Alpine teachers host Community Appreciation Day

by Diana Saenger
A tentative agreement between striking Alpine teachers and the Alpine Union School District was reached in the earliest hours on Tuesday, Feb. 25, 2014 after four days of negotiations.

With the protests and standing on corners over, the Alpine Teachers wanted to thank the Alpine Community for their support by hosting a "Community Appreciation Day."

The event was held on March 9, noon – 3 p.m. at Joan MacQueen Middle School. With the help of sponsors Alpine Kiwanis, Sycuan, and Alpine Rentals, there was plenty of music, bounce inflatables, games, popcorn, Sno-Cones and fun for the entire family.

The Alpine Kiwanis brought their cook-shack and cooked hot dogs and hamburgers for three hours feeding more than 500 people who came out for the free event and to further encourage Alpine Teachers.

To be PC or not to be PC, that is the confusion

by Dr. Rev. James L. Snyder

I have long ago given up trying to keep up with the Joneses, and not just because they have moved away. I have a hard enough time trying to keep up with myself, let alone trying to figure out what somebody else is doing so I can top them at it.

One aspect of trying to keep up with the Joneses is being on top of what is referred to as being Politically Correct. As far as I know, I do not have a political bone in my body. I do have a bone to pick with some politicians, but that is another story.

Everybody is so afraid they are going to break some PC rule and offend somebody. Most people today are so easily offended that it is virtually impossible not to offend somebody. I do not want to intentionally offend anybody and I try my best not to. However, for the life of me, I am not able to keep up with all of this political correctness that seems to be domineering in our country today. Because, as soon as you figure it out somebody changes the rules and another word or phrase has been deemed not politically correct.

What was politically correct yesterday may be politically incorrect today. If you get your days mixed up and confused, you are not going to know what is politically correct. I think a book should be published every year listing all of the things that are politically correct and politically incorrect. Nobody is allowed to change any, at least for a year. Then, when they come to change it there has to be a national election to vote the political correctness in.

Some people believe it to be un-American to use phrases that are politically incorrect. I for one, have a hard time keeping a list of all of these politically correct and incorrect words and phrases.

I had some business with an attorney and once we finished our business, we had a few moments and were chatting together. I could tell from his chatting that he was rather politically correct in everything he does. I guess that is what comes to being an attorney. Somebody once said that sticks and stones may break your bones, but words can never hurt you. Whoever said that was so wrong we need to take that phrase and make it politically incorrect.

"This is America," he pontificated with me, "and we have freedom of speech. Everybody is free to have their opinion and to express it. That is what America's all about." He went on and on about this matter of freedom of speech.

Then, I am not quite sure how it happened, but we got on some rather indelicate subject that was positively politically incorrect.

With the majority of people, freedom of speech does not really mean that the other person is free to speak. It simply means I have the freedom to speak.

"So," I said rather delicately trying to feel my way through this subject, "you believe everybody has the freedom to express their opinion?"

"Yes, sir," he said very emphatically. Then he went off on another pontificating spree asserting the rights of all Americans to express their opinion.

I knew which side of the issue, he was on and so I broached it this way. "You then believe," I said weighing each and every word and syllable, "that you have the right to say a certain thing is right." I mentioned what the thing was but I do not need to include it here.

"Not only do I believe it," he said on another pontificating spree, "but I practice it every day of my life. Nobody has the right to tell me what I can and cannot believe!"

"Let me get this right, you have the freedom to say that this," and I mentioned what it was, "is perfectly right."

He nodded and smiled very broadly and then I continued my thought. "Do I have any rights in this area?" He nodded and indicated I could continue speaking. "You have the right to believe that this certain thing is right, but do I have the right to believe that it is wrong?"

Well, you might have hit him with a double-barreled shotgun. He never thought of it that way. All he thought of was what his opinion was and that he had the complete freedom to express that opinion. Anybody who had a different opinion did not have the same right as he did to express it.

"I never thought of it that way," he stammered as he stared at me. "I'm going to have to give that some more thought."

Somebody who believes something is right has the complete freedom to say so. On the other side of the track, the person who believes it is wrong has just as much right to think and say that it is wrong.

It is hard to keep up with a world that is constantly changing, especially in this area. That is why I love the Bible so much. That is why I am a follower of Jesus Christ because neither one ever changes. I take great refuge in what the Bible says. "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever," (Hebrews 13:8).

Today I rest in the unchanging grace and character of the God who loves me and provided for my salvation. And, tomorrow will be the same.

Dear Dr. Luauna — Eyes to see

Dear Readers,

The first Sunday of the month at 2 p.m. we hold a church service right on Mission Beach on the grass by Lifeguard Station #13. Last Sunday we decided to have an extra service, we set up chairs so people could join us. I open up with a song like, "Amazing Grace." Then I open my Bible and share a sermon as if it were right from my pulpit at church.

