Senator Anderson's Corner

2-1-1's Courage to Call program

Senator Joel Anderson

by Matt Hrachovy

2-1-1 San Diego is an information hub that connects people with community, health, and disaster services through a 24/7 confidential phone line.

The 2-1-1 facility is staffed with an impressive team that maintains a well-kept, professional environment.

For the work it did for the military community, Senator Anderson provided a Certificate of Recognition to the office of 2-1-1 San Diego.

"2-1-1 San Diego is a wonderful asset to the community. Their ability to think outside of the box to help our community members is inspiring." One of those programs that 2-1-1 San Diego refers people to is "Courage to Call," said Anderson.

According to RanDee

McLain, ASW, Program Manager for the Courage to Call program at Mental Health Systems, Courage to Call is "a veteran-led, peer to peer support program in San Diego County." Courage to Call allows military members, whether they are veterans, active guard, or reserves, to have a 24/7

phone line go to for confidential support, references, and services. Courage to Call is staffed by veterans and the spouses of active duty military personal. This helps the staff have a more personable connection with the military member they are talking to. The program also serves those that have family members that have served in the military. "We all live and work in this community and San Diego has a very large military population. It is hard to find anyone in the county that is not connected to someone that is serving or has served. It is important to take care of those who have taken care of us," said McLain. Next time you know a veteran (or their family member) who feels in the dark on who to call, 2-1-1 San Diego's Courage to Call program is readily available to help them with their needs.

For the 9th consecutive year, the El Cajon Police Department Holiday Storefront returns to Parkway Plaza in El Cajon during the month of December! The Police Storefront will be located inside the mall, just west of the carousel. The storefront will be open seven days a week, now through Dec. 31, from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. On New Year's Eve, the hours will be from 8 a.m. to 12 p.m.

This Holiday Storefront is a great opportunity to talk with the officers, see great law enforcement displays, including a Vintage 1942 El Cajon Police vehicle, and pick up important safety materials for you and your family. This includes information about safety in and around the home, fire safety, and earthquake and El Niño preparedness. # INSPIRATION

A new look at the old year

Dr. James L. Snyder

From a practical standpoint, and if I am anything I am practical, well, practically, this year has gone by rather quickly. The fact I have survived this past year has to count for something.

I was musing on this with the Gracious Mistress of the Parsonage just the other day. I was feeling rather comfortable with myself and was congratulating myself on making it through another year. After all, the facts speak for themselves.

"Well," my wife began rather deliberately, "I guess you did survive the year."

"What in the world is that supposed to mean?" I queried. I must say I was a little agitated by the tone of her voice. After all, I did survive the year.

It was quiet for a few minutes and then she said, "What about your New Year's resolutions?"

I informed her I was working on a brand-new set of New Year's resolutions for the upcoming year. I think it's rather important to jot down a few things you would like to do, maybe some improvements you would like to make or maybe something I should like to give up for the New Year.

"That's not what I mean."

I looked at her quizzically not really understanding what she was talking about.

"What about the New Year's resolutions for this year." And she looked at me with one of those looks.

You do not have to hit me with a baseball bat for me to understand what's going on, although sometimes it does help. To be quite truthful I had not thought of those New Year's resolutions, well, for the whole year.

"Would you like me to recite the New Year's resolutions you made last year?"

Oh boy, I saw a news story the other day about people who could remember every day of their life in minute detail. I do not know how that feels, but I do know how it feels to live with someone who can remember every detail of my life.

I have a photographic memory; the problem is I have been out of film for three decades.

It got me to thinking about my New Year's resolutions for this year. I must say that after looking at this list I did not fare too well.

I had resolved to improve my diet and lose some weight. Fortunately, I did not put down how much weight I proposed to lose. I did lose 1 pound 974 times but it always found its way home. I spent some time in Michigan this past summer and just as I was leaving, I threw a pound out the window and hurried on. By the time I got home to Florida that pound was waiting for me at the front door munching on an Apple fritter. What's a person to do?

Also, another item on my New Year's resolution list was, "I resolve not to work harder but smarter this coming year." At the time, I thought it was a very brilliant thing to say. And, don't get me wrong, it is.

