Tribute concert to benefit Mother Goose Parade

The stars will be out, or at least they will appear to be. The Mother Goose Parade Association is hosting a fund raising event

"Tribute to the Stars" at the East County Performing Arts Center (ECPAC) in El Cajon on Saturday, Oct. 10.

Tribute stars such as Jennifer Aniston, Angelie Jolie, Brad Pitt and Johnny Depp are scheduled to arrive in limos to delight the fans and the paparazzi.

The stars will begin their arrivals on the red carpet at 6 p.m.

A free food and wine tasting is scheduled from 5 to 7:30 p.m., a live auction at 7:30 p.m. and a concert by No Duh, a No Doubt tribute band from 8 to 10 p.m.

Participating vendors are: Taste of Italy, Gio, Savanna Grill, Press Box Sports Lounge, New York Bakery, Downtown Cafe, Por Favor and Rock Bottom Brewery.

Admission is only $15 and everything goes to support this year's Mother Goose Parade.

The Mother Goose Parade Association is still thousands away from meeting the $150,000 needed for this year's parade and are asking for donations. Any size donation is appreciated. Send to Mother Goose Parade Association, 1130 Broadway, El Cajon, CA 92020.

San Diego County Red Cross responds to three disasters

The American Red Cross responded to three residential fires last week. The fires were located in the Lake Henshaw, El Cajon and Ramona areas of San Diego County.

The Red Cross provided emergency assistance to a family of two adults and two children in Lake Henshaw whose mobile home caught fire, supplying them with food and groceries, clothing and shoes and a storage container.

Two families in El Cajon, consisting of seven adults and four children were affected by an apartment fire and were supplied with food and groceries, clothing and shoes.

A single family home in Ramona was destroyed, affecting one adult and a cat. The Red Cross provided lodging for two nights, food and groceries, clothing and comfort kits.

The Red Cross was notified of a fourth incident, a mobile home fire in the Tecate Area, but no client services were requested at this time.

Volunteers from the San Diego/Imperial Counties Chapter of the American Red Cross are on call 24 hours a day and are trained in various aspects of disaster response, including casework interviews, damage assessment, shelter, feeding, health services, and crisis counseling. This chapter responds to a disaster nearly every 24 hours.

Disney Quiz Night

This isn't just any ol' Mickey Mouse event. So, don't get Goofy and miss your chance to attend and support Creekside Early Learning Center's (CELC) annual fundraiser, Disney Quiz Night. Disney Quiz Night will be held on Tuesday, Oct. 27, from 5 – 8 p.m. in Viejas' Dream Catcher Lounge. CELC's PTA and staff host this adults-only event which is made possible by the generosity of numerous community organizations, businesses and citizens like you. The evening includes hors d'oeuvres opportunity drawings, live and silent auctions and a fast-paced competitive game of sports, music and Disney trivia.

Seating is available and reservations are being taken now at $25 per person or $150 for a table of eight. Proceeds benefit Creekside Early Learning Center and its students. To make your reservation, order tickets or for further information, email us at CELCpta@yahoo.com or call (619) 659-8250.

El Cajon City Highlights

by Monica Zech
City of El Cajon Public
Information Officer

Fire Expo just around the corner

Considered to be one of the largest community events in the East County - it's the annual El Cajon Fire Safety & Career Expo! It's Oct. 10, at 100 E. Lexington Avenue from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Mission Federal Credit Union our title sponsor and is dedicated to education in the community. Fire Safety is a key concern and their sponsorship supports their long-standing support in the San Diego Community. Stop by their booth at the event to get a red fire hat for your kids.

Thank you to the East County Gazette for being our top newspaper sponsor year after year!

This fun, popular and free family event offers valuable safety, health and career information. Not only is this an annual celebration of Fire Prevention month for the fire department, it's also our opportunity to say "thank you" to the residents of El Cajon for their support of all City services, including police and fire.

We've also added some exciting celebrity guests! Helping us to say "thank you" are three very special celebrities: Allen Evangelista, best known for his role as Henry Miller on the number one rated Teen Drama on prime-time "The Secret Life

Of The American Teenager"; Samantha Droke is recently known for her supporting role as Brooke in the Disney Channel Original Movie Princess Protection Program; and Brandon Mychal Smith, one of the stars on Disney's Sonny With A Chance. All three of these popular teen celebrities will be present to meet and greet their fans and sign autographs from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Meet Captain Jack Sparrow, an amazing tribute artist of the popular Johnny Depp character from Pirates of the Caribbean, K-C the Safety Robot, Coasty the talking Coast Guard Boat, Sparky the fire dog, and Callahan the Firefighter.

Dozens of exhibits will feature such topics as fire safety, driving safety and disaster preparedness. The child safety fun zone returns with a giant inflatable safety house where children will learn about home escape plans in case of fire. The East County Kiwanis will be giving away "free" safety helmets (while supplies last), Home Depot is back with their children's safety workshop, and Farmer's Insurance returns with Child I.D. cards!

