Rattlesnakes are out and Lakeside River Park Conservancy will be hosting a free rattlesnake safety training class. Ranger Heidi will be bringing in non-venomous snakes for hands-on experience as well as teach participants about living, working, and hiking safely in rattlesnake country. She will provide tips on identifying rattlesnakes from other snakes, what to do if you, a friend or family member, or your pet is bitten, and fun facts about rattlesnakes' habitat, diet, and reproductive cycle. Held at Lakeside's River Park Conservancy, everyone is invited to learn more about the important role rattlesnakes play in San Diego's ecosystem. This event is suitable for children ages 5 and older. Training class will be held on Saturday, Sept. 6 from 9 to 10:30 a.m. Register online at www.lakesideriverpark.org/events/rattlesnakesafety.html — Pictured above is Ranger Heidi teaching a class with her snakes. Local Elks Lodge helps Up! students at Cuyamaca College

Thirty students in a Cuyamaca College program that provides a measure of support often missing in their lives as former foster youth received school supplies and vouchers for books and transportation from the El Cajon Elks Lodge Thursday.

Cuyamaca College Professor Emeritus Anthony Zambelli, who continues to work on campus, said the event was the result of his attending a forum where he heard the plight of foster youth as they age out of the county system.

"All the financial and other support they receive ends and they are basically put out on the street and that's so wrong," Zambelli said. He decided to put his longtime membership with the El Cajon Elks Lodge to use to support former foster youth through Cuyamaca's Unlimited Potential, or Up!, program. A $2,000 grant from the Elks National Foundation paid for the backpacks, school supplies and vouchers, along with a lunch of pizza to the Up! students who benefitted from the Elks' largesse.

About 100 former foster youth and students raised by guardians take part each semester in the program, said

Pam Fleming, the college's foster youth liaison and financial aid adviser. The goal of the program is to provide support and services to help the students overcome the extra obstacles they face and to keep them focused on their studies.

"Their biggest challenge is lack of parental or family support while attending college," Fleming said. "They usually have low income and no additional support in case the car breaks down, or they have an extra expense. They also have no trusted and caring adult to help them make decisions. Many of our Up! students become homeless during their college career, so housing and transportation are huge issues for them."

Jasmin Jimenez, 19, a Cuyamaca student who plans to attend Grossmont College in the fall to begin her major in Administration of Justice, said Up! has provided invaluable support, such as food from the onsite pantry. Born to a mother in prison who continued to be in and out of incarceration for many years, Jimenez is living with an older brother in El Cajon. Both she and her boyfriend, who was raised by his grandmother, were among those receiving backpacks.

Jimenez said she plans to transfer to San Diego State University to obtain a bachelor's degree in criminal justice and eventually become a parole officer. She said her mother was deported to Mexico after her last stint behind bars.

More than the school supplies, the students also received words of encouragement and kudos from lodge members and associates, including Paul Kassel, the former head of the Elks Lodge in Poway, an alum of Cuyamaca and Grossmont colleges.

Kassel described a childhood of limited means growing up in El Cajon, as one of eight siblings and two foster youth. He said his parents worked so hard to make ends meet that they rarely had time to talk to their children, and he often had little more than half a peanut member of the Elks Lodge 1812 in El Cajon.

"I sometimes felt abandoned in many ways," said Kassel, the 2013 president of Elks Lodge 2543 in Poway and an associate

Annal 4th of July celebration & fireworks at Kennety Park

Stop by Friday, July 4, for the City of El Cajon's 4th of July Celebration! The El Cajon Recreation Department will once again have a variety of fun activities planned for the Holiday. The City picnic and fireworks show takes place at Kennedy Park, located at 1675 East Madison Avenue in El Cajon. The City thanks Waste Management for generously partnering with the City of El Cajon to provide the fireworks.

