On Saturday, May 3, the Kiwanis Clubs in San Diego County will send their representatives to participate at Rady Children's Hospital in the annual Miracle Mile of Quarters (MMQ). The Event starts at 8 a.m., runs through noon, and involves youngsters from Kiwanis Sponsored Youth Organizations, Key Clubs, Circle "K" Clubs, and newly created "Open Class" which includes youths from any Organization such as Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts.

The 50 teams of youngsters will be issued 2000 quarters for each team. They have three hours to complete their designs on one mile of plush red carpet placed in front of Rady Children's Hospital. At past events approximately 350 youngsters participated and 60 or more Kiwanians assisted in judging, feeding the youngsters and over seeing their activities.

The participants are graded on the following: Theme/Content Style, Creativity, Movement/focal Point/ Composition and Craftsmanship. Each San Diego County Kiwanis Club bring quarters to be used in normally totaling $25,000 in quarters, checks or cash to benefit Rady Children's Hospital. Plaques will be handed out to the winners and three places will be awarded each Youth Organizations winner.

The Alpine Kiwanis Club brought $8,000 in quarters in 2013, and will repeat that this year. Later in the year the Kiwanis Club of Alpine will also donate half of the proceeds from "The Alpine Bike Challenge" being held on April 26 in Alpine. To date the Kiwanis Club of Alpine has donated more than $800,000 to Rady Children's Hospital with funds raised by their MMQ Golf Tournament and the Alpine Bike Challenge.

Art made out of quarters

Kids will participate in craft activities to make stuffed dolls so children can show the doctor where their pain is, and also send letters to our troops. The clubs also put on a pancake breakfast for the kids. Tours of Rady Children's Hospital are available during the MMQ.

At the MMQ Music will be provided and there is free parking at Rady Children's Hospital's and the Ronald McDonald's parking garages which are directly across the street from Rady Children's Hospital. The Public is invited to join in this wonderful event to benefit Rady Children's Hospital.

Lakeside Skate Park

Professional skate boarder Tony Hawk and members of the Birdhouse Skate Team skated the new Lakeside Skate Park on April 16. Hawk and skaters tested the facility for any needed corrections. The skate park, which is not open to the public yet, is a state of the art skate facility of professional quality. The Tony Hawk Foundation funded a grant for $5,000, the only grant for that year. A grant from the Hawk foundation gives the park credibility.

The Lakeside Skate Park will hold a soft opening April 25 at 3 p.m. including a ribbon cutting with Diane Jacob and the San Diego Department of Parks and Recreation. The Five year projects Grand Opening is scheduled for June 14.

Anita Real-Castro and Congressman Duncan Hunters representative Michael Harrison.

New Postmaster

Family, friends and dignitaries gathered at the Lakeside Post Office on April 18 for the installation ceremony for Anita Real-Castro the first Latino Postmaster.

Real-Castro began her career in 1994 as a letter carrier at the South Eastern Post Office where she said she learned to deal with dogs, cats and ducks on her route. In 2000 she participated in the associate Supervisors Program. Upon graduation Real-Castro became supervisor at the Chula Vista Post Office. From Chula Vista she moved to the district level and then decided to go back into operations in El Cajon until "I was blessed one more time with the Lakeside Post Office". Real-Castro thanked everyone who had a part in her career achievements.

This Weekend Is National Prescription Drug Take-Back Day

On Saturday, April 26, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. the El Cajon Police Department, working in conjunction with the Drug Enforcement Administration, will be hosting a prescription drug drop off site in the parking lot of their police station, located at 100 Civic Center Way. Baseball host families needed for upcoming season

San Diego Force needs your help and support! The San Diego force is one of the premier Semi-Pro teams not only in San Diego, but the Country. The Force has won five Championships in the last six years, Qualified for the World Series 6 times and have sent over 80 baseball players to play Professional baseball.

This is a great opportunity!

We need families that would like to host a San Diego Force Baseball player for the summer, usually May 25 to August 1.

We are actively seeking a place for our players to stay while playing in San Diego on one of the top summer college baseball team. Many of the players come from other parts of the country and have never been to our beautiful city and meet our friendly and kind residents.

Do you have a room, want to earn extra income - $100 to $500 per month?

