Viejas Casino and Resort opens 2nd hotel with exciting show

Tino Wallenda and fireworks highlighted the event

The grand opening celebration included a thrilling tightrope performance by Tino Wallenda of the world-famous Flying Wallendas. Mr. Wallenda walked the distance between both hotel towers on a tightrope suspended five stories high, all set to a live performance by the San Diego Symphony. Years of planning to make Viejas Casino & Resort in Alpine more attractive and competitive among other casinos hit its mark with the celebration of the grand opening of their second luxury hotel tower on October 30.

As guests arrived to glimpse the new hotel, concert stage and courtyard, Viejas General Manager Chris Kelley, Anthony San Pietro, Vice President Entertainment & Advertising and members of the Viejas Band of Kumeyaay Indians Tribal council took the stage.

Anthony San Pietro welcomed the Tribal members, politicians and special guests there to celebrate the new hotel's opening. He introduced the Tribal Council members present; Chairman Robert J. Welch, Jr, Vice Chairman Victor E. Woods, Treasurer Sam Q. Brown, Councilman Adrian M. Brown, Councilman Dave TeSam, and Councilman Kevin M. Carrizosa.

The Viejas Bird Singers performed their traditional songs and dances to begin the festivities.

"Today is a milestone along our path with the addition of 109 hotel rooms, 15,000 sq. ft. of gaming space, 1000 new slot machines, an outdoor park for concerts and events, the magnificent Oak ballroom and conference rooms, and trailblazing design all beautifully appointed with every detail accounted for," San Pietro said before he introduced Viejas Casino and Resort General Manager Chris Kelley who took the podium to welcome everyone.

"I'd like to say a special thank you to our Viejas Council and tribe for leading the way and your trust, to our team members for inspiring us all on a daily basis, to our executive management team for your commitment to excellence and to our loyal guests, thank you for making tonight possible," Kelley said. "Our own tribal council helped to design much of the beauty you see, and our local partners added to our strength. Our message today concludes as one of gratitude to this community in which we live and work and our commitment to continue to give you all the best of everything."

Tribal Chairman Robert J. Welch, Jr. opened his speech with a thank you and welcomed dignitaries, chamber members, tribal council members, bird singers and guests.

"It is truly an honor to realize the civic pride that exists as a result of our perseverance," Welch said. "It is also a great feeling to stand here with you and celebrate another new addition to this ever-growing enterprise and what dreams are to come. I'd like to recognize the hard work of our previous counsel tribal members who believed in this vision. We are grateful that our committed guests, neighbors and community are on this journey with us. We have a commitment to our people that we will continue to work hard for the common goal of building something great and appreciate our Viejas family for standing by us for more than two decades. Passion and hard work allow us to believe in our goals and our dreams. As elected leaders we are humble and very proud of what has been accomplished on the tribe's behalf by all of you. We are grateful to Wells Fargo and Swinerton who believed in our vision and turned it into reality. To our treasured guests your unwavering loyalty inspires us to become so much more, leaving our competition in the dust."

A show stopper next took place as Tino Wallenda of the world-famous Flying Wallendas followed a spectacular fireworks display to complete a thrilling tightrope performance. High above the crowd he walked from the roof of the first hotel across the courtyard to the roof of the second hotel. Hundreds of guests aimed their cameras to record this amazing feat.

Excitement still awaited the 100's of guests as the new $50 million hotel tower was opened for tours through the 237 guest rooms, 35 luxury suites, and the lavish Premier Suites with luxury spa, high-end amenities, such as multiple HDTVs, wet bar, exquisite handcrafted furnishings, oversize walk-in shower, Jacuzzi with whirlpool jets, and much more. How about a fireplace, outside balcony and TV screen right in the bathroom mirror?

The new hotel also features 55,000 square feet of meeting, pre-function and outdoor event space, the elegant Oak Ballroom, ideal for weddings and special group events, nine state-of-the-art meeting spaces and a dedicated meeting concierge program for personalized planner support.

The East San Diego AAA Four Diamond Viejas Casino & Resort features world-class gaming with thousands of slot machines, exciting table games that include Blackjack, Baccarat, and Pai Gow, a modern and elegant bingo room, and an off-track betting facility. Cajon Valley Union School District accepted into National Network of Innovative School Districts

Cajon Valley Union School District Accepted into National Network of Innovative School Districts

Cajon Valley Union School District joins Digital Promise League of Innovative Schools, will partner with other leading educators, entrepreneurs, and researchers from across the U.S.

Cajon Valley Union School District is one of 22 school districts accepted today into the League of Innovative Schools, a national coalition of forward-thinking school districts organized by Digital Promise, an independent, bipartisan nonprofit organization authorized by Congress to accelerate innovation in education.

Cajon Valley Union School District was selected from a competitive and national pool of applicants based on its leadership, evidence of results, innovative vision for learning, and commitment to collaboration.

"Ensuring America's competitive edge in the global economy and providing pathways for ALL students to play significant roles in that mission is a common goal Cajon Valley shares with the National Network of Innovative School Districts," said Dr. David Miyashiro, Superintendent of the Cajon Valley Union School District. "We are so grateful and extremely humbled by the invitation to join this important endeavor."

The League of Innovative Schools, launched in late 2011, accepts new members through an open application process once per year. With the new members, the League now includes 73 school districts in 33 states, representing 3.2 million students. The full list of members can be found at digitalpromise.org/districts.

"The League's goal is to find leaders pioneering bold, creative, and student-centric practices, connect them with each other, and amplify what they do best so others can learn," said Sara Schapiro, director of the Digital Promise League of Innovative Schools. "With these new members, we add a wealth of insights, ideas, and energy to help our members effectively support teaching and learning through technology."

