Honored Flight Board members address Alpine Kiwanis

Gary Roehm, Monte Montemarano and Dave Smith inform Alpine Kiwanis about the Honor Flight program for Veterans. Photo Credit: Diana Saenger

Honor Flight Chairman and Co-founder Dave Smith, Secretary Gary Roehm and "Monte" Montemarano, HFSD Veteran-Ambassador Guest Speaker, addressed the Alpine Kiwanis at their Saturday, Feb. 8 meeting.

Smith showed a film that highlighted how the program works, where the Veterans go in Washington D.C. at no charge to them and how anyone can help keep the program going.

Last December's Honor Flight was full of WWII Veterans that were so honored most could only cry. There was nearly 2,000 San Diegans waiting in the baggage area of the San Diego Airport when the flight came in.

The next Honor Flight has been sponsored and will leave San Diego May 14, 2014.

Montemarano is dedicated to speaking at events to fund-raise for flights and to date he has helped raise ¾ of a million dollars.

SDG&E's modification of restrictions on work hours on Main Avenue undergrounding project in order to shorten the duration of construction. Representative Don Parent and project manager Ed Snow from SDG&E explained the current work hours of 9 a.m. through 3:30 p.m. is not what SDG&E asked for, it's the county's permit hours.

The Lakeside Chamber of Commerce and business owners along Main Avenue are in support of extended work hours, which would result in an earlier completion date.

The Lakeside Planning Group passed a motion to extend work hours from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. to 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. along with a letter from SDG&E guaranteeing SDG&E will not work on the project during Lakeside Western Days Parade and events related to the rodeo that would affect Main Avenue.

Project manager Ed Snow said the project would be completed by June with the newly extended hours.

Youth of The Year Award nominations now being accepted

The City of El Cajon Teen Coalition would like to recognize the City's youth for making a difference in our community! If you see, hear, or know of a youth who has gone the extra mile to improve the quality of life in our community, please take this opportunity to acknowledge and reward that effort. "The Success of Tomorrow...Depends on the Youth of Today!"

How Does This Work? The City of El Cajon Teen Coalition presents a "Youth of the Year" Award to recognize those who go above and beyond in serving their community through their leadership abilities and/or community service in El Cajon. Leadership can be defined as those individuals who consistently facilitate a team vision and help guide others towards success. Community service can be defined as work that improves the community through the value and impact of those served. Final selections will be based on dedication, commitment beyond what may be required by school, and demonstrated impact of those served.

Two youth will be awarded - one currently at the middle school level (grades 6th - 8th) and one currently at the high school level (grades 9th - 12th).

- Youth who are City of El Cajon residents.
- Youth will be recognized and awarded for service accomplished during 2013.
- Current Teen Coalition members are not eligible for this award.

Note: Recognized work by youth is based on their personal merits and contributions. It is not intended to be limited to their school involvement.

Nomination and selection process

Anyone may nominate a youth by completing the attached nomination form and returning it to the City of El Cajon Recreation Department. Nomination forms will only be accepted now through March 7, 2014. The City of El Cajon Teen Coalition will review applications and select finalists in each grade level category. Nominators of the finalists will also be invited to attend the March 19 Teen Coalition meeting to further discuss the accomplishments of youth they nominated with the Teen Coalition. The Teen Coalition will make their final selections and notify the awarded youth recipients and their nominators of further details by the first week in April.

Award presentation

Youth selected for this award will be presented with a City of El Cajon Teen Coalition "Youth of the Year" Award plaque and proclamation during an El Cajon City Council Meeting in April. A perpetual plaque will also be displayed in the lobby at City Hall, and press releases will go out showcasing award recipients. For more information, please contact the City of El Cajon Recreation Department, Attn: Teen Coalition, 200 Civic Center Way, El Cajon, CA 92020, or call (619) 441-1754.

What comes after that kiss?

by Dr. Rev. James L. Snyder

Quite a few, if not most put a whole lot of credence into a kiss. Much can be argued in favor of this philosophy, but not from me.