A host family is expected to provide a comfortable, clean room that the player can live in, have a place for his belongings, and use of bathroom facilities. The players are required to live under your house rules and to be responsible and respectful of you and your family.

Most players work or go to summer school and play baseball.

If you are interested in becoming a host family, please contact the office to discuss the details and how the program works.

Visit our website: www.sdforcebaseball.com click on the right hand site button, "Host Families" for details or call Mrs. Mohr, Director of Housing at (858) 344-4825 or the Office (619) 204-0167.

I am on a roll so don't rock my boat

by Dr. Rev. James L. Snyder

Have you ever had one of those weeks where everything went exactly as planned? Well, neither have I, except for last week. I do not know what was going on last week, all I know is everything went according to plan. My plan, that is. I was on a roll.

In a sense, that worries me. I am not accustomed to having my week work out according to my plans. Normally, if I can get 50 percent of my plans accomplished in a week, I am doing pretty good. Last week was one of those weeks, which may never repeat itself ever again, I am sorry to say. Or, am I sorry?

In contrast, the week before it was horrendous.

This week was different in every respect. I enjoyed this week, particularly the fact that I got all my "to-do-list" accomplished and by early Friday afternoon, I had nothing to do.

Nothing to do!

Then a thought wrestled my brain to the mat. What if the Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage found out I had finished all my work and had nothing to do?

When I thought about this, one thought that was predominant was that it is a good thing when I do NOT finish everything in a week. Then,

I have the excuse that I have too much to do to delve into the "honey-do-list" of which my wife is most famous.

I believe this "honey-do-list" is something mothers pass on to their daughters. It is part of the women's secret society that does not permit any intrusion from the non-female counterpart. It is the reason wives prefer their husbands call them the secret name, "Honey." Whenever the husband uses this term of endearment the wife smiles one of those romantic smiles that her husband has no idea what is behind that smile.

It has taken me a long time to come to this point of understanding. While, it is very gratifying to get your work for the week done ahead of schedule, it creates an opportunity for the intrusion of that infamous "honey-do-list." This list has no end to it.

When you accomplish one item on the "honey-do-list," three other items appear automatically. It is virtually impossible to finish everything on that list. It is part of the wife's secret society no man can penetrate.

Being on such a good roll in any given week is not the grand thing I thought it was. I am now content to have my desk piled high with unfinished work at the end of each week.

Since I had a little bit of time on my hands, I read what good old King Solomon, the wisest man that ever lived, thought along these lines. "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest" (Ecclesiastes 9:10).

If I do not use my time to the best of my ability, the probabilities are pretty high somebody will intrude and use that time for some other use.

Laughter is the Best Medicine

A retiree's last trip to Publix Supermarket

Yesterday I was at the Villages (an area north of Orlando full of retirees) Publix (our large food chain in Florida) buying a large bag of Purina dog chow for my loyal pet, Owen, the Wonder Dog and was in the check-out line when a woman behind me asked if I had a dog.

What did she think I had an elephant?

So because I'm retired and have little to do, on impulse, I told her that no, I didn't have a dog, I was starting the Purina Diet again.

I added that I probably shouldn't, because I ended up in the hospital last time, but that I'd lost 50 pounds before I awakened in an intensive care ward with tubes coming out of most of my orifices and IVs in both arms.

I told her that it was essentially a Perfect Diet and that the way that it works is, to load your pants pockets with Purina Nuggets and simply eat one or two every time you feel hungry.

The food is nutritionally complete, (certified), so it works well and I was going to try it again.

(I have to mention here that practically everyone in line was now enthralled with my story.)

Horrified, she asked if I ended up in intensive care because the dog food poisoned me?

I told her no, I had stopped to pee on a fire hydrant and a car hit me.

I thought the guy behind her was going to have a heart attack he was laughing so hard.

Publix won't let me shop there anymore.

Better watch what you ask retired people. They have all the time in the World to think of crazy things to say.

Dear Dr. Luauna — Sadness behind the scene

Dear Readers,

Sometimes you see someone who appears to have it all together on the outside, a successful business owner. He looks happy, has a great smile and speaks kindly to those around him on a day to day basis. What you cannot see is the start of the man's day, early in the morning when he wakes up with shots of whiskey and tequila. Then an hour later, beer, he continues every hour with wine, then more tequila and beer until he ends the day; a repeat of four months of drunken misery.