I have mastered the part of not working harder, but the smarter aspect of that resolution eluded me. Whose definition of smarter should apply here? Certainly, I will not appeal to my wife's idea about smarter. She has an altogether different concept of this whole area of working smarter.

My only consolation is that my definition of the subject is, it is always smarter not to work harder. If we apply that definition to my New Year's resolution, I passed with flying colors.

Then my good wife reminded me of another part of my New Year's resolution. According to her memory, and I am in no position to challenge it, I had resolved to exercise more during the year. At the moment, I exercised my right to object to her memory. But, I lost that one.

The only actual exercise I got this past year was several times I had a runny nose. Believe me, that exercised me to no end, but it was not on track with my wife's idea of exercise.

At this point of life, I think exercise is blown way out of proportion. I tried to persuade my wife that working my elbow at breakfast and lunchtime as well as supertime was all the exercise I really needed. She said to me, "When was the last time you saw your feet?"

At the moment, I exercised my right to shut up!

Then it dawned on me. I actually did get my share of exercise in this past year.

I exercised my right to be wrong when confronted by my wife.

I exercised my right to keep quiet when my wife was giving me instructions.

All that exercise may not have helped me lose weight, but it helped me gain in my relationship with my wife.

I pondered this for some time and realized that many times it is better to admit you are wrong and save your relationship. Those who have to be right all the time are those who end up never being right. I thought of what the apostle Paul said. "Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?" (1 Corinthians 6:7 KJV).

Sometimes it is better to suffer wrongfully for a good purpose.

Dear Dr. Luauna — All things new

Dear Readers,

Thanksgiving and Christmas is behind us and we've had a few days to look back over the year to see what we did, or didn't accomplish. 2015 is coming to a close and 2016 is approaching tomorrow!

Some of you reading this have had some really hard trials in 2015 and feel like you've been knocked right off your feet. Hold on, there is Hope! A new year, a new day, a new way; Joel 2:25; "So I will restore to you the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the crawling locust, the consuming locust, and the chewing locust, My great army which I sent among you."

There was a man named Job, who had a very terrible year himself. It seemed like the trials would never stop. Job even found himself in a state of depression, wondering why he didn't die as a baby. No one plans for a bad year, but you can plan for a better one. Our hope is in Jesus! Oh, I don't care one bit what this world says. God is in control! Someone shouted to me while I was out preaching on the street, "I don't believe in God, I can't see him!" I said, "You can't see your brain either, but you have one don't you?" God is real and alive today as He was yesteryear.

I love the story of the widow who had nothing, her husband died and the creditors were coming for her only two sons to make them slaves for the debt she owed. She ran to the man of God, and God did a miracle. You should read it when you get a chance, it's a powerful story. (2 Kings 4:1-3)

Don't bring last year's defeat into 2016! You must reach down deep inside your heart and find that little seed of faith that is hidden away, the faith that comes through the Cross. That faith that made blind eyes open, and the faith that conquered death, hell, and the grave, its resurrected faith! Jesus is the same yesterday, today and forever! No matter how it looks on the outside, look to Jesus for a better 2016. Give Him your all.

We're so busy painting the canvas of our own lives without Jesus, and when we hang up the painting of our life, it looks terrible. Give Jesus your heart, mind and soul, the canvas of your life and allow Him to give you a new white clean start for 2016. Let him paint the canvas of your life and in the end when you hang it up. You'll be surprised at all the Lord will do with your life when you surrender to His will. God restored Job's life, and God can restore your life and give you a better New Year in 2016. Job 42:10; "And the Lord restored Job's losses when he prayed for his friends. Indeed the Lord gave Job twice as much as he had before." Psalm 66:5; "Come and see the works of God; He is awesome in His doing toward the sons of men."

I love you and Happy New Year my dear readers! You are special indeed! Write me. ATFA- Dear Dr. Luauna Stines P.O. Box 2800, Ramona, CA. 92065. Visit my website: www.atouchfromabove.org Don't allow another year to pass thinking, "One day I want to visit her church!" Join me for a Sunday service 10 a.m. at 1805 Main Street, San Diego, CA 92113. On your dive to church, listen to my Sunday morning radio program A Touch From Above with Dr. Luauna Stines at 8 a.m. 1210 AM KPRZ, San Diego, CA. Then I'll see you when you arrive at church 10 a.m. I Love you, and can't wait to see you in person.

