SDG&E and Girl Scouts partner to improve fire safety

San Diego Gas & Electric (SDG&E) and Girl Scouts San Diego are pleased to announce the completion of a $150,000 helipad at Girl Scouts' Camp Winacka near Julian. This helipad provides a new strategic landing area for CAL FIRE and emergency responder aircraft in a key, high-risk fire area.

The helipad is located just 200 yards from Upper Lake at Camp Winacka. The lake became a dipping station for CAL FIRE helicopters as a result of restoration work funded by SDG&E in 2013. Now, with the completion of the helipad, a fire-fighting helicopter can be pre-positioned at Camp Winacka and load water directly from the lake, saving precious response time in the event of a backcountry wildfire. CAL FIRE also will use the camp for logistics training.

"Every second is critical when getting to the scene of a wildfire," said Tony Mecham, CAL FIRE and San Diego County Fire Chief. "We thank Girl Scouts San Diego and SDG&E for providing a valuable asset that will help us more quickly reach small wildfires and prevent them from becoming big ones."

The helipad and lake renovation serve dual purposes. During summer camps and weekend visits, Girl Scouts can fish, canoe, and engage in science, technology, engineering and math activities, such as stargazing through telescopes and launching water rockets.

The helipad also improves the local community's ability to respond to medical emergencies involving campers, hikers or area residents.

"We are thrilled that, by partnering with SDG&E to renovate the lake and create the helipad at Camp Winacka, we are contributing to emergency response during fire season," said Girl Scouts San Diego CEO Jo Dee C. Jacob. "These enhancements will also provide valuable program space for thousands of Girl Scouts."

"Sealing the lake and building a helipad at Camp Winacka greatly improve the region's fire preparedness," said John Sowers, vice president of electric distribution operations for SDG&E. "SDG&E is proud to support the safety of the region, and we applaud Girl Scouts San Diego for creating a 'win-win' situation that benefits campers, the community and CAL FIRE."

SDG&E is a regulated public utility that provides safe and reliable energy service to 3.4 million consumers through 1.4 million electric meters and 868,000 natural gas meters in San Diego and southern Orange counties.

Founded in 1912, Girl Scouting provides the nation's best leadership experience for girls. Through Girl Scouts, girls discover themselves, connect with others, and take action to make the world a better place.

Girl Scouts San Diego provides activities for 43,000 local girl and adult members, trains volunteers, and maintains two camps and four program and service facilities.

SANDAG awards $15 million in grants to fund Smart Growth and Active Transportation Projects

The SANDAG Board of Directors recently voted to award 29 grants totaling $15 million to jurisdictions throughout San Diego County to support a variety of projects that promote smart growth, as well as walking, biking, and transit ridership. As part of the grant applications, the recipients have committed to provide $12.7 million as matching funds to complete the projects, resulting in more than $27 million in combined regional investments.

Twelve million dollars in grants are being distributed under the TransNet Smart Growth Incentive Grant Program, and $3 million under the Active Transportation Grant Program. These grant programs are funded by the TransNet regional half-cent sales tax for transportation approved by San Diego County voters.

The grants will pay for both capital and planning projects. Projects funded range from a bus/bike safety outreach program in Oceanside to way-finding and gateway signs in National City, from a Sixth Avenue bridge promenade in Downtown San Diego to a bike project in Santee. A complete list of awards is available online.

Evaluation panels for each program reviewed the grant applications in each category and ranked them according to criteria approved by the SANDAG Board last winter. The top-ranking projects were recommended for funding. The grants were approved July 24 by the SANDAG Board.

Both grant programs aim to fund projects with the potential to serve as catalysts for change in local communities. The Smart Growth Incentive Grant Program focuses on facilitating compact, mixed-use development around transit, thereby increasing housing and transportation choices. The Active Transportation Grant Program focuses on adding and improving bike and pedestrian facilities, as well as supporting the Regional Bike Plan.

For details about the grant programs, visit sandag.org/cycle3grants. To take an interactive tour of completed projects funded by previous grants, check out the story map at KeepSanDiegoMoving.com/grants.