He cannot seem to understand why 27 years of marriage has ended and he has no hope for tomorrow. All he does is try to make it through the day, go to work and numb the pain with alcohol. It seems like no one knows and no one cares. But God is watching and He loves the man so much, He sends a lifeline out to him who is drowning in a sea of despair.

The Lord creates Divine Appointments! A Christian is praying fervently for the broken souls in their town to be rescued from the darkness of sin and destruction, for them to receive Jesus and His promise of salvation and deliverance. Not just to pray for the people, but to put the gospel into action. God intersects these two lives, placing them in the same location at the same time. The Christian reaches out to the business man for what seems like a business deal but she looks for the opportunity to bring Jesus to him. A faithful servant who was herself saved from alcohol and the background of alcoholic parents. Six months later the man's life is completely changed, he is free and stands to testify how the love of Jesus set him free.

Or the young girl of 15 years old who goes to Mission Beach to spend Easter with her family; they set up their tents, tables, chairs and blankets early and spend the day there. When right next to them on the grass, later that afternoon, a tall, blue flag with the word, "Church," is set up. People are everywhere on the beach, in the grass when the Christians begin singing and the preaching and testifying begins. The girl hears the testimonies of someone who was suicidal, but they found Christ, others looking for answers, or being destroyed by drugs. She comes over, sits down with her brother and grandma to listen, when a man stands and says he was violated as a young boy of 11 years old, little did anyone know the young girl was suicidal because she was sexually abused by her mother's boyfriend, starting when she was 8 years old. But God knew, He loves the young girl so much, He creates another Divine Appointment sending the gospel to meet her on the beach.

Tears welled up in her eyes; she sat and listened to how Jesus saved the man out of the tragedies in his life. She came forward for prayer to receive Jesus with tears, boldly standing, desperately looking for help. Her mother, grandmother, and brother received Christ that day as well.

The heartbeat of Jesus is to reach the lost. Luke 19:10; For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost. This is the sole purpose of our ministry, A Touch From Above. Once I was lost, when Jesus came to seek me out. I looked like I had it all together on the outside, but inside, I was a mess filled with brokenness, and I did not think anyone knew or cared, but Jesus did. I am forever grateful to the faithful Christian who the Lord put in my path.

MESSAGE FROM YOUR LAKESIDE CHAMBER PRESIDENT — NEIL RODVOLD

Neil Rodvold in last year's Alpine Western Days Parade.

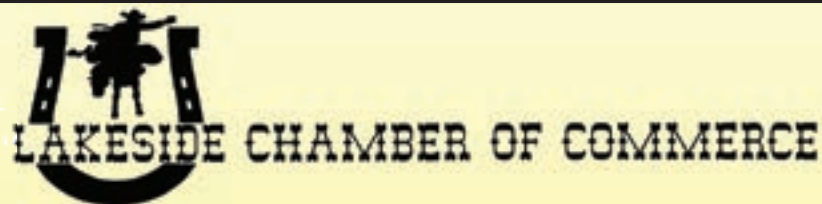

Spring is in the air. The sun is out longer and the Lakeside Parade and Lakeside Rodeo are getting ready to kick off. As the Lakeside Chamber President I am honored to take part in this year's festivities. This Parade and Rodeo will be the biggest ever. I love the feeling of traveling down the Parade route waving and smiling at all the kids and families from Lakeside. Each year you see a lot of familiar faces. Neighbors, coworkers, and families your kids play sports with, past classmates, and many customers. It is a great feeling as people holler at you by name as you drive by. This Parade is a huge event but it always gives you that small down home family town we have all grown to love.

2014 is a big year in Lakeside. The Lakeside Chamber of Commerce would like to put out a huge congratulations to the El Capitan Stadium Association on celebrating their 50th year of the Rodeo. The Rodeo is what has put Lakeside on the map. People from all over the United States come to compete and attend the Lakeside Rodeo. There will be 4 shows at the Rodeo and you will not want to miss any of them.

Start your weekend off at the Friday evening Rodeo. Wake up Saturday morning and stake out your favorite spot along the Parade route along Woodside Ave and Maine Ave. After the Parade you can go to the Saturday afternoon Rodeo or the Saturday evening Rodeo. Wake up Sunday morning eat breakfast at your favorite Lakeside restaurant and go see the last Rodeo on Sunday afternoon.

