Spring Valley youth gives back by cutting two feet of hair

Spring Valley resident Gabriella Martinez, 7, who goes by Ella, recently received a special haircut and found a way to give back to children needing hair replacement.

Ella has thalassemia, a form of anemia that requires blood transfusions every two-to-three weeks for the rest of her life. The blood is provided by the San Diego Blood Bank. The transfusion process, which began when she was nine months old, typically lasts about eight hours over two days at Rady

Children's Hospital – San Diego.

According to Erica Martinez, Ella's mom, a hospital nurse responded when Ella asked about small children she saw with no hair. "Ella wanted to help those kids, so the nurse suggested donating her hair so other children could have hair," said Erica. "Ella loved the idea. She realizes that generous people are helping her by donating blood to the San Diego Blood Bank, and giving up her hair was her way to give back."

On Monday, June 29, Erin Doumert, owner of Salon Elle in La Jolla, cut Ella's hair that stretched about two feet long. The hair was donated to Wigs For Kids, a nonprofit that provides hair to children who have lost their hair due to chemotherapy, radiation therapy, burns or other medical issues. "We have relationships with many people who have received blood, and they find all kinds of ways to give back to the community, but Ella's story was compelling and heart-warming," said David Wellis, CEO, San Diego Blood Bank. "Not many kids would be selfless enough to give up their own hair, and Ella provides us an excellent example of how gratitude for a life saving blood donation can be further perpetuated through the community, even beyond blood donors."

The San Diego Blood Bank (SDBB), the primary supplier of blood to the majority of hospitals in San Diego County, is an independent, 501(c)(3) non-profit that serves hospitals in San Diego, Orange, Imperial and Los Angeles counties with blood transfusion products and reference laboratory services. Founded in 1950 with the support of the San Diego County Medical Society, SDBB currently operates six local donor centers and 10 blood mobiles. SDBB's Cord Blood Program provides lifesaving stem cell transplants to patients worldwide. For more information, visit www.sandiegobloodbank.org.

Assemblyman Jones Reflects on Freedom as America celebrates Independence Day

Californians have less freedom, "Are You Kidding Me?"

Assemblyman Jones (R-Santee) released an "Are You Kidding Me?" segment reflecting on the freedoms we have as Americans as Independence Day approaches.

According to the First in Freedom Index, based on state fiscal policy, education, regulations, and health care, California ranks 48th, making it one of the least free states in the country.

Assemblyman Jones says, "We are supposed to be the land of the free, yet our state regulates our economy more than other states; taking money out of our pockets, telling us how to raise our kids, and even restricting the fireworks that we use to celebrate the 4th of July."

Assemblyman Brian Jones represents the 71st Assembly District, which includes the communities of eastern San Diego County, including Alpine, Borrego Springs, Casa de Oro - Mount Helix, El Cajon, Lakeside, Jamul, Ramona, Rancho San Diego, Santee and Spring Valley; and southern Riverside County, including Anza, Aguanga, Idyllwild-Pine Cove, Lake Riverside and Mountain Center.

July 4th History: 6 facts about America's Independence Day

by Susmita Baral

1. The flag we know and love today — with 50 stars and 13 alternating red and white stripes — is not the original flag adopted in 1777. The original flag, which was created in 1777 by Betsy Ross, only had 13 stars. The American flag was altered, making the United States the only nation who has willingly altered their flag.

2. The American flag has a name, which was given by Captain William Driver, a shipmaster from Massachusetts. The flag is named Old Glory.

3. The Declaration of Independence was not signed on the first Independence Day on July 4, 1776. That was simply the day that the delegates of the Continental Congress approved the wording of the Declaration of Independence.

4. The original sheet of parchment the Declaration of Independence was written on measured 24-1/4 inches by 29-3/4 inches. John Hancock's signature is almost five inches long. As the President of the Congress, Hancock was the first to sign the Declaration of Independence and it is said that he said he signed his name large so King George III could read his signature without his glasses.

5. We all celebrate on the 4th of July, but the July 2 just might have been the original Independence Day and the more fitting one, reveals author Kenneth C. Davis.

"The fact is that John Adams wrote home to Abigail on the 3rd that this day, July 2 will go down in history," said Davis in an appearance on "CBS This Morning." "We'll celebrate it with parades and pomp and bells ringing and fireworks, and it was because Congress actually ruled it in favor of independence on July 2. But it was two days later, of course, that Congress then accepted Jefferson's declaration, explaining the vote two days before that really got fixed in the America's imagination as our birthday. July 2nd should be Independence Day."

