Toro announces launch of Centennial Donation program

On the verge of celebrating its 100th anniversary, The Toro Company has long been committed to helping customers around the world care for their outdoor environments. At the same time, Toro has built a legacy of giving back to the communities where employees live and work. As Toro celebrates "A Century of Innovation" and "A Legacy of Caring," the company is proud to continue its support of communities with the launch of a Legacy Grant Program and Annual Product Donation Program.

The centennial Legacy Grant Program supports non-profit organizations in their efforts to beautify and preserve outdoor environments and enhance green spaces at home, work and play. Grants will also be made to organizations whose projects encourage and educate the public about the efficient use of water. The objective of the Legacy Grant Program is to provide funding for projects in these focus areas that will serve the community for years to come.

The centennial Annual Product Donation Program will continue to support organizations with equipment and irrigation donations that assist in maintaining their facilities and achieving impact in their communities, such as beautification of their outdoor landscapes or providing job-skills training.

In an effort for more effective collaboration with non-profits, Toro has launched its first electronic application form for both grant programs. The online application, and additional information, can be found on www.toro.com/community <<http://www.toro.com/community>>. Applications for both grant programs will be accepted through March 31, 2014, and are available to non-profit organizations located within 30 miles of a Toro community. The California qualifying list of Toro communities includes El Cajon and Riverside.

The Toro Company (NYSE: TTC) is a leading worldwide provider of innovative turf, landscape, rental and construction equipment, and irrigation and outdoor lighting solutions. With sales of more than $2 billion in fiscal 2013, Toro's global presence extends to more than 90 countries through strong relationships built on integrity and trust, constant innovation and a commitment to helping customers enrich the beauty, productivity and sustainability of the land. Since 1914, the company has built a tradition of excellence around a number of strong brands to help customers care for golf courses, sports fields, public green spaces, commercial and residential properties and agricultural fields. More information is available at www.toro.com <<http://www.toro.com>>.

Ramona author to introduce new book

Ramona Author Nora E. Milner will introduce her new novel, Flowers on Stone at Unicorn Books and Gifts, 738 Main St.; Ramona, CA on Saturday, March 29 from 3 to 5 p.m. Milner will be available to sign copies and discuss the new historical fiction.

Nora E. Milner will proudly donate 100 percent of the author's proceeds to the Neighborhood Crossfit Team participating in the Susan G. Komen 3-Day Walk for Breast Cancer Cure.

About Flowers on Stone
It is 1879, and a great dream is about to come true for France. It has been decided that a canal should be built between the Pacific and Atlantic Oceans in Panama. No one is more excited about the adventure than Charles de Corneau, a handsome, upper-class engineer who has no idea of the world he is about to be thrown into in just a few months. But first, he must somehow attempt to tame his wild desires for Monique de Chesgne, the beauty who has unwittingly drawn him into her soul.

After finally winning the battle for her affections, Charles marries Monique, who naively follows him to Panama, where neither has any idea of the challenges they are about to encounter. Driven by the rapture of their passionate, unbridled love, Charles and Monique happily begin their new life together during construction of the canal—unaware that a mysterious rogue hides in the shadows, waiting to satisfy his desires and conquer Monique.

In this vivid historical tale, those who have sacrificed so much to help build a monumental canal must summon the greatest courage to survive overwhelming peril and loss—and surrender to the love that will ultimately decide their destinies.

Nora E. Milner earned a BA in International Relations from California State University at Sacramento, a JD from the University of Denver School of Law, and two other advanced law degrees. She served in the US Navy before leaving to start a private law practice. Nora lives with her husband, dogs, and horses in the San Diego foothills. This is her second book.

Unicorn Books is located 738 Main Street, Ramona. It is Ramona's only books store and has been in business since 2011.

Anderson receives Eagle Scout Award

Michael Christopher Anderson, Alpine Troop 105, received his Eagle Scout Award at a ceremony on February 23 at the Alpine Women's Club, 2156 Alpine Blvd.

As the crowning achievement of his years as a Boy Scout, Anderson designed, fundraised, and directed construction of 13 benches surrounding the soccer field at St. Kieran's Elementary School in El Cajon. Anderson noticed that the previous benches were dilapidated and beyond repair. The project demonstrates the Eagle Scout core values of community service, leadership, and personal development.