It has been an honor being the Lakeside Chamber of Commerce President these last two years and I hope you all enjoy this year's Lakeside Parade and Rodeo.

Sincerely,
Neil Rodvold

Citizen of the Year - Bonnie La Chappa

Bonnie LaChappa

The Lakeside Chamber of Commerce is proud to introduce to you our Harry J. Spence, Citizen of the Year 2013, Bonnie LaChappa.

Bonnie's philosophy is that giving back to our community is a sound investment for future generations. Her love for Lakeside is apparent in everything she does.

Bonnie is a lifelong Lakeside resident, serves on the board of directors for the Lakeside River

Park Conservancy, and is an elected official of the Lakeside School Board District, currently serving a second term. Bonnie served on the board of directors for the Lakeside Chamber of Commerce, from 7/1/2006 to 7/1/2012. In July of 2013, Bonnie rejoined the Chamber Board and is currently a Director of the Lakeside Chamber of Commerce.

Bonnie was previously a Community Outreach Specialist for Barona Resort & Casino, and prior to that, a Gaming Compliance Officer. In her current position as a Council Member of the Barona Band of Mission Indians, her primary role is to provide leadership along with her fellow Tribal officials and set policies and rules on matters of importance to the Tribe.

Bonnie received Woman of the Year in 2007 from Assemblyman Joel Anderson.

Bonnie has helped direct major charitable contributions to El Capitan High School, Grossmont Hospital Foundation, Mothers Against Drunk Driving, Fresh Start Surgical Gifts, Lakeside River Park Conservancy, and Lakeside Union School District.

She has worked to make youth programs a top priority for the Tribe, serving as the Vice Chairman of the Barona Parent Recreation Committee, as well as the Advisory Committee for MADD's Underage Drinking program.

Bonnie wholeheartedly believes that parent involvement directly affects our children's success in school and that teachers, administrators, and elected school board members must be fully committed to encouraging and supporting such involvement.

Bonnie has been actively involved in schools, serving 11 years on Lindo Park Elementary's PTA, 6 years on Tierra Del Sol Middle School's PTSA, and currently on El Capitan High's PTSA and Class of 2013 parent booster.

Thank you Bonnie for all you do for Lakeside!

Quality you can taste.®

Lakeside's 49th Western Day Parade Grand Marshal

Don Hickie has been a member of the El Capitan Stadium Association for 33 years and now serves as its president. — Sandy Huffaker

The Lakeside Chamber of Commerce is proud to honor the 50th anniversary of the Lakeside Rodeo as the Grand Marshal of our 49th annual Western Days Parade. For 50 years, the El Capitan Stadium Association has honored Lakeside's Western Legacy.

In 1964 a group of parents got together to figure out a way to build a lighted football field and as a result the El Capitan Stadium Association was formed. That first rodeo was held in a makeshift arena, on a vacant lot, with temporary seating and chutes. It was such a success that the Association decided to keep doing it as long as they had a location to put it on. In 1969, Mrs. Marion Carlson graciously donated 8 acres of vacant land to the group. That land is where the current Lakeside Rodeo Arena is located. Over the years many things have changed on the rodeo grounds and in the Stadium Association, but one thing remains the same; supporting the Youth of Lakeside. Hundreds of thousands of dollars have been given back to our youth; hundreds of thousands of volunteer hours of time and energy have been devoted to Lakeside by the members of the Stadium Association.

Representing this group today is Don Hickie. Don has been an active member of the Lakeside community for the past 38 years. He immediately began his community involvement by joining Toyon 4-H, the Lakeside Rodeo and the Lakeside Optimist Club. He has remained as a member of the rodeo association and Optimist Club ever since. Other achievements include Scout Master of Lakeside Troop 45, 4 years as President of the East County Junior Fair and 2+ years as President of the Lakeside Chamber of Commerce. He was recently awarded, 2013 Good Scout of the Year, by the Boy Scouts of America, San Diego-Imperial Council. Don has always been interested in any activity that helps to promote the youth of Lakeside.

The El Capitan Stadium Association is a totally volunteer group of concerned citizens, just like you, who are willing to dedicate a few hours and labor at the grounds to ensure that the Youth of Lakeside receive every advantage possible for a bright future in education, sports, the arts, social and community groups.