League members are represented by their superintendent, who commits to:

- Attend biannual League meetings, which feature classroom visits, collaborative problem-solving, and relationship-building with peers and partners
- Join working groups on a broad range of topics relevant to the changing needs of school districts

- Engage with entrepreneurs to advance product development and meet district needs

- Support research that expands what we know about teaching and learning

- Participate in the League's professional learning community by connecting with other members online, in person, and at each other's school districts

In addition to superintendents' participation, there are also opportunities for other school administrators, principals, and teachers to participate in League and Digital Promise initiatives.

The League will officially welcome new members at its fall 2015 meeting on Oct. 25-27 in Pittsburgh. The meeting will host about 175 national school leaders and prominent education experts, entrepreneurs, and officials, with the goal of addressing shared priorities and setting goals that district leaders will pursue throughout the year.

For more information on the Digital Promise League of Innovative Schools, visit: digitalpromise.org/league.

County of San Diego Supervisors salute therapy dog Cabo

The Board of Supervisors for San Diego County recognized seven year old Cabo a certified therapy dog and his handler Pat Salsarulo with the "Volunteer of the Year" award for 2015.

Cabo is a Carmel colored Labrador who has been born, breed and trained in the Guide Dog for the Blind Program a non-profit organization founded in 1942. Handler Pat Salsarulo has trained eight dogs for the organization, Cabo being one of them.

Cabo is currently one of eight court dogs, he has volunteered with the San Diego Districts since 2013. Lakeside residents Cabo and Salsarulo travel to four court houses El Cajon, Downtown, South Bay and Vista. More court dogs are needed. The court dogs and handlers are unpaid employees of the District Attorney's office. The handlers are under strict confidentiality rule. There are 83 court dogs throughout the United States. Cabo has worked 146 hours for the court in a volunteer position. Cabo and Pat are dedicated to helping young victims or witnesses of crime be more comfortable with testifying.

Cabo has spent hours sitting calmly with children who have been a victim or witnesses to abuse. He lets the children lean on him, talk to and whisper to him. Salsarulo tells the children, Cabo will never tell anyone what they tell him. Salsarulo, with money from her own pocket buys buttons with a picture of Cabo and the words Cabo's Fan Club - Proud of You! These buttons are given to the children at the end of their testimony.

"I could go on and on about this amazing dog, but I have to say he has helped so many people in so many ways. He's one incredible dog and I feel so fortunate to be part of his life and so loved by him," said Salsarulo.

Cabo

Cabo is a career change dog. Career dogs make a difference in the world, they help children testify in difficult cases, are trained to be medical alert dogs for diabetics and partner with veterans experiencing PTSD.

Besides being a court dog Cabo has worked in women's shelters, VA Hospitals and elementary reading programs.

Cabo has the soulful eyes of a dog who has heard it all.

Baltimore beats banged up Bolts

by Chuck Karazsia

Dropping their fourth in a row 29-26 in Baltimore Sunday. It was a 39-yard walk off field goal in regulation by Ravens kicker Justin Tucker that broke a 26-26 deadlock. The plummeting Bolts fell to (2-6) and last place in the AFC West at the halfway point of the season.

It also got worse on the injury front as twelve Chargers left the field in the game Sunday. Four returned to see some action, eight did not. Injured in the game was LT King Dunlap, DE Corey Liuget, T/G Chris Hairston, G/C Chris Watt, TE Ladarius Green, WR Stevie Johnson and Keenan Allen, CB Jason Verrett and Patrick Robinson, Safeties Jaheel Addae and Darrell Stuckey, and RB Branden Oliver. (Keenan Allen suffered a reported kidney injury).

This in addition to FS Erick Weddle, ILB Manti Te'o, OLB Tourek Williams, G. Orlando Franklin, and ILB Denzel Perryman who were listed out and doubtful before game time. Considering all the injuries the Bolts still made a game of it.

"They played extremely hard. We had 12 guys go out at some time in the game. They fought their tails off until the bitter end. There's no quitting on this football team at all," declared Bolts head coach Mike McCoy.

Passing for 301-yards completing (28-of-37), Bolts quarterback Philip Rivers remains a constant at the helm of the Chargers offense.

Throwing three touchdown passes, two to Malcolm Floyd (9 and 70-yards), the other to Keenan Allen (13-yards), the veteran QB

FOR HEALTH'S SAKE

The right morning routine can keep you energized all day

Don't give your morning routine short shrift; it may be more important than you think.

If your routine seems well... routine, it may be time to put some zest in the everyday steps you take to look and feel your best. Here, four lifestyle bloggers offer tips for doing just that.

Get fresh

Discover what it is that you need to walk out your door alert and with confidence. For some, it's a jolt of caffeine, for others it's smelling great after a morning shower.

Laughter is the Best Medicine

Evolution

One day the kids in Ms. Evans science class was disagreeing with her. Ms. Evans was talking about evolution. Ms. Evans was an atheist so she didn't believe in God.

Then Johnny raised his hand and said, "But I thought God created mankind?"

Ms. Evans then replied, "Well can you see God?"

"No."

"Hear God?"

"No."

"Feel God?"

"No." This went on for quite a while.

"Well then God doesn't exist."

Then Johnny whispered back to his friend Jimmy, "Can you see Ms. Evan's brain. No, so that must not exist."

"What do I love more than knowing I smell good? Being told I smell good," says Jenny Ingram, the family and lifestyle blogger behind Jenny on the Spot. "Starting out the day clean is like starting out with a fresh canvas."

She recommends layering scents for your own signature fragrance, starting with your body wash.

Change it up

Your routine should work for you, but that doesn't mean it can't change from day to day, based on your mood or the aspect of your personality that feels most empowered that day.

