Mother Goose Parade a huge success

Last Sunday's Mother Goose Parade was a huge success, with more entries and more attendees than in previous years. This year's theme "Mother Goose Loose on the Web" truly is now loose on the web. This year's parade was streamed live and now is on facebook along with other media reports. Lions deliver Christmas baskets will collect all the food at 215 W. Lexington Avenue, where it will be divided up into identical baskets for delivery by the Lions and Leo's Club of El Cajon High School. Each basket will contain a 15 pound turkey, various canned goods, milk, bread, cereal, noodles, rice, apples, eggs, cheese, cookies, soup, celery, stuffing mix and much more. This annual tradition began in 1967 when the Lions delivered food to 25 families. That number grew to 33 by 1998 and last year they delivered to 44 families and 15 more were picked up. The Lions will pack their own boxes and make the deliveries in their private vehicles with the help of the Leo's. The Salvation Army provides the list of families in need based on criteria that they have used for years. Anyone wishing to donate food, please call (619) 504-0583.

'Tis the season to stuff myself like a turkey and get away with it

by Dr. Rev. James L. Snyder

Now that summer is out of the way and the holiday season has begun, I can throw out the kitchen window all of those diet restrictions introduced by the Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage. After all, the whole purpose of the holiday season is to eat.

It begins in late October with the mass distribution of candy, which I have no objection. A little candy in somebody's life can go a long way to produce happiness. Why, a handful of jelly beans really makes the world go around, which may be why I am just a little bit dizzy.

From October all the way through to New Year's Day, it is nothing but one delicious delicacy after another. And, I love it.

Around the middle of October my wife announces, "This year you need to be a little careful about what you eat during this holiday season." Of which I smile back at her and nod my head in the affirmative, whatever that means. Far as I am concerned, a nod is not quite as committed as a word spoken.

In October when I am doling out candy to the kids knocking on my door, I always use this formula: one for them and one for me. After all, what's fair is fair. I have to make sure I have enough candy to go all the way around. As one who is very conscious about not wasting anything, I make sure all of the candy is properly consumed by midnight.

I get away with this because my wife usually has the grandchildren on the other side of the neighborhood going door to door getting candy. My duty is to distribute the candy however I see fit.

Thanksgiving really tickles my fancy. It is an opportunity to stuff myself like a turkey and get away with it. After all, with all the family around the Thanksgiving Day table there is little opportunity for my wife to supervise what I eat or do not eat. As long as the dishes keep passing, I keep participating.

One thing that makes the Thanksgiving Day dinner so wonderful is that you can stuff your stuff without feeling guilty about it. "Don't you think you've had enough?" my wife will ask.

I have one response to this query I have used for years.

"Do not worry, my dear," I say as I pile more mashed potatoes on my plate, "I plan to go on a diet for my New Year's resolution." What a wonderful New Year's resolution scenario. Whoever invented that should receive the Nobel Peace Prize because it has come in quite handy in my situation.

Thanksgiving is so close to New Year's that it makes a very convenient excuse.

Take the Fourth of July picnic, for example. That is a long way from New Year's Day and the New Year's resolution scenario that I cannot use that excuse. At that picnic when my wife says, "Don't you think you have had enough?" I have to smile and agree that perhaps I did have enough, and lay down my fork in surrender.

What about the summer family picnic time when all of us are getting together? The same thing is happening there.

New Year's Day and its resolution scenario are too far in the future to use as a ploy to get second or even third helpings. During any summer picnic, I am on my own and in some regards, I do not like it.

But the Thanksgiving-Christmas-New Year's holiday season is my kind of season.

The holiday season is a time for indulgence. After all, has anybody ever seen a skinny Santa Claus? It would be blasphemous to go to the mall during the holiday season and see a skinny Santa Claus. Personally, I would turn around and go home and sit in the corner for a while to get over it.

The holiday season is for extravagance. Christmas gift giving is giving people presents they do not really need. I cannot recall how many ties I have received down through the years as though I have not enough ties, but every one was an absolute delight.

The season begins with the hearty Thanksgiving dinner, goes to the Christmas Day dinner and then ends with the New Year's Day dinner. What more could a person really ask for?

There is something about the family gathering around the table indulging in the delicacies of the season and just having a good time. It is not a time to count calories, but rather, a time to count your blessings. It is not a time to monitor what somebody else is eating, but a time to enjoy the family fellowship around a good table set by somebody who knows how to set a good table.

If someone in our family did not cook so well I would not have a problem in restraining my eating. So, I do not believe it is my fault.

After the festivities have subsided and all the food has all been consumed, we still are left with the rest of our life. In light of that I like what Paul said, "Giving thanks always for all things unto God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ" (Ephesians 5:20 KJV).

For those who know the Lord Jesus Christ giving thanks for everything is a wonderful way of life all year long.