The Office of Emergency Services will be on hand to register County residents for the Reverse 9-1-1 System. Pick up a copy of "Before the Threat" fire safety information, with additional disaster preparedness tips from the American Red Cross. Visit the career section and find out what it takes to become a firefighter, a police officer and 9-1-1 dispatcher. For more information on the special exhibits you can expect to see please visit our website at www.elcajonfire.com or contact event coordinator Monica Zech at (619) 441-1737.

Sophie's Art Gallery special art show

Experience the folk art created by Sophie's talented artists at Sophie's Art Gallery's 6th Annual Passageways Show from Oct. 1 through the 31. The gallery is located at 109 Rea Avenue in El Cajon. A free public reception is being held on Friday, October 2 from 5:30 to 8 p.m. at the Gallery. At the reception, St. Madeleine Sophie's Center will be honoring Sr. Maxine Kraemer for her many years of dedicated service to St. Madeleine's Center. For more information please call (619) 593-2205.

Oktoberfest begins Friday in El Cajon

On the first two weekends of October join us for a real Oktoberfest Celebration in the City of El Cajon, October 2-4 & 9-11. It's the Annual Oktoberfest celebration hosted by the German American Societies of San Diego. Event days and hours are Fridays from 4 to 10 p.m., Saturdays from 12 to 10 p.m. and Sundays from 12 to 9 p.m. Enjoy authentic German food, such as bratwurst, potato salad, potato pancakes, sauerkraut, red cabbage and a variety of German pastries. Plus, a selection of German adult drinks and soft drinks will be available to enjoy with your friends and family. Admission for ages 21 and up is $5; 21 and under and active military are free. Call (619) 390-9793 for more information or visit www.oktoberfestelcajon.com.

Workshop - How To Landscape In Drought Conditions

The City of El Cajon's Community Development Department will be hosting a very special, and timely, workshop on how to landscape your home during this time of heightened water conservation, featuring gardening designer Scott Calhoun. The workshop will be held Tuesday, Oct. 13, in the City Council Chambers located adjacent to City Hall at 200 Civic Center Way, in El Cajon. Registration is 1 to 1:30 p.m., and the workshop is from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m.

To author and garden designer Scott Calhoun, working with drought conditions is exciting and can take gardens in new unexpected directions. Scott's presentation is not just about planting tougher plants and using more efficient irrigation methods, it's all about creating stunning beauty in harsh situations. Join Scott Calhoun for this class showcasing some of the dynamic and thrifty strategies he uses in the hottest and driest environments in the country, and get some ideas on how to apply them in your own garden. For more information on author and landscape designer Scott Calhoun, visit his website at www.zonagardens.com. For more information please call (619) 441-1741.

Taking strides toward a healthier life

The Arc of San Diego's East County Training Center announces the 4th Annual Health & Wellness Fair on Thursday, Oct. 15 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at 1374 East Lexington Avenue, in El Cajon. The fair promotes healthy living, daily exercise, stress management, good nutrition and weight control. There will be opportunities to participate in health screenings at the event, with free health literature and giveaways available to attendees. For more information call (619) 444-9417.

Animal Shelter Open House returns October 25

The ACES Foundation is holding their 3rd Annual El Cajon Animal Shelter Open House on Sunday, Oct. 25, 2009, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. The Shelter is located at 1275 North Marshall Avenue in El Cajon. They'll be holding a Halloween Pet Costume Contest, plus games, prizes, food, pet vendors, clowns, a miniature horse, a police K9 demonstration, a dog obedience class, shelter tours and a prize wheel. They'll also have adoptable pets, dog micro chipping and rabies vaccinations available. Bring a blanket for a shelter animal and receive a free hotdog. For more information please call (619) 441-1580.

*Please keep me informed of your community events by placing me on your mailing or e-mail list. If you have an event in the City of El Cajon that you would like to share, please contact Monica Zech, Public Information Officer for the City of El Cajon, via e-mail at mzech@ci.el-cajon.ca.us, or send to: Monica Zech, Public Information Officer, City of El Cajon, 200 Civic Center Way, El Cajon, CA 92020.

Lakeside Community Planning group Open Forum

A neighbor to residents living at 15192 Olde Hwy 80 reported he fears for his family and is holding the county liable for any damage done to his home and family. The neighbor explained a house set up for six handicapped people has up to 35 people staying there at times. When the county comes regarding violations they are told the people are just visiting and there are only four legitimate handicapped people living there. The noise, trash and horrible living conditions have been reported by neighbors but nothing is done said the neighbor, he wanted to find out if the Planning Group could be of any help.