"A women's beauty routine is as unique as she is," says Angela Peters of the blog Hair-spray and Highheels, who was recently challenged by Herbal Essences to try out each of the scents in their body wash collection as part of their #Scent-Goals campaign.

After testing out Hello Hydration, Totally Twisted, Body Burst and Happy Go Lather, Peters was decidedly undecided. "They are all currently living in my shower and I use a different fragrance depending on the day."

Give yourself time

Can't resist the snooze button? You may be doing yourself a disservice. Feeling rushed in the morning can set the vibe for the entire day and lower your overall productivity.

"I like to wake up early and take things slow so I can focus on everything I need to get done that day," says Oliva Rink of the Lovely Little Style blog. "I turn on my go-to Spotify playlist, light my favorite candle and take time putting on my makeup, doing my hair and going through emails."

Stay energized

Fragrance can be powerful and the right scent can recharge and refresh your mood.

"Keeping cool cleansers on rotation in my shower will get me through the dead of winter and keep me energized and smelling sensational," says lifestyle and fitness blogger Christine Bibbo Herr of NYC Pretty.

For discounts on products that can help you bring out your personality and style, visit coupons.com/brands/pg-personalcare-coupons.

If you are "not a morning person," it may be time to give your routine a makeover. Take time to uncover the personal habits that make you look good, feel great and smell phenomenal.

INSPIRATION

The many funny faces of the season

Dr. James L. Snyder

I do not often get under the weather; after all, as tall as I am my head is usually in the clouds. At least, the Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage thinks this is the case. And who is to argue with her. But this time I was under the weather.

My head was stuffed and every other breath I took I had a sneezing fit. I felt miserable. I looked miserable. I know this because my wife said, "You look miserable." And, I was miserable.

Being in such a delicate condition, I had completely forgotten what time of the year it was. In fact, I did not even know what time of the day it was. I vaguely remember my wife saying something to the effect that she was going somewhere and to be ready for something or other. In my condition, I could not have cared less.

I was dressed in my old raggedy bathrobe, a sort of comfort piece of clothing when I am not feeling well. I have had it for 19 years and it looks like it. When I am sick is the one piece of clothing that I can wrap around myself and feel some semblance of comfort.

Taking refuge in my easy chair, I pampered myself with a nice hot cup of tea with honey. I had a slight fever and my head was thumping like a marching band at a football game. Trying to ease my pain, I wrap my head in a wet towel. My eyes were bulging and watery as if I had just swallowed a hot spicy Mexican taco in one gulp. To monitor my temperature I sucked a thermometer. I must have looked a sight, but I was not anticipating being a contestant at a beauty pageant.

The only thing I was anticipating was a quiet evening where I could recuperate from whatever deadly disease I had contracted. At least, I wanted the last few hours of my life to be in some semblance of peace because I knew I would not last the evening.

Just as I was about to embrace my old friend, I was aroused by a terrible explosion. It seemed like the noise rocked the very foundation of the house. The noise shook me completely to a point of semi-consciousness.

Just as I opened my bleary eyes, there was another explosion, this time louder than before.

Should I or should I not go to the door to see what all the clamor was about? I was in no condition to make any rational decision so I went to the front door to check on the noise.

It took several moments for me to extract myself from my chair and stand up. Once up, every step I took reverberated in my head like the tom-toms of a thousand war drums

I painfully shuffled to the front door. I slowly opened the door and through bleary, watery eyes, I could make out the shadowy forms of six miniature aliens. As soon as the door was wide open all six of them shrieked, dropped their bags and ran up the street screaming at the top of their lungs, "a monster, a monster."

It so frightened me that I did a little shouting myself. I slammed the door and ran as fast as I could to my easy chair. As soon as my breathing became somewhat normal, I convinced myself that I had a bad nightmare.

Later on, I heard some mumbling rumbling sound. It has a familiar ring to it but I really could not place it at the time. I slowly opened my eyes and there was my wife looking at me and saying, "You remembered that tonight was trick-or-treat night for the children?"

Not wanting to start up the tom-toms in my head again, I whispered very delicately, "Huh." Then I fell back into my chair into a deep sleep dreaming of six aliens dancing and taunting me in my head.

The next morning I felt somewhat better and around the breakfast table my wife casually mentioned, "Did we have any trick-or-treaters last night?"

I stop to think for a moment and then said, "I don't think anybody came to our door last night."

"Then," she asked, "where did these six bags of candy come from I found at our front door when I come home last night?"

Things are not always as they seem. When the whole picture is not in view it is easy to jump to the wrong conclusion. The Bible says, "For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known." (1 Corinthians 13:12 KJV).

Things look blurry now but one day we have the assurance that we will see things clearly and know things perfectly.

Dear Dr. Luauna — The wrinkled little hand

Dear Readers,

My grandfather told me something years ago when I was only about 7 years old. We were sitting together on his small front porch, grandpa in his comfortable chair, and me in mine. About 10 feet away a pair of beautiful doves flew down, they perched on the fence as we were watching and listening, they seemed to carry on a conversation with one another. My grandfather smiled as he shared, "Luauna, doves mate forever." We sat and watched those two little doves for about 10 minutes before they flew off together. Then my grandpa looked over and said something powerful, "You always want to marry someone you like, because true love grows with time."

My grandmother walked out the front door right after my grandfather's statement, her hands full; a cup of coffee for my grandpa, hot chocolate for me, and small bowls of her famous homemade peach cobbler. She sat down in her comfortable chair, side by side with my grandpa. We all enjoyed the sunset, and grandma's yummy cobbler. My grandpa smiled and said as he reached over and gently touched my grandmother's little, old wrinkled frail hand. "I really liked your grandma, and I like her even more today"

They were married over 65 years; they were great friends and worked so well together. They built a little 1,200 square foot house together on a small piece of land. Nothing fancy, they planted a garden every year together. My grandfather was a humble man and worked hard all his life, never idle. Every year my grandmother canned goods and put food away for winter. While grandpa worked hard getting the fields ready even during the cold Colorado winters, he tended cattle and prepared the land to plant corn, watermelon, tomatoes, and other veggies.