The following is a brief list of activities throughout the day:

- 1 - 8 p.m. – Inflatable games, a Kiddie Train, and skate park
- 2 - 6 p.m. – Free crafts and family games
- 3 - 9 p.m. – Live bands
- 9 p.m. – Fireworks show with synchronized music

Vendors will be present selling food starting at 12 noon. General parking is limited, so plan to arrive early and carpool.

When the fireworks begin at 9 p.m., the El Cajon Police Department will begin closing streets to control traffic for approximately 45 minutes. This is designed to help disperse the large amount of vehicles that will be leaving the area after the fireworks conclude. Please watch for pedestrians.

Please note: All City offices will be closed on Friday, July 4, in observance of Independence Day.

For more information, please call Kennedy Recreation Center at (619) 441-1676.

Safety Reminder: Heartland Fire & Rescue Fire Chief Rick Sitta reminds us to leave fireworks to the professionals. Fireworks are not only dangerous; they are also illegal in San Diego County due to our dry brush conditions. In addition, if you live in the area of fireworks and have pets, especially dogs, please make sure they are inside in a safe, quiet room of the house. Dogs can become frightened and jump fences. Make sure your pets have up to date licenses and/or are micro-chipped. If your pet gets loose check your local animal shelter. Have a safe and happy 4th of July!

The next Dinner & a Concert is this "Thursday" Night

Due to the 4th of July holiday, the next "Dinner & a Concert" will be held on Thursday night, July 3. Enjoy a Beach Boys Tribute with "The JackStraws Surf Band!" The concert is from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Prescott Promenade, 201 E. Main Street. Concerts continue through September 26. Arrive early and dine at one of the many fine restaurants in downtown El Cajon, then bring your receipt to the concert and enter to win a Taylor guitar - must be present to win. These free concerts are located at 201 E. Main Street and are brought to you by the Downtown El Cajon Business Partners. Up! ...

Continued from page 2 body, but for his soul. The mother of a friend worked at the El Cajon lodge, and he visited there about three times a week from the time he was 10 until he became a teenager.

"I was given sandwiches and lemonade, but it didn't take long for the group of Elks members to realize I needed more than just food, I was hungry for more love and support," said Kassel, who attended Cuyamaca and Grossmont colleges during the early '80s, majoring in business and criminal justice.

About six years ago, the general contractor and owner of Property Services Plus and Paul Kassel Inc. for the last 20 years was encouraged to visit and participate in a community service group and was reminded of the kindness and support he had received as a youngster from the Elks.

"My mission here today is to spread a message of looking to the future," Kassel said. "Something may have happened to you as a kid, but the key is to not look back and live in the past, but to know where you are going. Put your heart into what you want to do with your life. Find something you want to do and then get up and start going."

Zambelli said after the event that with its primary charitable mission of helping children and veterans, the El Cajon Elks Lodge plans to expand its connection to Cuyamaca College with a grant to assist its veteran student population.

"One of my goals as president of the lodge is to connect more with the community," said Zambelli, who continues to teach one economics course a semester and is also the director of the San Diego Center for Economic Education at Cuyamaca College. "This is certainly a great relationship to nurture."

How to thrift store shop with a strategy

By sticking to a thrift shopping strategy, you'll not only buy the things you truly want, but you won't waste time shopping in a way that doesn't fulfill your goals. Plus, a good thrift strategy will actually help you to spend more wisely.

TIP #9: Donate – Before you take a thrift shopping trip, review your closet's inventory and filter out items you no longer wear for donation to the store. Not only is it good thrift karma to donate immediately upon arrival, but cleaning out your closet will inspire mental notes of what you truly (and don't truly!) need to thrift for.

#10: Pick Sections – Narrow your shopping to three sections or less to stay focused on your day's goals and to manage time spent in any one store since a section should take you approximately 20 minutes to shop.

#11: Try on – Wear the equivalent of a "catsuit" while thrifting so that you can try on clothing in the aisle without having to wait in line for a fitting room.