Public Hearing

P-09-016/RP 09-001 Major Use Permit and Reclamation Plan for sand extraction and reclamation of 29.29 acres located at 12101 Highway 67. Board member B. Turner was excused from discussion due to conflict of interest. Kenneth Disenza, Project Engineer of Site Design Associated, gave the presentation. Four East County property owners are involved in the proposed sand mining project. The operation will continue form the Enniss Property. Disenza showed the Planning Group a map. Materials will be extracted in four phases. Based on mineral resources and biological habitat. The habitat is already disturbed. The property is zoned A70 and has a buffer along Highway 67. The operation will continue for the next 15 years even though the permit allows for 20 years.

Phase 1 will be Riparian Mitigation

Phase 2 will consist of work on the Tuner Property.

Phase 3 will be on the Shaw Property.

Phase 4 will remove the remaining habitat next to mountain thick woodland growth.

Reclamation can be done after the four phases are complete.

The project will channel water to move under the Slaughter House Creek. The project will need to provide irrigation and landscape plans for Highway 67. The question was asked about nesting bird. There are no birds nesting on the property. T. Medvitz asked when the project will begin. It is hoped the project will begin within a year. G. Barnard asked where the truck access will be. The main driveway will be on Moreno Road, south of where TEACH is located. Access will be from Vigilante and 67. There are five existing driveways on 67. The question was asked if the project will include rock crushing operation for reclamation- the answer is yes. A. Botter asked how many acres would be available from the original 29.29 acres. 18 acres will be left and 25.9 are subject to inundation, when completed 12.6 will be subject to flooding. M. Turvey remembered flooding in the area and that Dave Martin offered to channelize the area for free. Owners wanted money so the work did not happen. It was asked if there would be TIF fees. TIF fees are required when traffic is impacted so they may be available. J. Shakelford asked where the nearest house is. There are four houses on the South side of the property. Shakelford also wanted to know what the existing uses on the property. Two properties are vacant. The Turner property has equipment storage, a nursery and the TEACH facility. Shakelford wanted to know what the use will be afterwards. Answer back to A70 with agriculture, nurseries and horses. She asked how the people down stream from the channelized water will be protected. The plan is to use the 400 feet of property to bring storm water back to original condition. She also asked about future pads and access. Driveways will continue to be used, there are no plans by CALTRANS or Site Design Associates to change anything on 67.

Chariman R. Smith asked for a copy of more information.

Lakeside Chamber Of Commerce

This years Spirit of Christmas celebration will be held Saturday, December 5. The Lakeside Chamber of Commerce is seeking volunteers to be on the Spirit of Christmas Committee. Join the committee and help make this years' Spirit of Christmas celebration the best one yet.

The next committee meeting will be held Monday, Oct. 5 at 10 a.m. at the Lakeside Chamber of Commerce. If you plan to attend call the Chamber at 561-1031.

Monarch butterflies will be subject of CHIRP meeting

Just about everything you ever wondered about Monarch butterflies will be discussed at the upcoming meeting of CHIRP Garden Club on Oct. 7.

Meeting, to be held at the Crown Hills Clubhouse, will begin at 6:30 p.m., and the public is invited to attend.

Two presenters will share an abundance of information about Monarch butterflies, including life cycle basics to highlights of their migration.

Wallace Austin will focus on Monarch anatomy and trivia, and Christine Vargas will present a Powerpoint recap of her recent trip to visit the Monarchs at one of their favorite migration spots in Mexico.

"We are all going to learn something new and exciting about the beautiful and amazing Monarch butterfly," said Hilde Hinchcliff, program chairman.

The meeting is open to all and free of charge.

For additional information, visit <http://www.chirp.org> or phone 619-445-8352.

For Health's Sake

Pets provide better human health and wellness and reduce healthcare

As the North American Pet Health Insurance Association celebrates National Pet Health Insurance Month, the association shares the positive impact of pets on human healthcare.

Pet health insurance provides a financial safety net for pet owners, and often gives them the ability to provide a higher level of care to their ill or injured pets. Everyday, pet health insurance spares pet owners the excruciating decision to limit veterinary care for beloved pets, or even to euthanize them, due to economic limitations.

As pet owners consider insurance for their pets, they might think of it in the context of their own health. Research shows that humans with a puppy, kitten, dog, or cat in their home enjoy a measurable improvement in health, and in fact spend less on their own healthcare.

Documented studies on human health suggest that pet ownership bestows the following benefits:

- Reduced risk of cardiovascular disease
- Higher survival rates from heart attacks
- Significantly lower use of general practitioner services
- Reduced risk of asthma and allergic rhinitis in children exposed to pet allergens during the first year of their life

- Better physical and psychological well-being for seniors

According to the research by the Delta Society and others, there is not a significant social or economic difference between people who do or do not have a pet that adequately explains the differences in health outcome, leading to the conclusion that pet ownership itself is the primary cause of the positive benefits.