I grew up in a generation that never kissed on the first date. Sad to say, that idea went out with Noah and his ark and you can kiss that idea goodbye.

Nothing wrong with a kiss, if it is with the right person. It seems we are living in a culture where all anybody thinks about is kiss, kiss, kiss. So much so, that the average kiss is just that, average. Whatever happened to the romance factor behind the kiss?

I am one that is not given to hugging people let alone kissing them. I have friends in a certain church that believes in what they call, "A Holy Kiss." They take it from the Bible where it says that we are to greet one another with a holy kiss. As soon as I find out and understand what a holy kiss is, I might start doing it. But not until then and don't count on it.

I am one of those people that likes a warm friendly handshake. Such a handshake conveys all I really want to say at the moment. It is not that I am unfriendly and it is not that I do not have warm feelings about people. I just like to preserve "my space."

A kiss could mean a lot of things to different people. I see an advertisement on television all the time that says, "Every kiss begins with Kay." What does that really mean? Does everybody have to go to the Kay's jewelry store in order to kiss someone? Is that where kissing really begins? If so, please count me out.

A kiss should be something special and not thrown around like some dirty old rag. It should mean something to the people involved.

Some believe romance begins with a kiss. If that is so, I am out of the game.

So many people "kiss and tell" that I think there should be some kind of law enacted to prohibit this sort of activity. A kiss should be a private activity not to be shared with the whole world. When sharing such an activity with the whole world, it ceases to be romance and enters into the area of performance. And boy do I hate performance. Not just because I am a bad actor... Well, maybe it is just because I'm a bad actor.

Today kissing is so cavalier that it hardly means anything to anybody.

I still remember my first kiss.

I was in Bible school studying for the ministry where I met this girl. We had been dating two months before I realized we were dating. On many things, especially in the romantic arena, I am rather slow. At the end of our first "date," she surprised me by hugging me. I had never been hugged before. I did not know what to do with my arms. I did not know if I should stand there or if I should say something. At the time nothing really came to mind so I just stood there saying nothing.

The frightening thing about this first hug was I could not sleep all night long. I had no idea what it meant and I did not know what I was supposed to do. What would I say to this young lady when I met her the next day? How could I look her in the eyes?

I am not sure if I have ever gotten over that first hug after all these years. The thing I did not realize at the time was, every kiss begins with a hug. Forget Kay, whoever she is.

Then, the inevitable happened.

We had concluded our "date," and I took her over to the doorway of the dormitory where she lived. All of a sudden, at least from my perspective, she rose up on her tippy toes and kissed me right on the lips. Then she turned around and went away into the dorm, leaving me standing on the porch not knowing what happened or what to do next.

It was February and just a week away from Valentine's Day. I had my Valentine's Day present and my dilemma was, what do I now give her in return? What in the world could ever top a kiss?

Being a naïve young gentleman, I did not possess the resources to process this sort of problem. I had never bought anybody a Valentine's Day present in my life. What did they really look like?

After some soul-searching and wallet rumbling, I bought her a heart-shaped box of candy. When I presented it to her, she was thrilled and kissed me again. What do I have to do now? Do I buy her another box of candy?

The next few hours were rather foggy to me and even the next couple of days. By the end of Valentine's Day, I discovered I was engaged to be married and it all started with a hug.

The apostle Paul put it best when he wrote, "And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity" (1 Corinthians 13:13).

A kiss is an expression of love. It is not so much the kiss as what comes after that kiss; a relationship that gets better and better every year.

Dear Dr. Luauna — Don't be afraid to wait (part 2)

Surprised, that this handsome man would ask Beth out for dinner, she smiled and thought he must be speaking to someone else. He asked her if the following Friday night would be ok with her schedule. Beth still puzzled, wondered, "Why me and not the other beautiful younger women?"