Anderson was notably effective at the fundraising and materials sourcing aspects, raising over $1,200 and gaining the partnership of J&W Lumber in El Cajon and the Knights of Columbus. The success of the project was in large part due to the enthusiastic support of local business people, and the hard work of volunteers he recruited. Following the purchase and collection of materials, he directed a crew of over 30 Scouts over a two-week period, beginning with demolition of the old benches.

Lakeside Tea Party

On the fifth anniversary of the founding of the Tea Party Steve Johnson a member of the Lakeside Tea Party told the nearly 70 people attending the February 27 meeting at Cafe 67 their local group is 2 1/2-years-old and going strong.

Johnson introduced the audience to guest speaker KFMB broadcaster Mike Slater. Slater said he was pleased to speak to the Lakeside Tea Party, which is a powerful group along with other Tea Parties across the country. He spoke about how wonderful it is to be born in America and to be able to pursue one's own happiness, America created a government to protect freedom. Defense of liberty is not a vice. "Stay the course, talk solutions, we can win this," said Slater.

Johnson reminded the group this is an election year and that it's important to focus on local offices like the fire board, water district and school board. Local board members effect state offices and that's what the Tea Party should focus on. Donations will be able to be made to Lakesiders for better government in the near future. The Lakeside Tea Party meets at Café 67 the third Thursday of the month 6 to 8 p.m.

New topic Lakeside Fire Board

The burn permit for the River Park Conservancy to burn the Arundo (similar to bamboo, highly invasive) plant in the riverbed was revoked at 3 p.m. Friday Feb. 28. The Lakeside Fire Department had received a large number of calls regarding smoke and perceptions of health concerns resulting in the judgment call to cancel the permit.

The Lakeside firefighters announced two upcoming fundraisers, the annual M D A Burn Institute fundraiser March 13 and the Annual Boot Drive March 27 at major intersections in Lakeside.

Church ain't what it used to be

by Dr. Rev. James L. Snyder

I have been going to church for more years than I care to remember. If I tried to remember how many years it is, I might then remember how old I am. Knowing how old I am does not have any appeal to me.

I rather like going to church. I do not go to church because I have to. I go to church because it is a wonderful place and it is filled with wonderful people. Are there hypocrites in the church? Yes, a whole lot more.

You would be surprised at the people that go to church. No matter how crazy you might be, I am sure there will be somebody to relate to in any church you go to. Church is not for the perfect, just for those who love the Lord. I think I could make myself comfortable in any Christian church.

I do not always have to amend my thinking. Lately I had to amend this thinking that I could make myself comfortable in any Christian church.

In the news recently was the snake handling church in Kentucky. These people believe that you can pick up a poisonous snake and if it bites you, it will not kill you. I know the Scripture they use for that, but I am not sure they understand what that Scripture really means.

Someone said to a friend of mine, "You mean that if God told you to pick up a snake you wouldn't do it?"

Without any hesitation, my friend said, "He hasn't and I ain't."

The fact that the minister of that church died from a snakebite might bring into question the validity of what they believe. Go ahead; play with a poisonous snake in church if you want to. Me, I let those things alone and I pray they let me alone.

I would not feel comfortable in that church I am sure.

Then I learned of some other church. I guess in America, there are all kinds of churches for all kinds of people. And in America sanity is not a prerequisite of anything, just look at our politicians. I guess the only thing more insane today than politicians are some preachers, and I happen to be a preacher, hopefully not of the insanity kind.

One of my goals is to keep my insanity at a low level every day that I live so nobody really sees it.

Then I learned of a church in Virginia. I have often had a lot of respect for Virginia and visited quite a few times. Some great men and even presidents have come from the state of Virginia. You can imagine how alarmed I was to hear about this new church.

When somebody told me about it, I thought they were saying it was a "Knewest church." I never heard of such a thing. My question quite naturally was, what is it that these people knew. I am constantly open for any new information so my curiosity went up.

Then my friend pulled out his smart phone and showed me a videotape that was on the news about this church. It was not a "Knewest church" but rather a nudist church.

When I watched it, I laughed because I believed my friend was playing a prank on me. There are stupid people in the world, I admit, but I think even stupidity has a limit.

He finally convinced me that this was a real news story of a real nudist church in Virginia. Fortunately, the people who produced this video for the news strategically blurred out certain parts of the video of which I am everlastingly thankful.