In His Love & mine, Dr. Luauna Stines

Laughter is the Best Medicine

New Year's Resolutions You have no chances of keeping

When I hear a funny joke I will not reply, "LOL, LMAO, or ROTFLMAO!"

Start using Facebook for something other than Farmville and stupid quizzes.

I will try to figure out why I "really" need 5 facebook accounts.

I resolve to work with neglected children... my own.

Lose 20 pounds by going to the gym!

I will stop using, "So, what's your URL?" as a pickup line.

I will spend less than five hours a day on the Internet.

I will read the manual... just as soon as I can find it.

Spend less than $1000 for coffee at Starbucks this year.

Lose weight by inventing an anti-gravity machine.

Stop repeating myself again, and again, and again.

I will stop tagging pictures of myself in pictures even when I'm not in them.

I will think of a password other than "password."

New Years Resolutions You Can Actually Keep

Read less.

I want to gain weight. Put on at least 30 pounds.

I will start buying lottery tickets at a luckier store.

Stop exercising. Waste of time.

Watch more TV.

Watch less T.V. in standard definition.

Gain enough weight to get on

The Biggest Loser.

Watch more movie remakes.

Start washing my hands after I use the restroom.

Procrastinate more.

I will do less laundry and use more deodorant.

I will no longer waste my time relieving the past, instead I will spend it worrying about the future.

Drink.

Drink some more.

Stop buying worthless junk on Ebay, because QVC has better specials.

Start being superstitious.

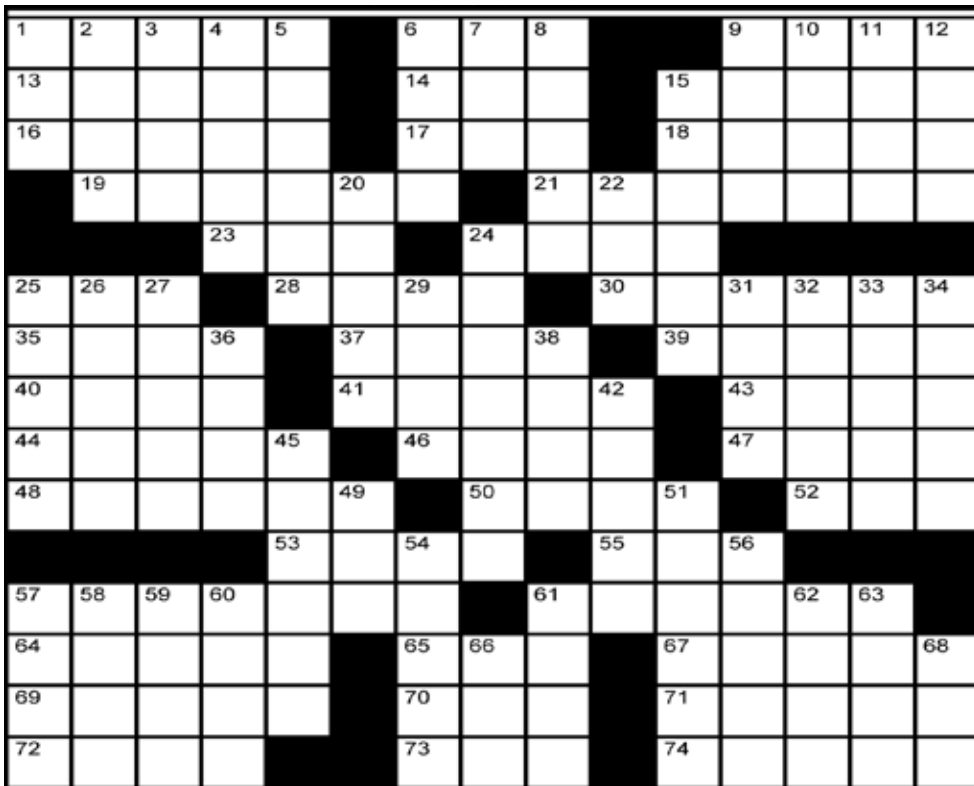

Spend more time at work.