6. "Americans began observing the Fourth of July as early as 1777, when the first-ever major celebration in Philadelphia included a parade, a 13-shot cannon salute and fireworks, but Congress didn't make it official until 1870, when it was part of a bill passed to recognize major state holidays at a federal level — like Independence Day, Christmas and New Year's Day," reports TIME magazine.

large amount of vehicles that will be leaving the area. The City thanks Waste Management for generously partnering with El Cajon to provide these spectacular fireworks. For more information, please call Kennedy Recreation Center at (619) 441-1676.

Additional 4th of July safety reminders:

Heartland Fire reminds everyone to leave fireworks to the professionals. Fireworks are not only dangerous, they are also illegal in San Diego County due to our dry brush conditions.

In addition, if you live in the area of fireworks and have pets, especially dogs, please make sure they are inside in a safe, quiet room of the house. Dogs can become frightened and jump fences. Make sure your pets have up to date licenses and/or are micro-chipped. If your pet gets loose check your local animal shelter. Have a safe and happy 4th of July!

And then it was summer

by Dr. James L. Snyder

Summer is my favorite time of the year. It makes up for the nastiness of winter, the cold and the gloom, not to mention the snow. The only place I like my snow is on a postcard sent by some family member up North where they have all that kind of stuff.

My love affair with summer began when I was in school. I know school is supposed to be a great time and it was for me except for those classes where the teachers were trying to teach me something. They had their work cut out with me.

School was rather boring, but then, Summer came and set all the prisoners free, me being one of them. Since that time, I have always appreciated the good nature of Summer and have celebrated it as enthusiastically as possible.

Now that summer is here, the Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage and me are planning to take a wee bit of vacation. It is not often that we can pack up our bags and "get out of Dodge." When we do, it is a very special time.

When it comes to vacations, my wife and I are at opposite ends of what a vacation is all about. As soon as we mention the word "vacation," I am ready to go. Not so with the better half. She has all kinds of planning and preparation work to do and it takes more work for her to plan our vacation than it does to stay home and just work.

My part of the planning is to stay out of her way! I learned this a long time ago and have the scars to prove it.

Some people believe that women are masters at multi-tasking. My wife is the queen. I, on the other hand, am a master at anti-tasking. My wife can juggle four or five different jobs at the same time while I can do nothing at the same time. It's a gift on my part.

For vacation, I only need three things, which makes my vacation the wonder and joy that it always is.

The first thing I pack for vacation is my incorrigible laziness.

I am not boasting, mind you, but I have mastered the art of laziness like nobody you know. In fact, if I was not so lazy, I would do several workshops on Mastering the Art of Laziness. I have a Master's degree in laziness and if I was not so lazy, I would prepare a diploma to hang on the wall.

Some people go on vacation to do all kinds of things and get involved in all kinds of activities; I go to work on my laziness.

My wife has a little bit of trouble with this. She is the Queen Bee when it comes to busyness and is buzzing all the time. I am the honey that flows rather slowly.

Another important thing in my baggage for vacation is my non-vegetable diet. I know vegetables are good for you, but please, on my vacation this is the one thing I am vacating.

When I sit down at a meal on my vacation, I do not want to see any vegetables or anything green or leafy on my plate. I want my plate piled high with apple pie à la mode, chocolate cake topped with a scoop of ice cream, and for dessert, a bowl of ice cream topped with a scoop of ice cream, and do not be stingy with the chocolate fudge.

Of course, after such a lunch I am feeling a little woozy and need to go back to my room and sleep it off. This is carefully planned on my part. After every lunch, my vacation companion has this uncontrollable desire to visit thrift shops. She can smell a thrift shop 25 miles away. You can imagine how someone as lazy as me is not too interested in visiting all of these stores during vacation. It has something to do with my drug problem. I do not like being drug from one thrift shop to another all afternoon.

Then there is my Sun Sponge attitude that soaks up all the sun available. When I come back from my vacation, I want to have a sunny glow about me that lasts for weeks.

This is where the art of laziness is quite handy. In order to get as much sun as possible you have to be able to do as little as possible. Sitting out in the sun with nothing to do is the best posture for soaking up the sun.

So, here I am, sitting all packed and ready to go, while the wife is making sure she has everything packed she needs. I could go on vacation on a scooter while she needs a U-Haul.

No matter who you are, vacation is a time for rest and I suppose everybody has their own definition of rest.

The Bible speaks of "rest" around 380 times. Most people have not caught this idea.

