This year is shaping up to be an exciting year for the City of El Cajon, as the Mother Goose Parade is gearing up to put on the largest parade in San Diego and the second largest parade west of the Mississippi!

With the Coronation now over and our Queen and Court selected, the parade is now ready to delight the parade viewers with hundreds of exciting parade entries; floats, bands, equestrian, clowns, local celebrities and so much more.

The parade route has changed this year as staging had been getting increasingly difficult with limited space on the streets. This called for a change. That, and the fact that Mother Goose partnered up with Parkway Plaza, has given the parade new dimensions. The parade will now begin on Ballantyne and Park, head west on Main and north on Johnson to end at Parkway Plaza as the destination point, with a carnival and vendor fair! There will be rides for the kids and shopping for the adults. There will be entertainment on the Village stage, music and a whole lot of fun!

This year's grand marshal is Miss California, Cassandra Kunze. Ms. Kunze was 2008 Mother Goose Queen.

Returning this year is Shotgun Tom Kelly, Clear Channel (KGB, Star 94.1, KOGO, Xtra Sports) personalities, many Disney stars and all the floats and bands that have been enjoyed over the past 68 years.

New this year is the Fox 6 morning crew and yes, Santa will be back this year with a new ride! Make sure to bring the kids for this exciting event.

Also new this year is a Mother Goose Parade Kick-off party. This will be held at Viejas on Friday, Nov. 21 from 6 to 10 p.m. The Legends will be performing and a buffet dinner for all. There is still time to get tickets for this event... just $30 each and $50 for two. Call by Monday, Nov. 17 and get a $5 discount, (619) 444-8712.

Mother Goose Parade marching in a new direction

Spread the word – the Mother Goose Parade has a new start time and a new route! Always the Sunday before Thanksgiving, the 68th Annual Mother Goose Parade is Sunday, Nov. 23 beginning at 12 noon. The theme of this year's Mother Goose Parade, which is one of the largest in San Diego County, is "International Nursery Rhymes." The Grand Marshal for the Mother Goose Parade is Miss California "Cassandra Kunze." She was the Mother Goose Queen in 2008 and made it into the top 10 for Miss USA. There will be over 100 colorful and exciting parade entries, which include floats, marching bands, clowns, eloquent equestrians, special guests, and Santa Claus.

As seen in the map, (page 2) the new parade route will begin on Ballantyne Street at Park Avenue. The parade will travel south to East Main Street and then turn right onto East Main Street, heading westbound toward Johnson Avenue. The parade will turn right and travel northbound on Johnson Avenue all the way to the Parkway Plaza mall. At the end of the parade route, there will be a family fun Carnival at the Mother Goose Village in the northwest corner of the mall parking lot! The Mother Goose Village will run from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 22, and Sunday, November 23. If you would like to volunteer or be a parade supporting sponsor, go to www.mothergooseparade.org or call (619) 444-8712.

El Cajon Library Celebrates our Military

On Saturday, Nov. 22, the Downtown El Cajon Library will "Celebrate Our Military" from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at 201 E. Douglas Avenue. The Navy Seabreeze Combo will perform at the Library at 11:15 a.m. An information fair will offer crafts for the kids, a book sale by the Friends of the El Cajon Library, and refreshments for all. Although this event is aimed at veterans and active military personnel and their families, all are welcome. The information fair also features organizations such as the East County Career Center; Veterans' Village of San Diego; Courage to Call; the Housing Opportunities Collaborative; Veterans of Foreign Wars; the American Legion; Veterans 360, and others. "The San Diego County Library welcomes the opportunity to celebrate the men and women of our armed forces, provide resources to the community, and also promote knowledge among our residents about what it might be like to go to war, through the 2014 California Reads selection," says branch manager Hildie Kraus. This event is being offered through a California Reads grant, which invites Californians from all walks of life to participate in programs and related activities hosted by libraries and other organizations. For more information, contact Hildie Kraus at (619) 588-3718 or email hildie.kraus@sdcounty.ca.gov.