It is a legitimate church and the motto, according to the pastor, is that they do not want to judge people by the clothing they are wearing. Really! How about judging people by the clothing they are not wearing?

I have a hard time seeing through that kind of theology. I like to get down to the bare facts, but this is absolutely incredulous.

Of course, it does save a lot of time in the morning trying to figure out what you are going to wear to church. You do not have to look at several neckties to see which one fits with this suit.

Apart from the sheer ridiculousness of this sort of matter, one matter truly annoys me. Where do they keep their offering? On second thought, I do not want to know.

Then a brilliant idea sloshed its way through the corridors of my mind. What if these two congregations had a convention together? The snake handler's and the nudist churches get together for an annual convention. Can you imagine the craziness of such a thing as that?

Then I got to thinking about it again. That would be grossly unfair to the snakes. Who in the world would they bite first? On the other hand, would they grow legs and run for the nearest door?

I remembered what Jesus said to Peter referring to the church. "And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it" (Matthew 16:18).

The church does not belong to men or any one man. It belongs exclusively to God. The more churches look like the world around it the less pleasing it is to Jesus, the head of the church.

Dear Dr. Luauna — Recognizing the enemy

Dear Readers,

The other day while driving, I noticed cars wrapped with the names of their businesses, phone numbers printed out clearly, and even websites on their rear windows. It was amazing, I thought to myself, no need for the yellow pages, if I need to have anything done, I could just jump in my truck, take a ride, I could find a plumber, pool man, or electrician or whatever I needed. It would make our job easier if when the devil showed up, he was recognizable, but Satan doesn't just put his contact information on an automobile, nor does he walk up to us with his business card.

"U Build it, we'll knock it down."
Help Wanted Call: 1-666-GET-LOST

You see some people see Satan, the enemy as a cartoon character in a red suit with horns, a tail and a pitchfork. Some, even Christians, think he's just a myth or metaphor for evil, but the prophets, the apostles, and Jesus Himself say Satan is a real, live spiritual being. Revelation 12: 7-9: "And war broke out in heaven: Michael and his angels fought with the dragon; and the dragon and his angels fought, but they did not prevail, nor was a place found for them in heaven any longer. So the great dragon was cast out, that serpent of old, called the Devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world; he was cast to the earth, and his angels were cast out with him."

Satan is the ruler of a cosmic kingdom, a hierarchy of evil beings bent on destroying the work of God. He introduced evil to the human world and he continues to incite anarchy and hatred among men. His life work is chaos.

Once we accept what Satan is, we must understand what he is not. Satan is not the opposite of God: Satan is a created being with limited powers. Through faith in Jesus we have all the power we need to cast down our enemy. For an example, let's go back to the Persian Gulf shouting, "Here we come, Saddam Hussein!" None of the soldiers expected to see Saddam Hussein personally, but they did declare who the real enemy was.

Jesus cast out a spirit of infirmity out of a woman. Jesus explaining what he had done, He said, "Satan has kept her bound for 18 years." A force, an evil spirit of infirmity kept her hurting, sick for a long time. Some people have asked me, "Can a Christian have a demon?" I suppose you could if you want one. We must be wise, and not open the door to demon forces. I remember as a young Christian, meeting an older man saved for over 50 years. He gave me the best advice anyone could've given to a young believer. He said, "Give the devil a ride and he wants to drive, give him an inch, and he'll take a mile. You see when we don't resist sin, it becomes our master. We must flee Satan's territory, the occult, drugs, sexual sin, pride and unbelief, most of all disobedience to His Word.

We are to walk by faith, study God's Word the Bible, pray always, and put on the whole armor, dear saints. (Ephesians 6:10 -20) We can walk in victory, yes you will at times be challenged, and temptation will whisper your name. But you call on the name of JESUS. Stand in His Word. Remember what Christ did on that Cross. Colossians 2:15; "Having disarmed principalities and powers, He made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them in it." Hold On Dear One! Look up for our redemption draws nigh.

Words of Wisdom!

A balanced diet will help you to keep smiling. Remember that foods from the dairy group give you calcium to strengthen your teeth and bones. Try not to eat snacks and foods that are too sticky or that have "hidden" sugars in them. Shop for: fresh fruit, veggies, rice cakes, soup, cheese cubes and so on.

For Health's Sake

Tips to help kids form healthy dental habits

Oral care and cavity prevention are crucial for overall health, and getting kids to put that knowledge into practice is a must.