My favorite verse is, "Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for him: fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass" (Psalms 37:7).

It is easy to get all caught up with the activities of the world around, but it takes a lot of discipline to really "rest in the Lord."

Dear Dr. Luauna —

Be strong and of good courage

Dear Readers,

In our fast paced world we are flooded with information, circumstances and problems in addition to the ones we are experiencing in our own lives. With technology; confusion and despair are spread instantly across the world. Sad to say, people are trying to escape with drugs or alcohol; which only creates more misery and anguish.

Today, I want to write about the good news! The good news is we don't have to be overcome, we can be victorious even when it seems like the waters are getting rougher and darkness is becoming darker. You may ask, "Dr. Luauna, how can we be victorious? Don't you see the news?" Yes, I am aware of what is happening, which only burdens my heart more to reach out to others, to share the path to victory, joy and hope.

I love the story of Joshua; this story is a pattern and a promise from the Lord for us today, now in 2015. The children of Israel came to the borders of the Promised Land and the leadership was given to Joshua, the faithful servant and a warrior who took the baton from Moses after 40 years.

The land was just as promised by God; however, Joshua would also face many obstacles to possess the land. Not just to possess the land; but to dispossess the enemies of the Lord. Moses was now dead and the Lord spoke to Joshua giving him the plan to have victory, a plan, which speaks loudly to us today.

Joshua 1:8-9; This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate in it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success. Have I not commanded you? Be strong and of good courage; do not be afraid, nor be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go.

This advice is proven to work and is the advice I write to you today, meditate on the Word of God, day and night, and speak it! The technology we have at our disposal, generally, draws people to meditate on everything opposite of God's Word. The mind is a powerful tool whose function is to meditate, ponder, reflect, think; don't meditate on problems, saturate your mind with the life giving promises of God. Meditating on problems, circumstances only magnifies despair and hopelessness.

Then the Lord says, "...to observe to do according to all that is written in it." This is the key to defeating the enemy; there is great victory in following God's commandments. Victory over temptation, victory over darkness, and victory over fear! We must remember this key: people are not the enemy! Our fight is not against the people; Jesus came to show us the victory over the enemy through willingly laying His life down to conquer death, hell and the grave. How did He conquer the darkness? Love your enemies, do good to those who do bad to you, pray for those who spitefully use you, bless those who curse you. Forgive and you will be forgiven. It takes more strength to love our enemies than it does to destroy them, even with our words. We must see the people with the eyes and burden of Christ, He came to seek and save them, just and He forgave us!

After 25 years, Joshua completed his task; he was successful and prosperous in dark times and he obeyed even when it was difficult. We can do all things through Christ who strengthens us, I love you in Jesus!

For Health's Sake

Fourth of July is busiest weekend for hospitals — don't be a victim

The 4th of July holiday is one of the busiest days of the year for those who treat victims of accidental trauma.

Statistics indicate that 8,500 fireworks-related injuries are reported every year in the U.S. And of these, about 2,000 include eye injuries. One-third of all firework-related injuries to children under the age of 5 are due to sparklers, and 16 percent of all firework injuries are due to sparklers.

Laughter is the Best Medicine

4th of July

The Fourth of July weekend was coming up, and the nursery school teacher took the opportunity to tell her class about patriotism.

"We live in a great country," she said. "One of the things we should be happy is that, in this country, we are all free."

One little boy came walking up to her from the back of the room. He stood with his hands on his hips and said. . .

"I'm not free. I'm four."

What happened as a result of the Stamp Act?
The Americans licked the British!

Why did Paul Revere ride his horse from Boston to Lexington?
Because the horse was too heavy to carry!

Why did the British cross the Atlantic?
To get to the other tide!

What would you get if you crossed a patriot with a small curly-haired dog?
Yankee Poodle!

Did you hear the one about the Liberty Bell?
Yeah, it cracked me up!

"Some of the more dangerous kinds of firework include bottle rockets because they fly erratically, and can cause bystander injuries. Additionally, the bottles and cans used to launch bottle rockets can explode, showering fragments of glass and metal," says Ross Tobleman, M.D., medical director of Emergency Medicine at Scott & White Hospital – Round Rock.

"The most common firework injury for younger kids can involve sparklers and burns. While most adults view sparklers as one of the more harmless types of fireworks, in reality they can burn as hot as 1,800 degrees," warns Dr. Tobleman. "Fireworks are really best enjoyed at a community display, not in your backyard."