They were faithful to one another, worked hard and loved life. Every Sunday afternoon they walked to town for ice cream, it was only about a mile away in this little country town. I have their memory etched deep within my mind. As they were getting closer to 80-years-old, my grandpa had his back a little bowed over from all his hard work, and my grandmother somehow looked a little shorter. Her little round body, no she wasn't fat she was healthy, just a little plump.

My grandpa, on Sunday afternoons put on his new button up blue jeans, his dress boots, and his clean pressed blue jean shirt. He splashed on his Old Spice after shave, grabbed his dress cowboy hat hanging next to his work hat and entered into the kitchen to get my grandmother. My grandma still had that sparkle in her eyes when she saw my grandpa. Smelling good, he would open the front door, take her hand and ask, "Are you ready?" His green hazel eyes filled with a deep special love for my grandma, built first on the foundation of like.

When my grandmother died at the hospital I was beside her bed, my grandfather had gone home after being by her side for three days. He went to get cleaned up. "I'll be right back!" he said. While he was gone, my grandmother passed. I jumped in my car weeping, tears flowing down my face like a water hose. I wanted to be the first one to tell my grandpa. As I walked into the house it was dark, only a small light was on. I walked into my grandmother's room my grandfather was sitting on the edge of her bed. I snuggled up beside him. We were both silent for a moment. I looked up at my grandpa and said, "Grandpa!" He gently put his arm around me and said; "I know she's gone." We both just sat tears running down our faces. True love grew, and part of my grandfather died when my grandmother passed. The two had become one. "Make sure you really like them before you even think of marrying them." I Corinthians 13:13. I love you.

Goodwill Industries of San Diego discovers $1,500 in pocket of donated coat Goodwill Industries of San Diego County (GISD) staff member discovers $1,500 in pocket of donated coat this week. It is our organization's procedure to check all donated items and to sort them by category before they are placed in a retail store.

"We are so proud of our ambassadors for repeatedly making good happen by making good choices," said Mike Rowan, CEO. "This week when our staff member discovered $1,500 in the pocket of a donated coat, she quickly turned the money over to the staff supervisor."

The funds were put into a secure place in the hope that its owner would call. The coat was found in one of 15 boxes dropped off at our Broadway Donation Center in Downtown San Diego. The merchandise was then taken and sorted at our Hillcrest retail store. That is where the money was discovered.

Matt Cannon donated 15 boxes of soft goods to the Downtown San Diego donation center. Nearly one week later, he and his wife realized that an envelope of money was missing and quickly remembered where it had been left. It had been left in the pocket of a coat he had donated to Goodwill. All of the Goodwill's were closed for the day. It was a sleepless night for him and his wife! He went to the Hillcrest Goodwill retail store, the location closest to him, when it opened. He found a coat that he donated hung among other jackets. He asked a store clerk if any money had been turned in. She called for a manager. The supervisor appeared, asked him a few questions and then returned the envelope to him. Mr. Cannon thanked all of the staff and offered the clerk that found the money a reward. She declined. The store staff were so happy that they were able to return Matt's money to him.

"It has been a hectic time moving our home. We packed up our donations for Goodwill and accidentally left an envelope of money in a coat pocket," said Matt Cannon, San Diego resident. "We were so thankful that we were able to get our money back. Thank you Goodwill."

Goodwill Industries of San Diego County is a local non-profit that is changing lives by getting people jobs. Goodwill's employment center staff works with community members on their resumes, job applications and interviewing skills. We also partner with many local companies to conduct job fairs and get people to work.

GISD retail locations are known for providing gently used merchandise. This includes clothing, shoes, home décor, housewares, and furniture. Electronics and sporting goods are available at select locations.

