CA GROWN launches campaign to help California food banks

CA GROWN has launched a social media campaign aimed at helping feed the state's hungry. For every photo of a California grown or produced food or beverage posted with the hashtag #CAGrown, CA GROWN will donate a pound of food to a California food bank.

California provides the nation with 90 percent of their produce, and yet over 3.7 million adult Californians experienced food insecurity in 2009 according to the California Health Interview Survey.

The hashtag promotion was launched at Ag Day at the State Capitol in Sacramento in March. "We created this program to help raise the awareness about the importance of buying food grown locally, while at the same time providing that locally grown food to those in our community in need," said Nick Matteis, executive director of the Buy California Marketing Agreement, which manages CA GROWN.

CA GROWN is partnering with the California Farm Bureau Federation's (CFBF) Young Farmers and Ranchers to help coordinate the donations. "We are very excited about our partnership with CA GROWN and expanding our annual contributions to food banks through the Feeding America Harvest for All program," said Kevin Robertson, chairman of the CFBF Young Farmers and Ranchers Committee.

Californians can participate by posting photos of meals at restaurants, or of anything grown or produced in California. CA GROWN also encourages people to take a picture with any products labeled CA GROWN, such as grapes, strawberries, eggs, flowers, etc. The campaign, which will run through October 31 will culminate in food donations at local food banks. Hashtags will only be counted on accounts that do not have a privacy block.

"It's heartwarming to see the photos that people are posting on social media, it's especially great to see young people getting involved," said Secretary of the California Department of Food and Agriculture Karen Ross. To view some of the photos, use #CAGrown to search Twitter and Instagram.

CA GROWN has also launched a blog, www.cagrownblog.com where you can find out more about the hashtag program. You can find CA GROWN on Facebook (search California Grown) or on Twitter and Instagram @cagrownofficial.

The Buy California Marketing Agreement (BCMA) was formed in 1993 through a partnership with the California Department of Food and Agriculture, and commodity groups representing the state's agriculture industry. The purpose of BCMA is to emphasize our strong ties to the land and to our neighbors; to take pride in our homegrown products and our work; and to support our economy and our Californian way of life.

Alpine resident Carey Guthrie (far left) organized the recent Pacific Southwest Association of Realtors' (PSAR) first annual chili cook-off and poker tournament, a fundraiser for the Housing Affordability Fund (HAF). Prizes were presented for best chili and poker playing. The fundraiser was attended by about 150 PSAR members at the PSAR East County Service Center in El Cajon. More than $2,000 was raised for HAF, a non-profit dedicated to provide more options for first-time homebuyers' entry into homeownership. HAF was established by the California Association of Realtors (CAR). "PSAR is dedicated to helping working families achieve the dream of homeownership," said Guthrie, president-elect of PSAR, a trade group for San Diego-area realtors. PSAR members from left to right: Guthrie, Rich D'Ascoli, Rob McNelis and Sarah Heck.

Help build a playground in one day at Wells Park on Saturday

We could use more volunteers! The City of El Cajon needs volunteers to help with the assembly of a one-of-a-kind, customized KaBOOM! playground at Wells Park on June 5 and June 7. The existing playground at Wells Park was in need of replacement. A new playground will provide youth with a new area to play and have fun!

The City of El Cajon, Foresters, Stoney's Kids, Boys & Girls Club of East County and KaBOOM! (a national non-profit organization that has built more than 2,400 playgrounds) have designed a customized playground for Wells Park, located at 1153 East Madison Avenue. The playground, funded primarily by Foresters, was created from personal drawings and local community members' input collected during a recent special design day on April 3. The input came from all ages, children through seniors.

The playground "building days" will take place on June 5 and June 7. Wells Park is located at 1153 East Madison Avenue in El Cajon. If you would like to give back to your community, we are looking for those highly skilled in the area of construction for the June 5 prep day, and again for the June 7 build day. Hours will be from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on June 5, and on June 7, hours will be 8 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. If you can help, call (619) 873-1641. Volunteers must pre-register. 150 volunteers are needed!