#12: Separate Piles – Always take a "time out" from thrifting to evaluate your goods based on initial gut reactions (yes, no, maybe). Put all of your "nos" back on the rack and decide which "maybes" are truly keepers!

#13: Discipline – To whittle down your purchases before hitting the cash register, ask yourself a few key questions to decide whether you're making the best buying decisions for you: "Do I own a similar pieces already?" "Can I wear this immediately, or do I need to wait for a special event?" and "Is this something I'd actually wear or just wish I could wear?" Remember, honesty is the best policy — especially to your wallet!

Inspiration

In Honor of the True Patriots

by Dr. Rev. James L. Snyder

Once again, we come to the time of year when we celebrate the Fourth of July in remembrance of all the wonderful things this country means to us. The celebration will include fireworks, parades and picnics when the hot dog will be king for a day. It is a wonderful time of the year.

Yet, in the midst of all of the celebrations, there are a few black clouds blocking the sunlight.

Just the other day the Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage and I were watching a news program where they featured somebody offended by the American flag displayed in a meeting they were attending. We both looked at each other and sadly shook our heads. What kind of nonsense is going on in this country? People's lives are so shallow that they have to try to think of something to be offended?

I am not sure why the American flag offended them so, but I have the perfect solution. I am not sure why people do not think of solutions like this, but if the American flag offends you then go to a country that has a flag that does not offend you. Simple. Problem solved. No more offense.

The American flag reminds us of all the wonderful things we enjoy in this country. The Fourth of July is an opportunity to express our thanks for living in a country such as this. If this was such a terrible country, why are so many people trying to get in at all cost? We still have freedoms that the rest of the world is envious of. The flag represents the foundation of our country and the ongoing sacrifice that has kept it free for so long. How can that be offensive to anyone?

At the same time, another story on the news caught our attention concerning the 9/11 museum in New York City. From some of the things I am seeing on TV most of the people in America have forgotten what happened on 9/11. Somebody walked in, saw the symbol of the cross and became physically ill by it. They claim the cross made them sick in the stomach.

This was a little confusing to me. This was a person who said they do not believe in God. Personally, I do not believe a word they said. Here is a person, who does not believe in God, who does not believe in religion, sees a religious symbol and becomes offended and physically ill by it.

If they do not believe in religion, the cross would not affect them in any way. The fact that it offended them reveals that here is a religious person. Only a religious person would react to a religious symbol. If I was not a religious person, none of the religious symbolism would mean anything to me — I would look at it, then walk on.

While I am on the topic, another matter really annoys me. Why is prayer so offensive to people who say they do not believe in religion? The fact that it makes them angry and offends them tells me something about what they say they believe.

Their fear of God suggests that deep down somewhere, pass their stomach, they believed God just might exist.

This brings to me Pascal's wager. "If God exists (and Christianity is true) and you choose not to believe, then you lose everything. But, if God exists (and Christianity is true) and you choose to believe, then you gain everything." I do not believe it could be stated any clearer than that.

To date, nobody has ever proven the Bible to be anything but true. For 2,000 years, people have desperately attempted to destroy the Bible or at least discredit it and yet it is the number one seller in the world today. What if this Bible, that nobody can prove to be untrue, is absolutely and positively true?

Are these people who say they do not believe willing to wager everything?

Why is it I must accept what they do and say, but they do not have to accept what I do and say? Why do I have to respect them, but they do not have to respect me? Is that being a true red, white and blue American patriot?

Jesus put it in the right perspective when he said, "Render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's" (Matthew 22:21).

Our problem today is that we have confused Caesar with God and no longer understand the difference. The problem is, Caesar does not have all the answers, but God does. The reign of Caesar has collapsed, but God is still on the throne, Almighty God is He.

If you do not respect the flag, at least respect those who do.

