'Shop East County' program supports local businesses

Economist are predicting increased consumer spending this holiday season, and a new "Shop East County" program aims to keep that spending local to support area businesses, jobs and the economy.

On Thursday, Nov. 19 the San Diego East County Chamber of Commerce, along with local business, political and civic leaders, will gather at Parkway Plaza for the launch of the inaugural "Shop East County" regional program.

"Holiday spending was flat nationwide last year," said East County Chamber of Commerce General Manager Eric Lund. "Experts are predicting increased spending this year, so we thought it was important to launch this program to support our local businesses and educate consumers that they can meet virtually every holiday shopping need locally – specifically at local businesses east of I-15. It's all right here."

The National Retail Federation predicts average holiday spending per person is expected to reach $805, on gifts, decorations and food. Nationwide, shoppers will spend an estimated $630 billion over a two month period starting with Black Friday, the day after Thanksgiving.

The launch of the Shop East County program will take place at 10 a.m. on Thursday, Nov. 19. The event will include a ribbon cutting at the new Shop East County kiosk at the east end of the Parkway Plaza. The kiosk will be staffed throughout the holiday shopping season and will feature information on local businesses and a variety of discounts and promotions from area retailers, restaurants and service providers.

Faster speed equals more productivity

TopTechPC-Tip#1

Thinking about buying a new PC or laptop because your current system is slow or outdated? Breathe new life into your PC or laptop by replacing your slow, tired hard drive with a Solid State Drive (SSD)!

There are many benefits of converting to a solid state drive compared to a standard hard drive:

- Performance increases of up to 20x faster than a standard 7,200 rpm hard drive can be seen and you will see instant results in increased productivity.
- Up to a 80 percent decrease in boot up and shut-down times as well as instant responsiveness in application load times will leave you wondering why you haven't upgraded sooner.

Solid state drives have no moving parts like standard hard drives and instead use nonvolatile flash memory or "NAND" (Much like USB storage). This makes solid state drives silent, since there are no moving parts, shock resistant, generate less heat and power consumption. This alone will give you up to an additional 30 minutes of battery life for your laptop! To top it off, solid state drives last roughly two-times longer than any standard hard drive.

With prices for solid state drives lower than they have ever been, now is a great time to upgrade.

For desktop environments, a solid state drive is best used as the operating system drive with a larger, cheaper standard hard drive solution as a secondary for data.

Mother Goose Parade is this coming Saturday at 10 a.m.!

Don't miss the Annual Mother Goose Parade this Saturday in Downtown El Cajon on a NEW day and NEW start time! The 69th Mother Goose Parade will now be held on the Saturday before Thanksgiving!

Dubbed the children's parade, it will be on Saturday, Nov. 21, beginning at 10 a.m. The theme of this year's parade is "Super Heroes." The Grand Marshals will be four representatives from the Warrior Foundation - all wearing super hero costumes! There will be over 100 colorful and exciting parade entries, which include floats, marching bands, clowns, eloquent equestrians, local dignitaries and Santa Claus! Additional special guests include approximately twenty child stars from national television shows and movies.

The parade route begins on East Main Street at Ballantyne Street and heads westbound toward Johnson Avenue. The parade will turn right onto Johnson Avenue and travel northbound, ending at the I-8 overpass, south of Parkway Plaza mall. At the end of the parade you're invited to enjoy Mother Goose Village, located in the northeast corner of the Parkway Plaza mall parking lot near Macy's. Enjoy amusement rides and vendors. For more information, please go to www.mgpelcajon.com. Considered one of the largest parades in Southern California, it's a wonderful way to officially kick off the holiday season!

New event! Holiday Lights on Main – November 28

Kicking off the holidays, it's the inaugural Holiday Lights on Main, with an array of holiday lights that will decorate the Downtown El Cajon area for this exciting family-friendly event from 12 noon to 7 p.m. Also known as Small Business Saturday, the celebration includes an outdoor ice skating rink at the Prescott Promenade, Santa's Village, train rides, live music, vendors, food, and a tree lighting ceremony at the northwest corner of Main Street and Magnolia Avenue. For more information, please call The Downtown El Cajon Business Partners at (619) 334-3000.