Some are busy, but many people stop and listen, sometimes even just for a moment to see, "Who is this wild, woman preacher?" When I lift up my eyes I see hundreds of people everywhere and little by little a few finally muster the strength to come and sit in the chairs we set up. I noticed a father with his beautiful daughter joined the service. Throughout my sermon, "Everyman Must Make a Decision." I noticed this young girl weeping, broken, and hurting. I thought to myself, "What could be so pressing?"

At the end of my sermon I ask for those who are listening to come forward, "Are you in need of Jesus, or prayer? Come!" This father brought his daughter forward. As I looked into those beautiful blue, green eyes, with her strong chiseled face, she looked like a little model. As I reached for her hands to pray, my eyes noticed the needle tracks up and down her arms. My heart sunk; I wanted to just weep for her, knowing she truly needed deliverance. She was bound by the demon of heroin. This demon doesn't care one bit for this little girl. She was its prisoner, an evil force of drug addiction which plagues so many young people today.

I went back into my mind of the last funeral I did. I was reminded of the 18 year old girl who died of a drug overdose, as I looked into these same empty eyes; I saw her silent plea for HELP! I began to pray for her, holding her in my arms like a baby, she wept. Jesus touched her from the top of her head to the bottom of her feet, bringing her deliverance.

Like a spider builds his web to trap its passing prey, so Satan traps many teens in this evil, wicked addiction of drugs. What is their hope? Jesus Christ is their only freedom. Parents, please don't ignore the warnings signs. PLEASE! You must act fast, before your child ends up dead. John 10:10; "The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. (Jesus said), I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly." The devil has one purpose: destruction!

I see a great need before me, to purchase a home where I personally can bring in these young girls and help them kick drugs. Then teach them who they are in Jesus. So many young girls come from broken homes. Many from sexual abuse and they hate themselves. Some parents have rejected and abandoned them not knowing what to do. Would you like to help me purchase a, "Victorious Home for Women?" If so, go to my website and give right online or send your gift by mail. Help make this happen, if 150,000 people gave a few dollars each to help purchase this home, it would be debt free and the home would be used to help young girls and help women change their lives for eternity. I'm willing to take on this major project, but I need your help to buy the home first. I would take in women who are physically abused as well. Psalm 91:1-2; "He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the LORD, "He is my refuge and my fortress; my God, in Him I will trust."

God help us to have eyes to see that the harvest is so plentiful. Send me your prayer requests. To Write: ATFA-Dr. Luauna Stines P.O. # For Health's Sake

March is National Nutrition Month

If eating right is a challenge, it may be because you are trying things you simply don't like. The key is finding options that satisfy your taste buds, say experts.

"Taste is a major influential factor driving what you eat and feed your family, so it's important to strike a balance between foods you like and those that provide the nutrients you need," says Glenna McCollum, registered dietitian nutritionist and president of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. "Taste and nutrition are not mutually exclusive."

March is National Nutrition Month, an excellent annual reminder to take the time to evaluate your diet and make positive changes you can sustain long-term.

As part of the "Enjoy the Taste of Eating Right" theme, McCollum is encouraging Americans to return to the basics of healthful eating by combining taste and nutrition to create meals that follow the recommendations of the "2010 Dietary Guidelines for Americans."

With that in mind, McCollum is providing some expert tips on how to eat right and enjoy it:

- Love sandwiches? Swap out white bread for whole grain to up your fiber intake. Instead of mayo, use avocado as a rich addition to your sandwich. It's more flavorful, and it's also full of fiber, potassium, vitamin C, vitamin B6, as well as other nutrients. To stay fuller longer, include fiber-rich veggies like tomatoes and cucumbers.

- Balance. While there's always room to indulge, be sure that the majority of your calories are sourced from vegetables, fruits, whole grains, lean meats, poultry, fish, eggs, fat-free or low-fat dairy, beans, nuts and seeds. You'll be filling up on all the nutrients your body needs without all the extra calories. And don't forget to limit added sugars, salt and saturated fats.

- Don't skip dessert. Many diet fads will encourage you to skip dessert, but doing so can seem like a sacrifice, which won't make for a sustainable change. Instead, seek out treats that provide nutritional benefits. For example, mango blended with low-fat milk and a splash of pineapple juice will satisfy your sweet tooth, while giving you a dose of calcium and vitamin C.

- Spice it up. A great, low-calorie way to add flavor and nutrition to meals without the fat, sugar or salt, is by incorporating beneficial herbs and spices, such as cardamom, turmeric, cinnamon cumin, thyme, basil and oregano. Citrus juices are another great addition to recipes.