Additional tips from Dr. Tobleman:

- Do not let children play with exploding fireworks and rockets.
- View public fireworks displays from at least 500 feet away or up to a quarter of a mile.
- Leave the lighting of fireworks to trained professionals.
- If you find unexploded fireworks, don't touch them.

Contact your local fire or police department.

• Obey laws. If fireworks are illegal where you live, do not use them. In Southern California, watch for burn bans, and be aware that in dry conditions, a "run-away" bottle rocket can start a very damaging fire.

Do not use homemade fireworks or illegal explosives: Report illegal explosives to the fire or police department in your community.

"Remember, fireworks injuries are preventable. Make it a safe Independence Day for everyone by enjoying fireworks set up by professionals," said Dr. Tobleman. As always, have fun, but stay safe and healthy."

Consumer Fireworks illegal in San Diego County

There's really only one thing you need to know about consumer fireworks: ALL CONSUMER FIREWORKS ARE ILLEGAL IN THE CITY AND COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO. That includes sparklers, firecrackers, cherry bombs, bottle rockets and even poppers.

The National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) says there is no safe way to use consumer fireworks. According to NFPA research, there are far more U.S. fires reported on a typical Independence Day than on any other day, and fireworks account for more than half of those fires, more than any other cause of fires. In 2008, fireworks caused an estimated 22,500 reported fires, including 1,400 structure fires, 500 vehicle fires, and 20,600 outside and other fires. These fires resulted in an estimated $42 million in direct property damage.

In 2008, 7,000 fireworks-related injuries were treated in U.S. hospital emergency rooms. The highest injury rates were for teenagers 15 to 19 and children aged 5 to 9.

The San Diego Fire-Rescue Department Bomb Squad urges you to obey the law and leave fireworks to professionals.

'Max' — one of the best animal pictures in years

Review by James Colt Harrison

Who doesn't love a movie about a dog? There have been many stories made in the past about dogs, but none catches the warmth, affection, and loyalty between Marine Working Dog Max (MWD) and his caretaker Kyle Wincott, (played by Canadian newcomer Robbie Amell) as does this film from MGM/ Warner Bros.

Nature has provided a primal bond between animals and humans. Dogs have especially been closely connected to human mates throughout history. Max is just such a dog. He got his training through the Marine program and, as such, was attached to Kyle. Accompanying the Marines into battle in Afghanistan, Max saved many lives by using his odor-sniffing nose to help avoid danger.

When a traumatic incident causes Max to suffer an animal form of PTSD, (Post Traumatic Stress Disorder), he is automatically shipped out of the service and retired. Many such dogs mourn their handlers just as do humans. When Max is returned to Kyle's family, he is hurt, angry, scared, and dangerous to be around. It will take a lot of adjusting for him to trust anybody again.

Kyle's younger brother Justin (Josh Wiggins) inherits the Belgian Malinois upon the dog's return from the Middle East. The two have an uneasy truce between them. Justin's friends Carmen (Mia Xitlali) and Chuy (Dejon La Quake) are instrumental in helping to cement the bonding between Max and his new family.

There is plenty of action when Justin and Max accidentally get involved with a nefarious friend of Kyle's (Luke Kleintank) and gun-runner Emilio (Joseph Julian Soria). Excitingly staged dog fights between Max and some vicious Rottweiler's keep one on the edge of the seat. Races on bicycles through the woods of South Carolina are effectively staged for maximum thrills and rival some big-budget special effects. The teens must outsmart the bad guys and Max must show how effective his combat training was in the face of new battles. The breathtaking climax will have you gasping and cheering.

Justin's mom and dad are played warmly by TV's Lauren Graham and effectively by Oscar®-nominee Thomas Haden Church. With Church playing a former Marine himself, he firmly helps Justin to take control of his own life and become man enough to deserve Max's devotion and love. There are plenty of tears and lump-in-the-throat moments that warm the heart. It's a wonderful film and one of the best animal pictures to come out of Hollywood in years.

Local artist's work will be displayed in the Capital Building

Senator Anderson's Corner

by Elisa Swenson
Legislative Intern
Office of Senator Anderson

Dixie Sampier, an artist from Santee, creates paintings on location and from her photographs with a free-flowing style that will leave you with a cheerful and lasting impression. Sampier's artwork includes oil, watercolor, acrylics, and mixed-media; watercolor is her absolute favorite.

Sampier was first inspired to start painting when she was just 8-years-old. "I would watch my father paint big signs for businesses, and I was just mesmerized by his hand and the stroking of the paint brush — all I wanted to do was paint."