The play "On The Verge" by Eric Overmyer, directed by Beth Duggan, is a comedy. The play can be seen November 19, 20, 21 at 7:30 p.m., and November 21 at 2 p.m. It takes place at the close of the 19th century, as three Victorian lady travelers embark on an optimistic and absurd adventure of exploration into unknown territories. Alone, without men to accompany them, and armed with their wits, long skirts, pith helmets, and parasols, Mary, Fanny, and Alex soon discover that the topography they are surveying is not only geographic but chronologic — they are travelling through time as well as space. The play will be held at Grossmont College, Theatre Arts Department, 8800 Grossmont College Drive in El Cajon. For more information, please call (619) 644-7267.

Donate a new stuffed animal for Rady Children's Hospital

Donations of stuffed animals are now being accepted by area police departments! The San Diego Regional Law Enforcement Teddy Bear Drive is a unique and compassionate program, which was established by Coronado Police Department's Officer Brian Hardy. Twenty-five years ago, Officer Brian Hardy delivered a handful of teddy bears to now Rady Children's Hospital. The Teddy Bear Drive has grown into an annual event involving local, state, and federal law enforcement agencies, Sycuan and other sponsors. Each year, law enforcement agencies around San Diego County seek donations of teddy bears and other stuffed animals through community events. At the end of the year, all the teddy bears and stuffed animals are delivered to Rady Children's Hospital by these local law enforcement agencies, where officers will distribute the stuffed animals to the children throughout the hospital.

Now, until Dec. 4, 2015, there will be a donation box in the Police Department lobby for donations. So, when you are out and about shopping for family & friends please grab and extra small, medium or large (New) teddy bear or stuffed animal and donate it to the Law Enforcement Teddy Bear Drive. In my new diet, all I lost was interest

I lost quite a few things in life, but weight has not been one of them.

I see these commercials on TV where people lost tons of weight and invite me to join their program. Investigating some of the programs I discovered all you really lose is money every month. If there is one thing I do not want to lose it is money.

I never took losing weight very serious. I figure one man's pound is another man's jiggle and we sure do not have enough jiggle in this world.

I have bigger problems than losing weight, which I would readily acknowledge is a big problem, but I have been focused on a bunch of other matters. If I kick the can down the road far enough, I never have to deal with it. Right?

What if when we get to heaven, I like to think of this often, everybody is fat? One of my favorite verses in the Bible is, "...all the fat is the Lord's"

(Leviticus 3:16). I realize this may be a little bit out of context, but some of us have to get our consolation wherever we can find it.

Then it happened. You know how something happens that you did not plan to happen, but it just happens?

It was after a wonderful supper and I had overindulged as usual, and happen to say out loud, "I sure am stuffed."

I did not make this remark to start a conversation or to mean anything other than I was stuffed at that time. However, the Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage saw it just a little bit differently.

I think this is why men are so reluctant to talk to their wives because everything they say can be taken out of context and usually is. I was just referring to the fact that at that moment I was feeling stuffed. Actually, I meant it as a compliment to her fine cuisine. After all, a compliment is a compliment and should be received as such.

"I think," she said, staring at me with one of her stares, "that you really are stuffed. Furthermore, I think we ought to do something about it."

I hate it when my wife says "furthermore" because I do not know exactly what she's talking about. All I know is what is coming next is going to get me into trouble. Trouble is not my middle name but it certainly is my identification number. Then, this is how women think, when she said, "we ought to do something about it" the emphasis was on the "we." Whenever a wife says "we," she is really referring to her husband.

That started quite a conversation about dieting. I say conversation, but actually, it was a very animated monologue of which I was the only audience at the time.

Don't you love it when people know how to fix your problem? A recent study shows that wives outlive husbands. And of course, the reason is simply that many husbands cannot change the monologue into a dialogue. "Mono," means one and "dia" means two. But I digress.