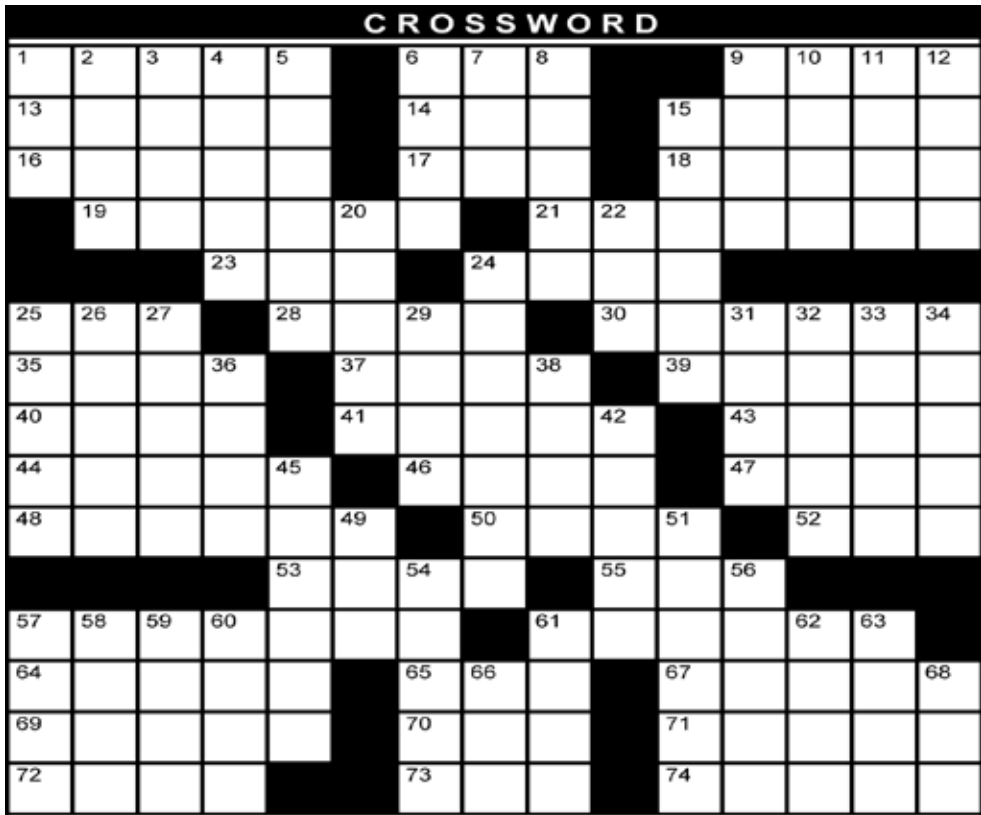

GISD was created in 1930 to get people with disabilities and other barriers to employment jobs by developing their skills and work habits through training and real work. In 2014, GISD helped to find employment for more than 3,800 people in the San Diego community. In fact, we helped 79 people per week or 16 people per day find a job.

GISD uses the revenue generated from the sale of donated goods at its retail thrift stores and after-market facilities to support the operation of paid job training programs and employment services. GISD is a multi-faceted organization that includes job training and job placement assistance for people with disabilities, veterans, underserved youth, and people with other barriers to employment.

...learning about the Cherokee Nation

Kids: color stuff in!

Cherokee Nation (Eastern Band)

Did you know that archaeologists think the first people to live in North America were the Paleo-Indians? At the end of the last Ice Age (around 12,000 years ago) these people moved from Asia into North America on a land bridge that existed then. It is believed that they lived in small family groups and moved constantly to hunt animals like the mastodon (an elephant-like animal that is now extinct) and to gather foods like berries and nuts. Arrowheads for spears and other tools mark places where they lived.

In the Archaic period (8,000 to 1,000 BCE), families had homes with wooden poles covered with hides, which could be moved. In the spring they would move to the river valleys to fish and collect shellfish. In the fall they would move to the forest to hunt deer or turkey and gather nuts and berries. Archaeologists have studied tools, soapstone bowls, burial grounds and pottery to understand these people's ways.

In a more recent period, Woodland Indians, people are thought to have had villages as well as seasonal camps. Corn, a key part of the Indian diet, was introduced. The first evidence for the bow and arrow were found. It is believed that people were trading: salt, beads, shells, fish, pottery and animal skins.

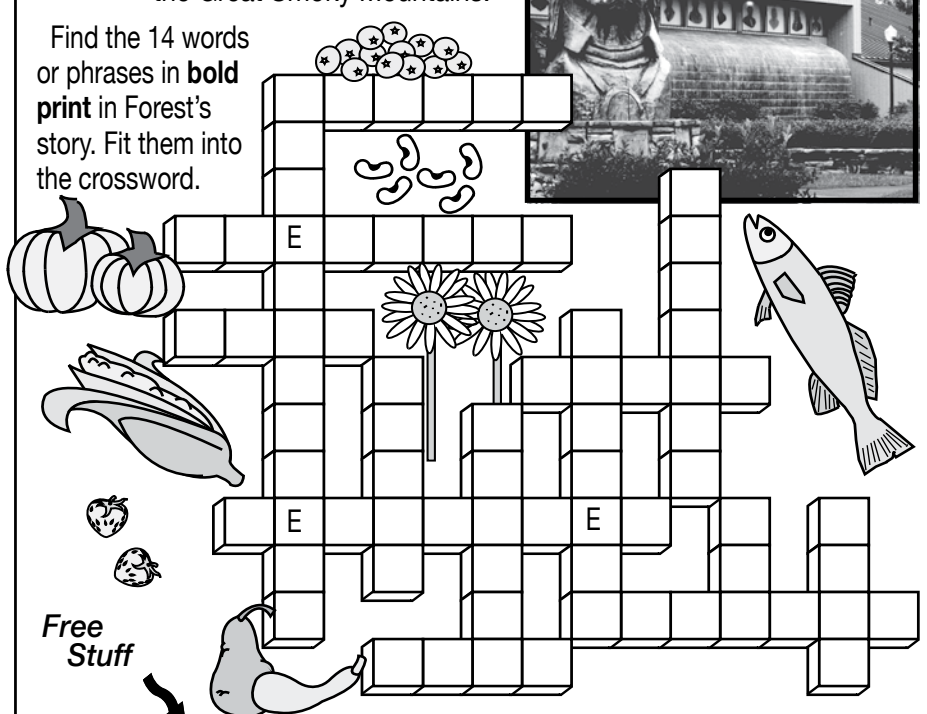

During the next period, Mississippian Indians, settlements became more permanent. Squash, corn and beans, known as the Three Sisters, were important and foods from hunting and gathering were now added to the foods harvested from gardens. Beautiful jewelry and pottery were created too.

After 1650, when Europeans arrived, there were years of both peace and fighting. In 1836, the U.S. Senate accepted a treaty signed by a small group of Cherokee to sell their land and the Cherokee were forced to leave the east to be resettled in Oklahoma. They were expected to walk 1,000 miles to get there! On this hard walk, now called the "Trail of Tears," an estimated 4,000-8,000 people died. Some Cherokee refused to move and hid in the mountains. Many of their descendants now live on Qualla Boundary, a preserve.

About 13,000 Cherokee Indians live in North Carolina, mostly on tribal land. The town of Cherokee is in the Great Smoky Mountains.