Santa waves hello to the crowds in the 2013 parade. Come out and see Santa this year in his new ride on Sunday, Nov. 23. It will be exciting for the kids to see.

The Salvation Army Thanksgiving Drive-Thru Food Drive

You can help a family in need during the holidays. On Tuesday, Nov. 25, from 6 a.m. to 12 p.m., the Salvation Army in El Cajon will hold a special "drive-thru food drive" at their offices located at 1011 East Main, El Cajon. The Salvation Army Drive Through Thanksgiving Food Drive rallies the San Diego East County community to contribute Thanksgiving dinners for families in need. To participate, drive to The Salvation Army El Cajon Corps to donate a frozen turkey, and/or any of the fixings, or make a cash donation. Sitting down to a Thanksgiving meal with family and friends is one of the greatest joys and privileges in life. The Salvation Army wants everyone to have the opportunity to enjoy that moment. One of the most rewarding aspects of donating those meals is seeing families walk away filled with joy and gratitude. Thanksgiving meals help families create lasting memories. Thanksgiving meals provide families the time to be...a family. For more information, call (619) 440-4683, ext. 401.

Small Business Saturday is November 29

Small Business Saturday is a day to recognize and shop small businesses held on the Saturday after Thanksgiving during one of the busiest shopping periods of the year. Avoid the hectic crowds and fighting for parking spaces, shop in your neighborhood. Small Business Saturday activity is scheduled for the Downtown El Cajon area from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. First observed in 2010, it is a counterpart to Black Friday and Cyber Monday, by contrast, Small Business Saturday encourages holiday shoppers to shop businesses that are small and local. When buying from local businesses you support local jobs while providing unique gifts for your family and friends. Small businesses are considered the foundation of any City's economy. Consider shopping locally at neighborhood businesses, not only during the holidays, but throughout the year. We also have excellent restaurants for your dining pleasure!

Spring Valley Lions Club celebrates 60 years of service

Senator Anderson's Corner

by Richele Helms,
Legislative Intern
Office of Senator Anderson

October 18 marked the 60th anniversary for the Spring Valley Lions Club. They have been serving their community and reaching out to San Diego's youth.

The Club hosted a jubilee with music, raffle, dinner from Ranchwood Catering, and wonderful speeches from past members. According to president Scott Leslie, the mission of the Spring Valley Lion's Club is to follow the challenge of Helen Keller "to be knights of the blind in the battle against blindness."

Senator Joel Anderson

Guest speaker and Past International Director for Lions Club, Bill Crawford, highlighted how the Lions Club was recognized as one of the "best NGOs in the World" according to Financial Times for helping local causes by raising money and awareness for diseases and especially for their efforts to reach out to disadvantaged youth. Crawford recalled the rewarding experience he had getting his local Lions Club involved in a camp for burn victim children. He said the camp was special for children because they could relax without feeling judged, and simply enjoy being who they are.

Spring Valley Lions Club's efforts to help our neighbors and youth in need were recognized by State Senator Joel Anderson, who provided Senate Certificates of Recognition to Club members and congratulated their milestone. "We are lucky to have people like the members of Spring Valley Lions Club serving East County. These volunteers have touched the lives of countless families by providing the gift of vision," said Anderson.

Leslie said what he enjoys the most about being a Lion is "working with the youth, especially the Leos." In conjunction with the Lions Club, the Leos Club presents youth of ages twelve to eighteen the opportunity to serve their community.

Inspiration

The longest day of my life

by Dr. Rev. James L. Snyder

I have known for a very long time that every day has 24 hours, every hour has 60 minutes and every minute has 60 seconds. I want to thank my first grade teacher for drilling this information into a rather thick skull. This information, along with a lot of other information, has helped me get through life up to this point.

I also know every week has seven days except for the Beatles, who think there are "Eight Days a Week." I am not sure how they got up to that point, but I have sometimes felt that way myself.