My good wife went on talking about a wonderful diet she has had in mind for a long time. In thinking about that, I concluded she thought I was overweight for a long time. The one good thing is that she has not mentioned it before. But now she is mentioning it.

All of the pent-up observations and suggestions about my weight were now coming out in one dynamic monologue. I just could not keep up. It is hard to keep up when you only have two ears.

I could tell she had been thinking about this for a very long time because she had great detail as to what my new diet should be, even calculating how much weight I would be losing if I kept on this new diet.

So far, it was not too bad. I would go on this new diet, lose tons of weight, be healthier, and live longer and the both of us would be happy. What can go wrong with a plan like that? I love it when a plan comes together.

Then she began outlining the details of this new diet. I was going to eat nothing but fruit and vegetables until I had achieved my weight loss goal.

I had a few questions. "Would you consider an Apple fritter to be a fruit? Is a carrot cake a vegetable?"

These two questions alone brought such a stare from the other person in the room that I melted in complete defeat. Already I was losing. It seems, and I'm learning something new here, one person's definition of a fruit and vegetable is not another person's definition.

She began outlining all of the rules and regulations of this new diet and she did it with such glee, in fact, I have never seen her smile more, and it was going to be hard not to do it.

After her plan was firmly set on the table the only thing that I lost was interest in the whole new diet plan.

The Bible has some good things to say about fruit. "Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit" (Matthew 7:17).

It is not so much the fruit on the table as it is the fruit in my life that delights God.

Dear Dr. Luauna — In the Master Potter's hand

Dear Readers,

I grew up in Colorado, Springs Colorado and one of the most amazing places I loved to visit was the Van Briggles Art Pottery Museum. They had pottery as far back as the 1900's. I always was amazed by the great work of the Master Potter's hands, each vase was different from another and yet each one was made with perfection.

If you want to do something great or have God's peace in this life on earth then we must understand, every one of us will have to go on the Master Potter's wheel and be molded by the Master Potter Himself. King David understood this as he wrote in Psalm 119: 73, "Thy hands have made me and fashioned me: give me understanding, that I may learn Thy commandments."

Jeremiah the prophet was told by God to go to the potter's house and watch the potter and that experience would tell Jeremiah what to prophesy to the disobedient children of Israel. Jeremiah 18:2-6; "Arise and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause you to hear My words." Then I went down to the potter's house, and there he was, making something at the wheel. And the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter; so he made it again into another vessel, as it seemed good to the potter to make. Then the word of the Lord came to me, saying: "O house of Israel, can I not do with you as this potter?" says the Lord. "Look, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are you in My hand, O house of Israel!"

What was God saying in those verses? The same thing He's saying to you and I in Romans 12:2; "And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God." You see we are the clay, and Jesus is the Master Potter, if we surrender to the Master Potter, He will make our life perfected in Him. Yes, at times it's very painful! WHY, because we by nature desire to build our own lives by our own hands and our own ideas. We so often forget we're the clay and God is the Master Potter. He sees what we can't see with our natural eyes. The children of Israel were marred by sin, stubborn, and fought against God's will. God wanted to be their Master Potter; His plans for them were perfect.

King David said: Psalms 139: 14; "I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvelous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well." God has a purpose and God has a plan. God knows what He wants you to be like before He made you. You are no accident. God knows what you're to labor in as your work, trade, or profession. You cannot be a self-made believer, but rather a God-made believer. God has a good plan for your life.

The prophet Jeremiah in Jeremiah 29:11; "For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, 'thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end.'" The question you have to ask yourself is, "Do I want what God wants for me, or what I want for me?" That is one of the great questions of life. If you want what God wants for you, there will be a spiritual flow in your life, as you will be living in the will of God. If you submit yourself to be the clay that allows yourself to be molded by the hands of the Master Potter, then you love God and all things will work together for your good as you have submitted to His purpose. (Romans 8:28). Let GO and allow God to have full control. I love you

Argument

A couple drove down a country road for several miles, not saying a word. An earlier discussion had led to an argument and neither of them wanted to concede their position. As they passed a barnyard of mules, goats and pigs, the husband asked sarcastically,

"Relatives of yours?"

