CPUC hosts public participation hearings to hear from consumers

The California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) will hold a series of Public Participation Hearings throughout the state to hear directly from the public about cases at the CPUC related to electricity rates.

Regarding "rate design" — restrictions on residential rate design were lifted after the signing of Assembly Bill 327 in October 2013, and utilities can now propose residential rates that are more reflective of cost. The CPUC is currently evaluating a residential electric rate design change proposal that could include baseline percentage changes and time of use rates. The CPUC is holding a series of Public Participation Hearings in Phase 1 of its proceeding (R.12-06-013) to provide an opportunity for customers of Southern California Edison, Pacific Gas and Electric Company, and San Diego Gas & Electric to communicate directly with the CPUC about how proposed rate design changes, if approved, would impact them. The CPUC's Public Advisor's Office will be available at each Hearing to advise customers on reading their utility bills, to help resolve billing problems, to explain available programs to reduce costs to customers, and to distribute information about the CPUC and on how to participate in CPUC proceedings. Public Participation Hearings will be held in El Cajon on Sept.

18, at 2 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. in the El Cajon City Council Chambers, 200 Civic Center Way, El Cajon, CA 92020.

Comments from the public can help the CPUC reach an informed decision, and consumers are encouraged to attend Public Participation Hearings. For more information on Public Participation Hearings, please see www.cpuc.ca.gov/PPH. While a quorum of Commissioners and/or their staff may attend these Hearings, no official action will be taken. For more information on the CPUC, visit www.cpuc.ca.gov.

National Prescription Drug Take-Back Day

On Saturday, Sept. 27, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. the El Cajon Police Department, working in conjunction with the Drug Enforcement Administration, will be hosting a prescription drug drop off site in the parking lot of their police station, located at 100 Civic Center Way. The National Prescription Drug Take-Back Day aims to provide a safe, convenient, and responsible means of disposing of prescription drugs, while also educating the general public about the potential for abuse of medications. This effort is designed to prevent pill abuse and theft by getting rid of potentially dangerous, expired, unused or unwanted prescription drugs in a safe manner. Studies show that most teens who have abused prescription drugs get those drugs from their own homes or from the homes of friends. Bring your outdated, unused or unwanted prescription pills, ointments, or liquids; no questions asked! Go to www.deadiversion.usdoj.gov and click "Got Drugs?" for more drop off locations.

SDG&E brings in air assets for upcoming fire season

As part of San Diego Gas & Electric's (SDG&E) efforts to serve as a regional partner in public safety, the utility has contracted the Erikson Air-Crane helitanker for the fifth consecutive high-risk fire season. Additionally, SDG&E has established a contract with Helistream Aviation for a Type II helicopter through November.

"The spring wildfire storm was a stark reminder of the importance of regional wildfire response," said John Sowers, vice president of electric distribution operations for SDG&E. "As SDG&E took into account the damage and loss from the May firestorm, we were compelled to not only bring in again the Air-Crane for high-risk fire season but to also contract for another firefighting tool, the Type II helicopter. It is our hope that these two aerial assets will help firefighting agencies quickly suppress wildfires, limiting damage to the region and our gas and electric system."

A Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between SDG&E and the County of San Diego establishes a $300,000 operating budget for fire season, with SDG&E covering the cost to operate the helicopters during the first two hours of flight of any new fire and the County of San Diego covering the second two hours of flight from the County's Aerial Fire Protection Fund.

"Collaboration between public and private entities over the past several years has been vital to ensuring that our region is well prepared for the next emergency," said San Diego County Supervisor Ron Roberts. "SDG&E has long been a partner in enhancing the county's firefighting capability and I am pleased that they not only contracted the Air-Crane but also brought in a second helicopter."

A second MOU between SDG&E and the City of San Diego establishes that the San Diego Fire-Rescue Department will be the lead agency that would dispatch the Air-Crane and Type II helicopter to any wildfire upon request. The Air-Crane and Type II helicopter will be on standby for use by fire agencies throughout high-risk fire season and ready to take flight once dispatched.

"With California well into the third drought year it is critical that the region is steadfast in its commitment to fire preparedness and prevention," said Chief Javier Mainar of San Diego Fire-Rescue Department. "It is vital to have sufficient air support in the region so that we can quickly respond and suppress fires early in their development."

"As we saw just a few months ago, air support makes all the difference in our ability to quickly suppress wildfires," said Unit and County Fire Chief Tony Mecham. "SDG&E contracting not one -- but two fire suppression air assets will make a tremendous impact in ensuring our region is ready to quickly respond as we enter a critical time."

SDG&E is a regulated public utility that provides safe and reliable energy service to 3.4 million consumers through 1.4 million electric meters and 861,000 natural gas meters in San Diego and southern Orange counties. The utility's area spans 4,100 square miles. SDG&E is committed to creating ways to help customers save energy and money every day. SDG&E is a subsidiary of Sempra Energy (NYSE: SRE), a Fortune 500 energy services holding company based in San Diego. Connect with SDG&E's Customer Contact Center at 800-411-7343, on Twitter (@SDGE) and Facebook.