Taking a deep breath, she accepted. At home later that afternoon, like every Sunday, she took care of her mother, she prepared lunch and made sure she was comfortable. Sitting with her, she shared how a handsome man asked her out for dinner. Her mother was excited. Of course, the questions of a mother, is he a Christian? How long has he been going to church? Beth tried to answer the best she could. Her mother was happy and said, "Let's pray." Asking God to protect her daughter, give wisdom, and grace when they go out for dinner.

Friday came faster than Beth could shake a stick. Not sure how to dress, she dressed up just a little bit as to not be over dressed. The knock on the door came; Beth opened the door, invited him in and introduced him to her mother. What a gentleman he was, he gently shook her hand, and asked if there was anything he could get for her before they left. "No," answered the mother, "Just take care of this precious woman of God."

Beth and the handsome man, sat down to dinner. He opened her door and pulled her chair out, Beth was surprised by his kindness. They both were nervous but within moments, they were laughing and talking back and forth. Before they knew it, time slipped away. Beth noticed her watch, it was already 10 pm, she said, "I am so sorry, I need to get home, my mother needs help getting everything ready for bed." He wasted no time; paid the check, left a nice tip, pulled her chair out and helped her with her jacket, and opened the car door. At home he walked her to the door, told Beth he had a wonderful time, and if he could please take her to dinner again. He gently gave her a hand shake, and a gentle hug, as he told her, "You should go inside and take care of your mother, she is waiting."

One dinner led to another and another. Beth was a great cook and a few of those dinners were made right at home. They all sat down including Beth's mother, something was happening in this amazing friendship. God was doing something special. The handsome man never violated the boundaries of Beth. Within a year, he asked her to marry him. She again was so surprised, and said to him, "I have had such a wonderful time with you. But I have to take care of my mother; she has no one but me." He smiled and said, "You didn't think I wanted you to leave your mother all alone?" He went on, "From the first date I knew you were the one I wanted to spend the rest of my life with. I built a small cottage for your mother to live with us. You can have some private time with her, and she will be right beside us in case she needs you." Today they have been married almost 6 years, they still attend the little church. Both love Jesus, and serve the Lord with all their heart.

Dear Readers, don't be afraid to wait, for God is always faithful to those who trust in Him. Don't settle for a hotdog when God has a steak. And that goes for you too mighty men of God. Jesus is watching and He knows just what you need in a mate. (Psalm 27:14)

Tips from The Skin Cancer Foundation

Achieving a healthy glow without tanning beds

As the temperature drops and winter lingers, women are seeking ways to warm up their dull winter skin. Taking a note from Hollywood A-listers, many are abandoning the fake-baked looks achieved from UV tanning in favor of a more natural glow. This is an important and timely shift, as research shows that melanoma incidence among young women ages 18-39 has jumped an alarming 800 percent in the past 40 years<sup>1</sup>. Additionally, there is evidence showing that just one indoor tanning session increases users' chances of developing melanoma by 20 percent, and each additional session during the same year boosts the risk almost another two percent.

This new trend of natural radiance means having youthful and refreshed skin, not wrinkles, age spots and a leathery appearance. "A glowing skin tone can be achieved through a healthy skincare and sun protection regimen," said Skin Cancer Foundation spokesperson Amy Forman Taub, MD. "Adopting sun safety is a great way to keep your skin looking youthful, and will help prevent future sun damage, which often presents itself in the form of premature skin aging."

To help brighten winter skin, Dr. Taub and The Skin Cancer Foundation offer these tips:

Protect against sun damage

Sun protection is a crucial tool in the battle against premature skin aging. More than 90 percent of the visible changes commonly attributed to skin aging are caused by the sun. Since UV damage is cumulative over a lifetime, it is something to be concerned about on a daily basis. The Skin Cancer Foundation recommends adopting a complete sun protection regimen that includes seeking shade, covering up with clothing (including a wide-brimmed hat and UV-blocking sunglasses) and wearing sunscreen daily with an SPF of 15 or higher, applying about one ounce (a shot glass full) to all exposed areas.