The Delta Society is a human services organization dedicated to improving people's health and well-being. The mission of Delta Society is to help lead the world in advancing human health and well-being through positive interactions with animals.

"At a time in which our society is looking for treatment alternatives to complement western medicine, research is consistently demonstrating that pets can have a profound impact on people's physical and emotional health. Delta Society has focused on this single concept since 1977. We are excited to see more healthcare professionals and other leaders embracing the fact that pets can be a cost-effective approach to improving people's health while enriching their lives," stated Lawrence Norvell, President and CEO of Delta Society.

According to NAPHIA Executive Director Loran Hickton, "As the human healthcare debate continues, some have asked, 'why provide pet insurance when so many humans do not have health coverage?' First, we know that the uncertainty of the current economy makes pet insurance critically important for the financial well-being of all pet owners. Many pet owners simply don't have the disposable income to cover emergencies or even routine pet health care, and each day, pets face economic euthanasia. In addition to financial benefits, now more than ever it is essential to share the human health benefits of pet ownership. Our pets are part of our families; they make a difference and contribute to better health and lower human healthcare costs. To people without pets this may be hard to understand, but most pet owners corroborate the research that indicates having a pet improves life and a sense of wellness and health!"

During September, NAPHIA is sponsoring a nationwide contest to select pet health insurance customers' favorite veterinary practices from over 20,000 across North America. Pet owners are posting pictures of their pets, along with a story, at the NAPHIA website. The contest highlights the care and recovery of pets for whom pet health insurance helped to provide needed care. There are prizes for the pet owner, an educational grant provided to the veterinary care provider, and a donation to the pet shelter or rescue group of the winner's choice. The National Pet Health Insurance Month contest page is http://www.naphia.org/pet_health_month.htm

Laughter is the Best Medicine

Old dogs

One day the old German Shepherd starts chasing rabbits and, before long, discovers that he's lost. Wandering about, he notices a leopard heading rapidly in his direction with the intention of having lunch.

The old German Shepherd realizes that he is in trouble. Noticing some bones on the ground close by, he immediately settles down to chew on the bones with his back to the approaching cat. Just as the leopard is about to leap, the old German Shepherd exclaims loudly, 'Boy, that was one delicious leopard! I wonder, if there are any more around here?'

Hearing this, the young leopard halts his attack in mid-strike, a look of terror comes over him and he slinks away into the trees. 'Whew!' says the leopard, 'That was close! That old German Shepherd nearly had me!'

Meanwhile, a monkey who had been watching the whole scene from a nearby tree figures he can put this knowledge to good use and trade it for protection from the leopard. So, off he goes, but the old German Shepherd sees him heading after the leopard with great speed, and figures that something must be up.

The monkey soon catches up with the leopard, spills the beans and strikes a deal for himself with the leopard.

The young leopard is furious at being made a fool of and says, 'Here, monkey, hop on my back and see what's going to happen to that conniving canine!'

Now, the old German Shepherd sees the leopard coming with the monkey on his back and thinks, 'What am I going to do now?' But instead of running, the dog sits down with his back to his attackers, pretending he hasn't seen them yet, and just when they get close enough to hear, the old German Shepherd says... 'Where's that monkey? I sent him off an hour ago to bring me another leopard!' Moral of this story... Don't mess with the old dogs... Age and skill will always overcome youth and treachery! BS and brilliance only come with age and experience.

Health... Just Common

Horse Sense

by Dr. Donald Adema

There is an infamous relatively young movie director who claims he is against capitalism but yet is developing a fortune because of the rewards of capitalism. His films utilize the spin (or to many of us the lies) that many of our younger voters find entertaining and then are lead to believing that there are pearls of truth within the plot. No deep thought or investigation to support the spin follows. Just believe it because you were entertained and it is popular. We are in trouble!

One of the offensive movies portrayed Cuba as having a better health care system. Initially I found that so outrageously false that a response was a waste of time. However, the usual rush for the new school year physicals allowed for conversations with those students heading off to college. After a few of them, I was ready to move to Chile. The medical portion of my discussion on the director's spin/lie was as follows.

"Do you like the style of medicine in this office?" "Sure Doc/Sir/Doctor/Dude/or whatever, we talked about eating and grades and staying healthy. Like you even spared me from a weird shot." (It is my most profound hope that the word like is soon dropped from Webster's!) "Good and thanks. But, are you aware that if a physician in Cuba will not refer to or perform an abortion, his or her medical license is like gone?" The blank stare that follows is a mixture of finding the critical thinking portion of the brain and then doubt and horror. Its a beginning.