- Ask for advice. Whether you need to lose weight, want to reduce your risk for disease or just want to improve your family's overall health, consider consulting a registered dietitian nutritionist (RDN), who can translate the science of nutrition into practical solutions for healthy living. Your RDN can help you plan healthy, delicious meals.

For more tips on healthful, tasty eating and to find a RDN, visit www.EatRight.org/nnm.

This National Nutrition Month, don't just eat for your health, eat for your happiness. Take steps to find foods that are not only nutritious, but taste great too.

Laughter is the Best Medicine

Shaved

A church in a rural community was so small that the pastor also doubled as the local barber to make ends meet.

There happened to be a man in this small community who had invested wisely and was enjoying his newfound comfort. This man got out of bed one day to go through his daily routine. He looked into the mirror as he was about to shave and decided, "I make enough money now, I don't have to shave myself. I'll go down to the barber and let him shave me from now on."

So he walked into the barber shop and found the preacher/barber was out calling on shut-ins. His wife, Grace, said "I usually do the shaves anyway ... sit down and I'll shave you." So he did.

After she shaved him, he asked, "How much do I owe you?"

"$25," Grace replied.

The man thought that was a bit expensive, especially if he got a shave every day. Nonetheless, he paid Grace and went on his way.

The next day, he woke up and found his face to be just as smooth as the day before. No need for a shave today, he thought, well, it was a $25 shave.

The next day he awoke to find his face as smooth as a baby's bottom. Wow! he thought. That's amazing, as he normally would need to shave daily to keep his clean-shaven look.

Day 3, he woke up and his face was still as smooth as the minute Grace had finished. Now, somewhat perplexed, the man went down to the barber shop to ask some questions.

This time the pastor was in. The man asked him why his face was as smooth as it was the first day it was shaven.

The kind old pastor gently retorted, "Friend, you were shaved by Grace ... and once shaved, always shaved."

Mellow Out with MELONS

FAMILY FEATURES

Fresh, juicy melons make a tasty addition to meals or can be enjoyed as a refreshing small snack. Bite into watermelons and cantaloupes from Florida for a sweet taste that can be enjoyed in all kinds of dishes. Add to salads, make an iced drink, or enjoy them fresh off the grill. Florida melons are also a great source of vitamin A and vitamin C.

“Watermelons are one of the most refreshing fruits available. Serve a slice of this delicious fruit for guaranteed smiles at any age,” says Justin Timineri, Executive Chef and Culinary Ambassador, Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services. “Since cantaloupes are both sweet and savory, try thinking outside the box while enjoying them.”

For more fun and flavorful melon recipes, visit <http://bit.ly/flmelons>.

Chef Justin Timineri

Sign-up to receive a FREE copy of the “Kids in the Kitchen” cookbook at: <http://bit.ly/flffkids>.

Open Face Watermelon Sandwiches

Yield 4 Servings

- 8 ounces goat cheese
- 1 handful fresh Florida mint leaves, chopped
- Kosher salt and fresh ground pepper to taste
- 1/2 loaf of your favorite bread, sliced thin
- Olive oil
- 1/4 medium-sized Florida watermelon, seeds and rind removed Crumble chilled goat cheese into small bowl. Lightly mix cheese and chopped mint. Taste for seasoning and adjust with salt and pepper.

Cut bread into 8 small slices and drizzle with olive oil. Toast bread slices until golden brown and crispy on top. Let bread cool slightly.

Spread cheese mixture on top of each bread slice. Cut watermelon slices into fun shapes and layer watermelon on top of cheese. Lightly season the top of sandwiches with salt and pepper. Serve at room temperature.

Kids Can: Spread cheese onto each slice of bread.

Grilled and Chilled Florida Watermelon with Feta and Mint

Yield: 6 servings

- 1 small Florida watermelon, about 6 pounds
- 1/2 cup small fresh Florida mint leaves, hand-torn
- 2 ounces feta cheese, crumbled into large chunks
- 1 tablespoon olive oil
- 1 tablespoon balsamic vinegar
- 1/4 teaspoon sea salt
- 1/4 teaspoon black pepper

Slice watermelon into 1-inch slices. Heat grill or grill pan over high heat until very hot. Two at a time, grill watermelon rounds about 2 to 3 minutes each side until charred. Transfer watermelon to cutting board and cut into wedges, discarding rind. Place watermelon wedges in refrigerator until chilled.

Arrange wedges on plate. Sprinkle with mint and feta. Drizzle with oil and vinegar, then sprinkle with salt and pepper.

Chef's Tip: To cut watermelon into rounds, lay melon on side and cut through rind and flesh with sharp knife.