Senator Anderson's Corner

Senator Anderson

by Christian Cromer
Intern Senator
Anderson's Office

Thirteen-year-old Alejandra Guzman, founder of the Junior Eco Ambassadors and avid dancer for The Element Dance Center, is pitching an idea to the community that could save thousands of gallons of water for the residents in her community.

Most people, instead of using the cold water that initially comes out when they take a shower, allow the water to flow until it gets warm enough for the person to bathe in. That initial cold water however, just flows down the drain. Guzman's bucket would catch the unused water and save it, and a large pitcher would be used to scoop it out for a variety of other uses, such as flushing toilets or watering plants.

Guzman excitedly shared, "We already use it in our house and we're getting other people in our community to use it too. We go to a lot of the Water Conservation Garden's events to speak to the people in the community about it."

Guzman's water bucket idea stemmed from her experiences, like meeting with her organization's sponsor, the Water Conservation Garden and her family members. "My grandma is a gardener," she explained. "And she taught me how to save water by planting succulent plants that conserve water."

Her idea is gaining traction. She received a certificate from California State Senator Anderson in recognition of her hard work. "Guzman's commitment to helping her community demonstrates how one person can inspire others to make a change that can benefit everyone," said Anderson.

"Once we're out of water, we're out of luck. This is a good idea that can save the world. Everything that's living needs water and without it the whole earth is going to go extinct."

Laughter is the Best Medicine

The talking parrot

A lady is walking down the street to work and sees a parrot in a pet store. The parrot says to her, "Hey lady, you are really ugly." Well, the lady is furious! And she storms past the store to her work.

On the way home she saw the same parrot in the window and the parrot said to her, "Hey lady, you are really ugly." Well, she was incredibly ticked now. The next day she saw the same parrot and the parrot said to her, "Hey lady, you are really ugly."

The lady was so ticked that she went into the store and said that she would sue the store and kill the bird. The store manager said, "That's not good." and promised he wouldn't say it again.

When the lady walked past the store after work the parrot said to her, "Hey lady." She paused and said, "Yes?" and the bird said, "You know."

Advice to the travel-weary vacationer

by Dr. James L. Snyder

Summer is usually a busy time, with everybody engaging in one of the great American activities. According to the overwhelming number of citizens, no summer is actually official until every American pursues this activity vigorously. Of course, I am referring to summer family vacation.

Our American government guarantees its citizens the right to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." This is the great American dream, drawing people from all over the world to our shores. Once they become full-fledged American citizens, they then dream of taking a summer vacation to Italy or France.

I am not sure how it happened, but somewhere, someone defined "the pursuit of happiness" to mean summer family vacations. Actually, if left up to me, I could find happiness in some other pursuit. Like an afternoon pursuing Apple fritters. However, who am I to buck the great American tradition?

Since the "pursuit of happiness" is the annual summer vacation, I thought it might be beneficial if I offered, out of my vast years of experience, some advice to my fellow vacationers on this crucial subject. After all, somebody needs to learn from my mistakes; I am not sure I have.

Every family vacationer consists of two categories; those who plan the vacation and those who fund the vacation.

The difference is obvious. If you plan a vacation, you are not required to fund it. If you fund the vacation, you have no say in the planning.

Rules are rules and I would like to know who made up these rules. I am guessing it was no one in the funding category.

If your responsibility is to fund the family vacation, there are certain things you are not allowed to say to those who are planning said vacation. For one, the sponsor of the vacation is never allowed to mention the word "budget." Nothing kills the exuberant spirit of the vacation planner than mentioning that foul word "budget."

If you insist on interjecting the concept of budget to the summer vacation, you might as well stay at home. Now, if you exercise this option, be prepared to endure the worst summer of your life. The entire cast of your family will work together to make you regret this option. They will find ways to finagle money out of you throughout the summer, far exceeding what you would have spent on the vacation, which brings the curtain down on your precious budget.

One year I thought I had a brilliant idea. I sent my family on vacation while I stayed at home. It was the most relaxing two weeks I had ever enjoyed in my life, not to mention the quietness.