Sampier has been painting

ever since. "I am more interested in a painting from the heart than visual truth. I interpret reality, I am not a slave to reality; creativity is expressed in my art," Sampier states. She is an artist that paints from the heart and for the heart.

Talented artists from all over California had an opportunity to potentially have their artwork selected to be part of an exhibit at the Capitol in Sacramento. Sampier submitted her artwork to State Senator Joel Anderson's office to take part in this opportunity.

Senator Joel Anderson's district 38 had many beautiful submissions. Art ranging from oil paintings, works on paper, weavings, wall hangings, and sculptures were submitted.

Impressed by Sampier's work, Anderson commented, "Dixie's paintings capture the essence of the breathtaking scenes of the East County area. Her artwork radiates passion and talent, and a love for our community is shown through her pieces."

Sampier's artwork can be found in many different places including Sampier's oil painting, "San Miguel Mountain," which is featured in a new book, Land of Sunlight — Contemporary Paintings of San Diego County. You may also find her work at Foothills Art Gallery, Summer Past Farms, The Social Hall at Hope Restored Church, or by visiting her website at www.dixiesampier.com.

'An Unforgettable Evening with Natalie Cole'

Natalie Cole

by Diana Saenger
Nine-time Grammy Award-winner performs one night only, Sunday, Aug. 23 at the San Diego Pops Summer Nights. Natalie Cole has sold more than 30 million records worldwide.

The daughter of Nat King Cole brings her talent, elegance and style to San Diego in a performance: An Unforgettable Evening with Natalie Cole. Singer, songwriter, pianist and actress, Natalie Cole will perform several of her own R&B hits, the incomparable standards first recorded by her father and the most romantic songs of the great Spanish language composers featured on Natalie Cole en Español, her latest album that will be released on June 25.

Natalie Cole rose to musical success in the mid-1970s as an R&B artist with hits "This Will Be," "Inseparable and Our Love." She reemerged as a pop artist with her 1987 album, Everlasting, and her cover of Bruce Springsteen's Pink Cadillac. In the 1990s, she re-recorded standards by her father resulting in her biggest success, Unforgettable... with Love, which sold seven million copies in the U.S. alone winning several Grammys including Album of the Year, Record of the Year and Best Traditional Pop Vocal Performance for the top song.

With her latest album, Natalie Cole en Español, she finds herself inspired by both the bilingual recording legacy of her father, Nat King Cole, and a growing passion for the timeless romanticism of the great Latin composers. Natalie Cole en Español will reintroduce a new generation of fans to many of Latin music's most romantic standards—with both new interpretations of Spanish-language classics previously recorded by Nat King Cole and Natalie's own personal selections of songs that have touched her heart and make this album truly her own. Highlights include Natalie joining Juan Luis Guerra on the Dominican Maestro's own conducted by Summer Pops principal conductor Matthew Garbutt takes place at Embarcadero Marina Park South on Sunday, Aug. 23 at 7:30 p.m.

An Unforgettable Evening with Natalie Cole also featuring the San Diego Symphony

Happy 12th of July!

The Declaration of Independence is the document that told the world that the 13 colonies were united as one country - the United States of America. It told that all ties to England were broken. The people wished to have a voice in their own government.

Answer the six questions below and fill in the puzzle.

I love to wave my flag at parades and at the fireworks. I'm very proud of my country. Do you know how many stars are on our nation's flag? There is one for each state in the union. Color in the squares.

1. What was rung to call people to the first public reading of the Declaration of Independence?
2. In what city was the Declaration of Independence signed?
3. A painting was done for America's 100th birthday. It shows a boy, a father and a grandfather marching off to war to fight for freedom. What is the painting called?
4. Upon what date was the Declaration of Independence adopted?
5. What is the name of the holiday celebrating our nation's birthday?
6. What is the name of the General who became our first President?

All Told!

I am a symbol of freedom. I called people to meetings that rang of liberty. I announced the first time that the Declaration of Independence would be read to the crowds on July 8, 1776. Can you follow the dots to see me? Put my name on the blanks:

The Petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A hearing on the petition will be held in this court on July 28, 2015 at 11 a.m. in Dept. PC-1 located at 1409 4th Avenue, San Diego, CA 92101-3105 Central Division/Madge Bradley Building.