Shimmer like a pro

A proper skincare regimen is essential when working toward a healthy, glowing complexion. Follow this routine to help achieve glowing skin:

1. Start with a morning cleanse — Glowing skin starts with proper cleansing in the morning, and remember- it doesn't have to lather or foam to work. Many cleansing cloths, for instance, don't lather, yet take all the effort out of face washing.

2. Smooth on a serum — If using a serum, try one with Vitamin C, which has anti-aging benefits.

3. Apply moisturizer with sunscreen — Next, reach for a moisturizer with an SPF of 15 or higher.

4. Prime the skin — A primer creates a smooth canvas for makeup.

Go with your own glow
Through The Skin Cancer

Foundation's Go With Your Own Glow™ campaign, the Foundation strongly advocates embracing one's natural skin tone. The campaign encourages women to love and protect their skin, whatever its natural hue. For those who can't resist the bronzed look but won't sacrifice their health to achieve it, consider sunless (UV-free) tanners. They are available in many different formulations, including creams, lotions, gels, pump sprays, aerosols and wipes.

Laughter is the Best Medicine

No dogs allowed

A dog had followed his owner to school. His owner was a fourth grader at a public elementary school. However, when the bell rang, the dog sidled inside the building and made it all the way to the child's classroom before a teacher noticed and shooed him outside, closing the door behind him.

The dog sat down, whimpered and stared at the closed doors. Then God appeared beside the dog, patted his head, and said ...

'Don't feel bad fella' ... they won't let ME in either'.

'The Monuments Men' - a touching, courageous true life story

John Goodman, Frank Stokes, Bill Murray and George Clooney star in The Monuments Men

by Diana Saenger
In a world of huge technology where our most private information is everywhere, it's always surprising when a story the majority of us were unaware of hits the big screen. Such is the case with The Monuments Men, a true story directed by, co-written (with Grant Heslov) and starring George Clooney.

During WWII Hitler began to raid and empty European museums, castles and cathedrals of nearly 500 million historic and valuable art pieces to hide so after the war it would all be showcased in his own Fuhrer Museum. While trying to simultaneously liberate and protect Europe, the Allies, under the command of General Dwight D. Eisenhower, also wanted to safeguard Europe's art and culture within the realities of war. The Monuments Men formed as a special unit with the objective to save as much of Europe's material culture from Nazi destruction as possible.

When President Franklin D. Roosevelt approves a proposal by art historian Lt. Frank Stokes (Clooney) – who served in WWI to form a task force to rescue the 1000s of cultural art at risk, the journey is on. Stokes (portraying the real art historian George Stout) recruits his team, an eclectic group who agree to go into war zones to recover these treasures, but really have no idea what they are facing.

It was while reading the book by Robert M Edsel and Bret Witter that Clooney's producing partner, Grant Heslov, suggested this be their next feature film. Clooney saw this as way to recapture some of Hollywood's more focused era and reveal this incredible operation.

"There's a certain romance around these movies – The Great Escape, The Dirty Dozen, The Guns of Navarone, The Bridge on the River Kwai," Clooney said. "In those movies, you fell in love with the characters and the actors as much as the story. And we thought The Monuments Men was a great chance to cast interesting contemporary actors together for our version of that kind of movie – it's a fun and entertaining way to do it."

Although the motley crew goes through a short military training, they are somewhat taken aback when they reach the war zones. However each man puts everything they have on the line to fulfill this assignment – even their own life if need be.

The cast couldn't be better. Matt Damon plays James Granger (inspired by James Rorimer, who later became director of New York's Metropolitan Museum of Art). Bill Murray plays architect Richard Campbell inspired by Robert Posey who while embedded with Patton's Third Army during the war, discovered the salt mine at Altaussee where the Nazis had stashed the Ghent Altarpiece and the Bruges Madonna, among many other treasures.

John Goodman plays Walter Garfield, inspired by the real-life Monuments Man Walker Hancock, a renowned sculptor. Jean Dujardin takes on the role of Jean Claude Clermont, a French Jew who is an art dealer in Marseilles. "Downton Abbey's" Hugh Bonneville steps in to portray Donald Jeffries, a flawed man seeking a second chance.