Unfortunately, a month after my family returned from their vacation, I began getting the credit card bills from their delightful jaunt. According to my credit card statement, my family had the time of their life and no expense was spared for their enjoyment.

The next year, and every year after, I accompanied my family on the annual summer vacation just to keep tabs on my credit card. And believe me; the tab grew each day of our vacation.

So, when anyone in your family mentions the word "vacation," bite your tongue if the word "budget" pops into your mind and take it like the man you are, which is the only sensible thing to do if you love a happy life.

I know when the first mention of the concept comes up in the family discussion, immediately you might think to yourself, "is it really worth it?"

I have wrestled with this question for many years. Ev-

Dear Dr. Luauna — I change not

Dear Readers,

God bless you! We're living in a time where it seems like everything is changing. A young man 19 years old came into our Thrift Store and asked, "Do you have any old fashioned clothes like 70's?" I smiled, "70's?" He smiled from ear to ear and said, "They're SICK!" He noticed my expression as he said the word sick. I thought SICK! He smiled, and said, "Sick means awesome!" I smiled and helped him find some cool, sick 70's clothes.

No matter what changes all around us, God's Word never changes and I'm so glad. No matter what man tries, or says to change God's Word to fit a lifestyle or to have the approval of man. It's not changing on God's side, Malachi 3:5-7; "For I am the Lord, I do not change; ..." From the beginning of time, Satan has always whispered into the ear of mankind to twist and try to change what God has made final, His Word! Genesis 3:1; "Now the serpent (Satan) was more cunning than any beast of the field which the Lord God had made. And he said to the woman, 'Has God indeed said, 'You shall not eat of every tree of the garden?'"

Satan will always try to whisper into the ears of those who give him a place. The Bible, is life to those who take it to heart and apply it daily, eternity is in the balances. You are so special to God, His love for you is as so, He continually calls you to Himself. Sunday after church, I went to breakfast with a few friends, leaving the restaurant, I noticed across the street two very beautiful, black women, scantily clad and wearing almost nothing. I almost drove away but the Holy Spirit kept prompting me to go share Jesus with them, so I drove down the street, made a U-turn and stopped right in front of them with my Jesus truck, which says in BIG writing across my doors, "Our Hope Jesus Christ."

I knew these two beautiful young ladies were only 16 to 18 years old, they were prostitutes. They were trying to sell their bodies to the first sick pervert who would come along and give them money for sex. As I jumped out of my truck, they were reading my door. I came around and stood right in front of them, I said, "You two beautiful young ladies, what are you doing out here, shaking your stuff?" As I wiggled to show them how they were acting. They were both stunned, and smiled; I went on to share with them, "You're too beautiful to be out on these streets." I shared how much Jesus loved them, and had a better plan for them. I didn't want to hear that one day they would be found dead out in some river bed.

I asked them, "Why are you out here selling your bodies? I asked them if they would like Jesus to come into their hearts." As I looked into the eyes of one of them, she looked only 15 years old. I wanted to weep for these two baby girls. The young one said, "I have a two year old baby I need to feed." The other kept quiet. I said, "What about Jesus, He is faithful to meet all your needs?" They looked at me and said, "We tried church." I looked at them and said, "If all you tried was church, then you missed out on Jesus." You see, Satan whispers in many ears today, and tells them Jesus doesn't work! Join me for a church service; and allow me to introduce you to JESUS, not religion. Jesus is our only hope for a troubled soul. Join me for a Sunday Church Service 10 a.m., Wednesdays 7 p.m. Friday 7 p.m. at 1805 Main Street, San Diego, CA 92113 (Barrio Logan). ## Wedding bliss knows no age for local couple

by Diana Saenger

Love knows no age, no time, no reason, no place; it just happens. That's certainly true for newlyweds Bill Ridenour and Betty Rodgers. The two 91-year-olds walked down the aisle at Gateway Church in matrimony on July 17, 2015.

Friends for years, and each becoming widowers, age went out the window and love blossomed. A large crowd of friends and family attended the wedding. Gateway Church Pastors Mark Jaffe and Doug Bray performed parts of the marriage. Vince Pascarelli served as Best Man and his wife Florence was Maid of Honor. The service was followed by a catered lunch and cake cutting.

"We have known each other for a long time, so why not be together in our remaining years," Bill said.

Bill is dedicated to serving those in need by daily visits to church members in the hospitals or at home to offer prayers and comfort. He's done this for many, many years. Now Betty joins him in the visits.

"I feel blessed to have Bill for my husband, and we are very happy" Betty said.

The couple looks forward to a short honeymoon nearby and then a return to their heart mission of helping others.

'Mission: Impossible — Rogue Nation'

Review by Diana Saenger

Keeping the excitement new and unexpected in film sequels can be a challenge. That's no problem with Mission: Impossible – Rogue Nation, the fifth installment in the constantly accelerating action-thriller series. Luckily for fans, Tom Cruise returns as Ethan Hunt, and this time he faces his most extremely intense and impossible mission to date.

However, Hunt may be out of a job soon as CIA Director Alan Hunley (Alec Baldwin) thinks the IMF has had its day in the sun and votes to disband

it. That leaves Hunt in a foreign country without backing and the world in danger from The Syndicate -- a rogue nation. Their intricately –trained agents are part of the goal to destroy much of civilization.

Director Christopher McQuarrie (Edge of Tomorrow, Jack Reacher, The Usual Suspects) waste no time in getting the adrenaline of audience viewers pumping as Hunt is in the mist of The Syndicate's trained killers with little hope of surviving. The heated moments slide away as Ilsa Faust (Rebecca Ferguson), the beautiful Syndicate agent sent in to kill him, instead aids his escape but not before Hunt rumbles with several other agents.

On the run and contacted by his colleague Benji (Simon Pegg), Hunt learns about the IMF being ordered to disband. Benji realizes how urgent Hunt's mission is and insists he join him in his efforts.

McQuarrie, who also wrote the screenplay, leaves no minute in this film that is not filled with danger, crazy chase scenes, and very funny moments as well. Because Ilsa appears to be a real dilemma since at one moment she seems to want to aid the IMF; but then will do something unexpected to aid The Syndicate. As Hunt's other colleagues; Luther Stickell (Ving Rhames) and Solomon Lane (Sean Harris) eventually show up to assistance in his situation, the energy, mystery and excitement reaches fever peaks.

Cruise carries on as if he's in his 20's and Ferguson is eye-candy and sensational in keeping viewers wondering whose side is she really on.

The storyline, the acting, the stunts -- many that involve motorcycles -- all make Mission: Impossible – Rogue Nation one of the best in the franchise. It's a real thriller.

'Pixels' will entertain the kids

Review by Diana Saenger

Pixels is getting slammed by critics and truthfully it doesn't have much appeal for general audiences. The story is about gamers and game icons from the 1980's such as Pac-man, Centipede and Donkey Kong.

There are now threats against the world because intergalactic aliens have misinterpreted video-feeds of classic arcade games as a declaration of war against them. So they attack the Earth, using the games as models for their various assaults.

So who came to save the world? The best gamers of course. The cast includes Adam Sandler (Breener), Kevin James (Cooper), Peter Dinklage (Eddie) Josh Gad (Ludlow) Brian Cox (Admiral Porter) and Sean Bean (SAS Officer). These actors seve the film well, especially Michelle Monaghan as Violet.

The plot is thin, but there is humor and since there are hardly any films at this time for kids, this will keep them interested and laughing. They won't get some of the jokes that are retro, but they will like the energy and special effects in the film.

NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call, 916-939-0772 for information regarding the trustee's sale or visit this Internet Web site, www.nationwideposting.com, for information regarding the sale of this property, using the file number assigned to this case, T.S.#9550-1928. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. If the Trustee is unable to convey title for any reason, the successful bidder's sole and exclusive remedy shall be the return of monies paid to the Trustee and the successful bidder shall have no further recourse. NOTICE OF PETITION

TO ADMINISTER
KAREN LARAE ANDERSON, AKA KAREN
CASE NO. 37-2015-00021733-PR-PL-CTL
ROA #: 1
(IMAGED FILE)

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of: KAREN LARAE ANDERSON, AKA KAREN L. ANDERSON

A Petition for Probate has been filed by TAMMY ANDERSON in the Superior Court of California, County of SAN DIEGO. The Petition for Probate requests that TAMMY ANDERSON be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

The Petition requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

The Petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A hearing on the petition will be held in this court on 08/20/2015 at 01:30 pm in Dept. PC-2 located at 1409 4th Avenue, San Diego, CA 92101-3105 Central Division/Madge Bradley Building.

If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk. Attorney for Petitioner: Carolyn R. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. ## Vationer ...

ery annual two-week vacation takes six months to prepare, five months and two weeks to recover, along with the mysterious disappearance of a full year's salary. Following the vacation there is no logical explanation as to where that money went.

Someone said a picture is worth a thousand words. Let me modify this to apply it to the family summer vacation. A vacation picture is worth $1,000.

Following every vacation, there is the necessary time to recover. Recuperating from the summertime vacation is like recovering the living room couch. The sofa looks refreshed and refurbished, but you know what is underneath and you know it really is not what it boasts to be.

No matter how much you recover that old living room sofa, it is still old and worn out. Appearances can be deceiving and appearances at the summer vacation can also be deceiving.

After years of financing the annual summer vacation, I have concluded that fun is expensive. I have found no way of getting around this truth.

On the other hand, grumpy is free. Lately, I have been leaning toward grumpy.

Summer vacations are necessary and a person just has to learn to deal with it and make the most of it, or the least of it, depending on your perspective.

Everybody needs to get away and rest. Even Jesus understood this concept.

He invites us to "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light" (Matthew 11:28-30).

The best thing about the "rest" Jesus offers is he has already paid for it. Now I can really enjoy that vacation.

Cool Down with Frozen Peanut Butter Brownie Pie

"It is so amazing. Your whole family will love you!"

Frozen Peanut Butter Pie

What You Need

1 box brownie mix
1/2 stick butter
1 egg

FILLING

2 c whipped topping
1/2 c powdered sugar
3/4 c peanut butter

TOPPING

4 chopped Reese's Peanut Butter Cups
1/2 c hot fudge ice cream topping

Directions

- Preheat oven to 350F. Grease a springform pan or pie pan with butter.
- Melt butter and mix with brownie mix. Add egg and combine.
- Bake in oven for about 15 to 20 minutes (it will still be wet). Let cool for about 20 min. With buttered fingertips, press the brownie to make a rim in the pan (make sure it is cooled to the touch). Remove from the springform pan and slide it onto a plate. If you are using a pie pan, leave it in the pan.
- While the crust is cooling, cream together powdered sugar and peanut butter. Then, add whipped topping and whisk. The mixture will be thick.
- With a spatula, fill the crust with the filling. Take 4 Reese's Peanut Butter Cups and chop into little pieces (freezing first makes it easier to chop). Sprinkle the chopped pieces on top of the filling.
- Place 2 tbsp of hot fudge sundae topping and into the microwave for about 30 seconds. Drizzle it over the top of the peanut butter pieces and filling.
- Place a piece of plastic over the pie and freeze for about 3 hours.

Pet of the Week — Buttons

I am already spayed, housetrained, up to date with shots, and good with dogs.

Buttons's Story...
"Hello, friends! My name is BUTTON, since I'm as cute as a button. I sit quietly in my kennel, waiting for a kind and loving person to come along who'll see that I'm sweet and gentle. I'm a three-year-old Chihuahua, and I've got the most adorable habit of leaving my tongue sticking out just a little bit when I'm resting. It takes me just a minute to get used to a new person, so be sure to ask one of the helpful staff here at the El Cajon Animal Shelter to take us out to the play yard together so we can get to know each other. Once I warm up, you'll see my joyful glow light up the yard. I'd do well in a home where the kids are older and considerate of me, and I like to be around other dogs. The shelter staff believes that I've already been house trained, but I might need a quick refresher course when I get to my new home. I already know how to sit on command, and I'm a well-mannered lady. Won't you please come visit me? I'd love to go to my forever home as soon as possible; one where I'll be cherished and appreciated. Love, Button" Kennel #11