"Yep," the wife replied, "in-laws."

From the El Cajon Police Department:

Throughout San Diego County, motor vehicle collisions involving pedestrians are on the rise. Statistics have shown that in many of these collisions, the pedestrian was determined to be at-fault.

The El Cajon Police Department has again implemented their "Check Before You Step" program. This program is designed to educate the public about pedestrian safety. The El Cajon Police department would like to remind everyone to take pedestrian safety seriously. It is everyone's responsibility.

The age old myth that pedestrians always have the right of way could not be further from the truth. Pedestrians must follow the same rules of the road as the motorists. We all share the roadway and must do so responsibly.

Here are some helpful pedestrian safety tips:

1. Avoid wearing dark colored clothing at night. If you know you will be walking around at night, try to wear light colored clothing to make yourself more visible to motorists.

2. Do not cross the street between two controlled intersections. This is referred to as "Jaywalking", and puts you in areas where motorists are not expecting pedestrians.

3. Always use designated crosswalks and wait for the appropriate symbol which allows you to cross. Crossing against a red hand is unsafe and against the law.

4. Look both ways before crossing the street.

5. Don't cross the street unless you can do so safely. When crossing the street outside of a crosswalk, pedestrians MUST yield to oncoming vehicles.

6. Be aware of headlights from oncoming vehicles.

7. Walk with a purpose when crossing. Spend as little time as necessary in the actual roadway.

8. Do not assume the motorist sees you. Motorists are focused on many potential hazards along the roadway and may not see you until it is too late.

Let's work together to make our roadways safer!

‘By The Sea’ very disappointing

Review by Diana Saenger
Ever since Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie were married fans have yearned for them to make another film together. Surely with Jolie Pitt writing the screenplay and certain natural chemistry between the two; it would rock.

Well, By The Sea is no rock and in fact felt like a huge boulder that tumbled too long to come to a crashing and uneventful end.

Roland (Brad Pitt) and his wife Vanessa (Angelina Jolie Pitt) -- that he calls Nessa -- open the film riding in a sports car around the curvy roads heading to a Malta getaway by the sea. As they begin their first full day in Malta, we learn that Roland is a writer. He tucks his notebook in his pocket and says goodbye to a forlorn looking Nessa still in bed.

Roland begins what will be his every day action leaving his wife to fend for herself as he heads downstairs to owner Michel’s (Niels Arestrup) café / bar where he writes a line or two but mostly drinks all day.

His every day pattern is to return late in the afternoon almost every day. Occasionally, Roland suggests things for Nessa to do during the day – go to the beach, sunbath on the patio, go shopping. By the time he comes back to the room he’s plastered and they usually end up fighting. He reminds her she has a failed career as a dancer. She reminds him he’s a drunk.

It’s easy to figure out they have problems as Nessa will barely let Roland touch her much less be intimate. After more of the same there’s finally a scene of huge drama that suggest there might be physical harm to one or the other. It reveals a problem that opens like a bleeding wound.

Eventually Nessa discovers a peep hole near the floor in the hotel wall that looks into the next room. It has recently been occupied by newlywed couple, François (Melvil Poupaud) and

Lea (Mélanie Laurent). Out of nowhere one day she accuses Roland of wanting to sleep with Lea. Taken aback with no reason why Nessa would say

‘Spotlight’ — illustrates journalism at its best

Review by James Colt Harrison
Spotlight is a film about how journalists at the big city newspaper of the Boston Globe delved into what became the biggest news story of the year -- and won the newspaper Pulitzer Prizes in the process. It’s exciting, tense, and stirring, three adjectives one might not associate with the process of writing a story. But it’s there, and director/writer Tom McCarthy and screenplay writer Josh Singer have seen to it that our attention never flags.

who delivers advice without preaching.
The paper is on to something that may turn out to be the biggest scandal Boston has ever seen and possibly the world. The company is investigating allegations the Catholic Church covered up the scandal of priests who molested young boys and got away with it. They suspect Cardinal Bernard Law (Len Cariou) has known about the molestations and merely transferred the errant priests to other parishes around the country to bury the stories. The abuses had gone on for decades, and the reporters delved into old records and interviewed witnesses and some of the victims. Mysteriously, they were blocked at every corner, and somehow many of the records were either “lost” or sealed by the courts.