Kids Can: Sprinkle watermelon with feta and mint.

Grown Up Alert: Adults should cut watermelon and handle all grilling.

How to pick the perfect melon

The exterior of a ripe watermelon should be smooth and waxy green, with or without stripes. Watermelons will not ripen after picked, so it is important to pick a ripe one at the market. A good cantaloupe is symmetrical with the blossom end soft enough to be depressed with slight pressure. Avoid overripe melons with lumps or soft spots.

How to clean watermelons

Before cutting your watermelon, wipe it down with a clean cloth and slightly soapy water. Every part of the watermelon is ready to eat, including the rind and seeds.

Cooking tips for watermelons

Did you know the fiber-rich rind of watermelon can be pickled, candied or turned into jam or jelly? The seeds are highly nutritious, packed with protein, vitamin E and potassium. Try them roasted in the oven on low and salted for a healthy, tasty snack.

Fruit Kebobs with Lime Cream

Yield: 16 servings

Lime cream:

- 1 cup low-fat sour cream
- 1/2 cup Florida honey
- 1 lime, juiced
- 1 teaspoon lime zest

Kebobs:

- 1/2 Florida honeydew melon, peeled, seeded and cubed
- 1/2 Florida cantaloupe melon, peeled, seeded and cubed
- 1 Florida papaya, peeled, seeded and cubed
- 1 Florida mango, peeled, seeded and cubed
- 2 kiwis, peeled and cubed
- 16 (6-inch) bamboo skewers
- 1/4 cup fresh Florida mint leaves, chopped, for garnish

To make lime cream, combine sour cream, honey, lime juice and zest in mixing bowl.

For kebobs, arrange cut fruit on skewers in alternating fashion. Repeat until all cut fruit is on skewers. Serve chilled with lime cream. Garnish with fresh mint.

Kids Can: Arrange the fruit onto skewers with adult supervision.

Grown Up Alert: Adults should cut all fruit.

Melon Muffins

Yield: 20 Servings

- 1 Florida watermelon
- 8 ounces low-fat cream cheese, softened
- 3 ounces low-fat lime yogurt
- 1 tablespoon lime juice
- 1 tablespoon lime zest

Slice watermelon into 1-inch-thick cross sections. Using 1 1/2-inch-wide biscuit cutter, cut watermelon sections into circles.

In medium-sized bowl, combine cream cheese, yogurt and lime juice; mix well.

Arrange melon circles on plate and top each with teaspoon of yogurt sauce and pinch of lime zest. Serve immediately.

Kids Can: Use biscuit cutters to cut watermelon sections.

Fun Tip: Use different shaped cutters to make your muffins in cool, fun shapes.

Actors in 'Divergent' talk about their roles in the movie

Interview by Diana Saenger

Based on the best-selling book by Veronica Roth, Divergent is a thrilling action-adventure film set in a future world where people are divided into distinct factions based on human virtues. When Tris Prior (Shailene Woodley) must take a test to see what group she will be in, she escapes the worse group, Divergent. After Tris discovers a conspiracy by a faction leader (Kate Winslet) to destroy all Divergents, she must trust the mysterious Four (Theo James). Together they must find out what makes being Divergent so dangerous before it's too late.

In my interview about Divergent, Ben Lloyd-Hughes and Christian Madsen shared their experiences about their roles in the film.

Q: How did you hear about this casting call, and why did it appeal to you?

Ben Lloyd-Hughes

BLH: I got sent the script and loved it and got hooked on a world that is divided into factions. I was drawn to the story of choosing your future as a young person and what kind of person you would be. I taped a few times over a year and kind of forgot about it. I thought in my head this was a good project and while in LA had some casting sessions luckily with Neil, who cast me in Great Expectations, the best film I've made. I was lucky to be a match what for what he wanted in the character. It was a long process of Skype meetings and when I got the call that I had the part. It wasn't until I was on the set in costume did I believe I had the role.

CM: I was at a place where I had run into a wall with the auditioning process. I wasn't getting any work, and then this came along. I read the script, loved the character, but thought no chance. Then I auditioned and didn't hear anything until I got a note that I was going to Skype with Neil (Director Neil Burger). I didn't even know who the director was or what he looked like. As with Ben, when I got the call I still didn't believe it because there's a lot of rejection in this career. I did the meeting with the producers and one said that it will be cold when "We" go to Chicago. So it was a quick decision and I was on my way.

Q: Christian; you grew up in a show biz family. Did that encourage you to go into acting?