Stop bringing lunch from home: I should eat out more.

Take up a new habit.

'The Hateful Eight' might be too crude for some viewers

Kurt Russell and Samuel L. Jackson star in The Hateful Eight. Photo Credits: Andrew Cooper, SMPSP / The Weinstein Company

Review by Diana Saenger

Even Quentin Tarantino fans had no clue what was to unfold in The Hateful Eight. The story takes place not too long after the Civil War. We meet John Ruth (Kurt Russell) traveling in a stage coach across the Wyoming snow covered plains. He's proud of himself because in the coach is Daisy Domergue (Jennifer Jason Leigh). She's charged with murder and has a big bounty on her head to which John plans to retrieve at Red Rock.

Within a short time, another fellow turns up in the snow seeking a ride after his ride broke down. Ruth is cautious to invite the black stranger along but does when he finds out Major Marquis Warren (Samuel L. Jackson), also a bounty hunter, is willing to part with some of his take on the stiff bodies he throws on top of the stagecoach.

The Major questions why Daisy is along and each time she tries to talk John smacks her with a punch Ali would admire. Just when things get dull another stranger shows up in the middle of the snow. When Chris Mannix (Walton Goggins), announces he's the new sheriff heading to Red Rock, he joins those in the stage coach.

A blizzard blindsides the travelers and eventually they take refuge at Minnie's Haberdashery, a stagecoach stopover on a mountain pass. Minnie seems to be missing and there are four men there instead. Bob (Demian Bichir) says he's taking care of Minnie's while she's visiting her mother. Also there is Oswaldo Mobray (Tim Roth) who's AKA is the hangman of Red Rock. Cow-puncher Joe Gage (Michael Madsen), and Confederate General Sanford Smithers (Bruce Dern) round out the odd group who do not know what to do with each other. As the storm intensifies it's clear no one is going anywhere.

As each man relates who they are and why they are there, it becomes a big bag of hot air, which could be a problem since all of them carry a weapon. Daisy tries to chime in, and each time it's a worst physical attack on her from John. She has steal marbles for pupils as she stares at him and laughs. She has a plan in mind that she's sure will get even with him. Of course, with seven men in the room and all dollar hungry, things begin to take a dark turn, which gets worse when they find there's little food in the Haberdashery.

The plot is very clever, but could have fallen apart at any minute had Tarantino not picked this cast. Each one has a role to play and they all excel at keeping the characters guessing as well as the audience as to what happens next. It's t like a game of Clue. Who will do what, when and why?

Kurt Russell certainly has the look of a Yosemite Sam bounty hunter. He might have even licked his lips had it not been for his huge walrus moustache. Tim Roth creates a character so charming the travelers are like putty in his hand. Chris Mannix keeps his Walton character on even ground, but maybe is also on the alert.

Samuel L. Jackson is an exceptional puzzle of a man. He has a strong performance, yet at times goes a little too far with his violence for some audience members, and especially a verbally distasteful revelation he makes to another man in the house. As strong as the male characters are it's Jennifer Jason Leigh who has the best performance here and certainly deserves an Oscar nomination. Her Daisy takes abuse as if it's water rolling off her shoulder, and I haven't seen a character take as much physical abuse in a film before.

Producer Stacey Sher said about Leigh's performance, "Jennifer Jason Leigh is fearless. She'll go anywhere, she'll try anything, she'll push it all the way, and as a result her character is constantly surprising throughout the entire journey."

I confess I have not been a fan of Quentin Tarantino's movies because of the violence, nastiness, offensiveness, revengefulness and vulgar aspects that show up in most. This is not to say that The Hateful Eight is clean. Just the title gives some hints as to the characters in the plot. But for me, this time; this movie scores on several levels.

Watching the movie you never know what's coming next. Each character surprises us and complicates the story even more. Cinematography by Robert Richardson was well envisioned by Tarantino with the huge white landscapes (Telluride's stretch of the Colorado Rockies). Even inside the cozy hangout, a lot is unveiled by the camera if you pay attention. Tarantino was thrilled to offer theaters an option to show it in 70-mm.

The Hateful Eight is long. There is an overture (not needed) and an intermission. Again, this might be too raw for some moviegoers.