Sequoyah Invents a Cherokee Alphabet

Sequoyah was a young Cherokee who learned how to work with silver. He wanted to sign his work like the European silversmiths did, so he visited Chief Charles Hicks, who could write in English. After Sequoyah learned to write his name using the alphabet, he began to think about creating a writing system for the Cherokee language. With it, they would be able to read and write letters, write down stories and record their history. He created a system where each sound was represented by a symbol, so each letter was a syllable of a word. His system was easy to use and many Cherokee learned to read and write using it.

Sequoyah liked papers and books since they could be used to exchange ideas.

Facebook post turns into best 'treat' for East County man

A simple plea on Facebook my Monica Zech went viral last week, as hundreds of people answered her request.

Zech's post was about her friend's father, Andy Furlong a 90-year-old WWII veteran, who is suffering end stage Parkinson's disease. He is currently under hospice care and this is most likely to be his last Halloween.

Furlong moved in with his daughter 10 years ago. Every year he requested that his daughter buy bags of candy for trick or treaters. Unfortunately for him, they lived on a narrow street that had little traffic and no trick or treaters. But his grandchildren would visit, get candy, leave and then turn around and make another visit or two to make him happy.

The request for for anyone taking their kids out on Halloween between 4 and 5 p.m. to please stop by their home in La Mesa. They would have him outside to greet the children.

Facebook friends showed up at the home by the hundreds, lining the street with children and adults in costumes and all the way down to the end of the street. Military families even came down from 29 Palms.

Many families showed up to give the family more candy, due to the large turnout!

Local icon catches car thief

Jack Leary

East County resident, retired police officer, and local car show and DJ icon, Jack Leary, took down a car thief in El Cajon after a street pursuit through backyards and alleyways.

The would-be car thief was stopped by a group of BMW of El Cajon employees around noon after the man tried to steal a car right off the lot on El Cajon Boulevard.

Leary was also circling the neighborhood in his car looking for the man when he practically ran into him at an intersection on Lemon Avenue.

"I stopped and he said, 'Can I get in your car?' and I said, 'Yeah, get in the car,'" said Leary. "He said, 'Get me out of here,' and I said, 'No, you're under arrest!'"

Leary held him until the cops arrived about five minutes later. He refused to get out of the car, so the police used a dog to force him out.

"They put the dog on him he got outta the car then!" Leary said.

From there, the excitement was all over in about 20 minutes. An ambulance came to take the suspect away. Witnesses said he was clearly under the influence of something. He suffered minor injuries from the dog but was expected to go to jail after being treated.

Bolts RB Melvin Gordon gained 54-yards on the ground on 18 carries a 3.0 average. Branden Oliver a 4.5 average on four carries. Woodhead gained 9-yards on three attempts.

A bright spot on defense was OLB Melvin Ingram credited with 1.5 sacks.

Keenan Allen and Branden Oliver will not be returning this season due to their injuries.

The Chargers have an extra day to regroup as they prepare to face the Chicago Bears on Monday Night Football at Qualcomm Stadium. Kickoff is at 5:30 p.m.

'Suffragette' timely fight for women's rights

Review by Diana Saenger

Sarah Gavron's Suffragette reminds us of an important time in history when the women in Britain began a 1912 civil rights movement in London to earn the power to vote. The film, written by Abi Morgan is also unveiled at a prominent time in the United States when women are standing up for equal recognitions and pay as their male counterparts.

Gavron picked an excellent cast for this film. Carey Mulligan plays the lead of Maud Watts. Maud has followed the footsteps of her mother working in a laundry where the women are not only treated harshly and made to work harder than any man would in the same situation, she and others are also exposed to sexual harassment from their bosses.

Maud not only works herself to a frazzle at the factory, but she also has to maintain a home, care for her husband Sonny (Ben Whishaw) and their young son George (Adam Michael Dodd). The more Maud accepts her status, the more she daydreams. Walking past shop windows filled with pretty clothes or manikins featured in fun and exciting places makes her sad.

At one point Maud is walking down the street when a girl throws rocks at the store windows and Maud ends up running along with the girl so she isn't blamed for the crime. A little at a time Maud is drawn into a group known as the Women's Social and Political Union (WSPU). Maud is brought in by other women who have joined founder Emmeline Pankhurst (played in only a few scenes by Meryl Streep.)

Maud begins to attend secret meetings in the offices of pharmacist Edith Ellyn (Helena Bonham Carter), and also to stand up against her boss or men like Inspector Steed (Brendan Gleeson) who wants to bring down the WSPU.

It's rough to see the torture these women went through for their fight to vote, and the actresses create such compelling characters it's humbling. This is especially poignant when Emily Wilding Davison (Natalie Press) endures a pivotal moment at the Epsom Derby on June 4, 1913.

While the actors were all superb in this film, it felt like something was missing. The drama didn't seem to be hyped enough, and we don't know enough about the women attending the meetings to really care about them. Even when Maud is steadfast in her participation with illegal and dangerous stunts, and letting her co-worker, Violet Miller (Anne-Marie Duff) talk her into dangerous speeches, Maud rarely stops to think how this will affect her son if she goes to jail.

The cinematography could have been better as most scenes have a gray dusty look. I think the 2004 TV movie Ironed Jawed Angles starring Hilary Swank, Margo Martindale, Angelica Huston, Vera Farmiga, and Frances O'Connor, about the 1917 American Women's Suffrage movement far exceeds Suffragette in terms of drama and compassion about the movement and its victims.

Review by Jean Lowerison

Living in your own little world is one thing, but imagine spending seven years locked in a 10-by-10-foot shed with a now five-year-old son, no windows and no way to get out.

Director Lenny Abrahamson (Frank, What Richard Did, Garage) gives us a claustrophobic and inducing but fascinating look into the lives of Ma (Brie Larson) – abducted at 17 by a man she calls “Old Nick” – and their son Jack (Jacob Tremblay).