Dear Dr. Luauna — About the author

Dear Readers,

After several years of writing this column, I thought I should share my background and experiences with you. I am the Founder and President of A Touch From Above, LSM Inc.; our goal is to reach a world of hurting people with my story of God's amazing grace; it's a testimony of hope and victory; a murdered husband, and betrayal of marriage. A drastic change happened in my life when I had a collision with the truth - the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

I'm the author of A Mother's Story, Mission America, Golden Nuggets, and now A Woman Called of God: The Tangled Web. A Mother's Story is available on Kindle. In these books you will find stories of my life and testimony of what Jesus has rescued me from, and the ministry He has called me to.

As a minister for over 35 years, my education credentials are: an honorary doctorate from the I.M.I. Bible College and Seminary, a District Ministerial License from LIFE Bible College of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel and an education certificate in Ministry Training and Development from Oral Roberts University.

My ministry calling is as an evangelist, teacher, preacher, and pastor. I have pioneered two churches and I have preached the Gospel throughout the world as an Evangelist in Australia, (former) Yugoslavia, Italy, England, Germany, Central Africa, Switzerland, Mexico, and the United States. In my travels, I have also preached for the satellite churches of Dr. Yonggi Cho of the Yoido Full Gospel Church, the largest Christian church in the world. Those satellite churches were located in Seoul, Pusan, Chonju and Incheon, located in South Korea. I love to go out and preach as an Evangelist, it touches my heart deeply to see the Holy Spirit touch so many hearts.

I preach on television in San Diego, California, sharing a simple pure message, "When You Are Hardest Hit, Don't Quit." A Touch From Above - I also minister on radio every Sunday morning at 8 a.m. on KPRZ 1210 AM in San Diego. To listen live, go to kprz.com, click: LISTEN LIVE.

I'm the founder of Victorious Homes for Men and Women, a discipleship program. Over 500 men and women have come through the program over the past 20 years in Colorado and Oregon.

When I returned from Seoul, Korea my heart was deeply burdened, "We need a place for God's people to pray in the USA," knowing it would take great faith for the walls of prayer to be rebuilt in America. Not just a whisper, but the "effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man or woman that availeth much." The Prayer Mountain is now being built; ministers and saints alike are coming to seek the Lord in prayer. A Touch From Above - Prayer Mountain, located in Ramona, California, in the heart of San Diego County, 25 acres of land have been set aside for God's people to pray and trust God to answer all their needs, and lead them into their God-given call. Prayer works! I look forward to Sunday mornings, as different people from different locations throughout San Diego County come to visit the Prayer Mountain for a Sunday service. Awesome men and women trickle in to be trained and equipped for God's service.

I'm now preparing online, "A Touch From Above- Christian University", for training and launching men and women into the harvest field of the world, to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ, including a TV studio to stream worldwide right from the Prayer Mountain.

I'm the mother of two children, now grown.

I want to thank all of you, who read this column every week, you are important to me. I love to hear from you: Dr. Luauna Stines, P.O. Box 2800, Ramona, CA 92065. www.atouchfromabove.org I also send messages out every day, follow me on Twitter @DrLuaunaStines and Facebook.

David Joseph Naidus July 12, 1951 - June 17, 2014

We were all blessed to know Dr. David Joseph Naidus, who passed away peacefully on June 17, 2014, just a few weeks before his 63rd birthday. Despite David's brave battle with lymphoma in recent years, he was a dedicated Veterinarian for 40 years in the San Diego East County. Born in Detroit, Michigan, on July 12, 1951, David was the loving son of Joseph Naidus and Agnes Duris Naidus, and brother to Douglas Naidus, all deceased. He is survived by his younger sister, Laura Naidus, who lives in Michigan. David had many aunts, uncles, and cousins, from the Naidus and Duris family who remember David's big personality and great sense of humor he shared at the many family gatherings and holidays over the years.