Sidewalk CPR Day is Thursday, June 5

Sidewalk CPR Day is set for Thursday, June 5! The goal of this Southern California campaign is to train approximately 3,500 citizens in "Hands Only CPR," thus increasing the number of lifesavers in our community. Sudden cardiac arrest kills over 1,500 San Di-egans each year and medical science has proven that community based CPR programs, designed to teach bystander CPR, has a direct impact on cardiac arrest survival.

On June 5, from 9 to 10 a.m., Heartland Fire & Rescue personnel will provide Sidewalk CPR training at City Hall in El Cajon, La Mesa and Lemon Grove. Then, from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m., they'll provide Sidewalk CPR training at Parkway Plaza in El Cajon, Grossmont Shopping Center in La Mesa, and at Albertsons, located at 7090 Broadway in Lemon Grove. This life-saving effort is sponsored in conjunction with San Diego County Health and Human Services, the American Red Cross, the American Heart Association and San Diego Project Heartbeat.

Trained personnel will educate the citizens on when to call 9-1-1, when to use CPR, and how to provide Hands Only Sidewalk CPR, showing them where to place their hands, how deep to push and the rate of compressions. Educational material about Sidewalk CPR will be distributed at each event with a request to pass this life-saving information onto family and friends. Thanks to support from the City Managers in El Cajon, La Mesa and Lemon Grove, Heartland Fire & Rescue will provide this training to City staff on June 5.

America on Main Street - coming June 14!

Join us for a family-friendly community festival called "America on Main Street." The event will be on Saturday, June 14, in Downtown El Cajon. This patriotic event is planned to coincide with the nationally recognized Flag Day and celebrate the American spirit through appreciation and respect of the many diverse, ethnic, and historical groups in the community. Additionally, there will be a special "Red, White & Blue" area saluting our military! Highlights also include two stages with live entertainment, American and ethnic food booths, a Ferris wheel, rides, arts, crafts, display booths, a petting zoo, a rock wall, a Fiesta de Futbol street soccer event, and so much more. It promises to be a day of fun and appreciation! This event will be located on East Main Street and Rea Avenue, between Magnolia and Claydelle Avenues, from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.

*Volunteers are needed for this fun event! Please consider being a volunteer or community sponsor for this inaugural event. To learn more, call (619) 441-1762.

Six-Time NASCAR Champion Jimmie Johnson returns to his hometown of El Cajon for a special tribute

Jimmie Johnson will be in El Cajon, weather permitting, on Tuesday, June 17! On that day, the El Cajon City Council will hold a special celebration to recognize the El Cajon native for his racing accomplishments and philanthropic contributions to the community. The City is encouraging everyone to attend and show their support for one of NASCAR's biggest stars.

El Cajon Mayor Bill Wells, the City Council, Senator Joel Anderson, and other local dignitaries will be honoring Johnson during a special ceremony beginning promptly at 11 a.m. local time. Due to Jimmie's time constraints, this is not an autograph event. His #48 show car will be on display at this event and special #48 Hero cards will be available, while supplies last. Additionally, portions of the event will be broadcast live on 101.5 KGB.

Johnson continues to make his hometown proud. In 2013, he won his sixth NASCAR Sprint Cup Series championship, adding to a NASCAR record five championships in a row (2006-2010). At just 38, he is the youngest driver to win six titles. His 68 wins since 2002 puts him eighth on the all-time wins list. Just over the past two weeks, Johnson won back-to-back races, the Autism Speaks 400 and the Coca Cola 600.

Despite his extremely busy schedule, Johnson still visits San Diego each year, not only to see family, but to give back to the community through the Jimmie Johnson Foundation. To date, his Foundation has given more than $6.5 million dollars to schools here in El Cajon and across the nation. Come out, see Jimmie - and show your support of El Cajon's NASCAR superstar!

Event: Jimmie Johnson Special Tribute

Date: June 17, 2014

Time: 11 a.m.-12 p.m.

Location: Centennial Plaza, 200 Civic Center Way

*Schedule subject to change.

Alpine Kiwanis annual East County Law Enforcement Day

by Diana Saenger

Once a year the Alpine Kiwanis dedicate an entire meeting to honoring the Sheriffs, Border Patrol officers and Highway Patrol officers who protect Easy County. Officers arrived with their family members and were treated to a smoked ham breakfast.

Wayne Jackson, the Border Patrol agent in charge of the Campo Station talked about Officer Ronald Ewers. A 20 year veteran, Ewers works exclusively with state and local partners.