We are sure you would agree they create a positive impact on Lakeside.

Thank you El Capitan Stadium Association and here's to 50 more years! See you at the Rodeo!

Lakeside Rodeo — 50 years of giving back

Rodeo is a sporting event that pairs man and beast in what is often a very physical contest. For the animal it is a natural environment where he tests his limits against any force of nature or man. For the contestant it is a choice to test his limits against the unknown. At the Annual Lakeside Rodeo they come together in this arena as opposed to the corral, the ranch or the plains. Welcome to the Lakeside Rodeo Arena, with its long and varied history and its undisputable value to the "Youth of Lakeside."

It all started... on July 5 of 1920 when the first rodeo was actually held in Lakeside. Organized by resident Bill Kuhner, it was held just south of Lindo Lake in a makeshift arena. For several years there was no rodeo, but it returned to Lakeside in 1933, when the "Lakeside Rodeo Association" was formed. The rodeo was moved to an area west of what is now Channel Road, where the organizers built a grandstand, chutes and fences within the days prior to the event, then had to take it all down after the event... only to put it back up for the next rodeo. The Rodeo was held infrequently throughout the next several years, moving to several locations.

Ceremony at rodeo.

El Capitan Stadium Association is created...

In the mid 1960's a group of parents were trying to organize fundraisers to build a lighted football stadium for the El Capitan High School. The parents of students attending, or about to enter the high school, wanted to make sure that the school provided the same level of services as the other schools within the growing district and, with the district building another high school at that time, money was just not available to provide sports facilities for the students of El Capitan High. The totally volunteer group of parents, school administrator/teachers and community leaders, organizing themselves under the title of "El Capitan Stadium Association," eventually met with a long time resident cowboy of Lakeside, Ben Bruton, who suggested once again putting on a rodeo for a fundraiser.

...And Rodeo became an Annual event! The first rodeo for the newly formed Stadium Association was held in the spring of 1964. There were no rodeo grounds, so Ben found temporary seating, chutes as well as fencing and put on a rodeo in a vacant field much like it was done in the past. The event was successful enough that the Stadium Association decided that they could do this every year as long as they had a place to hold the event. In 1966 the El Capitan Stadium Association was formally incorporated as a "not for profit" organization.

An incredible gift to the youth of Lakeside...

In December of 1969, Mrs. Marion Carlson approached the organization and gifted 8 acres of vacant land, the current site of the Rodeo facility, to the group for fundraising for Youth and to hold the Rodeo.

Through the years, members (volunteers) left and new members (volunteers) joined, but the group remained focused and completed the building of the football field, lighting, bleachers and concession stands for the High School. Along with the school improvements, the group started working on building the Lakeside Rodeo Arena as a permanent fixture in the community. During that time, the Stadium Association began the annual leasing of a portion of the rodeo land to the Grossmont Union School District to allow El Capitan High School to build and maintain an Agricultural Department in East County and in 2012 Grossmont Union School District gained ownership of that area to remodel and proudly create an outstanding Agricultural education center.

The 1980's were busy for the Stadium Association. The Eastern San Diego County Junior Fair had been held for decades at Gillespie Field, but was asked to relocate. The Fair Board and The Stadium Association got together and went to the Grossmont Union School District, where they asked to lease a piece of land directly behind the now existing Rodeo Grounds, next to the track. That lease was fully granted to the Stadium Association and then the Association sub-let to the Fair Board for the "Jr. Fair" to be held on-site each year. The annual "Jr Fair" is the gateway to the San Diego County Fair for livestock and Home Arts Youth Exhibitors.

In the late 1980's the El Capitan Stadium Association felt that the high school was not the only entity in the community that needed their help. The Association changed their Constitution to benefit the "Youth of Lakeside." To date, there is probably not a Youth organization or school within Lakeside's boundaries that has not enjoyed a substantial financial support from the Association. Youth sports has acquired improvements to their individual fields, equipment and outfitting in uniforms of their teams. The members assisted the Eastern San Diego County Jr. Fair in building their current facility and each year we continue to financially participate in the Fair auction to help the FFA and 4-H participants sell their individual projects.