To help motivate kids to take better care of their smiles, experts recommend a number of approaches, resources and tips that parents will find helpful.

Good practices

The Partnership for Healthy Mouths, Healthy Lives recommends brushing your teeth for two minutes twice a day. If you aren't able to brush between meals, swishing water is a great way to help reduce bacteria that can build up.

When choosing toothpaste, look for the American Dental Association Seal of Acceptance to indicate it has been rigorously tested for cavity protection.

Take a minute to check what's inside your toothpaste. Many contain ingredients like artificial sweeteners, dyes or preservatives on the label. If you prefer a more natural option, Tom's of Maine makes the top-selling natural kids toothpaste without any artificial ingredients and no animal testing.

Encourage kids to make healthy nutritional choices that promote good dental health, including calcium-rich foods like yogurt, cheese, almonds, oatmeal, and oranges. While skipping all sweets may not be realistic, encourage kids to limit sugary beverages and candy, and to brush after treats.

Get creative, give back

A new free downloadable coloring book called "Brushing Fun," is now available to help introduce kids to healthy habits. Each free download will trigger a donation of 10 tubes of Tom's of Maine Wicked Cool! natural toothpaste to Oral Health America (OHA), a non-profit dedicated to increasing access to oral health care, education and advocacy for all Americans. "Brushing can be fun and it's never too early to talk with your kids about their oral health, or too late to try to help shape healthy habits," says Susan Dewhirst, goodness programs manager at Tom's of Maine.

The coloring book, which can be personalized with a child's name, offers games, puzzles, tips and facts about oral care, as well as a story that encourages kids to appreciate nature. To show off your family's creativity, share a page from the coloring book using the hashtag #NaturalSmiles on Facebook, Twitter or Instagram for a chance to win a natural oral care gift pack and Utretch Art Store gift card. The free coloring book is available for download at www.TomsofMaine.com.

Go natural

While you're caring for your teeth, don't forget to also take care of the earth. According to the EPA, by turning off the tap while you brush your teeth in the morning and before bedtime, you can save up to eight gallons of water! Parents and kids can also visit www.terracycle.com to learn how to recycle or upcycle toothpaste tubes.

Texting

An elderly couple had just learned how to send text messages on their cell phones. The wife was a romantic type and the husband was more of a no-nonsense guy.

One afternoon while shopping the wife decided to send her husband a romantic text message and she wrote: "If you are sleeping, send me your dreams. If you are laughing, send me your smile. If you are eating, send me a bite. If you are drinking, send me a sip. If you are crying, send me your tears. I love you."

The husband texted back to her: "I'm on the toilet. Please advise."

Among the featured Maker exhibits at the Family Day will be electric car conversions and a wooden electric cart at the San Diego Automotive Museum, an interactive Giant Electric Giraffe inside the San Diego Air & Space Museum, and a machine made of office materials that bakes Solar Cookies inside the Reuben H. Fleet Science Center.

Regular hours are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. (the last admission at 4:30 p.m.) The museum is closed Thanksgiving and Christmas. Admission prices are as follows: $8.50 for adults, $6 for seniors (65 and over), $6 active duty military with ID, $5 students with ID, $4 children ages 6-15. Children under the age of 6 are admitted free of charge. Toreros get the sixth seed

by Chuck Karaszia

Finishing the regular season (16-15), the USD Toreros men's basketball team head to the West Coast Conference Tournament a sixth seed giving them a week to prepare for their next game on Saturday in Las Vegas.

The team survived a grueling four-game stretch (2-2) in the last weeks of the season before coming home. It gave Toreros head coach Bill Grier a signature win against his former employer powerhouse Gonzaga.

Pleased with his players' efforts down the stretch Grier said, "It's been a good two weeks. I feel like we're playing better basketball than after the first two weeks of the conference season. Now we need to sustain it.

It was a big win at home against 25th ranked Gonzaga in which the Toreros blistered the net shooting 40% from the field, 36% from three point range.

"It was a great win and an awesome atmosphere here," Grier said. "We're trying to get our fans to understand how important having people here and how much harder our guys played."

USD the next week could not sustain their momentum and a three game win-streak falling to BYU 78-70 last Saturday at Jenny Craig on the campus of USD.

With a sluggish start, the Toreros found themselves down 16-points with five minutes left in the first half. Still, they were able to reduce the deficit in half before halftime.