Ruffalo gives his best performance to date. He’s like a bulldog about digging up facts or witnesses. As Rezendes he knows the truth is buried somewhere and is intensely interested in finding out the truth. It’s up to him to find facts and save the innocent from further abuse. Ruffalo has a good chance of being nominated for a Best Supporting Actor Oscar for his role. He was previously nominated for his role as a wrestler in 2014’s Foxcatcher.

— HONORING OUR VETERANS —

Local Vets enlighten students in Alpine about what they do

Bill Ridenour at Joan MacQueen.

by Diana Saenger

Last Week in honor of Veterans Day, Alpine School District Superintendent Bruce Cochrane invited Alpine Veterans to visit three schools to talk to students about what veterans do. Veterans Dan Foster, Dave Kebert, Fred Higginbotham, Bill Ridenour, Brent Wolf, Al Martinez, Larry Curtis, Rod Hinrichson and Bill Burton traveled in pairs to speak at Joan MacQueen, Shadow Hills, and Boulder Oaks schools.

Joan MacQueen Middle School Principal Theresa Meyerott, introduced the Veterans to students in the Library. Students chosen by the teachers included the 8 – Key Winners who lived with Balance, Flexibility, Ownership, Commitment, This Is It, Speak With Good Purpose, Failure Lead

Fred Higginbotham at Joan MacQueen

To Success, and Integrity. Meyerott welcomed the Veterans as they sat at tables with students who could ask questions while eating their lunch.

Dave Kebert mentioned his relations who go to local schools and talked about his service in the Air Force from 1962 to 1966 in communications in England. Bill Ridenour, is 92-years-old and was anxious to talk to the kids. He told the students about his service in the Army starting in 1943 and how he fought in combat and the first troops in Japan after they signed the peace treaty with the United States. "We are so proud of each one of you for getting an education at this school." Fred Higginbotham, age 91, spoke next telling the students he worked downtown for 12 cents an hour and then went into the Army Air Corp and learned to be a pilot and also an instructor of A-36 fighter pilots. Brent Wolf congratulated the 8- Key Winners and announced he went into the service at 17. He was stationed all over the country, and during Vietnam helping to load bombs onto aircraft. He learned to work on aircraft which he also did when out of the service and told the students that many who entered the armed services earned a trade that later carried over when they left the service.

Over at Boulder Oaks Elementary School Principal Jenna Weinert introduced the Veterans to children sitting outside for their lunch period. Rod Hinrichson brought a few photos to show kids what he did in the Army. He had tank training and ended up in Vietnam at age 17. Bill Burton was in the Army and sent to Vietnam. He became a crew chief on the Huey helicopter and was sent north of Qui Non in Vietnam and later down in the Vinh Long Province of the Mekong Delta. The kids enjoyed telling the vets about members in their family that were veterans or currently serving.

At Shadow Hills, Principal Yvette Maler spent time to make sure all the students were aware of the special guests and Hills Larry Curtis addressed many kids that took time out of their lunch to ask questions. Curtis went into the Air Force and became a pilot and then a Pilot Instructor of T-38s. Al Martinez joined the Marine Corps. Al told the children about the Veterans Wall of Honor and the Marine Corp birthday, and question what the kids new about service corps.

Dan Foster said, "I'm very excited about this day we could share information about Veterans with these students. I think both sides benefited."

Superintendent Cochrane appreciated the individual schools that made it all happen and thanked everyone involved.