Christian Madsen

CM: Yes. I always had the notion that if my dad (Michael Madsen), was a race car driver, I'd be Dale Earnhardt, Jr. When I was a kid, I was always on sets with my dad but I didn't know what it was or about the thing filming him. As I grew older, I recognized what it was and decided not to do the sports route in high school. I wanted something on my own, not because of what my family did. Something swayed me so I did theatre and plays, at Playhouse West, and I was Iago in Othello. My grandma was on the writing committee at the Actors Studio and she would come see me in plays. I took some classes at the Actors Studio and ended up studying at the Playhouse West in North Hollywood. I like the craft of acting, and look at it as therapeutic. I wanted to continue this kind of work.

Q: Why do you think series like Hunger Games and this one are so appealing to its audience?

BLH: In particular what I like about Divergent is the world of escapism it creates. I love that when a story is told well like this future utopian, you can get wrapped up in it and forget your own life for an hour or two or an entire book. I think if young people today can get into these stories it's exciting. A lot of them have good messages. In Veronica's books there are good messages and morals found in the characters and the journey that are exciting. Example, be true to yourself and have strength in your own identity and uniqueness.

CM: They put a lot on our shoulders. Youth is an interesting subject, and it brings up things like all adults were once younger and they know what it's like to go through change and try to find yourself when in high school and middle school. I went through different phases of "you dress different," or people look at you as different, but then you find yourself. I think people see these movies because they can relate to that. When you succeed and excel into the best person you can be, it's exciting to watch. I think when you have a lot of challenges in life and then you become what you wanted to become, you look back and its more gratifying.

Q: There are some intense and very physical scenes in the movie. How did you both handle that?

BLH: We did a boot camp of stunts and martial arts and things before we started. We trained to get into shape by running and jumping with some great stunt guys, and it was about maintaining that for quite a few months.

CM: They would come to our hotel and work with us. For me the physical aspects were so great for me to focus on mentally. Obviously, we had preparation, but it took me back sort of like a method where we would do physical things in acting classes before we would do the scene to get more prepared. It also helped me because it might be something that my character Al might be doing – working out or honing a fighting style. In this film the characters are always one step from losing or becoming faction-less, or moving one step up to the next mark.

Q: Christian, how does Al add to Tris' character?

CM: It gives her more color and stuff to overcome. In the beginning Al is shy and has crush on Tris, but then he gets swayed by Peter and others that Tris is a bad person. He gets confused and turns on her. Al gives her more of an arc later in the film.

Q: Women have written this book, Hunger Games, Twilight, and Harry Potter, huge sellers. Do you think they see the male point of view in these series?

BLH: I think Veronica did in Divergent. When you read a book you sometime transport yourself into that world, and it's not about being a boy or a girl. If the work is strong enough, and the characters are strong enough and the characters believable enough, it's a good book. As I was reading the script, and later the book, I was able to think, what I would do in that situation. Veronica wrote this in college and if it inspires more young girls to write than that's a good thing.

Divergent opens in theaters March 21, 2014.

Incredibly inspiring 'The Book Thief' now on DVD

Geoffrey Rush and Sophie Nelisse in The Book Thief. Credit: Jules Heath / Twentieth Century Fox

Review by Diana Saenger

I found The Book Thief one of the more inspiring films of 2013. While many critics chose not to even see it or panned it – the film received an overall 76 percent approval as rating on Amazon, out of the 89 reviews 60 gave it five stars followed with four stars by another 13. Some critics label it a Holocaust movie; I never saw it as that.

In a small 1940's town in Germany young Liesel Meminger (Sophie Nelisse) has arrived to become adopted by Hans (Geoffrey Rush) and Rosa Hubermann (Emily Watson). Lisa soon fits into her new world mostly thanks to Rudy (Nico Liersch), the cute blond boy next door.

Hans becomes the human touch Liesel so needed as he tion for this role. Hans turns Liesel's life around by showing the child tenderness and love, yet always staying two steps ahead of danger is extraordinarily touching. When reading doesn't work, he brings out his old accordion and livens up her life with even more pleasure. It's like Rush went to bed one day an actor and woke up Hans Hubermann.

Nelisse enchants us in her first film. She's beautiful, intuitive, and so talented we only know her as Liesel. There's a twinkle in her beautiful eyes that achieves its own communication and a joie de vivre that lights her face.

There are scenes of German brutality here that are hard to watch as well as tear-inducing moments. But the film contains many funny ones as well. Some people may refer to The Book Thief as a Holocaust film, but I call it a movie full of wonder, hope and courage during the worst of times. Comments from Amazon viewers include: The Best Film I Ever Saw; I enjoyed this movie immensely, good for children 10+ years old; Must See; Incredible acting--should have been nominated for the Oscars; Best movie ever, wondering why movies such as this one does not even make it on the list of the Oscar awards.