Yes, this physician and many like him will have to be way under the radar or even underground if the present health care reform bill is passed. One size/one pill fits all age groups and abortion will be a desired form of birth control as it is in Cuba. It escapes me how in one breath we are heralded as having the best health care and choices in the world and in another our system is broken. Do we really want to be like every one else? The medical director of the Canadian socialized health care system is pleading that we do not. 'We must lessen not increase government control over health care choices and styles. If the capitalism that is benefiting the aforementioned movie director would be allowed to set the pace, cash prices could become quite creative. Government intervention to date has only increased costs. More on that to come. Stay tuned.

MOTOR AND SPORTS

2010 Volkswagen Jetta TDI

by Dave Stall

I have never been a big fan of diesel powered anything, well maybe except a big rig hauling down the highway; they smell, no power and they rattle like they are coming apart. Oh did I mention that they smell?

I know that statement may have been a little extreme, but when following behind 15 M-60 diesel powered military tanks for three years in the Army, one becomes a little tainted when it comes to diesel powered anything!

Then a few years back I get a call from a local North County Volkswagen dealer that had just bought 20 new/used Volkswagen Jetta diesels from out of state. (At the time California would not allow the sale of new diesel powered anything in the state except big rig diesels). He asked me to come to his dealership and test drive a new diesel Jetta.

I reluctantly made the trip North and once behind the wheel with the coaxing of the GM yelling for me to "Stand on it, and Burn Rubber, to see what she will do"! I was so impressed, 35 feet of smoking rubber and an engine that was as quiet as a gas burner. What happened?

Did someone figure out how to make a diesel powered anything really work? Yes sir, Volkswagen did and they have kept the spirit alive and today I'm driving a jet black 2010 Diesel Jetta TDI from Drew Volkswagen.

My tester is a 2.0-liter 140 horsepower inline four cylinder diesel engine with TDI technology. What is TDI? Well that is the heart of why diesel engines work as well as they do with minimum smoke and noise, but with a bucket load of torque and power with Turbo Direct Injection (TDI) is what the letters stand for and it proves to work. Check this out, 30 miles per gallon in the city and 42 miles per gallon on the open road.

This engine produces 236 pound foot of torque, front wheel drive, electro-mechanical power steering, anti-lock brakes, anti-slip regulation, electronic stabilization program, electronic differential lock all sitting on a set of 16-inch alloy wheels with 205/55/R16 all season tires.

The above package works well as a unit and for more in depth information on some of the features go to <http://www.drewvolkswagen.com> or just stop by, or call Drew Volkswagen and they will answer all questions.

This Jetta was a dream to drive, awesome air conditioning, and a great sound system, very comfortable seating in front and in the back seat. This car has great storage space in the trunk as well as in the car. It has a clean tail pipe and how good it that gives back to the environment.

Buyers can load up the Jetta to any specification desired. Start with a base model that at just $22,660.00 plus tax and license and then build up from there. Just look at the basic features one gets for the base price and this might be all that's needed to be happy. Sure there are a few options to consider like Blue Tooth, Satellite Radio an automatic transmission versus a 6-speed manual (My choice is the six speed manual) or maybe a media device that allows an I-Pod hook up.

Driving the TDI Jetta was a dream in the mountains and in the city, small enough to park, big enough to haul the family on a weekend get away.

Chargers smoke the fins

by Chuck Karaszia

The Chargers removed the Dolphins from the protected list last Sunday at a packed house at Qualcomm Stadium, when the Bolts improved their record to 2-1. This was the first time in three years with a winning record after the first three games, smoking the Miami Dolphins 23-13, a feat not accomplished by San Diego in the past 16 years of the regular-season.

The Bolts offense was again masterfully engineered by quarterback Philip Rivers (18-of-33, 303 yards). He also scored one rushing touchdown of 5-yards, only the second rushing touchdown of his NFL career. Rivers also has thrown for 739-yards in just two games.

The Chargers defense knocked out Dolphin starting quarterback Chad Pennington in the third quarter when he left the game with a right shoulder injury. He did not return.

His backup Chad Henne was mostly ineffective. He threw a costly interception to Bolts safety Eric Weddle who took it to the house on a 33-yard touchdown return sealing the victory for San Diego late in the fourth quarter.

"It was big in the situation we were in to ice the game," said the second-year safety, "I just happened to make the play. We got the win, and now it's on to Pittsburgh."

Leading up to this game were the injuries suffered by the Chargers. Already without the services of nose tackle Jamal Williams (torn triceps season-ending surgery), the Chargers inactive for this contest were center Nick Hardwick, guard Luis Vasquez, linebacker Antwan Applewhite, wide-receiver Buster Davis, DE-DT Travis

Johnson, free-safety C.J. Spillman, and most notably running back LaDainian Tomlinson.

On the second snap of the game against Miami, linebacker Shawne Merriman left the field after aggravating a groin injury he incurred in the second game of the season. He did not return.

The Chargers endured however by playing tough and smart, committing only 3 penalties. But it's obvious the Chargers are not effective in the red-zone, scoring only one touchdown in the last 11 trips this season.