Bob Balaban takes on the role of Preston Savitz. "Savitz is an intellectual, an art historian and a theatrical impresario," Savitz is inspired by Monuments Man Lincoln Kirstein, an American impresario, art connoisseur, author, and a major cultural figure in New York who co-founded the New York City Ballet. The last Monuments Man is Sam Epstein, played by Dimitri Leonidas. Epstein, not quite 19, is the only real soldier in the group. He's been recruited for his ability to drive and to speak German. The inspiration for Leonidas's character is Harry Ettlinger.

While on assignment Granger meets Claire Simone (Cate Blanchett), inspired by real life Rose Valland, an employee of the Jeu de Paume gallery in Paris. Never approving the removal of the treasures, she kept thorough records of where many of the famous paintings or sculptures were sent to. Blanchett is easily believable as Claire, even getting a little flirtatious with Granger who is kind but does not jeopardize his marriage.

In addition to learning just how many items the Germans confiscated and destroyed, there are some very touching scenes that really emphasize what these men sacrificed. One is in a camp where Campbell has just stepped into a rigged shower. The men had received some packages and his was a homemade CD from his family. While he went to the shower, Savitz puts it on the camp PA system. Water streams down Campbell's face as he listens to the words of "Have Yourself A Merry Little Christmas." Murray's exceptional facial expressions in the next few moments somberly portray deep sadness, inquiry, and introspection all at the same time. It's a moment the audience gets right in the heart.

In another scene, Stokes is addressing his men with a poignant speech, that for me, made the entire film worth seeing. "You can wipe out an entire generation, burn their homes to the ground and somehow they will find their way back. But if you destroy their history, their achievements, it's as if they never existed," Stokes says.

The Monuments Men has action, surprises, some humor and a lot of humanity. Composer Alexandre Desplat's rousing score heightens nearly every scene. I'm sorry to say the majority of the film critics did not like it. Maybe it just didn't have enough sex, drugs or gratuitous violence present in most movies today.

One critic commented; "It's like an over-the-hill gang variant on The Dirty Dozen, except not as much fun." Another said Clooney seemed to want to find a new perspective on something as big as World War II by looking at it from a small, specific point of view.

So what's wrong with a variation on The Dirty Dozen? The film had 12 major film nominations and won six of them. The Monuments Men is by far so much more than a "small, specific point of view."

It's stories like these, buried in the past, that when revealed strike a bit of awe, and in this case a pride in the heroic men who achieved this mission. I watched the film twice on two different occasions and both times heard many viewers praising it on the way out.

ABOUT THE MONUMENT MEN

The "Monuments Men," were a group of approximately 345 men and women from thirteen nations, most of whom volunteered for service in the newly created MFAA section during World War II. Many had expertise as museum directors, curators, art historians, artists, architects, and educators. Their job description was simple: to protect cultural treasures so far as war allowed. In the last year of the war, they tracked, located, and in the years that followed, returned more than five million artistic and cultural items stolen by Hitler and the Nazis. Their role in preserving cultural treasures was without precedent.

The Monuments Men remained in Europe for up to six years following the conclusion of fighting to oversee the complicated restitution of stolen works of art. During that time they played instrumental roles in rebuilding cultural life in the devastated countries of Europe by organizing temporary art exhibitions and musical concerts.

Robert M. Edsel, who founded and heads the Monuments Men Foundation, said so much is still missing. They could be anywhere, in your grandfather's attic, or hiding in plain sight. I'm thrilled that with the release of the movie, there will be a way for the public to help complete these heroes' mission. Call 1-866-WWII-ART and find out how you can help."

On the site, the "Journey of the Monuments Men" visitors can read about the history – from information about the real Monuments Men to the efforts they and others took to save landmark works during the war.