The film is rated MPAA: "PG-13" for some violence and intense depiction of thematic material, I think 12 is okay, too. The DVD and Blu-ray edition includes Special Features: A Hidden Truth-Bringing the Book Thief to Life; An Inspirational History; The Legend and the Music and Finding the Thief and Her Family, and Deleted Scenes. The high def version is beautiful.

comes to love her (as she does him) and open up her world through the magic of books and words. She will face some hard times, meet another extraordinary person in her life and have one adventure after another. Rush should have had an Academy-Award nomination.

Ireland is a large island in the Atlantic Ocean. It is west of England, separated from it by the Irish Sea. Ireland is often called the Emerald Isle because people find it so fair and green.

The Irish are proud of their homeland and heritage. People of Irish descent in our country show their pride through pageants, parades, prayer and ceremonies. They invite everyone to be "Irish" during their celebration on St. Patrick's Day.

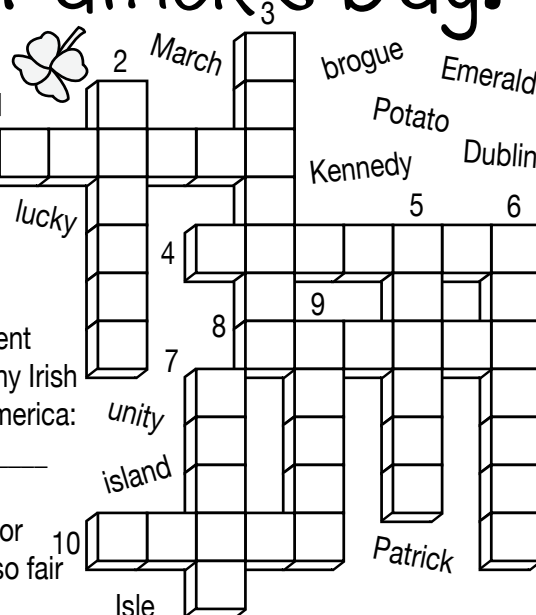

Hmm...four-leaf clovers seem to be falling from the sky today...I'm one lucky leprechaun!

A Delicious Surprise!

Even if you are not Irish, celebrating on St. Patrick's Day can be fun. I've always liked stories about Irish Fairies, especially the leprechauns. It is said that leprechauns, little knee-high fairies, try to stay away from people. If you see one, don't take your eyes off of him or he will disappear. In your sight, he may have to lead you to his secret wealth. To find out what that is, do these two puzzles!

I was trying to sneak up on this leprechaun. When I caught up with him all I could see him doing was cooking a great-smelling meal. He knew I was there all along. He invited me to dinner.

FY 2014-2018 CONSOLIDATED PLAN

The U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) provides annual grant funding on a formula basis to entitlement cities and counties, including the City of El Cajon, for housing and community development programs to benefit low- and moderate-income persons and families. Over the next Five-Year Consolidated Plan period, the City anticipates receiving approximately $6.8 million for the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Program and the HOME Investment Partnership (HOME) Program. As a condition of the funding, each jurisdiction must prepare and submit a 3- to 5-year Consolidated Plan which describes the City's priorities and multiyear goals for the use of the funds based on an assessment of housing and community development needs, an analysis of housing and economic market conditions and available resources. The City of El Cajon's current Five-Year Consolidated Plan expires on June 30, 2014. The City is in the process of preparing a new Consolidated Plan for the period of July 1, 2014 to June 30, 2019 (FY 2014-2018).

Following is a Summary of the contents of the draft Five-Year Consolidated Plan.

3. Summary of Citizen Participation Process

To solicit public input during the development of the Consolidated Plan, the City conducted four stakeholder meetings and two community workshops, and administered a Housing and Community Development Needs Survey.

Community and Stakeholder Meetings: El Cajon held two community meetings and four stakeholder meetings for a total of six public meetings to solicit input on needs. The public meetings were held on two consecutive days at four different locations. Distribution of notices of the meetings was extensive and was provided in a multitude of ways.

Housing and Community Development Needs Survey: An online survey was developed to assess the housing and community development needs of El Cajon residents and was made available through Survey Monkey. A total of 101 responses were received. Distribution of notices of the availability of the survey and request for public input was extensive and was provided in a multitude of ways.

Public Hearing of February 25, 2014: A public hearing was held and public input was invited. Several comments were provided by agencies requesting funding. All comments were taken into consideration and a summary of the comments is included in the Consolidated Plan.

Results of the comments received at the community meetings and public hearings, and the results of the survey, are incorporated into the Consolidated Plan/Action Plan.