Head coach Norv Turner addressed this at the post-game Sunday stating, "We're working on it. I thought we were better in the red-zone this week than last week. If you're going to be a good red-zone team you have to run the ball better than we are running it right now. Although we had some better runs, we need to continue to run it better. Obviously Philip had the big run down in there. I think we have a good understanding of what you have to do to be good in the red-zone. We have been a good red-zone team around here for a lot of years. We need to have good emphasis on that each week as we continue through. As I said I thought we were better this week, but we weren't good enough".

About the game last Sunday Coach Turner commented, "We played Miami down there last year and didn't play very well. Everybody saw the Monday night game when Miami played against Indianapolis. The one thing I can tell you about the Miami Dolphins is they're a very physical team. I knew we had to match that. We had to be more physical in terms of how we played and had to be mentally tougher."

Turner continued saying, "We didn't play the way we wanted to that first drive, but we played a lot better throughout the rest of the game. We were fortunate to cause a turnover in the first drive when they got no points. It was that knockout, drag out kind of game for a couple of quarters, and then we were able to make some plays to take advantage of the ways they were playing us."

Chargers linebacker Kevin Burnett with 12 tackles, one sack led the Bolts in tackles helping to limit the Miami "Wildcat" formation and the powerful Dolphin running attack. Limiting them not necessarily in numbers of yards, but more importantly in keeping their backs out of the end zone.

"We talked about Kevin Burnett all throughout training camp," said the Chargers head coach. "He's got real good athletic ability. I've talked a lot about our new players we have playing for us because of injuries, some changes, additions or whatever. I've seen guys like Kevin Burnett and some of the new players play better each week. That's what we have to do as a team. We just have to keep getting better and I think we got a lot better today."

About his big men in the trenches on defense, Turner commented, "Luis (Castillo) stepped up and played better than he's been playing. We got a real tough guy in Jacques Cesaire. He's battled a couple of those injuries. He's playing well. I thought Boone came in and gave us some good plays inside, some good strength. That's what we need, big men inside. That's going to help us."

The Chargers will have to play tough and smart again this Sunday.

They travel to Pittsburgh, PA to engage the defending Super Bowl Champion Steelers in a nationally televised evening game.

Business & Finance

A financial basics refresher

by Jason Alderman

Until you get in the habit, putting aside savings is never easy. But the sooner you start, the sooner you'll start seeing results. As you'll see below, when it comes to savings, time is your best friend:

The power of compounding. When you reinvest interest earned on savings accounts or other investment vehicles, the interest grows (compounds) the account's value much faster than if you withdrew it. For example, a one-time $10,000 investment earning six percent a year would grow to $17,908 in 10 years if you reinvest the interest; after 20 years it would be worth $32,071 and $57,435 after 30 years.

Regular investments. You needn't start with such a large initial investment to reap big rewards. Say you're 21, start with a zero balance, save $100 a month, earn six percent annual interest and reinvest the interest. After 10 years you'd have $16,470; $46,435 after 20 years and $100,954 after 30 years. If you retire at age 66 your account would be worth over $276,978 – all for a $100-a-month investment.

Timing is important, however. Postponing your savings by only two years would reduce your balance in 20 years to only $38,929 – more than $7,500 less. Wait five years to begin saving and your balance would drop to $29,277 in 20 years.

Tax-deferred savings. Another way to accelerate earnings is to take advantage of tax savings offered by retirement savings programs like 401(k) plans and IRAs. With a 401(k), you can contribute up to $16,500 a year (or $22,000 for those 50 and older) on a pre-tax basis. This lowers your taxable income – and therefore your taxes – and allows your account to grow tax-free until you withdraw the money at retirement.

Regular IRAs offer similar pre-tax advantages; or, you can contribute to a Roth IRA using after-tax dollars and your earnings will be completely tax-free at retirement. The annual IRA contribution limit is $5,000 ($6,000 for 50 and older).

Risk. The riskier an investment, the greater your potential gains – or losses. For example, savings accounts offer lower interest rates in exchange for minimal or no risk, whereas stocks potentially can earn double-digit investment rates over long periods of time, but at much higher risk.

Inflation. Inflation measures the rate at which goods and services increase in cost over time. If your investments earn two percent interest but the inflation rate is three percent, the net result is a one percent loss. That's why many financial experts often recommend that people with at least five to 10 years until retirement keep a portion of their savings in higher-risk investments like stocks and bonds; otherwise, it's hard to stay ahead of inflation.

Keep in mind that no matter how much interest your investments earn, if you carry forward credit card or loan balances (aside from tax-deductible mortgage interest), you'll be eating into whatever profits you might make. For tips on managing credit cards and debt, visit Practical Money Skills for Life's Credit and Debt site (www.practicalmoneyskills.com/credit).