Dear Dr. Luauna — A Thanksgiving Prayer

Dear Readers,

Psalms 100:4; "Enter into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise. Be thankful to Him, and bless His name."

Father, first I want to thank you for East Country Gazette, and their remarkable hard working staff for without them I wouldn't be able to share this prayer with thousands of amazing people. Bless them for all their labor, and what they do to touch the hearts of people throughout San Diego County.

Father, thank you for your love and grace, it's never ending; Your arm is always reaching out to give us strength when we are in need. Thank you for being at our side at all times and in times of trouble. Sorry Father, we don't tell you enough how much we love You. Please Heavenly Father, know you are important and we can't make it without you.

Thank you Heavenly Father for blessing us with our families. Thank you for our children, for our jobs, for blessing us. For those of us who are single we want to thank You, You hold our future in your Hands. Thank you for allowing us to get up in the morning. Thank you for the sunrise, and the heat upon our brow. You are amazing Father, how you created the sun, moon, and the stars and the vegetation all for our pleasure.

Thank you for all the little things we take for granted, the ability to hold my coffee cup in my hands in the morning, hear a bird sing, and breathe in fresh air. Lord, we have SO much to be thankful for today; it would take this whole newspaper to write everything. So today we want to just say, THANK YOU, because you're always so good to us. You long to speak to us every morning, but at times we rush off into the day without taking a moment to tell you how much we love you. Thank you Heavenly Father for just loving us, and thank you for your patience.

I am thankful today for you dear readers. Be blessed and know you are in my prayers. God bless you. Philippians 1:2-4; "Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. I thank my God upon every remembrance of you, always in every prayer of mine making request for you all with joy."

Colossians 3:14-16; "But above all these things put on love, which is the bond of perfection. And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body; and be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord."

LAUGHTER IS THE BEST MEDICINE

Drummer vs. Conductor

A conductor was having a lot of trouble with a drummer. He constantly gave this guy personal attention and much advice, but his performance simply didn't improve.

Finally, before the whole orchestra, he took a critical jab at the drummer, "When a musician just can't handle his instrument and doesn't improve when given help, they take away the instrument, give him two sticks, and make him a drummer, which must be why you play the drums."

A stage whisper was heard from the percussion section, "And if he can't handle even that, they take away one of his sticks and make him a conductor."

Reuben H. Fleet's 'Mysteries of the Unseen World' surprising

Review by Diana Saenger

Renowned director Louie Schwartzberg was a special guest at the opening screening of the West Coast Premiere Mysteries of the Unseen World at the Reuben H. Fleet Science Center. The new giant dome screen has featured many exciting, family-venue entertaining films with themes of adventure, action and knowledge.

The Unseen World is unique as it takes audiences on an amazing journey into unseen worlds and hidden dimensions beyond our normal vision to uncover the mysteries of things too fast, too slow, and too small to be seen by the average eye or is simply invisible

Narrated by Morgan Freeman, the film vividly reveals we see only a fraction of the millions of wavelengths in the vast electromagnetic spectrum—the rainbow of light waves called visible light. Audiences see what it would be like if we had X-ray vision, or infrared vision like a mosquito; how a bee's eyes see through ultraviolet light; what Gamma rays, microwaves and radio waves show us; and more. From the minute structures on a butterfly's wing and the tiny organisms that inhabit the human body all the way down to nano-scale structures.

To see how electron microscopes create images that magnify things by as much as a million times—reveals a world that is both bizarre and beautiful. Guess which unusual image is a fruit fly's eye, the skin of a shark, a flea on a cat, a tomato stem, an eggshell and more!

Schwartzberg's work in the areas of time-lapse photography, nature, aerial and "slice-of-life" photography is recognized around the world. He is the recipient of two Clio Awards and an Emmy Award nomination, and he was recognized as one of the top 70 cinematographers for the "On Film Kodak Salute Series."

According to the comedian, "MOTHER offers up an untraditional look at motherhood and how we look at maternal figures and strong women in queer culture. It's probably my edgiest show to date, filled with riotous observations on race, drugs, sexuality – gay-straight-everything in between, celebrity, culture, politics – nothing is sacred – least of all this MOTHER."

Viejas' new parking garage is now open

On Friday, Nov. 22, Viejas Casino & Resort officially opened their new 4-story parking structure with a crowd of tribal members, Casino staff, local dignitaries, media and resort guests. Robert Scheid, Vice President- Community and Public Relations of Viejas Band of Kumeyaay Indians, opening the celebration with introductions of the Viejas Tribal Council members in attendance including Chairman Anthony Pico, Vice Chairman

Cita Welch, Secretary Anita Uqualla, Treasurer Sam "Qui Qui" Brown, Raymond Bear Cuero, Adrian Brown, and Ernest "Chuka" Pingleton.

Viejas Tribal Elder Virginia Christman did a sage blessing for the crowd and throughout the 1,000 SQ FT garage, followed by tribal members' traditional Birdsongs.