Continuing where they left off USD cut the BYU lead down to three points before taking a two-point lead. Battling on each possession, the lead exchanged hands numerous before the Toreros succumbed to the bigger, stronger Cougars at the end.

"I told them (players) it took ten minutes to figure out you had to fight against this team and once you figured that out you competed very well," Grier said. "It just took us too long. We played too fast. We offensively played frantic. We had a great stretch in the first half, and then finally settled in. Down the stretch we didn't stick with the plan. Too many guys had their hearts in the right place, but the execution was wrong, trying to take it on themselves instead. In thirty-one games it hasn't worked. I don't know why they thought it was going to work today against a really good team. I can't fault them the way they competed down the stretch, actually taking the lead after down by six-teen. We just got to finish that thing off, and didn't get it done."

USD point guard Chris Anderson tied a career high with 22-points leading the Toreros. He had four rebounds, six assists, zero turnovers, and four steals. Johnny Dee contributed with 12-points after struggling from the floor shooting 2-of-12 from the field, 2-of-8 from the three-point arc. He made both of his free throws.

'Son of God' — powerful and well done

Diogo Morgado stars in Son Of God. Photo credit: Casey Crafford / LightWorkers Media Inc / Hearst Productions Inc.

Reviews by Diana Saenger

Opening this week is Son of God, a 20th Century Fox Film directed by Christopher Spencer, with Executive Producer Roma Downey and Producer Mark Burnett of The Bible TV mini-series. Told in a candid and simple manner, the film begins with the birth of Jesus and covers his life's trials, joys and tribulations as written in the Bible, including his death and rising from the tomb.

Many critics have complained about Portuguese actor Diogo Morgado's performance for various reasons. Perhaps they didn't understand the motives or intentions of his character Jesus in the first place. Downey said one of the biggest themes in this film is Love.

"It's impossible not to be moved by the love of Jesus as He walks into the lion's den of Jerusalem to take on the power base and save his people. In this movie meek does not mean weak," Downey said.

It's hard to ignore that Morgado is a handsome man, but I found his portrayal perfect. As Jesus, he's full of love, and whenever he can, helps someone in distress to look at alternatives in a soft and friendly way. When he's in the midst of political situations – the other theme of the film – with those such as the hypocritical Pharisee Caiaphas (Adrian Schiller) or Pontius Pilate (Greg Hicks), he calmly retorts them with wisdom and knowledge rather than anger.

Cinematographer Rod Goldie helped with this characterization by expertly capturing Morgado's humility – a quality that he infused into his character. Morgado also benefits from visual effects by Garrett Honn and James Jordan. Still, Morgado knew he faced a daunting task with this role.

"There's no way to prepare properly to portray Jesus Christ," Morgado said. "I decided to just let the Spirit come through me, authentically."

Goldie precisely captured the backgrounds in Morocco that brought these locations to life. With each scene he filmed, it made the characters in that scene even more fulfilling of the written word.

Other actors played their parts well. Darwin Shaw has a dual personality to unveil as Peter, but does a solid job with the juxtaposition. Hicks, too, is excellent in his portrayal of Pilate, the fifth prefect of the Roman province of Judaea and the judge who presided over the trial of Jesus. Pilate must have had a premonition of the wrath of God coming, which resulted in his choice not to make the final decision about killing Jesus.

Mary is portrayed by Downey as a woman more in the background during Jesus' walk as a prophet. Not until the cruel Crucifixion scenes do we see Mary's extreme pain and frustration. The scenes before and on the cross are hard to watch but not as severe as in The Passion of the Christ (2004). Here, Spencer makes good choices in keeping the shots short and also focusing on the crowd gathered around.

The script by Colin Swash and a few others has an effective arc in creating dialogue that comes from scripture, but in this film seems more modern for better understanding. When Jesus makes Peter walk on water and is questioned what will happen next, Jesus replies, "We will save the world." These are probably not the words Jesus spoke but a voice today easily understandable.

Married couple Burnett and Downey achieved success with their History Channel's Bible series – part of which was used in this film. Its premier attracted 13.1 million viewers, topping American Idol's 12.8 million viewers on Wednesday of the same week. Downey is also an Emmy and Golden Globe nominee for her role in TV's Touched by an Angel.