Mom's Beef Barley Soup
What You Need

- 2 tbsp oil
- 4 ribs of celery, sliced
- 1 large onion, diced
- 1/2 c green pepper, finely diced
- 5 large carrots, sliced into medallions
- 1-2 lb stew meat cut up 1/2 in cubes
- 1/2+ c sherry, beef broth, water or dry red wine for deglazing
- 6 c beef broth
- 6 c water
- 1 tsp seasoned salt
- 2 bay leaves
- 1 c pearl barley
- 1/2 tsp black pepper
- 1 can beans (pinto or great northern whites), drained and rinsed
- Any veggies you may want to add

Directions

- Add 1 tbsp of oil to a large Dutch oven and brown beef in batches.

Be sure to dry your beef off with paper towels before browning or the beef won't brown appropriately. Once browned, remove meat from pot.

- Deglaze the pot with a bit of broth, water, sherry or dry red wine and save the drippings. Sherry makes a nice rich flavor.
- Into the same pot, now deglazed, add 1 tbsp of oil.
- Sauté onions, green pepper and celery until soft. Add carrots and continue sautéing for 3-5 minutes.
- Add the meat back in and sauté another 3-5 minutes. Add water and broth.
- Add the bay leaf, seasoned salt and pepper.
- Bring to boil, turn down and gently simmer covered for about 1 hour.
- Add pearl barley. Cover pan and simmer until soft about 1 hour. Check salt. You may need to add more depending on what broth used.
- Add beans. Add any other veggies like peas, or green beans (if desired). Continue cooking for another 1/2 hour or so.

The Pregnancy Care Clinic educates women

Pregnancy Care Clinic Ultrasound room. Photo Credits: courtesy

by Diana Saenger

The Pregnancy Care Clinic (PCC) in El Cajon began in 1993 as an organization dedicated to providing life-affirming education, service and care to women who are pregnant. The religious, non-profit, pro-life, free medical clinic is licensed by the State of California Department of Public Health as a community clinic and laboratory, and is funded 100% by donations.

It is controlled by a local Board of Directors, and is affiliated with Care Net and National Institute of Family Life Advocates (NIFLA). PCC is a member of Cal Chamber, East County Chamber of Commerce, Association For Life of San Diego and Imperial Counties and the Executive Director Josh McClure director is a member of El Cajon Noon Rotary Club.

The PCC does not perform or make referrals for abortions. The PCC goal is to educate the women of their options and demonstrate the facts about their unborn child so they can reach an informed choice.

Many in America and local communities are still divided on reproductive rights and bio ethics. The PCC believes a woman should have all options presented and discussed in a coercive-free environment so their clients would choose life, but they feel strongly that clients should make an informed decision for themselves. PCC believes in alternatives to abortion, abstinence until marriage and natural family planning as the best choices.

In 2015 their medical team consisted of; 2 ObGyns, 1 Radiologist, 1 Anesthesiologist,

1 Certified Nurse Midwife, 1 Nurse Practitioner, 10 Nurses and 2 RDMS. Each may practice at PCC within the scope of their license and their scope of practice. A licensed medical professional is on duty when all medical services are provided.

Pregnant clients receive a list of referrals for local ObGyns on their first visit. Nurses are trained in limited obstetric ultrasound according to the Association of Women's Health Obstetric and Neonatal (AWHONN) Guidelines. Each client who has a positive pregnancy test receives a copy of "Before You Decide," a booklet that contains reinforcement of the topics covered during their visit including: understanding pregnancy, fetal development, emergency contraception, abortion procedures, abortion risks (physical, emotional and spiritual), and options. All risks are properly cited by scientific studies.

Diagnosis of pregnancy is performed only by a licensed physician. Medical Services at the PCC include: pregnancy verification, abortion information, limited obstetric ultrasound, initial supply of prenatal vitamins, natural family planning, and healthy lifestyles information. Other services offered include; childbirth education, adoption information, court approved parenting classes, moms helping moms support group, advocacy services, alternatives education, moral and peer support, abstinence education, post abortion support and healing. The Clinic also supports clients with baby items and maternity clothing for no charge.