Missionary America

Report by Dr. Luauna

As many of my readers know, I have launched Mission America, and we have been on our second Missionary Trip. For the full story you can log onto our website: www.atouchfromabove.org

Time for writing and uploading has been a bit hard. At times we have been in mountain passes, and unable to have even a phone connection. Let me start with Billings, Montana, as we drove into town on September 1, I felt a strong urge to stop find a KOA, and just to be still. Checking in and settling down for the night, not knowing why we had come to Billings, after all it was not on our schedule. God's Word is so powerful, "Many are the plans of a man, but it is the Lord who puts it all together," I felt a strong urge to call a church. We made the call and it seemed non-productive, I figured the following day we would head out. The next day, Kaweah, my daughter, started packing everything, and again I felt uneasy about leaving. This KOA was beautiful and filled with mosquitoes; we had no repellent, OUCH...!

I was praying, and thinking to myself, "Lord, why are we here?" My phone rang, it was the church secretary. I told her about Mission America and what the Lord put on our hearts, we only wanted to be a blessing to the church. I made sure she knew we are true missionaries to America. She said, "I saw your website, are you sure you didn't mean to call the big church?" The minute she said that, I knew I called the right church. I told her, "You are the right church!" I told her we were not asking for money, she said, "Why don't you come by the church and let's talk and pray." We loaded the car and headed to their church, it was less than a half a mile from our KOA and it was in an area perfect for revival. We met the secretary, Teresa, and sat around the table, and then Pastor Grove came to join us. We shared our heart and mission. He sat calmly and listened, I could tell he was a bit nervous or unsure. He was meticulous and was the type who paid attention to detail, (all his ducks in a row!) He must have stood up about four different times, getting a cup of coffee, answering a phone call. I shared, "We have our own flyers, we are His laborers, and we work to blanket your city, bring in the lost, if you allow us to have a three day meeting, we will see a harvest come in for Jesus." We talked for about an hour, as Pastor Grove's piercing green eyes looked at each of us intently, trying to figure us out, who is this group?

I know America is in GREAT need for revival, and a touch from the Holy Spirit. So many people are lost, and unsaved in America, that is why Mission America was launched. You should see all the Lord did in Billings, Montana, you can log onto our website to read the entire report including the pictures: www.atouchfromabove.org

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
PROPOSED ZONE RECLASSIFICATION

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on Tuesday, October 13, 2009, the El Cajon City Council will hold a public hearing at 7:00 p.m., in the City Council Chambers located at 200 Civic Center Way, El Cajon, CA to consider:

ZONE RECLASSIFICATION NO. 2300, as submitted by James M. Snyder, requesting to rezone property from the Residential One-Family, 6,000 sq. ft. (R-1-6) Zone to the Multiple-Family (R-3) Zone. The subject property is located at 1376 Oakdale Avenue.

The Planning Commission recommends the City Council consider approving the rezoning of the property to the Two-Family (R-2) Zone, rather than the requested R-3 Zone, per Planning Commission Resolution No. 10574, adopted September 14, 2009. If you have any questions or wish any additional information, please contact Tony Shute at (619) 441-1705 or via email at tshute@ci.el-cajon.ca.us and reference "ZR 2300" in the Subject line.

The public is invited to attend and participate in this public hearing. Please call the City Clerk's Office (619) 441 1763 if you have any questions regarding this notice of hearing. If you challenge the matter in court, you may be limited to raising only those issues you or someone else raised at the public hearing described in this notice or in written correspondence delivered to the City Clerk at, or prior to, the public hearing.

The City of El Cajon encourages the participation of disabled individuals in the services, activities, and programs provided by the City. Individuals with disabilities who require reasonable accommodation in order to participate in the City Council meetings should contact the City Clerk's Office at (619) 441 1763.

KATHIE J. RUTLEDGE, CMC, CITY CLERK OF THE CITY OF EL CAJON

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

The El Cajon City Planning Commission will hold a public hearing at 7:00 p.m., Monday, October 12, 2009 in Council Chambers, 200 Civic Center Way (formerly 200 E. Main Street), El Cajon, CA, for the following items:

Specific Plan No. 517 & Tentative Parcel Map No. 643, as submitted by Frank Andrew Piszkin, requesting alternative access other than by public street and a four-lot parcel map in the Residential Suburban, Hillside Overlay (R-S-9-H) zone. The subject property is located on the northwest corner of West Main Street and Dewane Drive, and is a vacant lot.

The City of El Cajon is endeavoring to be in total compliance with the Americans With Disabilities Act. If you require assistance or auxiliary aids in order to participate at the Planning Commission meeting, please contact the Planning Division at (619) 441-1741 as far in advance of the meetings as possible.

In case of a court challenge, you may be limited to those issues raised at the public hearing, or in written correspondence to the Commission, described in this notice.

Due to construction of the City of El Cajon's Public Safety Center, parking for Council Chambers is available on Lot #2, which is on the northwest corner of Rea Avenue and Sulzfeld Way.