Sometimes a day feels longer than the 24 hours allotted to it. Moreover, I think some hours are much longer than the 60 minutes they are supposed to be limited to.

This past week, however, brought me to a new level of understanding. Although every day has 24 hours, I did experience a day that had at least one thousand hours to it; each hour an excruciating moment in time.

It all began quite innocently enough. The Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage asked me a very simple question. I have been married long enough to know that there is no such thing as your wife asking a simple question. I guess in my old age I am beginning to forget a few things.

My wife simply asked, "Is there any gas in your truck?"

On the surface, it looked rather simple and in the moment and being caught off guard, as I usually am, I answered very listlessly, "Yes, the tank is full of gas."

Thinking this was the end of the conversation I began walking away. As I walked away, I heard the echo of my wife's voice following me.

"Would you mind," she said, "if our granddaughter and I borrow your truck for today? We need to do some shopping across town."

This, as you may well guess, is wrong on several levels.

First, why did they need my truck to go shopping? On the surface all I could see was $'s. How much shopping are you going to do if you need a truck?

Second, the most important angle, is borrowing my truck! A man's truck is a man's truck. Need I say more? A real man does not borrow his truck out to anyone. There is something personal about a man's truck. It is the only place where he can surround himself with silence and where he is "King of the road."

"I didn't think you would mind," she said as she reached for the keys to the truck. After some struggle, I finally surrendered the keys.

"We will not be back for lunch," she said as she raced towards the door, "so you are on your own for lunch."

Then, to add insult to injury she shouted, "And, you can use my car if you need to go somewhere."

That will be the day! I was tempted, just tempted for a moment, to drive her car around and use up all her gas. I toyed with the idea and jingled the keys in my hand and then I realized I would be the one to put the gas in her car.

It certainly was a long day. Occasionally I glanced out the window to where my truck used to be parked. No truck. Sadness has its levels, if you know what I mean.

Several hours after my granddaughter and wife left, I got a text. Now I know why men die before their wives. When I read the text my heart was about to attack me.

It seems, how, I will never know, but there was a hole in my tire probably put there by some nail. And she needed to have the tire fixed and was just informing me that she was going to do that.

My tire! A hole in my tire!

The last time I drove my precious truck there was no hole in the tire. Everything was in good shape when I drove it last. But now that my wife is driving it, a hole suspiciously appears in my tire.

If you have ever owned a truck, you know exactly what was taking place. That hole in the tire was my truck reaching out for me to come help it. I think my truck thought that if the tire was not working it would end this whole charade. Unbeknownst to my truck, my wife, undaunted by the situation, had my truck tire fixed.

The hours struggled on and it seemed like an eternity. I ate my lunch in silence, staring out the window where my truck used to be parked; now an empty space.

After one thousand hours of excruciating pain, I heard my truck pull into the driveway. As I gazed out the window, I saw the back of the truck piled high with "stuff. But there it was, safely in the driveway.

Sometimes attachments can cause you a lot of anxiety. Only one attachment in my life worth all the anxiety in the world. That is my relationship with Jesus Christ. Sometimes I do have an anxious moment but then I turn to the Scripture.

I have this marvelous promise. "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee" (Isaiah 26:3).

When my mind is on the Lord, I don't mind anything else in the world.

Rev. James L. Snyder is pastor of the Family of God Fellowship, Ocala, FL.

Dear Dr. Luauna —

The power of prayer - Part one

Dear Readers,

I want to share a heart gripping story of the power of a praying wife. I minister on television twice a week in the San Diego area. While I was at the Prayer Mountain, I saw someone walking across the front area calling out my name. I noticed a beautiful, senior black woman waving her hands as she scurried towards me.