David attended the Detroit Public Schools, proudly embracing the Motown culture, and went on to earn his DVM degree from Michigan State University in 1974. After beginning his career as a veterinarian in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, David eventually moved to sunny San Diego, where he continued his successful medical career working at the Broadway Animal Hospital, Animal Medical Center, and Cuyamaca Animal Hospital. Dr. Naidus used his gifted medical skills, humor, and charm to heal his countless animal patients, while bringing emotional comfort to their human companions. He mentored many doctors over the years, and was that special doctor who made the workplace fun, keeping his colleagues laughing for hours. It is not surprising that all the vet technicians wanted to work by David's side.

When David walked into a room, he brought with him his irreverent wit, his broad smile, his subtle chuckle, and a spirit of pure joy that touched his family, friends, co-workers, clients, and even total strangers. To know David, was to love David.

His many close friends will fondly remember David's love of the sun and swimming, sipping wine poolside each Sunday, as well as his fondness for cooking, cheering on the Detroit Tigers, seeing movies the day they first hit the theatre, and listening to his favorite musical artists, Barbara Streisand, Cher, and Diana Ross. Winter ski trips to "Elizabeth's Cottage" in Big Bear, or weekend get-aways to Palm Springs, always following the heat and sun, were some of David's best times with those he loved.

David will be greatly missed by his family, friends, and co-workers. In the immortal words of Diana Ross, "[Our] World is Empty Without You, Babe."

Funeral services will be held on Saturday, July 12, at 11:00 AM, at St. Michael's Catholic Church, located at 15546 Pomerado Rd., Poway, CA 92064. A reception celebrating David's life will follow. In honor of David's memory, donations may be made to the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society. You can visit their website at www.lls.org. Click on Ways to Help, then Donate.

For Health's Sake

'Meals-on-Wheels' opens in El Cajon

On June 19, Meals-on-Wheels Greater San Diego, Inc., announced the Grand Opening with a Ribbon Cutting Ceremony of their new East County El Cajon office. Located at 131 Chambers Street, Suite 100, this office build-out was made possible by a $50,000 grant from the Gary and Mary West Foundation, as well as many other craftsmen that volunteered equipment and services to complete the new ground-floor retail space. Besides housing the East County Service Center Office, this location also involves a unique new concept for Meals-on-Wheels Greater San Diego. While still offering healthy home-delivered meals, now food can be purchased directly by seniors at the new centralized location in downtown El Cajon at extremely affordable prices ($7 for 2 meals).

Additionally, the offices are located on the ground floor of new senior-affordable Solterra Housing Complex built and managed by Affirmed Housing Group and available to seniors ages 55 and up who earn 30-60% of the Area's Median Income (AMI). This easily accessible location provides the opportunity to have residents of Solterra, as well as seniors living in the surrounding areas, the ability to take home healthy lunches, entrees, desserts, beverages and an array of side dishes.

With over 131,000 seniors in San Diego being in danger of being food insecure, the need to serve more seniors is paramount. This new walk-in concept is one of many concerted efforts to expand Meals-on-Wheels reach and serve more seniors in need.

"This has been a truly rewarding and highly collaborative effort," shared Debbie Case, President and CEO of Meals-on-Wheels Greater San Diego, Inc. "Not only did we receive funds from the Mary and Gary West Foundation, but several people stepped up and volunteered goods and services; from cabinets to drywall. The community really made this new location happen so that we may serve more seniors in East County."

Lots of laughs in McCarthy's latest film

Review by Diana Saenger

Comedian Melissa McCarthy can do no wrong as she continues to be one of film's favorite actresses to laugh at. She was nominated for an Academy Award for her hilarious role in Bridesmaids and has delighted fans in her roles on TV's Mike & Molly.

In Tammy, McCarthy plays a young woman facing one bad luck happening after another. Her husband is having an affair. She's lost her job, wrecked her car and has no money or place to go. Even though her mother (Allison Janney) has offered her a room, Tammy wants to "get out of town."

Fortunately for her, Tammy's grandmother Pearl (Susan Sarandon) wants to flee her daughter's house as well, and, she has a nice bankroll. Tammy and Pearl take-off on a wild journey that includes reckless decisions, more accidents, lots of drinking for grandma and even some jail time for them both.