Burnett – named one of the world's most influential people by Time Magazine – is the executive producer of five network television series and TV shows that regularly air in more than 70 countries. His current series are Survivor (2000), The Voice (2011), The Apprentice, Shark Tank (2009) and People's Choice Awards. His projects have earned 98 Emmy nominations, and he's authored eight books.

The couple's combined expertise in show business proves they know how to create compelling and cinematic storytelling in a gritty, dramatic, powerful and inspirational way. As I waited outside the door of the theater on the night I saw Son of God, I could hear the comments about the film from exiting moviegoers to the three PR reps waiting with notepads. The proficiency of Downey and Burnett's goals and follow-through was not lost on this audience, for I repeatedly heard the words "powerful," "extraordinary," "amazing," "wonderful," "I loved it," and "It made me cry."

Downey said, "Audiences nationwide sit in their seats at the end of the film, unable to move. They are transfixed at what they have just experienced. It's the story of Jesus for a whole new generation."

When I moved to the side of the theater to scan the audience as I often do, I was surprised to discover that Downey was right. I had never seen an audience so quiet, so enthralled. Not one cell phone was on, and other than those who were wiping their eyes, no one was moving.

Christen films have a built in audience, but with the success of The Bible series and prescreening of Son of God, Burnett and Downey hope to reach more non-believers as well.

"It will resonate with today's audiences," Brunett said. "Son of God feels contemporary because the characters are presented in such a relatable way. It has characters that you feel like you know. Everyone, except Jesus, is human and deeply flawed, and that's relevant to all of us."

Noted Pastor Rick Warren said, "I've seen most of the films about Jesus produced in the past 50 years. Son Of God stands alone, in a class by itself. It's a powerful and poignant movie, the best Jesus movie I have ever seen."

I have to agree. The movie has excellent production values, is touching, poignant and for sure an all-around family film. At the time of writing this critics gave it a 23 percent rating, audience 82 percent. Someone is "not" doing their homework.

Zany comedy with Old World overtones

Review by James Colt Harrison

Farce as a tool in plots has not been present in recent American movies. Although The Grand Budapest Hotel can be argued as not an American-made movie but one made in Germany by a German company (Studio Babelsberg and released by Fox Searchlight), it is, none the less, directed by American-born Wes Anderson (Moonrise Kingdom). Farce is described as a play in which the plot depends on the situation rather than the character. It's one way of saying it's a ridiculous sham, so says Webster's.

Personally finding the film charming and ultra-amusing, we noticed Anderson has tried to show the battle between the new world vulgarity and the charm and refinement of the Old World. The fact it is done in a funny and silly way makes it just that much more peasant.

A young writer, played by Jude Law, is invited to dinner in a nearly empty and cavernous dining room of a fading hotel. The owner, essayed by the world weary F. Murray Abraham, takes the young writer back to 1932 when the hotel was purchased. Abraham, as Mr. Moustafa, relates how he made a fortune before all the soldiers and military (implied Nazis?) came to ruin the hotel and the elegant way of life.

Central to his story is his concierge, Gustave (a deadpanned and witty Ralph Fiennes), an impeccably dressed man who runs the hotel with an iron hand. He has one flaw – he will bed any female within reach. His favorite is the ancient, heavily made-up and fabulously wealthy Madame D. (played hilariously by the totally unrecognizable Tilda Swinton).

When the old lady suddenly dies, there begins a madcap scramble to claim the spoils of her estate. Leading the pack is her fascist son Dmitri (Adrien Brody) and his henchman Jopling (Willem Dafoe). Clad in black leather, both actors give one of their most frightening, yet funny, portrayals of people with their door latches undone.

A priceless painting figures in the estate, and young Saoirse Ronan is given the task of hiding it for Gustave. Always just one step ahead of the enemy son and military police captain (Edward Norton), Gustave and his right-hand man Zero (the unintentionally dopey and pliable Tony Revolori) are on the run throughout the film to give it the feeling and rapid pacing of an old-time Keystone Kops movie. It's all total nonsense with spicy and shocking dialogue that adds up to fun throughout.

The Grand Budapest Hotel is probably one of the best comedies of the year and certainly it's most imaginative. Art direction by Stephen O. Gessler, set decoration by Ann Pinnock and costume design by Milena Canonero make for a lively and colorful look to the film. Canonero has won three Oscars® for her costumes in Barry Lyndon (1975) Chariots of Fire (1981); and Marie Antoinette (2006).