She said, "You're Dr. Luauna, I watch your TV program every week." I thanked her, reached out and gave her a big hug. She asked, "Can you please come to my house and speak to my husband? He's sick, please will you come?" As I saw the tears in her eyes, my heart felt compassion for her, I said, "Yes." She, smiled, turned around heading to her car. After she gave me the directions, she shouted, "Oh yeah, I forgot to tell you, my husband hates preachers," then she drove off. I just stood there but when I turned around, I felt the Holy Spirit press on my heart, "Go!"

The next day I drove to her home. I took one of my assistant pastors with me, Jill. I reminded her, "Remember, he hates preachers." We both just smiled and walked to the door and knocked. Mrs. Waller opened the door wide and invited us in.

I noticed a hospital bed in the front room, in it was a slender, tall 6'5" black man lying down. He only had one leg, he looked like he was sleeping. I could smell the medicines and the aroma of death in the room. I noticed the military pictures of him in uniform; medals and military ribbons in frames, I knew he was a war hero. He lay still, and before I knew it his wife said, "If you need anything I'll be in the next room," then she vanished.

I took a deep breath and walked around to the other side of the bed. I bowed my head and said a little silent prayer. I reached out, touched his hand and he opened his eyes. He looked at me; I smiled and said, "Hello Sir, I'm Dr. Luauna." Not much expression came from him; I could see he was in lots of pain. I asked him if I could read to him, he nodded yes. I read every scripture about heaven, and verses of comfort. For 45 minutes, I read verse after verse, I noticed his tears.

I said, "I am going to sing you a song." I sang, "Amazing Grace," "The Our Father," and then "Amazing Grace" again. Something was happening inside his heart. After I finished singing, again I noticed tears rolling down the side of his face. I reached for his hand and said, "Sir, it's time to receive Jesus, can I please pray with you?" He looked me right in the eye, and with a small smile he said, "Yes." I gently asked him to please say the prayer with me. That day he prayed to receive Jesus and asked to be forgiven for his sins. His wife was standing in the hallway; tears of joy streaming down her face. She heard him, the one she loved and was married to for 40 years say a prayer for the first time.

I smiled, looked into his eyes, reached for his hand and said, "Sir, you made my day, and I want to thank you for serving our country." He smiled, looked at his wife, she came and gave him a hug. I said, "Sir, you are just a little bit too tall and heavy for me to pick up and baptize you. But I think God will understand if I just sprinkle a little water on your head, for your baptism as a sign of your commitment to Jesus." He was baptized the same day. A few days later, I received a call, the amazing war hero died; they wanted me to know he went to be with Jesus. I thanked God for His love and grace, to save this man, how our Heavenly Father honored the prayer of his wife. (Continued next week)

To make Prayer Mountain reservations call: (760) 315-1967. Join me on Radio, Sundays 8 a.m. 1210 AM KPRZ - San Diego, CA. To write: Dr. Luauna Stines, P.O. Roasted Pumpkin Rules in Fall-Flavored Soup

"I've served [this soup] in small individual hollowed out pumpkins for a first course at Thanksgiving, and my family and friends loved it!"

Cooking with pumpkin is intimidating no more! Its hard exterior and bright orange flesh doesn't immediately scream "yum," but once roasted, a deep, caramelized flavor develops.

Home cook Crystal Rogers has been making this delicious pumpkin soup for years. The fresh thyme, grated nutmeg and sweet onions magically meld with the pumpkin flavor. A dollop of curry sour cream and toasted seeds finishes it off perfectly.

See step-by-step photos of Crystal's recipe plus thousands more from home cooks around the country: www.justapinch.com/pumpkinsoup

olive oil
1/4 tsp curry powder
1 c sour cream
1/2 stick unsalted butter
3 c chopped sweet onions
5 c roasted pumpkin, skin removed, chunked
8 c good vegetable stock
1 tsp fresh thyme, finely minced
1/4 tsp fresh grated nutmeg
1 tbsp agave syrup
2 c cream
sea salt and pepper to taste
1 c sour cream
1/4 tsp curry powder
1/2 c toasted pumpkin seeds
3 tbsp raw blue agave nectar
1 c chopped cilantro, divided