"I've never seen an officer make such as positive impact on the community," Jackson said. "He's a rancher and in his duty assignments works with murderers, human trafficking and drugs. Officer Ewers is a candidate in the nation's Border Patrol Office of the Year."

Lt. Mario Zermeno of the San Diego Sheriff's Department had raves for the officers that work with him. He praised Deputy Larry Hammers as instrumental in stopping crime in Alpine.

"Deputy Hammers is very community oriented and has been very successful at stopping DUI's, Zermeno said.

Sgt. Steve Lopez of the California Highway Patrol was there to honor Officer Ryan Harrison. He has more than 100,000 accident-free miles while on duty.

"In his five years here Ryan has fallen in love with Alpine. He works grave yards and has goals to stop DUI's. He has outstanding work skills, and he is also a drug negotiation expert," Lopez said.

In addition to the accolades bestowed on them by their superiors the officers were award with a plaque of appreciation from the Alpine Kiwanis Club. Representatives from Congressional members Duncan Hunter and Joel Anderson's offices also presented the officers with recognition certificates.

Youth Conference, 'Future Quest,' enters its 17th year!

Future Quest will hold its 17th annual Youth Conference June 25-27. The theme of this year's Conference is Prevail, and will include three full days of equipping workshops, hands-on outreach training, concerts, special guest speakers including Bill Wilson of Metro Ministries and master illusionist Richard Harris III, plus a wide variety of free time activities and events.

Students entering 7th through 12th grade this fall are encouraged to attend. The Conference is $35 for all three days if registration is completed prior to June 16 or $42 at the door. Church youth ministries that register as a group of five or more before June 16 may bring one free adult youth leader with every five students, and will be locked in at the $35 price for any additional students that register at the door.

The war on common sense

by Dr. Rev. James L. Snyder

Listening to news programs, particularly the yakity-yak-my-view-is-the-only-right-view programs you might come away with the idea that there is a war on everything.

Most of the time, someone is for a certain "war" because of some political advantage it will give them in the public's eye.

Is it just me or have you noticed people will create a war on something just to get in the limelight? They are not against something they just know someone is; that someone is someone that goes to the polls and votes, and they want their vote.

The greatest war going on in our society today is the war on common sense. There, I said it. And I stand by what I said. There is a tremendous attack on common sense in our society today.

I must confess that common sense is not as common as it once was and perhaps never was. I like to think that somewhere along the line a few good people have entertained common sense.

It would be nice if just some time these politicians would simply come together and establish a law, merely one law that makes sense. In order to make one law that makes sense they have to have 999 other laws that confuse it to such a degree that it no longer makes sense.

Common sense would tell me if I do not have enough money I cannot purchase a certain thing. That does not work in Washington. Oh no. In Washington, affording something financially is never part of the equation. The only thing important in that equation is, does this make somebody who voted for me happy enough to vote for me again?

It takes a lot of good old-fashioned common sense to take care of money and run my household budget in such a way that the Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage is happy. Taking care of money and making sure that we do not spend money on things we do not need is part of the common sense that helps me balance my checkbook month after month.

Common sense says I need to balance my checkbook.

Washington sense says, write checks until you have no more checks to write then order more checks. Forget all that stuff about balance. If we run out of money, we just print more money.

Does that really make sense?

Not only is common sense eliminated from the financial aspects of our country, but health issues are also thrown to the curb.

Common sense would tell me I need to eat properly.

Washington sense says, eat what I tell you to eat. I have seen some of the stuff that they, the government, wants us to eat. The government wants to come into our school cafeterias and force-feed our children a proper diet.

In most of these schools, I cannot speak for all of them, the children have the common sense to throw it away. Common sense says if it does not look good or taste good it probably ain't good for you.

The Bible has a lot to say about this. My favorite verse of Scripture is, "Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin" (James 4:17).

I need to make common sense the standard of my day-to-day living based upon the common teaching of the Word of God.

Rev. James L. Snyder is pastor of the Family of God Fellowship, PO Box 831313, Ocala, FL 34483. He lives with his wife, Martha, in Silver Springs Shores. Call him at 1-866-552-2543 or e-mail jamesnsnyder2@att.net or website www.james-snyderministries.com.