Director Anderson is best known for his visual style. This is evident in his previous films, The Royal Tennenbaums (2001) and Rushmore (1998) but mostly evident in his Moonrise Kingdom of 2012. He was honored twice by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts & Sciences with

Oscar® nominations for the Best Original Screenplay (with Owen Wilson) for The Royal Tennenbaums and the Best Screenplay (with Roman Coppola) for Moonrise Kingdom. His other awards a nomination as the Best Director for Fantastic Mr. Fox, (2010) animated film, and a nomination as Best Feature for his The Squid and the Whale drama in 2006.

The setting of the film in a time of more elegance and finesse than in modern days may be slightly alien to today's audiences. But the humor is universal and funny is funny no matter what your age. It's so zany it's useless trying to figure it out. To enjoy the fun, the laughs, the ridiculous situations and the outstanding cast, just bring your silly hat to the theater and leave your inhibitions at home.

You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 714-573-1965 for information regarding the trustee's sale or visit this Internet Web site <http://www.qualityloan.com>, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-13-562646-CL. If no street address or other common designation is shown, directions to the location of the property may be obtained by sending a written request to the beneficiary within 10 days of the date of first publication of this Notice of Sale. FY 2014-2018 CONSOLIDATED PLAN

The U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) provides annual grant funding on a formula basis to entitlement cities and counties, including the City of El Cajon, for housing and community development programs to benefit low- and moderate-income persons and families. Over the next Five-Year Consolidated Plan period, the City anticipates receiving approximately $6.8 million for the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Program and the HOME Investment Partnership (HOME) Program. As a condition of the funding, each jurisdiction must prepare and submit a 3- to 5-year Consolidated Plan which describes the City's priorities and multiyear goals for the use of the funds based on an assessment of housing and community development needs, an analysis of housing and economic market conditions and available resources. The City of El Cajon's current Five-Year Consolidated Plan expires on June 30, 2014. The City is in the process of preparing a new Consolidated Plan for the period of July 1, 2014 to June 30, 2019 (FY 2014-2018).

Following is a Summary of the contents of the draft Five-Year Consolidated Plan.

3. Summary of Citizen Participation Process

To solicit public input during the development of the Consolidated Plan, the City conducted four stakeholder meetings and two community workshops, and administered a Housing and Community Development Needs Survey.

Community and Stakeholder Meetings: El Cajon held two community meetings and four stakeholder meetings for a total of six public meetings to solicit input on needs. The public meetings were held on two consecutive days at four different locations. Distribution of notices of the meetings was extensive and was provided in a multitude of ways.

Housing and Community Development Needs Survey: An online survey was developed to assess the housing and community development needs of El Cajon residents and was made available through Survey Monkey. A total of 101 responses were received. Distribution of notices of the availability of the survey and request for public input was extensive and was provided in a multitude of ways.

Public Hearing of February 25, 2014: A public hearing was held and public input was invited. Several comments were provided by agencies requesting funding. All comments were taken into consideration and a summary of the comments is included in the Consolidated Plan.

Results of the comments received at the community meetings and public hearings, and the results of the survey, are incorporated into the Consolidated Plan/Action Plan.

4. FY 2014-15 Funding Application Process

A "Notice of Funding Availability" was published in the newspaper and mailed to an interested parties' list on November 7, 2013. CDBG applications for funding were also made available on that date. The public notice of the availability of funds was published in the East County Gazette on November 7, 2013 and November 14, 2013. The City received 18 applications. The FY 2014-2015 Action Plan is being developed pending final Council decision of funding allocations.

5. Summary

The City has continuing extensive housing and community development needs. CDBG and HOME funds alone are not adequate to address the myriad of needs identified during the public outreach process and summarized in the Needs Assessment and Market Analysis of the Consolidated Plan. Recognizing the national objectives of the CDBG and HOME programs and specific program regulations, the City intends to use CDBG and HOME funds to coordinate programs, services and projects to create a decent and suitable living environment to benefit low and moderate income households and individuals, including those with special needs.

FY 2014-2015 ONE-YEAR ACTION PLAN

As a condition of the funding each year, the City must prepare and submit a One-Year Action Plan which describes the projects and activities the City will undertake during the year to address the priorities and goals set forth in the Five-Year Consolidated Plan. In FY 2014-2015, the One-Year Action Plan is a component of the Five-Year Consolidated Plan which is being developed concurrently.