Dear Dr. Luauna — 'A Mother's Story'

Dear Friends,

As I mentioned last week, I am still traveling in the north east over the next few weeks to minister. This week I am in Philadelphia; afterward back to Boston, then to Maine before returning home. Thank you so much for your prayers. My heart is burdened for the United States of America, the Lord has saved me for this hour, and especially as I travel I see how much our nation is need of a touch from the Master's Hand.

I will continue to post updates as much as possible on Facebook: DrLuauna Stines & Twitter: @DrLuaunaStines

Why am I burdened for the broken hearts of the people in our country? Once, I too, was living a life in which I had no hope and could not see a way out. My first book, "A Mother's Story," is a brief history of the murder of my husband, how I raised two small children as a single parent and the inspirational triumph over hardship through the love of Jesus. If you are going through hard times or know someone who is, please get a copy of my book.

This week I have included reviews from others who have read my testimony book, "A Mother's Story," which is available on Kindle or you can purchase a hard copy on my website. Proceeds from these books go towards the goals of our foundation: A Touch From Above

Book Reviews for "A Mother's Story"

★★★★★ A Must Read

Dr. Luauna Stines is a powerful preacher and speaker. Her book is based on real life events and is a must read. Her story is a testament to the grace and power of Jesus Christ. I met Dr. Luauna when she first became a Christian, I can tell you, she has had a roller coaster of a life. I've read her story and can attest that this girl was running high with the devil and had no desire to turn around, that was until God moved on her life. She is as real as they get and in her book she doesn't hold anything back. If you need a book that will inspire you and minister to your heart, then this is the book for you.

★★★★★ Excellent Material

Moving, real, interesting, absorbing, well-told, touching – an excellent read. I recommend this story highly.

Laughter is the Best Medicine

Walking home

A small child walked daily to and from school. Though the weather one morning was questionable and clouds were forming, this child made the daily trek to the elementary school.

As the day progressed, the winds whipped up, along with thunder and lightning. The mother was worried that her child would be frightened walking back home from school, and she herself feared the electrical storm might harm her child. Following the roar of the thunder, lightning would cut through the sky like a flaming sword.

Being concerned, the mother got into her car and drove along the route to her child's school. Soon she saw her small child walking along, but at each flash of lightning, the child would stop, look up at the sky and smile. One followed another, each time with her child stopping, looking at the streak of light and smiling. Finally, the mother called and asked, 'What are you doing!'

Her child answered, 'I'm smiling for God, He keeps taking pictures of me'.

Our Constitution 227 Years Old!

After the Declaration of Independence was signed, the states in America were “united” by a weak central government. Each state had its own strong government which created many problems among the states.

Wow!
You can read the Constitution
on your computer.

In 1787 almost all of the 13 states sent their wisest men to Philadelphia for a meeting. They were to work out the problems with trade, taxes and other matters.

ⁿ In Independence Hall they studied, argued, talked, voted and wrote. They were laying the groundwork for a strong central government. Some wanted no part of this. Wasn't this like the British rule they had just broken away from?

The central government was to be headed by a leader (President) chosen and elected by the people. There was to be a court of law (Supreme Court) and a body to make laws (Senate and House of Representatives).

All of these ideas formed the Constitution of the United States. It has worked well for 227 years! It is still used by courts to uphold laws and the rights of people. You can see the Constitution in the National Archives in Washington, D.C.

So this is how it was formed!

The first three words of the U.S. Constitution tell who is behind the making of our government. Fill in the puzzle below and these first three words will be spelled out under the arrow.

1. General _____ – who became our first President
 2. _____ men (from many fields of work) were sent to Philadelphia
 3. some people were afraid a strong _____ government would take power away from the states
 4. the men who helped to write the Constitution were thought of as the Founding _____
 5. number of branches the new government would have
 6. Hall where the meetings took place to write the Constitution
- number of states in 1787
- checks and balances keep each branch from becoming too _____
- Constitution was signed on the 17th of this month
- the special meetings in 1787; the _____ Convention
- the only _____ state that never took part in the meetings

Constitution State

Which state is known as the “Constitution State”? It has its nickname printed on its license plates. To find out, color in the puzzle using the color key.

Then find 11 letters and unscramble them to spell the name of the “Constitution State.” A dot (•) is in the upper-left corner of each letter. Use only the letters that are all one color.

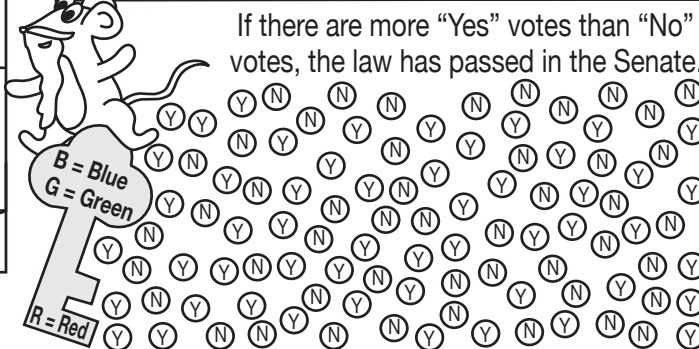

Congress Takes a Vote

Did you know that there are 2 senators from each state, for a total of 100 senators in the U.S. Senate?