Dear Dr. Luauna — Leaving those things behind

Dear Readers,

People get caught up in the hurts of yesterday and even hold on to last years betrayals. Don't! You must learn to LET GO, TO LET GOD. For we have been building a hidden treasure within. Whether good or evil, every day we draw from this treasure chest from within our hearts. But then Jesus comes and we are called to change the things within the treasure box, of our heart.

What we have been putting for years into that hidden box in our hearts will come out. Sometimes without even realizing, it becomes filled with things which cause damage to your today and tomorrows. Without notice, you pull out the old things. This is why sometimes our lives play out in such confusion. We must replace what has been placed in our hearts before salvation, with God's Word. When we come into the Kingdom of God, we're like a child again, 2 Corinthians 5:17; "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new." Thank God! Then new training starts to take place by the Holy Spirit. Proverbs 22:6; "Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it."

When we stop and look at our life, we see the things we have learned, come out of us automatically. It's only through Jesus that we find freedom within. A while back I was working with a young man who was raised with an extremely abusive father; he learned his earthly father's patterns. He had to learn everything over which he had been taught as a child. It's like "Stinkin' thinkin'!" Not everything we've learned growing up is right before God. This is why we must read and learn God's Word. The Bible brings life and freedom. God's promises written in the Bible, when received, unfold God's treasures for you and me. We must let go of the old, and put on the new. Take the new, so your whole life can change.

Romans 6:1-7; "What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin that grace may abound? Certainly not! How shall we who died to sin live any longer in it? Or do you not know that as many of us as were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into His death? Therefore we were buried with Him through baptism into death, that just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. For if we have been united together in the likeness of His death, certainly we also shall be in the likeness of His resurrection, knowing this, that our old man was crucified with Him, that the body of sin might be done away with, that we should no longer be slaves to sin. For he who has died has been freed from sin."

Many miss out by holding on to the old way of life, holding on to the old man. By holding on to the old, the new man in Christ Jesus is limited. It's a process. You can have an amazing new life, let go and let God. Be wise what you put in your heart; because whatever you put in, it is gonna come out.

For Health's Sake

Men at risk for the silent killers — many haven't seen a doctor in the past year

Many fathers, husbands, sons, brothers, and boyfriends share a common ailment called "Doctor-itis" — avoidance of a trip to the doctor. Whether it's a "macho" thing as some research suggests, or simply fear or lack of time, the scary fact is that men don't take time out of their day to see a doctor.

In honor of Father's Day (June 15) and Men's Health Week (June 9-15), local doctors at AFC/Doctors Express centers in our area urge men to come in for a checkup. Urgent care centers are ideal for the man on the go — no appointments are necessary and later hours offer convenience. The time is right for a doctor's visit since survey information by the American Academy of Family Physicians and the Men's Health Network (MNH) reveals:

- 55 percent of U.S. men haven't seen their M.D. in the past year, and men make half as many doctor visits for prevention as women. (AAFP, National Institutes of Health)
- This is despite the fact that men have a higher death rate for fatal illnesses including cancer and heart disease. (MNH)

"While many men have the attitude that 'nothing's wrong,' or 'I'm fine,' there are several medical problems that don't present symptoms and can lead to trouble down the road if they aren't addressed," says Dr. D. Bruce Irwin, founder of American Family Care. "Most men are guilty of 'doctor avoidance,' and we're urging men to step up and take charge of their health, just as they do with other aspects of their lives."

Men's hidden health risks

Doctors and experts at the American Osteopathic Association recommend physicals to rule out common problems or identify health risks that often don't show obvious signs including:

- High Blood pressure
- Diabetes
- Elevated Cholesterol Levels

With so many reasons to live a healthier lifestyle, men still lead women in more areas of health risk, according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and MNH.

- More men (31 percent) have five or more alcoholic drinks in a day, versus 14 percent of women.
- More men (21 percent) over age 18 smoke cigarettes, versus 18 percent of women.
- Of men under age 65, 18 percent don't have health insurance.

• More men are employed in dangerous occupations, such as construction workers, firefighters, police officers and miners.

• Experts believe healthy behaviors in men and boys are discouraged by "macho" society.

• More men are involved in suicides and car accidents, linked to depression and "risky" youthful behaviors.