Current donations

Fiscal year April 2013 to January, 2014 the ECSA recorded $104,000 in monetary donations to the Youth to date. In addition, ECSA provides over $20,000 in annual scholarships to graduating seniors and encouragement scholarships to eighth grade students to keep them focused on completing their education. Special needs summer programs are funded as are playgrounds at schools, gardens grown by students and desperately needed text books the District cannot afford. Reading Is Fundamental book giveaway, Our Town, Every 15 Seconds, journalism classes, auto mechanics, drafting, computers and fiber networks along with printers, Breakfast with Santa, Boy Scouts, student leadership and countless other needs are met by the Association.

Today's membership

Of the original Association members, only Jodi Hostetter Bruton (Hugo, OK) and Jimmy Rymer (Julia, CA), remain.

Jimmy still participates and donates his time each year as Santa for the Annual Breakfast with Santa celebration. The majority of today's members have been active over 20 years and new members are always encouraged to join.

After 50 years, the Association proudly remains a totally volunteer group of concerned citizens who are willing to consistently dedicate a hours and labor at the grounds to raise funds and to ensure that the Youth of Lakeside receive every advantage possible for a bright future in education, sports, the arts, as well as social and community groups.

Take a break with a Blu-Ray or DVD

Reviews by Diana Saenger

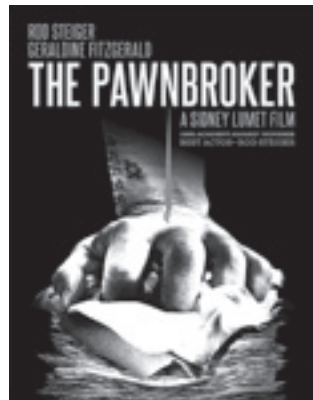

Cool weather or warm, it's no secret the hard-working public needs down time. What better way than to settle into a comfy chair and overdose on DVDs. Here are a few new ones worth considering for young & old.

Norma Rae 35th Anniversary 35th Blu-ray

In an Oscar-winning performance, Sally Field is unforgettable as Norma Rae, the Southern millworker who revolutionizes a small town and discovers a power in herself she never knew she had. Under the guidance of a New York unionizer (Ron Leibman) and with increasing courage and determination, Norma Rae organizes her fellow factory workers to fight for better conditions and wages. Based on a true story and co-starring Beau Bridges, Norma Rae is the mesmerizing tale of a modern-day heroine. With four Academy Awards nominations including "Best Picture," Norma Rae has stood the test of time - remaining a collection staple more than 35 years since its release. Many bonus items on this Blu-ray. Rated "PG" 20th Century Fox.

The Pawnbroker Blu-ray, DVD

Directed by Academy-Award®-winner (Honorary Award 2005) Sidney Lumet released the film in 1964. It was the first cinematic exploration of the darkest memories and feelings of a Holocaust survivor.

Newly remastered and filmed in stark black and white, it was also the first film approved by the Production Code that contained nudity. Rod Steiger earned a 1965 Best Actor Oscar nomination for his stunning performance as Sol Nazerman, a survivor of a WWII Nazi death camp where his wife, parents and children were murdered. His soul robbed of hope; he takes refuge in misery and a bitter condemnation of humanity while managing a Harlem pawnshop subjected to an endless parade of prostitutes, pimps and thieves. The Pawnbroker is an historic piece of filmmaking. Unrated Cut of Paranormal Activity: The Marked Ones - Blu-Ray, DVD, VOD

geance returns in the scariest Paranormal yet in this new horrifying urban thriller on Blu-ray Combo. 'Transcendence' — bring paper to map out the plot points

by James Colt Harrison

Some say Johnny Depp can do no wrong, but he is best doing his outrageous characters than he is playing a man who is not over-the-top. In the new Warner Bros.' science fiction film Transcendence he quietly plays Dr. Will Caster, a man renowned for his experiments with artificial intelligence and the creation of a world where he will make computers overtake the abilities of the human brain.

Far-fetched, you say? Not to Dr. Caster. Even today robots have been developed that equal or transcend the capabilities of the human body. This artificial intelligence already exists. Caster wants to take it another step into the future.

Not being scientifically oriented, and certainly not fluent in computer-eze, this writer is wondering if only graduates of MIT School of Outer Space will fully grasp what in the world is happening on the big IMAX screen. Confused by words with more than three syllables, tossed out by the mumbo jumbo of inner space, outer space, artificial intelligence vending machines, and break-throughs transferring all of mankind's knowledge, causes one to get knots in the tummy. As does the previous sentence.