Old Nick (Sean Bridgers) comes every day to bring sparse supplies and frequently to abuse Ma, who has spent the last five years trying to make a life for the son who has never seen the outside world. She tells stories, they play games and do yoga, Jack “runs track” back and forth between those walls, and Ma does what she can to make Jack's life as loving and normal as possible under the circumstances.

They call their living space “Room” — as if to give it a live presence — and its functionality almost makes up for the lack of space. But their only constant connection with the outside world is the sky via the skylight.

When Ma's attempt to explain the concepts of “outside” and “reality” is met with Jack's thorough incomprehension, she decides to get him out of Room somehow. She comes up with a daring and risky escape scheme more exciting to watch than any cinematic thriller out there. Suppose they succeed. Could they adjust to the outside world?

Emma Donoghue wrote both the source material (a novel based on the true story of an Austrian girl whose father imprisoned and abused her for 24 years) and the screenplay for this riveting meditation on captivity, isolation, connection and the strength of the family bond.

The best thing about Room is its originality, but close behind are the spectacular performances by Larson as Ma and 12-year-old Tremblay as Jack. Special praise also goes to production designer Ethan Tobman, cinematographer Danny Cohen, and director Abrahamson for packaging it so well.

Expect Oscar buzz for this riveting film.

Fabulous Thunderbirds featuring Kim Wilson – Friday, Nov. 6, 8:p.m.

For more than 30 years, The Fabulous Thunderbirds have been the quintessential American band. The group's distinctive and powerful sound, influenced by a diversity of musical styles, manifested itself into a unique musical hybrid via such barnburners as "Tuff Enuff" and "Wrap It Up." Co-founder Kim Wilson, the sole original member, spearheaded the group as it evolved into its unique incarnation. They started as a straight blues band with vocalist and harmonica player Wilson. In addition to Wilson, the current Thunderbirds line-up features Jay Moeller on drums, Johnny Moeller and Mike Keller on guitar, and Randy Bermudes on bass. The thread throughout the T-Birds career has been the respect the group commanded for its peerless musicianship and devotion to the sounds of blues, R & B and rock 'n roll. In fact, Muddy Waters called Wilson his favorite harmonica player and vocalist. "The thing about the T-Birds is that we can play both blues festival and rock venues," Wilson comments. "We're a diversified band now and everybody's on the same page." Tickets: $35 / $45

(Some sources report Fuqua sang lead vocal on this track, but both Smith and Fuqua have stated at various times that it was Smith.) The group's follow-up, "Love (I'm So Glad) I Found You," featured lead vocals by Smith, although again some sources credit Fuqua. This track reached number 91 that November. In 1964, the Spinners made their debut at the Apollo Theater and won instant acclaim. The Spinners signed to Atlantic in 1972 and charted five top 100 singles (and two top 10s) from their first post-Motown album, Spinners. After their chart career ended, the Spinners continued touring for decades. They are big draws on the oldies and nostalgia concert circuits, playing the music that made them famous.

ROA #: 1
(IMAGED FILE)

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of: EVELYN MAE S. TAYLOR A Petition for Probate has been filed by JACULIN K. TAYLOR in the Superior Court of California, County of SAN DIEGO. The Petition for Probate requests that JACULIN K. TAYLOR be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent. The Petition requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court. The Petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. A hearing on the petition will be held in this court on 12-8-15 at 11:00 am in Dept. PC-1 located at 1409 4th Avenue, San Diego, CA 92101-3105 Central Division/Madge Bradley Building. If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law. You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk. Attorney for Petitioner: Diana C. FY 2016-2017 COMMUNITY
DEVELOPMENT BLOCK GRANT PROGRAM

Under Title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, as amended, cities such as El Cajon are eligible to receive federal Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funds to implement community improvement projects and/or programs not otherwise possible under the constraints of the regular City budget. In order to receive the funding for FY 2016-2017 (July 1, 2016 – June 30, 2017), the City must submit a One-Year Action Plan including proposed projects to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) by May 14, 2016. The City of El Cajon invites public comments from residents, non-profit organizations and others serving the El Cajon community in the development of the One-Year Action Plan and the projects to be funded. The City welcomes and encourages citizen participation in the establishment and implementation of our 42nd year of the CDBG Program.

The City of El Cajon estimates it will receive approximately $1,100,000 in CDBG funds for FY 2016-2017. Of this amount, a maximum of 15% of the total may be made available for Public Service programs and projects, a maximum of 20% may be made available for Administration activities and mandated Fair Housing Services, and remaining amounts (after required debt service payments and amounts required for continuing housing programs) may be made available for Public Facility/Capital Improvement-type projects. All CDBG projects and programs must be activities that will improve the living conditions/environment for low and moderate income individuals and families in El Cajon.

Applications for CDBG funding for proposed projects and/or programs in the City of El Cajon will be available beginning Monday, November 9, 2015. Non-profit organizations, City departments, neighborhood organizations, schools and faith-based organizations may apply for this funding for proposed projects.

There are two separate CDBG applications available:

- 1) Public Facilities/Capital Improvement projects (approx. $550,000 available); or
- 2) Public Services projects and programs (approx. $165,000 available).

Detailed requirements, procedures and guidelines for submitting a completed Application are set forth in the FY 2016-2017 CDBG Program Guidelines. Electronic versions of the Application(s) and Program Guidelines can be downloaded from the City of El Cajon's website at <http://www.cityofelcajon.us/your-government/departments/community-development/housing-division>. Electronic versions of the Application(s) and Guidelines may also be obtained via e-mail or by U.S. Mail by calling (619-441-1786) or by e-mailing a request to jkasviki@cityofelcajon.us. Please specify which Application you wish to receive (Public Services or Public Facilities).