"A routine checkup, paired with screenings and lifestyle changes, if necessary, can reduce the risk of chronic illness for men, as well as the chances of needing surgery later in life," Dr. Irwin says. "We want men to embrace a healthy lifestyle and visit the doctor to get the care they need and deserve."

Men's checkup checklist

Viewing the doctor as an ally rather than an adversary can lead to a longer, healthier life for men. AFC/Doctors Express physicians recommend men follow a Checkup Checklist with a medical professional to address issues that impact men's health the most. According to the NIH that includes:

- Blood pressure: Normal blood pressure is 120/80. If your numbers are higher, your doctor may recommend lifestyle changes, medication or monitoring.
- Cholesterol: Men ages 34 and over should be checked every five years.
- Colon cancer: Men over age 50 should get regular screenings for colorectal cancer.

• Heart disease: According to the CDC, high blood pressure, high LDL cholesterol, and smoking are key risk factors for heart disease. About half of Americans (49 percent) have at least one of these three risk factors.

• Immunizations: Men should get a flu shot every year. Other vaccinations may be needed if you have other medical conditions

• Osteoporosis: Men ages 50-70 who smoke, drink alcohol or are sedentary, should be screened for osteoporosis.

• Prostate cancer: Men over 50 should get a prostate cancer screening annually. Those with a history of prostate cancer and black men should start screening at 45.

D-Day Veteran aircraft 'D-Day Doll' to arrive for 'AirShow San Diego' Commemoration of 70th Anniversary of D-Day

P-47 Thunderbolt will be at AirShow San Diego

Visit and view AirShow San Diego from the cockpit of the famous "D-Day Doll." Rides are available in this historic "winged time machine" over the 70th D-Day Anniversary weekend at AirShow San Diego. D-Day Doll is an aircraft assigned, maintained and operated by the Inland Empire Wing of the Commemorative Air Force, based in Riverside, CA.

A "winged time machine" is coming to San Diego June 6-8 to commemorate the 70th Anniversary of D-Day, the invasion of Normandy and liberation of Europe. "D-Day Doll," a historic C-53 aircraft that dropped paratroopers into that epic World War II battle will greet visitors at AirShow San Diego, June 7 & 8.

Starting on June 6, the 70th Anniversary of D-Day, commemoration rides will be available in D-Day Doll for $250. Same price for June 7 & 8 weekend rides before and after AirShow San Diego flying performance periods. This a once in a lifetime opportunity to experience a piece of history. A very rare chance to share a unique memorable experience with love ones, Veteran friends, youth and those not so young in need of a perspective of history. (Call 619-259-5541)

"Being able to sit in the seat that an 18-year-old (paratrooper) sat in 70 years ago, ready to jump (into combat), is kind of heady," said Andy Conley, crew chief aboard the C-53D Sky Trooper nicknamed D-Day Doll. "To smell the smell of an aircraft like that is unique: Oil and gas, and burlap and greasy rags. It's (vintage) aviation."

WWII Reenactors will be at D-Day Doll ready to greet and educate you about a historic period in world history from the point of view of troops on the ground that liberated Europe in WWII.

Plan to Commemorate the 70th Anniversary of D-Day at AirShow San Diego, June 7 & 8 at Gillespie Field El Cajon, California. Near where SR-52 extension connects to SR-67 FREE Parking - FREE "KidsZone" Gates open 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

"AirShow San Diego" on June 7 & 8 will feature a collection of aircraft and performances commemorating the 70th Anniversary of "D-Day," the WWII allied invasion of Normandy.

Back by popular demand will be John Collver's War Dog T6/ SNJ aerobatics and new this year, his race with jet car "Smoke and Thunder." There will be many other historic aircraft flying and on ground display. In addition to military re-enactors, paratroopers, and a mock battle with "Pyro" there will be classic cars, airplane rides, Navy SEALs interactive display, expanded family fun zone and kid's attractions, food & beverages, Beer Garden, Music and more.

For the first time there will be a music concert and a dance contest on Saturday, June 7, 3 p.m. to 7 p.m. Online advance ticket sales and "AirShow San Diego" information available on Air Group One website: ag1caf.org

Representative D-Day "invasion striped" P-51 Mustang and P-47 Thunderbolt fighter aircraft plus C-47 "Dakota" will join D-Day Doll and others at AirShow San Diego and in the flying performance period from 11 am to 2 pm both Saturday and Sunday.