Directions

- To prepare pumpkin, cut in half and scrape out seeds. Cut into thick wedges, brush lightly with olive oil, sprinkle with salt and bake on a baking sheet at 350 degrees F for about an hour or until tender.
- Whisk curry powder into sour cream and chill.
- When pumpkin is fully cooked, in a large stockpan melt the butter and saute the onions until very soft.
- Add roasted pumpkin and stock. Puree with stick blender (or in batches in a blender or processor).
- Add thyme, nutmeg and agave, then bring to simmer, stirring occasionally for 10 to 15 minutes. Stir in cream and season to taste with salt and pepper.
- Serve warm in bowls, garnish with a dollop of the curry cream and sprinkle with pumpkin seeds.

For Health's Sake

Simple tips to manage diabetes

Taking steps to control diabetes.

Nearly 10 percent of the U.S. population has diabetes and another 37 percent of U.S. adults have prediabetes, according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

Given the statistics, it's no surprise that diabetes is a leading cause of death in the United States. Fortunately there are concrete steps you can take to control the disease, say experts.

"Medication alone can't solve diabetes. The solution must include healthier eating and living," says Dr. Andy Baldwin, a board certified family physician and ambassador for Nutrisystem, a weight loss program that has a specific plan designed for diabetes management.

No matter what your health status is now, committing to a healthier lifestyle can help you manage diabetes or prevent the onset in coming years. Dr. Baldwin is offering some suggestions for getting started.

To avoid overeating, don't put serving bowls on the table. Fill plates in the kitchen and leave extras and leftovers far away. Instead, keep veggies or a salad on the table to supplement meals. Include carrots, celery, cucumber, pepper slices and cherry tomatoes. Eat as many as you like rather than getting seconds of the main course.

Cinnamon has been shown to help improve blood sugar levels. Fill an empty salt shaker with the spice and leave it on the table. Shake a little on meat, potatoes, vegetables for the health benefits and an added boost of flavor.

Designate one chair at your table as your "eating chair." Only eat if you are sitting in it — nowhere else.

Fast food can be calorie dense and low on nutrition. Avoid going overboard by limiting your intake. That means either eating a child's meal or picking a healthier, sometimes more expensive item from the menu, such as a salad or grilled chicken sandwich.

If you lead a sedentary lifestyle, it's time to make a change. Set quotas for TV viewing. For example, one hour of news and one hour of entertainment — or, stay active while watching television by doing squats, crunches, lifting small weights or stretching. Get outdoors for at least 15 minutes a day — rain or shine! Walk, bike, garden, clean or play a game, it doesn't matter, as long as you are moving.

A structured meal plan and nutrition-rich foods can help you manage diabetes and weight issues without needing to count calories, carbs or points. Look for a program that meets the nutritional guidelines of the American Diabetes Association and that offers personal support in the form of certified diabetes educators, dietitians, food and glucose trackers, and an online support community. For example, Nutrisystem D is clinically proven to help people with type 2 diabetes lose weight and lower their A1c, offering meals that contain the right balance of low glycemic carbs, fats, high protein. Meals are also fiber-rich to ensure participants feel full. More information can be found at www.Nutrisystem.com.

Everyday phrases

Words and phrases we use every day! But do you know how they came into being?

OVER A BARREL

In the days before CPR a drowning victim would be placed face down over a barrel and the barrel would be rolled back and forth in an effort to empty the lungs of water. It was rarely effective. If you are over a barrel you are in deep trouble.

BARGE IN

Heavy freight was moved along the Mississippi in large barges pushed by steamboats. These were hard to control and would sometimes swing into piers or other boats. People would say they were "barged in."

HOGWASH

Steamboats carried both people and animals. Since pigs smelled so bad they would be washed before being put on board. The mud and other filth that was washed off was considered useless "hog wash".