At SupportTheMonumentsMen.com, moviegoers can sign a virtual petition supporting the Monuments Men's efforts to preserve and protect great cultural works of art by encouraging members of Congress to honor the Monuments Men with the Congressional Gold Medal.

In addition, visitors will find a phone number – 1-866-WWII-ART – which will connect callers directly to the Monuments Men Foundation, where they can speak with a Monuments Men Foundation representative regarding the search for lost art.

The Monuments Men Experience, which will soon be constructed at The National World War II Museum, will be a permanent testament to these heroes' legacy. The Foundation has a lead role in the design of the exhibit and is responsible for gathering key artifacts that will be part of the display. Additionally, the Foundation is designing a traveling exhibition, which is an effective, economical way to reach national audiences. The Foundation is also creating a local community component for students of all ages.

'Aluminum Man' fun on course

by Debbie Norman

The 'Aluminum Man' triathlon began eight years ago by Brad Hawley to keep his kids, Nate and Jacob, together with life-time friends. The 'Aluminum Man' consists of three events, Golf, Bowling and Poker.

"These kids have been closer than brothers since elementary school," said Brad Hawley. "If one gets out of line, the others bring him back. So I felt it was best they stay together – even mandatory for them."

The kids are now men in their late 30's and have been meeting once a year at Cottonwood for eight years. It began when they graduated from college. Many of the men are now married and have families, making it difficult to get together like they once did.

Hawley picks up the boys in a 15-passenger van and drives them to each event. This keeps them safe so they can have a few drinks with their buddies, have fun and relax. Hawley gives each of them $500 in Brad Bucks. The Brad Bucks are used in making wagers of any type throughout the day. Then they are used for their final event, the poker game.

The group consisted of 12 members, but as they met new friends in college their list grew. Hawley keeps the yearly activity to 12. If one of the original members cannot make an event, then they pull in one of their newer buddies.

"These kids have all turned into really good men," said Hawley. "They all have great careers; patent attorney, doctor, engineer.... It's nice they can all get together and relax and have fun. We often refer to this event as a 'Can-a-thon.'"

The original group of 12 graduated from Valhalla High School. They now live in El Cajon, Alpine, Tierrasanta, Scripps Ranch, North County and other surrounding areas of San Diego. As kids, they played Roller Hockey in High School. "It was a good way for all of us to get together," said Nate Hawley.

"We usually play in the Fall, but everyone has families and the Fall rolled quickly into the holidays and now here we are. It's a great and glorious day!" said Mark Turner. "Next year we need to figure something out, being in our late 30's and running around the golf course like this, well we may need to change things."

"We love Cottonwood. This event isn't a standard affair and they have been great with us, very accommodating," said Ryan Vincent. "I did not go to high school with this group, but I was lucky enough to be introduced to this wonderful family about five years ago."

Each year the team selects a theme for their event. This year's theme was Seasons, so each member dressed for the theme. The event champion each year receives a special made trophy, which gets passed to the new champion each year.

Nick Farr (Abraham Lincoln) and Jared Quartuccio (George Washington) are proud of the fact they are two-time champions of this event. The champion this year is Ryan Vincent.

Good friends are hard to find and even harder to keep. Kudos to Brad Hawley for keeping these friendships alive and keeping them safe on their 'can-a-thon' day of fun.

ANY INFORMATION OBTAINED WILL BE USED FOR THAT PURPOSE. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. Under Title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, as amended, the City of El Cajon invites citizens to participate in the development of the FY 2014-2019 Five-Year Consolidated Plan and the FY 2014-2015 One Year Action Plan. The Five-Year Consolidated Plan consists of an analysis of the housing and community development needs, housing market analysis, strategic plan and annual action plan for addressing the needs. The One Year Action Plan consists of the proposed activities to be funded through both the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) and Home Investment Partnerships (HOME) programs. The CDBG funds are used for community development services and public facility improvements to benefit low and moderate income residents, and the HOME funds are used to assist in providing affordable housing opportunities.