4. FY 2014-15 Funding Application Process

A "Notice of Funding Availability" was published in the newspaper and mailed to an interested parties' list on November 7, 2013. CDBG applications for funding were also made available on that date. The public notice of the availability of funds was published in the East County Gazette on November 7, 2013 and November 14, 2013. The City received 18 applications. The FY 2014-2015 Action Plan is being developed pending final Council decision of funding allocations.

5. Summary

The City has continuing extensive housing and community development needs. CDBG and HOME funds alone are not adequate to address the myriad of needs identified during the public outreach process and summarized in the Needs Assessment and Market Analysis of the Consolidated Plan. Recognizing the national objectives of the CDBG and HOME programs and specific program regulations, the City intends to use CDBG and HOME funds to coordinate programs, services and projects to create a decent and suitable living environment to benefit low and moderate income households and individuals, including those with special needs.

FY 2014-2015 ONE-YEAR ACTION PLAN

As a condition of the funding each year, the City must prepare and submit a One-Year Action Plan which describes the projects and activities the City will undertake during the year to address the priorities and goals set forth in the Five-Year Consolidated Plan. In FY 2014-2015, the One-Year Action Plan is a component of the Five-Year Consolidated Plan which is being developed concurrently.

For FY 2014-2015, the City anticipates receiving $1,118,322 in Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funding and $397,163 in HOME Investment Partnerships (HOME) funding. In addition, $120,287 in unallocated CDBG funds was identified as available for allocation to CDBG Capital/Public Facility/Other projects only. The CDBG funds must be utilized to meet one of three national objectives to qualify for funding: 1) benefit low and moderate income persons in the community; 2) aid in the elimination of slum and blight; or 3) meet other community development needs having a particular urgency because existing conditions pose a serious threat. The HOME funds may be used "to provide incentives to develop and support affordable rental housing and homeownership affordability through the acquisition, new construction, reconstruction, or rehabilitation with suitable amenities, including real property acquisition, site improvement, conversion, demolition and other expenses. They may also be used to provide for the payment of reasonable administrative and planning costs, and to provide for the payment of operating expenses of community housing development organizations (CHDO's) – 24 CFR 92.205(a)." Each participating jurisdiction is required to set aside 15% of their HOME entitlement for CHDO's.

In the public hearing on February 25, 2014, the El Cajon City Council approved tentative FY 2014-2015 allocations for projects and activities in the development of the One-Year Action Plan, allocating a total of $1,238,609 in CDBG funds, and $397,163 in HOME funds as listed below:

Submission of a bid shall be prima facie evidence of the bidder's compliance with this requirement

Copies of the general prevailing wage rate of per diem wages, as determined by the California Director of Industrial Relations and by the U.S. Department of Labor Statistics, are available from the websites of the respective agencies. Any successful bidder who intends to use a craft of classifications not shown on the general prevailing wage determinations may be required to pay the wage rate of the craft or classification most closely related to it as shown in the general determinations effective at the time of the call for bids.

The Contractor and its subcontractors shall pay minimum labor wage rates as follows:

a) California General Prevailing Wage Rates

In accordance with the provisions of Section 1773 of the California Labor Code, the City Council of the City of El Cajon has ascertained the general prevailing rate of wages as determined by the Director of the Department of Industrial Relations applicable to the work to be done as listed in the California Department of Transportation publication entitled general Prevailing Wage Rates, dated March 1, 1994 which is on file in the office of the City Clerk.

Future effective wage rates which have been predetermined and are on file with the Department of Industrial Relations are referenced but not printed in said publication. Current determinations are available online at www.dir.ca.gov/DLSR/PWD/index.htm.

Any contractor who is awarded the contract and intends to use a craft or classification not shown on the general prevailing wage determinations, may be required to pay the wage rate of that craft or classification most closely related to it as shown in the general determinations effective at the time of the call for bids.

b) Federal Minimum Wages

Federal minimum wage rates for this project as predetermined by the U.S. Secretary of Labor are set forth in the Special Provisions. Current determinations are available online at www.wdol.gov/dba.aspx.

If there is a difference between the Federal minimum wage rates predetermined by the U.S. Secretary of Labor and the prevailing wage rates determined by the City of El Cajon for a similar classification of labor, the Contractor and its subcontractors shall pay not less than the higher wage rate.

All bids submitted shall be accompanied by a check made payable to the City of El Cajon, and certified by a responsible bank, in an amount which shall not be less than 10% of the amount of the bid, or by a surety bond for said amount and so payable, executed by a surety company authorized to do business in the State of California, and satisfactory to said City.

A performance Bond and Labor and Material Bond, each in an amount equal to 100% of the contract price, shall be executed by the successful bidder within ten days after the Notice of Award of Contract has been mailed. The Contractor shall provide the City with a signed and notarized non-collusion affidavit.