There are also some romantic elements for both gals when Pearl shacks up with Earl (Gary Cole), a guy she meets at a bar. Earl has a son Bobby (Mark Duplass) who is supposed to keep an eye on his dad, but also begins to be intrigued by Tammy.

When Tammy and Pearl need help escaping from their troubles they head to Pearl's joyful cousin Lenore (Kathy Bates). Hilarity abounds when Lenore and her mate Susanne (Sandra Oh) host a huge lesbian party where Tammy and Pearl can't help themselves from getting into even more trouble.

Tammy is written by McCarthy and her husband Ben

Falcone, who also directs the movie. It's funny and delivers lots of zaniness but also has moments of poignancy. The all-star cast including Dan Aykroyd and Toni Collette keeps things swiftly moving, but McCarthy and Sarandon steal the show.

Tips to get your family ready for summer fun

Whether you will be taking a road trip or simply hitting a pool or water park this season, creating family fun is all about being prepared.

"Make sure you have everything you need to keep the kids entertained, happy and safe. There are lots of resources available online to help you plan," says Emily "The Travel Mom" Kaufman, a family travel expert, author and blogger.

To help busy parents prepare for their upcoming trips and enjoy a fun-filled vacation, Kaufman is offering these helpful tips:

- Choose Your Location Wisely: When choosing your vacation spot, make certain you visit kid-friendly destinations. Look for pools with separate water play areas for baby swimming. Sometimes big kids can be overwhelming to the little guys. If you are visiting theme parks with characters, introduce your children slowly, they may be scared.

- Poolside Prep: Pack your swim bags early and often with all the swimming supplies you might need, including: towels, sunscreen, toys, snacks and swim pants.

For worry-free water play, try Huggies Little Swimmers Disposable Swimpants, which feature easy open sides that make changing a breeze and provide easy disposal. Special leak guards made for water help protect against messes and stretchy sides give a comfortable fit, in and out of the water. More information can be found at www.Huggies.com.

- Bring the Right Supplies: Make road trips fun with a bag full of surprises. Hang a travel cosmetic case from the seatback in front of where your child is seated, filled with age-appropriate activities and snacks. Add games, books, dolls and create a playlist of their favorite songs. If flying, bring everything you might need for 24 hours, just in case. This includes medication, a change of clothes, snacks and games. Don't forget headphones, so other passengers don't have to share your child's video sing-along.

- Protect from the Sun: Hydrate often, use sunscreen throughout the day and protect children with sun umbrellas, t-shirts and hats. Children's eyes are much more sensitive than adults, so sunglasses are a good idea at the beach and pool.

- Keep Routines: Babies are creatures of habit. Try sticking to routines for meals, bed and bath time. Try not to schedule too much in a day to avoid overtired little ones. Make bedtime easier for yourself by bringing along that special object of affection. Having their own blanket or toy will bring familiarity to a new place.

Planning family travel can be stressful but will ultimately be a time you look back on fondly with pictures and memories.

Kids: color stuff in!

Let's Get Together

Have you ever planned a party? Setting up a birthday party can be as easy as calling, texting or emailing a couple of friends and inviting them to come to your house at the same time. All you really need to celebrate a birthday is a cake – and, of course, the person whose birthday is being celebrated! This is a low-cost, but fun time that needs only a little planning.

On the other hand, if you want a larger party you'll need to plan, decide on a budget and do more work to get everything running smoothly. No matter what kind of party you might choose to throw, this week's puzzles will help you learn "How to Plan a Party or Event!"