If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk. Attorney for Petitioner: Harold G. NOTICE OF SETTLEMENT TO THE CLASS OF PERSONS WHO RESIDED AT THE HA-PENNY INN DURING THE PERIOD OF JULY 19, 2009 THROUGH
OCTOBER 7, 2013 OR THE ST. FRANCIS
MOTEL DURING THE PERIOD OF JULY
19, 2009 THROUGH JUNE 16, 2015:

You may be affected by the settlement in a lawsuit if you resided at the Ha-Penny Inn (1549 E. Main Street, El Cajon, CA) during the period of July 19, 2009 through October 7, 2013 or the St. Francis Motel (1368 E. Main Street, El Cajon, CA) during the period of July 19, 2009 through June 16, 2015. The lawsuit is called Burns et al. v. Shalom, LLC, et al, 37-2013-00058356-CU-BT-CTL, and is in the San Diego Superior Court. The parties have agreed to settle this case, and you may be entitled to proceeds from this settlement. This notice describes who are entitled to proceeds from this settlement (those who are members of the plaintiff "Class") and also explains what you must do to make a claim to participate in the settlement. This notice is not an opinion by the court as to which side of the lawsuit is right or wrong. This notice is to tell you about the settlement so that if you are a verified member of the Class, you can participate in the settlement. WHAT IS A CLASS ACTION AND WHO IS INVOLVED? In a class action lawsuit, people called "Class Representatives" sue on behalf of other people who have similar claims. The Class Representatives and all other people with similar claims are called a "Class," "Class Members," or "Plaintiffs." The settlement in this case will apply to the entire Class. The entities that were sued (in this case Shalom, LLC, El Shaddai Ent., LLC, Lion of Judah, Inc., Tio Sio Hun and Gondosinaryo Listyo) are called the Defendants. The case is pending in the Superior Court for the State of California, County of San Diego, before Judge Ronald S. Prager, Department 71 of the San Diego County Superior Court - Central. WHAT ARE THE CLAIMS MADE IN THE LAWSUIT? The Class Representatives sued Defendants on July 19, 2013. The Plaintiffs claimed that the Defendants did not comply with California law in the operation of its two hotels (Ha-Penny Inn and St. Francis Motel in El Cajon, California). Specifically, Plaintiffs claimed that Defendants circumvented landlord-tenant law by treating its guests as transient occupants. Defendants have denied all liability in the case. The parties have agreed to settle these claims before trial. WHAT ARE THE TERMS OF THE SETTLEMENT? The parties have entered into a Settlement Agreement and agreed on a Settlement Plan which governs the distribution of the proceeds from the Settlement. Without admitting any wrongdoing, Defendants have agreed to pay $320,000.00 into a Cash Fund, which includes: (a) Compensation to each verified class member to be distributed as set forth below; (b) Claims Administrator fees to be determined and approved by the Court; (c) An enhancement to each of the named Plaintiffs not to exceed $1,500.00; and (d) Class Counsel's attorneys' fees not to exceed one-third of the $320,000 gross settlement and all reasonable costs associated with prosecuting this case. Class Counsel's attorneys' fees and costs, and Plaintiffs' enhancement, remain subject to Court approval. To the extent that there are any amounts not claimed by the Class Members, the remainder shall revert first to a fund dedicated to claims made by potential opt-out individuals pursuant to paragraph 7.3 of the Settlement Agreement if there are any opt-outs. Amounts remaining from the opt-out fund will revert to The Alpha Project for the Homeless. Should there be no opt-outs, the amounts not claims by the Class Members will revert directly to The Alpha Project for the Homeless. If you qualify to receive money from the Cash Fund, you will receive a one-time payment in check form, based on the level of your award. In addition, the Defendants have agreed to take measures to ensure their future lodgers are aware of applicable landlord-tenant laws. If the Settlement Agreement is given final approval by the Court, judgment will be entered and the Settlement Agreement will govern the rights of the parties. SHOULD I GET MY OWN LAWYER? You do not need to hire your own lawyer because Class Counsel is working on behalf of the Class. However, if you want to hire your own lawyer you may do so. You will have to pay that lawyer and ask him or her to go to Court for you. HOW DO I PARTICIPATE IN THE SETTLEMENT AND WHAT BENEFITS A.M.