You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. TO ADMINISTER
PATRICK S. MUR-PHY
CASE NO. 37-2015-00037568-PR-LA-CTL
ROA #: 1
(IMAGED FILE)

To all heirs, benefi-ciaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of: PATRICK S. MURPHY
A Petition for Probate has been filed by LETICIA VASQUEZ-MURPHY in the Superior Court of Califor-nia, County of SAN DIEGO. The Petition for Pro-bate requests that LETICIA VASQUEZ-MURPHY be appointed as personal repre-sentative to administer the estate of the decedent.
The Petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.
A hearing on the petition will be held in this court on 12/15/2015 at 11:00 am in Dept. PC-1 located at 1409 4th Avenue, San Diego, CA 92101-3105 Central Division/Madge Bradley Building.
If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.
If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.
Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.
You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 888-988-6736 for information regarding the trustee's sale or visit this Internet Web site <http://www.qualityloan.com>, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-15-676796-AB. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the property address or other common designation, if any, shown herein. If no street address or other common designation is shown, directions to the location of the property may be obtained by sending a written request to the beneficiary within 10 days of the date of first publication of this Notice of Sale. By The Sea ...

this; he accuses her of being sick and needing to get help.

Nessa soon finds entertainment every day by removing the plug in the wall and feasting on watching the couple next door have sex. Roland ultimately discovers the hole and questions Nessa. But adding to the already monotonous and boring story, he agrees to watch with her.

As actors the couple do well because we believe these characters so much we detest them. There's no entertainment in this plot, it even dulls the scenery and the other few characters in the story. Most annoying was Jolie in what seemed like an ongoing photo shoot, with her lounging in the bed, posturing her head up in the air in different lingerie in a chair, and trying to look seductive in the bath tub. This is anything but seductive, mainly because she's rarely without a cigarette in her mouth.

There's nothing entertaining about this film. Many have commented they think it was intended with some kind of French filmmaking kinship. It was far from any I've seen. What very few words Nessa utters sound wooden. Jolie can bring a lot of emotion to her characters, but it lacked here, although there was several sullen movements walking toward the balcony when I thought Nessa would jump off because she was depressed or fed up with war between her and hubby – take your pick – and a few times I wished her character would have. Knowing the Pitt's knowledge and experience in the film world makes watching By The Sea even more irritating. Why did they think people would be happy spending two hours watching this muddled story.

In regards to both, we can always watch Unbroken or 12 Years A Slave Again to remember their real talents.

All of Robby's reporters have Catholic backgrounds. Normally that may skew their thinking, but they don't let that get in their way of finding the truth. As unsavory as the topic is, director McCarthy (himself a lapsed Catholic), does not show any of the child molestations in slow-motion flashbacks or highlighted scenes. Thankfully McCarthy had the good taste to merely imply what may have gone on in back rooms of the church.

Stanley Tucci, one of today's greatest character actors, comes in for an impressionable few minutes as cagey lawyer Mitchell Garabedian. He knows secrets and facts, having been involved in some of the cases against the church. But Rezendes almost has to use a crowbar to pry open the closed mouth of the slimy lawyer. Tucci is tops, as usual, in his characterization.

The film keeps up your pulse rate as we get involved in the reporters' quest for answers. It takes a look back to what newspapers really were like 15 or 20 years ago. And it makes the case for how important freedom of speech is to our own lives and how the truth must always be pursued. Spotlight is one of the best pictures of the year. It also has one of the best Ensemble Casts of recent films.

Raspberry Greek Yogurt Bark

Recipe courtesy of NourishRDs.com

- 2 cups plain, reduced-fat (2%) Greek yogurt
- 1 lemon, zest only
- 2 tablespoons honey
- 1 cup frozen raspberries
- 1/2 cup shelled pistachios
- 1/4 cup slivered almonds

Line small baking pan with aluminum foil. In medium bowl, combine first 3 ingredients. Stir until well incorporated. Add berries, pistachios and almonds to mixture. Fold in until well incorporated. Spread mixture in baking pan and place in freezer for about 2-3 hours, or until hardened.

Once hardened, remove bark from pan and either cut or break up into pieces. Allow to thaw about 5 minutes before eating.