The AIRBORNE ASSAULT into Normandy as part of the D-Day Allied invasion of Europe was the largest use of airborne troops up to that time. Paratroopers of the U.S. 82d and 101st Airborne divisions, the British 6th Airborne Division, the 1st Canadian Parachute Battalion, and other attached Allied units took part in the assault. Numbering more than 13,000 men, the paratroopers were flown from bases in southern England to the Cotentin Peninsula in approximately 925 C-47 and C-53 airplanes, including the now named "D-Day Doll." An additional 4,000 men, consisting of glider infantry with supporting weapons and medical and signal units, were to arrive in 500 gliders later on D-Day to reinforce the paratroopers. The parachute troops were assigned what was probably the most difficult task of the initial operation -- a night jump behind enemy lines five hours before the coastal landings.

Ride the Wings of History

Experience the sensations of a bygone era from the cockpit of Air Group One's legendary North American SNJ Texan, "Sassy," or take to wing in the CAF's legendary C-53 "D-Day Doll" for an unforgettable "D-Day" ride! You can be one of the privileged few to relive the thrill of flight the way our heroes experienced it...

Alpine continues its patriotism for our country

Viejas Fire Truck Flag at Alpine Memorial Day Celebration

Review by Diana Saenger

The Alpine Community celebrated its 4th Memorial Day celebration in the park next to the community center. The center of the day's focus fell on the brand new fountain – surrounded by red, white and blue flowers – in the center of the Alpine Wall of Honor.

Arrivals began about 11 a.m. as people chose their spots, made their way to the Kiwanis cook shack for a burger or hot dog combo meal, and then settled in to listen to soundman Rod Galloway's music or historic speeches from past presidents.

The program started at noon with an invocation by Theo Bazdorf, the Chaplain of VFW Post 978. This was followed by Bert Fuller VFW Post 978 Color Guard and then the Pledge of Allegiance by Robert Jackson. A Remembrance Ceremony was performed by Dan Foster and WWII Veteran Bill Ridenour.

Peter Hastings sang America the Beautiful as the Buecker Squadron Vintage WWII Planes did a fly-over just for Alpine. Herb Cawthorne acknowledged special guest member Congressman Duncan Lee Hunter, former House of Representative from California's 52nd, 45th and 42nd districts from 1981 to 2009. He spoke eloquently about the state of affairs in America.

A very special Mini-Concert of Patriotic Songs was performed by the San Diego Festival Chorus. Dan Foster, founder of the Alpine Wall of Honor, addressed where the wall is today. Comments were made about the second Wall book about the veterans on the wall. Foster then introduced Joe Guenther, a man who heard about the wall from the CBS PBR sports show feature about the Alpine Wall. Guenther attended the ceremony on May 26, and is purchasing a tile for Forrest Dane Cauthorn, KIA in Iraq in 2007, and the son of Guenther's long-time friend and father of Dane, Billy Cauthorn.

Taps officially ended the celebration, but many hung around to visit or pay honor to those on the Wall of Honor.

Portrait of a dedicated gadfly is a must see

Review by Jean Lowerison

His father both had an affair with Amelia Earhart and designed a plane so safe that even his 10-year-old son could fly it – and he is shown doing so in Gore Vidal: The United States of Amnesia.

Vidal spent three years in World War II, where he “never heard a patriotic word said about anything.” After an early discharge for crippling arthritis, he became a successful writer at 21 with his first book, Williwaw, a sea story based on his Alaskan Harbor detachment during the war.

In 1948, the publication of The City And The Pillar caused a furor with its explicit depiction of homosexuality – and so offended New York Times book critic Orville Prescott that he refused to review it, nor allow reviews of his next five novels.

Vidal turned to Hollywood for work and doctored the screenplay for Ben Hur. He drove through Italy with Tennessee Williams and bought a fabulous home on the hills of the Amalfi Coast.

But he was probably best known for debating anyone and everyone – most notably William F. Buckley, when they were both hired to provide political commentary for the Democratic and Republican national conventions in 1968.

