projects to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development by May 14, 2014.

The City of El Cajon invites public comments from residents, non-profit organizations and others serving the El Cajon community on how the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) should be spent. The City welcomes and encourages citizen participation in the establishment and implementation of our 40th year of the CDBG Program.

The City of El Cajon estimates it will receive approximately $1,100,000 in federal CDBG funds for Program Year 2014-15. Of those amounts, a maximum of 15% of the total allocation (approximately $165,000) may be made available for public service programs and projects. In addition, approximately $452,000 may be made available for public facility/capital type projects. In order to receive the funding, the City must submit its Annual Action Plan with proposed CDBG projects and programs which must be for activities that will improve the living conditions/environment for low and moderate income individuals and families in El Cajon.

In addition, all CDBG projects must meet one or more of the local Priorities to qualify for funding. The Priorities are fully described in the FY 2009-2014 Consolidated Plan which is available for review at the Housing Division public counter, located at 200 Civic Center Way, Third Floor, El Cajon, CA 92020 during normal business hours. The Consolidated Plan is also accessible on the City's website at <http://www.cityofelcajon.us/dept/redev/housing/funding.aspx>.

Non-profit organizations, City departments, neighborhood organizations, and faith-based organizations may apply for this funding. Please note that the City of El Cajon does not directly fund individuals through this program. Applications for CDBG funding are available beginning Thursday, November 7, 2013. The procedures for submitting a completed application can be found in the Guidelines for each application as set forth below. All completed applications must be submitted no later than 5:00 p.m. on Friday, December 13, 2013 to be considered for FY 2014-15 CDBG funding.

There are two separate CDBG applications and categories of funding available: 1) Public Facilities/Capital Improvement projects; and 2) Public Services projects and programs.

CDBG Applications and Program Guidelines relative to this Notice are available in several different ways:

1) An electronic (Microsoft Word) version of the Applications and Guidelines can be downloaded from the City of El Cajon's website at <http://www.cityofelcajon.us/dept/redev/housing/index.aspx>. This version will allow applicants to complete the Application(s) using a computer and to save their work.

2) An electronic (Microsoft Word) version of the Application forms and Guidelines may be obtained via e-mail by calling the Housing Division at (619) 441-1786 or by e-mailing a request to jkasviki@cityofelcajon.us. Please specify which Application you wish to receive (Public Services or Public Facilities).

3) Paper copies of the Application may be obtained in person by visiting the Housing Division public counter at 200 Civic Center Way, Third Floor, El Cajon, CA 92020 during normal business hours. You will be asked to specify which Application you wish to receive (Public Services or Public Facilities).

The City Council will hold a public hearing on the proposed CDBG projects tentatively scheduled for Tuesday, February 25, 2014 at 7 p.m. to allocate FY 2014-15 CDBG funds. A second public hearing is tentatively scheduled for Tuesday, April 22, 2014 at 3:00 p.m. Final adoption of funding allocations is expected to occur at the second public hearing. Both hearings will be held in the Council Chambers located at 200 Civic Center Way in El Cajon. Redskins beat Chargers in overtime 30-24

by Chuck Karazsia

San Diego Chargers fans are feeling empty after their team dropped another game they should have won. Chasing a 24-14 deficit with 4:10 left in the game, the Chargers would not have been in this one had it not been for a gallant comeback effort from their quarterback Philip Rivers who led the Bolts on an eight-play, 79-yard drive in under three minutes, culminating in a 16-yard Keenan Allen touchdown. That score tightened the contest to 27-24 Redskins with 2:49 left on the game clock.

Then after a Washington

Redskin three-and-out, the Chargers got the ball back. Rivers directed them went on a 91-yard drive of 14 plays in 2:03. Running back Danny Woodhead appeared to have scored after catching a Rivers six-yard pass, knocking over the end zone pylon, initially ruled a touchdown. The call was overturned after an official review of the play showed he clipped the pylon with his knee, thus taking away six points and a Chargers victory

Football is literally a game of feet, literally. With the ball placed three feet from the Bolts goal line, the Chargers had three attempts to get the ball into the end zone, but couldn't move it one inch. Not even close on two pass attempts and a stuffed Woodhead on the run. Chargers head coach Mike McCoy opted to go for a game tying field goal on fourth down, instead of going for the win on the road.

Nick Novack's chip shot 19-yard field goal sent both teams into an overtime quarter tied at 24.

In their first overtime game of the season, the Rivers led offense never got their hands on the ball.

The Chargers defense could not stop the RG3 led Redskins offense on a 10 play 78-yard drive as Darrel Young scored the game winning touchdown (his third of the game). On 3'rd down and one the physical runner burst four-yards into the end-zone, dragging Chargers tacklers with him.

The (4-4) Chargers will host the (7-1) Denver Broncos Sunday at Qualcomm Stadium.

TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF
WILLIAM EDWARD LEWIS
CASE NO. 37-2013-00073282-PR-PW-
CTL
ROA #: 1
(IMAGED FILE)

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of: WILLIAM EDWARD LEWIS
A Petition for Probate has been filed by CARLA A. LARGESE in the Superior Court of California, County of SAN DIEGO.
The Petition for Probate requests that CARLA A. LARGESE be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

The Petition requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.
The Petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.)
The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A hearing on the petition will be held in this court on December 10, 2013 at 11:00 a.m. in Dept. PC-1 located at 1409 4th Avenue, San Diego, CA 92101-3105 Central Division/Madge Bradley Building.

If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.
If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.
Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.