Notes: Store remaining bark in freezer. You can experiment with any ingredients you have on hand, such as frozen cherries with dark chocolate chunks, frozen blueberries with unsweetened flaked coconut or dried cranberries with pecans.

Red Raspberry Fruit Leather

- 1 package (12 ounces) frozen red raspberries, thawed
- 1/3 cup sugar or honey
- 1 teaspoon lemon juice

Heat oven to 170 F. Line two baking pans with parchment paper or silicone mats. Combine all ingredients in blender and puree until smooth. Pour raspberry mixture on both pans and smooth into thin layer, less than 1/8-inch thick.

Bake 3 hours or until mixture is no longer wet, but still slightly tacky, rotating every hour and alternating levels.

Cool pans on wire rack to room temperature. Remove parchment paper (if using), place on cutting board and cut (or tear) into chip-size pieces. Store with fresh pieces of parchment paper between fruit leather layers in airtight container.

Anytime Pumpkin-Raspberry Muffins

- 1 cup frozen unsweetened red raspberries
 - 1 1/2 cups white whole wheat flour
 - 1/3 cup packed brown sugar
 - 1/4 cup granulated sugar
 - 2 teaspoons ground cinnamon
 - 1/2 teaspoon baking soda
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1 cup canned pumpkin
 - 3/4 cup low-fat buttermilk
 - 3 tablespoons canola oil
 - 3 egg whites
 - 1 tablespoon grated orange rind
 - 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
 - 2 ounces chopped pecans, toasted
- Muffin Topping:
- 1 tablespoon granulated sugar
 - 1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon

Heat oven to 350 F. Coat 12 nonstick muffin tins with cooking spray and set aside.

Place frozen raspberries on counter to thaw slightly while preparing muffins.

In medium bowl, stir together flour, brown sugar, sugar, cinnamon, baking soda and salt.

In another medium bowl, stir together remaining muffin ingredients, except raspberries.

Stir pumpkin mixture into flour mixture until blended. Do not over mix. Spoon equal amounts of batter in each muffin tin. Place equal amounts of raspberries on top of each muffin.

Bake 20-22 minutes or until wooden toothpick inserted comes out almost clean.

Meanwhile in small bowl, combine topping ingredients and set aside.

Remove muffins from oven, place on wire rack and immediately sprinkle with topping. Let stand 15 minutes to continue to cook and absorb flavors. Remove muffins from pan and cool completely on wire rack before storing.

Store cooled leftovers in airtight container in refrigerator up to 48 hours or freeze up to 1 month.

Note: May make as mini muffins: bake 15 minutes in 12 muffin tins.

Raspberry Salsa

- 1 Pink Lady or other tart-sweet apple, cored and diced
- 2 cups peeled jicama, diced
- 1/3 cup raspberry vinegar
- 1 medium jalapeno pepper, seeded and finely chopped
- 3 green onions, sliced
- 1 tablespoon grated fresh ginger
- 1 bag (12 ounces) frozen raspberries

In large bowl, toss apple and jicama with vinegar. Add all remaining ingredients and toss to blend. Serve at once or cover and refrigerate until ready to serve.

Pet of the Week — Tilly

"Hello, friends! My name is TILLY, and I'm a seven-year-old Australian Shepherd mix who came to the El Cajon Animal Shelter because my owner was no longer able to care for me. I'm the kind of dog who'll be absolutely devoted to my people, so I'd be a great companion. I'm quite lovely with one blue eye and one brown eye, and, as is typical for my breed, I'm also highly intelligent. I like to go on nice walks, and a daily walk would be good for me. I get along well with other dogs, and I'd be a very nice family pet. I've already been house trained, too. I'm very eager to find a forever home, and I really need somebody that I can dote on, so I hope you'll give me a chance. Please come visit me here at the shelter, then we can spend some time getting better acquainted out in the nice play yard that they have here. It would make me so very happy if I end up being the good friend that you've been searching for. Love, Tilly" Kennel #28