Council will accept public input relative to the development of the Five-Year Consolidated Plan. Further, the City anticipates receiving approximately $1,118,322 in CDBG funds and approximately $397,163 in HOME funds for FY 2014-2015 (July 1, 2014 - June 30, 2015). Unallocated CDBG funds in the amount of $120,287 will also be made available. Council will consider taking action to tentatively allocate eligible projects and programs for community development and housing opportunities.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a public hearing will be held at 7:00 p.m. on Tuesday, February 25, 2014, in the City Council Chambers located at 200 Civic Center Way in El Cajon. The purpose of the public hearing is to provide El Cajon citizens with the opportunity to voice their opinions on, and participate in the development of the City's programs for use of the federal CDBG and HOME funds. This is the first of two public hearings to be held. The second public hearing is tentatively scheduled for April 22, 2014, at 3:00 p.m.

Public input is welcome and encouraged on the development of the Consolidated Plan and proposed use of these funds. Citizens may participate in written form prior to the public hearing or orally during the hearing. NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF
 OLIVER MYRON CLARK, AKA OLIVER CLARK, MYRON CLARK, OLIVER M. CLARK
CASE NO. 37-2014-00000697-PR-LA-CTL
ROA #: 1 (IMAGED FILE)

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of: OLIVER MYRON CLARK, AKA OLIVER CLARK, MYRON CLARK, OLIVER M. CLARK
 A Petition for Probate has been filed by ALDEN G. CLARK in the Superior Court of California, County of SAN DIEGO.
 The Petition for Probate requests that ALDEN G. CLARK be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.
 The Petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.
 A hearing on the petition will be held in this court on MAR 18 2014 at 11:00 A.M. in Dept.
 PC-1 located at 1409 4th Avenue, San Diego, CA 92101-3105 Central Division/Madge Bradley Building.
 If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.
 If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.
 Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.
 You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

Our Best Friends

Pet of the Week

Trotter, is my name, and I am an American Standard Rex Bunny. I am 11mo, and a neutered male. I will melt any heart when looking into my big brown eyes. I am such a lovable friendly bunny, with such a wonderful personality! I adore people, and would love to trot right into a new loving family that would be happy adopting me as their lifelong furbaby!! I am young enough to be house trained. I am easy to care for, just as easy as a cat or a dog!! Heck, I'll even walk on a leash!! My family had to give me up because they were moving, so here I am, but that doesn't mean I won't be happy being your new bunny-mate!! Hop on by to visit me so we can see if we are a match! #114 Neutered. Adoption fee $5.00

Be a responsible pet owner

Being a responsible pet owner is not an easy task. It takes a lot of time and effort to make sure your furry family members are well taken care of and happy. We'd like to share some of our favorite tips for keeping your dog safe and healthy:

- ID at All Times - The one certain thing in life is unpredictability. Hurricanes, earthquakes, fires, power outages, sudden illness, car crashes - any number of things can separate you from your beloved pal. Make sure he's always wearing ID (with current contact numbers) and is microchipped. And regularly check the ring or rivets fastening the tag to his collar. For more on collars and leashes, purchase Whole Dog Journal's ebook Guide to Collars and Leashes.

• Train Every Day (If Only For a Minute) - Dogs are hardwired to live in an orderly and cooperative “pack” environment. You can easily and peacefully underline your role - and your dog’s role - in the household by asking him to perform a few simple behaviors (sit, come, down), and rewarding him when he complies. This daily exercise reminds him that you are the leader. For more on training your dog in a positive way, purchase Whole Dog Journal’s ebook Positive Training Basics.

• Keep Them Slim, Keep Them Moving - There's

no doubt about it: Fat dogs are more prone to injury, illness, and mobility issues than their slimmer compatriots. Studies have shown that, on average, dogs who are slightly underweight live longer than overweight dogs. More food is not more love, no matter what your dog says. If you really love him, you will keep him slender.

For more on weight control and fitness, purchase Whole Dog Journal's ebook Weight and Fitness Handbook.