For FY 2014-2015, the City anticipates receiving $1,118,322 in Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funding and $397,163 in HOME Investment Partnerships (HOME) funding. In addition, $120,287 in unallocated CDBG funds was identified as available for allocation to CDBG Capital/Public Facility/Other projects only. The CDBG funds must be utilized to meet one of three national objectives to qualify for funding: 1) benefit low and moderate income persons in the community; 2) aid in the elimination of slum and blight; or 3) meet other community development needs having a particular urgency because existing conditions pose a serious threat. The HOME funds may be used "to provide incentives to develop and support affordable rental housing and homeownership affordability through the acquisition, new construction, reconstruction, or rehabilitation with suitable amenities, including real property acquisition, site improvement, conversion, demolition and other expenses. They may also be used to provide for the payment of reasonable administrative and planning costs, and to provide for the payment of operating expenses of community housing development organizations (CHDO's) – 24 CFR 92.205(a)." Each participating jurisdiction is required to set aside 15% of their HOME entitlement for CHDO's.

In the public hearing on February 25, 2014, the El Cajon City Council approved tentative FY 2014-2015 allocations for projects and activities in the development of the One-Year Action Plan, allocating a total of $1,238,609 in CDBG funds, and $397,163 in HOME funds as listed below:

Our Best Friends

Pet of the Week

"Hello, everyone. My name is DANTE, and I'm a very handsome Pharaoh Hound/Border Collie blend who's just one year old. I'm athletic, playful, and very smart. I know how to sit on command, and I can learn so much more. I absolutely love to play fetch, and I'd need a good amount of exercise each day to be at my best.

It probably goes without saying that I'll need to be in a home with a good-sized yard. I'm a pleasant fellow, and I'd be a wonderful pet for an active family that has older kids. I get along well with other dogs, as long as they're on the larger side. They have a great play yard here where we can all get to know each other, so I sure hope you'll head on over to the El Cajon Animal Shelter so we can get better acquainted. Maybe you'd like to toss a ball around for me so I can show you my fetching skills. Of course, I wouldn't object to a good scratch behind the ears, too! Just so you know, the shelter staff isn't sure yet if I've been house trained, but you can be sure that I'm an intelligent dog who's ready and willing to learn new skills. I hope to see you soon! Love, Dante" Kennel #18 Adoption fee $80 includes vaccines and microchip

Feral & Friends Price Matching Campaign generous donor to match all donations

Feral Cat Coalition (FCC), who has a permanent spay/neuter facility located in El Cajon, is pleased to announce the start of its 2014 Feral & Friends Price-Matching Campaign. Starting today through March 25, a generous donor will match all donations to FCC dollar-for-dollar. To make a donation, go to www.feralcat.com/pricematch or mail your contribution to Feral Cat Coalition, 9225 Miramar Rd., PMB 160, San Diego, CA 92126. All donations are tax deductible.

FCC is a nonprofit organization made dedicated to reducing the suffering and overpopulation of stray and abandoned cats through humane Trap-Neuter-Return. Since 1992, FCC has spayed and neutered more than 40,000 feral cats free of charge, and in 2012, opened its own spay/neuter clinic in El Cajon, Feral & Friends, where more than 3,000 cats have been sterilized to date.

"Although our spay/neuter services are free, the average cost to spay or neuter a cat is about $25," said Mary Davis, Feral Cat Coalition president. "With the 2014 Feral & Friends Price-Matching Campaign, your donation will be matched and we will be able to provide more spay/neuter services to feral cats in need."

Feral cats are the "wild" offspring of domestic cats and are primarily the result of pet owners' abandonment or failure to spay and neuter their pets. Feral cat colonies can be found behind shopping centers or businesses, in alleys, parks and rural areas. They are elusive and do not trust humans. Nearly all homeless cats relinquished to county shelters are euthanized. The alternative to humane euthanasia for strays is often death from starvation, disease or abuse.

Studies have proven that Trap-Neuter-Return is the single-most effective method of stabilizing and maintaining healthy feral cat colonies with the least possible cost to local governments and residents, while providing the best lives for the animals themselves.

"It's tragic that feral cats have to die when such a simple solution is available," added Davis. "I am hopeful that the community will support our campaign and help us raise much needed funds to help feral cats and end cat overpopulation."