Chairman Pico then greeted those in attendance and asked for a moment of silence to remember President John Kennedy on the 50th anniversary of his assassination.

"He represented to all of us his equality for everyone, opportunities for those who work hard, hope for the good of everyone, our world, country, state, communities, families and ourselves," Pico said. "Today we unveil this new 4-story parking garage that is more than concrete and steel. It represents a significant investment in our business to provide the revenue to build a modern functioning tribal government that supports self-reliance for generations to come, and a commitment to our guest of all the renovations and guest services. It's a larger part of the Viejas Band of Kumeyaay and our ongoing commitment to the community that includes more than $1million a year to schools, non-profits and community across all of San Diego and Imperial County."

Viejas Casino & Resort manager Chris Kelly thanked the tribe, team members and workers who make the new renovations possible. "It's days like today that really illustrate why we built this parking garage," he said. "We have the best guests, and that's why we are raising the bar."

The official ribbon cutting then took place with Chairman Pico cutting the ribbon. That was followed by a parade of eight porches driven by tribal members and KUSI's David Davis entering the garage.

Guests were then invited to cross over the new parking structure bridge that leads into the west end of the Casino. Guests were led to the Grove Steakhouse to view the new private dining room and new bar area that serves both The Grove and the Buffet.

The Porches are to be given away in the Casino's December promotions.

In December, Viejas Casino is giving away 8 Porsche Caymans - one on every Wednesday and Saturday of the month.

The 1,000-vehicle parking structure connects to the new Viejas Hotel and to the west side of the casino through a new enclosed Skywalk. Along with the parking structure, Viejas Casino unveiled a new private dining room at the Grove Steakhouse, a new bar serving The Buffet and an expansion of the popular V-Lounge.

Chargers comeback beats the Chiefs 41-38

by Chuck Karazsia

Like gunslingers shooting it out Bolts quarterback Philip Rivers and Kansas City quarterback Alex Smith (Helix H.S.) exchanged bullets at Arrowhead Stadium KC, MO. in a divisional matchup.

Sharpshooter Philip Rivers under duress delivered a well thrown 26-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Seyi Ajirotutu with 24 seconds left in the game completing a 7-play, 78-yard drive giving the Chargers the lead for good in a comeback victory over the Chiefs in a wild shootout, a game with eight lead changes.

Improving their record to (5-6), snapping a three-game losing streak, the Chargers are back in the mix for a playoff spot.

"It shows a lot about the character of this football team. It hasn't been an easy couple of weeks. Some very difficult losses not finishing games," stated Chargers head coach Mike McCoy.

Some call it divine intervention when Rivers connected with Ajirotutu, just his second reception of the season. Ajirotutu two months to the day was given another chance to play and is making the most of it. You may have seen him conditioning himself running the stairs at the SD Convention Center waiting for that phone to ring, which it did from Rivers recommendation. Number #16 of the Chargers is making a name for himself, which by the way means "GOD has done this".

With those eight lead changes in the game, seven in the second half, this was a gutsy comeback for the Chargers on the road. They never quit.

San Diego scored 17-points in the final quarter against a team that had given up 20 points in the fourth quarter to their opponents all season.

After Kansas City lost their two best pass rushers (20 sacks combined) to injuries Tamba Hali (ankle) and Justin Houston (elbow) Rivers pinned his ears back throwing the ball accurately, getting sacked only once late in the game on a DB blitz.

Rivers playing at an uncanny level completed 27-of-39, 392-yards, three touchdowns, no interceptions with a QB rating of 127.3

Recognizing two-deep zone coverage on the game winning play, the signal caller checked off twice until he saw two-deep man coverage and took advantage of it. The veteran threaded the needle on the TD pass putting it in a position that the receiver could only get, which "Tutu" did.

A great call by the coaches with great blocking, a great pass, and a great catch.

Running back Danny Woodhead was key in the game especially on the winning drive catching two passes then getting out of bounds stopping the clock. He scored two touchdowns in the contest, one rushing, one receiving.

Defensive coordinator John Pagano threw a lot of looks at the KC offense. Defensive back Shareece Wright in a maligned secondary worked his way through a sloppy beginning making a couple key plays in the second half. DL Kendall Reyes sacked the QB on the last play, a fitting end, giving the team a total of three sacks for the game.

Rookie linebacker Manti Te'o had his best performance of the season.

The Chargers made the plays they needed to make.

In his first AFC West Divisional win, Head Coach McCoy upbeat and very pleased with his team's performance said, "It's a big team win. We just kept fighting. This was going to be a street fight."

"It's a positive step in the right direction, but we have a long way to go. There is a lot of football left and we are moving on to the Bengals this week."

The Bolts host the Cincinnati Bengals Sunday at Qualcomm Stadium Kickoff is at 1:25 p.m.

are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county
recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same

If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code.