Our Best Friends

The myth of the guilty dog... ask a trainer

by Susan Zyphur

Dear Readers,

One of my training associates is also a very good writer as well as a person that follows science with vigor. The following piece is one she wrote recently and I thought you would enjoy an occasional break from the typical Ask a Trainer format.

Many a pet owner has come home to find that their beloved dog has spent his day breaking one of the cardinal house rules – he has soiled the rug, destroyed a couch pillow, or strewn trash all over the house. We look at the mess our best friend has made and then look at the culprit, often speaking to him in an angry voice, or possibly with intense disappointment. “Chester, how could you? You know better than to pee in the house! BAD DOG!” Most dogs respond by looking appropriately guilty and remorseful, and we are somewhat comforted by this. “He knows he did wrong,” we think.

But, according to a new study, he doesn’t.

Dr. Alexandra Horowitz of Barnard College in New York conducted an experiment to determine whether or not dogs give us that “guilty look” because they know they have disobeyed us. In her study, 14 dogs and their owners were tested in their own living rooms using a piece of food on the floor as bait. First, the owners instructed their dogs not to eat the food (“No!”) then left the room. In half of the trials, the dogs were fed the treat by the experimenter, who remained with the dog; in the other half of the trials the treat was removed so the dog couldn’t eat it. The real test occurred when the owners returned – whether the food had been eaten or not, the owners were told the dogs had either obeyed or disobeyed. If the dogs had obeyed their owners greeted them nicely; if they hadn’t obeyed, their owners scolded them.

Guilty looks were measured by counting how many of the following behaviors the dogs showed: avoiding eye contact, lying down and rolling to the side or onto the back, dropping the tail, wagging low and quickly, holding ears down or head down, moving away from the owner, raising a paw, and licking. Dogs were much more likely to show these signs of “guilt” when their owners scolded them, even if they hadn’t disobeyed. In fact, dogs that had obeyed showed even more signs of guilt when scolded than dogs that hadn’t! These results indicate that scolding causes the guilty look, not knowledge of wrongdoing.

So, the next time you come home to find that your dog has destroyed your most expensive pair of shoes, take a deep breath before you react. Scolding him may make you feel better, but the only thing it will teach him is that you have intense and unpredictable mood swings – from his perspective you get angry or sad for no reason! Use the situation as a learning experience and think of positive ways to manage your dog’s environment that will make it more difficult to do “bad” things – invest in a crate or x-pen, provide appropriate toys and things to chew on, put a lid on the trash can, keep counters clear of food, and make sure he has the opportunity to relieve himself outside with appropriate frequency. You’ll be happier because your dog will stay out of trouble, and he’ll be happier because you’ll always have a smile for him!

Guilty dog, maybe not. New studies suggest different.

ADOPT-A-PET

Grace is a 2 year old Shepard/Lab mix, who is beautiful inside and out. Grace was turned in by her owner at no fault of her own, because we think she is just incredible. She has been great with everyone she meets, two and four legged, small and large. She is very mellow and a champ on the leash. Grace will show off her skills, like “sit”, “down”, “stay”, and “come”. Grace’s adoption fee is $150 which includes her spay, microchip, vaccinations, deworming treatment, training DVD, 1 free months of pet insurance, and a free vet visit. North County Humane Society & SPCA is located at 2905 San Luis Rey Road in Oceanside. Hours are Monday – Sunday 10am-5pm. For details call 760-757-4357 or visit www.nchumane.org.

Champ is a 1-year old Cattle Dog/Staffy mix who weighs just 32 pounds. He’s happy, friendly, loves to play with dogs, and has an endearing personality. He’s smart too! He already knows how to sit, stay, come, and can do a high-5 or a high-10 on command! You’ll never be short on smiles when you are around Champ. Call us to find out how he earned his name! He’ll do best in a home with children 12+. Champ is being fostered in a private home as part of the FOCAS (Friends of County Animal Shelters www.focas-sandiego.org) rescue program. His $150 adoption fee includes microchip, license, vaccinations, and neuter. Information: (858) 205-9974.

Little Bitsy is a 7 pound wonder. Picked as one of our Animal Care Associates favs, she is your typical little Chi...Scared at first, but just wants to sit and enjoy your company. You won’t have to spend a bunch of money on toys, because she would rather play with you. Bitsy has made friends with all of her kennel mates, but be sure to bring your dog, if you have one, to see if they hit it off. Bitsy’s adoption fee is $100 which includes his neuter, vaccinations, deworming treatment, training DVD, 1 free months of pet insurance, and a free vet visit. North County Humane Society & SPCA is located at 2905 San Luis Rey Road in Oceanside. Hours are Monday – Sunday 10 a.m.-5 p.m.. For details call (760) 757-4357 or visit www.nchumane.org. ID #44854