I ENTITLED TO? In order to participate in this Settlement, you must submit a claim. If the Settlement Administrator determines that your claim is valid, it will determine the level of your award based upon certain criteria. There are three levels of awards: • Level 1: three hundred dollars ($300) [If your occupancy was for two months or less]; • Level 2: six hundred dollars ($600) [If your occupancy was for more than two months, but less than one year]; and • Level 3: one thousand dollars ($1,000) [If your occupancy was for more than one year]. HOW DO I FILE A CLAIM? 1. You must submit the attached Class Member Claim Form ("claim form") by September 1, 2015 via mail or in person. (i) If you mail your claim form, it must be postmarked by September 1, 2015 or you will not receive any award. The address for claim forms to be mailed is: Burns v Shalom, LLC Settlement Administration, c/o Simpluris, Inc., P.O. Box 26170, Santa Ana, CA 92799 (Tel. (888) 369-3780). (ii) You may also pick up and/or drop off your claim form at the following locations and times: □ June 22, 2015 from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. at the St. Francis Motel (1368 E. Main Street, El Cajon, CA). □ June 29, 2015 from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. at the St. Francis Motel (1368 E. Main Street, El Cajon, CA). □ July 6, 2015 from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. at the St. Francis Motel (1368 E. Main Street, El Cajon, CA). □ July 13, 2015 from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. at the St. Francis Motel (1368 E. Main Street, El Cajon, CA). 2. If your claim is determined to be valid by the Settlement Administrator, and the Court approves the settlement, you will be later notified about how to get your share of the settlement funds. Note: Documents relevant to your stay(s) at the Ha-Penny Inn and/or the St. Francis Motel are helpful, but are not required to participate in the Settlement. WHAT HAPPENS IF I DO NOTHING? If you do nothing, you will not receive any money, you will be deemed part of the Class, and will release all claims alleged in the case. WHAT DO I NEED TO DO IF I WANT TO REQUEST EXCLUSION FROM THE SETTLEMENT? You may request exclusion from the Settlement. Class Members who request exclusion from the Settlement will NOT receive any money, nor will they have released their claims. Your request for exclusion must be in writing and must be signed, dated and returned by first class U.S. mail, or the equivalent, to Burns v Shalom, LLC Settlement Administration, c/o Simpluris, Inc., P.O. Box 26170, Santa Ana, CA 92799. (Tel. (888) 369-3780). All requests for exclusions from the settlement must be postmarked no later than August 15, 2015. You cannot exclude yourself if you wish to object to the Settlement. The Court shall rule on the validity of objections at the Final Fairness Hearing. WHO ARE THE LAWYERS IN THIS CASE? The Class is represented by Richardson C. Griswold of Griswold Law, APC, 444 S. Cedros Avenue, Suite 250, Solana Beach, California 92075 and Jean-Claude Lapuyade of JCL Law Firm, APC, 10731 Treena Street, Suite 101, San Diego, California 92131. Burfening, Jr. of Wood, Smith, Henning & Berman, LLP, 501 W. Broadway, Suite 1200, San Diego, California 92101. IS THERE A FINAL COURT HEARING? CAN I OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT? A Final Fairness Hearing will be held before Judge Ronald S. Prager on September 25, 2015 at 10 a.m., at 330 West Broadway, San Diego, California 92101, in Department 71 of the San Diego County Superior Court - Central, to determine whether the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. If you have any objections to all or any part of the Settlement Agreement with the Defendants, and you have not requested exclusion, you must submit your objection in writing to the Court and all Parties' counsel by August 15, 2015. If you don't timely object, you will be unable to raise any objections at the hearing. You do not need to appear at the hearing for your objections to be considered. However, if you wish to appear at the hearing in person or through counsel, you must submit a written notice of intention to appear along with your objection by the deadlines above, or you will not be allowed to speak at the hearing. The street address and other common designation, if any, of the real property described above is purported to be: 2929 JAMUL HIGHLANDS ROAD, JAMUL, CA 91935 The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the street address and other common designation, if any, shown herein. Said sale will be made without covenant or warranty, express or implied, regarding title, possession, or encumbrances, to pay the remaining principal sum of the Note(s) secured by said Deed of Trust, with interest thereon, as provided in said Note(s), advances if any, under the terms of the Deed of Trust, estimated fees, charges and expenses of the Trustee and of the trusts created by said Deed of Trust. The total amount of the unpaid balance of the obligations secured by the property to be sold and reasonable estimated costs, expenses and advances at the time of the initial publication of this Notice of Trustee's Sale is estimated to be $1,122,148.08 (Estimated). However, prepayment premiums, accrued interest and advances will increase this figure prior to sale. Beneficiary's bid at said sale may include all or part of said amount. In addition to cash, the Trustee will accept a cashier's check drawn on a state or national bank, a check drawn by a state or federal credit union or a check drawn by a state or federal savings and loan association, savings association or savings bank specified in Section 5102 of the California Financial Code and authorized to do business in California, or other such funds as may be acceptable to the Trustee. In the event tender other than cash is accepted, the Trustee may withhold the issuance of the Trustee's Deed Upon Sale until funds become available to the payee or endorsee as a matter of right. The property offered for sale excludes all funds held on account by the property receiver, if applicable. If the Trustee is unable to convey title for any reason, the successful bidder's sole and exclusive remedy shall be the return of monies paid to the Trustee and the successful bidder shall have no further recourse. Notice to Potential Bidders If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a Trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a Trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same Lender may hold more than one mortgage or Deed of Trust on the property. Notice to Property Owner The sale date shown on this Notice of Sale may be postponed one or more times by the Mortgagee, Beneficiary, Trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about Trustee Sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call In Source Logic at 702-659-7766 for information regarding the Trustee's Sale or visit the Internet Web site address listed below for information regarding the sale of this property, using the file number assigned to this case, CA08001876-13-1. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. Pet of the Week — William