Read the clues to fill in the puzzle with the things you need to think about when planning a party, event or get-together:

1. What is the _____ for the party or get-together: birthday, holiday?
2. Figure out a fun subject or _____ for your party: pirates, dinosaurs, cartoons, princesses, robots or animals.
3. Decide on the kind of party or its _____: luncheon, picnic, tailgating.
4. _____ will your party be held: beach, backyard, bowling alley?
5. Think of the cost and set a _____ to cover food, drinks, decorations.
6. Who and how many _____ will you invite: family, friends, neighbors?
7. What sort of refreshments or _____ do you want to offer your guests: taco buffet, hot dogs, ice cream, cake? It's up to you!
8. What kinds of _____ will you do: horseshoes, badminton, swimming, pin the tail on the donkey, races?
9. What kinds of _____ do you want to spice up your party: streamers, balloons, lanterns, centerpieces?
10. Make sure you finish the _____ before your guests arrive.

You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. The Petition requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

The Petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A hearing on the petition will be held in this court on July 17, 2014 at 1:30 PM in Dept. PC-2 located at 1409 4th Avenue, San Diego, CA 92101-3105 Central Division/Madge Bradley Building.

If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

Trooper's Story...

"Who's the cute and personable pup that will bring joy into your life? It's me, TROOPER. I'm a four-month-old Pit Bull/ Basset Hound mix at the El Cajon Animal Shelter, and everyone tells me that I'm adorable. I love everyone, so I'd be a great family pet, and I get along great with other dogs, too. I enjoy getting belly rubs, and I like to give kisses. I'm playful and fun-loving, but I can also settle down nicely after I've had adequate exercise and playtime. I'm just a youngster, so I'm ready and willing to learn all kinds of new things. I really hope you'll come visit me soon. There's an excellent chance that you'll see what a doll I am, then you'll want to take me home and love me forever. I sure would love that, and I think you would, too. Please head on over to the shelter, then we can spend some time getting to know each other in the play yard. Maybe you'd like to throw a toy around for me, then I'll be ready for that tummy rub! I hope to see you soon. Love, Trooper" Kennel #27

Protect your family from tick bites and Lyme Disease

Tick (StatePoint)

More than 30,000 cases of Lyme disease are reported each year, making it the most commonly reported vector-borne illness in the US, according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Make sure your family isn't part of that number.

As the warmer months coax us outside, reducing the risk of tick bites is essential to protecting your family from Lyme disease and its potential long-term, devastating effects.

Lyme disease can cause facial or Bell's palsy, severe headaches, neck stiffness, heart palpitations, and pain and swelling in large joints. However, it's difficult to diagnose, as symptoms can be attributed to other health problems. Left untreated, approximately 60 percent of Lyme disease sufferers experience arthritis, while five percent develop chronic neurological challenges months or years after the infection.

"Had I understood the potential severity of Lyme disease and taken the threat seriously, I might have saved my children from years of suffering," says Jennifer Reid, a mother of two children affected by Lyme disease and Community Coordinator for the BLAST Lyme Disease Prevention Program. "Prevention is possible."

BLAST is a helpful acronym representing basic tick bite prevention measures -- Bathe, Look for ticks, Apply repellants, Spray the yard and Treat your pets. Additionally, Reid recommends taking these simple steps:

For people

- Avoid wooded and busy areas with high grass and leaf litter.
- Apply repellent to exposed skin and clothing before outdoor activities.
- Bathe or shower right after spending time outdoors and conduct a full-body tick check. Use a mirror to see hard to reach places such as the under arms, belly button, scalp, and behind the knees.

For pets

- Check pets for ticks daily and remove them as soon as possible.

- Talk with your veterinarian about using tick preventatives on your pet.
- Watch pets closely for changes in behavior or appetite. This may indicate Lyme disease infection.

In your yard

- Place a wood chip or gravel barrier between your lawn, patio, and play equipment and any wooded areas. This will restrict tick migration into recreational areas.

- Mow the lawn frequently and keep leaves raked.

- Keep playground equipment and patios away from yard edges and trees and place them in sunny locations, if possible.

- Pest control products can help protect your family from tick bites, according to RISE (Responsible Industry for a Sound Environment), a national trade association. On a seasonal basis, consult a professional to spray the perimeter.