The Senate is taking a vote today on a new law. Count the number of "Y" votes for "Yes".

If there are more “Yes” votes than “No” votes, the law has passed in the Senate.

Hello, my name is Sasha. I'm here at the El Cajon Animal Shelter because my owner passed away and I had nowhere to go. I'm sad about the whole thing, and I'm a little bit scared, but I'm getting more comfortable in my new surroundings every day. I think I'll feel even better once I go to a loving home where I'm appreciated for my excellent snuggling skills. I'm a quiet and tender-hearted dog, so I'd need to be in a calm, adult home. I get along well with some dogs, but it depends on the other dog. You'll be happy to know that I've already been house trained, and I know how to "sit pretty" for a treat. Everyone here at the shelter will tell you that I'm a very special little pooch who'll bring you joy and comfort, so I hope you'll give me a chance and stop by the shelter for a visit. They have a great play yard here where we can get better acquainted. We can sit under a nice shade tree, and then you'll see that I'm destined to be your loyal friend for life. I hope to see you soon. Love, Sash" Kennel #32

Bolts are ready to charge — let the season begin

San Diego Chargers Wide Receiver Malcom Floyd is looking healthy and ready for the season during some pre game warm-ups. by Chuck Karazsia

Pre-season over and forgotten, (except the injuries), the San Diego Chargers are poised, re-charged, re-vitalized, and re-focused, anxious to take their game to the next level.

Fans have a reason to get excited about the upcoming season. Their team has a good chance of doing well and be a force to be reckoned with. They have a reason for optimism the way they finished out last season under a new GM, new coach and assistants, new players and a new system.

It is no secret the Chargers need to get out to a quick start with their tough schedule, playing in a tough division. Denver is Denver with Manning and Co. the clear favorite to win the division. Kansas City can score points, always tough to beat at their house. Oakland is Oakland, hard to gauge.

The AFC West is playing the NFC West this season. The outcome of games between these divisions may be difference of what team finishes where in the tough AFC West.

A top quarterback in the league in his ninth season as the Chargers starter Philip Rivers has had a bounce-back year in 2013 playing the best football of his NFL career. In who ultimately performed admirably having kept Rivers in an upright position. The Chargers know Rivers and the offense will need to get on the scoreboard first and often so their high-powered offense will score more points than their opponents.

The Chargers Defense will lay to rest many unbelievers who think they cannot get to the quarterback, intercept the ball, and tackle ball carriers with a vengeance. The loss of DT Kwame Gathers to a pre-season injury may affect the team on stuffing the run, but General Manager Tom Telesco is on top of it recently signing former 2010 Indianapolis pick Richard Mathews who at 6-3, 300 lbs can clog the middle and play on the end of the line of scrimmage.

Anxious to see different colored jerseys on the other line of scrimmage other than their own in pre-season, Philip Rivers talked about what he expects this season will hold.

"I'd like to think we're better right now than last year at this point. We feel a year better but we've got to translate that to the games," said the Chargers quarterback.

"The whole pre-season we really felt the excitement of the fans. Finishing off last year, making the playoffs, winning a game, they (fans) are as excited as we are about getting the season started & building on what we did last year."

"Our ultimate goal is the championship, but it starts right now. We have to win our division games. We know the other games count the same, but when you win your divisional games you give yourself a chance. We always say championship games begin in the division. We are building that cohesiveness and togetherness throughout the pre-season," confided Rivers.

The Chargers regular season begins Monday night against the Arizona Cardinals in Tempe. This is the second game of a nationally televised double-header.

The Bolts trimmed their roster down to the minimum 53. The Chargers signed nine to the practice squad including former San Diego State & El Capitan quarterback Ryan Lindley.

the past Rivers never got his due as an elite quarterback, not because any inadequacies or lack of production or leadership on his part, but mostly because of inconsistencies by the team to win games in the playoffs, getting to that next level.

Rivers has always performed well even when not surrounded by great players in the receiving group.

This season will feature Malcolm Floyd (returning from injury), second-year Keenan Allen, the ageless Antonio Gates, and an established running game of Mathews, Woodhead, and new man Donald Brown. The offensive line is more settled in than last year's mixed and matched players

San Diego Chargers Place Kicker Nick Novak (9) led the Chargers to victory with 4 field goals from 35, 39, 55 and 37 yards. Photo credit: Tom Walko

The property offered for sale excludes all funds held on account by the property receiver, if applicable. If the Trustee is unable to convey title for any reason, the successful bidder's sole and exclusive remedy shall be the return of monies paid to the Trustee and the successful bidder shall have no further recourse. Notice to Potential Bidders If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a Trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a Trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same Lender may hold more than one mortgage or Deed of Trust on the property. Notice to Property Owner The sale date shown on this Notice of Sale may be postponed one or more times by the Mortgagee, Beneficiary, Trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about Trustee Sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn
