Local News & Events

New campaign launched to raise wildfire awareness

The National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) announced the launch of its TakeAction campaign that targets middle and high school students living in areas with wildfire risks. The campaign highlights important information about wildfire risks to life and property. Through TakeAction, students can use educational resources to implement local grassroots community service projects that increase resident safety and improve a home's likelihood of surviving a wildfire.

According to NFPA's 2012 report, "Engaging Youth in Reducing Wildfire Risk – Community Conversation Workshop Findings and Research,"

it's estimated that more than 8 million students in grades 6 – 12 live in a U.S. wildland/urban interface community (WUI). Research shows that youth are a valuable resource in bringing information into their homes and being active participants in projects related to risk reduction. School and club community service projects directly benefit the people, wildlife and neighborhoods where youth live. By taking part in proactive service projects, participants can make important contributions in their area to reduce wildfire risks and mitigate post-fire impacts like flooding and mudslides.

In addition to the educational resources available through the TakeAction campaign, U.S. residents ages 13 – 22 who complete a wildfire risk reduction or post-fire project and submit an application are eligible to receive one of twenty $500 Community Service Funding Awards. Sponsored by State Farm, the funding awards are part of NFPA's 2015 Year of Living Less Dangerously from Wildfire outreach effort. Winning applicants can use the award toward future educational costs, or it can be donated to the charitable organization of their choice. The deadline to submit applications is November 15, 2015.

WHITEBOARD VIDEO: Can be seen at: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Qni1tT64D-4> This whiteboard animation video provides important information that increases middle and high school age students' knowledge about wildfire and introduces them to the TakeAction campaign.

State Farm has a long history of providing proactive wildfire safety education to its policyholders in high-risk regions. In the last two years, State Farm has teamed up with NFPA to co-sponsor national Wildfire Community Preparedness Day, providing monetary awards to 85 community recipients to help fund local wildfire risk reduction projects.

TakeAction proudly supports FEMA's America's PrepareAthon on September 30, a national campaign that encourages residents to plan, conduct and promote preparedness activities for all natural disasters, including wildfire. By participating in both America's PrepareAthon and TakeAction, young people can make contributions towards ensuring that their community is a safer place to live.

Find additional resources and learn more about the TakeAction campaign and the State Farm-sponsored Community Service Funding Awards at www.nfpa.org/takeaction.

SDG&E launches new energy efficiency marketplace website

In an effort to help customers lower their energy bills, San Diego Gas & Electric (SDG&E) has launched a new online store, SDG&E Marketplace, for customers to quickly and easily shop for energy saving products offered by third-party retailers.

"SDG&E is among the first utilities in the nation to launch this type of online tool," said Caroline Winn, SDG&E's chief energy delivery officer. "We are a national leader in renewable energy and leading efforts to reduce energy consumption. The marketplace tool is another leadership opportunity to use technology to better serve and inform our customers about energy products available. Choosing the energy efficiency products that are right for you can take time and be confusing. The SDG&E Marketplace makes it easy and empowers our customers to choose the products that help them save electricity and money."

At the SDG&E Marketplace, customers will be able to shop for rebate-eligible products, such as high-efficiency appliances, smart thermostats, and water conservation products. The SDG&E Marketplace also offers an option for personalized energy-saving tips based on a customer's home profile and smart meter data. BUILDING STRONG®

FORMER CAMP ELLIOTT RESTORATION ADVISORY BOARD (RAB)

The former Camp Elliott site is located in San Diego County, California. The US Army Corps of Engineers (USACE) is investigating this site under the Defense Environmental Restoration Program for Formerly Used Defense Sites (DERP-FUDS).

The Department of Defense (DOD) encourages community involvement in the environmental restoration process. A Restoration Advisory Board (RAB) is one of many methods the USACE may use to facilitate public participation at a FUDS. RABs provide a collaborative forum for the community, government agencies, tribes and installation decision makers to discuss and identify the most efficient and productive means to restore the environment. RAB members are asked to meet regularly to review and comment on technical documents and plans relating to the ongoing environmental studies and restoration activities at the site. Members will be expected to serve as liaisons with the community and be available to meet with community members and groups. RAB members serve as volunteers and provide individual advice to decision makers on environmental restoration plans for the former Camp Elliott site.

The USACE Los Angeles District welcomes public feedback regarding interest in establishing a RAB for the former Camp Elliott site. Inquiries or questions should be submitted, by September 25, 2015, to: U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Los Angeles District, Attn: Jeffery Armentrout, 915 Wilshire Blvd Los Angeles, CA 90017; or emailed to jeffery.b.armentrout@usace.army.mil.

The Rock Church rocks with gratitude for military community serving in the military. Associate Pastor Greg Hendricks described the event as "a time for our community to get together and celebrate the men and women who lay down their lives for our country and show their families how much we care and appreciate them."

The Rock Church recently established a new branch in the El Cajon community and they hosted their annual "Boots Off!" Event last month to show their gratitude and support for the military community of El Cajon. The featured music, fun games for both kids and adults, along with free food to help sustain joy and cheerfulness, expressed their love for the military and their families.

Everyone was greeted with smiles by energetic volunteers. There was excitement and delight in everyone's faces as they thanked those who served or are currently

In front of the church opening a row of colorful and inviting bounce-houses were displayed for the young children who attended. As their parents roamed around and fellowshiped with their friends and families, the young kids burned off some energy jumping about and playing freeze-tag inside the jumpers. The inside of foyer of the church added to the lively festivities with free haircuts and loads of fun arcade games for all.

To recognize the Rock Church's dedication to this event and to the U.S. troops and their families, Senator Joel Anderson provided Associate Pastor Greg Hendricks with a certificate of appreciation. Anderson expressed his appreciation for the Rock Church and their support of the military when he said, "Greg and his team of dedicated volunteers and staff have made this event an amazing opportunity to thank our service members."

Dear Dr. Luauna — Pregnant with a dream?

Dear Readers,

Did you know some of the most miserable people in this world are women who are pregnant and overdue? I remember like it was yesterday, no matter what I did, I couldn't get comfortable. I couldn't see my toes. I walked like a penguin, and felt like I was burning up.

Some of the most miserable Christians in the world are those who are pregnant with a dream or a vision, yet haven't been able to give birth to that dream. I remember years ago, I knew the Holy Spirit called me into the ministry. I thought I was ready, even though I had only been a Christian for one year, and didn't know my Bible. I just thought, "Yes Lord, I'm ready!" I wanted to travel the whole world right then and tell everyone about Jesus. I remember crying out in prayer, "Yes Lord, here I am, use me!" I would like to tell you, Jesus bolted me out into the ministry right then, but He didn't.

Thirty-five years later, I'm sure glad He didn't take me up on my offer! I was far from ready, even though I had all the feelings, my character was lacking. I'm ever glad the good Lord didn't launch me out even after five years as a Christian, because I then was filled with spiritual pride. The funny thing was, the Holy Spirit had me start my first women's Christian home, after one year as a Christian. I was living with 18 women and five children under one roof. Talk about character building! Try living with 18 women with only two bathrooms and you'll find out how full of Jesus you really are. Those years of leading a women's home changed my life!

God's grooming for the dream and vision I had deep inside of my heart started in a place I didn't realize was God's perfect plan. Learning to love the unlovable, the ungrateful, and the selfish, it was something the Holy Spirit had to work deep within my heart. To fulfill a dream or vision demands intimacy with our Heavenly Father. Prayer is the greatest tool God gives to His children. When we pray, yes, God moves mountains out of the way. But first, He moves us out of the way so He can be Lord of our hearts. Want to make God laugh? Just tell Him your plans!

Let God have full control of your life. You see the more you fight, the longer it takes to accomplish the true dream and vision the Holy Spirit has for you. We're very important to the Father, and He has known us before we were born. He has a plan for each one of us, but we must surrender, and allow JESUS to be Lord. It's miserable to be nine months pregnant forever! You were born for greatness!

The most challenging place in your walk with GOD will be letting GO of the old man, the old nature which loves to hold you captive; letting go of YOU; your old thoughts, ideas, and ways. Sometimes it's hard to remember, it was your old ways which almost destroyed you.

Nothing is worth holding on to. Let GO to let GOD, it's a greater outcome, Romans 8:14-15.

In order us to fulfill the dreams and the visions in our hearts, intimacy with God must come first. I believe today the Holy Spirit is speaking the words of Hosea 10:12; "Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the Lord, till He comes and rains righteousness upon you." Prayer is like building a highway for the Lord. We have to do the work first then God will send His glory. If we will be patient and faithful, if we will follow the process of intimacy, pregnancy, travail, we will birth and see the fulfillment of our Heavenly dream and vision.

Ants can be helpful to us because they control pests. However, sometimes ants sting or bite us, or get into our food supplies. Then we think they are the pests!

Weigh In!

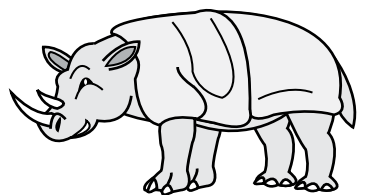

Scientists have learned that ants lift 10-50 times their own weight. If a 56 pound 8-year-old girl could do this, she could easily lift a one-year-old elephant that weighs about 660 pounds, or even 2 polar bears that weigh a ton (2,000 pounds)!

Read each math problem and match it to the answer:

1. if a man who weighs 220 pounds could lift 10 times his own weight, he could lift:
2. if a 140 pound woman could lift 50 times her weight, she could pick up:
3. if a 12-year-old girl weighs 93 pounds and she can lift 30 times her weight, then she can lift:

- A. a 7,000 pound white rhinoceros
- B. a 2,790 pound American bison – the largest land animal in the Americas

C. a 2,200 pound crocodile

President and CEO of San Diego Theatres, Elizabeth Doran, announced the launch of a new programming series, Cinema @ The Balboa, which begins previews September 20-27. The installation of a state-of-the-art cinema system in the historic Balboa Theatre, including 4k digital projector, full stage screen, and high definition sound, will feature amazing resolution, sound and picture quality for a compelling and entertaining film experience.

"San Diego Theatres, operating the Civic and Balboa Theatres downtown, is working at the nexus of artistic expression and community development," Doran said. "Our vision combines universal storytelling with interactive, inclusive and fun, high quality experiences. This builds opportunities for artists and audiences to explore aspects of our humanity together such as compassion, tolerance and creativity."

The theme of the September preview week is a celebration of the music heritage of the Balboa, where hundreds of acclaimed music artists have performed over the years. In addition, a focus of the Cinema @ The Balboa series will be on reflecting and engaging the many communities that make up downtown San Diego and its surrounding region.

The Cinema @ The Balboa September series previews with the following films:

'Hitman: Agent 47' creates futuristic assassins

Review by James Colt Harrison

Thrilling from beginning to end, Hitman: Agent 47 steps on the gas from the first scene and never lets up. Anyone seeking action and unrelenting mayhem, this picture brings it in quadruple doses. Probably geared more to the twenty-something testosterone crowd than the ladies, guys will love all the macho posturing and 100 decibel bone crunches.

British actor Rupert Friend plays "47," a genetically engineered assassin whose sole purpose in life is to kill. He's programmed that way and can't help it. The prison-like number embossed on the back of his neck has his serial number, the last two digits of which are 47. He has no other name. He's an elite assassin because he is the only one existing. He is the result of 46 failures to create the ultimate killing machine. His next goal? To eliminate a mega-corporation whose CEO Le Clerq (played by German star Thomas Kretschmann) wants to create an army of mega assassins and rule the world. But first, they need to find the scientist who created men with exceptional intelligence, speed, and strength.

Although Agent 47 is completely sexless and has no romantic notions, emotions or feelings of love, he teams up with a mysterious young woman (Hanna Ware) indeed most fetching. There could have been sparks there, but the only electricity comes out of his electrodes. Unfortunately, he's so emotionless he doesn't have electrodes either.

It's difficult to analyze films like this whose sole purpose is to thrill, shock and entertain. Do we rhapsodize over the efficiency of the guns which mow down people at breakneck speed? We aren't going to be able to compare the acting to Shakespeare, although the cast is perfectly fine and intriguing. Friend has gained popularity on the TV show Homeland as character Peter Quinn.

There is a point to the film. Agent 47 not only must find the scientist who created him, but he must also take out Le Clerq, the CEO (German star Thomas Kretschmann) of a multi-national company who wants to build more killing machines like 47 and create an army of killers to take over the world. It's no secret that Katia's (Ware) father, Litvenko, See AGENT 47 page 10

Review by Diana Saenger

With Lily Tomlin's natural satire and ease to make us laugh, Grandma looked to be very entertaining. However, for me, writer-director Paul Weitz's tale about a sad look at a gay poet's unhappy life is saturated with doom and gloom.

Elle Reid (Tomlin) has ordered her partner -- the lovely younger Olivia (Judy Greer) -- to immediately leave. Surrounded by her first-edition copies of books such as Betty Friedan's The Feminist Mystique, which Elle thinks are worth a lot of money, her anger becomes her hidden fear of aging. This is evident in a horrific and woeful bathroom scene.

When Elle's granddaughter Sage (Julia Garner) shows up needing help, Elle is happy to see her until she discovers Sage needs $630 for an abortion she's having later that afternoon. They banter about with Elle offering several solutions, but Sage is steadfast in her decision and has not told her mother Judy (Marcia Gay Harden). That would be a possible solution since her mother is a successful attorney.

Elle tells Sage she is stone broke and even destroyed her credit cards. After Sage has a fit the two set out on a journey to find some money. Elle's priceless books end up having no value. Her friend and transgender tattoo artist Deathy (Laverne Cox) who owes her money, has none.

Dreading it but giving in, Elle finally takes Sage to meet a former lover, Karl (Sam Elliot). That too uncovers more heartache, especially when he agrees to the loan, but then reneges when he finds out what it's for.

There's barely five minutes of dialogue that goes by in the film when Elle is not spouting off some snappish retort which Tomlin rattles off with the genius that has sustained her incredible career.

‘Agent 47’...

(Ireland's Ciaran Hinds) is the scientist who created Agent 47, but he's in hiding to protect his life. Katia and 47 must get to him first before he is captured by Le Clerq.

The epic battle at the con-

While I enjoyed the laughs and seeing Tomlin on screen again, and a great performance by Julia Garner, I did not enjoy the film. I realize every film will not end happily-ever-after, but no one in this entire movie was happy; they were all miserable with their lives.

I hoped that through Elle showing her granddaughter that you could make wrong decisions and come up against obstacles but get through it, and that would open Sage's eyes to not have an abortion. But that didn't happen. Very sad.

clusion of the film is spectacular. There will be many jumps out of seats per the mayhem, smashing glass in office towers, helicopters hovering menacingly close by, and Agent 47's guns that shoot relentlessly and seemingly kill an entire city's worth of men. Is it ever thrilling! This is not a film for everyone, but it will certainly get many an action-lover's heart skipping beats.

Seahawks beat Chargers in pre-season

by Chuck Karazsia

In the third game of the pre-season the last tune-up before the regular season. The San Diego Chargers plan was to play its starters in the first half.

Due to pre-cautionary reasons from Head Coach Mike McCoy they went without the services of offensive lineman Orlando Franklin (acquired from the Denver Broncos), nose tackle Sean Lissemore, free safety Eric Weddle, and inside linebacker Manti Te'o.

All went according to plan, except quarterback Philip Rivers gave the team a scare as he jogged into the tunnel late in the second quarter — he had been getting his index finger on his throwing hand examined after getting hit from a rushing Seahawk defender. No worries Charger fans, you're franchise quarterback is fine.

Impressive as usual running the offense. Rivers with pin point accuracy completed 13-of-19 passes for 130 yards. He is ready for the regular season. However several Rivers led drives fell short of the end zone as the Chargers settled for field goals.

Offensive coordinator Fran Reich had a plan to get free agent wide receiver Stevie Johnson involved in the offense having not caught any passes in the previous two preseason games. Mission accomplished.

The 29 year old veteran receiver had a coming out game Saturday catching four passes for 63-yards. The longest a 34-yarder dazzled all in attendance at Qualcomm Stadium as he burst and cut down the sideline on a short Rivers pass.

Rookie first round pick running back Melvin Gordon got his feet wet in the first half gaining 34-yards on 14 carries. He also caught two Rivers passes. The highly coveted running back is getting used to the NFL.

He has a slight hesitation picking his holes, but shows a lot of desire and toughness. Through repetition he will be a positive force in the upcoming season.

Second year running back Brandon Oliver proving his value to the team this off-season scampered 70-yards to pay-dirt on a short Clemens pass in the second half.

This game belonged to the Chargers defense holding a high powered Seahawk offense to a field goal in the first half and under 200-yards and 11 first downs.

After getting the first "three and outs" the Chargers "D" applied constant swarming pressure to Seattle quarterback Russell Wilson, the defensive pass rush of the Chargers showed electrifying speed on the outside rush getting three sacks on the opposing quarterback. Continuing to impress rookie fifth-round draft pick outside linebacker Kyle Emanuel got to Wilson early sacking the quarterback (his second of the pre-season). Strong Safety Jimmy Wilson on a blitz nailed Wilson in the backfield with a sack. A third tackle on Wilson for a loss by SS Jaheel Addae was caused by the disrupting force of an OLB Melvin Ingram pass rush. Addae and Wilson are battling for the starting job at strong safety. Defensive end Darius Philon also contributed with a four-yard tackle for a loss.

Chargers rookie RB Melvin Gordon (28) ran for 38 yards.

Also battling for a position on special teams are kicker veteran Nick Novack and free agent kicker Josh Lambo. Both were successful on a field goal each in the first half. Novack drilled a 32 and 52-yarder in the game and kicking off had a touchback which should keep him a San Diego Charger this season.

"I'm glad they brought in somebody. It will only make me better, and I can only make him better as well," concluded Novack.

The Bolts special teams gave up a long return for a touch-down that proved to be a difference maker.

The fourth and last game of the pre-season is Thursday against the 49'ers at Santa Clara. Don't expect to see many starters in that one as the Bolts prepare for the regular season home opener against the Detroit Lions.

"I think the number one thing in every pre-season is to improve as a football team in all phases," said Chargers Head Coach Mike McCoy.

FUNDS

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a public hearing will be held at 3:00 p.m. on Tuesday, September 22, 2015, in the City Council Chambers located at 200 Civic Center Way in El Cajon. The purpose of the hearing is to provide El Cajon citizens with the opportunity to voice their opinions on, and participate in the development of the City's program for use of the federal CDBG funds from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). Approximately $455,000 in CDBG funds has been made available for re-allocation due to the cancellation of the Wells Park Improvements project previously awarded funding in the FY 2015-2016 One Year Action Plan and other unallocated funds identified. Public input is encouraged in the development of the One-Year Action Plan and the proposed use of these funds. Citizens may participate in written form prior to the public hearing or orally during the hearing. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call, 916-939-0772 for information regarding the trustee's sale or visit this Internet Web site, www.nationwideposting.com, for information regarding the sale of this property, using the file number assigned to this case, T.S.# 9551-2526. Pet of the Week — Sapphire

"My name is SAPPHERE, and I'm a friendly, easy-going pit bull terrier mix who's the perfect blend of laid-back and playful. I seem to automatically know what the situation calls for. Maybe it's because I'm smart, too.

I'm four years old, and I'm quite well-mannered. I'd be a beloved family pet, and I get along well with other nice dogs who are larger, like me. I'd need to have a yard in my new home, and when you see me play fetch you'll see why. I might be a little chubby, but I sure have all the moves! I'll chase that toy and bring it back like a pro. After a few minutes of fetch, I'll be ready to curl up next to you while we watch football together (or whatever you like to watch). I'd sure appreciate a daily walk in my new home. It will help me shed those extra pounds, it will allow me to be at my best, and it will be a great time for us to bond. Please give me a nice soft dog bed in my new home, as I'll want to be a true part of the family. You'll be glad to know that I've already been house trained, too. Won't you come on over to the El Cajon Animal Shelter so we can visit each other out in the nice play yard? You'll see that my happy nature will rub off on you. Love, Sapphire" Kennel #47