Dr. Caster, his wife Evelyn (Rebecca Hall) and best friend Neurobiologist Max Waters (Paul Bettany) had astonished the scientific world five years earlier with their experiments that led to the creation of a sentient computer capable of possessing all of the world's intelligence.

Now an opposing group of anti-technology crackpots is determined to halt any progress. If there were no opposition, how could there be immense explosions and machine-gunning maniacs to stop everything dead in its tracks? The glass-shattering in the ultra modern offices (as designed by production designer Chris Seagers) is spectacular and gratifying to destructionists. Destroy! Destroy! Young boys who like to pull wings off flies will love these exciting sequences.

Morgan Freeman, one of our favorite actors, seemingly just stopped in after lunch to film his miniscule scenes as Max's mentor, Professor Taggart. He mills about and pops up every now and then to make a sage comment or two. Come to think of it, a robot could have played his part. Such a waste!

The film goes into overdrive as the climax approaches, and Johnny Depp goes where no man has ever gone (No, not to Star Trek). There will be no spoilers here, but you will have to go see the film for yourself. Take a pad of paper with you to map out the plot points. Or better yet, bring a computer that does everything for you. Sci-fi fans will go into artificial throes of ecstasy.

Five vital reasons for security pets on car rides

Americans have been buckling up for years, and for good reason. The proper use of lap and shoulder belts has been shown to reduce the risk of fatal injury to front seat car occupants by 45 percent, while reducing their risk of moderate to critical injury by 50 percent. Further research has shown that unbelted rear seat passengers increase the death rate of front seat passengers by up to 5 times.

With these facts in mind, we take care to make sure that all of our family members are safe and secure during car travel. Or . . . do we?

While we strap our kids and ourselves in snugly, we may be forgetting our four-legged family members. Many people believe that securing their pets in the car is unnecessary for short trips around town, and don't think twice about traveling with unsecured pets to the bank, the pet store or the dog park. However, these short and sweet trips are when most accidents occur.

With pet travel on the rise, more and more dogs and cats are at risk of suffering severe injuries during car trips. To help bring awareness to this problem, we've come up with five important reasons for securing your pet in the car.

1. Driver distraction
Even the most well-behaved pet travelers can get overly excited or frightened while riding in a car. Frightened or excited pets may jump into the front seat, lunge out of windows, cry or bark incessantly, or attempt to climb on the driver. Multiple pet travelers may choose an inopportune moment for a fight or a rambunctious play session. Any one of these scenarios can cause the driver to become distracted, which can dramatically increase the chances of an accident.

2. Injury during a car ride

Even in situations where an accident does not occur, pets who are allowed to roam free in the car can become injured in a variety of ways. If the car swerves or stops suddenly, they may tumble off seats, be thrown across the car, or be hit by unsecured objects. A curious or comfort-seeking cat may crawl into a tight space and get stuck. Dogs who stick their heads or paws out the window risk injury from passing cars, or may be tempted to try and jump out if something outside the car piques their interest.

3. Injury during a crash

During a crash, unsecured pets can be thrown against windshields or out of windows, and those riding on their parents' laps can be seriously injured by deployed airbags.

4. Potential injury to other passengers

Even at just 30 miles per hour, the impact from a car crash can turn a 60-pound dog into dangerous projectile wielding 2700 pounds of force, which could have devastating consequences for both the pet and anyone else rising in the car.

5. Loss or injury after an accident

While most safety concerns revolve around what happens during a car crash, few people consider the dangers posed in the aftermath of an accident. Unsecured pets that are frightened and disoriented may run out into traffic, run away entirely, or become aggressive with police or paramedics who are trying to help with a rescue.

Current pet auto safety devices are comfortable, affordable, and easy to use. There are plenty of options available. Pet travel crates and kennels are a traditional option that keep pets calm and secure. Vehicle pet barriers restrict pets to either the cargo area or back seat. And pet safety belts secure pets firmly to the seat, where they can still look out the window to their hearts' content.

There are numerous options available for securing your pet during car travel. Whichever product you choose, know that you're investing wisely in your pet's safety and well-being.