Gore Vidal: The United States of Amnesia uses largely archival footage and interview snippets to illustrate the life of this gadfly extraordinaire. He spent 38 years with Howard Auster in a nonsexual friendship. “Sex ruins relationships,” he said, “though he also claims to be a dedicated libertine.”

Filmmaker Nicholas Wrathall calls him “the last lion of the age of American liberalism.” Vidal was certainly one of the most vocal – and possibly the most entertaining. He was a sound bite machine, a fact Wrathall takes advantage of by flashing some of his most famous quotes on the screen. Here are a few of my favorites:

“You don’t decide to write. You are one or you aren’t.”

“The war on terror is abstract. It’s like a war on dandruff.”

“The U.S. was founded by the brightest people in the country – and we haven’t seen them since.”

Vidal hobnobs with Hollywood celebrities like Paul Newman and pols like Mikhail Gorbachev (at the glasnost summit in 1986), rails about American adventurism and stolen elections that he says indicate the loss of the American republic.

“The lies are based on the most advanced techniques of advertising, the only art form my country has ever created,” he said. “We sell presidents and soap in the same fashion.”

Gore Vidal: The United States of Amnesia is a fascinating (if partisan) portrait of a dedicated gadfly. It’s a must-see for every American.

If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same Lender may hold more than one mortgage or Deed of Trust on the property. NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF GERALD WESLEY WILCOX
CASE NO. 37-2014-00016476-PR-LA-CTL
ROA #: 1 (IMAGED FILE)

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of: GERALD WESLEY WILCOX

A Petition for Probate has been filed by DIANA YOUNG in the Superior Court of California, County of SAN DIEGO.

The Petition for Probate requests that DIANA YOUNG be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent. The Petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A hearing on the petition will be held in this court on July 1, 2014 at 11:00 a.m. in Dept. PC-1 located at 1409 4th Avenue, San Diego, CA 92101-3105 Central Division/Madge Bradley Building.

If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (714) 573-1965 or visit this Internet Web site www.priorityposting.com using the file number assigned to this case: 14-01-008. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. We are attempting to collect a debt and any information we obtain will be used for that purpose whether received orally or in writing. Pet seat belts save lives

Traveling with pets has never been more popular amongst pet parents. Traveling by car is by far the most common mode of pet travel and dogs are the most frequent travelers. "Want to go for a ride?" is music to a dog's ears. They go just about everywhere with their parents...running errands around town, to beaches and parks, going on family vacations, and staying in pet friendly hotels. If pets are welcome - they come along! Unfortunately, most pet parents do not properly secure their pets when riding with them in their vehicles. They love their pets and would do anything for them...but probably don't realize that they are putting their pets at great risk.

Did you know that at only 35 mph, a 60 lb. pet becomes a 2,700 pound projectile and that unsecured pets commonly escape from vehicles and run off post-accident? How often are you distracted by your excited or rambunctious pet while driving? Did you know that driver distraction causes more accidents than anything else?

Securing your pet during car travel is essential to ensuring their safety. There are many ways to properly secure your pet in a vehicle. Buckling them up in pet seat belt is a very easy and affordable way to help ensure that your pet stays safe while traveling in your vehicle. Pet seat belts range in price from about $9 - $40. They come in different sizes to accommodate most all sized pets and most are adjustable.

Most pet seat belts attach onto your vehicle's seat belt. Some come with leads that have a buckle at one end that fits into your vehicle's seat belt receptacle, and the other end of the lead has a clip that attaches onto your pet's harness. Other pet seat belts have leads that have a loop at one end in which you put your vehicle's seat belt strap through and the other end has a clip which attaches to a harness. If you choose to give your pet more freedom in the back seat, you can get a pet seat belt that has a zip line which attaches between the two rear passenger side handles, creating a tether which attaches to your pet's harness.

No matter what type of pet seat belt you choose, you must always use a harness - never a collar. A collar can easily choke or strangle your pet if you stop fast or are in an accident. In addition, pet's should never ride in the front seat. Deployed airbags can seriously injure pets.

With pet travel growing by leaps and bounds, pet parents must step up and be sure to take the necessary measures to ensure their pet's safety - pet seat belts are an effective way to do this. Safe travels and please buckle up your precious pets!