CURFEW

The word "curfew" comes from the French phrase "couvre-feu," which means "cover the fire". It was used to describe the time of blowing out all lamps and candles. It was later adopted into Middle English as "curfeu", which later became the modern "curfew". In the early American colonies homes had no real fireplaces so a fire was built in the center of the room. In order to make sure a fire did not get out of control during the night it was required that, by an agreed upon time, all fires would be covered with a clay pot called-a "curfew".

BARRELS OF OIL

When the first oil wells were drilled they had made no provision for storing the liquid so they used water barrels. That is why, to this day, we speak of barrels of oil rather than gallons.

HOT OFF THE PRESS

As the paper goes through the rotary printing press friction causes it to heat up. Therefore, if you grab the paper right off the press it's hot. The expression means to get immediate information.

How We Teach and Learn History

There is no town left, but today you can go to visit the area where Jamestown started and see copies of the ships on which the first settlers sailed to get to a new land. There are also models of the English fort and a Native American village that you can study to learn how the people lived then.

Can you find and circle these things people are using or doing to teach people about the history of Jamestown?

'Interstellar' — heartfelt story, science overkill

by Diana Saenger

The almost three-hour Interstellar sci-fi film has its ups and downs — literary. Christopher Nolan and his brother Jonathan co-wrote the screenplay which combines a family drama, past culture, future dreams and schemes and enough scientific unexplained dialogue and expectations to put a college science class to sleep.

The story begins as Cooper, "Coop" (Matthew McConaughey) becomes worried about the crops his family and neighbors are seeing die due to continued dust clouds, much like the Dust Bowl in the Great Plains region that devastated crops in 1930s depression-ridden America. Many people are packing up and leaving, but Coop's father-in-law (John Lithgow) thinks they can hold out, especially when Coop gets offered a very important job.

Once a pilot for NASA, Coop is now wanted for a new position by Professor Brand (Michael Caine), commander of an underground NASA outpost. This job will require him to be away from his family for many years. Because Coop has two children he's raising without their mother, that's a big decision for him — especially since his young daughter Murphy aka "Murph" (Mackenzie Foy), who devours every bit of her father's knowledge about space, is behind in her school work. When Murph's teacher tells Coop they have updated all the text books "with the truth that all the space trips to the moon were not real," he thinks twice about sending his daughter back to school.

Driving through a massive facility, Brand shows Coop around and explains exactly what his trip would be about -- mainly finding another galaxy where those on earth can go to if Earth becomes no longer inhabitable. It also involves going through a wormhole and retracing the flights of three astronauts who were sent a decade earlier to investigate planets that might sustain human life. They never returned.

Coop feels Earth will not sustain its people much longer, so he agrees to the trip, leaving his son Tom (Timothée Chalamet) and Murph devastated. According to Murph, their dad is leaving them "to die." Brand's daughter Amelia (Anne Hathaway) and Doyle (Wes Bentley) are going with Coop.

The cast does a fine job carrying out the heart of this survival-and-sacrifice story. McConaughey is excellent as Coop. He hits a high peak when they finally get a video connection to Earth only to find out his children are now grown. Murph (now played by Jessica Chastain) still holds a grudge against her father, and her harsh words bring about a heartfelt deep emotional sadness to Coop. His son (now played by Casey Affleck) is married with children and also hardened to his father. Foy, first-rate as the young Murph, comes across as so adept that in a few years she may easily fill the shoes of movie characters like the ones superbly played by Chastain.

In one of the film's trailers, Hathaway said she thought about what it would be like to leave everyone you love behind and live your life cutoff for the greater good. That notion moved her. Hathaway's Amelia is somewhat a chip off the old block, very absorbed with space and this mission, but she lacks her dad's compassion and kind-heartedness (which Caine projects superbly in this role)

Melded into the story is the downer part of the film which caused many people leaving the screening I attended to scratch their heads. Yet almost everyone should find the visual effects absolutely stunning. However, the length of the film and overkill of the wormhole scenes had me continually checking my watch.