Bids shall be delivered to the Purchasing Agent at the 1st floor front counter of City Hall, 200 Civic Center Way, El Cajon, California 92020. The results of the bidding and the calculations of the bids will be reported to the City Council at a meeting subsequent to the date above set for the opening of bids.

The City Council reserves the right to reject any and all bids if it considers it necessary to do so for the public good, and it may reject the bid of any bidder who has been delinquent or unfaithful in any former contract with the City.

However, at the time the contract is awarded, the contractor shall be properly licensed in accordance with the laws of this state. The first payment for work or material under any contract shall not be made unless and until the Registrar of Contractors verifies to the agency that the records of the Contractors State License Board indicate that the contractor was properly licensed at the time the contract was awarded. Any bidder or contractor not so licensed shall be subject to all legal penalties imposed by law, including, but not limited to, any appropriate disciplinary action by the Contractors State License Board. NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF DAN ZEIDMAN CASE NO. 37-2012-00152716-PR-LA-CTL ROA #: 101 (IMAGED FILE)

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the lost will or estate, or both, of: DAN ZEIDMAN

A Petition for Probate has been filed by Summer Vicknair in the Superior Court of California, County of SAN DIEGO. The Petition for Probate requests that Cynthia Chihak be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent. The Petition requests the decedent's lost will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The lost will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court. The Petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. A hearing on the petition will be held in this court on April 10, 2014 at 1:30 pm in Dept. PC-2 located at 1409 4th Avenue, San Diego, CA 92101-3105 Central Division/Madge Bradley Building. If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law. You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk. ## Pet of the Week

"Are you searching for a loving, wonderful pet? Please look my way! My name is Bobbie, and I'm a six-year-old Boxer sweetheart who is sure to bring joy into your life. I promise to be a loyal and affectionate family pet, and I get along well with other dogs. I enjoy going for nice walks (I walk respectfully on a leash), and I love everybody. I'm happy, curious, and quite intelligent. I know how to sit on command, and I've already been house trained. Gosh, what more could you ask for? I'd love for you to come visit me at the El Cajon Animal Shelter so we can get better acquainted in the lovely play yard that they have here. I think that once you look into my sweet face, you'll want to take me home and love me forever. I hope to see you soon! Love, Bobbie" Kennel #50

Keeping your dog's teeth healthy can increase life expectancy

Did you know that oral hygiene is tied to your pet's overall health? Studies show that keeping your pet's mouth healthy may increase life expectancy by up to two years.

You can prevent or reduce your dog's chances of developing oral disease by beginning a hygiene regimen from an early age.

"It's important to start good oral hygiene as early as possible," says Bob Scharf, president of Sergeant's Pet Care Products. "According to the American Veterinary Dental Society, 80 percent of dogs show symptoms of oral disease by the age of three. However, it's never too late to take better care of your dog's teeth."

A few easy steps can help you get started.

Signs of oral disease

Keep an eye out for bad breath and unusual or excessive drooling and pawing at the mouth, as they can be signs of dental problems.

In addition to bad breath, poor oral health can lead to kidney and heart disease. The bacteria in the mouth can build up, entering the bloodstream via the gums. This puts extra work on the kidneys to filter out bacteria. And these bacteria can set up house in a dog's heart valves, potentially leading to a condition called valvular endocarditis.

Establish a routine

To ensure better dental health, brush your dog's teeth daily. This can be daunting, but half the challenge is getting started and developing a routine.

Dogs need help brushing their teeth. With this in mind, the experts at Sergeant's Pet Care Products developed a line of dental products targeting plaque, a buildup of bacteria, and tartar, which occurs when plaque hardens and adheres to tooth enamel.

Get dogs used to the experience by squeezing canine tooth paste on your finger and putting it between their cheeks and gums. Canine toothpaste has special food flavoring, making it appealing to pets. As they lick the paste, praise them constantly.

Keep initial brushing sessions to a few gentle seconds. Once your dog is used to having his teeth brushed, do so for about a minute daily.

Treats can help

Other items and treats can help canine oral care, such as dental chews and rawhides which promote chewing and mechanically remove plaque. For example, Sentry Petrodex Filled Dental Bones help prevent plaque while keeping teeth clean and breath fresh. In addition to the bone's exterior benefits, an advanced dental paste inside of the bone with a residual component adheres to dogs' teeth and works to whiten by cleaning away plaque and tartar buildup. These treats are available at such specialty pet retailers as PetSmart and Petco.

Additionally, feeding your dog hard kibbles instead of soft, moist food is slightly better at keeping plaque from accumulating.

By following a simple dental routine you can help keep your dog happy and healthy for years to come!