The outreach that PCC provides includes referrals to Medical, prenatal care, legal services, housing services, professional counseling, substance abuse rehab, WIC, CalWORKs, adoption agencies, black infant health, and nurse family partnership.

In accordance to the PCC's Commitment of Care and Competence, clients are served without regard to age, race, income, nationality, religious affiliation, disability or other arbitrary circumstances. McClure asserts clients are treated with kindness, compassion, and in a caring manner and receive honest and open answers.

Client pregnancy tests are administered in accordance with all applicable laws.

Client information is held in strict confidence. Releases and permissions are obtained appropriately and client information is only disclosed as required by law and when necessary to protect the client or others against imminent harm. Clients receive accurate information about pregnancy, fetal development, lifestyle issues, and related concerns.

Each year PCC serves approximately 800 clients. It's important that clients get an early ultrasound which provides verification signed by a nurse or physician in order to obtain prenatal care, sign up for Medical, receive an abortion, check the fetal heart rate (The heart begins to beat 21 days after conception). Verifying and measuring the beats per minute can affirm the circulatory system of the fetus is active. Femur length measurements can determine how far along the fetus is in development and provide the most accurate dates for conception date and delivery date.-

"Education is the method for us to accomplish our goals," McClure said. "It is not the mission of PCC to talk women into keeping their baby, but rather to educate them in their options so they can come to an informed choice. As such we accomplish our mission 100% of the time. The Pregnancy Care Clinic is truly a safe haven where a woman can make a confident and informed decision regarding her future and the life within her. We provide accurate information about the developing life in the mother's womb and life-affirming alternatives to abortion. We speak the truth in love and offer a loving refuge where each woman will find unconditional love, acceptance and support."

The East County Pregnancy Care Clinic

Support for the clinic, both financial and physical is key to keeping the clinic going. Local churches and community members donate funds and their time. Once a year the clinic has a fundraiser banquet. In October the San Diego Marriott Hotel room was full of supporters. The Key-Note speaker was Abby Johnson, who told her passionate story about how she went from a Planned Parenthood Administrator to quitting her job in October 2009 after participating in an actual abortion procedure for the first time, and walking down the street to join the Coalition for Life.

Abby Johnson at PCC Fundraiser

The El Cajon PCC is a great value to the community with their free services, none billed to insurance or from government funds. It provides more than $500,000 of free goods, services and education every year. It logs more than 38,000 volunteers every year, and more than 5000 donors and their families.

Margaret Hueppchen, Board member of the PCC, has served the clinic for five years and seen how it helps those who come in.

"So many young women are uncertain if they are pregnant and what to do, they feel helpless," Hueppchen said. "I'm proud the Pregnancy Care Center provides them a safe and loving place where their needs can be met."

The Pregnancy Care Clinic is located at 677 S. Magnolia Ave., El Cajon, CA 92020, (619-442-4357) for more info visit www.ecpcc.org

BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law. You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that BERNADET KONJA be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent. The petition requests the decedent's will and codicils if any be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court. The petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act.(This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. A HEARING ON THE PETITION WILL BE HELD IN THIS COURT AS FOLLOWS: January 26, 2016 IN DEPT PC-1 AT 11:00 AM LOCATED AT 1409 FOURTH AVE., SAN DIEGO, CA 92101. IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law. YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk. ## Pet of the Week — Bella

Bella's Story...
"Hello, friends. My name is BELLA, and I'm a one-year-old happy, affectionate pit bull who's looking for a new pal. I came to the El Cajon Animal Shelter because my owner became too ill to care for me, but I know in my heart that somebody like you will see that I'm a fun and friendly pooch who'll be your faithful buddy. I'm good with kids and other dogs, so I'd be a great addition to the family. It will be important for me to have a yard in my new home, as I love to play fetch and have a good time. If you throw a ball, I'll bring it right back to you, too. While I'm an energetic youngster, I do try my best to have good manners. I know how to sit and lie down on command. I'd want to have a comfy dog bed in the house, as I'll want to be part of the family, not just relegated to the yard. Please come visit me here at the El Cajon Animal Shelter. They've got a great play yard here where we can hang out and get to know each other. I hope to see you very soon. Love, Bella"