Still, if moviegoers can get through or ignore all the talk about science of the future, nitrogen, oxygen, wormholes, space-time, galaxies, relativity, and singularity, they will probably enjoy the heartfelt father/daughter love story -- which ends up being the centerpiece of Interstellar.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF (IMAGED FILE)
In re the Estate of Thomas Russell Lawson CASE NO. 37-2014-00031235-PR-LA-CTL ROA#:1

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of: In re the Estate of Thomas Russell Lawson A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by Raymond M. Lawson in the Superior Court of California, County of SAN DIEGO.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act with full authority . (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held on 12/04/2014 at 1:30PM in Dept. PC-2 located at 1409 4TH AVENUE SAN DIEGO CA 92101 MADGE BRADLEY BLDG..

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a formal Request for Special Notice (DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF MAXINE L. WATTS, ALSO KNOWN AS MAXINE LUCILLE WATTS, MAXINE LUCILLE WATTS AND MAXINE WATTS CASE NO. 37-2014-00036837-PR-PL-CTL ROA #: 1 (IMAGED FILE)

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of: MAXINE L. WATTS, ALSO KNOWN AS MAXINE LUCILLE WATTS, MAXINE LUCILLE WATTS AND MAXINE WATTS

A Petition for Probate has been filed by LINDA S. LUTES in the Superior Court of California, County of SAN DIEGO.

The Petition for Probate requests that LINDA S. LUTES be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

The Petition requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

The Petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A hearing on the petition will be held in this court on DEC. 2, 2014 at 11:00 A.M. in Dept. PC-1 located at 1409 4th Avenue, San Diego, CA 92101-3105 Central Division/Madge Bradley Building.

If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

The undersigned caused said Notice of Default and Election to Sell to be recorded in the County where the real property is located. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (916)939-0772 or visit this Internet Web <http://search.nationwideposting.com/property/SearchTerms.aspx>, using the file number assigned to this case CA1100226761 Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. If the sale is set aside for any reason, the Purchaser at the sale shall be entitled only to a return of the deposit paid. The Purchaser shall have no further recourse against the Mortgagor, the Mortgagee or the Mortgagee's attorney. To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of: NORRIS R. ANDERSON
A Petition for Probate has been filed by JAMES F. SCHAIBLE in the Superior Court of California, County of SAN DIEGO. The Petition for Probate requests that JAMES F. SCHAIBLE be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.
The Petition requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.
The Petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.
A hearing on the petition will be held in this court on December 2, 2014 at 11:00 A.M. in Dept. PC-1 located at 1409 4th Avenue, San Diego, CA 92101-3105 Central Division/ Madge Bradley Building.
If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.
If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.
Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.
You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (619) 704-1090 or visit this Internet Web site www.priority-posting.com, using the file number assigned to this case 14449. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. Pet of the Week

Howdy, friends! My name is SHERMAN, and I'm an absolutely lovable dog who's looking for a kind person or family to share my life with. I'm an eight-year-old Lhasa Apso/ Miniature Poodle mix with a balanced and affectionate temperament. I get along well with everybody, whether human or dog, and I'd be a great companion. I'd be a wonderful pet for just about any person or family. I enjoy going for walks, and I love to cuddle. I'd be fine in either a house or an apartment, just so long as I can be a cherished member of the family. I came to the El Cajon Animal Shelter with my friend, Dusty, and we share a kennel, but she and I have decided that we can be adopted separately. One other great thing about me is that MY ADOPTION FEE IS ONLY $30, since I'm a Super Senior." That fee includes my microchip, plus I'm up-to-date on my shots, I just had my teeth cleaned, and I've already been neutered. That's a pretty good deal for a great dog like me! I've been dreaming about finding a loving home, so I hope you'll make my dreams come true. Please come visit me here at the shelter, then we can spend some time getting to know each other in the lovely play yard that they have here. I hope to see you soon! Love, Sherman" Kennel #59