Completed applications must be submitted no later than 5:00 p.m. on Thursday, December 17, 2015 in order to be considered for FY 2016-2017 CDBG funding.

The City Council will hold a public hearing on the proposed CDBG projects tentatively scheduled for Tuesday, February 23, 2016 to allocate FY 2016-2017 CDBG funds. A second public hearing is tentatively scheduled for Tuesday, April 26, 2016. Final adoption of One Year Action Plan and funding allocations is expected to occur at the second public hearing. Both hearings will be held in the Council Chambers located at 200 Civic Center Way in El Cajon.

TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF
RONALD WILLIAM SMITH
CASE NO. 37-2015-00035744-PR-PW-CTL
ROA #: 1
(IMAGED FILE)

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of: RONALD WILLIAM SMITH A Petition for Probate has been filed by WILLIAM HYLAND in the Superior Court of California, County of SAN DIEGO. The Petition for Probate requests that LARRY D. MCGILL, ESQ. be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent. The Petition requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court. The Petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. A hearing on the petition will be held in this court on December 8, 2015 at 11:00 a.m. in Dept. PC-1 located at 1409 4th Avenue, San Diego, CA 92101-3105 Central Division/Madge Bradley Building. If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law. You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk. Attorney for Petitioner: Merianne E. There will be no proration of taxes, rents or other income or liabilities, except that the purchaser will pay, at or before closing, his pro rata share of any real estate taxes that have been paid by the Secretary to the date of the foreclosure sale. When making their bids, all bidders except the Secretary must submit a deposit totaling $34,725.82 [10% of the Secretary's bid] in the form of a certified check or cashier's check made out to the Secretary of HUD. A deposit need not accompany each oral bid. If the successful bid is oral, a deposit of $34,725.82 must be presented before the bidding is closed. The deposit is nonrefundable. The remainder of the purchase price must be delivered within 30 days of the sale or at such other time as the Secretary may determine for good cause shown, time being of the essence. This amount, like the bid deposits, must be delivered in the form of a certified or cashier's check. If the Secretary is the highest bidder, he need not pay the bid amount in cash. The successful bidder will pay all conveying fees, all real estate and other taxes that are due on or after the delivery date of the remainder of the payment and all other costs associated with the transfer of title. At the conclusion of the sale, the deposits of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned to them. The Secretary may grant an extension of time within which to deliver the remainder of the payment. All extensions will be for a 15-day increments for a fee of $500.00, paid in advance. The extension fee will be in the form of a certified or cashier's check made payable to the Secretary of HUD. If the high bidder closes the sale prior to the expiration of any extension period, the unused portion of the extension fee shall be applied toward the amount due. If the high bidder is unable to close the sale within the required period, or within any extensions of time granted by the Secretary, the high bidder may be required to forfeit the cash deposit or, at the election of the foreclosure commissioner after consultation with the HUD representative, will be liable to HUD for any costs incurred as a result of such failure. The commissioner may, at the direction of the HUD representative, offer the property to the second highest bidder for an amount equal to the highest price offered by that bidder. There is no right of redemption, or right of possession based upon a right of redemption, in the mortgagor or others subsequent to a foreclosure completed pursuant to the Act. Therefore, the Foreclosure Commissioner will issue a Deed to the purchaser(s) upon receipt of the entire purchase price in accordance with the terms of the sale as provided herein. HUD does not guarantee that the property will be vacant. The scheduled foreclosure sale shall be cancelled or adjourned if it is established, by documented written application of the mortgagor to the Foreclosure Commissioner not less than 3 days before the date of sale, or otherwise, that the default or defaults upon which the foreclosure is based did not exist at the time of service of this notice of default and foreclosure sale, or all amounts due under the mortgage agreement are tendered to the Foreclosure Commissioner, in the form of a certified or cashier's check payable to the Secretary of HUD, before public auction of the property is completed. The amount that must be paid if the mortgage is to be reinstated prior to the scheduled sale is $346,987.05 as of 11/11/2015, plus all other amounts that would be due under the mortgage agreement if payments under the mortgage had not been accelerated, advertising costs and postage expenses incurred in giving notice, mileage by the most reasonable road distance for posting notices and for the Foreclosure Commissioner's attendance at the sale, reasonable and customary costs incurred for title and lien record searches, the necessary out-of-pocket costs incurred by the Foreclosure Commissioner for recording documents, a commission for the Foreclosure Commissioner, and all other costs incurred in connection with the foreclosure prior to reinstatement. Tender of payment by certified or cashier's check or application for cancellation of the foreclosure sale shall be submitted to the address of the Foreclosure Commissioner provided below. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about Trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 1-800-540-1717, using the TS number assigned to this case on SHOWN ABOVE. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. Said sale will be made, but without covenant or warranty, express or implied regarding title, possession or encumbrances, to satisfy the indebtedness secured by said Notice, advances thereunder, with interest as provided therein, and the unpaid assessments secured by said Notice with interest thereon as provided in said Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions, fees, charges and expenses of the trustee and the trusts created by said Notice of Assessment and Claim of Lien. Pet of the Week — Sadee

"My name is SADEE, and I'm an affectionate and lovely sweetheart who's looking for somebody who'll appreciate my spirited and faithful nature. I was brought to the El Cajon Animal Shelter because my owners didn't have time for me after their baby was born. I'm just one year old, so I need daily exercise, like a long walk, and a good-sized yard. I'll want to spend time with you, so I don't want to be relegated to the back yard. I want to be a valued part of your life, and you'll be better off for the love that I give back to you. I get along well with other dogs, and I'd need to be in an adult home that tends to be fairly calm and consistent. Please come visit me so we can spend time in the yard here at the shelter. I'd love for you to fall in love with me and take me home so we can become the best of friends. Love, Sadee" Kennel #3