I am already neutered, housetrained, up to date with shots, and not good with dogs.

William's Story...

"My name is WILLIAM, and I'm a one-year-old Leonberger fellow who is loving and friendly. Just look at my sweet expression! I'm here at the El Cajon Animal Shelter because my owner didn't have a yard, and that's something I need. I have a calm disposition, but I'll still need a good-sized yard and a daily walk to be at my best. I'm an intelligent pooch, and I'll respond well to patient training methods. I'm the kind of dog that will be your steadfast and loyal companion; I'll be part of the family. If a family adopts me, the kids should be older and considerate. I'd need to be the only dog in my new home. The shelter staff is fairly certain that I've already been house trained, but I might need a quick refresher course when I get to my new home. I already know how to sit on command, and I'm ready to learn whatever else you'd like to teach me. I aim to please. Won't you come visit me? They've got a really nice play yard here at the shelter where we can spend some time getting to know each other. I think you'll find that I'm a wonderful dog who will be your best buddy. Keeping your pets safe on the Fourth of July

It's the Fourth of July - do you know where your pet is? This may not be the first question that comes to mind on this day of barbecues, picnics, family gatherings and fireworks.

Yet to the American cat and dog, the Fourth of July is a scary holiday - a day of sudden flashes and explosions. Pets don't realize this is a national holiday. Dogs and cats, who tend to be sensitive to noise, become confused and frightened. Often their first instinct is to run and hide.

Many pet owners, unaware of how their pets will react, bring their dogs along to fireworks events or leave their cats outside for the evening. Some owners simply leave a window ajar, not realizing that terrified kitties might think this opening will allow them to escape the noise.

Here are some simple ways to prepare for the holiday, increase your pets' safety, drastically reduce their stress and lower their risk of running away.

Create a quiet place. Firecrackers, loud party voices and booming music can make pets anxious. Even well-socialized animals are likely to be pushed beyond their limits. Whether you go out or entertain at home, make sure your pets have a restful room or area to which they can retreat.

Don't take your pets to a fireworks display. Though you might prefer to have your pets' company, they'll be happier at home. Secure all potential escape hatches. If you can, leave them in a quiet, sheltered area. To reassure them, you may want to keep a television or radio playing at a normal volume while you're away.

Keep a harness and leash ready for each dog. If you must be outside with your dogs during fireworks, make sure each one is secure on a leash and harness. Frightened dogs commonly manage to slip out of their collars, and harnesses allow you to fully control your dog.

Don't leave your dogs outside unattended. Even tethered pups will struggle to get away if startled by noise. Dogs who aren't tethered may try to dig out of an enclosed yard. Generally, if dogs are afraid and stressed, they will look for a way out.

Be sure your pets wear current ID tags. Clear identification can be a pet's ticket back home. An ID tag means anyone who finds your pet can get in touch with you right away. Even an indoor cat should wear a breakaway collar with ID in case he slips out. If you don't have time to get a tag before the holiday, write your pet's name and your phone number in indelible ink on the collar itself for each of your pets.

Shoot a roll of photographs. It's a good idea to have up-to-date photos of your pets in case they ever get lost. Take a side shot of each pet and one looking directly at the camera. Hang up a gray sheet as a backdrop so your pets' images stand out clearly.

Keep all fireworks away from pets. People often don't realize how unpredictable and dangerous fireworks can be. Bottle rockets and firecrackers, in particular, can fly off in any direction. If one explodes near a pet, it could severely burn or blind him.

Hire a pet-sitter. If you go out for the day or evening, hire a pet-sitter to stop by or ask a friend who knows your pets to pay a visit. The loving touch and soothing tones of an animal-lover can calm your pets during the pyrotechnics.
